

Canada-United States Law Journal

Volume 23 | Issue

Article 2

January 1997

Table of Contents

Volume 23 (1997)

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.law.case.edu/cuslj>

 Part of the Transnational Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Volume 23 (1997), Table of Contents, 23 Can.-U.S. L.J. i (1997)

Available at: <https://scholarlycommons.law.case.edu/cuslj/vol23/iss/2>

This Front Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Journals at Case Western Reserve University School of Law Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Canada-United States Law Journal by an authorized administrator of Case Western Reserve University School of Law Scholarly Commons.

Canada-
United States
Law Journal

VOLUME 23

1997

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CANADA-UNITED STATES
LAW INSTITUTE CONFERENCE

NAFTA REVISITED

Cleveland, Ohio
April 18-20, 1997

Conference Speakers	vii
List of Conference Participants	xv
Introduction and History of the Canada-U.S. Law Institute Sidney Picker, Jr.	1
Conference Opening Henry T. King, Jr.	5
Introduction: NAFTA's Economic Effects: Plus or Minus? Henry T. King, Jr.	9
Judging NAFTA Gary Hufbauer & Jacqueline McFayden	11
NAFTA's Economic Effects: Plus or Minus? - A Canadian Perspective Daniel Schwanen	47
The Mexican Economic Recovery Alejandro Nadal	59

Discussion After the Speeches of Gary Hufbauer, Daniel Schwanen, and Alejandro Nadal	67
Introduction: NAFTA's Legal Effects - The Broad Strokes Henry T. King, Jr.	71
Seeing NAFTA Through Three Lenses Ewell E. Murphy, Jr.	73
NAFTA: The Broad Strokes: A Canadian Lawyer's Perspective Lawrence L. Herman	85
NAFTA: Its Legal Effects - The Broad Strokes: A Mexican Perspective Beatrice Prati	109
Discussion After the Speeches of Ewell Murphy, Lawrence Herman, and Beatrice Prati	115
Introduction: NAFTA Vis À Vis The E.U.-Similarities and Differences and Their Effects on Member Countries J. Michael Gerhardt	121
NAFTA Vis À Vis The E.U.-Similarities and Differences and Their Effects on Member Countries William C. Graham	123
Discussion After the Speech of William Graham	137
Introduction: Dispute Resolution Under NAFTA Henry T. King, Jr.	145
Dispute Resolution Under NAFTA: A U.S. Perspective Robert Cassidy	147
Dispute Resolution Under NAFTA: A Canadian Perspective Simon Potter	151
Discussion After the Speeches of Robert Cassidy and Simon Potter	157

Introduction: The Cultural Industries Exemption From NAFTA - Its Parameters Dorinda Dallmeyer	163
The Cultural Industries Exemption from NAFTA - Its Parameters - A U.S. Perspective John A. Ragosta	165
Canadian Cultural Industries Exemption from NAFTA - Its Parameters Ronald G. Atkey	177
The Cultural Industries Exemption from NAFTA: Another Canadian Perspective Jennifer J. Fong	201
Discussion After the Speeches of John Ragosta and Jennifer Fong	211
Introduction: Implications of NAFTA's Extension to Chile and Other Countries Katherine F. Braid	225
Implications of NAFTA's Extension to Chile and Other Countries - A U.S. View M. Jean Anderson	227
Implications of NAFTA's Extension to Chile and Other Countries - A Canadian View Richard Dearden	235
Discussion After the Speeches of M. Jean Anderson and Richard Dearden	243
Introduction: NAFTA's Provisions Regarding Intellectual Property - Are They Working As Intended? Dirk Barrett	249

NAFTA's Provisions Regarding Intellectual Property - Are They Working As Intended? - A U.S. Perspective Joseph S. Papovich	253
Shaping the Trident: Intellectual Property Under NAFTA, Investment Protection Agreements and at the World Trade Organization Allen Z. Hertz	261
Discussion After the Speeches of Joseph Papovich and Allen Hertz	327
Introduction: NAFTA at Three-and-One-Half Years: Where Do We Stand and Where Do We Go? Henry T. King, Jr.	335
NAFTA at Three-and-One-Half Years: Where Do We Stand and Where Do We Go? - A U.S. View Greg Mastel	337
NAFTA at Three-and-One-Half Years: Where Do We Stand and Where Do We Go? - A Canadian View Bradly Condon	347
Discussion After the Speeches of Greg Mastel and Bradly Condon	369
NAFTA in the Global Context Richard O. Cunningham	379
Discussion After the Speech of Richard Cunningham	395
Introduction: NAFTA's Environmental Provisions - Are They Working As Intended? Are They Adequate? Jon Groetzing, Jr.	401
NAFTA's Environmental Provisions: What Problems Were They Intended to Address? - A View From the United States John H. Knox	403

