Report Submitted by 1963-64 Women's Customs Committee

"Customs should be abolished."

"I feel that Customs is a good thing and should be much rougher than it is on the incoming freshmen."

These were the two extremes of opinion the Women's Customs Committee heard during our poll of the Ursinus faculty on the Customs program as it now exists.

The poll was the result of a natural curiosity among the Committee to know exactly how the faculty felt about the program. We were told that the faculty was not in favor of Customs and some of the activities in which the freshmen are required to participate. We decided to find out for ourselves. Perhaps more than anything, the Committee was impressed with the diversity of faculty views on Customs. No two professors agreed on the manner in which the program should be conducted or changed.

Most of the professors were in agreement on the value of dinks, colored socks, and name tags. Sixteen felt that step shows are beneficial, and some advocated more of these. One professor said that the program "promotes a common experience denominator for all students." Others felt that the program keeps the freshmen from becoming homesick, "puts new students into their place", and is a "matter of tradition." One faculty member suggested that the sophomore counselors "need to be harsh, but not nasty."

Those arguments against Customs included "detracts from study time," and in almost all cases the professors were strongly against severe individual harrasing. One pedagogue described Customs as "a bore, childish, and completely ridiculous."

Not discouraged by this last comment, the Committee contacted 43 faculty members. We would like to apologize to those members whom, for some reason or other we were not able to interview in the limited time we had, and thank each one who was interviewed for his

Fred Yocum and Dr. Zucker to Represent UC in June "Y" Conference

Frederick W. Yocum Jr., Aldan, and Dr. F. Donald Zucker, associate professor of political science at Ursinus, will be among the leaders of the Middle Atlantic Region Conference of the Student YM-YWCA at Camp Hilltop, Downingtown, June 2-7, it was announced here by Mr. Yocum today.

Mr. Yocum, an Ursinus junior majoring in chemistry, is president of the Pennsylvania State Student YMCA. The statewide organization includes student groups at Carnegie Tech, Pennsylvania State University, University of Pittsburgh, Bloomsburg and Lock Haven State Colleges, Lincoln University, Allegheny, Albright and Lebanon Valley, as well as Ursinus. Yocum, a 1960 graduate of Lansdowne-Aldan High School, is conference chairman.

Dr. Zucker will give three addresses on "National Character," "Goals for America," and "Goals for Americans." A graduate of Rutgers University, he holds master's and doctor's degrees from the Pennsylvania State University, and was Fulbright Scholar at the University of Florence, Italy, 1952-53. A former instructor at Penn State, he has been on the Ursinus faculty since 1958.

Other speakers at the conference include Lt. Col. Donald S. Bussey, of the U.S. Army War College, Carlisle, and Frank C. Kiehne, general secretary of the Reading, Pa., YMCA. William R. Marlow, chaplain of Albright College, Reading, will be worship leader for the conference. The general theme of the conference is "You and the Nation."

In addition to seminars and discussion periods, the program will include several work projects in the Philadelphia area so that participants may get firsthand experience "with families caught in the changing urban scene."

Proctors Named For Coming Year

The proctors for the various men's dorms have now been picked for next year, according to Dean Whatley. Proctorships are a form of self help job on the Ursinus campus.

Each upperclassman wishing to attain such a proctorship submits an application to the Dean of Men. He in turn takes these applications to the MSGA where the Council sits and hears the qualifications of each applicant and offers a suggested list to the Dean. The final say, however, lies with the Dean, who then designates the proctors and notifies them.

Those who hold positions for next year and the dorms they will proctor are as follows: Frank Stratton—Brodbeck third floor, Ed Rauch—Brodbeck second floor, Dave Kohr—Brodbeck first floor, Jim Shinnick—Curtis third floor, Tom Sandhoff—Curtis second floor, Bill Scholl—Curtis first floor, Bob Gladstone—Leber, Bob Barandon—Maples, Dave DiEugenio—South, Ron Emmert—Bock, Mike Kelly—Fircroft, Joe Rhile and Bob Horrocks—Derr, Tim Cope—Freeland, and John Wirth—Stine.

ATTENTION MEN

The MSGA requests that the following rules for dining room behavior be strictly observed.

1. Smoking is prohibited in the dining-room.
  2. Men are required to wear coats at the noon meal on Sunday and at the evening meals Mon.-Thurs.
  3. Rowdiness is prohibited in the dining-room.
- Violations of these rules will result in fines or demerits.

Sophs & New Frosh Receive Required Summer Reading

Dean William S. Pettit has announced the decision of the faculty ad hoc Committee on the Summer Reading concerning the selection of books that are to be read during the summer of 1963.

The Committee was composed of Professors Paul R. Wagner, Eugene H. Miller, H. Lloyd Jones, Jr., and Dean Pettit. The reading requirement has been extended to sophomores, who may purchase their books from the Supply Store before the close of the current semester. There will be no guarantee that the books will be available later.

Members of the present freshman class will be expected to make their purchase before leaving for home for the summer vacation.

The books selected are: John Adams and The American Revolution by Katherine Drinker Bowen, Immense Journey by Loren Eiseley, and Julius Caesar in Shakespeare, Shaw and the Ancients by G. B. Harrison.

Students may expect forum programs to be related to the summer reading and that substantial use of the books will be made in certain freshman and sophomore courses.

NOTICE

If you are planning to return to College next year as a sophomore, please be sure to purchase the paperback books for summer reading before you leave the campus. They will be available in the Supply Store in 10 days.

Spring Festival Weekend May 10-11; 'The Staring Match' Begins Activities

Two Night Run

On May 10 and 11, the Curtain Club of Ursinus College will present the "Staring Match," a comedy set in the drought stricken regions of the Middle West. The play will be free for the student body on Friday night and will be $1.00 on Saturday. It will be presented in the T-G Gym at 8:00 p.m. on both nights.

