Freshmen Orientation

The Class of 1993 was the first to go through the extended, 5 day, orientation program. The week included academic seminars and workshops to prepare the freshmen for college courses. A variety of entertainment ranging from games night to a water balloon fight to a night with Dave Binder allowed the freshman to unify as a class.

Berman Museum of Art

In October 1989 Ursinus College celebrated the grand opening of the Philip and Muriel Berman Museum of Art with the Inaugural Exhibition titled "A Passion for Art: Selections from the Berman Collection." A series of events were held from October 13 through October 22 to introduce the Museum to the campus community and to honor those who contributed their time and resources to the success of this magnificent cultural and educational facility.

The official ribbon cutting ceremony took place on October 19, followed by a special opening for the students. Student leaders kicked off the event by snipping the ribbon and opening the way into the rotunda of the main gallery. The college jazz ensemble, Reunion Jazz, entertained the several hundred students who attended the festivities.

Over 70 students assisted the staff of the Berman Museum during opening week activities as hosts to visitors, coordinating events and publicity, providing security and assisting with preparations. On Sunday October 22 Student groups ranging from the Ski Club to Sororities and Fraternities hosted a Festival to celebrate the Public Opening. Over 2,000 people attended the event which featured noted author, James A. Michner, who spoke to the crowd about the significance of the Museum and the enviable partnership Ursinus maintains with the community and friends.

The Inaugural Exhibition featured paintings and sculpture selected from the personal collection of Muriel and Philip Berman. From Degas to Picasso to Sargent, visitors to the Museum enjoyed examples of significant works by well known artists. Student, Faculty and Community groups are able to schedule meetings, lectures and events in the Seminar Room, utilize the art library and take advantage of many resources offered by the Museum facility and staff. A regular schedule of changing exhibitions will ensure fresh and exciting visual challenges and the Museum itself provides a haven of escape for an hour of solitude. -LTB

