Perry Resigns As O.N.C. Registrar After Five Years of Service

DR. RALPH E. PERRY

After the second-semester enrollment at Olivet College, Dr. Ralph E. Perry will vacate his position as the college registrar to become pastor of the Hammond, Indiana, First Church of the Nazarene.

Dr. Perry announced his resignation in the latter part of December and preached his first message at the new pastorate December 28. He succeeds the Rev. Lester Zimmerman, who is now pastor in Marion, Ohio.

There has been no successor named to fill the vacant post in the administration as yet.

The Olivet registrar reports that he will have approximately 300 church members at Hammond and will preach to about 350 in his Sunday morning services.

A graduate of Olivet, Perry received his Th. B. degree from here in 1939 and his A. B. in philosophy in 1941. He earned his M. A. in history from the University of Illinois in 1942 and just last spring received the Ph. D. degree in education from Bradley University.

In 1948 Perry came to Olivet to assume the duties of registrar and also became chairman of the history department.

Annual Bible School Begins 12th Series

A class for teachers and directors of vacation Bible schools in the Greater Kankakee area and for Olivet students sponsored annually by the College Church began at 8:15 P. M. last Wednesday in room 307 of Burke Hall.

This is the 12th year for the classes and they always have been taught by this year's instructor, Mrs. Boneita P. Marquart.

The theme of the 1953 lectures will be "Creative Activities For Children in the Church." It is the first time this subject has been featured since 1947, because the theme rotates from year to year.

The class will be held each Wednesday night until April 29th, when the fifth annual vacation Bible school workshop will be held for teachers in surrounding states, including Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Iowa, Missouri, and Wisconsin.

All exhibits and demonstrations featured in this workshop will be in charge of students in the class taught by Mrs. Marquart.

Any person, student or otherwise, interested in enrolling in the class may still do so by attending the session next Wednesday. A $1.00 registration fee will be charged.

In 1951 he ceased acting as the history department chairman and took over the leadership in the department of education.

Added to these duties, he has been editor of the "Collegian," official quarterly publication of the college, since 1948.

While a student at Olivet, Perry was president of the student council during his fourth year and was vice-president of his senior class.

He has been elected to Phi Delta Lambda, national honor society of Naz-

O. N. C. Youth Revival To Begin January 31

NINE STUDENT PREACHERS TO SPEAK NIGHTLY AND IN CHAPEL

Nine Spirit-filled Olivet College students will be featured as speakers in the annual "youth-week" revival slated for Saturday, January 31, through Wednesday, February 4.

This will be the College Church's part in the keeping of national "youth week" which is commemorated by protestant churches the world over.

The speakers were selected by the College Church NYPS president and pastor and every college class and the Bible-school is represented among the nine preachers.

Slated to begin on a Saturday night, two services will follow on Sunday in the regular church meetings and two services will be held Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. The morning revival gathering will be during the chapel hour and the evening service will be at 7 o'clock during the last three days.

In the order which they will speak, the preachers are Jerry Green, student body president; Gordon Dawes, Oral Cooper, Jim Ingalls, prayer band leader; Millard Reed, Harold Platter, Marshall Smart, Dave Craig, and Walter Loftice.

Taking charge of the music during the five-day period of spiritual refreshing will be Mrs. Marion Scheckler and Dick Neiderhiser.

The Rev. L. Guy Nees, pastor, and Harold Curl, NYPS president, will direct the preliminaries of the services.

OLIVET SYMPHONY TO GIVE FIRST CONCERT OF YEAR

The Olivet Symphony Orchestra, composed of 38 players, under the direction of Dr. Walter B. Larsen, will present its first concert of the year on Friday morning, February 6, during the chapel hour, thus making the program available to a greater percentage of the students.

Featured soloists with the orchestra will be Prof. Gerald Greenlee, tenor, and Harlow Hopkins, clarinetist.

Nees Impresses And Is Impressed

When the Rev. L. Guy Nees became the pastor of Olivet's College Church, Dec. 14, his first impression on the group was very favorable. And since that time he has become liked even more.

His friendly attitude has been appreciated and he already has many friends on the campus. Deep spiritual qualities have been found in the Rev. Nees and his family and they are contributing to the religious life of the students and faculty.

Since the new pastor has struck our fancy so much the Glimmerglass asked him for a statement on his early impressions of the college, and the feeling of good-will seems to be mutual. Here is Mr. Nees' statement:

"I have been favorably impressed with the spiritual life of the Olivet College faculty and students. Although the professors are of a high caliber educationally, they have a deep spiritual interest and concern.

