Fast Facts: CSSW Online Campus Quality

1 ONLY TOP-3 SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK WITH A FULLY ONLINE MSW PROGRAM

Of the 3 highest ranked schools of social work, only Columbia has a fully online MSW program.

3 SOCIAL WORKERS ON EACH INSTRUCTIONAL TEAM

The only online MSW program with three MSW-degree holding professionals on each instructional team: instructor, associate (TA), and live support specialist. Each of these professionals completes rigorous training prior to working on online courses.

1 ONLY ONLINE SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM WITH SOCIAL WORKERS AS DEDICATED TECH SUPPORT

The only online MSW program with live support specialists for each course, who attend each weekly class session to support students and instructors. They are CSSW alumni who took CSSW online courses as students.

1 ONE SCHOOL

Online students can take residential courses and vice versa because our online and residential programs are integrated, unlike programs that keep online and residential students separate.

12 MAX ONLINE STUDENTS PER ADVISOR

The Office of Advising supports students' graduate success. Our advising model incorporates academic and field advising. For the online program, advisors are assigned no more than 12 students. Academic and field advising is individualized -- advisors meet with students every semester individually and in seminars, and they visit each student's field agency. Advisors support students, field instructors, and academic instructors. They approach students' educations from a holistic perspective, considering academics, field education, and life issues that may impact students' graduate school performance.

2 FIELD PLACEMENTS

CSSW students complete two field placements for a breadth of experience: a foundation year field placement and an advanced year field placement.

2 OFFICES DEDICATED TO DEVELOPING PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

Online students have full access to CSSW's Writing Center and Office of Career and Leadership Development through individual online appointments and web-based events. These offices are dedicated exclusively to CSSW.

29 CAMPUS EVENTS LIVE-STREAMED

Online students can access on-campus activities via live-stream, with 29 live-streamed events offered in the academic year 2017-18.

Many OPPORTUNITIES TO PARTICIPATE IN CAMPUS LIFE

Online students have many opportunities to participate in CSSW student activities, including Community Day, Self-Care Day, student caucuses, and as editors/authors for the Columbia Social Work Review.

Award-Winning Institute on Pedagogy and Technology for Online Courses

Successfully completed

151 participants have passed in the first four cohorts, and they have gone on to lead about 100 online courses.

New award to be announced in late May 2019

Institute graduates have joined from 31 US states + Canada and India

Participants may earn CEUs or use this language for CVs/resumes: Five-week, 25-hour intensive post-Master's online institute with weekly synchronous classes and asynchronous homework, covering the design and delivery of engaging online courses that embody social work values, including instructor presence, community building, interactivity in live online class sessions, inclusiveness, universal design for learning, and the basic mechanics of Canvas and Adobe Connect.

At the end of every Institute, we survey participants to request their feedback. Average scores out of 10 among online instructors are as follows:

Participant feedback survey at the end of the Institute	On a scale of one to ten, how would you rate the overall quality of this Institute?	On a scale of one to ten, how likely are you to use the skills and information you gained from this Institute?	On a scale of one to ten, how well did this Institute prepare you to become an online educator?
Fall 2017	9.87	9.87	9.75
Summer 2018	9.60	9.90	9.40
Fall 2018	9.78	10	9.57

"The Institute set a golden standard for online education. The live sessions, along with the assignments, modeled holistic learning opportunities and effective teaching strategies. It was incredibly well-rounded and of high quality!" - Pedagogy Institute graduate (Fall 2017)

Community agreements are key

Monday Community Agreements - Fall 2018

- kind responses even during struggles or disagreements // Kindness
- assume the best intentions // remembering we're all tired from a long day, not being judgmental or snippy // elicit and ask for feedback without assuming it is negative // Intention vs. Impact
- Being honest
- Listen to learn and understand
- reflect before responding // practice critical reflection :)
- Confidentiality
- Using preferred pronouns when applicable.
- asking questions rather than making assumptions // Ask clarifying questions (rather than assume or jump to a conclusion)
- Take Risks
- Flow in/flow out // one person speaks at a time
- Being respectful and patient as we all learn how to navigate the technology // Patience // ask for help when you need rather than disengaging // be patient
- using clear and straight forward language // using non-gendered terms // avoid big words or buzz words that don't really mean anything and don't nec convey what we are really trying to say
- Keep your mic muted unless otherwise noted
- Recognize the expertise in the group // creating an environment where we agree to be open about what we know, and what we don't know // Speak from your own experience
- Stay engaged
- say ouch (then educate the group) if something is offensive and oops as a way of apologizing
- Practice self care // take the self care break, you need it!
- address power dynamics as best we can
- Forgive typos in the chat
- using the icons (applause, smile, turtle and rabbit) regularly

