Launching of Fund Drive Announced by Milby, Date Set for November 11

The launching of the Golden Anniversary Fund Campaign, under the direction of J. Harlin Milby, newly appointed financial assistant to President Harold Reed of Olivet, will officially begin in the Kankakee area November 11 and continue through November 23.

Our plans for this fund drive, states Mr. Milby, are to raise three million dollars over a ten year period by securing 150 thousand dollars from the Kankakee community, and asking businesses and foundations to supplement this with an additional 150 thousand dollars. The college will then be able to carry out an extensive expansion program which will include the addition of five new buildings to the present campus. The five buildings which will be erected are — a 150-bed girls dormitory, a 150-bed boys dormitory, a science building, a chapel-fine arts building, and a student-union building. Upon completion of these new facilities, the administration feels that the school will then be adequately equipped to accommodate an anticipated enrollment of fifteen hundred students.

This campaign is the result of a five year study-program by a faculty committee, and by the institutional planning commission which is comprised of representatives from the faculty, the alumni association, and the boards of trustees of the Church of the Nazarene. From here a development council consisting of five different groups took charge. This council is composed of members of the administration and faculty, student body, board of trustees, and laymen from the fourteen districts of the North Central Educational Zone of the Church of the Nazarene. Mr. Milby heads the council.

Prof. R. L. Lunsford, Publicity Director of Olivet Nazarene College, emphasized the fact that this financial assistance will not take the place of our church giving. The church educational budget will, however, be used to liquidate our present indebtedness and supplement income from student tuition as customary. It is hoped that with the increase of student enrollment and additional campus facilities there will also come an addition to the church's educational budget.

As an interesting sidelight, it might be noted that for each full-time student who pays the college 350 dollars in tuition, the Church of the Nazarene supplements an additional 350 dollars, thus cutting the student's yearly expense approximately in half.

If this project is successful, as every member of the Church of the Nazarene hopes it will be, Olivet Nazarene College will be the largest holiness educational institution in the world.

The worst sorrows in life are not in its losses and misfortunes, but its fears.

Twirp Week Tradition Reverses

This week W. R. A. is sponsoring a week of sunshine for Olivet boys. Day in, day out; week in, week out; year in, year out, it is usually the same old story. The boys take the girls out, they pay the bill, open the doors, and fill up empty milk glasses. However, this week the girls are performing all the courtesies and attentions usually expected from the boys.

The climax for this week of unusual activities will be a faculty recital and hayride Friday evening and the annual Halloween party, sponsored by the Junior class, Saturday evening.

This hetic, topsy-turvy week is allowing the girls to appreciate their male friends more, and to really see how many taken-for-granted courtesies they do perform.

The W. R. A. is pleased with the co-operation on the part of the student body. The good is probably being accomplished, and they feel that much Beware of the Red Death!

The Junior Class invites all Olivetians to have a seat in the graveyard, visit the caretaker, try to escape the red death, and to remember that love is tragic, at the Halloween party which will be held in Birchard Field House, Saturday, October 26, at 7:00 p. m.

Of particular interest will be the orchestra, composed of spooks, goblins, and witches, as well as last year's gorilla. The wierd tempo of their music will be directed by Professor Harlow Hopkins, junior class sponsor and "undertaker."

Marisue Card is acting as chairman of the stagershow, assisted by Phil Walters and Bob McCannon. The Decorations committee is headed by co-chairman Marilyn Conrad and Becky Holstein. Joan Kissock is in charge of advertising and Keith Sheffer, Jim Brian, Keith Johnson, Phil Petrie, and Gene Woods combine their talents to make up the Ghost Walk committee. Marilyn Cassells is chairman of the epitaph committee. The Sophomore Class will be serving the refreshments.

Charlie James, Junior class president agrees that the various committees have worked hard to make this an evening of exciting and mysterious entertainment.

A hint to the girls should be sufficient—THIS IS TWIRP WEEK—ask your favorite fellow to an evening of fun—ghostly fun!

ed underneath the lighter-vein of the week. Even though it may seem like the girls are having a gala time they will be quite happy, we are sure, to return to the customary traditions of dating.

