17th and 18th Century Burney Collection NewspapersAbout this resource

The newspapers, pamphlets, and books gathered by the Reverend Charles Burney (1757-1817) represent the largest and most comprehensive collection of early English news media. The present digital collection, that helps chart the development of the concept of 'news' and 'newspapers' and the "free press", totals almost 1 million pages and contains approximately 1,270 titles. Many of the Burney newspapers are well known, but many pamphlets and broadsides also included have remained largely hidden. These treasures can now be searched, browsed and discovered again within Gale Digital Collections.

2

19th Century British Library Newspapers Digital ArchivesAbout this resource

British Library Newspapers is a digital archive of more than 160 national and regional British newspapers published between the mid-eighteenth and mid-twentieth centuries. The newspapers reflect regional attitudes, cultures, and political events, and provide an alternative view to the London-centric presses of the time. The collection includes high-quality digital images of the titles featured as well as searchable text. The University Libraries provides access to Parts I-IV of the collection; Part V is not available.

3

19th Century British PamphletsAbout this resource

The 19th Century British Pamphlets database is a collection of more than 26,000 significant British pamphlets from this time period. Pamphlets were an important means of public debate, covering the key political, social, technological, and environmental issues of the times. This collection, created by RLUK (Research Libraries UK), includes high-quality digital images of the pamphlets as well as searchable text.

19th Century MasterFile, 1106-1930About this resource

The 19th Century MasterFile is a collection of primary source materials from the 12th century through 1930. Included are titles in arts and literature, the sciences, humanities, law, and medicine. It offers detailed information on thousands of periodicals and includes more than 20 million documents from books, the visual arts, newspapers, and government documents. Records include a link to full-text when available.

5

19th Century U.S. NewspapersAbout this resource

The 19th Century US Newspapers database includes papers from a range of urban and rural U.S. regions, published throughout the 19th century. The collection offers full-page, digital images of the papers, as well as single articles, advertisements, and illustrations.

6

Access World News, 1885-About this resource