NAFTA's Environmental Provisions: Are They Working As Intended? Are They Adequate? - A View from Canada Greg Block	409
NAFTA's Environmental Provisions: Are They Working As Intended? Are They Adequate? - Another View from Canada André Beaulieu	417
Discussion After the Speeches of John Knox, Greg Block, and André Beaulieu	425
Introduction: NAFTA and the States and Provinces: Are They Connecting? Are There Loopholes to be Closed? NAFTA and Sub- Federal Rules and Policies Henry T. King, Jr.	429
NAFTA and the Canadian Provinces: Two Ships Passing in the Night? James McIlroy	431
Searching for Pareto Gains in the Relationship Between Free Trade and Federalism: Revisiting the NAFTA, Eyeing the FTAA Matthew Schaefer	441
Discussion After the Speeches of Matthew Schaefer and James McIlroy	489
Introduction: Restructuring Under NAFTA Henry T. King, Jr.	495
Restructuring Under NAFTA: What Are the Considerations and How Do We Implement Them? Has NAFTA Changed Patterns of Manufacturing Location, Distribution, and Market Penetration? - A U.S. View William P. Kelly	497

Restructuring Under NAFTA: What Are the Considerations and How Do We Implement Them? Has NAFTA Changed Patterns of Manufacturing Location, Distribution, and Market Penetration? - A Canadian View
David Winfield	507
Discussion After the Speeches of William Kelly and David Winfield	517
Introduction: NAFTA and the Future
Henry T. King, Jr.	523
The NAFTA Chapter 20 Dispute Resolution Process: A View from the Inside
Sidney Picker, Jr.	525
Discussion After the Speech of Sidney Picker	541
Closing Remarks and Discussion
Henry T. King, Jr.	545

Copyright ©1997 by the Canada-United States Law Journal

SPEAKERS AT THE CANADA-U.S. LAW INSTITUTE CONFERENCE ON NAFTA REVISITED

M. JEAN ANDERSON is a senior partner at Weil, Gotshal & Manges where she specializes in international trade negotiations, trade proceedings, trade legislation, and international trade and regulatory strategies. She has been counsel to the Government of Canada on the NAFTA negotiations as well as on NAFTA and GATT implementation legislation. She has successfully represented U.S. and non-U.S. companies in complex anti-dumping and countervailing duty cases and has represented clients in Section 301 proceedings. Prior to joining Weil, Gotshal & Manges, Ms. Anderson was Chief Counsel for International Trade at the U.S. Department of Commerce. In that position, she was a principal negotiator of the U.S.-Canada Free Trade Agreement and a primary architect of the Chapter 19 dispute settlement system. She has also chaired the NAFTA Task Force, the International Trade Committee, and the Canada Committee of the American Bar Association's International Law Section. Ms. Anderson been an adjunct professor of international trade law at Georgetown University Law Center. She holds degrees from l'Institut d'Etudes Politiques of the University of Paris, Northwestern University, and Georgetown University Law Center.

RONALD G. ATKEY is a senior partner at the law firm of Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt where he specializes in government regulation and international business and transactions. Currently, he is Co-chair of the Public Law and Regulatory Affairs Department. Mr. Atkey served as a Member of Parliament from 1972 to 1974 and again from 1979 to 1980 when he was Minister of Employment and Immigration. From 1984 to 1989, he served as the first chairman of the Security Intelligence Review Committee established to oversee the Canadian Intelligence Service. From 1967 to 1977, he was a professor of constitutional and administrative law at the University of Toronto, Osgoode Hall Law School, and the University of Western Ontario. Currently, Mr. Atkey is a director of Daiwa Bank Canada, Time Warner (Canada) Ltd., Nikon Canada Inc., Canadian Film Centre, Toronto Symphony Orchestra, Canadian Civil Liberties Association, and the International Commission of Jurists.