Olivet Plays Host to Educators Conference

The sixth Educational Conference Program, sponsored by the Department of Education of the Church of the Nazarene, was held on the campus of Olivet Nazarene College from October 14-17, 1957. The general theme for the conference was: "Facing Our Golden Anniversary—an appraisal of higher education in the Church of the Nazarene." Guests on the campus for the conference included educators and officials from the seven Nazarene Colleges and the Seminary; General Superintendent G. B. Williamson; Dr. Roy Cantrell, Chairman of the Department of Education of the Church of the Nazarene; and Dr. S. T. Ludwig, Executive Secretary of the Department of Education.

On Monday evening a dinner meeting was held in Miller Dining Hall with Dr. Roy Cantrell presiding and Dr. G. B. Williamson giving the keynote address. The delegates were taken on an extensive tour of the Olivet campus on Tuesday morning. On Tuesday evening the guests attended the football game between the Indians and the Spartans at the Bradley-Bourbonnais High School stadium. A devotional program was held on Wednesday afternoon in the College Church. The program included music by the Orpheus Choir and a message by Rev. Forrest Nash, pastor of College Church. Many of the delegates felt this service was the highlight of the entire conference.

The conference was set up in various sections including the president's section; dean's section; business manager's section; president's, dean's, and registrar's section; and a general section. Some of the topics discussed in these sessions included: "Curriculum: Does it meet the needs of the church?" "Accounting Procedures," "Reporting Statistics," "Development Councils, Expansion Programs, and Financial Problems," and "The Philosophy of Education."

The dean's section presented the recommendation to the Department of Education that the needs, desires, and capacities of the youth of the Church of the Nazarene be surveyed by a professionally competent person.

We're Not Curious

(APC) Foreign students may be well accepted at most of our universities, says the Michigan State University NEWS (though the editors point out that at many schools they are not), but the editors wonder why we're not more interested in them.

This, in part, is a recent NEWS editorial:

Foreign students return to their homes, some of them with more knowledge of our nation than many of us have at our mental fingertips. And if that isn't upsetting enough, they leave many of us with our knowing nothing of their native land.

The students live in our dormitories, co-habiting with Americans, asking questions about customs and culture, and adapting themselves (sometimes uncomfortably) to our way of life. They will leave MSU and the United States with educations heavily supplemented just from living among Americans.

Many of the foreigners have said that they've been accepted most cordially and are thoroughly enjoying their stay here. But most, though in agreement with this, say it's difficult to tell their friends and roommates of their native countries because few Americans ask anything.

It's unfortunate that as a general rule we Americans are not more curious about other nations.

A small handful of American students on this campus have taken active interest in MSU's International Club and International Center, groups which serve to bring together men and women from widely variant cultures. The dearth of American students concerned with things international is enough to make a conscientious citizen ashamed.

Beliefs, thoughts and customs are exchanged at gatherings of the International Club that are interesting and serve to broaden the knowledge of all participating.

If more of us at the student level took a greater active interest in other peoples and nations we might be in the act of mounting the first step of the long stairway of world peace.

Bible Society Experimenting With Inexpensive Phonographs

The American Bible Society is launching an experiment in Pakistan, Liberia, and Mexico for bringing the Scripture to illiterate and semilliterate peoples by way of a new, inexpensive phonograph. The phonograph, which costs less than a dollar and operates by hand-turning rather than by motor or spring, is accompanied by records containing Bible readings. The absence of spring mechanism permits it to be operated in tropical climates without danger of breakdown. The recordings are in translations suitable for the people of each area.

Loneliness that is deep and unending. One that cannot be satiated by books, by music, or even by crowds of people. A terrible thing that grips your personality, drains your energies, and haunts your thoughts. It is a living, a parasitic presence within you, this loneliness.

No, this is not a "somewhere-I-read," fiction thing I'm talking about, it's real! I knew this loneliness I speak of! I am convinced that there are many people today who experience just such a loneliness each day. Perhaps they don't recognize it for what it is, perhaps they're running from it, as I did. Perhaps they try to put it out of their mind by leading a loud, care-free, sinward life, as I did. But in the midst of their hilarious clamorings, at the height of their wild parties it will make its presence felt! They'll feel it, as I did. It will settle in like a harbor fog and blanket your fun and frivolity. It will set to work the yearnings in your heart and in a short time your former misery will have been multiplied many-fold.

I have felt all these things I say and I know them to be true. One day, however, I met Jesus Christ. He took me in my loneliness and comforted me. He saw my yearnings and gave me patience to await their fulfillment. I gave my heart and my life to Him and now, grim spectre loneliness has bowed his head in defeat.

