CONTRIBUTORS:

MICHAEL D. GIBSON is Administrative Assistant/Research Associate at the State Historical Society. A native of Idaho, he wrote (with Peter T. Harstad) "Idaho-Iowa" in the July/August 1974 Palimpsest.

ROBERT K. BOWER is a graduate student at The University of Iowa working toward an M.A. degree in the School of Journalism. He also works part time at the State Historical Society. Born in Creston, Iowa, Bower grew up in Indianola. After attending Iowa State University in Ames for a year, he transferred to Simpson College where he earned a B.A. in English in December 1970. In 1973, he received an M.A. in English from the University of Wyoming in Laramie. In January of 1973, Bower returned to his native state and his wife's hometown of Iowa City, where he worked briefly at The Press-Citizen before returning to graduate school. At the Society, Bower has assisted the editor, including serving as copyeditor and proofreader of the Society's latest book, American Classic by Laurence Lafore.

LOUIS P. KOCH is a native of Ft. Madison. (see p. 184.)
