PREFACE

Outlines of Bible Study is not a commentary in any sense of the word. It contains but few comments. It is not "literature" in the sense in which many object to literature. It does not study the lessons for you, but rather guides you in an intelligent study of the Bible itself. It is just what its name implies—outlines of Bible study. It simply outlines your Bible study, making it possible for you to study it systematically and profitably.

The questions following each outline direct the student, with but few exceptions, to the Bible itself for his answers. This forces him to "search the Scriptures" diligently to find answers to the questions, and leaves him free to frame his answers in his own language. In the very nature of things, this little book can never take the place of the Bible in class work; for it is absolutely useless and worthless without the Bible, to which it constantly directs the student. You do not study this little book, except to familiarize yourself with the plan of study; but you study the Bible itself, this little book serving you only as a guide in your study.

The author has spent many hours very pleasantly and profitably in the preparation of this work. He has also taught the courses outlined in the following pages for a number of years with quite a degree of satisfaction. And it is his sincere desire that many others may find both pleasure and profit in the study of the one great Book as herein outlined.

This little book is now sent forth on its mission, which is to lead men to systematically study the one Book, with the earnest prayer that it may accomplish its mission wherever it goes.

THE AUTHOR.

A WORD TO TEACHERS AND STUDENTS

Before you undertake to study or to teach the Bible by this system of outlines, be sure you understand the plan thoroughly. It is a beautiful system, easily understood, and will produce results if faithfully followed.

You will notice that there are seventeen drill lessons running through the book and covering all Bible history. These drills (except the first and the second) consist each of an outline, followed by a series of questions and answers, or references for answers. The first drill has no outline, but is simply a list of questions and answers. This introductory lesson is intended to furnish the student information about the Bible as a book before he begins to search within for its wonders. The second drill has no outline, but consists of a diagram of the historical periods of the Bible, followed by a list of questions which lead to a careful study of the diagram. This lesson is intended to "blaze the way," so to speak, through the Bible, and give the student an idea of the ground to be covered and the work to be done in the following fifteen drills.

The outlines of the fifteen periods are necessarily very brief, and are intended to suggest to the student, at sight, the ground to be covered under each particular period. These outlines should be carefully studied before proceeding to the list of questions which follows. To know these outlines thoroughly gives one a general knowledge of the Bible, as to its divisions and subdivisions, and renders the study of it both pleasant and profitable.

The list of questions following each outline is intended to direct the line of thought and study. These questions do not exhaust the subject, of course. Many of these will suggest other questions which the wide-awake teacher will be sure to ask. In looking up references for answers to questions, the student should not be satisfied to read the verse or verses, or even the chapters indicated, but should read the connections and marginal references and investigate each subject as thoroughly as possible.

With a competent teacher, who knows his lesson well, and who is capable of using the drill method effectively, a class may be carried over this course in seventeen days—one drill each day—with good results. Of course, in this case, the success will depend largely on the teacher and his ability to impart knowledge by drilling the class over and over again and again, on the principal points.

But, for better results, it is advised that the course be covered in seventeen weeks instead of seventeen days. This gives more time for the students to prepare the lessons, and is more satisfactory in every way. Of course, even in this seventeen-weeks' course, much depends on the teacher and his fitness for the work. However, almost any one with some natural talent as a teacher can successfully conduct this seventeen-weeks' course, if he will faithfully apply himself.

But where it is desired to go more into details, and to study the lessons more carefully and critically, it is best to give one year's study to the course. For this purpose the questions have been divided into fifty-two lessons, indicated in parentheses. This furnishes a splendid year's work for students of almost any age. Any one with ordinary ability can teach this course successfully, as it gives the teacher plenty of time to familiarize himself with the lessons before coming before the class. This course is recommended for all weekly Bible classes, especially for students above twelve and fourteen years of age.

The author of this little book has taught classes according to each of the plans suggested above, and is frank to say, without appearing to boast, that the results have been, in each case, quite gratifying. Of course, the more time that can be given to the course, the better it is. But where a competent teacher can be secured for only seventeen days, he can usually instill new life into a congregation, even in this short time, and lead them to where they can continue the work profitably.