Christ is with me in happiness, in sorrow, in good times and bad. He is ever by my side and constantly gives me encouragement and that long-sought, real friendship that I needed so sorely.

To many of you who will read this article it will mean nothing, it will make no sense, for perhaps you have never encountered what I've been speaking of. This article was not written for you.

I am confident that there are those among you who do know what I'm talking about. Christ will be your Friend as He is mine—if you'll let Him.

These golden, jade, and emerald hues,

This dark'ning blue and ivory height,

These charcoal depths where rain-drops fuse;

Its image changes when the night Steals thru its multi-colored pews— A gray and silver patterned sight Replaces rainbow-tinted views. I love its great, wide, stretching plain,

Its tossing, foaming shipping lane; For this, my gift, around, above Was given to me by God and love.

"SUNDAY SCHOOL BY MAIL" PROGRAM

A "Sunday School by Mail" program was launched by the Methodist Church on October 1. Methodist church - school curriculum materials will be sent free to families who enroll in the program called "Church School at Home." Dr. Edward D. Staples, director of the Board of Education's Department of Christian Families, said the program will be directed especially to isolated families.

MINISTER MISSES ONLY ONE SERVICE IN 65 YEARS

Andreas Bard of Manhattan Beach, California, has been a Lutheran minister for 65 years—missing only a single Sunday service some years ago because of laryngitis. Dr. Bard was pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Kansas City for 41 years. Now 85 years old, Dr. Bard is believed to be the oldest active minister on the rolls of the United Lutheran Church. Although he retired from St. Mark's in 1950, he has continued preaching regularly as a guest pastor at churches in southern California. Frequently he preaches two sermons on a Sunday. He was born in Macklenburg, Germany, one of five sons of Paul Bard, a German Lutheran bishop. All five sons later became Lutheran ministers. His three sisters married Lutheran clergymen.

From The Pastor's Study

POSSESSING THAT WE MIGHT PROCLAIM

A salesman from whom I once purchased a suit offered many suits to choose from. So it happened that he wore a suit like one of the many which he had to sell. The one I bought was like the one he wore. I was not wrong when I concluded that the best buy of all the suits was the one like that which the salesman wore. His wearing that suit attracted me more than anything he said. Let us apply the illustration.

He who tells others about the good news of Christ must himself have on the "beautiful garment." He must be an illustration of all to which he testifies concerning the gospel, its experience and its life. And so with regard to your life if you would win souls to Christ, there must be evidence of release from the moral attachment of sin. Shining through your redeemed personality, there must radiate Christ's peace which "passes all understanding." Joy midst the unpleasant and the undesirable must be the overflowing positive of your daily life. There must be the constant love for the things God loves and a constant hatred for the things God despises. As for those who do not love us it must be commonly known we love them regardless—even as our Master did when He said "Father forgive them, they know not what they do."

You ask, "How can I possess the fullness of that to which I witness? The answer is found in the "crucified" and "risen" self-life of which St. Paul wrote. The Spirit filled life of perfect love, if you please.

Your President Speaks

by Jim Bedsworth

We have just finished a wonderful time of spiritual help during the revival week. The Christian, as well as those needing spiritual help, should have drawn close to the Lord. The weeks to come after revival are not all quite so glorious. Just the same, these days also go on our record. I have found myself many times having to ask God for strength and help during the days and weeks between revival. The wonderful thing about this asking is that I have always received the help that I needed.

These next few years are going to be so busy for all of us, as we prepare for the homecoming with all of its activity plus all the things between now and then. The Junior class will be working hard on the Halloween party; the faculty will be giving the faculty concert. There is something planned for every Friday and Saturday night for you the students and faculty. The week-end activities are planned to be of many varieties and interests. I hope you all will take advantage of the planned activities and Lyceums and not be going on the outside to seek your week-end entertainment.

As we start making plans for the homecoming, many of us will be talking to "outsiders" and people we don't generally deal with. It is so important that we be extra friendly and courteous. An excellent place to start practicing is our own switchboard. The traffic on our switchboard has more than doubled in the last year and yet we still have only one operator with the same phone system. A growl, or impatient clicking on your part does not speed up the system, but actually is retroactive. Let's not forget this and try and help our efficient switchboard operators out in the telephone traffic problem. If you don't think they are busy, just drop by and watch a few minutes some day!