ANDRÉ BEAULIEU has recently joined Monitored Company in Toronto, Ontario. Prior to that he was with the Canadian government as the Executive Assistant for the Deputy Minister of Intergovernmental Affairs in the Privy Council Office. Previously, he was a member of the United Nations team that organized the Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro in 1992. He acted as consultant for the Montreal International Development Corporation and the Canadian National Round Table on the Environment and the Economy. Mr. Beaulieu co-authored a book entitled THE ENVIRONMENT AND NAFTA: NEW CONTINENTAL LAW AND POLICY. In 1995, as a guest of the U.S. State Department International Visitors Program, he spoke to business persons and public officials about NAFTA-related issues.

GREG M. BLOCK is one of two directors at the Commission for Environmental Cooperation (CEC) in Montreal, Quebec. He was Legal Division Head at the CEC from November 1994 through July, 1995. From 1987 through 1992, Mr. Block litigated environmental cases at Thelen, Marrin, Johnson and Bridges in San Francisco, California. Mr. Block taught U.S. and comparative environmental law under the auspices of a Fullbright Lecture Grant at the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México in Mexico City.

ROBERT CASSIDY is a former general counsel of the U.S. Trade Representative. He has been the senior counsel for the Southern Finance Committee on trade matters. He is currently a senior partner in Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering, a major Washington law firm.

BRADLY CONDON is the Director of the Council for North American Business Studies, a member of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Foundation for the Americas, and teaches international trade policy at Simon Fraser University. He has been a guest lecturer in law faculties at the National University of Mexico and the University of British Columbia. He has testified before the Canadian Senate and Parliamentary Joint Committee on Foreign Affairs regarding international trade and education policy. Mr. Condon has held teaching positions at McGill Law School in Montreal and the Anglo-American Institute in Mexico City. He has published numerous articles and was selected by the United States Government to participate in the 1995 Congressional International Program on International Trade. He was chosen to design a program on international trade for the 1996 Commonwealth meeting of lawyers and judges in Vancouver. Mr. Condon holds a B.A. from the University of British Columbia, a law degree from McGill University, and an M.A. from the University of Calgary.

RICHARD O. CUNNINGHAM is a partner at the law firm of Steptoe & Johnson, L.L.P. where his current practice is devoted primarily to issues of international trade policy and to international litigation. He has both prosecuted and defended import relief cases under the anti-dumping and countervailing duty laws and Sections 201, 337, and 406. He has also participated in product liability and class action litigation, trade policy issues such as access to foreign markets, foreign investment in the U.S., trade in services, customs, and intellectual property issues. Further, Mr. Cunningham advises U.S. and foreign companies on international transactions, on countertrade and other aspects of dealing with non-market economics, and on the development and implementation of international competitiveness strategies. He is Chairman Emeritus of the of the American Bar Association Standing Committee on Customs Law. Mr. Cunningham has an A.B. and law degree from George Washington University.

RICHARD DEARDEN is a partner in the Ottawa-based law firm of Gowling, Strathy and Henderson specializing in the area of international trade law litigation. He has served as counsel in anti-dumping actions, countervailing duty actions, and customs matters (classification, valuation, and seizures) before the Canadian International Trade Tribunal, the Federal Court of Canada, and a binational panel under NAFTA. Mr. Dearden represented the government of Mexico during the NAFTA negotiations and the USTR during the Canada/U.S. Free Trade negotiations. He was retained by the Government of Chile to provide negotiating advice regarding a Chile/Canada Free Trade Agreement. A frequent speaker and writer on international trade law matters, Mr. Dearden received his law degree from the University of Ottawa.

JENNIFER S. FONG is presently an associate lawyer at the New York office of the Toronto-based law firm of Osler, Hoskins & Harcourt, having joined the firm in 1993. She has served as assistant counsel at Rainbow Programming, the television division of Vision Systems Corporation, and in that capacity was providing advice in connection with American Movie Classics, the Independent Film Channel, Bravo, and News 12 Program Services. At Osler, Hoskins and Harcourt, she practices in the firm's public law and regulatory affairs department. She has served as an advisor to international clients seeking to gain access to the Canadian market for cable television and direct home satellite television broadcasting, and she has also assisted U.S. entertainment companies in completing acquisitions of Canadian businesses involved in book and periodical publishing and distribution.