"The students, alert and typically 20th century in many ways, yet have a sincere desire to know and follow the WILL OF GOD."

Revival Dates Set

Dates for the revivals during the second semester are the youth services, January 31-February 4, and the spring revival, March 22-29.

If we have the refreshing meetings which God can give us if we let Him, all our problems, personal and group, will be solved.

Group Singing Is Held

A singspiration was held in Kelley Prayer Chapel last Sunday night at 9:30 o'clock with Bob Reich and Mickey McAllister in charge of the musical program. It was sponsored by the NYPS and plans call for future Sunday night sings, according to President Harold Curl.

Bible Offering Is Taken

Bible-Sunday was featured at the College Church last Sunday and approximately a $60 offering was given to the American Bible Society.

Students Active In Midwest

While the "youth-week" revival services are being held at Olivet many of the preachers and singers on the campus will be helping churches throughout the Midwest commemorate the national protestant youth week. Let us pray that all students will be a blessing wherever they may serve.

Greetings From The Byrons

This column's owner recently received a letter from Dr. Lloyd B. Byron, former pastor of the College Church, and some of his greetings probably should be passed on to the students and faculty. Here are some quotes from the epistle.

"I shall never forget the wonderful years God gave me (at Olivet), with the privilege of knowing you grand young people, of ministering there, and of working with the whole group.

"Concerning our work down here (on the North Carolina District), we are thrilled by it. I have kept on the go rather consistently, and every contact with my pastors and my churches and my opportunity thrills me as well as burdens me. This is a wonderful state, far beyond my dreams. We have a grand set of preachers and we have some of the best cities without a church that can be found anywhere, and our people know we must be placing churches in those cities. They are back of the home missionary program.

"We are living in Charlotte, a bustling, alert, aggressive city that is modern in every respect, and growing daily. The people have been wonderful to us; and all we can say is, 'God is good.' Our opportunities at Olivet were so challenging, and my work so satisfying that nothing could have taken me away but the call of God. I answered His call 'not knowing,' but the glorious surprises He has for me in this work to which He called me are beyond my merit.

"Please give my regards to my many friends who may say a word or two about me. I wish I could write to them all, but I put hours at my desk as it is . . . Mrs. Byron joins me in greeting our friends at Olivet." Signed: Sincerely yours, Lloyd B. Byron.

Musical Glimmers

From Goodwin

By Anita Richards

The date for the first concert of the Olivet Symphony Orchestra has been changed to February 6, at 11:30, in Howe Chapel. Featured soloists with the orchestra will be Prof. Gerald Greenlee, tenor, and Harlow Hopkins, clarinetist.

Due to the tremendous demand for seats at the afternoon performance of Handel's "Messiah" on December 14, the performance was repeated in the evening. In spite of inclement weather both concerts were presented to capacity audiences at the First Methodist Church. Both the Orpheus Choir and the soloists did an excellent piece of work in their presentation of the oratorio.

Prof. Gerald Greenlee sang the tenor role in "Messiah" presented by the choir of Fort Wayne Bible Institute on December 14. The soprano soloist for the occasion was Miss Vivian Buettner of Detroit, Michigan, former student at Olivet.

Prof. Kenneth Bade presented an organ recital on Sunday evening, January 11, in the Evangelical United Brethren Church of Zoar, Illinois. The occasion was the dedication of a new Baldwin organ installation.

Rehearsals have begun on Mendelssohn's oratorio, "Elijah," which will be presented by the combined Orpheus and Chancel Choirs on May 9, in the Kankakee High School Auditorium. The title role of Elijah will be sung by Prof. Bruce Foote, well-known baritone and member of the faculty of the University of Illinois School of Music. Tenor soloist will be Prof. Greenlee and Prof. Naomi Larsen will sing the contralto solos. Accompanists will be Prof. Kenneth Bade, organist, and Harriet Boughan, pianist.

Editorial...

Recently on the campus of Olivet Nazarene College a few of the difficulties with which we have been confronted have reached an apex of complexity. Recent activities engaged in by a few students have reflected little or no respect for Olivet, the people who make Olivet a reality, and for their fellow students.

There is, however, a large group of students on the campus who are quite distressed about the disorderly conduct of the recent past. Some have been talking about it while others have done nothing at all. Doing nothing is the lesser of the two evils, since in many cases the communication of "hear-say" is simply magnification of the issue.

Then what can a student do when complications arise and he wishes to voice his opinion in such a way that it might be recognized?

