Board of Trustees Votes To Create New Office

New Dorm A Possibility

Upon recommendation of Dr. Harold W. Reed, Olivet's President, and approval by the Board of Trustees, a new office has been created—that of Assistant to the President in Charge of Financial Development, it has been announced by President Reed.

Although this office has not yet been filled, Dr. Reed states that a certain man has been offered a contract and if and when he accepts it will be announced to the students.

This office has been created in conjunction with a 25 year master plan for Olivet's campus. This plan includes provisions for buildings, a boulevard entrance to the campus, additional sidewalks and curbs, and landscaping.

An Institutional Planning Commission composed of faculty members, Board of Trustee members, and representatives of the Alumni Association, are studying this plan along with President Reed and campus planner C. C. Briggs. They are to be prepared to give a progress report at the May meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The specific duties of the Assistant to the President will be solicitation of annuities, wills, bequests, business enterprises, corporations, and foundations.

The board also voted to apply for federal funds for student housing. They elected a building committee to investigate the possibilities of a new dormitory.

The Building Committee, composed of Dr. Paul Updike, chairman, Dr. Harvey Galloway, secretary; Rev. O. L. Maish, Dr. W. S. Purinton, Rev. J. W. Swearengen, Rev. C. L. Henderson, Dr. Willis Snowbarger, and Dr. Reed, in consultation with Mr. Briggs, will be prepared to recommend a location for the new dormitory at the May meeting of the Trustees.

This same committee has been authorized to apply for federal funds to hire an architect and begin preliminary drawings for this new structure.

STARTING NEXT ISSUE: A SERIAL ON "THE SEARCH FOR UNBRIDLED MURPHY"

Basil Miller To Be Here For Lecture Series

Dr. Basil Miller, well-known Nazarene author and journalist, will come to Olivet for a lecture series Feb. 13 and will continue his talks every other day until Feb. 24.

He will present lectures each of these days at 10:30 and 2:30. His six morning hour classes will be part of the regularly organized three hour class in Creative Writing. The afternoon presentations will be independent of the Creative Writing course but will be required of students desiring one hour credit in Christian Journalism for the 12 lectures.

Dr. Miller's probable topics for the morning sessions will be: "Christian Journalism as a Career," "What It Takes To Make a Writer," "Living From Your Writing," "Slanting For a Specific Religious Market," "How to Create Suspense," and "How to Hold Reader Interest."

Probable subjects for his afternoon classes will be: "How to Write a Short (religious) Story," "How to Break Into the Religious Article Field," "Making Teen-Age Writing Click," "Cutting Your Master Pattern," "Selling Across the Editor's Desk," and one more from the list: "How to Write a Book of Sermons," "Hitting the 'Preacher' Market," or "Knick-knacks You Can Sell to the Religious Trade."

Twenty-eight Seniors Trek To Denver on May 14

Prof. Cross To Speak Next Tuesday Night

"The Practicality of an Impractical Education," will be the topic presented by Prof. Henry A. Cross this Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 7:45 P.M. in Kelley Prayer Chapel. The program will be presented by the Olivet Honor Society.

Prof. Cross, Instructor of Psychology at Olivet, received his A.B. degree from Bethany-Peniel College in 1949, and his M.S. degree from the University of Oklahoma in 1951.

This will be the first of a series of such lecture-discussions, the purpose of which is to increase the intellectual and cultural level of our campus. The program will be open to all students and faculty members desiring to attend.

Cost of Library Up to $285,000

The total cost of Olivet's new Memorial Library has risen to approximately $285,000.

The original bid for total building costs was about $231,000, but expensive furnishings, various changes, publicity, and dedication costs swelled the figure to the former total.

According to Dr. Reed, plans are to finance this extra amount by urging the payment of out-standing pledges and asking for gifts from those individuals and churches that have not yet contributed.

Profs' Pay Raised

At the recommendation of college President Dr. Harold W. Reed, and approval by the Board of Trustees at their recent meeting Feb. 2, Olivet faculty members were granted a total pay raise of $14,000.