Each student should be provided with some good reference works—a good English dictionary, a Bible dictionary or encyclopedia, a good Bible geography and concordance. For study on Drill I. and Drill XV., “All About the Bible” (price, $1) and “Between the Testaments” (price, 75 cents), by Fleming H. Revell Company, Chicago, will be found very valuable.

DRILL I.—INTRODUCTION

(Lesson 1—Introduction)

1. What does the word "Bible" mean? It comes from the Greek word "biblos," which means "book," or from the Greek word "biblia," which means "books" or "little books."

2. Why was the name "Bible" applied to the sacred writings? By way of preëminence; it is "the Book of books."

3. When was the name "Bible" first applied to these sacred writings? About the fourth century A.D. (?)

4. Mention some scriptural names that are applied to these writings. Rom. 3: 2; 2 Tim. 3: 16, 17; 4: 1, 2.

5. Define the word "scriptures." The word literally means anything written; but "the Scriptures" has come to mean the inspired writings.

6. Define the word "oracles." The word literally means utterances of God.

7. How did God utter these "oracles?" 2 Sam. 23: 2; Acts 1: 16; 2 Pet. 1: 20, 21.

8. About how many men wrote the Bible? Between thirty-six and forty.

9. Why can we not tell just how many? It is not certain as to who wrote some of the books.

10. How many years were they writing, from first to last? About sixteen hundred years.

11. State the number of years covered by their writings. In round numbers, about four thousand.

12. Are there any of these original writings now in existence? No.

13. What do you know about manuscript copies of the Bible? There are said to be some fifteen hundred copies, some containing the whole Bible, and some of them dating as far back as the fourth century.

14. Where are these manuscript copies? The "Vatican" is in the possession of the Roman Catholic Church at Rome; the "Sinaitic" is at St. Petersburg, in the possession of the Greek Catholic Church; the "Alexandrian" is in the British Museum, the property of the Protestants. Each of these three contains nearly the whole of the Bible. Then there are many copies in private libraries in different parts of the world.

15. Name twenty Old Testament writers. Search the Scriptures.

16. How many books did Moses write? Moses wrote five books—Genesis to Deuteronomy, and possibly Job.

17. What are these five books called? They are called the "Pentateuch," from the Greek word "pentateuchos," which means a fivefold book.

18. Name all the New Testament writers. Search the Scriptures.

19. How many of these were apostles? Search the Scriptures.

20. Tell how many books each New Testament writer wrote. Search the Scriptures.

21. In what language was the Old Testament originally written? Mainly in the Hebrew.

22. In what language was the New Testament originally written? In the Greek language.

23. When and where was the Old Testament first translated into Greek? The work is said to have begun in the year 277 B.C. in Alexandria, Egypt.

24. What is this version of the Old Testament called? It is called the "Septuagint," from the Latin word "septuaginta," which signifies seventy.

25. Why was it called the "Septuagint?" Because it was once thought to have been translated by seventy-two scholars in seventy-two days.

26. By what other name is this version called? It is called the "Alexandrian," because it was translated in Alexandria.

27. Are there any copies of this version now in existence? Yes, and they are said to be the oldest documents in existence.

28. What evidence have we that the Septuagint version is authentic? Scholars generally agree that it is the version from which Jesus so often quoted. If so, it has the approval of the divine Son of God.

29. Into about how many languages has the Bible been translated? About five hundred. Some say six hundred.

30. What was England's first Bible? The "Vulgate," a

Latin translation made from the Septuagint version of the Old Testament and the original Greek of the New Testament.

31. What does the word "Vulgate" mean? It comes from the Latin word "vulgata," which signifies "to make common, or public."

32. Who revised this Vulgate version? Jerome, in the fourth century.

33. What do you know about this version of the Vulgate? It is the version that is still used by the Catholic Church.

34. What was the first English translation of note? Wyckliffe's translation from the Vulgate in 1360-1382.

35. How long was Wyckliffe engaged in translating the Bible from the Latin into the English? He is said to have spent twenty-two years on it.