WILLIAM C. GRAHAM is a Member of Parliament, where he currently Chairs the Standing Committee of the House of Commons on Foreign Affairs and International Trade. Prior to being elected to Parliament, Mr. Graham was a professor at the Faculty of Law, University of Toronto, where he taught international trade law, public international law, and European Community law. From 1986 through 1988, he was the director of the Centre of International Studies at the University of Toronto. From 1967 through 1980, he was a partner with the law firm of Fasken & Calvin in Toronto where he specialized in civil litigation and international business transactions. In 1985, Mr. Graham was made a Chevalier de Legion d'Honneur de la France in recognition of his work in encouraging the use of the French language in Ontario. Mr. Graham holds a B.A. (Honours) and LL.B from the University of Toronto and a Doctorate from the Université de Paris.

LAWRENCE L. HERMAN is Associate Counsel at Cassels, Brock & Blackwell where he specializes in international trade and international business transactions. He has represented clients from the private sector as well as governments and international agencies in the trade area, dealing primarily with the GATT/WTO, FTA, and NAFTA. Mr. Herman is a member of the Canadian Government's International Trade Advisory Committee (ITAC) Task Force on Trade Policy, the Council of the Section on Energy and Resources Law of the International Bar Association, and the Advisory Board of the Canada-United States Law Institute. He also teaches international trade in Osgoode Hall Law School's graduate program and writes a regular column on international business law for the Financial Post, Toronto. Mr. Herman holds a B.A. and LL.B. from the University of Toronto and is a member of the Saskatchewan and Ontario bars.

ALLEN Z. HERTZ is the senior policy advisor on trade-related aspects of intellectual property rights at Canada's Department of Foreign Affairs. Currently, he leads Canada's intellectual property delegation working on the Free Trade Area of the Americas (FTAA). Throughout 1991 and 1992, he was on Canada's NAFTA negotiation delegation. Prior to his employment with Canada's Department of Foreign Affairs, Dr. Hertz was an associate professor in the Law Faculty at the City University of Hong Kong where he taught international, constitutional, and intellectual property law. He was also a Senior Research Associate in international law at the University of Toronto's Centre for International Studies. Dr. Hertz graduated from McGill University with first class honours and the Minister of Education's Gold Medal in History. As a Woodrow Wilson Fellow, he studied at Columbia University where he received an M.A. and a Ph.D., and the Certificate of the Institute on East Central Europe of the School of International Affairs. Dr. Hertz also holds an LL.B. in international law from Cambridge University and an LL.M. from the University of Toronto.

GARY CLYDE HUFBAUER is the Reginald Jones Senior Fellow at the Institute for International Economics. Formerly he was the Marcus Wallenberg Professor of International Financial Diplomacy at Georgetown University. Earlier in his career, he served as Deputy Assistant Secretary in the United States Treasury where he was responsible for trade and investment policy during the Tokyo Round. He was also

Director of the International Tax Staff at the United States Treasury. He has published a number of books and articles on international trade, finance, and tax policy including, FUNDAMENTAL TAX REFORM AND BORDER TAX ADJUSTMENTS (1966), WESTERN HEMISPHERE ECONOMIC INTEGRATION (1994), REVIVING THE EUROPEAN UNION (1994), and NAFTA: AN ASSESSMENT (1993). Mr. Hufbauer is a graduate of Harvard and Cambridge Universities and Georgetown Law School.

WILLIAM P. KELLY is Ford Motor Company's Director of International Governmental Affairs. He is responsible for identifying and assessing international issues which affect Ford's governmental relationships and for advising the company on how to respond to them. He was directly involved with the NAFTA negotiations as a member of two U.S. Government Industry Sector Advisory Panels. Prior to joining Ford, Mr. Kelly served with the U.S. State Department. Mr. Kelly currently serves on the Advisory Board of the Council of the Americas and on the boards of other U.S. business organizations. Mr. Kelly holds a B.S. from St. Joseph's University, an M.A. from the University of Arizona, and has studied at George Washington University.