THE SPUTNIK (A New Crisis)
 The number of world shaking developments lately show that we are living by crisis. One, the Little Rock situation hits a stalemate and right away the Russians start a new one.

Why all the excitement and worry about this Russian satellite called "Sputnik" that is currently circling the earth way out in space?

I think there are three reasons; scientific, psychological and defense.

We now have to admit that the Russians have scientists equal to or even better than ours in the missile field. This is shocking indeed to those who felt America's scientific lead was impregnable.

The psychological effect on Americans might prove a blessing, as it will awaken them to the fact that we can't rest on our laurels in the scientific race.

The real psychological danger is that some of the uncommitted nations may now decide that the Russians are now the world pace setters and decide to join them.

The earth satellite is of no direct defense value; however, the fact that they launched it proves that the Russians have some sort of intercontinental ballistic missile. This is very disturbing to American defense plans.

The administration and Congress can both be blamed because they let economy get ahead of defense needs. Also the defense department isn't too efficient. Inter-service rivalry has also slowed the program.

The thing for us to do now is to consolidate our forces like the Russians do. Perhaps then we will be more successful.

Graduate Record Examinations To Be Given

Princeton, N. J., Sept. 13—The Graduate Record Examinations, required of applicants for admission to a number of graduate schools, will be administered at examination centers throughout the country four times in the coming year, Educational Testing Service has announced. During 1956-57 more than 12,000 students took the GRE in partial fulfillment of admission requirements of graduate schools which prescribed it.

This fall candidates may take the GRE on Saturday, November 16. In 1958, the dates are January 18, April 26, and July 12. EGS advises each applicant to inquire of the graduate school of his choice which of the examinations he should take and on which dates. Applicants for graduate school fellowships should ordinarily take the designated examinations in the fall administration.

The GRE tests offered in these nationwide programs include a test of general scholastic ability and advance level tests of achievement in sixteen different subject matter fields. According to ETS, candidates are permitted to take the Aptitude Test and/or one of the Advanced Tests.

A Bulletin of Information, (in which an application is inserted) provides details of registration and administration as well as sample questions, and may be obtained from college advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey, or P. O. Box 27896, Los Angeles 27, California. A completed application must reach the ETS office at least fifteen days before the date of the administration for which the candidate is applying.

by Connie Zachary

If the campus seemed especially quiet on Monday, October 14, it may have been because the juniors were making all their noise among the hollows and hills of beautiful Turkey Run State Park, Indiana.

After being served a delectable ham-egg-potatoes breakfast by the seniors, eight car loads of juniors—44—took off leaving school cares behind them.

Activities of the day included hiking, cycling, and horseback riding. Eight trails of varying degrees of roughness wind through the park. The more ambitious class members choose the more rigorous trails. And were they rigorous! In spite of 80 degree hills, copperhead snakes, and mischievous pranksters everyone seemed to pull through alive. The horseback riding was more like playing follow-the-leader for some of the fellows, but a few of the girls found their rides quite exciting, especially the girl who couldn't get her horse to stop. (Try pulling on the reins, Joy!)

Arriving in Kankakee at 12:30 a. m. the retreaters met in Meadowview and drove on campus as a group. Here they created mild havoc by constant horn-blowing, yelling, and the singing of a little ditty composed by themselves. All this was done in an honest effort to encourage next year's juniors not to miss their retreat.

Know Your Generals

R. T. Williams

The Exemplary Christian
 by Rex Eaton

"Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?" This was the question our church leaders cried out as the saddening news echoed throughout the Church of the Nazarene in 1946 when Dr. Roy T. Williams had finished his work in the Lord's vineyard.

Dr. R. T. Williams and Dr. J. W. Goodwin were elected early in 1916 to fill the two places left by the deaths of Dr. P. F. Bresee and Dr. W. C. Wilson in 1914. Dr. Williams served with distinction and unusual ability for thirty years as General Superintendent in the Church of the Nazarene. It has been said that no man has influenced our church more than Dr. Williams.

His life on earth became greater as the years passed. He was a leader and a pattern. As a professor in his Alma Mater, Peniel, he was classified "the strong man among the strong." He deplored littleness. Dr. Chapman wrote to the Herald of Holiness: "Somehow one always felt that Dr. Williams could not be attached to anything small or unimportant." Also, on the other hand that "he never belittled the humble in persons, places, or things."