36. How long did it take to make a copy of this Bible with a pen? It required ten months.

1. How did these manuscript copies of the Bible sell? They are said to have sold for about $200 a copy.

2. Who opposed Wyckliffe in his work of translating the Bible into the English language? The Roman Catholic Church opposed him and persecuted him. He was formally tried and excommunicated, and forty years after his death they dug up his body and burned it and scattered his ashes on the River Swift.

3. Who gave us our first printed English Bible? William Tyndale, in 1525, printed the New Testament in English, and in 1536 Miles Coverdale printed the whole Bible in English.

4. What do you know of this first printed New Testament? It is now in the British Museum.

5. What became of William Tyndale? He was mercilessly persecuted by the Roman Catholic Church, and finally, on October 6, 1536, he was strangled and then burned at the stake.

6. What was the first "Authorized Version" of the Bible? In 1537 John Rogers issued a Bible under the title of "Matthew's Bible." Two years later Miles Coverdale and others brought out what was practically a reprint of "Matthew's Bible" under the title of "Cranmer's Bible." When King Henry VIII. saw it, he said: "In God's name let it go forth among our people." This was the first official authority for circulating the Bible.

7. By what other name was this Bible called? It was called the "Great Bible," because of its size, and also the "Chained Bible," because it was chained to the pulpits of the churches for safe-keeping.

8. What do you know of Henry VIII. later in life? He afterwards ceased to encourage the circulation of the Bible, and in consequence the destruction of Bibles by the Catholics was great.

9. What was the first distinctively Protestant Bible? The "Geneva Bible," which was published by the Reformers in Geneva, whither they had fled during the awful persecution in the reign of Queen Mary, during whose reign some three hundred Bible men were burned at the stake.

10. Why was this Bible called the "Breeches Bible?" Because Gen. 3: 7 was rendered: "They sewed fig tree leaves together and made themselves breeches."

11. What else do you know about this Geneva Bible? It was the first Bible to use italics to indicate the words that are not in the original language; also it was the first whole Bible that was divided into verses.

12. What was the "Bishops' Bible?" In 1568 a committee, composed largely of bishops, brought out a version of the Bible, which was called the "Bishops' Bible," because of the number of bishops on this committee. It was never very popular, and soon fell into disuse.

13. When was the King James Bible issued? In 1611.

14. It was the work of how many scholars? Forty-seven.

15. How long were they in translating the Bible? Five years.

16. By what other names is this Bible called? The "Authorized Version," because it was authorized to be read in the Church of England, and the "Common Version," because it is in common use.

17. When was the Revised Version completed? The New Testament in 1881, and the Old Testament in 1885.

18. When was the American Standard Revised Version issued? In 1901.

19. Give a reason why we should have a revision every few hundred years at least. Because the language is constantly undergoing changes. New words are coming into use, and others are becoming obsolete, and still others are changing their meaning.

20. Mention ten important versions of the Bible. See above.

21. Name the two grand divisions of the Bible. The Old Testament and the New Testament.

22. How many books in the Old Testament? Thirty-nine.

23. How many books in the New Testament? Twenty-seven.

24. Name the three divisions of the Old Testament. Luke 24: 44.

25. Name the three divisions of the New Testament. The books of testimony (Matthew to John), the book of conversions (Acts), and the Epistles (Romans to Revelation).

26. Name the three great ages, or dispensations. The Patriarchal Age, the Jewish Age, and the Christian Age.

27. Between what events is the Patriarchal Age? Between the creation and the giving of the law on Mount Sinai.

28. Between what events is the Jewish Age? Between the giving of the law on Mount Sinai and the death of Christ.

29. Between what events is the Christian Age? Between the death of Christ and the second coming of Christ.

30. State the number of years covered by each of these ages. In round numbers, the Patriarchal Age, 2,500 years; the Jewish Age, 1,500 years; the Christian Age, 1,900 years.

31. Mention the religious characteristics of each age. In the Patriarchal Age, family religion; in the Jewish Age, national religion; in the Christian Age, international religion.

