Fall 'Y' Retreat to be Held At Fernbrook, Oct. 12-14

At a meeting of the cabinet of the Ursinus YM-YWCA held in Maples Hall on Sunday, September 30, it was officially announced that the fall "Y" retreat will be held at Camp Fernbrook near Pottstown on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, October 12, 13 and 14.

It was decided that the theme of the retreat will be "Follow Me." This will be the idea which the whole conference—and the planning for the entire year—will be built.

Men's Council Has Opening Session

According to the minutes of Ted S. Holcombe, the secretary of the Ursinus Men's Student Government Association, the following matters were discussed at the first meeting of the association council.

President William Rheiner announced that he had paid, from MSGA funds, the orchestra which had appeared at the "Welcome Back Dance" on Tuesday, September 25, and that this money would be returned by means of a five dollar assessment on each fraternity that had had its banner displayed at the affair.

The rules for Freshman "customs" were gone over with Dr. G. Sieber Pancoast, the faculty advisor to the MSGA; only a few minor changes were put into effect.

Representative Fred Glauser volunteered to write articles concerning the MSGA council in The Ursinus Weekly.

Representatives from the MSGA at the various classes were selected as follows: Sophomore Class Harry Zall Junior Class Kenneth Grundy Senior Class Ray Hamilton It was suggested that the college steward post a weekly menu outside the dining rooms in Freeland Hall for the convenience of the student body.

Reader's Digest Contest Offers Cash and Credit

The Reader's Digest is offering $41,000 in cash and scholarships as prizes in an October contest open only to college students and faculty members in the United States.

First prize is $5,000 in cash with another $5,000 to the scholarship fund of the winner's college. Second prize is $1,000 cash with an equal amount to the school's scholarship fund. There are ten $500 cash prizes with an equal amount to scholarship funds.

There will be 100 prizes of $10 in book credit from local college book stores. The best entry from each college will receive an additional $10 in book credit.

On the entry blanks entrants simply list in order the six articles which they consider the most interesting in the October issue of Reader's Digest. Those with listings closest to the results of a survey of Digest readers will receive the prizes.

Entries must be postmarked before midnight of October 25 and addressed to the Reader's Digest Contest, Box 4, Great Neck, L. I., New York.

Deltas, Phi Psi Give Opening Social Affair

On Saturday, September 29, many couples attended the first social affair of the season, "The Kickoff," presented by Phi Alpha Psi sorority and Delta Pi Sigma fraternity.

Gordon Williams' orchestra contributed to the festivities. The refreshments served were assorted sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, and pretzels. The tables were decorated with ivy sprigs amid small red megaphones which served as favors.

It was announced, also, that Demas fraternity and Omega Chi sorority will sponsor a similar affair sometime within the next week.

"Y" COMMISSIONS

There will be meetings of the various commissions of the Ursinus YM-YWCA in Bomberger Hall on Wednesday, October 3, at 6:30 p.m.

Class of 1960 Arrives on Campus

On Sunday, September 23, the members of the Ursinus Class of 1960 arrived at the campus to begin their pre-matriculation program. In the afternoon, new students and their parents were taken on tours of the campus. After a buffet supper, the Rev. Dr. Alfred L. Creager, the college chaplain, and Dr. Norman E. McClure, President of the College, conducted a vespers program in Bomberger Chapel. The YM-YWCA later held an "open house" in the student union.

On Monday, the new students met with their faculty advisers to plan their schedules. Following registration in the library, the frosh were free to purchase supplies or to enjoy themselves by participating in planned recreation.

The Faculty Dinner for New Students took place in the evening in Freeland Hall. Dr. N. E. McClure officially welcomed them to the college. The dinner was followed by the YM-YWCA party in the T-G Gym.

On Tuesday afternoon, the incoming Freshman heard talks by William S. Pettit, the Dean of the College, G. Sieber Pancoast, the Dean of Men, and Miss Camilla B. Stahr, the Dean of Women, on the general subject of regulations and traditions at Ursinus.

