“ACTING BOLDLY BEYOND A REASONABLE DOUBT”

Departing the position of dean of student life puts me in a mood for reflecting. The Ruby editors' kind invitation to share a thought with yearbook readers provides the perfect forum.

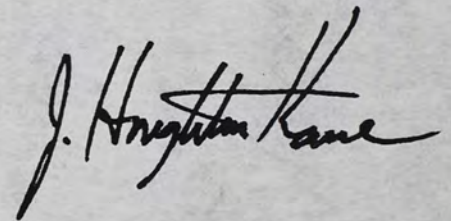

Doubting is in fashion with careful thinkers... and properly so. As liberally educated persons, we understand the importance of doubt- and the danger of drowning doubts in hero worship or in heady claims of exclusivity. We are committed to a life of challenging every assertion and testing every claim.

Yet an over emphasis on doubting and challenging can lead to another danger: that of being frozen into inaction by the presence of doubt. Careful, honest thought almost always includes a residue of doubt and this doubt must be addressed in a responsible way by persons of action. Rather than relying on emotionalism or exaggerated claims to truth, I suggest that we should consider adopting the legal standard of reasonable doubt. Namely, bold action should be taken once reasonable doubt is reduced to the point where it becomes unreasonable.

As we all move on in the great experience of life, I make a recommendation: we should combine healthy doubting with the ability to recognize when doubt has been reduced to the point of unreasonableness. Once this line is crossed, BOLD ACTION is not only possible, but essential!

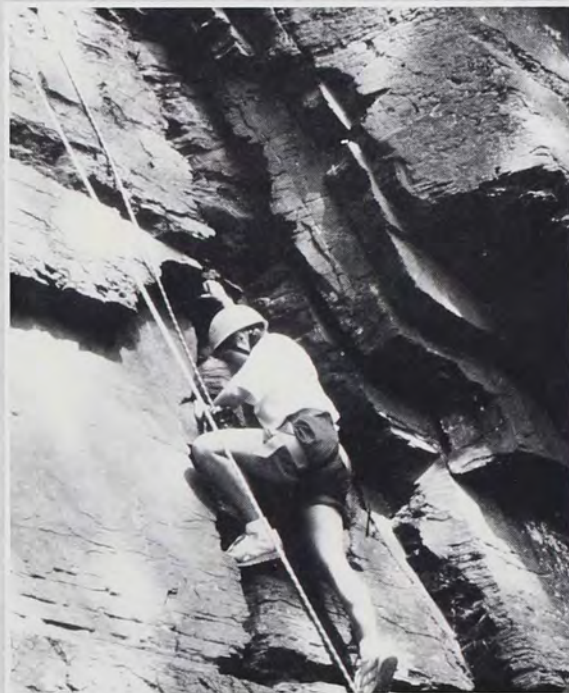

This is difficult advice to follow- especially when it may be safer and even more prestigious to be an “intellectual critic”, sitting on the sidelines and offering a running commentary as life's opportunities pass by. Whether those opportunities relate to our relationship with God, our families or our employment, they will not be available to us indefinitely. Our success in seizing upon them depends on our willingness to act boldly, even when an unreasonably small residue of doubt remains.

May we all be reasonable doubters and bold actors!

Dean Kane has had an impact on the lives of many Ursinus students during his fifteen years as Dean of Student Life. But there is another role that he assumed which has given him the opportunity to touch the lives of others. He designed, implemented, and led the leadership program which began in 1992. As many of these pictures reveal, Dean Kane not only helped U.C. students to improve their skills and knowledge in leadership, but he has also provided opportunities for students to help others in the community through this program. Those who have worked with Dean Kane or who have asked for his assistance, know that he is always willing to offer his time and energy. We express a sincere thanks to Dean Houghton Kane for all that he has contributed to the Ursinus community.

RESIDENCE HALLS

The resident assistants have an enormous responsibility placed upon them. They may not be our parents in the sense that they don't cook our meals or do our laundry, but they do offer band-aids and light bulbs to help make Ursinus a home away from home. This year The Ruby decided to dedicate a few pages to capture dorm life here at U.C., a tradition that hopefully will be continued. A special thanks to the RAs who made this section of the yearbook possible.

Alpha Sigma Nu

Members: Sophia Artis, Justine Boettger, Shannon Dougherty, Karen Drew, Christine Getty, Cheryl Opalkowski, Sharon Pescha, Heather Ramsey, Nichole Smith, Ellie Stutzman, Lisa Wernert, and Nicola Wills

"We miss you, Kim."

