Child Participation Advocacy Tool

This tool is a quick reference guide for practitioners working in child protection in Ireland seeking to use international law in advocating for children's rights in domestic courts. More specifically, it provides an overview of children's rights sources which can be drawn upon to argue for the participation of children in care in court proceedings. Utilising these sources of law can also bolster submissions in court, thereby improving decisions for children.

LAW European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR)

- RATIFICATION Ratified by Ireland in 1953. The European Convention on Human Rights Act was enacted in 2003. (See, in particular, S. 2: duty on courts to interpret and apply domestic law (e.g. Child Care Act 1991) in a manner compatible with the ECHR; S. 3: duty on organs of the state (e.g. Tusla, HSE) to perform their functions in a manner compliant with ECHR; S. 4: judicial notice must be taken by the courts of the ECHR; S. 5: declarations of incompatibility).
 - ARTICLES Article 6 (right to a fair trial); Article 8 (right to private and family life).
- RELEVANT CASE LAW 'The Hudoc database provides access to the case-law of the Court (Grand Chamber, Chamber and Committee judgments and decisions, communicated cases, advisory opinions and legal summaries from the Case-Law Information Note), the European Commission of Human Rights (decisions and reports) and the Committee of Ministers (resolutions)'. Some cases of specific relevance:

M. and M. v. Croatia (No. 10161/13), Judgment of 03.12.15 (hearing a child in a disputed custody case); N.TS. And Others v. Georgia (No. 71776/12), Judgment of 02/05/2016 (role of the GAL in a disputed custody case); C v. Finland (No. 18249/02), Judgment of 09.05.2006 (weight attached to a child's views in a disputed custody and contact case), Sahin v. Germany (No. 30943/96), Judgment of 08.07.2003 (hearing a child in a disputed contact case); Sommerfeld v. Germany (No. 31871/96), Judgment of 08.07.2003 (expert evidence in a disputed contact case).

Relevant Irish cases that refer to the ECHR: E.E. v. The Child and Family Agency [2016] IEHC 777 (right to fair procedures); Child and Family Agency v. O. [2016] IEHC 335 (review of special care); F.G. v. The Child and Family Agency & Ors. [2016] IEHC 156 (contact rights with children in care).