Later that afternoon, Dr. and Mrs. N. E. McClure gave a tea for the new women students at their home on Sixth Avenue. In the evening, Dr. G. Sieber Pancoast presided at a meeting at which the heads of the large campus organizations spoke to the new students on various extra-curricular activities at Ursinus.

Marshall Scholarship Deadline is October 31

The lists are now open for U. S. College students to apply for a two-year Marshall Scholarship award, for study at a British university. Applications should be in as early as possible in October, and in any case not later than October 31, 1956, for the scholarship to be taken up in the fall of 1957.

Any American student of either sex, married or single, may apply for one of the awards, provided he or she is under 28 years of age and has three years' college education.

Applications are considered by home region—North Eastern, Southern, Middle Western and Pacific—and awards are made on the basis of character as well as scholastic attainment.

The Marshall Scholarship Award Scheme has now been operating for three years. Set up in 1953 as a signal of Britain's appreciation for Marshall Aid, it provides twelve awards each year, three for each region.

The scholarships are for two years' study at any British university (the student's preference will be followed wherever possible), plus a cash award of $550 ($1,540 a year for living expenses and tourist class transportation to and from the United Kingdom.

Each regional committee, which besides the local Consul General includes four American educators, selects three first-choice names from those submitted, plus a further three substitute candidates, and these are forwarded to the British Embassy in Washington.

There, the list is re-examined and passed on by a seven-member "distinguished persons" Advisory Council headed by the British Ambassador. The final selection is then passed to London for review and approved by a Commission of leading British educators and businessmen set up to administer the Trust.

Announcement of the winners is made in Washington each April for the following October.

NOTICE

Because of its publication schedule, The Ursinus Weekly will not appear next Monday, October 8, 1956. The next number of the Weekly will be published on Monday, October 15, 1956.

UC Music Groups Plan Fall Program

During the next few weeks the freshmen and upperclassmen will have an opportunity to join a number of music groups at Ursinus.

On Thursday, October 4, there will be tryouts at 8 for those planning to join the Meistersingers, and on succeeding Thursdays at 8 there will be Meistersinger rehearsal for all old and new members.

The Messiah Chorus will meet Monday, October 9. Everybody is welcome to come to practice in Bomberger Chapel right after lunch until 1. The Chorus will practice Monday through Thursday until it gives Handel's Messiah in December.

The Ursinus College Band will hold its first major rehearsal on Monday, October 1, at 6:30 p.m. in the West Music Studio of Bomberger Hall. The band this year is looking forward to having one of the best years in its history, with close to twenty new freshmen entering and raising its potential size to well over forty members. Marching rehearsals are planned this week for Wednesday and Friday afternoons at 3:45 p.m. and for Saturday morning. These rehearsals will be held on the Band's new practice field down near the college woods. Uniforms will be handed out at the rehearsal on Monday night; all those who are interested in playing this year the requested to be in attendance at the first rehearsal.

There will be an opportunity to join the Vesper Choir which sings every Sunday at 6:05 at the vesper services sponsored by the Student Worship Committee of the YM-YWCA.

Curtain Club Makes Plans for Frosh Reception

The Curtain Club Stars and Players held their first meeting of the year on Thursday evening, September 27, after the preliminary Executive Committee and Alpha Psi Omega meetings had been held the previous night to plan this year's program for the Curtain Club.

Of prime importance on the slate of business was the annual reception for interested freshman men and women, upperclassmen, and old Curtain Club members to be given Thursday, October 4, at 7 p.m. in Superhouse. Refreshments, a display of the Curtain Club annuals, welcoming messages, the announcement of group leaders, group production dates, and the substitution of the fall play are on the agenda. (No customs will be worn to this social affair.)

Plans are underway to purchase a new curtain for the T-G stage. Organized trips will be taken to productions in nearby stock company theatres, Philadelphia and possibly New York throughout the year.

The dates set thus far for presentations are: October 26, first group play; November 14, 15, 16, the fall play, after which will be held, in conjunction with the Ursinus Spirit Committee, the final football dance of the season.

