"WITH THE COLORS"

April 28th, 1918.

Dear brother in Christ:

Your kind and generous letter conveying the remembrance of our home church in their prayers, for us and the great and worthy ^{cause} in which we and all others are serving, was a great inspiration to us. Since our government entered the war upon the noble principle of freedom for civilization and Christianity against Barbarism we have felt it to be a just cause and are trusting God to give us victory.

But what has sorely grieved us is that so many of the men that

"WITH THE COLORS"

are in the Army are not Christians. Please ask the church to remember these men always in their prayers,
and give our Army
and the Armies of the Alles Victory.

Sincerely Yours,

B. S. J. H. A. Weather
