Campus Song

*Words by: Rev. Carl G. Pettie '00
Music by: Francis Shackleton*

When the shades of ev'ning gather, Ursinus students hie
To the soft, greenswarded campus, for a time their books laid by;
And the parting rifts of sunlight, as they linger soft and long,
Shed a hallowed gleam of gladness, on our merriment and song.

Now the glees of old Ursinus peal across the downy green,
From Memorial to Olevian span the distance far between,
And the walls of dear old Freeland the reverberations fling
From the East Wing to the Dog House, as our voices loudly ring.

Then across the Perkiomen, the chimings wing their flight,
'Till beyond the far flung hilltops, they kiss Heaven's dome of light.
Then as if they rued their boldness, come the trembling echoes back,
And thus end the winged praises of the Red, Old Gold and Black.

Saying Farewell

to an unforgettable President

Leaving behind a legacy

After 16 years of service to Ursinus College, Dr. John Strassburger announced his retirement on Thursday, Feb. 11, 2010 as the 13th President of the College. Students, faculty, and staff gathered for the news and shared continuous applause in recognition for his work and dedication to the school. Known as "Mr. Ursinus" by fellow college communities, his extreme care to student potential will forever be present within the Ursinus Community.

His impact, in his own words:

"I think I've been a part of a process where everyone's sights have been elevated and students coming in here don't even realize that more is being expected of them and asked of them than even fifteen years ago."

During the President's Donor party, nationally recognized Benjamin Franklin entertainer and impersonator Ralph Archbold talks with President Strassburger and guest.

Student Achievement was always at the forefront of President Strassburger's mind. Here he and wife Trudy listen to a student's COSA presentation (Celebration of Student Achievement).

" John Strassburger came to Ursinus when it was a middling college in southeastern Pennsylvania, little different from the college I knew as a student in the early nineteen-fifties. He leaves it a nationally recognized, top 100 liberal arts college that has caught the attention of the whole world of small colleges. He has done this by conceiving what are deceptively simple strategies and executing them brilliantly.

All great eras ultimately must give way to the realities of time, but John's was an era greater than all but the founding one of Dr. Bomberger.

Dr. Spencer Foreman, Chairman of the Board of Trustees

Around campus

Above, President Strassburger and wife Trudy pose with a live statue in Olin Plaza. During his tenure, both consistently showed their support for student achievement in the classroom and on the athletic field. Their presence at home athletic events was a standard known by all students.

in just a few words:

student and faculty.

Dr. Erec Smith, '95 Alumnus; English Department

I was fortunate enough to see John Strassburger's first year as President of Ursinus College during my final year as a student. When President Strassburger took over, there was a freshness and positivity about the change that was palpable to me and my fellow students; we knew good things were coming. Now, as I return to Ursinus as a professor, I see that our collective intuition was right on the mark. President Strassburger's influence can be seen from the look of the campus to the character of its student body. I am proud to have seen both the beginning and the end of his tenure at Ursinus.

Amber Hyppolite, Class of 2010

The first time I met President Strassburger he was discussing student leadership on a Comcast panel at my high school. I think what I remembered most was his bowtie and his praise of Ursinus' Creative Writing minor after I mentioned an interest in fiction.

The next time I ran into President Strassburger, I went right up to him and reintroduced myself. He was cordial and engaged, and he gave me his card and mentioned it would be okay to send him samples of my writing. I sent him samples and he responded to my email promptly, expressing an appreciation for it that I felt was rare and so thoughtful. It was one of the reasons I decided to come to Ursinus.

President Strassburger provides us with a sense of expectation for ourselves. He's a genuine person, who always does his best to relate to others and make them feel important. He will be missed.

Dr. Jay Miller, Media and Communications Department

As a faculty member who has been on campus for more than 25 years, I've watched and participated in the extraordinary changes that have occurred at the College during the 14 years of John Strassburger's leadership. His uncompromising focus on student achievement cascaded into a transformation of campus culture along with expansions of faculty and academic programs as well as new and renovated facilities. The College is a richer, more vibrant institution than it was 16 yrs ago. And, this change is nothing short of remarkable.