F. W. Olin Building

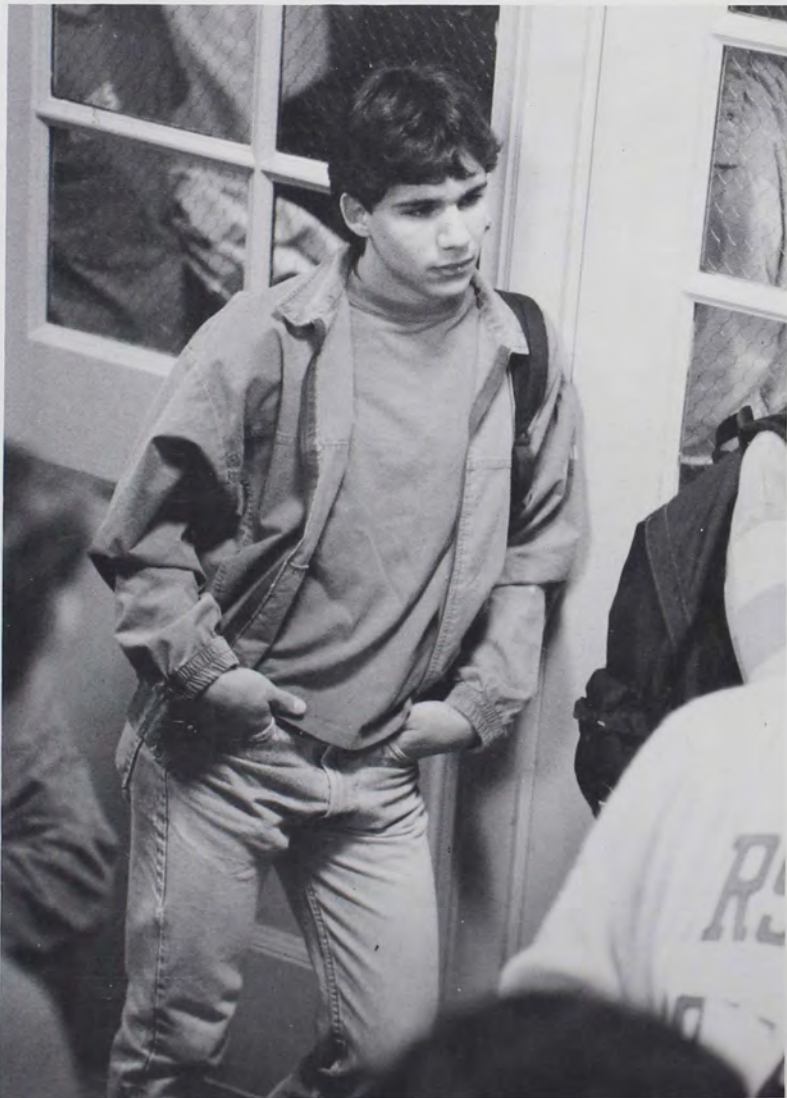

F. W. Olin will be constructed through a $5.37 million grant to Ursinus College by the F.W. Olin Foundation, Inc. of New York City. Scheduled to open in the Spring of 1990, the building will contain a 320-seat lecture hall, six classrooms, four seminar rooms, two special purpose tiered classrooms, two micro-computer laboratories, the language laboratory and the writing center. In addition, the faculty offices of the departments of classical studies, English, history, modern languages, and philosophy and religion will be located in the new building.