JOHN H. KNOX is an attorney at the law firm of Bickerstaff, Heath, Smiley, Pollan, Keever & McDaniel where he specializes in international and domestic environmental law. From 1988 to 1994, he worked at the Department of State at the Office of the Legal Adviser. In this capacity, he participated in the creation of the North American Commission for Environmental Cooperation, the Border Environment Cooperation Commission, and the North American Development Bank. He also represented the United States in the negotiation of the environmental side agreement to the NAFTA. Mr. Knox represented the United States in cases before the International Court of Justice and the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal. From 1987 to 1988, he was law clerk to Judge Joseph T. Sneed, Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, San Francisco, California. Mr. Knox graduated magna cum laude from Rice University and holds a law degree from Stanford Law School.

GREG MASTEL is Vice-President for Policy Planning and Administration at the Economic Strategy Institute and is an adjunct professor at the University of Maryland Graduate School of Management and Technology. Previously, he worked in the U.S. Senate for eight years where he served as Chief International Trade Advisor to the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee's International Trade Subcommittee. Mr. Mastel provides analysis for the Washington Post, The Los Angeles Times, The Washington Times, and The Wall Street Journal. He also writes a regular column on economics and trade for the Journal of Commerce. Mr. Mastel holds a Ph.D. in International Economics and an M.B.A.

JAMES McILROY is founder of McIlroy & McIlroy, Counsel on Public Policy where he advises clients on government relations, international trade, intellectual property, and successful export strategies. Earlier in his career, Mr. McIlroy practiced commercial litigation and international trade law. In 1984, he was appointed Senior Policy Advisor to Canada's Minister for International Trade where he assisted in launching the Canada-U.S. Free Trade Agreement and was involved with a wide range of trade policy issues, including GATT. Mr. McIlroy has worked on disputes between Canada and the United States in anti-dumping and countervailing duty cases, and in recent years has helped launch the NAFTA negotiations. He holds a B.S. from Universite de Montreal, an M.A. from the Sorbonne, and an LL.B from Osgoode Hall Law School.

EWELL E. MURPHY, JR. is a retired partner in the Houston-based law firm of Baker & Botts, L.L.P., where for seventeen years he was Chairman of the firm's international department. He has served as Chairman of the Houston World Trade Association, the Houston Committee on Foreign Relations, and the Section of International Law and Practice of the American Bar Association. He is a trustee of the Southwestern Legal Foundation and has served as Chairman of the Advisory Boards of its International and Comparative Law Center and Institute for Transnational Arbitration. Following his retirement, Mr. Murphy served as Chairman of the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board in Washington, D.C. He is currently a Distinguished Lecturer at the University of Houston Law Center and a Visiting Professor at the University of Texas School of Law in Austin, Texas. Mr. Murphy received his B.A. and LL.B. from the University of Texas at Austin, and the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Oxford University, England, which he attended as a Rhodes Scholar.

ALEJANDRO NADAL is currently a professor at the Centre for Economic Studies, El Colegio de Mexico where he coordinates the Science and Technology Programme. He has published widely in Spanish. His latest publication is a book on Mexican fisheries entitled ESFUERZO Y CAPTURA: TECNOLOGIA Y SOBREEXPLOTACION DE RECURSOS MARINOS VIVOS (El Colegio de Mexico). He has also published several articles in English, including the following: Choice of Technique Revisited: A Critical Review of the Theoretical Underpinnings, World Development, ICBM Trajectories: Some Issues for the Superpowers' Neighbors, Journal of Peace Research (Vol. 27, No. 4, 1990) and Balance of Payments Provisions on the GATT and NAFTA Journal of World Trade (Vol 30 No. 4 August 1996. Mr. Nadal has a law degree from the Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico and has a Ph.D in economics from the University of Paris, Nanterre.

JOSEPH S. PAPOVICH is Deputy Assistant Trade Representative for Intellectual Property (TRIP) in the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative. He is responsible for a wide range of U.S. governmental efforts to improve the protection of U.S. intellectual property in other countries. He is currently the head of the U.S. delegation to the TRIPS

Council and chairs the interagency committee conducting the annual "Special 301" review of the degree to which other countries provide adequate and effective protection of intellectual property. From 1992 to 1993, he was Deputy Assistant Trade Representative for Industry and served as chairman of the Multilateral Steel Agreement negotiating group in Geneva. In 1991 and into 1992, he served as Senior Agricultural Trade Policy Advisor at USTR where he participated in negotiation of the agricultural component of the NAFTA. Earlier in his career, Mr. Papovich was USTR's Director of Middle Eastern Affairs, Director of Steel Policy, and liaison with organized labor.

