Beau soir (Beautiful Evening)

When at sunset the rivers are rosy, and a warm ripple crosses the fields of wheat, a suggestion to be happy seems to arise from these things, and enter into the troubled heart. A suggestion to savor the charm of being in the world while one is young and the evening is beautiful; for we are moving on, even as that wave moves: it to the sea, we to the tomb.

Paul-Charles-Joseph Bourget, 1852-1935.