32. Mention the most prominent character of each age. Patriarchal, Abraham; Jewish, Moses; Christian, Jesus.

33. When was the Bible divided into chapters? In A.D. 1250, by Cardinal Hugo.

34. When was it divided into verses? In 1551 to 1560.

35. What advantage is this division? One advantage is that it makes possible the use of the concordance.

36. Mention one disadvantage. It frequently severs the connection of parts that are closely related.

From B.C. 4004 to B.C. 2348. Time covered, 1656 years.

THE CREATION

(a) First day—light; day and night. (b) Second day—firmament; water divided, above and below. (c) Third day—land and water divided; vegetation. (d) Fourth day—sun, moon, and stars. (e) Fifth day—animal life; fish and fowl. (f) Sixth day—beasts; creeping things; man. (g) Seventh day—the work finished, God rested. (Gen. 1: 1 to 2: 3.)

THE STORY OF EDEN

(a) Location (?). (b) Trees of the garden—"tree of life;" the tree of knowledge; other trees. (c) The temptation and fall—results: (1) Eve doomed to sorrow; (2) Adam doomed to toil; (3) death passed upon all men. (Gen. 3; Rom. 5: 12; 1 Cor. 15: 21, 22.)

CAIN AND ABEL

(a) Their offerings. (b) Abel is murdered. (c) Cain is cursed. (d) Seth is born. (Gen. 4; Heb. 11: 4.)

THE GENEALOGY

(1) Adam; (2) Seth; (3) Enosh; (4) Kenan; (5) Mahalalel; (6) Jared; (7) Enoch; (8) Methuselah; (9) Lamech; (10) Noah. (Gen. 5.)

THE PROMISED SEED

(a) Who is the seed of the woman? Gen. 3: 15; 22: 18; Gal. 3: 16. (b) Who is the serpent? Rev. 12: 9; 20: 2. (c) How did Christ bruise his head, and how did he bruise Christ's heel?

(Lesson 4—Antediluvian Period)

1. What does the word "Antediluvian" mean? It comes from the Latin words "ante" ("before") and "diluvium" ("the deluge"); hence it means before the deluge, or before the flood.

2. Between what events is this period? See outline.

3. Between what dates is this period? See outline.

4. How many years does this period cover? See outline.

5. How many chapters tell the story of this period? See outline.

6. What was the condition of the earth "in the beginning?" Gen. 1: 2.

7. What book in the New Testament begins, like Genesis, with the words, "In the beginning?" Search the Scriptures.

8. Do we know how long ago since God "in the beginning" created the heavens and the earth? No. "In the beginning" is very indefinite. It could mean six thousand or six million years ago, or a hundred million, for that. So there can be no conflict between science and the Bible here.

9. How did the idea originate that the world is only about six thousand years old? From the fact that it is about six thousand years since God prepared the earth for man and placed him thereon. Gen. 1: 3-28.

10. What was the condition of the earth before God prepared it for man's habitation? Gen. 1: 2.

11. Can we tell how long it had been in this condition? We cannot.

12. What did God do to prepare it for man's habitation? Gen. 1: 3-25.

13. How long was God preparing the earth for man? Gen. 2: 1-3; Ex. 20: 11.

14. How do we figure that it has been about six thousand years since God prepared the earth for man? By adding the ages of the Antediluvian Patriarchs—Adam, Seth, Enosh, Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared, Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, and Noah—at the birth of their first sons, and adding to this the age of Shem at the flood, we find that it was sixteen hundred and fifty-six years from the creation of Adam to the flood. (Gen. 5: 3-32; 7: 6.) In like manner we can count the time down to about the death of Moses—twenty-five hundred years from the creation of Adam. This brings us down within the range of secular history.