SIMON V. POTTER is a partner with the law firm of Ogilvy Renault where he specializes in administrative law as it relates to international trade, competition, and commercial and corporate litigation. He is chairman of the Ogilvy Renault committee on the Free Trade Agreement and is a member of a roster of twenty-five Canadians available to sit on panels for binding review of Canadian and American anti-dumping and countervailing determinations. He was chairman of the Binational Panel which reviewed the U.S. International Trade Commission's finding of threat of material injury from subsidized Canadian pork. He was also a member of both the Binational Panel which reviewed the U.S. Department of Commerce determinations regarding the subsidization of Canadian live swine. That panel also heard a case brought by Canada as to the legality, under Article XI of the GATT, of American provisions relating to minimum lobster size. Mr. Potter holds a B.C.L. from McGill University Faculty of Law and an A.B. from Dartmouth College.

BEATRICE PRATI is with the New York office of the Mexico City law firm of Bryan, Gonzales, Vargas Y Gonzales Baz. She specializes in international trade matters. She has a J.D. from Southern Methodist Law School in Dallas, Texas, and a B.A. in international relations and Latin.

JOHN A. RAGOSTA has represented corporations, associations, and governments with respect to some of the most complex trade litigation and resulting negotiations of the 1980s and 1990s. He was intimately involved in the successful prosecution of the Super 301 case against Japan brought by the U.S. Alliance for Wood Products Exports. He was also involved in the 1992 and 1986 countervailing duty cases against Canada brought on behalf of the U.S. Coalition for Fair Lumber Imports. He was involved in the subsequent negotiation of the U.S./Japan Wood Products Agreement, the U.S./Canada Softwood Lumber Agreement, and the relevant provisions of the U.S./Canada Free Trade Agreement and FTA implementation legislation. Mr. Ragosta has advised clients on various aspects of the GATT Uruguay Round and has assisted sector and policy advisory groups on agreements. He has also advised governments and industry concerning GATT and U.S./Canada Free Trade Agreement dispute settlement proceedings. Mr. Ragosta received his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law and his B.S. from Grove City College.

MATTHEW P. SCHAEFER currently teaches public international law, international business transactions, and a seminar on international trade law and policy at the University of Nebraska College of Law. Prior to joining the faculty at the University of Nebraska, he served as an international trade consultant to the National Governors' Association and Western Governors' Association in Washington, D.C. during the legislative implementation of the NAFTA and GATT Uruguay Round multilateral trade agreement. He also served as a consultant to two members of the European Parliament in Brussels, Belgium, and the states of Hawaii, Texas, and Utah. Mr. Schaefer holds a B.A. from the University of Chicago where he graduated with honors. He also holds a law degree and an LL.M from the University of Michigan where he graduated magna cum laude and was Order of the Coif.

DANIEL SCHWANEN is a Senior Policy Analyst with the C.D. Howe Institute where he specializes in trade and investment issues. Prior to joining the Institute, he was International Economist at the Canadian National Bank of Commerce where he covered G-7 economic developments, OECD country risk analysis, the European Community single market process, and international trade relations. He also worked as an economist for Wood Gundy, Inc. He is the author of a number of articles on Canada's external trade and investment policies, the impact of free trade agreements, and interprovincial economic issues. Mr. Schwanen holds economics degrees from the Universite de Montreal and Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario.

DAVID WINFIELD is the Senior Vice President of Government Relations at Nortel (Northern Telecom). He is responsible for the development, coordination, and implementation of policy initiatives with governments, associated agencies, business associations, and others in cooperation with the various business units of the corporation. He is a member of Nortel's senior management committee. Prior to joining Nortel, he was Canada's ambassador to Mexico. Before that assignment, he served in trade and economic positions in Canadian embassies in the Netherlands, Turkey, Japan, and Mexico as well as in the Canadian Consulate General in New York. Mr. Winfield is a member of the Board of Directors of Grupo Financiero Bancomer, one of Mexico's largest financial institutions, and is on the Board of Trustees of the Royal Ontario Museum in Toronto. He is also the President of the Canadian section of the North American Institute and is a member of the North American Committee of the C.D. Howe Institute. Mr. Winfield holds a B.A. from the University of Alberta and has received a diploma in international management from the University of Western Ontario School of Business.