The play takes place in the dust bowl of the south mid-west during a drought.

The townspeople, American Gothics that they are, congregate to beseech the Almighty for divine aid (such as TVA) in their days of crisis. The reply is almost instantaneous as two apparent heavenly hosts (Roy De Beer and Larry Meyers) appear to prepare for the salvation of the populace.

It soon becomes clear that one of the angels is a former resident of the Kingdom but has since been exiled to the Coal Regions. Both promise to locate a well for those parched persons, but a controversy arises as to who will be chosen to deliver them. The plot thickens when the most skeptical member of the populace (Don Matusow) proposes a staring match, the

Dr. Wagner Plied By Students in 3rd Controversy

Last Tuesday evening from 10:15 p.m. to 11:15 p.m., in Paisley Reception Room, the Third Controversy at Midnight was held with Dr. James Wagner, vice-president of the college, presiding. Carl Peek, a member of the Public Affairs Commission of the YM-YWCA which sponsors these controversies, introduced Dr. Wagner and gave a short resume of his background and his present position at Ursinus.

Explains Position

Dr. Wagner began by defining his duties and responsibilities as vice-president of the college. He stated that despite the administrative tasks assigned to him by the Constitution and By-Laws of Ursinus College, he does not act in any administrative capacity but is primarily concerned with the publicity and promotion of the college in other areas. In answer to one of the questions raised concerning the efforts being made to acquaint other parts of the country other than just the immediate Pennsylvania and New Jersey areas with Ursinus, Dr. Wagner replied that he is satisfied that we are doing all we can effectively and economically.

Besides the forwarding of Students' Personnel Records to their respective hometown newspapers, Ursinus sends information to the New York Times and Herald Tribune and also receives coverage on the AP and UPI wires.

Under administrative affairs, another question arose as to whether President Helfferich has more power and influence on the campus due to the absence of administrative authority in the vice-presidential office. Dr. Wagner stated that although Pres. Helfferich carries more responsibilities than the average small college president, he does not exercise any more authority upon the faculty or administration.

The next question dealt with Ursinus' position in reference to government aid, whether we have applied for it and if not, why? Dr. Wagner, speaking from his own personal viewpoint, said that there may be a time when Ursinus will have to

SUMMER SCHOOL

Dean Pettit has announced that tuition for summer school has been reduced from $32.50 to $27.50 per credit. The summer school will enroll only degree-seeking students or Ursinus students in good standing.

The annual Spring Festival of Ursinus College, organized on a Mississippi showboat theme and entitled "Mississippi Mud" will be held Saturday, May 11, on Patterson Field beginning at 2:30 p.m.

Miss Grace Folwell, who will reign as Queen of the Spring Festival Saturday.

winner of which is to be chosen to select the well.

The climax comes in a manner which would even escape the mind of an O. Henry. This production should provide some light entertainment for the audience as well as for the actors themselves.

The Spring Festival, successor to the college's May Day program which occurred annually from 1905 to 1960, now enlists more than a hundred men and women in the dancing and dramatic cast and many more in the various committees planning for the day's program.

The afternoon program includes fifteen dance numbers in which students portray Tom Sawyer, sailors, dance hall girls, gamblers, ladies and gents of the old South, and a jazz band. Grace Folwell, a senior majoring in German, will preside as queen for the day.

Members of her court include Susan Higley and Jane Mikuliak, seniors; Carol DeSilva and Nancy Holochuk, juniors; Jean Dillin and Anne Weisel, sophomores; and Mary Ann Holmgren and Suzanne Raffauf, freshmen. Margery Peffle, a senior is manager of the festival and Mrs. Constance Poley, a part time instructor in physical education is the producer.

A buffet supper for students and parents will be served outdoors at 5 p.m., followed at 6:30 by a band concert in Bomberger Hall. At 8 p.m., a play, "The Staring Match", will be given in the Thompson - Gay Gym to conclude the day.

Bob Larzelere Elected to Head Men's Customs Next Year

The Sophomore Men's Customs Committee for 1963 was picked recently by the leading members of the Freshmen. Head Sophomore Ruler, Bob Larzelere, and the 14 men who make up the Committee have been meeting recently to plan and prepare for next year's program.

Tibetan Lamas to Visit Ursinus

On Friday afternoon, May 10, Ursinus will be fortunate to have on campus four Tibetan lamas, recently arrived in the United States as refugees from Communist terror. Dr. Allan L. Rice, professor of German and Swedish, has arranged for the program. The lamas will be at Ursinus from 2 until 5 p.m. Previously to arriving here, they will have toured through Philadelphia.

The group will speak in Dr. Miller's Far Eastern history class at 2:00 in room 2. They will then appear at a Kaffee Klatch in the Student Union at 3:30. All students are invited to attend. During the evening they will be entertained by various faculty members. Saturday will find them in Pendle Hill and on various sightseeing jaunts.

The lamas are staying at the Lannaist Buddhist Monastery of America at Freeland Acres, near Farmingdale, N. J. They will be led by Reverend Geshe Wangyal, the abbot of the monastery. Rev. Wangyal is a Mongolian who spent 20 years at the Drehung Monastery, near Lhasa, the capital of Tibet. He is now the pastor of a group of displaced Kalmucks from Russian who now make their homes at Freeland Acres.

Those on the Committee are: Jack Gould, Joe Gray, Dave Horrocks, Bob Larzelere, Paul Leiser, Norm MacMullan, Bob Popovich, Bob Reid, Les Rudnyansky, Lyle Saylor, Bob Smith, Gene Swann, Tom Swartley, Frank Videon, and Dick Vogel. Alternates are: Lenny Greenbaum, Gary Miller and Dave Stubb.

