BOYLE COUNTY

DANVILLE, KENTUCKY - A RESOURCE PROFILE

Danville, the county seat of Boyle County, is located in the gently rolling landscape of central Kentucky's Blue Grass Region. The city's central location and excellent transportation facilities contribute to the city's growth as a manufacturing and distribution center. Danville had a population of 12,420 in 1990. Danville is located 35 miles southwest of Lexington, Kentucky; 84 miles southeast of Louisville, Kentucky; 155 miles north of Knoxville, Tennessee; and 114 miles south of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Boyle County, with a land area of 181 square miles, had a 1990 population of 25,641 persons.

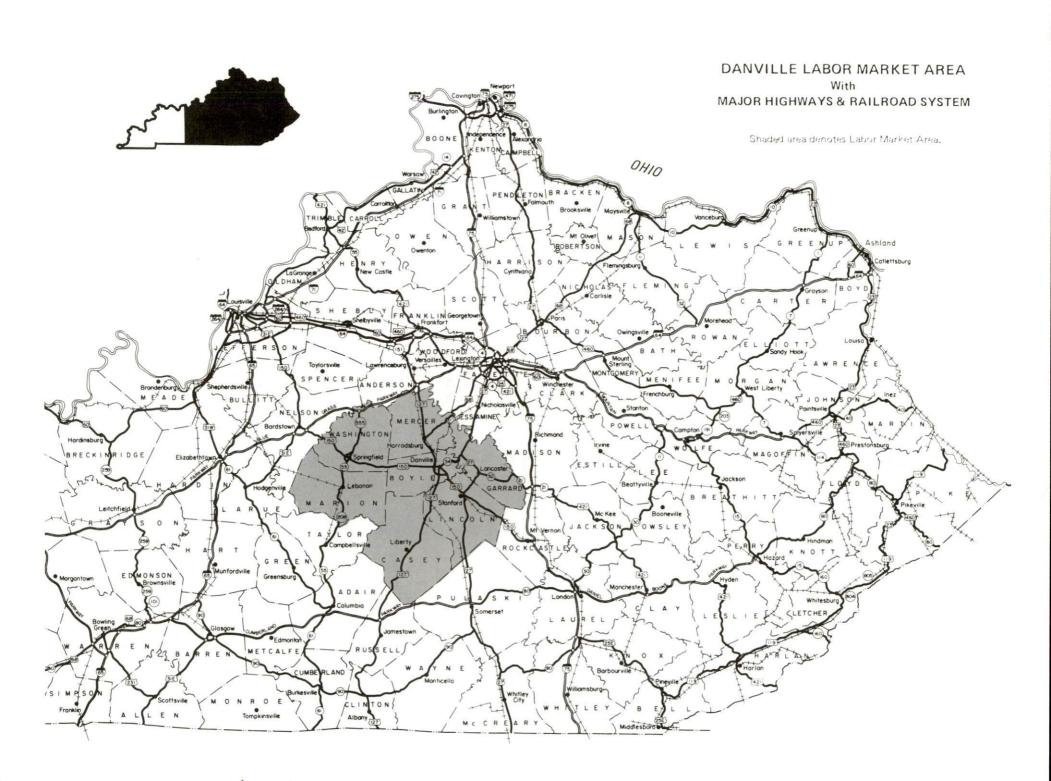

The Economic Framework - The total number of Boyle County residents employed in 1991 averaged 10,718. Manufacturing firms in the county reported 3,084 employees; wholesale and retail trade provided 3,513 jobs; 2,676 people were employed in service occupations; state and local government accounted for 1,548 employees; and contract construction firms provided 329 jobs.

Labor Supply - There is a current estimated labor supply of 16,341 persons available for industrial jobs in the labor market area. In addition, from 1993 through 1997, 8,922 young persons in the area will become 18 years of age and potentially available for industrial jobs.

Transportation - Major "AAA"-rated (80,000-pound gross load limit) highways serving Danville are U.S. Highways 127 and 150. "AA"-rated highways (62,000-pound gross load limit) serving Danville are Kentucky Routes 33, 34 and 52. Thirty-three common carrier trucking companies provide interstate and/or intrastate service to the city. The Norfolk Southern Corporation provides main line rail service to the city. The Danville-Boyle County Airport maintains two paved runways of 4,800 and 2,400 feet. The nearest scheduled commercial airline service is available at the Bluegrass Airport near Lexington, 38 miles north of Danville.