CANADA/U.S. LAW INSTITUTE CONFERENCE

on

NAFTA REVISITED

April 18-20, 1997

LIST OF PARTICIPANTS

Robert Abrahams	U.S. Department of Commerce	Toledo, Ohio
Phyllis Alden	American Greetings Corp.	Cleveland, Ohio
Sharon Allan	Industry Canada	Toronto, Ontario
Barbara Andelman	Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
M. Jean Anderson	Weil, Gotshal & Manges	Washington, D.C.
Saleh Awadallah	Attorney at Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Dirk K. Barrett	Pfizer, Inc.	New York, NY
John A. Barrett	University of Toledo, College of Law	Toledo, Ohio
John J. Barrett, III	Canada/U.S. Law Journal Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Joseph W. Bauer	Lubrizol Corp.	Wickliffe, Ohio
André Beaulieu	Monitored Company	Toronto, Ontario
Mary Lynn Becker	Canadian Consulate General	Detroit, Michigan
Donald Belch	Stelco, Inc.	Hamilton, Ontario
Dexter Bishop	Government of Canada, Department of Foreign Affairs & Trade	Ottawa, Ontario
John W. Boscarior	McCarthy Tetrault	Toronto, Ontario
David Bowers	Case Western Reserve University, Weatherhead School of Management	Cleveland, Ohio
Katherine Braid	CP Rail	Calgary, Alberta
Yusuf Çalixsan	LL.M., Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Silviu Cappon	Garry Screw Machine Co.	Aurora, Ohio

Robert Cassidy	Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering	Seven Hills, Ohio
Bradly Condon Stanton Cort	Simon Fraser University Case Western Reserve University, Weatherhead School of Management	Vancouver, B.C. Cleveland, Ohio
George Costaris	Canadian Consulate General	Detroit, Michigan
Richard Cunningham Dorinda G. Dallmeyer	Step toe & Johnson Dean Rusk Center, University of Georgia Law School	Washington, D.C. Athens, Georgia
Riyaz Dattu Brendan Delay	McCarthy Tetrault Cleary & Delay Co.	Toronto, Ontario Independence, Ohio
Jon Denney James DeRosa	Attorney at Law Jones, Day, Reavis, & Pogue	Cleveland, Ohio Cleveland, Ohio
Barbara Dirkman	LL.M., Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Eileen Doherty	Case Western Reserve University, Department of Political Science	Cleveland, Ohio
James Doherty	Alberta Federal and Intergovernmental Affairs	Edmonton, Alberta
Robert Donald	Saskatchewan Intergov- ernmental Affairs	Regina, Saskatchewan
John Eastwood Lorraine Eden	Business Laws, Inc. Texas A&M University	Chesterland, Ohio College Station, Texas
Richard Edwards	University of Toledo, College of Law	Toledo, Ohio
Jonathan Entin	Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Asim Erdilek	Case Western Reserve University, Weatherhead School of Management	Cleveland, Ohio
Deborah Evans	LL.M., Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Jeffrey D. Fick Hans H. Fischer Jennifer J. Fong	HON Industries, Inc. Borden, Inc. Osler, Hoskins & Harcourt	Muscatine, Iowa Columbus, Ohio New York, NY

Leo Fuchs	Business Laws, Inc.	Chesterland, Ohio
Michael Gerhardt	Former dean, Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Mark Gleisser	The Plain Dealer	Cleveland, Ohio
David Griffin	Canadian Chemical Producers' Association	Ottawa, Ontario
W.C. Graham	Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs, House of Commons	Ottawa, Ontario
Carl Grenier	Ministère de L'Industrie, de la Science et de la Technologie	Québec City, Québec
Jon Groetzing	American Greetings Corp.	Cleveland, Ohio
Kenneth Grundy	Case Western Reserve University, Department of Political Science	Cleveland, Ohio
Frank Hartman	Cleveland-Cliffs, Inc.	Cleveland, Ohio
Bill Harwood	Clifton Gunderson	Cleveland, Ohio
David Hecnar	Canadian Chamber of Commerce	Ottawa, Ontario
Lawrence Herman	Cassels, Brock & Blackwell	Toronto, Ontario
Allen Hertz	Government of Canada, Privy Council Office, Federal-Provincial Relations	Ottawa, Ontario
Jackie Hlivak	Canada/U.S. Law Institute, Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Gary Hufbauer	Institute for International Economics	Washington, D.C.
Patricia Hujarski	American Chiropractors' Association	Washington, D.C.