At the beginning of the year each class selected one person to represent its class members in the student council. A short time later there were elected from the entire student body four more representatives at large. The responsibility of a council member is not merely to reflect his own ideas but also to mirror the views and opinions of the students he represents.

If then for any reason you are dissatisfied with current events on the campus, it is your duty to contact your council representative so that the representative may present to the council a cross-section of student sentiment. By merely voicing your opinion to your council representative you could be instrumental in the adoption of new policies by the executive officers of the school.

Perhaps it would be timely to notice a famous statement made by Croce, which contains a power-packed truth. "A capacity for thinking is of little value unless it is accompanied by a capacity for action." May our thinking be guided by Christian principles, and once we recognize the right road to travel may our action be immediate and without hesitance.

Let's remember that when we say nothing to our representatives we automatically place our stamp of approval on current happenings taking place on the campus.

When your work speaks for itself, don't interrupt it.

Student Body President Appoints Campus Improvement's Committee

Student body president, Gerald Green, recently appointed a committee for campus improvements which consists of Don Durick, chairman; Harold Curl, Don Carpenter, and Marilyn Starr.

Chairman Durick has announced that the proposed motto for the committee's campus improvement program, to be enthusiastically launched in the near future, is "let's cooperate."

The improvements committee is concentrating its efforts at present on five proposals but is giving due consideration to other subordinate as well as long range plans. The following will receive immediate action from the committee: 1—the purchasing of waste cans by organizations and classes to improve the general appearance of the campus; 2—replacing and repairing campus signs as well as increasing the number of ONC signs in the Kankakee area; 3—obtaining a new flag and the playing of taps just before lowering the flag each Friday evening; 4—placing limitations on walking over grassy areas; 5—establishing a system whereby students can direct their ideas to the campus improvements committee.

A prominent senior on the campus, a leader in many student activities, and now spear-heading a drive for campus improvements, Don Durick says, "The ONC campus will improve only as the students realize a genuine desire for campus improvement and then fully endorse our motto, 'let's cooperate,' in thought, word, and deed."

Public School Art Class Displays Exhibit

An exhibit by the public school art class of Olivet College was put on display at 8 p. m. last Monday in Burke Hall parlor on the campus.

Under the direction of Mrs. LeRoy Brown, the teacher, the students placed on exhibit their various semester projects to be viewed by the public Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of last week from 8 p. m. to 10 o'clock.

The theme for the exhibition was "trees" and it was worked into a complete study unit for the seventh grade level work.

DR. LEONARD SPANGENBERG

Dr. Leonard Spangenberg, vice-president of Babson Statistical Service of Boston, Massachusetts, will be the main speaker for the second annual Nazarene Businessmen's Conference, which is to be held at the college January 29-30.

The conference will serve in giving Nazarene businessmen an opportunity to exchange business information and to present principles concerning business to the business students of Olivet. In addition the conference will afford ONC students an opportunity to meet the Nazarene businessmen.

Dr. Spangenberg will speak to the Kankakee Chamber of Commerce on the evening of January 29. On January 30 he will give a chapel address — "Boom or Bust." A dinner for the Nazarene businessmen, their wives, and business students of Olivet will be held in Miller Dining Hall the evening of January 30, after which Dr. Spangenberg will speak on the subject "Minding The Lord's Money."

Several prominent Nazarene businessmen will give short talks during the conference.

Dr. Spangenberg is a trustee of Eastern Nazarene College and an alumnus of Olivet Nazarene College.

South Korean Students Fight Hard To Retain Opportunity for Higher Learning

World Student Service Fund, with the cooperation of CARE, seeks to supply the universities and colleges of Korea with food and clothing to help students and professors withstand the rigors of the severe Korean winter. The WUS Committee in Korea informs us that they are ready to accept transmissions. The need is urgent and help must be forthcoming now.

With the exception of Severance Medical College, which has about 120 students, no Korean universities remain open in the Seoul area. Seoul has been "battle ground" three times during the Korean war, and the city has been bombed many times. About two-thirds of Severance Medical College, including the out-patient building, the maternity and private patients' wing, three residences for nurses, the auditorium, the main classroom building, several foreign-style residences, and twenty Korean homes around the Medical College, have been reduced to ruins. The remaining buildings have been damaged and practically all equipment has been lost.

The efforts of personnel at Severance is typical of the ways in which Koreans are carrying on — the out-patient clinic reopened in November of last year and the hospital in April of this year. Bassinets and cots were salvaged from the ruins and beds were added by UNCACK, so that the hospital has a bed capacity of 66 as compared with the pre-war figure of 150. Classes were resumed in June.