Alpha Sigma Nu was founded in 1929 by Rebecca Price. Since that time hundreds of sisters have graduated from Ursinus. This year is no exception. Our motto, "Above Sisterhood Nothing," has been proudly followed by this year's graduating seniors, Karen Drew, Nicola Wills, Christine Getty, and Sophia Artis. We'll miss you. Congratulations! We love you.

Circle of friends sharing smiles

Hope, Mary, & Carol- the 3 amigas

"We are the green and gold, the dove is in the sky, the yellow roses will be with us 'til we die. We're sisters ever true friendship for me and you, a bond that will not falter as the years go by. And so we sing this song in praise of KDK. We'd like to thank you for such happy memories. And we're so proud to be in the sorority. It's KDK for you and KDK for me!"

Bad hair day, girls?!

The colors of Upsilon Phi Delta are emerald green, black, and white. Emerald green represents nature and the beauty of life. Black represents the absence of color, thus denoting diversity, and white represents the sanctity and beauty of life. The sorority's mascot is the "lily."

U Phi D has lots of fun- as the smiles on these sisters' faces reveal

Volunteer work completed this year by Upsilon Phi Delta includes a food and clothing drive, Habitat for Humanity, St. Christopher's Hospital, Evansberg State Park, and MARC (gift wrapping) for the mentally disabled.

Pi Omega Delta has had some difficulties this year, yet we all still found time to laugh and drink together. POD is not a group of guys that acts as a group or an organization that follows old ideals blindly. We have demonstrated this characteristic this past year- we attempted to distinguish ourselves as individuals who will stand up for what we believe in and, ultimately, see our goals through to the end. If anything, the brothers and the fraternity have grown this year despite the hurdles and obstacles that appeared. Eleven seniors are graduating this year, and we sincerely wish that the memories of friendship and brotherhood accompany them through their travels. After all, everything from our traditions to our history to the time we spend together every day make up who we are- "The Dirtmen are we... the brothers of POD."

Seventy-five years ago, the field hockey players may not have had the equipment and the facilities that they have access to today, but they began an athletic tradition that has distinguished Ursinus as the field hockey capital of the world. Ursinus has maintained leadership from coaches such as Adele Boyd and Vonnie Gros, that can be described as some of the finest in the sport. This array of exceptional coaching has been instrumental in the success of the Division I program. As 1994 marked the diamond anniversary of this legacy, we salute all of those whose participation and enthusiastic efforts have served as a foundation for such a tradition of excellence.

1994-95 URSINUS CHEERLEADERS

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS: MELANIE WILLIAMS (CAPTAIN), CARA BOND, TAMMY DIETZ, RUTHANN GUNDERSEN, ELIZABETH STECKMAN, JESSICA WALKER, AND LAUREN WILLIAMS

Captains Melanie Williams and Heidi Wushinske led the 1994-95 football cheerleaders through a spirited season. The squad was assisted this year by Kim Rousin, a former cheerleader and 1993 graduate. The squad got off to a great start! The cheerleading squad psyched up the football team and the crowd at every game. The team added several new mounts, stunts, and cheers to their repertoire of activities. These were enormous crowd pleasers and will remain a part of the program.

Basketball season was also very exciting. This season the squad was one captain short, while Captain Heidi Wushinske was studying abroad for the spring semester. The team carried on under the leadership of Captain Melanie Williams. Several new faces were seen on the sidelines this year: Cara Bond, Tammy Dietz, and Elizabeth Steckman. In addition to cheering on the football and basketball teams, the cheerleaders conducted various fundraisers and decorated the players' locker rooms before games. Special thanks goes to Audrey Wade, the advisor, and Paul Coppola, the dedicated and entertaining bear who helped the cheerleaders get the crowd excited for the games.

The men and women of the Ursinus track and field teams displayed exceptional skills this season. Samantha Caggiano (Triple Jump), Rachelle Pecovsky (Shot Put), April Brown (Discus), and Troy Gehret (High Jump) all won individual championships at the Centennial Conference Track & Field meet. Both the Ursinus men's and women's teams placed fourth. Caggiano also placed second in the long jump and fourth in the high jump. Pecovsky was also fourth in the discus, while Skye Laidlaw and Brown placed second and fourth in the shot put respectively. David Myers was second in the pole vault, while Kevin Stratton placed fourth in both the 110 meter and 400 meter hurdles.

