❖ INTRODUCTION ❖

The 2013 edition of Foundations in Wisconsin marks the 32nd production of the print directory and the 13th year of the online version. The directory is designed as a research tool for grantseekers interested in locating information on private, corporate, and community foundations registered in Wisconsin. Each entry in this new edition has been updated or reviewed to provide the most current information available. Most of the data was drawn from IRS 990-PF tax returns filed by the foundations. Additional information was obtained from surveys, foundation websites, annual reports, and newsletters.

The recovery of Wisconsin foundations from the recent economic downturn has been mixed. While the total number of grants paid ($487,953,327) and of active foundations (1264) decreased slightly, total assets ($7,068,417,918) continued to increase and 45 new foundations were identified. The following table illustrates the 10-year financial pattern as documented in Foundations in Wisconsin.

2007	1251	$478,950,513	$6,241,323,582
2006	1227	$452,791,755	$5,549,409,967
2005	1213	$395,089,700	$5,254,012,485
2004	1184	$387,572,449	$4,772,292,891

The 10 counties listed below account for 84% of total giving by Wisconsin foundations. Milwaukee County once again tops the list with 25% of the total number of foundations and 45% of the total grantmaking.

Foundations by County	Active Foundations	Total Grants Paid	Total Assets
Milwaukee	312	$220,963,972	$2,681,261,983
Waukesha	123	$53,944,813	$1,073,030,528
Dane	133	$44,268,464	$617,564,497
Outagamie	28	$18,213,660	$236,769,741
Brown	79	$17,466,009	$289,312,202
Winnebago	26	$12,292,141	$192,157,773
Racine	26	$11,883,781	$91,330,052
Rock	32	$11,640,257	$141,953,510
Ozaukee	51	$11,038,922	$103,021,912
Marathon	36	$10,504,001	$199,173,963
Total	846	$412,216,020	$5,625,576,161

The 50 largest granting foundations in the state (4% of the total number of foundations) account for $303,359,647 in total giving or 62% of the total grants reported in this edition. For the list of the top 50, please see page vii.

Foundations in Wisconsin is produced by the staff of the Funding Information Center, located in Marquette University's John P. Raynor, S.J., Library. The Center's mission is to serve the research needs of grantseekers from around the state. In the past year, we welcomed over 440 visitors and responded to more than 640 telephone, e-mail and IM inquiries. Among other resources, the Center's collection includes both the print and online versions of this directory for public use. The online directory's demo site provides information about using and subscribing to the database: www.wifoundations.org. For more information about the Center or to plan a visit, please turn to page viii or see our website at www.marquette.edu/library/fic.

Production of this directory could not have been possible without the many contributions of several key people. I am especially indebted to graduate assistants Melanie Pauly, Vicki Browne, Jakob Rinderknecht, and Kate Barnhart who spent numerous hours compiling, entering, and proofing 990-PF tax data. I am also grateful to undergraduate assistant Alyssa Gruber for her many hours of data entry. Special thanks go to Dr. Anne Carpenter, who with this edition, completes 5 years of excellent service to the Funding Information Center. Kyle Rogers of the Wisconsin Department of Justice was most helpful in providing access to recent tax information, as were the many foundation managers who responded to our survey with tax returns, application guidelines, and annual reports. Finally I would like to thank my colleagues in Research and Instructional Services as they are a constant source of support during the production process.

❖ FOUNDATION CENTER COOPERATING COLLECTIONS ❖

The Foundation Center is an independent national service organization established by foundations to provide an authoritative source of information on private philanthropic giving. Reference collections operated by the Foundation Center in New York, Washington D.C., Cleveland, San Francisco and Atlanta offer a wide variety of services and comprehensive collections of information on foundations and grants. The Foundation Center also supports over 470 Cooperating Collections located throughout the country. Cooperating Collections are libraries, community foundations and other nonprofit agencies that provide a core collection of Foundation Center publications and a variety of supplementary materials and services in areas useful to grantseekers. Many of the network members have sets of private foundation tax returns (IRS 990-PF) for their state or region which are available for public use. A complete set of U.S. foundation returns can be found at the New York and Washington offices of the Foundation Center. Because the collections vary in their hours, resources and services, it is recommended that visitors call each library in advance. DONORS FORUM OF WISCONSIN

The Donors Forum of Wisconsin (DFW) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit membership association of grantmakers working together to support and promote effective philanthropy in Wisconsin.