Power and Fuel - Kentucky Utilities Company provides electric power to Danville and portions of Boyle County. The major portion of Boyle County is served by Inter-County Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation. Western Kentucky Gas Company provides natural gas service to Danville.

Education - Primary and secondary education is provided to Danville and Boyle County by the Danville Independent School System and the Boyle County School System. The Danville Independent School System is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The Kentucky School for the Deaf is also located in Danville. Centre College, located in Danville, is an independent, four-year college which confers Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees. The Kentucky College of Business, also located in Danville, confers the Associate in Science degree. In addition, seven institutions of higher learning are located within 35 miles of Danville. Vocational training is available at the Central Kentucky State Vocational-Technical School in Lexington, 35 miles northeast of Danville; the Harrodsburg Area Vocational Education Center, 9 miles north of Danville at Harrodsburg; and the Garrard County Area Vocational Education Center at Lancaster, 12 miles east of Danville.

LABOR MARKET STATISTICS

AVERAGE PLACEMENT WAGES

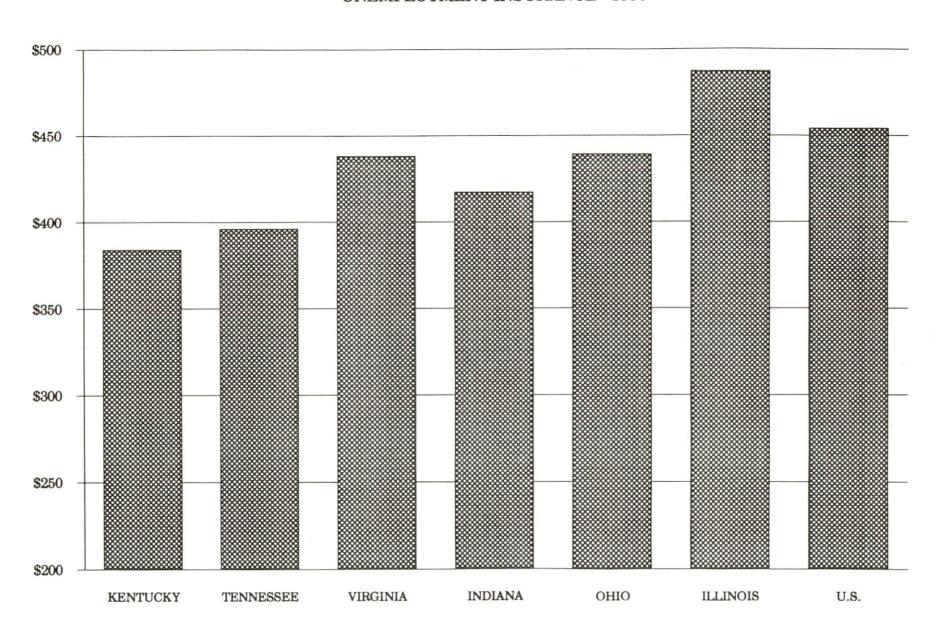

Boyle County is served by the Danville local office of the Kentucky Department for Employment Services. The focus of the following data is on job placements made by the Danville local office and may therefore be used as an indicator of the wages which employers in the area pay new employees. During the twelve months which ended on June 30, 1990, the local employment office filled 2,164 job openings in various occupational categories. The average hourly wage for selected occupational categories were:

OCCUPATIONAL CATEGORY	NUMBER OF PLACEMENTS	AVERAGE WAGE($)
All Occupations	2,164	5.23
Clerical	318	4.03
Sales	90	3.95
Services (excluding domestic)	275	3.56

TRANSPORTATION

Highways

U.S. Highways 127 and 150 are "AAA"-rated (80,000-pound gross load limit) highways serving Danville. U.S. 127 provides Danville with four-lane access to the Blue Grass Parkway, 24 miles to the north. The Blue Grass Parkway is a multi-lane highway which connects with Interstate 65, 67 miles west of Danville.

U.S. 150 provides direct access to Interstate 75, 38 miles southeast of Danville and to U.S. Highway 27, 11 miles southeast. Interstate 75 is also accessible 38 miles east of Danville via U.S. 150 and Kentucky Route 1295 and 52. U.S. 127 continues south to the multi-lane Cumberland Parkway, 51 miles south of Danville.

Kentucky Routes 33 and 34, both "AA"-rated highways (62,000-pound gross load limit), also serve Danville.