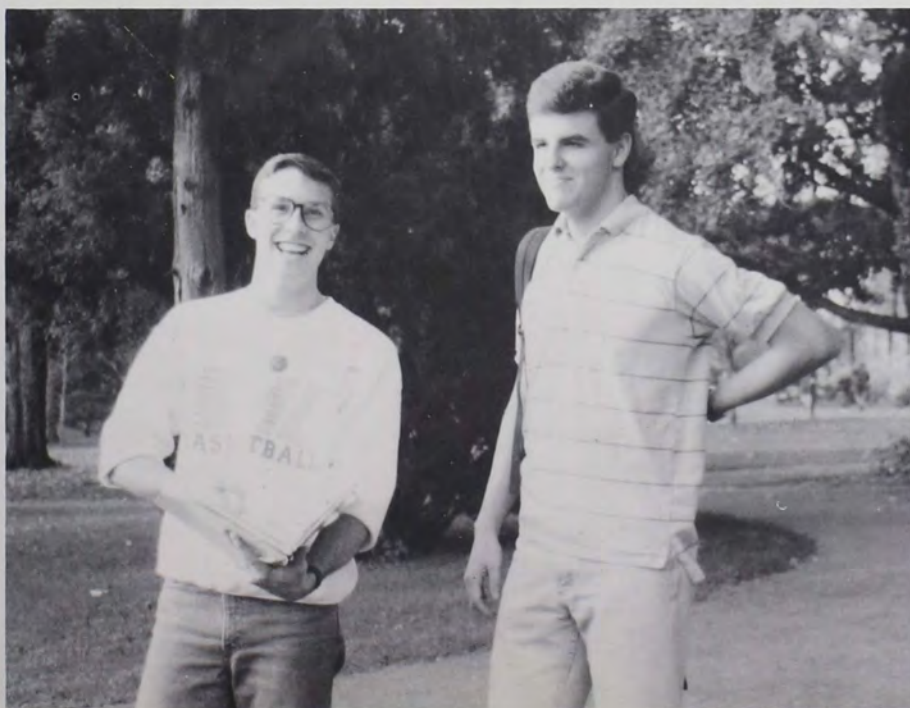

1989 Lacrosse National Champions

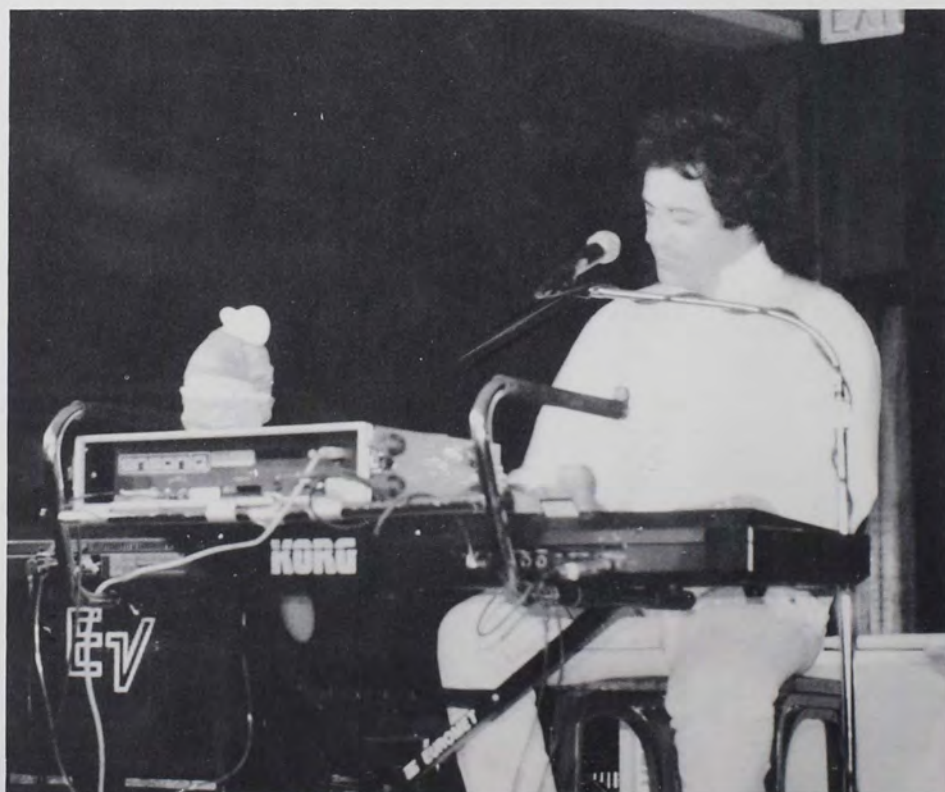

The Ursinus College Women's Lacrosse Team for the second time in 3 years made it to the NCAA Division III finals. They were pitted against their undefeated rivals Trenton State College in an emotional match that ended up with UC winning 8-6. At Half-time the score was 5-2 in favor of Trenton State. An inspiring halftime talk by Coach Betsy Meng-Ramsey and a lot of perseverance by the whole squad helped them to overcome the deficit in the second half and ultimately bring the crown back to Ursinus. Says senior Kim Piersall, "At the beginning of the season we, as a team, decided that winning the Division III title was our goal. To stand out there on the field after the final horn realizing you've reached your goal is just an incredible feeling—I'll never forget it."

Reflections is the non-alcoholic nightclub on campus and is sponsored by the Campus Activities Board. The co-chairpersons for the 1989-1990 year were Ed Fitzgerald and Michele Kelley. This year Reflections celebrated its Second Anniversary. The entertainers for the year were:
All Four Fun-vocalists/pianists
Randel Sheridan-comedian
Bertice Berry-comedienne
Kyle Davis-vocalist/guitar

With the loss of 9 out of 10 starters from last year's varsity squad, many thought it was going to be a long season for Coach Bill Racich and the wrestling team. Under the leadership of tri-captains Kevin Athern, Larry Howe, and Thom Love, however, and with the mid-season addition of Victor Zampetti, Todd Klinedinst, and Scott Flannery, the Grizzlies finished the year with an 11-6-0 record. The season gave Coach Racich his 100th victory and secured Racich with a decade of consecutive winning seasons. Since the wrestling team is losing only one senior, the team MVP Nils Neubauer, they are looking forward to next year with great anticipation and high expectations.

On May 20, 1990 the Ursinus College Women's Lacrosse team defended its Division III national title at Princeton University by beating St. Lawrence 7-6. The young squad, made up of only four seniors, came together as a unit under the direction of first year coach Kim Lambdin. All authorities said the UC team would not win the title again. By beating Trenton 6-5 in the semi-finals and St. Lawrence in the finals the team members showed their mettle. Later in the summer the Ursinus squad was invited to the White House to meet the President of the United States, Mr. George Bush.