Thursday Community Agreements - Fall 2018

- Use I statements
- agree to disagree
- Active Listening // Listen Attentively // reflective listening // listen to understand not form your response // One mic
- Respect // Respectful responses // respect others opinions // To respect others // Respect opinions and each other // to be aware of tone and language = respect // respect is knowing that your truth isn't the only one // watch the language in chat or tone of message during chat // Language and tone // For me respect means getting curious about different opinions; not judgemental // Respect is also to encourage others to express their views
- be open minded // Be open minded
- Remember we all come in at different levels of knowledge
- Remain professional
- mute your microphone
- Step up step back
- Be aware of assumptions // clear statements without judgement or bias // acknowledge microaggressions // Clarify your statements, you can be direct without appearing dismissive or short
- constructive feedback
- Own our own statements/opinions if challenged. Take responsibility for what we say in an open-minded way. Be willing to be challenged
- Be mindful
- Check your ego
- Affirm differing perspectives // No judgement // Be supportive // encourage one another
- Assume the best of others
- Do not use ALL CAPS it can be taken as yelling // avoid caps that can be understood as yelling
- Be present
- apologize if you hurt or offend someone
- There is enough space for us all to share this platform. Let's have FUN while learning!
- ask questions, even if you feel like it is a dumb question, others may be wondering the same thing
- Be flexible

Friday Community Agreements - Fall 2018

Lobby Lip Sync Battle – Columbia’s Fight Song

Roar, Lion, Roar!
-written by Corey Ford (CC '23)

Lyrics:

Roar, Lion, Roar
And wake the echoes of the Hudson Valley!
Fight on to victory evermore
While the sons of Knickerbocker rally 'round
Columbia! Columbia!
Shouting her name forever!
Roar, Lion, Roar!
For Alma Mater on the Hudson Shore!

Participant feedback

- “I found the Institute to be of highest quality. Matthea and the rest of the instructional team (and Online Campus dept) are very informative, supportive, and extremely helpful in the process of learning a monumental skill of teaching online (which can be a bit overwhelming at first as a novice, myself!). They not only were teaching a class, but truly encouraging of building a community amongst all the students. Despite all of us being in different locations, I really felt the ‘connection’ amongst us all that we were all learning and developing online teaching skills with each other.”
- “I thought the quality of the Institute was exceptional. It was extremely organized, the educational team was responsive to email questions, and Matthea seems like an expert in the realm of online education. The live sessions were carried out so seamlessly.... I feel much more equipped to enter this sphere. Thank you!”
- “Definitely a model for how all online courses should be conducted.”
- “The quality of this course was so much higher than I expected. Before enrolling in this institute, I was skeptical that an online class could be as engaging and rigorous as a residential one, but the past several weeks have taught me that they may be even more demanding.”

For more participant impressions, go to Stephen Cummings & Melissa Thompson’s session tomorrow morning! (April 11 @9am, Jones Room, 3rd floor): Teacher as Student: Developing empathy in an online pedagogical course.

Instructor perspective: Johanna Creswell Báez

- The Institute supports social work educators in feeling comfortable and proficient with technology and online pedagogy
- Supports social work educators in online teaching best practices:
 - Building community and interpersonal relationships between the instructor and students and between students (Secret, Bentley, & Kadolph, 2016)
 - Focus on social presence and authentic connection with students to support communication (Bentley, Secret, & Cummings, 2015; Rapp-McCall & Anyikwa, 2016)
 - Effective engagement of students, including using a range of technology tools (Farrel et al., 2018; Hibbert, Kerr, Garber, & Marquart, 2016; Levin, Whitsett, & Wood, 2013)
 - Promotion of instructor immediacy that requires frequent and purposeful interactions with students to support interactivity (Marquart et al., 2016)
- Another perspective: "The instructional team first creates a vibrant, welcoming online learning community that reflects what is expected for our students. The aptly titled training offers a blend of pedagogical/andragogical exploration along with experiential training in the use of the online classroom and the learning management system. As online instructors, we were also challenged to create learning environments that are inclusive of all learning styles, communication styles, and technical abilities through the use of tools including (but certainly not limited to) breakout rooms/discussions, polls, live chats and live note-taking." - Dawn E. Shedrick, Instructor

Associate perspective: Kristin Garay

- Build empathy for the online student experience
- Gain hands-on practice with the both the Learning Management System (Canvas) and the web conferencing platform (Adobe Connect) used in online classes.
- Course activities and assignments require students to actively engage in planning to support a course. For example:
 - Creating a weekly schedule
 - Composing and sending a welcome announcement in Canvas
 - Create a high quality on-camera image by properly setting up lighting, webcam, and background
 - Create an assignment, a quiz, and a discussion board in Canvas
 - Contact Canvas support with a question

Administrator perspective: Rebecca Y. Chung

- “For me, the Pedagogy Institute set the standard for online education. Every week also modeled holistic learning opportunities and effective leadership strategies that I was immediately able to apply in my role at CSSW. All that I've learned -- from the readings, discussions, assignments to live sessions -- has equipped me with a wealth of knowledge and relevant skills that I still apply to this day. It was incredibly well-rounded and of high quality, and I think everyone should attend. I walked out of it feeling challenged and inspired to think critically about the impact I have as an administrator working for an online program.”
- Another perspective: “I participated in the Institute in fall 2018 to learn about effective strategies and use of tools for engaging students online. The Institute reshaped my perception of online education. I was thoroughly impressed with how the course explained and underlined the ongoing role of pedagogy in a way that resonated with me as someone who had no prior instructing experience. It provided me with the opportunity to learn about and experiment with the different tools that can be used to create high quality and engaging educational content.”