Karen Ireland-Phillips	Attorney at Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Erik Jensen	Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Mark J. Kasoff	Bowling Green State University	Bowling Green, Ohio
William P. Kelly	Ford Motor Company	Dearborn, Michigan
Charles Kerester	Attorney at Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Suh Kim	Tory, Tory, DesLauriers & Binnington	Toronto, Ontario
Henry T. King	U.S. Director, Canada/U.S. Law Institute, Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Richard N. Kirby	Great Lakes Inter-Trade	Cleveland, Ohio
John H. Knox	Bickerstaff, Heath, Smiley, Pollan, Kever & McDaniel	Austin, Texas
William F. Kryzda	Goodrich, Riquelme Y Asociados	Mexico City, Mexico
Sven Langmach	Niagara Custombuilt	Cleveland, Ohio
David Levey	Cleveland World Trade Association	Cleveland, Ohio
Robert Malone	LL.M. Candidate, Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Leonard G. Manuel	Cominco, Ltd.	Vancouver, B.C.
Greg Mastel	Economic Strategy Institute	Washington, D.C.
James McIlroy	McIlroy & McIlroy, Inc.	Toronto, Ontario
John McNab	Government of Canada, Department of Foreign Affairs & Trade	Ottawa, Ontario
Daniel Minnick	LTV Steel	Cleveland, Ohio
Ewell E. Murphy	Baker & Botts	Cleveland, Ohio
Alejandro Nadal	Centre for Economic Studies	Mexico City, Mexico
Terry Norman	Agriculture & Agri-Food Canada	Ottawa, Ontario
James O'Grady	O'Grady & Young	Ottawa, Ontario
Joseph Papovich	Deputy Ass't. Trade Representative for Intellectual Property	Washington, D.C.
Jane Picker	Cleveland Marshall	Cleveland, Ohio

Sidney Picker	College of Law Founder & Chairman of Board, Canada/U.S. Law Institute, Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Beatrice Prati	Bryan, Gonzales, Vargas Y Gonzales Baz	New York, NY
Simon V. Potter	Ogilvy Renault	Montréal, Québec
Cynthia Prior	Entrepreneur	Cleveland, Ohio
John A. Ragosta	Dewey Ballantine	Washington, D.C.
Randy Randall	Dow, U.S.A.	Midland, Michigan
Michael J. Robinson	Fasken Martineau	Toronto, Ontario
Wayne Robson	Government of Canada, Department of Foreign Affairs & Trade	Ottawa, Ontario
Gerhard Rosegger	Case Western Reserve University, Weatherhead School of Management	Cleveland, Ohio
John K. Ryans	Kent State University	Kent, Ohio
Adria Sankovic	Frederick K. Cox Inter- national Law Center, Case Western Reserve University School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Matthew P. Schaefer	University of Nebraska	Lincoln, Nebraska
Kurt Schaffrath	Attorney at Law	Medina, Ohio
Oliver Schroeder	Case Western Reserve University, Professor Emeritus of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Daniel Schwanen	C.D. Howe Institute	Toronto, Ontario
Ekaterina Semenova	Visiting Student	St. Petersburg, Russia
Puspa Setyasaki	LL.M., Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio

Morris Shanker	Canada-United States Trade Relations Act [1997], Cleveland, Ohio
	Case Western Reserve University, School of Law
Joshua Silverman	Editor, Canada/U.S. Law Journal , Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Supreedee Suwannathat	LL.M., Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Edwin R. Teple	Arbitrator	Willoughby, Ohio
Robert Timberg	Northern Telecom Ltd.	Brampton, Ontario
Catherine Vernon	Brouse & McDowell	Akron, Ohio
Clemens Von Koschembahr	U.S. Department of Commerce	Cleveland, Ohio
Jonathan D. Weinberg	Editor, Canada/U.S. Law Journal , Case Western Reserve University, School of Law	Cleveland, Ohio
Dennis E. Wickie	Inco Limited	Toronto, Ontario
David Winfield	Northern Telecom, Ltd.	Brampton, Ontario
Sandy Yosowitz	Alcan Aluminum Corp.	Mayfield Heights, Ohio