A highlight of the Alumni year at Gardner-Webb College is the annual spring banquet. Set for 7 p.m., Saturday, May 17, this year's get-together may prove to be the finest moment yet for the Alumni Association.

With increased interest, communications and continued organization of alumni chapters, alumni have increasingly continued to return for visits, take part in projects and help support the annual fund.

We hope you will return on May 17 to take part in the selection of officers for the coming year, to learn about the Alumnus or Alumnae of the year, meet old friends and enjoy the program which will include a report by Dr. Eugene Poston about the college's four year program.

Make your reservations now. Write the Alumni office and request tickets ($1.50) for the banquet. Classes in reunion will be 1910, 1915, 1920, 1925, 1930, 1935, 1940, 1945, 1950, 1955, 1960 and 1965. The Class of 1969 will be guests of the college at the banquet.

Bulldogs were the "Toast of the Town"

Letters were the toast of a Kinston picnic last week after demonstrating every attribute of college skill and sports which had basketball fans come out to see. The scene was Hinesbluff, Kin, and the National Basketball tournament.

The Gardner-Webb College Bulldogs, down by 22 points at midway of the first half, came prevailing back to make the net's number two junior college team as three overtimes for a victory. Phoenix of Arizona won the game but the Bulldogs drew the thousands of fans' hearts as they drew a standing round of applause in acceptance of the trophy as the country's number two junior college squad.

From the start it was amazing and the Hardy fans seemed to love the team, the pep band, the cheerleaders, the friendly-concerned fans who had journeyed halfway across the continent to back their team.

Three pep rallies on the street in front of the Baker Hotel had fans creating and chanting it up as "an addition" to the greatest show in Kansas. Professional JUDO fans adopted the friendly southernness and woe'ny' disappeared. The first loss to Robert Morris of Pittsburgh, Pa., only brought about another pep rally and the stopping of traffic. It seemed that the crowd in Kinston and the "Dogs" didn't let these new found fans down. They roused back to whip Beyond of Florida 20-9.

This brought them to an historic club. In the losses bracket were the highly-touted, southern players from Phoenix. Captured at 32-0 when they arrived and the victory at an upset, this squad was dynamite. They came out and ripped the GW leads to pieces for 12 minutes. Still the GW fans sponsored support. Suddenly it began to happen. Down by 31-0, the Dog's little New York guard, Steve Kolbeck, came alive with energy and hit those long field goals. Big 7-1 Artie Gilmore sink a fourth and it was on — the greatest sight contact of this tournament to date.