A meeting on April 30 in the student union was held primarily as a briefing session and the basic aims of the program were decided upon. At this meeting Larzelere stressed the responsibility of each of the Rulers for the maintenance of a good program.

At a second meeting held on May 1, next year's Rulers were spoken to by two past Head Sophomore Rulers. Carlton Dingman went through the qualities that he felt were important for each of the Rulers to possess in order to do a good job in the program. Then Murray Feldstein, Head Sophomore Ruler for 1960 spoke to the Committee on the problems that he had encountered during his session with the "Frosh" and the problems in the last two years as he saw them in light of his own experience.

This afternoon the Committee met again for further consideration of the program and to submit and discuss concrete ideas that might be included in next year's Customs Program.

Fred Yocum and Dr. Zucker, who will represent UC at MAC "Y" Conference in June.

Debating Club to Present "Mock" College Bowl

Tomorrow evening in S12 the Debating Club will sponsor a "mock" College Bowl program with two teams of four people each, opposing each other. One team consists of Dick Sanders, Bill Barnaby, Sam Stayer, and Jesse Moore, while the other lists James Scheiver, Wade Alexander, Bonnie Willson and Barbara Greim.

These people are not necessarily to be members of next year's team but have volunteered to demonstrate to everyone interested, the matter in which the show is carried on, and in how a team would represent Ursinus on the program.

The Head Sophomore Rulers for 1963-64 check over stories submitted to WEEKLY. They are Darlene Miller and Bob Larzelere.

EDITORIAL

Editorial??

When in the course of college events it becomes necessary for an editor to editorialize after Inter-Fraternity Weekend, the comments therein may be smashing. (We will ignore the fact that the editorial might have been written prior to the big event.) (It wasn't!)

Inter-Fraternity weekend has come and gone, but its memories will linger. Those students who were in attendance at any portion of the weekend will testify to its fun and interest. Some might grimace as you mention the affair, but all will smile after two more days of rest (and water).

With few exceptions, the behavior of the Ursinus students was commendable. Any affair such as this will have its members who are not to be pointed out as examples by which to raise a child. It seems that a group in Bucks County, who fortunately did not represent Ursinus, were even more enthusiastic about the weekend weather than we.

To be a little more serious, the coming weeks are filled with activities which need the support of the students body. The Curtain Club is presenting THE STARING MATCH on Friday and Saturday nights. It promises to be a fine performance. Saturday evening the Ursinus Band will present a concert; it also warrants attendance.

Dr. Douglas Steere will speak in a special Forum this Wednesday evening. He is an outstanding personality and a fine follow-up to Dr. Blake.

Class elections are to be held this week. Vote for the students who will act to make your complaints heard and who will work to better the Campus.

:: Letters to the Editor ::

Dear Editor,
 I realize that the month of May is the most difficult month of the year for all U.C. students and for everybody whose endeavors are affected by them.
 From a service standpoint, both to the community and the U.C. students, the closing of the "Rail" will present me with several problems.
 For the convenience of the student body I will now keep our grill open until 9:45 p.m. nightly.

For the convenience of my employees, there will be no orders accepted from the back room after 9:45 p.m. and there will be only take out orders from the fountain after 9:55 p.m. We will continue our store hours of 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. daily.

Once again I request those students who wish only to socialize to use the facilities of our back room so as not to inhibit the normal flow of traffic or the efficient service of those who wish to make a purchase.

I certainly hope that we can understand each others problems and conduct ourselves accordingly through these next three most difficult weeks. I wish the best of success to everyone in your forthcoming examinations.

Very truly yours,
 Charles T. Lutz

Editor: Ursinus Weekly,
 On April 16 my wife and I had the opportunity to visit Ursinus College and see the play Antigone in Bomberger Hall. We would like to say that this has been by far the best performance we have seen in this area in a good many years. We would like to compliment Mr. Serio and Miss Higley for their very outstanding portrayals as Creon and Antigone. Mr. Serio, who I understand also directed and produced the play, is to be particularly congratulated for the mastery and artistry he has shown in that very difficult job of both acting and directing. We were so moved by that performance that we take this opportunity to express our feelings. We will look forward with enthusiastic interest in future productions of your dramatics group.

Sincerely,

Dear Editor,
 I, being among the guilty who succumbed to the recent black-mail fostered by the history department, would like to cleanse my conscience by registering my opinion on the unethical means used to swell the ranks at Wednesday's forum when Dr. Blake spoke of church unification. In freshman history lecture it was announced that there would be no history quiz for those attending the forum. As a joke, this was an excellent idea, for history makes it quite inconvenient for the Thursday section student to attend the forums. To me, this was a pleasant way of saying that history section would not prohibit us from attending the forum, to which my only objection would be that it would have been rather nice if other speakers had received the same courtesy.

I was unpleasantly surprised to discover that this was not a joke, and that the history professors were, indeed, taking role. Sad to say, much of the large turnout was due to those who "didn't want to take a chance," and saw, in truth, that they couldn't.

One can imagine how our honored speaker felt, after his presentation, to see a crowd of students huddling together in the balcony being checked out before the forum. I still thought it was a joke, but it wasn't. This is certainly not compulsory forum, but a much harder thing: blackmail forum. This a discredit to the student who has a genuine interest in the forum speaker, and must appear, not in interest, but as a victim who is trying to weasel out of a history quiz. It is a discredit to the school which gives an outside speaker the impression that people are being forced to listen to him. It is a discredit to the speaker who sees this and must pretend he does not, and it is a discredit to the history department, which appear to feel that the only way a student may be stimulated to interest is through being forced.