May Visit Holy Land

Dr. and Mrs. Reed on Way to Europe

Olivet's President, Harold W. Reed, and wife, Mrs. Reed, left for an independent tour of Europe Thursday, Feb. 9, on the 12:00 New York Central train. They are scheduled to return Apr. 3.

At the time this paper was published they were scheduled to be boarding the ship S. S. Independence of the American Export Line. This boat is taking them on a "Southern Lane" trip through the Straits of Gibraltar.

They will finally dock in Naples, Italy, on Feb. 19 and be there Sunday and Monday. Tuesday will find them spending the day in Rome.

If the present tension in the Holy Land has died down by that time, they will acquire their visas in Rome for a visit to "Bible land."

If not, they will trek to Florence, Italy, where they will visit Rev. Del Roso, head of Nazarene Missions in Italy, and Rev. and Mrs. Earl Morgan, Nazarene missionaries to that country. Rev. Morgan is an alumnus of Olivet.

Venice and Milan, Italy, and Lucerne, Switzerland, are the next stops for the Reeds after which they will head for Germany to visit the cities of Cologne, Frankfurt, Weisbaden, and Rotterdam.

A trip through the "low countries" including France and Paris will be next on their itinerary. Then London, Edinburgh, and Glasgow, Scotland, and Cogh, Ireland, will be seen in succession before they board the Masdaam of the Holland-American line for their return to the states.

From the Editor's Desk

From Dr. Reed

Dr. Reed wishes me to express his appreciation to you the students for your willingness to take a box lunch order to prepare for the pre-dedication dinner of the faculty and trustees. He also expressed to me his sincere appreciation for the fine way Olivet students play host to campus visitors.

So Many Blessings

As I walk about campus from day to day—in and out of our beautiful new library and around and inside the confines of our elaborate College Church, I am made to marvel at the rapid progress Olivet has made since I first arrived here some three years ago.

As I was thinking about this progress it came to me that just as advancement along the lines of material possessions is necessary for the good of our college; even so advancement in our understanding and relationship to God must increase if Olivet is to flourish. If we as students of this institution are to make a lasting impact upon our community, we must endeavor to make the same rapid strides in our devotion to God as our college has made in improving the facilities of our campus.

From the Glimmerglass Staff

We the members of the GLIMMERGLASS staff feel that in the positions we now hold, we have a great responsibility to you the student body. It will be the policy of this newspaper during the second semester to put out the kind and quality of paper that the students desire.

Hence we would invite any constructive criticisms that you may have concerning your school paper. This paper is your voice. Letters to the Editor will be welcomed and printed (providing not too many harsh invectives are used).

Security A Worthless Goal

How much "security" did Daniel Boone have, as he pushed our frontiers across the mountains? Or Lewis and Clark, on their impossible journey to the Pacific? Or, for that matter, how secure was George Washington when he led a brash, rebel army against the powerful British Empire?

Our personal boyhood hero, Charles A. Lindburgh (The "Lone Eagle") said in his recent book, writing of his thoughts during the long, lonesome, daring flight that brought him immortality, "Ours is not a nation built on too much caution. I didn't start this flight because of its relative safety."

Next time you hear some foreign-inspired "intellectual" yapping about "security," just remind him that this is not the land of security, it is the land of OPPORTUNITY.

Bliss

Until I heard a doctor tell
"There's danger in a kiss,"
I thought kissing you
Was the closest thing to bliss;
But since I've learned Biology
I sit and sigh and moan,
Six million mad bacteria—
And I thought we were alone!

Out of Date

Upbraiding his teen-age daughter for her slovenly appearance, a father started in on a tirade of the faults of modern-day children. "Why, look at your hair," he snorted. "It looks like a mop."

The child looked up and innocently inquired: "What's a mop?"

Student From Jerusalem Tells of Life Story

HARRY DADIAN

by Joyce Mangum

In the last issue of the Glimmerglass, you read of Harry Dadian's choice of Olivet as the school he desired to attend. Perhaps you would like to know a little more about Harry. Since he is such a quiet fellow, we thought we might supply you with a few facts about him.

