The Strathprints institutional repository (<https://strathprints.strath.ac.uk>) is a digital archive of University of Strathclyde research outputs. It has been developed to disseminate open access research outputs, expose data about those outputs, and enable the management and persistent access to Strathclyde's intellectual output.

Nursing Records – Executive Summary

Jay Bradley, Angela Tulloch – Glasgow School of Art.

[A Digital Health & Care Institute (DHI) Collaboration, University of Strathclyde]

There are a number of challenges and opportunities around the way nursing records are stored, accessed and shared. This project aims to consider new ways of keeping nursing records that are accessible and valuable with the potential to save nurses' time and improve the quality of nursing care in Scotland.