For over 30 years, the Donors Forum of Wisconsin has been Wisconsin's premier resource for philanthropy offering opportunities for networking, professional development, community leadership and knowledge. DFW is a growing statewide network of grantmaking organizations that are committed to improving the quality of life in Wisconsin. Donors Forum of Wisconsin is one of 33 regional associations that work to promote philanthropy across the country.

Comprised of innovative, dynamic, engaged members, DFW provides time saving services and benefits to members. DFW members represent a diverse group of individual donors, independent and family foundations, corporate foundations and giving programs, and community foundations across the state of Wisconsin.

The Donors Forum of Wisconsin represents over 130 organizational members, serving more than 350 trustees, directors, staff, and individual donors. Foundation members represent over $3 billion in assets, which accounts for over 47% of all foundation assets in the state. Together, our member foundations contribute over $230 million in grants, which accounts for 45% of all grants distributed by Wisconsin foundations.

Services and program offerings include:

Networking: With many of Wisconsin's grantmakers focusing their giving on local communities, the opportunity for funders to come together to address common issues, build skills, access information and develop relationships with and learn from one another is a key benefit of DFW membership.

Professional Development: DFW members tell us that our professional development options – such as the annual conference, grantmaking essentials and roundtable discussions – offer them valuable training and time-saving tips that refine and enhance the skills they need to be effective grantmakers.

Community Leadership: As the leading voice for organized philanthropy in the state, DFW informs external audiences such as media and policymakers about the role and power of Wisconsin grantmakers. DFW advocates on behalf of grantmakers to promote philanthropic giving and to maintain a supportive environment for philanthropy.

Knowledge: DFW offers information on Wisconsin issues, trends and policies as well as how national trends and issues play out in the state. Information and resources through its website, monthly e-newsletter, print and online publications and its dedicated and knowledgeable staff bring the latest news to members.

The Donors Forum of Wisconsin has nonprofit resources available on their website including the Wisconsin Common Grant Application. Please visit www.dfwoffline.org/wicga to download the application.

Purpose: WCF raises money and makes grants to progressive grassroots groups that are too small, too new, or too controversial for mainstream funders. The Fund makes grants through periodic funding cycles, as well as through donor-advised accounts for individual donors. Fund grantees typically utilize progressive activism, community organizing, and advocacy techniques to challenge social injustices in their communities. Special interest in anti-racism organizing, economic justice, workers' rights, environmental justice, and LGBT rights.

Geographic Focus: State of Wisconsin.
Limitations: No funds to individuals, national, or academic projects. Also no funds for social service, research, educational, or cultural projects unless there is a direct action component. No funds for attorney or legal fees.
Application Procedure: See Website. The Fund employs a mix of traditional Request-for-Proposal (RFP) grant making and "community grant making." Community grant making consists of one-day events in which grantseekers help allocate funding to maximize the benefit for the greater community. Upcoming funding cycles will be announced on the Fund's website.

❖ NEW FOUNDATIONS ❖

The following list is a reprint of the names of 45 foundations that are being listed in Foundations in Wisconsin for the first time, either because they are newly formed, moved to Wisconsin, or had a change in tax status. As with all foundations in this book, the established date, if we were able to confirm it, is the fiscal year that the first IRS 990-PF tax return was filed. The 7 active foundations that have profiles in the main section of the book are designated with an "A." The rest are from the unprofiled section. As there was some difficulty procuring the IRS Scanned Returns Database this year, the list is somewhat shorter than usual.

❖ AREAS OF INTEREST CATEGORIES ❖

The following categories are used to designate foundation interests, that is, the types of programs supported by a particular foundation during the year for which information is included in this directory. The numbers which correspond to these categories are listed under the term "Interests" in each foundation profile in the main section of this directory. The names of the foundations which have supported these interests are listed on the pages which follow. A foundation must have made grants of $1,000 or more to be included in an interest category.

No attempt is made to show which interest is preferred by a foundation. To determine this preference, view the foundation's complete grants list found on the IRS 990 tax forms available at Marquette University Raynor Library or via web sources such as GuideStar (www.guidestar.org).