Though he was born in Jerusalem, Harry is of American descent. Back in Jerusalem, Harry has a sister and mother. He has three brothers — all "globetrotters" also — one living in Canada, another in Lebanon, and the third in Cincinnati, Ohio.

After finishing junior high school in Jerusalem, Harry came to the United States to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he completed high school and his freshman year of college at God's Bible School. This September he transferred to Olivet where he is now in his sophomore year.

Harry feels right at home here at Olivet for he is a second generation Nazarene. The Nazarenes were the first holiness group of people to come to Jerusalem, and Harry's family united with them while the Rev. Krikorian was pastor.

Harry claims sports and stamp collecting as his hobbies. He especially enjoys swimming, basketball, and ping-pong. We have heard that Harry is known at the boys' dorm as the "guy who can't be beat in a game of ping-pong." His ambition is to become a minister and return to his land to spread the Gospel if the Lord so directs.

My Pidgeon

He sits
Beside my out-stretched hand.
A meal of grain and corn
Within his reach
And yet
He only utters a mournful cry
As he looks into the night.
Why sits he her
Forlorned, alone
He should have company, and soar
And dip his wings in fun
With other gulls
And yet —
Alone he sits—forgotten.

From the Pastor's Study

'By My Spirit Serve' Should Be Life-long Commitment

by Dr. L. Guy Nees

This year's challenge of the general N.Y.P.S. should be more than a Youth Week Theme—it should be a life long commitment. "By My Spirit Serve." Some one has said, "service is the rent we pay for living in this world." Jesus himself declared, "I am among you as he that serveth," while the ancient Psalmist admonished, "Serve the Lord with gladness." Serving God is fundamental to our Christian faith, therefore when our N.Y.P.S. Council Members were seeking for a theme four years ago they felt inspired to make the fourth year emphasis of this quadrennium that of service.

Someone might ask, "isn't it possible to serve without giving place to the Spirit of God?" Certainly I would not deny that there are a great many deeds of mercy and acts of service done in the name of humanity alone. But I would also add that the best way for service to be both efficient and effective is for it to be inspired by the power of the Spirit of God. When we have the guidance and inspiration of God's Spirit in this matter we have direction as to the place and time we can best spend our efforts. God never makes a mistake with us. It may seem to us at times that we have been directed into a life that is futile and impossible, but remember, God knows all about us and certainly will not lead us astray. "God's way is the best way."

God's Spirit is that Power which will take our efforts, feeble though they may be, and strengthen them until their effectiveness is beyond our fondest imagination. Who knows the effect of a word of encouragement given with the inspiration of the Holy Spirit? Who knows where a sermon, a testimony, or song will end that is given by the Power of God, through His Spirit. A man can sit in a radio studio, speak in a conversational tone, but with the proper equipment and power that voice is carried for hundreds and thousands of miles, if not around the world. In his own power his voice would not have been heard beyond the walls of the room, but with the magic of radio his voice falls upon the ears of millions. God's Spirit is that power, that equipment, that "magic."

The Holy Spirit will take your life, your words, your influence and carry them around the world far beyond your expectation, for "He is able to do exceeding, abundantly above all that we are able to ask or think."

Someone has said that a person has never really heard a gospel sermon until he has heard the gospel preached under the anointing of the Holy Spirit. Jesus said, "When He is come, He will guide you into all truth."

Do you want to serve God? Do you want to be a blessing to humanity and bring glory to God and His kingdom? Then be willing to serve, but be sure that that service is, "not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."

"Not by might, nor by power,
But by My Spirit, saith the Lord.
Not by might, nor by power,
We go forward in His name.
By My Spirit, Stand!
By My Spirit, Speak!
By My Spirit, Share, and Serve!
For it's not by might,
And it's not by power,
But by My Spirit, saith the Lord."

For ministers who need a place for recording important sermons, ceremonies, and other services given, as well as the place and persons served; "Minister's Personal Record" provides space for this information as well as other things.

Do you want a key to the full meaning of original scriptural text? Perhaps the "Bible Student's English-Greek Concordance and Greek-English Dictionary to the New Testament", by James Gall, will help you.

Making a study of the minor prophets? A book by C. B. Pusey, D. D., "The Minor Prophets", which comes in two volumes, might give you some needed information.