He lived for the Church of the Nazarene. Dr. Shelby Corlett has said, "He had more to do with the forming of its policies than any other man." Dr. Williams carried the heavy task of a new church courageously, well, and with untiring efforts. Whether a task was small or great that lay before him, he was faithful in carrying it out.

His life and efforts left indelible impressions in the lives of those who knew him. It called forth from Dr. G. B. Williamson's pen the noble book entitled: "R. T. WILLIAMS, SERVANT OF GOD." Dr. D. I. Vanderpool who was District Superintendent of the Northwest district at the time of Dr. Williams' passing has said that his ministry had a "spiritual unction that gripped the heart." Rev. Arthur C. Morgan, District Superintendent, then and now, has said, "I purpose to carry on his ideals."

This passage is not meant as a eulogy. They seem too much like an after thought. But, on the other hand, let this remind us to take our hats off to those who have given that we might have.

Robert Chungs Join Olivet Family

Rev. Chung Speaks In Special Services

Last Thursday and Friday, Olivet students had the privilege of hearing Rev. Robert Chung speak in the chapel services. As Rev. Chung is permanently residing in Bourbonnais, we thought you might enjoy getting better acquainted with him.

Rev. Chung, a native of Korea, was raised in a Presbyterian home and was converted at the age of 13. He came to the United States to attend Asbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky. It was there that he experienced the blessing of sanctification, and desiring to preach its truths, he was ordained by the Kentucky Methodist Conference following graduation from Asbury in 1925.

In 1927 Rev. Chung returned to Korea and traveled with a holiness evangelical band until the outbreak of World War II. His band traveled to every large city in North and South Korea and Manchuria, China, preaching to thousands under a huge gospel tent.

During World War II the Japanese held Rev. Chung in prison for 3½ months, charging he was a spy for the U. S., since he preached Christ, not the Korean emperor.

Mr. Chung united with the Church of the Nazarene in 1948, starting the first Nazarene work in his country. With the invasion of the North Korean Communist troops in 1950, Rev. Chung and his family had to flee to America, leaving behind 14 churches and 1,000 members of the Church of the Nazarene in South Korea.

In 1952-53 the Chungs returned to Korea to find two of the former churches remaining. Today all have been rebuilt and church membership strengthened. A Bible Training School has been built in Seoul, Korea, where as many as 12-30 young Koreans are training for the Lord's work. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Owens, graduates of Bethany Nazarene College, are our present missionaries to Korea. Mr. Palk, a native Korean, is also an active leader there.

Rev. Chung, who had to return to America due to poor health, was district superintendent of the Korean work, founder of the Bible School, and as a personal responsibility, founded an orphanage school for young Koreans.

Mr. and Mrs. Chung have four children, all college graduates. There are 3 boys—Paul, Elliott and Larry—all graduates of the University of Kentucky. Paul, who has a Ph. D. Degree, is a professor at the University of Minnesota; Elliott, who holds a degree in Bacteriology, is working on a further degree in chemical engineering at the University of Ky; Larry, who received a degree in Civil engineering in '57, is a pilot in the Air Force, stationed at Hondo, Texas. Band Sponsors Missionary Party

The Student Missionary Band sponsored a two-day missionary lecture series October 17 and 18, which climaxed with a missionary rally Friday evening in the College Church.

Guest missionary speaker Friday night was Mrs. Louise Robinson Chapman, of Kansas City, Mo., who since 1948 has served as president of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Church of the Nazarene.

Widow of the late General Superintendent James B. Chapman, Mrs. Chapman was for 20 years a Nazarene missionary to Africa. Beloved by the natives whom she taught, she was named by them "Do Right," "Do Straight." She has written about these darkskinned people in a strring book entitled, "Africa, O Africa."

A positive and forthright speaker, Mrs. Chapman has challenged nationwide audiences with her message of missions. At the present most of her time is given to participation in missionary conventions and rallies. Recently she visited Nazarene mission stations in Mexico.

For the last few years, she has been very much interested in the fourteen million colored people in the United States and has been instrumental in organizing several churches and helping to establish the Nazarene Bible Institute, a school for the training of Christian colored workers, located near Charleston, West Virginia. A native of Washington, Mrs. Chapman received the B. A. degree from Northwest Nazarene College, Nampa, Idaho. After graduation she taught at Nampa for several years before going to the mission field in 1920.

