Creighton Issue . . .

DR. SLOWINSKI

Linacre's Associate Editor for the Creighton Issue has several honors of distinction. He has received the B'nai B'rith "Citizen of the Year Award" in West Orange, N.J. in 1964; he is Vice Chairman of the University Faculty Council at Creighton; he is professor and chairman of the Dept. of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Creighton since 1967.

Dr. Eugene Slowinski is a graduate of St. Vincent's College at Latrobe, Pennsylvania and Georgetown Medical School. He interned at St. Michael's in Newark and did his residency at Georgetown Medical Center. Following active duty with the Navy, he continued in the Naval Reserve and is presently C.O. of the Naval Reserve Medical Unit at Creighton with the rank of Commander.

He and his wife, Helen, have five children: Eugene Jr., Laura Ellen, Helen Clare, Manya and Janine. Their ages range from 15 to 5 years.

Before joining the faculty at Creighton Dr. Gene was program director in Obstetrics and Gynecology at St. Michael's from 1960 to 1967 and Assistant Professor at Seton Hall from 1964 to 1967.

The editorial staff of Linacre is proud to add Dr. Slowinski to the staff as Associate Editor — and more than proud of the total coverage of Sex Education that he has evolved for this issue.