APO Invites Interested Students to First Meeting

Thursday evening, October 4, Alpha Phi Omega, National Service Fraternity, will hold its first open meeting of this semester at 8 p.m. in the student union in Bomberger. Members and the organization's guest will be present. At this time, the fraternity will be explained to prospective members; an effort will be made to acquaint the guests with all the aspects of the organization. Refreshments and entertainment will follow the meeting. A. P. O. has issued an invitation to any student who is interested in becoming a member and who has been either a Cub, Explorer, or Boy Scout.

A regular business meeting was held last Thursday evening to discuss plans for the coming year. Among the events planned in the coming year are bowling, dances, swimming, and possibly a dinner-dance in the Spring. Work projects include the continuation of the College Woods Project, the Ugly Man Contest, and the construction of a campus map.

Sophs After Frosh As 'Customs' Begin

"Customs" have started for the Freshman! The Freshman men had their first meeting on Wednesday evening at 6:45 p.m. in Room 7, Bomberger—the hallowed hall, that, by tradition, is the seat of this convocation. Afterwards, amid shouts of, "Aw rite, spell Prutzman backwards," the Freshman men were relieved of high school honors and conceit. This took place on the athletic field in the form of long arduous exercise, and a midnight step show that entertained sundry owls, traffic on 422, and hard working sophomores.

Since Thursday, the Freshman men have been heard proclaiming their love for the sophomores (proving that no hard feelings could ever be in order); dinks, name placards, and signs are the identification of each of the male new-comers.

Bob Schmoeyer is the chairman of the men's soph rules committee. The other male rulers include the following: Ray Paine, Merrill Anderson, Al Wilson, Bob Carney, Ted Holcombe, Mike Drewniak, Jack Prutzman, Tony Clanci, Jack Phillips, Don Durr, Barry Dempsey, Art Rhodes, Al Kinlock, Bob Burns, Jack Strunk, and Ben Hauser..

On Friday, at exactly 12:55, the Freshman men, with heads held high and spirit apparent to all onlookers, leaped from the steps of Freeland in their first break. The Juniors roared their approval, while stunned sophomores tried to regroup themselves, as well as the Freshmen.

Chemical Society to Holding Meeting Oct. 8

According to Rose Marie Dodig, the secretary-treasurer of the Beardwood Chemical Society, the society will hold its first meeting of the present college year on October 8, 1956, at 7:15 p.m. in room S12 in Pfahler Hall. The meeting will include motion pictures and refreshments.

The Beardwood Chemical Society, which is affiliated with the American Chemical Society, is an active group made up of students interested in careers in chemistry. Its annual program consists of meetings, several field trips, and an annual dinner.

Forum, Oct. 10, To Feature Debate On Candidates

The presidential campaign in Montgomery County will employ the technique of the days of Lincoln and Douglas when Congressman Samuel K. McConnell debates the Democratic candidate for Congress, Alfred M. Klein, on October 10. The debate will be held in Bomberger Hall, Ursinus College, on the Ursinus Forum program, jointly sponsored by the Montgomery County Citizens for Eisenhower and the Democratic County Committee.

Congressman Samuel K. McConnell has represented Montgomery County in the United States Congress since 1944, and is presently the senior Republican member of the important House Education and Labor Committee. In the 83rd Congress, Mr. McConnell served as chairman of that committee which will again be his role if a Republican majority is elected this year. He is also active in the affairs of the International Labor Organization held at Geneva during the past summer.

Presently Mr. McConnell is deeply involved in the current campaign as chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee for Pennsylvania and of the Montgomery County Republican Committee. He is an honorary alumnus of Ursinus College, having been awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws several years ago.

Alfred M. Klein, the Democratic candidate for Montgomery County representative in Congress, has been a practicing lawyer since 1926. His special assignments have included terms as associate counsel of the Ke-fauver Crime Committee in 1950

WSGA To Discuss Two Frosh Affairs

The WSGA will meet this week to discuss two important activities — involving freshmen — scheduled for the next two weeks. On Tuesday night, October 9, the Junior Advisory Committee, headed by Lois Molitor, will entertain frosh women at an after-dinner dessert. On October 16, the Big-Little Sister Committee, headed by Marge Struth, will give a party. At these informal get-togethers, the frosh will meet the upper classmen without the burden of customs, get acquainted with each other, and be able to participate in some Ursinus fun.