15. What took place on the first day? Gen. 1: 3-5.
16. What did God make on the second day? Gen. 1: 6-8.
17. What was done on the third day? Gen. 1: 9-13.
18. What was made on the fourth day? Gen. 1: 14-19.
19. What was made on the fifth day? Gen. 1: 20-23.
20. What was made on the sixth day? Gen. 1: 24-31.
21. What did God do on the seventh day? Gen. 2: 2.
22. Where did God plant a garden? Gen. 2: 8.
23. Name the four rivers that were associated with Eden. Gen. 2: 10-14.
24. Which two of these have been identified? The Euphrates and the Hildekel (Tigris).
25. Locate the Euphrates and the Tigris Rivers. See geography.
26. What kind of trees did God make to grow in the garden of Eden? Gen. 2: 9.
27. What was the "tree of life?" Gen. 2: 9.
28. What was the "tree of knowledge?" Gen. 2: 9.
29. What was the one "forbidden fruit?" Gen. 2: 16, 17.
30. How were Adam and Eve led to partake of this "forbidden fruit?" Gen. 3: 1-6.
31. Did the serpent tell the truth or a falsehood in inducing them to eat the "forbidden fruit?" Gen. 3: 1-7.
32. State some of the results of this sin. Gen. 3: 14-19.
33. Are we guilty of the "Adamic sin?" Ezek. 18: 14-20.
34. How did Adam's sin affect all mankind? Rom. 5: 12.
35. Through whom did we regain all that we lost in Adam? 1 Cor. 15: 20, 21.
36. Who were Cain and Abel? Gen. 4: 1, 2.
37. Why was Abel's offering accepted and Cain's rejected? Gen. 4: 3-5; Heb. 11: 4.
38. What effect did this have on Cain? Gen. 4: 5-8.
39. When can we do a thing "by faith?" Rom. 10: 17.
40. What lesson do we learn from Cain and Abel? Rom. 15: 4.
41. Who was born to take Abel's place? Gen. 4: 25.
42. Who was the oldest man of this period? Gen. 5: 25-27.

43. How is it that Methuselah, being so old, yet died before his father? Gen. 5: 24.

44. Did Enoch go to heaven when "God took him?" Gen. 5: 24; Heb. 11: 5.

45. Give the genealogy from Adam to Noah. Gen. 5 (see outline).

46. Who was the "seed of the woman?" Gen. 3: 15; 22: 18.

47. Who was this serpent that "beguiled" Eve? 2 Cor. 11: 3; Rev. 12: 9; 20: 2.

48. What did John the Baptist say about the "generation of vipers?" Matt. 3: 7.

49. How did Christ bruise Satan's head, and how did he bruise Christ's heel? This probably refers to the great conflict between Christ and Satan, which resulted in Christ's being mercilessly persecuted and finally nailed to the cross (representing the bruising of his heel); but finally rising from the dead, victor over Satan, causing him to lose his power (representing the bruising of his head).

5. How long had they been under the Persian rule? Since the days of Cyrus, about one hundred and thirty-seven years.
6. How much longer were they under the Persian rule? Until the time of Alexander the Great, about seventy years.
7. What is known of the Jews during these seventy years? The few facts that have come down to us indicate that the general trend of their course was downward.
8. To whom did the Jews next become tributary? The Greeks.
9. How long were they under the Grecian rule? Until the death of Alexander, about ten or twelve years.
10. How did the Jews fare under Alexander? He treated them kindly and respected their religion.
11. What city did Alexander build in Egypt? Alexandria.
12. With whom did he people this city? Greeks, Egyptians, and Jews.
13. What became of Alexander's kingdom at his death? It was divided among his four principal generals.

15. Under which of these were the Jews at the first? The Egyptian.
16. How long were the Jews under the Egyptian rule? About one hundred years.
17. How did they fare during this time? Fairly well, it is thought. Their history during these one hundred years is dull.
18. Which of the kingdoms next exercised authority over the Jews? The Syrian.
19. How did they fare under the Syrian rule? Very badly indeed.
20. Who was Antiochus Epiphanes? One of the Syrian kings.

21. What do you know about him? The historian says: "Into the eleven years of his reign (175-164 B.C.) were crowded such horrors as have seldom disgraced a sovereign or maddened a people."

22. How did he offend the Jews? He made a decree forbidding them to worship Jehovah.

23. How else did he offend them? He introduced idolatry into Jerusalem, sacrificed a sow on the altar, and even made a broth of some of the meat and besmeared the temple with it.