If the history department makes such offers in the future, I would suggest that they have the discretion to make Wednesday evening time available without strings attached. In fact, I reiterate, such a plan would be very worthwhile in the interests of education and in doing justice to forum speakers. I stand with the guilty in the hopes that this situation will not occur again.

ready cooperation. The basic results of our poll are as follows: 16.3% of those interviewed professed to not being familiar enough with the program to comment, 18.6% were definitely against the program, 18.6% were for the program with changes, and 46.5% of the faculty were completely behind the Customs program. In other words, less than one-fifth of the faculty is opposed to Customs at Ursinus.

Freshmen Polled

In another poll, conducted by a faculty member of certain students (mostly freshmen) in his sections, some more very interesting figures came to light. Out of 123 students who were asked to write a paragraph on how they feel about Customs, 86.2% wrote in favor of the program, while 13.8% were against. Again the reasons for the pros and cons were varied.

One freshman wrote, "I . . . think that stronger support of Customs by all classes and the faculty would help make Customs more effective." Another said, "We just left high school where we were 'big' seniors. Customs is just what the doctor ordered to put all the high school Harrys and Harriets into place." Also in support of this phase of Customs was this statement: "A group of healthy young adults, as we profess to be, can certainly suffer a little healthy 'cutting down to size' in order to learn about the campus, to learn to realize that the freshman class is the lowest class, and to learn to organize ourselves and find out who our leaders are."

An adverse opinion was expressed in, "this (Customs) is rationalization for the 'soph-rulers' to express their repressed inferiority feelings and does little for the freshmen."

A Senior Speaks

Perhaps the most valued opinion of all was written by a senior who recalled the fun he had when he went through Customs four years ago, and then wrote, "I observed the program this year and was disappointed at what I saw. The sophomore 'advisors' were no longer rulers, and the freshmen were allowed to scoff at college tradition in many cases. Why not review the whole program, and if changes are needed, make them?"

This is exactly what we have done. We have reviewed the Customs program, looked at it in the light of our interviews with faculty and students, and have made some changes—changes which we feel will benefit the freshmen.

Purposes Stated

Our main purpose this year is orientate the freshman to Ursinus College. We intend to accomplish this by having each freshman learn the campus song, campus places, faculty, administration, leaders, cheers, rules and regulations, ideals, and traditions. We intend to create a college class from a diversified group of high school seniors.

An innovation will be the explanation of the program and its purposes by an interested upperclassman before the freshmen women meet for the first time with the sophomore counselors. In this manner we prepare the freshmen for the program. They do not go into it cold.

We also intend to have a "Color Day" on which we will have special competition for the freshmen women among themselves, and then on a weekend a "Game Day" on the field which will be conducted with the freshmen men. On this day the nine sophomore counselors will also challenge nine of the freshmen women to a volleyball game in the gym. In this manner we intend to foster a spirit of competition and purpose in our program.

Another innovation, which is a direct result of our speaking with a faculty member who felt there isn't enough orientation of the freshman to study and academic life during Customs, is a "study seminar and explanation of extra curricular activities" period. This will take place in the second week of Customs and will serve to make the freshman aware of just what will be expected of him, what

:: It's All Over ::

From beginning to end, Ursinus' 1963 Greek Weekend was a great success. The festivities began at 9 p.m., Friday, May 3, when over 250 students arrived at Sunnybrook Ballroom. Arlen Saylor's Orchestra appealed to both fast and slow dancers. As in the past, all sorority and fraternity banners were hung around the walls, and members of the groups sat under their respective banners. Tables were pushed together for fun and conversation, and before long, favorite songs were ringing out from all sides.

Delta Pi Wins Track

Saturday morning there was the annual track meet, in which all the fraternities competed. Delta Pi took the honors of the morning. Saturday afternoon was filled with mixed activities. Some of the fraternities held private picnics, while other students took advantage of the lovely weather and went canoeing, and in some cases, swimming in the Perkiomen.

There was much excitement in the air on Saturday night. Ursinus has rarely had a band as good as "Lu Andrews and the Hearts" and nobody wanted to miss them. The SHA in Norristown was filled by 9:00. The band was late and there were technical difficulties, but when the music began, everyone agreed that the wait had been worth it. It might have been hot, crowded, and noisy, but it was great fun and a good change of pace.

The picnic at Oriole's field was the final event of the week end. By 2:15, most people had arrived, and shortly afterward the sound of the "Kingsmen" was heard over the grounds. In the pavillion, and as traditionally happens, in the Perk as well. Food arrived at 3:30, and was served in an orderly fashion. There were baseball and softball games, and card games. The rain which has spoiled the picnic for the past two years, passed over, and the excitement of Greek Weekend came to a close for another year.

he can expect from the various courses and professors, and how much time activities such as Messiah chorus and hockey practice take. During this time, the freshmen will be divided into small groups so that they will feel free to ask questions.

Finally, we intend for the last day of Customs to be known as "S Day." On this day we, the women counselors, will prepare a program for the freshmen, in which we give a skit, sing our class song, etc.

These are some of the changes we desire to make in the program. They are intentions because we must yet have our program approved by the WSGA. We are not doing away with step shows, skits, "Animal Day", long names, class songs, tours, and limited restrictions and suppressions, but rather, we are supplementing these fun-filled, humorous memories and traditions with some very beneficial innovations.

We agree with one professor who said, "The value of the program can be determined by how much it helps the freshmen." Analyze our poll, our interviews, our ideas. If you feel that our proposed program meets this basic requirement, then give it your full support, and push for a continuation of the Customs program at Ursinus.

Pre-Med Society Hears Dr. Cochran

On Tuesday, April 30 at 7:30 p.m., the Brownback - Anders Pre-Medical Society heard Dr. William Cochran, a gastrointestinal surgeon, speak on gastric freezing, a new technique for treatment of gastric and duodenal ulcers.