Softball

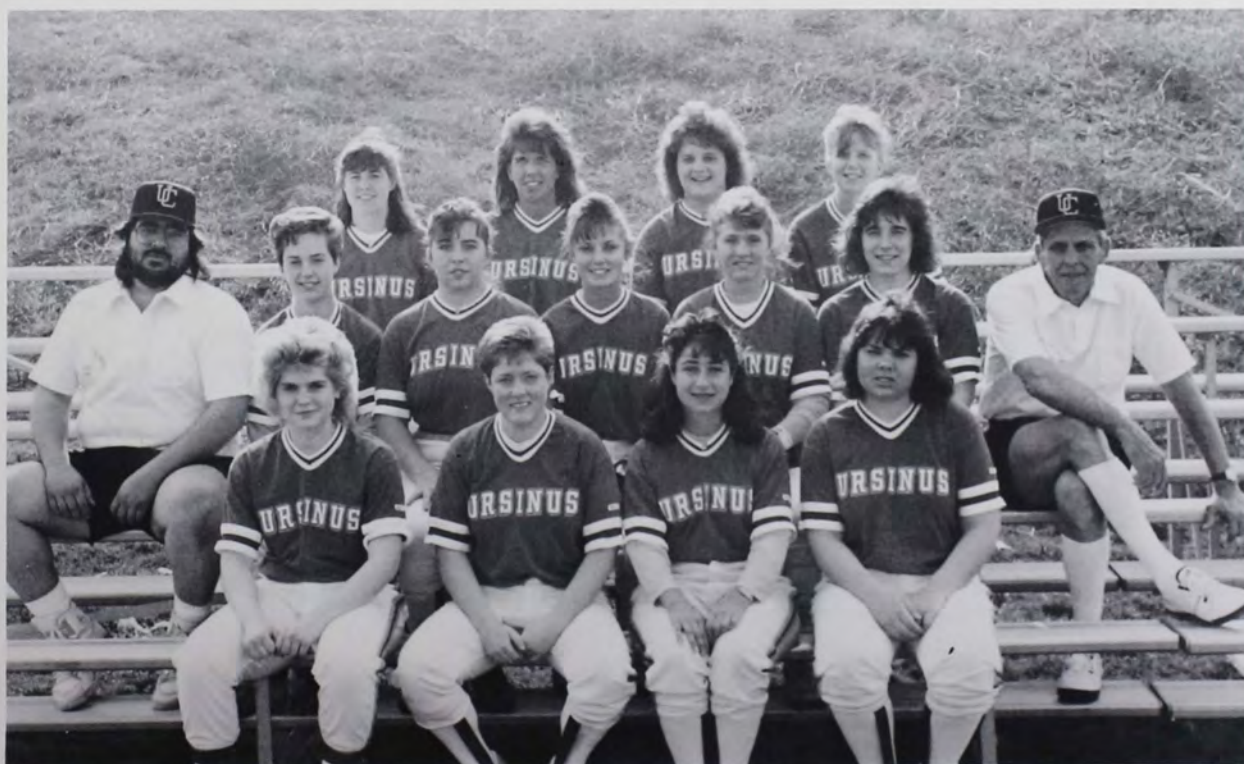

The Ursinus Women's Softball Team under first-year head coach Bob McClatchey struggled to a 3-19 record this year. This season was a rebuilding year for the team which consisted of only two seniors, team captain Margie Hamilton and Dawn Rauch. Although the record may not show it the majority of our games were hard fought and lost by only one run. The team, after a late start, looks forward to having a successful season next year.

My job as editor-in-chief of the 1990 Ruby proved to be a tremendous endeavor indeed. It consumed more hours than any single academic course on my schedule this year. At the same time, it provided me with as much, if not more, valuable learning. I learned the practicalities of running a small business and learned to deal with people from a supervisory level. I am grateful for the opportunity to have worked on the yearbook. It was a project I greatly enjoyed.

My workload was eased by the contributions of many people. The one person who helped most was my copy editor, Laura Crowell. Laura was responsible for collecting and typing all print in the book. She sacrificed sleep and prime tanning hours in order to meet our deadlines. Thank you Laura and good luck next year as editor.

I should thank Mike Gilroy and Pat from Herff Jones, our publishing company. Their advice and expertise helped give this year's Ruby an updated look. Their encouragement gave me confidence that I could finish this book.

Thanks to Mrs. Cindy Harris, the Ruby advisor. You got me through those long publications' meetings. I hope you don't have to be recording secretary again! Mrs. Sally Rapp, the economics secretary, helped with all correspondences to businesses. I don't think we would have had an advertisement section without her help.

Davor Photo gets the credit for the senior portraits, the faculty portraits, and coverage of such special events as The Berman Museum Opening, Homecoming, and Graduation. They provided us with day to day developing and printing of our film. Near deadlines they provided express service.

This year I tried to include more summaries of events. Lisa Tremper Barns provided the article on the museum opening. Sports captains gave highlights from their season. Sorority presidents gave histories to include on their pages. To all of them I am grateful.

Although my staff dwindled as the year progressed, those who remained gave unselfishly of their time. Thank you's go to my business manager Yvette Dennis and my expert photographer Toni Castells, Randy Leiser, and Holly Teti. People who worked on layout include Dawna Greico, Michele Kriebel, Leslie Kuipers, Dana Mischak, and Robin Quinn. To Kathi Lawless: I guess selling old photos wasn't a good idea. To my housemates: Thank you for lending an ear when I had to blow off steam.

Despite my harried condition before deadlines, I must admit, I enjoyed having the power to control the destiny of this book. Even with its small imperfections, I am proud of the book we produced. I hope it serves as a reminder of your fondest memories.

Michele McFadden
