About the Artists

Duo Terlano, the husband-wife team of Johannes Dietrich, violin, and Marie-Aline Cadieux, cello, has established itself as a dynamic presence in the Mid-Atlantic chamber music scene.

Johannes Dietrich, a native of Bozeman, Montana, joined the faculty of Lebanon Valley College in 1995, where he teaches violin and viola and conducts the Lebanon Valley College Symphony Orchestra. He studied at the Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria, and earned a Master of Music degree in violin performance as well as a Doctorate in violin performance and conducting, both from the College-Conservatory of Music in Cincinnati. A seasoned performer, he has appeared as soloist with the Billings Symphony, the MSU Chamber Orchestra, the String Orchestra of the Rockies, the St. Martin Chamber Orchestra of Cincinnati, and has performed and toured with the Antioch Trio and Alpine String Quartet.

Marie-Aline Cadieux served for many years as Principal Cellist for the Illinois Symphony and Illinois Chamber Orchestra, as well as festival orchestras including those at Aspen, the Blossom Music Festival, and Great Music West, traveling Broadway shows, and dance companies such as the Mark Morris Dance Group, and has performed extensively with the Kirkland Piano Trio. She presently teaches cello and music theory at Kutztown University and is the cello instructor at Lebanon Valley College. She received her Master of Music Degree and the Graduate Certificate in Performance from Northwestern University, and earned her Doctor of Musical Arts at Ohio State University. She grew up in Normal, graduated from Normal Community High School (when there was just one!), and attended Illinois State University for several years before transferring to the University of Illinois.

Dietrich and Cadieux are also members of the Dela'Art Trio, the piano trio in residence at Lebanon Valley College. When not rehearsing or teaching, they can be found cooking elegant meals together, fishing in a secluded stream (Hannes), peering through binoculars at birds (Marie), gardening, or backpacking in the mountains of Montana.