Dr. Cochran explained the problems of morality and morbidity in operative procedure. He then discussed the development of the freezing procedure for control of gastric hemorrhage and the discovery of its application to control of excess acidity in the stomach. This procedure is still in a fairly experimental stage, and promises well for the future.

Mike Bernstein Receives Honors

The Pennsylvania Psychology Association recently awarded runner-up honors to Ursinus senior Mike Bernstein for outstanding undergraduate research work. Bernstein submitted two papers to the Association—the first, "Discrimination of Hot and Cold Weights: A Study of the Applicability of the Psycho-Physical Law" prepared under the direction of Mr. Dwight Kirkpatrick, and the second "A Comparative Study in Ethnocentrism of the New York City Negroes and Puerto Ricans," under the direction of Dr. Richard Fletcher.

Bernstein, a senior from Brooklyn, has been on the Dean's List for six semesters, is a member of the Weekly staff, and an active participant in the intramural sports program. He has been accepted at the Columbia University Law School and has received a full tuition scholarship to the New York University Law School.

Nominations Made For Class Officers

Nominations for class officers have been announced by the presidents of the respective classes.

The nominations for the senior class officers are: President, Jim Shinnick; vice president, Bill Lobley and Tom Sandhoff; secretary, Joan Kleinhoff; and treasurer, Nancy Holochuk.

In the junior class, the choices will be Mike Kelly and Noll Evans, president; Curt Martin and Howard Smith, vice president; Kathy Dolman, secretary; and Bill Frazier, Jerry Rosenberger, and Bob Horrocks, treasurer.

The nominations for sophomore class officers are: president, Jack Gould, Lennie Greenbaum and Bill Kulesh; vice president, Pat Lore, Bob Larzelere, Bob Reed, Dan Pinkerton and Les Rudnyansky; secretary, Ann Harris and Carol Clough; and treasurer, Sally Miller, Gene Swann, Sue Raffauf, and Bob Smith.

UC Band Concert Scheduled May 11

The Ursinus College Concert Band will present a concert for the college and its friends on Saturday, May 11, at 6:30 in Bomberger. The concert is one of the planned activities for Spring Festival Weekend.

Bob Campbell, president of the band, stated that the program will not be established until this evening's rehearsal. The group has been rehearsing a large number of selections and is choosing the numbers which are best suited to this type of concert.

Included in the program will be a brass ensemble and a piano solo by Manny Abramson accompanied by the band. Manny will also play a number without accompaniment. He appeared earlier this semester in a program, "Jazz and the White American" sponsored by Delta Pi Sigma. He received outstanding reviews from this performance.

The band has been enlarged this semester by increased student interest. The group performed during football season as the marching band and at the close of this season begins concert rehearsals.

Observers of Spring rehearsals state that this promises to be the best performance by the band in a number of seasons.

Dr. James Wagner, Vice-President of the College, emphatically answers student at Controversy at Midnight.

Controversy . . .

take another look at its policy against federal aid. However, Dr. Wagner feels that perhaps by taking advantage of federal sources, we may jeopardize our own program. He noted further that many of the students appear to take pride in being part of an institution which has not sought or accepted federal aid.

MSGA Report

In regard to the MSGA Report, Dr. Wagner voiced favorable comments. He dismissed any doubts as to the administration's disfavor with the report as untrue and emphasized their evident approbation of such an organized group movement. He added that he was rather amused by the emphasis put on the lack of pencil sharpeners in the classrooms.

Concern was expressed by one of the students in regard to the administration's frequent disregard for the majority's wishes on campus. Dr. Wagner said that he felt this inference to be untrue and is confident that in the long run the students' problems will be recognized. He added that recognition is just a matter of patience and persistence on the part of the student body. He, too, reminded us that there are many people on this campus who are acting out of experience; despite the danger of tradition, there have been many valuable lessons learned in the past.

Dr. Wagner emphasized that we, as students, must keep in mind the fact that we are speaking from the standpoint of felt present need, while those in authority are making many of their decisions on the basis of experience. The question was then raised as to the procedure the student should take in order to have their ideas recognized. Dr. Wagner suggested that a student attempt to arrange an interview with the Dean or the President to discuss such matters, but should guard against going into one of these interviews with a chip on his shoulder. He went on to cite the Weekly as a good publication and paid special compliments to "The Letters to the Editor", acknowledging them along with the MSGA Report as very responsible approaches to the problem of student apathy on the Ursinus campus.

Among the new topics discussed at the controversy, the question was raised as to the possible as a very liberal policy being asked to resign because of his or her unorthodox religious beliefs. Dr. Wagner said that he is not aware of any instances when that type of removal occurred and doesn't think it possible as a very liberal policy is upheld here at Ursinus concerning such personal beliefs.

The final issue discussed before the close of the controversy involved the much-debated topic of the fraternities and their effect on campus life. An honorary member of a fraternity, Dr. Wagner feels that their influence is radically declining. Not being too enthusiastic about fraternities, in general, he is of the opinion that very real questions can be raised concerning the essential democracy of the fraternity system.

Meistersingers Performance Superb

by Lynn Martin

The Meistersingers gave their Ursinus concert on Thursday, May 2, with microphones strung across the front of Bomberger Chapel. This was the final concert of the year and the only performance for the college. The group is directed by Dr. William Philip and two student directors, Lodi Kershner and Bob Livingston. The accompanists are Linda Thompson and Judy Esterline.