ORGANIZATIONS

MultiCultural Society

- Promoting Diversity

Beardwood Chemical Society

- Developing New Ideas Through Science

The Beardwood Chemical Society consists of members who are interested in the study of chemistry. Throughout the semester, they hold meetings on various topics related to chemistry. During each meeting, there are guest speakers renowned for the knowledge or accomplishments they possess within their respective fields. The society is open to all students regardless of their major.

Whitians Society

- Women Leading Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

The Whitian Society was founded in 1939 at Ursinus College by Dr. Elizabeth B. White, Professor of History and Dean of Women. The society recognizes the achievements of women who have distinguished themselves through outstanding academic performance, in addition to leadership and service to the College. Election to the society is limited to second-semester juniors.

Members Include: Ellen Cosgrove (President), Kate Laubach (Recording Secretary), Laureen Bloodgood, Heather Foreman, Jen Hagerty, Laura Lecrone, Sarah Lee, Julie Tonnessen, Heather Leach, and Deborah Williamson.

Beta Beta Beta Biological Honor Society

- Advancing in the Field of Biology

This organization is an honor society which recognizes individuals who excel in the field of biological science. The society functions to help guide these individuals with career choices and decisions concerning post-graduate education. This is accomplished, in part, by organizing plant trips to local businesses and factories within the medical and biotechnological industry. The organization's leaders gather material from various graduate programs and present that information to members of both the society and the student body of Ursinus.

Members Include: Steven Wagner (President), Rima Bizri (Vice-President), Claire Zeberkiewicz (Treasurer), Kristen Cornell (Secretary), Kim Doan (Historian), Robert M. ## U.C. Hot S.H.O.T.S.

- Caring Students in the Community

U.C. Hot S.H.O.T.S, Students Helping Others Through Service, is an outreach organization founded to aid and promote philanthropic projects from campus organizations to the surrounding community. They provide "pre-packaged" service projects which include contact names, advertisement ideas, and activity schedules. Hot S.H.O.T.S. may even arrange transportation to and from a service function for student volunteers. If you want to reach beyond the option packages available to you, Hot S.H.O.T.S. is willing to help you arrange a project based on your own imaginative ideas. Community service is rewarding, fulfilling, and can also be a stepping stone to future opportunities. So don't wait- get involved today!

Brownback-Anders Pre-Med

- Future Doctors of America

The Brownback-Anders Premedical Society is an organization for students who are planning to attend Medical School. Many of these students are either Biology, Chemistry, or Pre-Med majors. Meetings for the organization are held monthly. During each meeting there is a topic discussed dealing with the field of medicine.

Exercise And Sports Science Club

- Keeping Athletes Going

The ESS Club is intended for all students who are majoring in Exercise and Sports Science. Many of these students can be found in the training room helping out with athletic injuries. The ESS major at Ursinus is a rigorous program that thoroughly prepares the student for his/her future.

Amnesty International

- Striving For Freedom

Amnesty International is an independent world wide human rights movement working impartially for the release of all prisoners of conscience, fair, prompt trials for political prisoners, and an end to torture and executions.

...FOREVER YOUNG

Well... it's over. Who would have ever guessed that we could have produced a 148 page book in two weeks?! Until May 1st, due to financial restraints, we thought the ideas that we had for The 1995 Ruby would remain only as a part of our minds and would never become a tangible keepsake. But once given the opportunity to develop these ideas, we found that they were not only a part of our minds but also a part of our hearts. With the limited amount of time that we had for collecting photos and gathering information, we tried our best to capture the moments of the 1994-95 year at Ursinus as they happened.

There are many, many people in the Ursinus College community that have been instrumental in the production of this book. Without their help, we never could have done it. Our sincere thanks goes to Dr. John Pilgrim and Dean Houghton Kane for their compassion and optimism that allowed us to see the brighter side to the burden that was placed upon our shoulders. This much needed encouragement allowed us to refocus our priorities, and their sensitivity reflected the College's concern for its students to come first. Also, a special thanks to Alina Morawski whose sympathetic understanding, as a fellow student leader, helped us to justify our feelings of frustration yet see beyond them.

There is one person that we must thank for her willingness to help in any way possible. Mrs. Sally Rapp is truly a wonderful person. She somehow found a way to get us everything that was needed. Without her, there wouldn't have been a method to our madness!

