HAPPINESS - Happiness is a butterfly, which, when pursued, is always just beyond your grasp, but which, if you will sit down quietly, may alight upon your shoulder.

COMPARISON - If you compare yourself with others, you may become bitter or vain, for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.

HOME ATMOSPHERE

The high cost of a home is not the food bill, the furniture, the utilities, or the washing machine and refrigerator -- though the wage-earner has paid a price for all these -- but the denial of the father, the demand for patience, the swallowed pride that all go into creating a spiritual climate that are the real costs. There is no bargain basement in the building of the atmosphere of a home.

NOTE; The Early Church of Christ will hold a lectureship on the nights of January 26, 27, 28 and 29. Ross will speak on the night of the 27th, at 7:30 p.m.

IMPORTANT - This next Thursday is the day the Ladies go to the Cherokee Home.

LEAD ME ARIGHT

I do not ask, O Lord, that life
 may be a pleasant road;
 I do not ask that Thou wouldst take
 from me aught of its load;
 I do not ask that flowers should always spring beneath my feet;
 I know too well the poison and the sting of things too sweet.
 For one thing, only Lord, dear Lord,
 I plead; Lead me aright -- Though strength should falter, and though heart should bleed --
 Through peace to light. - Anne Proctor
