You may be asking, why is there a bear in space on the cover? Well, the Ursa Major and Ursa Minor constellations, also known as "The Great Bear," harken back to our College's namesake! Ursa, being latin root for bear, was the 16th century teacher and thinker's, Zacharias Baer, inspiration for "latin-izing" his last name to Ursinus.

In 1869, our founders named the College after Zacharias, hoping to produce great scholars in his likeness, and the we've been The Bears ever since!

Go, Fight, Roar!

Student Life

Family Day

September 21, 2013

Family Day 2013 was filled with all the yearly favorites: a plethora of sporting events, bounce houses, train rides, a petting zoo, and, of course, precious time spent with family. UC Ambassadors welcomed relatives to the day, and families enjoyed lunch together on the lawn near Wismer. In one of the most-attended events of the day, the football team played Franklin & Marshall, winning 20-9. Ursinus also hosted events in several other sports, such as men's soccer, field hockey, women's lacrosse, and cross country. Families additionally enjoyed academic events such as an open forum by the President of the College, Dr. Fong. The organic farm displayed several crops that they had cultivated. And then, of course, there were activities for the kids, which included face painting and balloon animals.

Homecoming

October 18-19, 2013

Homecoming 2013 was a flurry of activity as a succession of traditions pumped up the campus for another unforgettable weekend. Friday night, the Grizzly Gala was an all-out bash of classy fun; students dressed up in their best for the twenties-themed cocktail party and celebrated with catered food and live music by the Slippery Band. Alumni were present at the cocktail party, and many more swarmed the campus on Saturday, raising spirits and mingling with students. Ursinus played Juniata for the annual football game, where David Nolan and Mary Kate McCrea were crowned Homecoming King and Queen, sharing a sweet kiss alongside the rest of the Court. This year proved once again that, when the occasion arises, Ursinus students, past and present, can make campus an explosion of spirit.

Senior Halloween Party

November 3, 2013

On Sunday, November 3rd, the senior class dressed in their best Halloween attire to celebrate the eerie night. As they entered the Valley Forge Casino in King of Prussia, they showed off their ghoulish getups, while admiring their classmate's creative costumes as well. While at Deuces Wild in the Casino, they rode the mechanical bull into the wee hours of the night in celebration of their last Halloween with all of their classmates. Seniors will forever remember this party as one of the best they had attended over their four years at Ursinus.

THEATER

2013 - 2014 Academic Year

A round of applause for this very successful year for Ursinus' theater! In October, the company did a production of Shakespeare's "Much Ado about Nothing" and John Van Druten's "Bell, Book, and Candle." Both of these dramatic plays were met with both critical and box office success. Additionally, this was the year of Ursinus' first ever musical! "Wonderful Town," a musical by Lenard Burnstein, opened in late February and sold out three nights in a row. The musical was met with critical acclaim from the Ursinus community. The school's theatre program was definitely firing on all cylinders for the 2013-2014 year.

DANCE

2013- 2014 Academic Year

The many different dance programs at Ursinus have had a busy year! The Ursinus College Dance Company's fall concert, "Waking Dreams," featured Ursinus students dancing in a variety of different dance styles by professional guest artists and faculty members Karen Clemente and Jeanine McCain. In addition, the student run dance company, Escape Velocity, held two concerts this year, "Mirage" and "Turn Up the Heat." And let's not forget, the Dance Team showed their UC pride at home basketball games this season, while Seismic Step got the crowd roaring during the Homecoming Football Game half time show!

Story by Rachel Glick '17

MUSIC

2013-2014 Academic Year

Hats off to the numerous musical organizations on campus for a great year of performances! The UC Jazz Ensemble and the UC String Ensemble offered a medley of musical concerts to appeal to all audiences. The Jazz Ensemble featured a history of jazz styles during their fall concert, conducted by Holly Hobbs. In addition, the String Ensemble's fall concert, conducted by Garrett Hope, presented selections inspired by the Civil War. Student run organizations also had their chance to shine. The all-male and all-female a capella groups on campus, The Bearitones and B'Naturals respectively, held their first fall concerts this past year. The B'Nats performed "Not Your Basic Pitches," and the Bearitones performed "We Are Not a Sports Team." Voices in Praise, the Ursinus College Gospel Choir, also let their voices be heard in a fall concert, "Total Praise."

Dear Michael,

You are an amazing son and you are about to embark on an even more amazing life. You have never failed to surprise us with your sensitivity, your intelligence, your quest for knowledge, and your compassion for life. We can't wait to see what happens next.

We love you, Mom and Dad.

Brendan A. Howseman

There has only ever been one BMan. You of the generous heart, passionate and curious mind, pointed opinion, and voluminous memory - we salute you. It has been the best part of our lives to walk with you as you've grown into the man you have become.

Remember to trust yourself and the better angels of your nature; practice patience, especially with yourself; look for the good in all you may encounter; and never give up, never surrender! Be wary of all felines. Befriend pugs.

~ With love and pride,
Mom and Dad

Daniel A Marad

Dan-
We are proud of you and can't wait to see what your future holds! We're looking forward to watching you continue to grow and find your success doing what you love. Never stop learning or being positive. Continue to be yourself no matter what, you are an amazing man! We love you.
Dad and Mom

John Lewis Wieczorek

Johnny,
We are so proud of you and love you. You are a wonderful young adult, scholar, and four year varsity swimmer. Reach for your dreams and believe in yourself. Congrats on your degree.
Love,
Mom, Dad and Julia.