24. How many Jews were slaughtered in an attempt to force them into idolatry? Forty thousand.

25. What aged priest began the war for independence? Mattathias.

26. Give the names of his five sons. Judas, the hammer (called "Judas Maccabeus"); Jonathan, the cunning; John, the holy; Eleazer, the beast sticker; and Simon, the jewel.

27. How many Jews perished rather than resist on the Sabbath day? One thousand.

28. On the death of Mattathias, who became the leader? Judas, the third son.

29. Give an account of the career of Judas Maccabeus. With a small army he soon rescued Jerusalem from the Syrians. He cleansed the temple and reestablished the divine worship. He had five splendid victories in rapid succession.

30. How did Judas die? He finally fell on the battlefield, with his back to the ground and his face to the enemy.

31. Why was Eleazer called the "beast sticker?" When the Syrians entered Palestine with twenty large elephants Eleazer discovered one that was larger and more gorgeously decorated than the rest. He supposed that the king was riding on this beast, and broke through the line of guards, ran under the beast, and thrust his sword into his body, killing the beast, himself, and many others.

32. On the death of Judas, who became the leader? Jonathan.

33. How did John meet his death? Jonathan sent John, with the women and children, beyond the Jordan, while he pushed the war for independence. The Arabs treacherously slew John, thus violating their first law—to "show kindness to strangers."

34. What important change occurred in the time of Jonathan? The office of the high priest was transferred from the family of Aaron to the Maccabean family, Jonathan becoming high priest.

35. How did the independence cause prosper under Jonathan? Splendidly.

36. How did Jonathan finally meet his death? He was led into a trap by Tryphon, the great "king maker," and thus became a prisoner. Tryphon promised to release him on the receipt of a large sum of money. Simon, his brother, sent the ransom money. Tryphon kept the money and slew his prisoner.

37. After the death of Jonathan, who became the leader? Simon, the eldest son of Mattathias.

38. Was Simon also proclaimed high priest? He was.

39. When did the Jews gain their independence? Under Simon, in the year 142 B.C., by a treaty of peace.

1. How long had they been in subjection to other nations? Since they were carried away to Babylon, three hundred and sixty-five years.

2. How long did this independence last? Less than one hundred years.

3. Give an account of the happy state during Simon's reign. The historian says: "Every man tilled his land with peace; and the land yielded her increase, and the trees of the field their fruit. Every man sat under his vine and under his fig tree, and there was none to make them afraid. The land had rest and the people had plenty."

4. How did Simon seek the favor of Rome? He sent an embassy to cultivate Rome's friendship, and also sent as a present a shield of gold weighing more than one thousand pounds.

5. In his old age how did Simon meet his death? His son-in-law, Ptolemy, conceived the idea of making himself ruler by exterminating the Maccabean family. He murdered Simon and his oldest son, Judas, and held Simon's wife and the two younger sons as prisoners. (John, another son, escaped.)

6. Who took the lead after Simon's death? John Hyrcanus, the son of Simon, who escaped death at the hands of his brother-in-law, Ptolemy.

7. What became of Simon's wife and the two sons? John raised an army and besieged the stronghold where Ptolemy held them as prisoners. Ptolemy exposed them on the wall, threatening to kill them if John did not raise the siege; and although his mother pleaded with him to avenge the death of her husband and his father, the sight of his mother and two brothers moved John to withdraw his army. Then Ptolemy slew his prisoners and fled beyond the Jordan.

8. What do you know of the reign of John Hyrcanus? He reigned prosperously for twenty-nine years, and his kingdom increased until it approached the glory and extent of Solomon's kingdom.

9. What two enemies did John subdue? The Samaritans and the Edomites.

10. What do you know about John and the temple on Mount Gerizim? John destroyed this temple after it had stood about two hundred years. It was never rebuilt.

11. Relate the conversation between Jesus and the Samaritan woman. John 4: 1-26.

12. On the death of John Hyrcanus, who became leader? His son, Aristobulus.

13. What is said about Aristobulus and his reign? "He reigned only one year, but into this one year he crowded enough crime to make himself unique in infamy."

