Return of the Magnificent Seven – as Palimericks

TIM HEATH Wantage, Oxfordshire, UK timheath@btinternet.com

Palimericks

Palimericks are limericks that are also examples of rhyming, end-to-end palindromes (RETEPs). Earlier articles on palimericks include the following:

- Jim Puder introduced the term palimerick and molded letter-unit palindromes into "coarse approximations of limericks" (Word Ways: Vol. 30, Iss. 4, Article 6, 1997);
- Dave Morice introduced word-unit examples and wondered whether letter-unit forms could be composed (Kickshaws, Word Ways: Vol. 40, Iss. 1, Article 18, 2007);
- Jim Puder presented some word-unit palimericks and four structurally related letter-unit examples (Word Ways: Vol. 40, Iss. 2, Article 24, 2007) and then a further letter-unit example (Word Ways: Vol. 43, Iss. 1, Article 10, 2010);
- more recently, Lori Wike has presented examples based on forms with one-letter units, two-letter units and word-units (Word Ways: Vol. 50, Iss. 4, Article 22, 2017).

One general suggestion proposed by Jim Puder is to re-work existing palindromes into RETEP form. Inspired by this tip, I have extended seven of the best known one-line palindromes into the letter-unit palimericks below.

Panama Palimerick

A man, a plan, acting I spar No sin union, no Zeus bar Go grab Suez on No, in unison Rap-sign it, canal, Panama.

Napoleon Palimerick

Til Bonaparte's row atop nit I saw Elba's eye, I dot it Felt left, I, to die Yes, able was I Tin-pot, a worse trap, a nob lit.

Satanic Palimerick

A metallic sonata's too far Often sit, ah, who room-sat a star? Mum, rat sat as Moor Oh, what is net for? A foot, Satan oscillate Ma.

Salami Palimerick

Spa boner, a bi-part on maps Go hang a salami, an apse A "Viva Espana" I'm a lasagna Hog spam, no trap, I bare no baps.

Doc-note Palimerick

Doc note I dissent if I nod No-parts remit, trap on no god A madam, a dog on No part-timer strap-on Don I fitness, I diet on cod.

Rodent Palimerick

Rats live on no Del-bane cigar To spite, manic, I gamed a jar A bar, a jade magic I name tip so tragic Enabled on no evil star.

Madam Palimerick

Snub madam I'm Adam tap won No burn I a jar on no guns A test set, a snug on No Raja in rub on Now, pat madam, I'm Adam buns.

Top tip: a fun way to check the correct scanning of limericks is to try singing them to the tune of "Popeye the Sailor Man". Some of the above examples use a common limerick variation in which the third and fourth lines are abbreviated from six to five syllables. When singing, they require a short melismatic extension to the last syllable of these lines.

Original palindromes sources

A man, a plan, a canal - Panama, Leigh Mercer, published in "Notes and Queries", 13 November 1948, according to "The Yale Book of Quotations", ed. F. R. Shapiro, 2006.

Able was I ere I saw Elba, earliest known reference accredited to "J.T.R," in "The Gazette of the Union Golden Rules and Odd-Fellow's Family Companion", Vol. IX, p 30, 1848; according to shannonselin.com.

Satan oscillate my metallic sonatas, from the rock group: Soundgarden's EP of the same name, A&M Records, released 23 June 1992.

Go hang a salami! I'm a lasagna hog! Jon Agee, "Go hang a salami! I'm a lasagna hog! and other palindromes", Jon Agee book, Sunburst edition, 1994.

Doc, note: I dissent. A fast never prevents a fatness. I diet on cod, Peter Hilton, as reported in an article in the Daily Telegraph, London, 10 November 2010.

Rats live on no evil star and Madam, I'm Adam, original sources not determined.