"The Christian Worker's Handbook", by William Gouloze, is a working manual for the pastor, counselor, soul winner, visitor, and all personal workers.

These are only a few of the good books you'll find in the bookstore.

There is also a book entitled "Notes on the Miracles of Our Lord", by R. C. French; one "Davis Dictionary of the Bible", by John D. Davis; and one by T. Stanley Soltua, D. D., entitled "Missions of the Crossroads", among many others.

Meet Your Leader

by Lyle Krumrie

BOB CRABTREE

Friday the 13th may be a bad omen for most of us, but for Bob Crabtree, the President of our student body, it was the beginning of a successful life. Bob was born July 13, 1934 in Springfield, Ohio. His elementary and high school days were spent here. He was an active leader in his high school and served as president of several clubs as well as secretary-treasurer of the student body.

In 1952 he graduated from Springfield High School and that fall enrolled at Olivet. Bob continued his interest in extra-curricular activities at Olivet and has held several prominent positions. He was a member of the Indian basketball squad, Business Manager of the Aurora, Vice-President of the Junior Class, and President of the MDA.

During his term as President of the MDA, the parlor in the boys dorm was remodeled. Advances were also made in the other organizations in which he served. Then last spring he was fully rewarded by being elected president of the student body, replacing Millard Reed.

On May 28, 1955, Bob experienced the crowning event of his life when he was married to Miss Shirley Strickler, daughter of the Olivet Professor, D. J. Strickler.

Crabtree is majoring in philosophy and will graduate in the spring. Next fall he plans to enter seminary in prepara-

Academy News

by Pat Lane

The academy undergraduates are making plans for the banquet they will give the seniors in the spring. The date set for this banquet is April 27. The undergrads' sponsor for this second semester is Mrs. C. S. McClain. More plans have been made but they haven't been revealed to the seniors.

The seniors, too, are very busy making plans for their annual trip. This last December they sold Christmas cards as a project for raising money. Now their plans are to sell gladioli bulbs in the spring. There are eight seniors, plus their sponsor, Mrs. William Collins.

This Wednesday, Feb. 8, the academy students will be having another "sweet sale" in the annex corridor. In preparation for these sales the students have a get-together at Mrs. Collins' home. There work and play are combined while baking cakes, cookies, fudge, and making candies.

tion for the ministry.

If you've tried to talk to Bob recently you will find that he is a very busy man. Bob will certainly agree that the president of Olivet's student body has plenty to do. As president he naturally has to preside over student council meetings. He also serves as secretary of the Lyceum Committee and therefore has the job of arranging Lyceum programs.

Bob says that his work load is made much easier because of the cooperation he has received from the student body. Bob certainly seems proud to have been a member of the Olivet family these past four years.

Over One-fourth Paid On New Piano

Student Prayer Band Treasurer, Wendell Parsons, has announced that thus far $200 has been paid on the new Hamilton Grand piano which was purchased from the Baldwin Piano Company of Chicago and presented to the Prayer Band group on Oct. 20, 1955.

Initial cost of the piano was $750. The Prayer Band is paying off this debt by monthly installments of $43.33. This leaves a deficit of $550.

Prayer Band President Carl Kallsen urges everyone's continued financial support of this project.

Pianist and Harmonica Player To Present Lyceum Concerts

Erno Balogh, concert pianist and composer, and Cham-Ber Huang, a harmonica performer from China, will present the next two Lyceum concerts this semester on Feb. 17 and Mar. 2 respectively.

Mr. Balogh will perform in the Kankakee High School auditorium next Friday at 8 p.m. He was born in Hungary and studied piano and composition there. He has performed in many of the European countries and the United States.

While playing in such places as Carnegie Hall he has been associated with many top artists of America. He is a personal friend of Dr. Vernon L. Groves, Olivet professor.

The time and place of Mr. Huang's concert on Mar. 2 is undecided but will be posted later.

Huang has played in some of the larger cities of the United States. A quotation from the Shreveport Times stated that it is "a first-rate harmonica performance. It goes with saying it is a breath-taking experience in concert going."

