

6th GERN Summer School on Challenges of Comparative Criminological Research, Ljubljana, 3 - 5 September 2018

Programme
Monday 3rd of September 2018
15.00 – 15.30	Opening session	Welcome address Dean Andrej Sotlar, University of Maribor Professor Zdravko Kačič, Rector of the University of Maribor About the Summer School Professor Gorazd Meško, University of Maribor Introduction of participants
15.30 – 16.30	Lecture	Comparative criminology - experiences from Southeastern Europe Professor Gorazd Meško, University of Maribor, Slovenia
16.30 – 16.45	Coffee break
16.45 – 18.15	Student presentations and discussion	Urška Pirnat - Forms, causes, and responses to crime in urban local communities (Comments by A. Groenemeyer, C. Gayet; participants) Elias Neiryneck - Urban Foraging: Target and location choice among graffiti writers (Comments by J. Shapland, G. Meško; participants) Joke Depraetere - #MenToo. Explaining the prevalence, consequences and risk of sexual violence victimization in adult males (Comments by G. Meško, C. Gayet; participants)
18.30 – 20.30	Social event	A dinner at...(TBA)
Tuesday 4th of September 2018
09.30 – 10.30	Lecture	Everyday life policing in France: reconnecting police's work to their public Professor Carole Gayet, Cepadip
10.30 – 10.45	Coffee break
10.45 – 12.15	Student presentations and discussion	Ruwani Fernando - How does culture impact desistance from crime? A comparative study of desistance narratives in France and England (Comments by A. Groenemeyer, G. Meško; participants) Olivia Nederlandt - The Belgian Sentence Implementation Court's case-law: between rehabilitation ideal and risk reduction? (Comments by C. Gayet, A. Groenemeyer; participants)

		Armelle Weil - Juvenile delinquency through the prism of gender (Comments by J. Shapland, G. Meško; participants) – discussion
12.15 – 13.30	Lunch
13.30 – 15.30	Student presentations and discussion	Andreja Rožnik - Situational prevention of illegal electrical and electronic waste trading (Comments by J. Shapland, C. Gayet; participants) Silvo Grčar - Peacetime activities of the armed forces as a source of threat to the environment: green criminology perspectives (Comments by J. Shapland, A. Groenemeyer; participants) Janez Juvan - A development Project Working Group - Conflict Solution Model for the Western Balkans (Comments by A. Groenemeyer, C. Gayet; participants)
15.30 – 15.45	Coffee break
15.45 – 16.45	Lecture	What is crime and what are we doing when we research crime issues? Professor Axel Gronemeyer, University of Dortmund, Germany.
16.45 – 17.45	Student presentations and discussion	Thom Snaphaan - Does environmental criminology need Big Data? (Comments by J. Shapland, G. Meško; participants) Darko Prašiček - Protection of publicly obtained information gathered by national intelligence agencies in relation with providing support to the decision-making processes of corporations, irrespective of their ownership (Comments by A. Groenemeyer, C. Gayet; participants)
Wednesday 5th of September 2018
09.00 – 11.00	Student presentations and discussion	Feys Yinthe - Practice what they preach? Attitude versus behavior in ethical decision making by police officers (Comments by J. Shapland, G. Meško; participants) João André Araújo Marques - Determining factors for the outcome of tax investigations (Comments by A. Groenemeyer, C. Gayet; participants) Fourez Graziella - Restorative justice in response to terrorism victimization and its impact on social cohesion (Comments by J. Shapland, G. Meško; participants)
11.00 – 11.15	Coffee break
11.15 – 12.15	Lecture	'Getting published' Professor Joanna Shapland, University of Sheffield, UK.
12.15 – 13.15	Lunch
13.15 – 15.00	Closing session	Discussion Instructions for publishing Summer School papers Evaluation Photo session – a group photo