Orpheus choir presented the special music and Miss Ruth Chung sang a solo. In chapel Thursday and Friday, October 17 and 18 Rev. Robert Chung was the special missionary speaker. For a number of years Reverend Chung was Missionary Superintendent of Southern Korean Nazarene District Church of th Nazarene . He, along with his family, are now permanently living at 194 No. Convent St. in Bourbonnais. Rev. Chung is engaged in evangelistic work. His daughter, Miss Ruth Chung, is a member of Olivet's faculty.

Spartans Nip Indians In Hard Fought Battle

by Rick Withrow

Upon a sea of mud, in the first night game ever played by Olivet football teams, a fighting "green and white" clad Spartan nine eeked out a 13-12 decision over a "never say die" Indian squad at Bradley High School's football field.

The game was highlighted by four quarters of very fine, rugged football by both teams.

The Spartans, piloted by Coach Dave Knotts, took a first half 6-0 lead when Tom Thompson drove over from the six-yard line.

The crowd of some five or six hundred again saw sparkling football in the second half.

More fuel was added to the fire by the Spartans in the third quarter as another march ended in pay dirt when Bob Deckhand added what proved to be the winning tally with a plunge through the right side of the Indians defensive line.

The Indians, reliazing their fate, suddenly began to click during the final stanza when Gus Sublette scored on a delayed buck. The extra point attempt failed.

With two minutes and sixteen seconds to go, Ralph Hill intercepted a Spartan pass and raced to the 10-yard line before being downed.

The Red and White immediately converted this break into their second 6 points of the evening. Hill toted the pigskin over with just 32 seconds remaining.

With a chance for a tie, the Indian's extra point attempt was halted by a determined Spartan line.

Both teams gave it all they had and will meet today for their final encounter of the 1957 football season.

If the last two games are any indication, I wouldn't want to miss it—How about you?

"O" Club To Play All-College Team

An all-college team will challenge the "O" Club Saturday evening, November 2, in Birchard gymnasium, opening the basketball season at Olivet. This game will give preparation for the big "Tip-Off" game against the Alumni team, Saturday, November 9. All fellows interested in playing on the all-college basketball team see Dr. R. Wayne Gardner, athletic coordinator.

Now that the "ful bug" has been here at O. N. C and gone (I hope) maybe we can be able to finish out the softball schedule for this season. The competition thus far has been close, with the Indians and Trojans each boasting a victory over the other. The Spartan girls, who have yet to win a game, have much spirit and really put a scare into the Indians on October 17th, when they nearly tied the score but went on to lose in the last inning.

The "O" Club team has started to practice for the annual "Tip-Off" game with the Alumni. Everett Combs and Rev. MacKay, who are doing a terrific job, are the coaches for the team this year. We are anxiously awaiting the "Tip-Off" game and hoping to come through to victory.

U. of I. Gymnastic Team To Perform

The 1957 University of Illinois gymnastic team will perform at 8:00 P. M. in Birchard gymnasium, on Friday, November first. In 1955 the U. of I. presented a similar performance and due to wide acceptance, the team is returning.

Head gymnastics coach at the University is Charles Pond, former welter-weight Golden Gloves boxing champion and a Southern A.A.U. tumbling champion in 1937. Before joining the U. of I. staff in 1947, Pond developed 38 district, regional, and national tumbling and trampoline champions at the Dallas Athletic Club, Dallas, Texas.

In the eight years that Pond has coached the Illini gymnasts,

Athletic Department Buys New Equipment

Athletic equipment procured is generally a thing that goes by unnoticed except for the few individuals that participate in the particular sport involved. But not so at O. N. C.! The athletic advisor has announced the investment of nearly a thousand dollars for a regulation size trampoline and a whirlpool bath to better equip Birchard Field House. Also new gym mats and some bar-bell equipment have been ordered.

It should no longer be a necessity to drop out of a sport for weeks at a time from a pulled muscle or a sprained ligament. Nor should the student continue to be a non-participant because his line is gymnastics or weight lifting. Perhaps before long we can add these sports to our list of intraschool activities and eventually they will become part of our regular athletic program.

they have won three national titles and seven consecutive Big Ten championships.

The 10 members of this year's team range in weight from 135 to 160 pounds and in height from 5' 7" to 5' 11". Several of them are outstanding specialists in particular types of gymnastics. Some are good all-around team members. According to Pond, "The ten men who will make up our team all are capable of scoring in the national collegiate meet."