At the After-Dinner Dessert, the Frosh will meet the soph rules committee on a more friendly basis than the usual customs meetings. Even though each freshman girl has met her own junior advisor, the girls will be introduced to the entire committee. Lois Molitor will preside at the program and will give the freshmen women the opportunity to ask questions about life at Ursinus.

For the Big-Little sister party each freshman will be escorted by her big sister. Here the usual party atmosphere of games, refreshments, and fun will prevail.

National Poetry Contest Opens This Week

According to Mr. Dennis Hartman, the secretary of the National Poetry Association, all college students are invited to submit verse to be considered for possible publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry.

The rules for this contest are as follows: (1) Manuscripts must be typed or written in ink on one side of a sheet. (2) Student's home address must appear on each manuscript. (3) Students may submit as many manuscripts as is desired. Theme and form may be in accordance with the wish of the student contributor. In order to give as many students as possible an opportunity for recognition, and because of space limitations, shorter efforts are preferred.

Closing date for submission of manuscripts is Nov. 5, 1956. (4) Address manuscripts to: College Poetry Anthology, National Poetry Association, 3210 Selby Avenue, Los Angeles 34, California

And so another year begins at dear old UC — a year that brings with it the opportunity to make it what Dr. Norman McClure, the president of the college, would call "THE great year in the history of Ursinus College."

With such leadership—and with an active, interested student body behind it — there is no good reason why there should not be a marked improvement in life and spirit at Ursinus.

Already, efforts are underway on the part of the student governments to ameliorate communication between the student body and the faculty. Also, plans are being made to set up programs of a new sort: the Student Worship Commission of the YM-YWCA has, for example, arranged for a Religious Emphasis Conference to be held from October 21 through October 24.

The stage is set for a great year at Ursinus. The conditions are favorable to the development of a finer college spirit—indeed of a finer college. All that is needed is an individual willingness to accept the responsibilities of citizenship in the college community — a willingness to live us to the purpose for which Ursinus College was created.

Senior and Frosh — A Comparison

Coming back to college as a senior is much like coming for the first time as a freshman, even though three years of time and many years' worth of experience have intervened.

For the first time, no upperclassmen are left to guide and advise; the seniors are on their own. No older friends are around to turn to in sympathy or fun, and again, as in customs, class unity gains meaning.

How's That, Again?

Boy, I say there, boy, Come here and move with haste, Quickly now, do not tarry I have not time to waste.

I'm sure my suite is ready, The building's name is Stine? Three rooms would be so pleasant, But two will do me fine.

As soon as I am settled And you've carried in my gear, Please take my Royal Jaguar And park it in the rear.

Move quickly now, you enormous oaf With low heels and forehead to match, I have a date at the Waldorf, My train I must shortly catch.

What year am I? A strange request, But I'll humor you, you dolt; I, a freshman be, and - - -

I wonder why he hit me? Was it something that I said? It's mad enough these broken ribs, But OH, my aching head.

What was that about some "Hazing"? And me without my "dink", If only I had strength to rise My head would clear, I could think.

He said that I would be his pet, And life I would very soon regret, For be he rich or be he poor, He be a Mighty SOPHOMORE!

BOOK REVIEW: Two Flights by Lindbergh

Shades of the 1920's—Lindy flies again! This time it's Anne Morrow Lindbergh, the authoress of two magnificent literary flights into philosophy for the distaff side: Gift From the Sea and The Steep Ascent.

At least one of these volumes is a must for the Ursinus woman, as for women everywhere, because upon her will fall the task of raising a family, serving her husband's and children's needs.

In Gift, she writes in a simple, almost child-like language for the most part, alluding to an imaginary trek along the beach. She has woven separate experiences of thought into a series of allegories concerning what so common things as various seashells can say about marriage and love and life.

The Steep Ascent, available in almost child-like language for the most part, alluding to an imaginary trek along the beach. She has woven separate experiences of thought into a series of allegories concerning what so common things as various seashells can say about marriage and love and life.