Although the group includes show music in its repertoire, the program was entirely of sacred music. During "The Creation," Bob Livingston and Lodi Kershner read short passages from Genesis. After "And the evening and the morning were the first day," the choir's voice well up with the joyous refrain, "My Lord, What a Morning." Later, a chant from the Russian Orthodox church service, "Hospodi Pomilui," gave the chorus a chance to display professional precision. But description is inadequate; one has to hear the group to appreciate its massed power and control.

The choir traveled through Ohio two weeks ago, singing in churches and staying at the homes of members of congregations and has also given several local concerts. The group received $150 for each appearance, but the chartered bus and other expenses made Meistersingers come out in the red.

To a great extent, Meistersingers is student-run. Lodi Kershner is business manager this year, with Carol Glessner and Charlie Stevens as assistants. Charlie will be Lodi's successor and has already started making his initial contacts for 1964, when Meistersingers will probably tour New York State.

WSGA Meeting

The first meeting of the newly elected WSGA was held on April 29 at 5:00 p.m. In addition to the officers and class representatives, the Council consists of the president of the Dorm Council, Ginny Gross, and Custom's Representative, Darlene Miller.

After the introductory business was completed and the new members were told what their specific duties were to be, the Council got down to the business of the day. A volunteer was asked to become the representative to the MSGA, and sophomore representative Pat Lore offered to do the job. A representative of the MSGA sporadically comes to WSGA meetings and it is hoped that this cooperation can be increased. Pat also volunteered to work with Dr. Wagner to increase hometown newspaper coverage.

It was decided to have an open house after the Spring Festival until the buffet supper is served. The Council also decided to continue the Design for Living programs, aiming at more popular programs to be given at more convenient times.

It was suggested that the Junior Advisor Program be strengthened by including more activities and more responsibilities. A committee for the revision of the Constitution was set up, consisting of Sue Musselman, Ginny Gross, Val Moritz, and Judy Noyes.

The question was raised concerning permission to wear bermudas in the reception rooms on Saturdays. The Dean replied that this was a blanket rule and that one exception would lead to others. As there was no other business, the meeting was adjourned.

HOW TO SEE EUROPE FOR ONLY $300 A DAY: NO. 3

When all of you go to Europe during your summer vacation, you will certainly want to visit Spain, where the tall corn grows. The first thing you will notice upon entering Spain is the absence of sibilants. In Spain "s" is pronounced "th" and thereby hangs a tale. Until the reign of Philip IV—or Guy Fawkes, as he was sometimes called—Spaniards said "s" just like everybody else. Philip IV, however, lisped, and Spaniards, having an ingrained sense of propriety and not wishing to embarrass their monarch, decided that everybody should lisp. This did indeed put Philip IV very much at his ease, but in the end it turned out to be a very bad thing for Spain. It wrecked the sassafras industry—Spain's principal source of revenue—and reduced the nation to a second-class power.

...to keep body and soul together

As a result, Spaniards were all forced to turn to bull fighting in order to keep body and soul together. Today, wherever you go in Spain—in Madrid, in Barcelona, in Toledo, in Cleveland—you will see bulls being fought. For many years the bulls have sought to arbitrate this long-standing dispute, but the Spaniards, a proud people who use nothing but Castile soap, have rejected all overtures.

It is therefore necessary for me to explain bull fighting to anyone who is going to Spain. It is also necessary for me to say a few words about Marlboro Cigarettes because they pay me for writing this column, and they are inclined to pout if I ignore their product. In truth, it is no chore for me to sing the praises of Marlboro Cigarettes, for I am one who fairly swoons with delight when I come upon a cigarette which gives you the full, rich taste of good tobaccos plus the pure white Selectrate filter, and Marlboro is the only smoke I have found that fulfills both requirements. Oh, what a piece of work is Marlboro! The flavor reaches you without stint or diminution. You, even as I, will find these statements to be happily true when once you light a Marlboro. Marlbors come to you in soft pack or Flip-Top box, and are made only by the makers of Marlboro.

But I digress. Let us return to bull fighting. Bulls are by nature bellicose creatures who will keep fighting till the cows come home. Then they like to put on pipe and slippers and listen to the "Farm and Home Hour." However, the Spaniards will not allow the bulls any succor. They keep attacking the bull and making veronicas—a corn meal pancake filled with ground meat. Bulls, being vegetarians, reject the veronicas and then, believe you me, the fur starts to fly!

To be perfectly honest, many Spaniards have grown weary of this incessant struggle and have left their homeland. Columbus, for example, took off in three little ships—the Patti, the Maxene, and the Laverne—and discovered Ohio. Magellan later discovered Columbus. Balboa also sailed to the New World, but he was silent on a peak in Darien, so it is difficult to know what he discovered.

Well sir, I guess that's all you need to know about Spain. So now, as the setting sun casts its rosy fingers over El Greco, let us take our reluctant leave of Spain—or Perfidious Albion, as it is jocularly called. Aloha, Spain or Perfidious Albion, aloha!

© 1963 Max Shulman

Let us not, however, take our leave of smoking pleasure. Let us keep enjoying those fine Marlboro Cigarettes—rich, golden tobacco—pure white Selectrate filter—soft pack or Flip-Top box—available in all fifty States of the Union.

Pre-Med Elections This Week

Last week the Brownback-Anders Pre-Medical Society heard Dr. William Cochran at a regular meeting.

At a business meeting following the talk, the Constitution was amended, changing the qualifications for officers. Nominations were made. Donald Stock, David Di Eugenio, and Ken Connors were nominated for president; Thomas Sandhoff, James Barrett, and Lincoln Spurgeon for vice president; and Paul Sparks, William Lobley and Cyrus Beekey for secretary-treasurer. Elections will be held this week at a special meeting.