Chucks Chatter

One night football game has stirred up more school spirit on Olivet's campus than I have seen in a long time. It really seems good! An interesting sidelight is the fact that St. Viators College was the first college in the United States to play a night football game "under lights." The St. Viator's team was a top-rated football team in those days. St. Viators was the college which was located on the present site of Olivet's campus, prior to 1938. It seems quite fitting to have real football spirit at Olivet now.

Congratulations to the Trojan team for winning the baseball championship. Mac Delbridge twirled a two-hitter, knocked in six runs, and thus the deciding game for the championship was won! I guess you did your part, Mac!

Several musical groups are traveling, representing Olivet on the educational zone this semester.

The Treble Tone Trio which toured this summer, is continuing, holding weekend meetings. Sally Davis from Indianapolis, Indiana; Linda Luttrell from Oakland City, Indiana; and Martha Reed from Hull, Illinois—all juniors—comprise this trio.

Another Olivet trio is made up of Geneene Hoot of Winona Lake, Indiana, sophomore; Ray Morrisson of Sturgis, Michigan, senior; and Ron Angles of Fostoria, Ohio, junior.

Home Ec. Club Holds Fall Style Review

Saturday, October 19 at 8:00 P. M., Olivet's Home Economics Club sponsored a fall fashion review, "C a m p u s Creations," in Burke Hall. Both men's and women's fashion were shown at the review, the first of its kind to be held at Olivet.

Two Kankakee stores, Samuels and Plant-Kerger's sponsored the review of men and women's apparel, including every-day campus wear and formal evening clothes. The "Ivy League" look was the main attraction in the showing of country sweaters, dress skirts, narrow-labeled sport jackets, "Ivy League" slacks with the back-buckle strap, tartan plaid skirts, and sweater jacket. Mrs. Evelyn Dupuis narrated as the woman's clothing was modeled; Mr. A. E. Kerger, Jr. narrated the men's fashions.

Marilyn Hawk, Myrna Neil, Alberta Fell, Marsue Card, Pat Thornton, Carolyn Birchard, Joy Wilde, Barbara Morris, Sally Milby and Nonie Shearer modeled the women's clothes. Modeling the latest fashions for college men were: Stewart Storer, Ron Angles, Phil Walters, and Lothair Green.

Lake, Michigan; and Merwyn Matson, junior from Britt, Iowa.

Other musical ensembles are no doubt in the process of formation now. In the future these new groups will be reorganized.

Announce Sermon Outline Contest

The MINISTERIAL FELLOW is launching a sermon outline contest as a part of its adopted program to challenge student ministers and acquaint them with the importance of sermon building.

Second prize will be a five dollar certificate and third place winner will be given a subscription to the "Preacher's Magazine."

Any ministerial student enrolled for college work is eligible to enter and may submit as many outlines as he desires.

Judging for the contest will be based on neatness, originality, content, aptness of thought, and homi-

Law Admission Test To Be Given

Princeton, N. J., Sept. 13: The Law School Admission Test required of applicants for admission to a number of leading American law schools, will be given at more than 100 centers throughout the United States on the mornings of November 9, 1957, February 15, April 19, and August 2, 1958. During 1956-57 over 12,000 applications took this test, and their scores were sent to over 100 law schools.

A candidate must make separate application for admission to each letical style. Sentence outlining procedures are to be used with headings and sub-headings. The outlines are to be typewritten, double spaced and on the topic, "Holiness." Outlines must be submitted on or before February 1, 1958.

Judges for the contest are Dr. Otis Sayes, Prof. R. L. Lunsford, and Rev. Forrest Nash.

law schools select their freshman inquire of each whether it wishes him to take the Law School Admission Test and when. Since many law schools select their freshmen classes in the spring preceding their entrance, candidates for admission to next year's classes are advised ordinarily to take either the November or the February test, if possible.

The Law School Admission Test, prepared and administered by Educational Testing Service, features objective questions measuring verbal aptitudes and reasoning ability rather than acquired information. It cannot be "crammed" for. Sample questions and information regarding registration for and administration of the test are given in a Bulletin of Information.

The Bulletin (in which an application for the test is inserted) should be obtained four to six weeks in advance of the desired testing date from Law School Admission Test, Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau St., Princeton, New Jersey. Completed applications must be received at least two weeks before the desired testing arrangements for each candidate.