Another quotation from the New York World Telegram emphasized, "Harmonica Star is China's Gift."

by Ted Rypczynski

Soviets Stepping Up Anti-religious Campaign

Soviet propagandists in Lithuania have been given a sharp warning against laxity in combating religion among the people. This has resulted in a stepped up campaign against God, the U. S. Information Agency has reported.

USIA's press service, in an overseas dispatch, said that the party "cannot have a passive and neutral attitude toward religion." The broadcast cited a number of specific examples of laxity during the past year in carrying on the campaign for atheism, and pointed out that the Communist Party regards Marxism-Leninism and its theoretical base, dialectical materialism, as the "only just, scientific outlook."

Huge Cross Planned

A rural mail carrier has a 2 million dollar project under way atop Bald Mountain in southern Illinois. It is a 500 foot cross of glass, porcelain and steel. Nearly $100,000.00 has been contributed. The cross, to be completed within the next two years, will be visible for 125 miles when lighted at night.

More than $500,000.00 a year is the cost to the Virginia State Highway Department to clean up the beer cans, liquor bottles, and trash thrown from passing cars. —Conquest

Texas Tale

A Bostonian visiting San Antonio asked a native, "What is that dilapidated looking ruin over there?"

"That, suh, is the Alamo, where 136 immortal Texans held off an army of 15,000 of Santa Ana's regulars for four days."

"Um-m-m" said the Bostonian, "and who was that man on horseback on that hill over there?"

"That, suh, is a statue of a Texas ranger who killed 46 Apaches in single-handed combat and broke up 27 riots in his life-time. Where you from, Stranguh?"

"I'm from Boston. We have our heroes too—Paul Revere, for instance."

"Paul Revere!" snorted the Texan. "You mean that fellow who had to ride for help?"

Olivet College Church began a "Fishers of Men" Sunday School contest on Sunday, Feb. 5. Feb. 19-Mar. 25 are the dates for a rematch of the Olivet and Nampa Sunday Schools.

The "Fishers of Men" contest, which is sponsored by the Chicago Central District of the Church of the Nazarene, will last for five weeks and will be based on a numerical increase over the average attendance for the first six months of this year (469).

Success in the Nampa contest will be determined by the percentage increase over the average attendance during a similar campaign last year (710).

Please keep an accurate account of visitors you bring and contacts you make so recognition can be given to your class.

Religious Life Of Abraham Lincoln

by Dennis Hill

Many people put great emphasis on the physical, social, and material aspects of life, leaving little room for spiritual values. But one of the greatest of American statesmen, Abraham Lincoln, set aside special time in his busy life for spiritual activities.

As a boy, Abe grew up in a Christian family. His father was a devout reader of the Bible. When his father was upon the death bed, Lincoln was unable to be present, but he sent these words of comfort: "I sincerely hope that father may yet recover his health; but at all events, tell him to remember to call upon and confide in our great and good and merciful Maker, who will not turn away from him in time of need. He notes the fall of a sparrow, and numbers the hairs of our heads; and He will not forget the dying man who puts his trust in Him."

To his wife, Lincoln often described the prayers of his saintly mother and her hope that he would become a righteous man. Whenever doubts arose or bereavements came, the Bible was always Lincoln's first source of comfort.

Lincoln was never affiliated with any particular denomination. Often on Sunday morning, he and Mary Todd Lincoln were seen in the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church in Springfield, Illinois, where Dr. James Smith was pastor.

A certain minister delivered a sermon with Lincoln as the only auditor, another discussed immortality with him in the White House before breakfast, others found him a frequent attendee at services, a generous supporter of the church. Lincoln's cast of character, mode of speech, and knack for good stories can all be applied to his religious life. Lincoln as a figure is one of undoubted deep religious conviction, unorthodox and unique though he was.

While conversing with a minister upon the subject of the dark state of the war, Lincoln said, "You know I am not of a very hopeful temperament . . . But relying on God for help, and believing that our cause is right, I think we shall conquer in the end."

Many people have wondered how Lincoln could have the fruits of a Christian life, without having the roots. He was Christian in his actions, but was he definitely converted?