14. Who next became the leader? Jonathan, a brother of Aristobulus.

15. What do you know of his reign? The historian says: "His reign of twenty-seven years is one long story of border and civil war, of alternate success and defeat, of daring adventure and ruthless slaughter."

16. Who came to the throne on the death of Jonathan? His wife, Alexandria.

17. What is said of her reign? She is said to have held the reins of the government wisely and firmly.

18. On the death of Alexandria, what happened? The Jews at this time had become divided into the two great religious sects, Pharisees and Sadducees. The two sons of Alexandria, Aristobulus and Hyrcanus, each aspired to the throne. One was a Pharisee and the other a Sadducee; and, as a result, civil war broke out.

19. What finally became of this civil strife? Both the sons appealed to Rome for help; and, in response, Rome sent an army under Pompey to invade Judea. The strife continued a number of years, and finally ended by the Jews becoming tributary to Rome. Thus ended their brief independence.

20. When did Herod become governor of Judea? In B.C. 40.

21. Who was Herod? He was a descendant of the Edomites.

22. What do you know about the character of Herod? He was wicked, envious, jealous, and cruel.

23. What do you know of his wife, Mariamne? She was a descendant of the Maccabean family, and was said to be the most beautiful woman of the age.

24. What became of Mariamne? Jealous of her lest she should seek to turn the kingdom over to the Maccabean family, Herod ordered her killed.

25. What other crimes did he commit against the Maccabean family? He killed Mariamne's father, grandfather, and uncle; and, fearing that her two sons (his own sons as well) would seek the throne, he ordered a mock trial for them and had them condemned and killed.

26. Who was partly responsible for these awful crimes? Herod's sister, Salome, who is said to have aroused and kept alive his jealousy.

27. What awful crime is recorded against him in the Bible? Matt. 2: 16.

28. Do you know anything more of Herod's wickedness? In order that there might be general mourning when he died, he ordered the chief men of the Jews to be imprisoned, and gave order to Salome and her husband to have the soldiers kill them as soon as the breath left his body. This scheme was devised while he was on his deathbed.

29. How did the Jews feel toward Herod? They hated him heartily, of course.

30. How did he attempt to regain their friendship in his old days? By tearing down the temple that Zerubbabel built

(which had never been satisfactory to the Jews) and building it on a more magnificent scale.

31. How did Heroed die? He died of a loathsome disease, with "not one soul in all the earth to love him or to weep for him."

32. Name the Jewish sects. Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, Herodians, and Zealots.

33. When did these sects arise? During the period between the Testaments.

34. What did the Pharisees believe? They believed in angels and spirits and in the resurrection. They also accepted tradition, or "the unwritten law," as authority in religious matters.

36. Who were the Essenes? They were a class of Jews that made purity of life their one great object. They also believed in holding "all things in common."

37. Who were the Herodians? A sect among the Jews who supported the Herodian family in the hope of maintaining their independence.

38. Who were the Zealots? A sect of the Jews who took into their own hands, without due process of law, the punishment of flagrant offenses.

39. Name the Apocryphal books of the Old Testament. I Esdras, II Esdras, Tobit, Judith, Additions to the Book of Esther, the Wisdom of Solomon, the Wisdom of Jesus (or Ecclesiasticus), Baruch, the Song of the Three Holy Childrer, the History of Susanna, Bel and the Dragon, the Prayer of Manasses (king of Judah), I Maccabees, II Maccabees.

40. What does the word "Apocrypha" mean? It literally means "hidden."

41. Why are these books not a part of our Bible? No one knows when nor by whom they were written.

42. When are they supposed to have been written? Some time during the period between the Testaments.

43. Name the books of the New Testament Apocrypha. Mary, Protevangelion, I Infancy, II Infancy, Christ and Angarus, the Apostles' Creed, Laodiceans, Paul and Senect, Paul and Theola, I Corinthians, II Corinthians, Barnabas, Ephesians, Magnesians, Trallians, Romans, Philadelphians, Smyrneseans, Polycarp, Philippians, I Hermas, II Hermas, III Hermas.