A highway improvement project was completed for Kentucky Route 34 from Danville to U.S. Highway 27. The project included construction of a new bridge and widening of the highway.

Reconstruction of U.S. Highway 127 South from Danville to Liberty is under way. A U.S. 127 bypass around Danville was completed in 1992.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Structure

The city of Danville is served by a mayor, four city commissioners, and a city manager. The mayor serves a four-year term and the commissioners serve two-year terms. Boyle County is served by a county judge/executive and six magistrates. The county judge/executive and magistrates are elected to four-year terms.

Planning and Zoning

Joint agency - Danville-Boyle County Planning and Zoning Commission Participating cities - Danville, Junction City and Perryville Zoning enforced - All areas Subdivision regulations enforced - All areas Mandatory state codes enforced - Kentucky Plumbing Code, National Electric Code, Kentucky Boiler Regulations and Standards, Kentucky Building Code (modeled after BOCA code)

Local Fees and Licenses

The City of Danville levies a business license fee of $25 annually. An occupational license fee of one percent is levied on wages, salaries and commissions of individuals and on net profits of business with a minimum of $25.

Boyle County levies an occupational license fee of 0.45 of one percent on wages, salaries and commissions of individuals and on net profits of businesses.

PROPERTY TAXES

The Kentucky Constitution requires the state to tax all classes of taxable property, and state statutes allow local jurisdictions to tax only a few classes. All locally taxed property is subject to county taxes and school district taxes (either a county school district or an independent school district). Property located inside of city limits may also be subject to city property taxes.

Special local taxing jurisdictions (fire protection districts, watershed districts, and sanitation districts) levy taxes within their operating areas (usually a small portion of community or county).

Property assessments in Kentucky are at 100% fair cash value. A 15% reduction is automatically granted for accounts receivable.

A five million dollar expansion was completed at Kentucky Tech-Central in the fall of 1992. The expansion includes a new manufacturing technology facility that houses manufacturing related programs such as machine tool technology, computer aided drafting, electronics and industry electrical technology. A computer-integrated work cell laboratory in one room of the building links all the programs, simulating the operation of an actual manufacturing plant. Applied physics, hydraulics and quality control applications are integrated into the curriculum.

Another room in the new facility can be used by business and industry for start-up and new production training.

Moving all manufacturing-related training into one building provided space for Kentucky Tech-Central to add health care programs as part of its expansion. These include medical imaging, medical assisting, bio-medical technician and laboratory technician programs.

Customized Training

The Kentucky Tech system, through its Training and Development Coordinators will provide technical assistance and will identify and develop low cost customized training programs and services for existing, as well as new and expanding businesses and industries.

Businesses and industries needing customized training or a continuing education program for its employees should simply contact a Training and Development Coordinator located at the Kentucky Tech North Central office in Lexington.

Assessment Services

Kentucky Tech Career Connections offers to business, education, and government agencies customized assessment in career inventories, interest inventories, psychomotor skills and academic potential, as well as pre-hire assessment. The Career Connections Assessment Center is located on the campus of Kentucky Tech-Central.

Adult Education Services

Adult education programs are available to adults who want to develop new skills, improve basic skills or earn a high school equivalency diploma. In Danville, adult literacy is provided by the Danville/Boyle County Literacy Program and adult basic education is provided through the Danville Adult Learning Center at Danville High School.

Bluegrass State Skills Corporation

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation, an independent public corporation created and funded by the Kentucky General Assembly, provides programs of skills training to meet the needs of business and industry from entry level to advanced training, and from upgrading present employees to retraining experienced workers.

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation is a major source for skills training assistance for a new or existing company. The Corporation works in partnership with other employment and job training resources and programs, as well as Kentucky's economic development activities, to package a program customized to meet the specific needs of a company.

COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENTS

Danville re-certified as a "Kentucky Certified City" in 1992, and is distinguished as a gold award winner recognizing nine consecutive years of certification. Re-certification is based on achievement in the following areas: existing industry assistance, small business assistance, educational resources, and community development factors of health care, public safety, arts and culture, recreation, governmental awareness and resources. In addition to receiving the 1992 Gold Award, Danville was recognized as a Hall of Fame community. This newly created category not only demonstrates that a community is adequately prepared for immediate growth, but also that the community has analyzed emerging economic trends, and has set about planning for the future. The Certified Cities Program is sponsored by the Kentucy Chamber of Commerce.