From part of an address given on Sept. 29, 1897, the official records in Springfield, Illinois give us the information that Rev. James F. Jacques was standing on the steps of the Methodist parsonage one Sunday morning when a small boy approached him and said, "Mr. Lincoln wants to know if you are going to preach this morning." Rev. Jacques said to the boy, "You may tell the President that I intend to speak."

Later that morning, Lincoln and some friends visited the service and sat near the altar. The pastor spoke on the subject, "Ye must be born again." Lincoln showed keen interest in the sermon and was deeply impressed.

A few days later, Lincoln made a visit to the pastor's home. The President told the pastor that he was very much interested in the message delivered last Sunday. For several hours the minister and his wife prayed with Lincoln. Following this occasion, the Rev. Jacques said, "If ever a person were converted, Lincoln was converted that night in my house. He never joined my church, but I will always believe that since that night, Lincoln lived and died a Christian gentleman."

Club News

The Future Teachers of America Club began its activities this semester with service. It has taken serving at the weekly "family style dinners" as a project. Jan. 25, the theme, "School Days", was used at the dinner, and waitresses dressed in "little girl" fashion added to the atmosphere. The group also served at the dinner Feb. 8, using a Valentine theme and presenting a short program.

The Missionary Band has sent several shipments of books to the Philippine Islands to assist in building a much needed library in this field. The project undertaken by the band has thus far met with considerable success among the faculty and students. Everyone who would like to "rid" himself of second-hand religious books (especially that which could be used in Christian training), is urged to make his contribution now.

Miss Joyce Fuller, a graduate of Olivet, spoke at the recent monthly meeting of the Missionary Band. Miss Fuller, a called missionary, is making preparation in the medical field. Her informative talk was especially adaptable for future missionaries. Presented also at the meeting were slides of our missionary work in Peru.

The Platonian Philosophical Society held its first meeting of the semester Thursday, Feb. 9, in the student lounge. Professor F. O. Parr, the speaker, presented a paper on "Social Darwinism in American Life". The next meeting will be held in March.

Musical

by Eleanor Bolender

The Orpheus Choir has been very busy, having sung for the dedication services for College Church, the Memorial Library, and the new pipe organ; as well as for the Holiness Convention in Chicago and the Indoor Holiness Camp Meeting in Indianapolis. In December they presented the annual Messiah performance in collaboration with Apollo and Kankakee community choirs. The group is looking forward to its annual tour of the Midwest and to its annual spring banquet.

The Olivet Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Kenneth Bade, presented its ninth annual Midwinter Concert on the evening of Feb. 4 in Howe Chapel. Soloist for the evening's performance was Frank Hallum, clarinetist, who played two movements of the von Weber Clarinet Concerto, accompanied by Mrs. Harlow Hopkins.

The Fine Arts Division has presented four outstanding student recitals thus far during the year, and others are being planned.

Several of the music majors are making plans to attend the Illinois State Music Educators Convention to be held in Springfield, Illinois, Feb. 17-18.

An organ recital was played by Prof. Kenneth Bade, following the services for the dedication of the new two manual Reuter pipe organ in College Church. Included in the program were selections from Purcell, Sweelinck, Bach, Peeters, Mulet, Dunham, Weaver, and Wright. He was assisted by Orpheus Choir and a small brass ensemble.

Mr. Charles Hasselbring made a recent singing appearance at the Rotary Club here.

Indian Maidens Victors; Win Court Title Again

The Indian girls cinched the hardwood championship by trouncing the inexperienced Trojans in a 75-44 win Friday, Feb. 3. With this score, the Indian lassies set a new scoring record in the Birchard gymnasium.

The Indians took an early lead and held it throughout the game with Barb Strong racking in 33 points and Pat Hecht close behind with 29. Stitzle completed the scoring trio for the Indians.

For the Trojans it was Ardith Hunt who led the "Blues" with 23 counters. Hiner played a strong defensive game for the Trojans with the help of Peters and Wyse. Miller, DeBreaux and Blochberger were the defensive players for the Indian team.

