This Letter was published online on 5 September 2013 with an error in the caption to Fig. 4. The fourth sentence in the caption should read as “(a) The atom positions of both Cu layers at a step edge (the grid of the upper Cu layer is continued as a dashed grid on the lower layer) determine the hcp sites (triangles pointing up, marked blue) and fcc sites (triangles pointing down, marked red).” The caption has been corrected as of 13 March 2014. The caption is incorrect in the printed version of the journal.