The Ministry of Education in Korea has encouraged all colleges and universities to reopen and carry on their work — some have tried to hold classes under a merger plan. All suffer from the cold, from buildings without heat or glass in the windows, from generally inadequate facilities. Food is so scarce that no colleges can maintain residences.

Contributions for CARE food and textile parcels can be sent either to World Student Service Fund, 20 West 40th Street, New York 18, N. Y., or to CARE, 20 Broad Street, New York 5, N. Y.

GIBSON LECTURES . . .

The sixteenth in the annual series of Gibson lectures will be given February 9-13, by Dr. C. A. Gibson, superintendent of the Wisconsin District.

These lectures are sponsored by the Practical Theological department of which Professor Lunsford is chairman. Although especially for the students of Pastoral Theology and Church Polity, they are also open to all who wish to attend.

Open House To Be Co-Sponsored By W.R.A.-M.D.A.

February 4 will mark the annual event of "open house" on the Olivet Nazarene College campus, which is to be co-sponsored by the Women's Residence Association and the Men's Dormitory Association.

Miss Mildred Booth, chairman of the W.R.A., has announced that from 9 P. M. to 11 P. M. guided tours on the campus will be available, after which refreshments will be served.

Along with other traditions of "open house" day will be the presentation of awards for the best looking rooms. Prize ribbons will be given to rooms on each floor of both dorms. Judging the eligibility of rooms for awards will be representatives of the Kankakee community, the educational zone, and the personnel of the college. The public is invited.

Introducing Olivet's Assistant Registrar

One of the lesser known but more efficient members of the administrative staff here at the college is Mrs. Jean W. Olson, who fills the position of Assistant Registrar. She makes her home in Bourbonnais, and has one daughter, Sally, who at the present is taking college work, and who is well known here on the campus.

Mrs. Olson was born in Harvey, Illinois, where she has lived all of her life. She took some work at Thornton Junior College prior to a four-year affiliation with Thornton Township High School, where she was Registrar for a year and a half.

Junior Church work, Sunday School work, and all types of church work, activity in other fields of service occupies Mrs. Olson's time. Sundays frequently find her at her home church in Harvey.

ONC students extend to Mrs. Olson a warm gratitude for the kindness and helpfulness she has shown to us in her service as our Assistant Registrar at Olivet.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wynn of Culver, Indiana, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann, to J. Bryce Bigley, son of John F. Bigley also of Culver, Indiana. Ann is a senior at Olivet Nazarene College. Bryce is a senior at Purdue University.

ATTENTION

This is old news for Olivet
 It's happened here before,
 But we'll give you this announcement
 Just one time more.

The boys, they say they lost a buddy,
 The girls they lost a friend,
 This bit of special interest
 To you we'll gladly send.

So if it's news you crave—and

SPORTS IN REVIEW

DOTS by Dave

The mighty blue wave Trojans retained their undefeated slate January 9 by outscrapping a stubborn Spartan crew, 76-63, before a howling throng in Birchard Gym.

It marked the third win in a row this season for Coach Cal Johnson's Trojans, and their eleventh in consecutive fashion under his tutelage in the past two seasons.

The Spartans gave the Trojans quite a scare in the midway portion of the game when they crept to within three points of the men in Blue at half-time. Then, they caught fire after the intermission and sped away with a 42-39 lead before Coach Johnson finally got his five assembled.

Jay Arledge, Bud Johnston, and Jack Little collaborated to punch the Trojans back into a 53-45 margin as the third quarter came to a halt.

From here onward, the Trojans won going away.

Jack Little was top scorer for the winners with 16 tallies as Jerry Petrie and Jay Arledge each hit for 13. Tom Patchett and Dave Brown of the Spartans each hit 12 as did Bud Johnston of the Trojans.

In the girls game, the Trojans snapped a 26-game loss streak by subduing a fighting Spartan five, 34-33. Ruth Peters hit a bunny shot 15 seconds before the game ended to cinch the victory. Jackie Spencer hit 19 points for the losers; Peters and teammate, Bev Hickler hit 10 apiece for the Trojans.

Marilyn

A new year has arrived since the last time we discussed the girls' sports, so let's wipe the slate clean by reviewing the three games played in December before Christmas vacation.

On December 5th the Spartans and Trojans met for the first time this season. The score was tied at the end of the first quarter, but the girls in green sped ahead to take the lead in the second quarter and maintained it the rest of the game. The final score was 36-24. Spartans' high scorer was Jackie Spencer, who hit the basket for 21 points. Beverly Hickler headed the Blues' scoring attack with 9 points. Margaret Smith was a star on the Trojan defensive and recognition should also go to Donna Hay and Marjorie DeBooy, Spartan guards.