Barb Strong Sets New Women's Scoring Mark

Barb Strong who has proven to be an outstanding scoring threat in her four years as an Indian forward set a new record by scoring 38 points in the Olivet fieldhouse, Tuesday, January 31. She had previously set a 37 point record her junior year by breaking the one of 27 points held by Shirley Strickler Crabtree since 1952. Congratulations Barb!

Spartan Lassies Sink Deeper Into Cellar, Lose 46-16

Once again the cellar-dwelling Spartans came up on the short end of a 46-16 game with the second place Trojans Jan. 31.

Leading the scoring for the "Blues" was perennial high scorer Bev Hickler with 20 counters. Ruth Peters also played outstanding ball for the victors, starring both at forward and guard.

The Spartans displayed their best attack in the fourth stanza by coming up with 10 points. Bev Means led "Green" scorers with 8 points.

Cousin: "Come away from there! It's a rattlesnake. If you go near it, it will strike!"

City Boy: "Do they have unions, too?"

Indians Breeze By Spartans 57-20

Once again the league leading Indians came through on the winning side of the ledger with a 57-20 victory over the Spartans.

The score was only 10-5 going into the second quarter but Barb Strong whipped in 14 markers in that stanza to give the winners a decided lead at half time. In the final quarter the "Red" defense switched to offense with Norma Blochberger tossing in a free throw and Joan DeBreaux getting a bucket.

Edith Nichols again led her team in scoring with 11 points, over half her mates' total.

Barb Strong broke her own Women's Birchard Fieldhouse record by flipping in 38 markers for the night.

With only one round of basketball remaining, we find the Indians are still undefeated and thus have clinched their second championship of the 1955-56 intramural sports season.

This marks the fourth straight season that Indian basketballers have won the title. During this time they have lost but two games, both to the Spartans, the one being a forfeit. With but two games to play, they are trying for their third undefeated season in four years. Spartans and Trojans, can't we do something about this?

The Trojan girls have continued this season at an even .500 clip, their victories coming at the hands of the winless Spartans. However, the Spartans have shown considerable improvement through this season and thus a good game is in store for us tonight between the Spartans and the Indians.

Congratulations to Barb Strong who set a new individual scoring record of 38 points this past week

The girls ping pong tournament is underway this year with 44 girls competing for the three top places. Last year's champion, Ruth Peters, will be defending her title. Barbara Strong, who placed second in last year's contest, is also in there trying for the top place.

The writer, having seen several of the contestants practicing, is anticipating a close tournament with possibly an upset in the top places. The cooperation of all those participating has been greatly appreciated. We urge all the participants to play their games as soon as possible — and good luck!

The first place winner will receive 75 points for her society.

Trojans Clinch Crown By Shading 'Reds' 77-75

by Orville Beemer

Friday, Feb. 3, saw the Trojan basketballers capture the 1955-56 season court championship by eking out a thrilling 77-75 win over the fired-up Indians of coach Wendy Parsons.

Still hot from their Tuesday night win over the Spartans, the Indians encountered the unbeaten Trojans in a do or die effort to stay in the flag chase. The tilt measured up to pre-game expectations, being thrilled to the last seconds as John Rose, Trojan forward, flipped in the winning basket with only seconds remaining.

The game saw two great floor generals taking command: Wendy Parsons of the Indians and Jim Smith of the Trojans. Both played probably their best games of the season, Parsons sending 37 points through the hoop, and Smith netting 28 markers for the winners.

George Garvin (12) and Stu Meissner (14) took command of the boards to keep the Indians in the lead for three and a half periods, but they failed to stop the Trojan outside shooting in the final minutes of the contest.

With less than a minute to go Jerry Petrie (14) put the Trojans in front by one point with one of his timely jump shots. Parsons quickly came back with a foul shot to knot it at 75 all. Then with 30 seconds to go, Smith went into a dribbling stall, waiting for an opening in the "Red" defense. A beautiful pass to John Rose right under the bucket spelled defeat for the losers as he calmly sunk the shot.

Trojan coach Jim Mitchell was out of town and had to miss the game, but he sent his team a telegram wishing them well.