Jim Stanley

We wanted to let you know how proud we are of you. We hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smiles, the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known.

Love, Dad & Mom

"I have come to accept the feeling of not knowing where I am going it is only when we are suspended in mid-air with no landing in sight, that we force our wings to unravel & begin our flight & as we fly, we still may not know where we are going to, the miracle is in unfolding our wings. You may not know where you are, but you know that so spread your wings the wind will carry you!"

John Ryan

From the moment we first held you in our arms, we knew you were special. Now so many years later we stand in awe before the extraordinary man you have become. You are amazingly smart and enjoyably witty. Your compassion and generosity are a testament to your greatness. We are proud beyond words. You are our son and we will forever love you.

Congratulations Michael

Congrats on a wildly
successful college
career. As our trailblazer
you continue to amaze
us with your love of life.
Ciao bella!

Rebecca Rimkunas

Rebecca,
Congratulations on graduating from Ursinus!
We're so proud of you!
Love,
Mom, Dad and family

Thea Dougherty

Congratulations Thea!

These four years have flown by. Remember all the good times at Ursinus, the friendships you made and the classes taken. We are so proud of your accomplishments. Grandma is watching and smiling proudly. You've managed to do it all. We love you!

Mom, Dad,
Gavin, and
Grandma

David DeWitt

David,
We are tremendously proud and
happy to have you in our family,
Dave. Congratulations on your graduation from Ursinus College, and for you numerous academic, sports, and personal achievements. You have overcome hurdles with finesse
and courage, and retained your song in your heart. With great love and affection, Dad, Mom,
Perry and Mary Lee wish you good health and success in every area of your life.

Courtney Williams

What a joy it has been watching you develop your wings to fly and soar, wow! The wisdom you have gained, the academic excellence you have maintained, the places you have traveled, and the life-long friends you've made are treasures that will remain. We are so proud of the woman you have become. As you continue to soar, may God continue to do exceedingly, abundantly more than you can ask or think.

There is a whole world out there

Remembering Rachel Blunt

Chell was incredibly witty and talented in an understated kind of way. Xe sometimes worried that most people saw hir as little more than a 'cute girl,' which is the last phrase I would use to describe this vibrant and complicated person. All I really know is that I fell instantly in love with hir when we met, but not in the way you might assume. We bonded instantly and for some reason the universe kept throwing us together until, finally, we were friends who watched bad TV and ate way too many cookies together late at night. Xe was like my family, my friend and something indescribable all at the same time.

"It seems so strange at a time like this to say that I feel lucky, but I do. I cannot express just how lucky I feel to have had Rachel in my life."

"From the start, hir intense curiosity showed through bright as day. Xe sat front and center in class, eager to add hir thoughts to discussion, and just as eager to listen to others. Chell was not only creative and sharp, but xe was kind. Xe was supportive and generous, with other students, and with me as hir instructor."

Chell was, to me, someone who didn't care what others thought about [hir], something I always admired. [Xe] was so vibrant and energetic. [Xe] made [hir] mark on me, and I'm not going to forget [hir]. I doubt anyone who knew [hir] will. [Xe] was a kick-ass actor and a great artist, and [xe] was my friend. Chell was an amazing person, and [xe will] be missed. The world could use more people like [hir]."

"One of the things I admired most about hir was the way xe passionately and respectfully advocated for hir point of view. Xe was open, caring and friendly to hir fellow classmates, even in the midst of disagreements, and, we'll be missing hir voice in our discussions."

"Rachel was creative, witty, quirky and sarcastically charming in a way that made it impossible not to feel a great deal of affection for [hir]. I'll always remember [hir] for [hir] creativity, [hir] artistic talent, [hir] loyalty to [hir] friends and how much they cared for [hir], and [hir] kindness."

"Rachel was a true artist. [Xe] was always drawing, performing, creating in some way. [Xe] was outspoken and original. [Xe] made a lasting impression."

"[Chell] was a deep thinker and a beautiful writer who measured the value of ideas against [hir] own carefully considered conscience."

"Rachel had warmth in [hir] presence, a genuine sweetness that came through in [hir] performances. That is what I will remember."

"Who was [xe]? [Xe] was known on campus as Chell. Professor remarked that [xe] was friendly, quietly reflective, deeply interested in art and in learning. Chell was a vibrant presence, one of our most creative students. [Xe] was a visual and performing artist whose work was original, thoughtful and imaginative."

Who was [xe]? Chell loved deeply, but [xe] could not always believe that others were better for [hir] love. [Xe] was deeply beloved by others, but in [hir] darkness [xe] could not always be warmed by their love. In [hir] depression, [xe] felt trapped like the mime in the invisible box, unable to feel happiness, hope, love or kindness, even when surrounded by it. And yet, I've been told by Chell's parents and friends that Ursinus was also the place of some of [hir] happiest times, when [xe] and [hir] friends were able to break through the invisible box so that despite [hir] struggles, [xe] did intermittently feel hope, and friendship, and sunlight on [hir] skin, and joy."

Hi Johnny,

We are so very proud of you and all of your accomplishments. We watched you grow from a curious little boy to an intelligent young man ready to take on the world. Your dedication, diligence and drive to attain your goals has been unstoppable. We know that anything you put your mind to you will succeed. Your journey is now beginning and we know you will make a difference in whatever you do. Congratulations! We love you!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Sam, Ryan and Kevin