The next Friday night found the Blues battling with the Indians this time. This game brought some new players to the spotlight. Barbara Strong really rolled up the points and was especially good in making close shots for the Indians. She made 22 points and was the high scorer for the game. Some other new, but good, players were Barbara Larsen and Nadine Ripper, Red guards. The Trojans' Hickler threw the ball through the loop for a total of 15 points. Attention ought to be given to Margaret Combs and Orlaine Slade, a couple of scrappy Blue guards.

The night before vacation the Reds and Greens met for the second time. Again the Spartans were defeated with a score of 27 to the Indians 45. In the first quarter the girls in Green were ahead by a small margin, 11-9, but the Squaws moved in the next quarter taking the lead and the game. For the Indians it looked as if everyone hit — Lora Hiatt had 15 points, Strickler 15, and Strong 12. Again Spencer was high scorer for the Greens and for the game with 20 points. Ripper and Lena Green, Indian guard, played a good game, holding their opponents down to a low score, while Joyce Millam and Frances Cypert were not to be outdone in their job of rebounding and defensive work for the Spartans.

Now let's take a look at the first game of 1953 at Olivet. This time the Trojans and Spartans played with the outcome a first victory for the Blues in two or three seasons. The score was 11-8, 23-14, and in the third quarter the Spartans gained 10 points to the Blues' 4. The final score was 34-33 in favor of the Trojans. Hickler shared scoring honors with Ruth Peters, both having five baskets each. Ardith Hunt, another Trojan, was a close second with 9 points. The Blues really came up to the front in the girls' basketball picture with this game. Smith and Margaret Combs played a good defensive game and all of the Trojans were good at rebounding. For the Spartans Spencer rolled up 19 points, while Vera Hendricker made the net swish for 10.

I Wonder!

The difference between freshmen and sophomores is that when a professor enters a freshman class and says "Good morning," the group answers him. When he enters a sophomore class and says, "Good morning," the grade-conscious students write it in their notes.

What If—

Margaret were brushes instead of Combs?

Noah were credit instead of Cash?

Don were a bat instead of Ball?

Marilyn were a hershey instead of a Clark?

Pudge were a drummer instead of a Fisher?

Millie were a counter instead of a Booth?

Pat were a doe instead of a Buck?

Harold were straight and not a Curl?

Paul were a pike—not a Haering?

Etta Mae were a Chevie and not a Ford?

Vic were a Red Cross blood Doner?

Fred had a Fortune?

Tom were Short?

Bob were Small?

PANeful Mistake

The new girls' dorm at Alabama Tech. was complete in every detail except one. The architects used those windows that one can see out of but outsiders can't see in through; and the carpenters got a few of them in backwards by mistake. In but a short while, a very short while, the error was corrected.

Why Yes!

ONC wouldn't be ONC without:

Boys hanging around the girls' dorm.

Boys hanging around the girls.

Boys hanging around.

Boys hanging.

Boys!

Janie Co-ed and Campus Joe still stroll across campus—to study—to the Nook, or just out walking. As far as college kids are concerned spring has no priority on a young man's fancy. In even the coldest of weather you can see them out. Maybe they are the couple who met in English class, during twirp week, or some of the old standbys who met during orientation week—but, no matter where you turn, they are sure to be there. They linger near the dorm until Pop Hazzard's keys sound the curfew—and then meet again before chapel. Assignments come, profs give tests, still it goes on. They break up, they make up, some eventually marry, but you'll always find 'em. And what would you do without them—it's love at Olivet!

Ummmmmm . . .

Professor Woodruff: "Why are you late?"

Student: "Class started before I got here!"

Overheard

Boy: "Will you go steady with me, honey?"

Girl: "No, but I'll always admire your taste."

Perry Resigns As O. N. C. Registrar

arene colleges, and in 1952 was named to Phi Delta Kappa, national honorary society in education, by the Bradley U. chapter.

His past experience as a pastor includes churches at Tuscola, Freeport, and Argo, Illinois.

On the humorous side, Dr. Perry likes to tell how he wooed his wife, the former Lorene Parrott. At the time her father, A. L. Parrott, was president of Olivet, the registrar says that, "Instead of sitting in a college dorm parlor I used the college president's parlor."

"One time," he tells, "I stayed at the president's home too long and got locked out of the dorm, of which I was a monitor."

Mrs. Perry has been serving as chairman of the children's piano department and she will resign that job, also.