This reporter was awakened in the middle of the night to hear from the lips of Wendell Parsons, Indian coach, that he had just scored 37 points in the Trojan-Indian contest. Congratulations Wendy!

Wendy's roommate, Vern Fischer, holds the school record of 44 markers for a single encounter. Quite a rivalry!

Norm Shirkey, a Spartan from way back (1950), is back in uniform again giving the Spartans a much needed shot in the arm.

The class tourney promises to be exciting this year with the juniors and sophomores looking the strongest. Jacques Romain looks like a promising "soccer" player in Prof. Parsons' gym class basketball games. . . Just a reminder to keep the "O" Club banquet on your calendar.

Lou Cook, another "mighty mite" for the Trojans, leads the "B" basketball league scorers with a per game average of 17 points. . . The Indians lead the "B" loop with a 3-1 record.

John Rose, Trojan reserve forward until recently, reacted admirably under pressure last Friday night as he scored the winning bucket in the closing seconds of last Friday's crucial game.

Indian Boys Take Grasp on Second

On Tuesday, Jan. 31, in a contest that was never close after the first quarter, the Indians romped to a 102-75 revenge win over the Spartan society.

The small Spartan team could not cope with the big men of the Indian team, mainly George Garvin (23) and Stu Meissner (22). Wendy Parsons (20) played his usual strong game at guard for the winners.

Burley Smith (21) and Bill Winegar (19) kept the Spartans within three points of the Indians at the end of the first period, but couldn't keep the pace. The Indians took their commanding lead in the second period by outscoring the Spartans 27-10.

Council News

by Carolyn Miller

The Student Council is busily engaged in preparation for the activities for second semester. The All-school Valentine Party on February 11 is under the auspices of the Student Council and they are working hard to make this a success.

Marvin Thill, Student Body Treasurer, is chairman of the committee appointed to get facts and figures on the leading prospects for an All-School Project. We received many good ideas from each of the College classes. From this list, the Student Council after much discussion and study, will decide the project for this year. The All-School Project will be launched sometime in late March.

Upon request of the Athletic Commission, the Student Council has undertaken a study of the problem of unequal distribution of society membership. In the past few years, a situation has developed in which we have one relatively weak and two strong ones. Why not have all three societies participating on a comparatively equal level? The Committee appointed for this study is headed by Gene Phillips, with members of his committee representing all three societies. Perhaps the situation will change in coming years.

Last Revival Acclaimed by ONC Students

by Bill VanMeter

In taking a sampling of opinion from Olivet's student body, it seems pretty well agreed that our last Student Revival was well accepted by the students. Here are some answers received to the question, "What did you think of the last Student Revival?"

Janice Facey-Sophomore: It was better than the usual type of revival and should become a precedent. Rev. Martin was one of the most dynamic and challenging speakers that we have had.

Marie Uilly - Post-Graduate: The discussion groups were quite interesting and stimulating. The messages certainly brought truths that we need to be aware of.

Louise Fallis-Junior: I enjoyed the discussion groups very much. I think we can learn a lot from them and would like to see them used more often.

Michael Hutchens - Senior: This type of evangelism has quite a bit of potentiality, I believe. Many thought provoking questions were brought to mind. I think, in general, that the youth week revival has been very beneficial to my spiritual growth.

Robert Unger-Junior: Good for a change, but would not serve as an adequate substitute for the regular revival service.

Mergers

by Maxine Dawson

We'd like to offer our apologies to the couples whose engagements were included in the last issue for the unorthodox write up.

We might well tag ONC with a new theme song "Love Is Bustin' Out All Over" since the recent epidemic of engagements. You certainly have kept Mr. Cupid working overtime. Those who will soon be middle-aging it are: Betty Botner and Wendy Uarsons, Jane Myers and Marshall Fader, Beth Lane and Sam Norris, Maureen Brashaw and Bill Lockard, Katherine Yogi and Merle Roth, Wanda Dawson and Carlton Wood, and Dottie Hunt and Pfc. James Voyles. We offer our sincere congratulations.

We'd like to remind you that a column containing bits of interesting material about goings on around the campus is for you. We want to make it a column of interest to you, so won't you help by letting us in on any interesting bit?