The editor of the athletics section was essentially Dave Sherman. Without his group photographs, candid, and write-ups, there would have been 20 less pages in our book. Thanks for coming through on all of our last minute demands.

While the rest of the student body left campus to begin their summers, we continued to enjoy Wismer food and all-nighters (even though finals were over). In order to complete this book, we had to rely on many others on campus. This gave us the opportunity to become acquainted with those whom we would not have otherwise known. Our genuine thanks goes to the Residence Life Office, Communications Office, Registrar's Office, and President's Office for their prompt assistance. We would also like to thank the Student Activities Office for all of their help particularly Jae Hively for performing above and beyond our expectations. We thank the Dawleys, Tom Neill, and Stevo who certainly made our lives more bearable by helping us to get all of the computer equipment we needed to get started. We would also like to thank Wismer for keeping us fed, and the maintenance men for keeping us awake by sawing and pounding next to our room at 8 a.m. every morning. They made us realize that we really could survive on three hours of sleep a night.

Although we were ultimately responsible for the production of this book, the help from those on our staff made our job easier. Danny, Tarik, and Mel- we thank you for all of your help, particularly in teaching us the program. Tori, thanks for jumping in second semester and always being there to snap just one more picture. Courtney, thank you for taking the initiative- you took a large burden off of our shoulders.

There were many people who helped us celebrate our joys and listen to our frustrations. A huge thanks to our fellow residents of 624, Cindy, Mel, Ally, Courtney, Missy, and Tanya, for offering ears and hugs.

A special thank you to Sue Thomas for her compassion and sincerity. Sue, all of the encouraging talks and homemade bread made our extended semester not seem so bad. You have been a true friend.

Amidst our two weeks of non-stop yearbook, it's amazing that there were actually moments of laughter and fun. Thank you Nate and Shawn for all of the many hours of endless proofreading and caption creating and for tolerating our non-listening skills. Thanks for forcing us to take a break, even if it meant a random water fight and for helping us to laugh at each other by getting the "dumb look."

This experience has taught us that we can't always control everything, but that we must put our trust in the Lord to guide us. Through the good and the bad, no matter what our state of mind, the power of prayer has kept our spirits alive. Our parents and families have given us support with words, prayers, and most importantly, their love. Without the beliefs they instilled within us, we wouldn't have been able to continue amidst the pressure. Even though this is our third year away from home we have never more missed our beds, homemade food, and TLC that only families can give.