Cheerleaders Name Squad Members

The cheerleading squad has announced the selection of three new members, one regular and two alternates for the coming year. The choice was made after extensive tryouts in which a dozen Freshman women participated. The tryout followed a series of three afternoon practice sessions at which the cheerleaders instructed the hopefuls in the various cheers and songs they had to know.

Jane Heyen, a phys ed major from Katonah, New York, will be the new regular on the squad. She is a member of the Young Republicans, the WAA, and of class committees, and is in a Spring Festival dance and on the costume committee. She is a typist for the Weekly. Jane is following family tradition, for her father was also an Ursinus cheerleader.

Alternates

The alternates will be Margie Hamm and Jane Sugg. Margie is a math major from Bangor, Pa. She is a member of the Math Club, the WAA, and the PSEA. Jane hails from Bethlehem, Pa., and is a German major. She is a member of the Messiah Chorus, the Spring Festival Grounds Committee, the WAA, and the Young Republicans. She is senator-elect for Beardwood 2, in a Spring Festival dance, and a worker on class committees.

Bears Out-poll Diplomats 10-4; Deep-freeze, Rain Dissolve E-Town

On Monday, April 29, the Bears journeyed to the land of the hex and the Distelfink to defeat the Carpetbaggers of F and M. Butch Hofmann went the distance for the Bears, limiting the Diplomats to seven hits and one earned run. The Bears took advantage of walks and errors as they scored ten runs on eight hits.

The Bears began their scoring in the first inning. Troster, Weaver, and Parker walked. Williamson grounded to third, scoring Troster as Parker was thrown out at second on a fielder's choice. Williamson proceeded to steal second and Scholl singled to score Williamson and Weaver.

Graver led off in the second inning with a single, stole second and advanced to third on an error by Goodrich. Weaver then hit a long fly which scored Graver.

In the third inning, Williamson walked. Scholl and Stock followed with singles scoring Williamson. The Diplomats' catcher committed an error and Scholl scored.

Williamson connected for his first of two triples in the seventh, scoring Weaver from second. Quinn sacrificed to score Williamson from third.

The Bears added two more in the ninth as Wighton walked, Williamson tripled, and Scholl singled.

Hofmann was in trouble in the fourth inning when Bears errors permitted three Diplomat runs to score. In all, the Bears committed eight errors in the course of the afternoon.

UC Downs WC in Lacrosse, 10-4

The West Chester lacrosse team came to Ursinus last Friday, May 3, to play a make-shift game that was not originally on the schedule. From the score, 10-4, and the way Ursinus played, West Chester probably regretted putting the extra game on their schedule. It was the best game of the season so far for UC.

Ursinus' attack was coordinated, utilizing sharp cuts and speed against West Chester's defense. In desperation three WC players would often converge on the shooter.

The UC defense, especially in the second half, gave West Chester's attack no room to catch, pass, or set up a play. Co-captain Gail Brinton, defense wing, scored her second goal of the season when she ran around West Chester's startled defense for the shot.

Scores at the half are indicated.

In the midst of an Indian Winter, the Bears' Jack Parker limited the visitors from Elizabethtown to one unearned run as the Bears emerged from the deep freeze with a 2-1 victory.

The Siebmen came from behind in the sixth inning, scoring two runs to take the lead which they never relinquished. Don Stock was safe on an error; Graver tripled, scoring Stock. Graver scored on a single by Wighton.

Wilkes Stuns UC's Chances 2-1

Wilkes College, who had not won a game all year, pulled the plug and Ursinus watched its chance at a second straight MAC title wash down the drain in a 2-1 defeat. The Bears now have a record of 7-3 in the league but this defeat puts them two games behind league-leading Western Maryland. The thing that was so tragic was that Wilkes is regarded as the worst outfit in the conference, and rumors have it that they haven't won a contest in three years.

It wasn't the pitching which turned sour, for Barry Troster hurled a fairly effective game despite the constant jams which confronted him. The UC bats were as silent as churchmice, for the Bears only picked up one single through the first seven innings. Wilkes drew first blood in the fifth when they pushed across the decisive two tallies. The Ursinus hitters were frustrated no end by the Wilkes chucker who threw the ball so slow that it had a trajectory toward the plate. In the eighth UC mounted a threat on two singles, but the clutch hitting was not there.

Finally, in the last frame Ursinus pushed across its lone run and had a chance to win the contest, but it just wasn't in the cards. Bob Wighton led off the top of the ninth with a free pass and he sped around to third on John Weaver's solid single, Weaver taking second on the throw. Outfielder Dick Geesaman then lofted a deep fly to left to bring in a run, and Weaver went to third. But, with a runner on third and one out and the meat of the Bear order coming to the dish, the Wilkes hurler had the answer. Barrie Williamson popped to the infield and Bill Scholl ended the game with a high fly to left field.

Netmen Conquer Drexel and PMC

After getting off to a miserable start the Ursinus College Men's Tennis Team have come through with two impressive victories in their last two outings. Last Wednesday the Bears knocked off Drexel in a very tightly-contested match, 5-4. Then Saturday afternoon at home UC turned back the PMC Cadets, 7-2. These two consecutive wins demonstrate that Coach Quinn's aggregate has at last jelled after five opening defeats at the hands of some very rugged opposition.

The netmen were paralyzed in their first three matches by three of the better teams in Pennsylvania — Swarthmore, Haverford, and F & M, 0-9 each time. But, then the Bears showed signs of coming to life as they bowed to Delaware, 1-8, and LaSalle, 4-5. They got untracked at Drexel as Kei Coon, Bob Bole, Ed Myers, and Larry Crabb turned in fine performances to nail down the initial victory. Coon, Bole, and Myers were victors in their singles matches and Myers with Crabb and Coon with Bole scored key wins in the doubles events.