Aakash Shah, Class of 2010

When I first saw President Strassburger chatting with students, I was surprised. But after noticing him do it daily, I realized why. He understands that education requires a dedicated family, one that knows your name and your story. Under his guidance, that insight wove itself into the Ursinus fabric.

Dr. Walter Greason, History Department

President John Strassburger established the twenty-first century standard for liberal arts education. His leadership of Ursinus College balanced enrollment growth, capital expansion, and academic rigor. He transformed administrative practices by maintaining strict accountability in pursuit of student achievement. President Strassburger reinvented the college curriculum around a singular innovation, the Common Intellectual Experience a nationally recognized program that drew the most talented students and faculty to the college. His emphasis on the universal value of critical inquiry stretched the boundaries of academic achievement into new fields like Environmental Studies, Theater and Dance, Neuroscience, and American Studies. Ursinus College became a national leader in higher education because John's vision of dynamic pedagogy and student engagement resonated with alumni, current students, faculty, and staff on a daily basis. He stands alone as the greatest administrator in the College's history.

"The English Honors Society, Sigma Tau Delta, has given our group an overall sense of community both socially and intellectually. Our events have given me the opportunity to spend time with fellow English majors and the English department faculty, allowing me to develop strong bonds with the people at Ursinus who share my interests and goals."

SPORTS

On the athletic fields, Ursinus students meet friends and learn the value of camaraderie and team work. 2009-10 was another great year for Ursinus Athletics. The women's field hockey team made it to the NCAA semifinals for the second time in three years, and they placed fourth in the Division III Championships. The football team finished 2nd in the Centennial Conference, and made it to the ECAC bowl during the post-season. The Cross Country teams competed in the Mid-East Regionals, the men ranking 27th and the women finishing 24th, and the Swimming teams competed in February's Centennial Conference Championships with their best seasons to date. The number of accomplishments are many, but these photos hold the memories that will stick with athletes for years to come.

Matt,
We are so proud of your accomplishments. You are such a great guy and we have enjoyed getting to know you. You are like a son to us. Thank you for taking such good care of our daughter. We have no doubt that you will succeed in anything you put your mind to.

Through good times and bad, having you around the past three years has been a blessing! Ursinus won't be the same without you. I'll miss pestering you on a daily basis, but I know that Dad will do well taking care of that responsibility! I am so proud of you!

Love,
Kristin

Congratulations!

Bridget, You are an amazing and wonderful daughter. You have accomplished so much in these past four years! We admire your compassion and adventuresome spirit. You will always be our "hurricane"! Much success in the years ahead!

What can we say except that we are very proud of you! You have truly succeeded in everything you have set forth to do. From the day you were born you have been extremely special to us. You have freely given of yourself to help us whenever we needed it. These last four years were tough without you around all the time, but you made time to come home on the weekends and play cards with Pop. Not too many college students would do that. Although Pop was called to heaven in December, he will always live in your heart. We love you very much.

Gram and Pop

We are so proud of what you have accomplished at Ursinus! Your many hours of hard work have paid off, there was never any doubt that you would SUCCEED! We loved watching you on the baseball field; although it didn't work out as planned you met many new friends. Leaving baseball allowed you to become involved in other activities that made you happy, including spending more time with Bridget; the love of your life. Thanks for never giving up when things got tough. We love you and know you will continue to be successful in all that you do! Love, Mom and Dad

Matt, thanks for being the BEST big brother; I can always count on you to be there when I need you!
Love, Kim

Bridget,

Congratulations on your graduation. You have worked hard and we are proud of you! From the first night we met you, freshman year, we have grown to love you. Remember Pop loved you like a granddaughter aka "The Bride". Best of luck at Drexel!