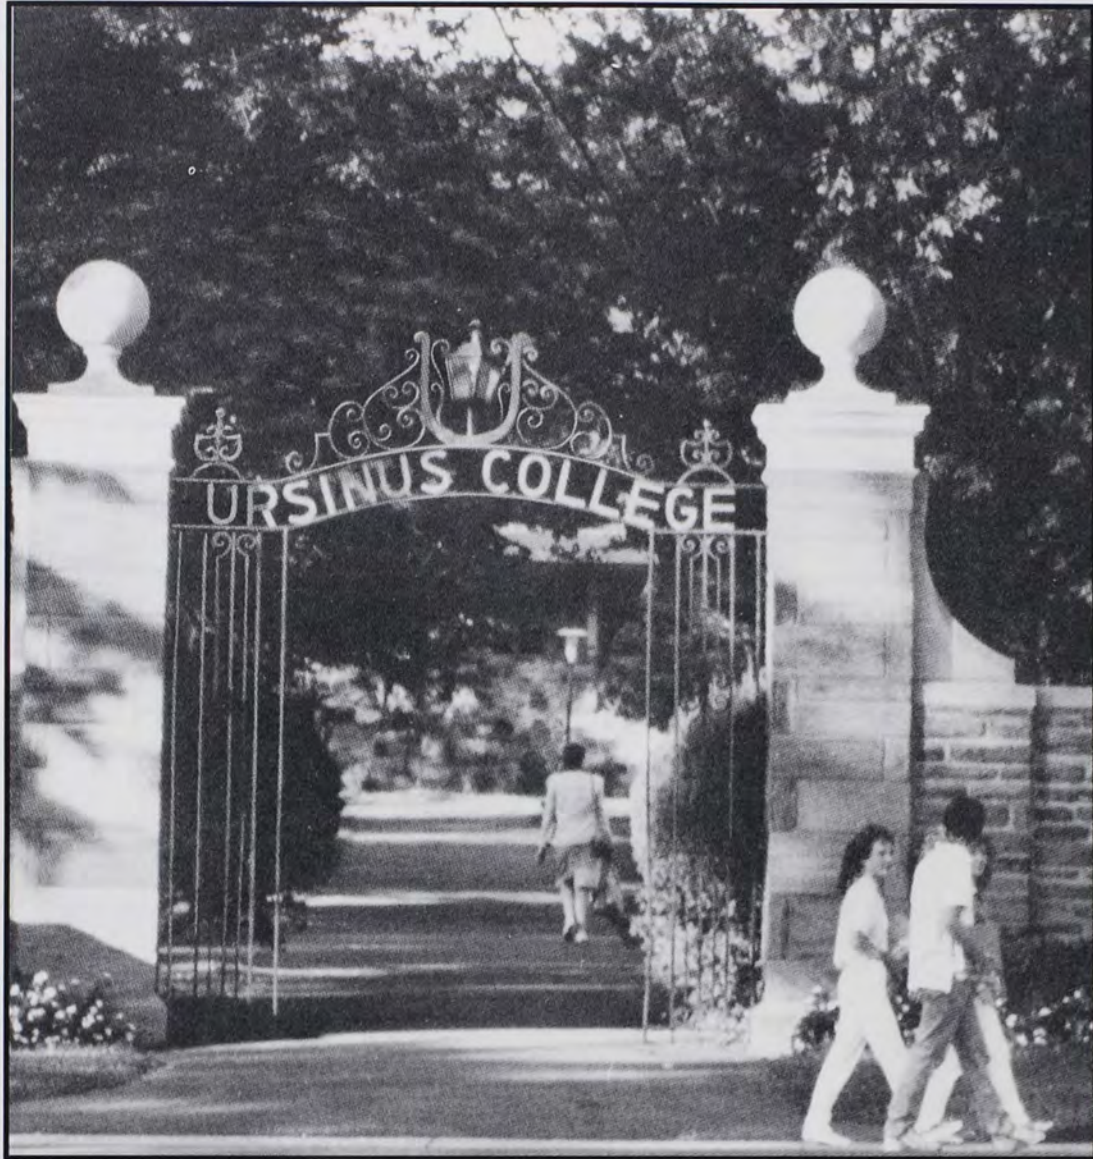

It was through the help of all these people and others that we were able to complete the impossible and gain such a feeling of accomplishment. As you turn through the final pages of this book, we hope that it brings each of you as many joys and happy memories as it has to us.

Thanks again and best wishes,

Pamela S. Rizer

Friends of the Ursinus Library Congratulate the Class of 1995

Through annual dues and gifts to the loyalty fund, friends of the Ursinus Library make possible the development of special collections, exhibits, and occasional lectures. Individuals, as friends, interpret the Ursinus Library to their community and encourage gifts from others. Benefits to friends include free use of the library, a newsletter, and invitations to special events. Providing for the objective needs of the library is an important objective of the friends.

*Class of 1995,
we invite you to join us.*

Trina,

Nothing has ever come easy for you. You have overcome many hardships. Your maturity and strength have seen you through this last semester.

With the support of your many friends, and your entire family you reached that Daddy only dream and I could not ask for a better daughter.

With the support of your many friends, and your entire family you reached that Daddy only dream and I could not ask for a better daughter.

There is a "Pop Pop Angel" whose halo is glowing especially bright, with pride for his "Princess".

Mom & Dad (aka Tomato & Snooper)

"THE FUTURE IS OURS"

The future is ours, for we are tomorrow.

The future is a sea of possibilities, we are the swimmers.

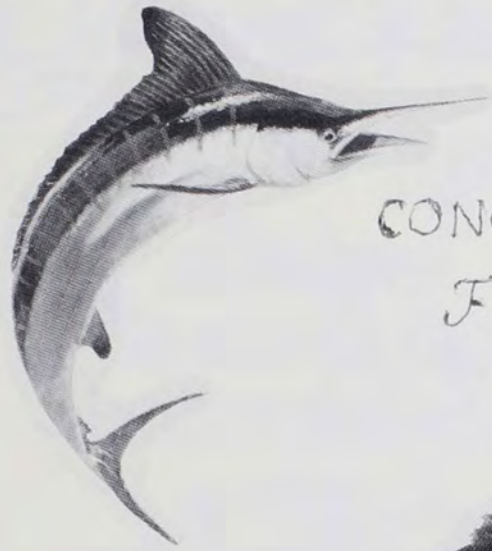

The future is something to look forward to.

The future is bright, because it shines in our eyes.