Ursinus captured their biggest win of the season Saturday against PMC on our home courts, 7-2. In the singles Crabb (UC) defeated Richardson (PMC) 6-1, 6-3; Myers (UC) topped Brown (PMC) 6-2, 6-2; Coon (UC) edged Miller (PMC) 6-3, 2-6, and 6-1; Bole (UC) eased past Pearson (PMC) 6-1, 6-3. UC's other two players, Dave Crough and John Warren, were defeated in tight decisions. Ursinus then proceeded to sweep the doubles' contests as top-seeded Larry Crabb and second-seeded Ed Myers combined for a win 6-2, 6-3. Bole and Coon followed suit with a 6-3, 6-4 conquest, and Crough and Warren scored a victory to round out the sweep, 6-2, 6-2.

Favored Drexel Smashed by UC Golf Club

The Ursinus College Golf Club met Drexel at Skippack C.C. last Friday. A heavily favored Drexel Golf team was smashed by a 16½-1½ margin. This same Drexel team had beaten Haverford two days earlier.

Cindermen Raise Season Record 6-1

The Bears cindermen ran their record to 6-1 as they edged P.M.C. 68-63 and then took the measure of Johns Hopkins and Dickinson in a triangular meet at Carlisle. The highlight of the week was a stunning 3:23.5 victory by the mile relay team of Tony Sermarini, Tom Walter, Bill Cooper and Pete Dunn which established a new college record, breaking the mark of 3:26.4 set in the recent Penn Relays.

Ursinus set four meet records and won ten events as they accumulated 74½ points to 53½ for Dickinson and 34 for Hopkins, last year's upset winner, as the Bears have now avenged their three defeats of last season. Cooper remained undefeated in the 880 and mile, as he established a new meet record of 1:55.5 in the former and turned in an excellent winning time of 4:27.4 in the mile. Dunn broke his own meet mark in the 440 yard dash, setting the new standard at :51.0, in addition to winning the 220 yard dash with a :22.7 clocking. Sermarini also broke his own meet record in the javelin with a toss of 186 feet three inches, and took second to Dunn in the 440 with a :51.8 clocking which also battered the old mark. Walter annexed the 220 low hurdles with a convincing win over the favored John Cox of Johns Hopkins, and also garnered a third in the 100 yard dash, as the relay quartet accounted for 42 points.

The Bears opened the meet by taking a 1-2-4 finish in the shot put to jump into a 9-2-0 lead and were never headed. Al Hakanson remained undefeated in the shot put and gained a fourth place in the discus. Captain Denny Wilson placed second in the shot put, and grabbed third places in both the javelin and discus, while Hal Fullam gained the fourth place point in the shot put with a toss of 40'10½" to the third place toss of Hopkins' John Morgan at 40'11¼". The Bears continued their onslaught in the field events as Dave Bonner and Cliff Kuhn leaped to a one-two finish in the high jump, and Bob Gladstone and Sermarini garnered a 1-3 finish in the broad jump.

John Hunsicker took a third behind Walter and Cox in the 220 lows and was second to Cox in the 120 Highs. Frosh Jon Katz grabbed the ½ point by gaining a fourth place tie in the pole vault to finish the Bears scoring.

The Bears had a close call at Chester last Wednesday, but a convincing 230 yard victory in the mile relay, the final event, gave the Grizzlies a 68-63 victory. Cooper scored his usual double in the 880 and mile, as Sermarini switched to the 880 to take a second in addition to winning the javelin. Walter doubled, winning the 100 yard dash in addition to his specialty the 220 yard low hurdles, and John Hunsicker annexed the 120 high hurdles. The relay quartet's winning time of 3:27.9 established a new meet mark.

the PRESSBOX

by Craig Garner
Sports Editor

The UC baseball outfit relied on the script "How to blow a Championship in 9 Easy Innings" and acted the drama perfectly at Wilkes Saturday. Wilkes hadn't won a game all year and their pitcher threw like a paralytic "Grandma Moses", yet the Bears couldn't overcome this harmless obstacle. It was an irretrievable loss and it came at a very inopportune moment, for Sieb had just cleared his mantel to make room for the league cup.

Actually Coach Pancoast was very hesitant to predict another championship before the Wilkes fiasco. He thought the team had begun to jell, yet he added that the club "was liable to crack at any moment." The defense has been pitiful and the hitting has been spotty, yet it was hoped that pitching could pull the team up by its bootstraps. Well, the mystery was solved this weekend. The pitching was adequate as it has been all season with Troster, Hofmann, Parker, and Geesaman hurling the gems, but the hitting was about as potent as a firecracker without a fuse. Such troubles as eight errors in the F & M game, ten runners stranded in the last four frames at Swarthmore, and the lack of a solid number three hitter caught up with the Bears just before the backstretch. It was a great disappointment to get belted out of the race by such a Little League outfit as Wilkes, yet it proves one thing: "pitching may be 75% of the game, but that other 25% is needed, too."

The mugginess of the approaching summer sort of stifles all notions of pigskins floating through the air. But, even in the spring Coach Whatley is on the prowl for likely-looking football suspects. He revealed that the recruiting prospects for next year were "bleak" and bleak seems to be the correct terminology for there is only a halfback from Hazleton who shows any promise. Yet, Coach Whatley is not completely discouraged for he feels that the new free substitution rule (which encourages specialists) will allow more players to participate, and thus the opportunities for the mediocre player will be enhanced. He also revealed that UC was adding another game next year, with Franklin & Marshall, a team of our own calibre, and that Susquehanna and Wagner were to be pruned from our schedule in the near future.

Haverford Defeats UC Golf Team

The Ursinus College Golf Club dropped a 6-12 decision to Haverford College April 30. The match was played in the rain at the Merion West Course in Ardmore, Pa.