Confident Bruin Booters Await Opener With Drew U., Oct. 10th

by Barrie Ciliberti

At the beginning of every sporting season there exists a noticeable portion of enthusiasm furnished mostly by the boosts of the overly optimistic and implemented by the now-silent pessimists. Most of these predictions are founded mainly on the basis of last seasons play as well as the lettermen who have graduated. In the case of this year's soccer squad, any predictions founded on the performance of last year or on the number of graduating lettermen would prove extremely foolish.

Injuries Big '55 Factor

In retrospect, last season can be evaluated and explained in one phase: injury and inexperience. At the outset, a successful soccer season seemed inevitable; then came the debut of "Mr. Injury". Once this unwelcome element emerged on the scene, success was thwarted. With one sweeping blow, four key varsity booters, Bill Rheiner, Ken Grundy, Barrie Ciliberti, and co-captain Wayne Engle were confined to the sidelines. Of the four, only Engle and Grundy were fortunate enough to see even limited action. Consequently, the burden fell heavy on the shoulders of the freshmen. Despite their enthusiastic play, the road to success was rugged. The result was a 4-5 log

Frosh Look Good

This season everyone's hopes are founded on these factors. It is the opinion of many that the freshmen group is one of the most talented in recent years. Such players as Ed Brooks, Jim Rump, Jack Boumann, and Mike Blevett substantiate such a claim.

Another factor to be dealt with is the six returning lettermen of last year, namely co-captain Dave Burger, Bob Schmoier, Al Kinlock, Bill Spangler, Ken Grundy and Jay Salwen. These players represent the nucleus of this year's team. But to just what heights of suc-

THE WORLD OF SPORTS

by Jack Townsend

The first big football weekend of the year brought its usual total of big upsets and thrilling pigskin action. Penn suffered another disastrous defeat; Oklahoma continued on its merry way; Pitt upset a strong Syracuse team.

Meanwhile, in baseball, the Milwaukee Braves lost a golden opportunity to clinch the National League pennant as they "bumped" under pressure and dropped two important games to the St. Louis Cards while the "old pros" from Flatbush calmly captured their sixth N.L. flag in the last ten years. Thus, the Dodgers earned the right to meet the N.Y. Yankees in the World Series starting on Wednesday.

But while all this sports activity takes, life continues—and ends. In the midst of all this sports excitement last week, the greatest woman athlete of all time, Babe Didrickson Zaharias, died of the dreaded, cancer.

And who can deny that the world of sports is not a wonderful place? Here a woman won the hearts of millions by becoming a champion in every possible sport, and then captured the heart of everyone by continuing her brave battle against the overwhelming odds of cancer. Here a woman faced death with a grim smile and a tenderness in her heart for the people who cheered her to victory and stood by her in defeat.

From the little guy in the back row to the President of the U.S., they marveled at the Babe and her courage. And now, wherever athletics are played, they pay tribute to the woman who last week lost her biggest battle.

Yes, life goes on the same as it did last week and the week before. The cheers of the crowd bring new thrills in stadiums throughout the country. But somehow the world of sports—and the world in general—seems a little emptier without the courageous Babe Didrickson Zaharias.

Belles Boast Vets; Open With G'burg

by Carolyn Carpenter

The Ursinus girls' hockey team, captained by Vonnie Gross, is looking forward to a successful season. With eight returning varsity players and a promising group of talented freshmen, coaches Eleanor Snell and Jen Price are extremely pleased with the prospects of the '56 squad.

Eight Veterans Return

Last year two of the Belles were chosen to play on the United States touring team which played in Australia this past summer. Ruth Heller Auctott and senior Marge Dawkins represented Ursinus.

Beaver Tough

Captain Vonnie Gros, noted Ursinus athlete, says that Beaver will be the team to beat this year. The Belles open their season at home on October 12th against Gettysburg.

Others returning from last year's squads are Lucy Fay, Lynn Custer, Tama Williams, Joyce Gilbert, Elaine Ottaviano, Carol LeCato, and Elaine Emenheiser. Newcomers are Reggie Cairo, Sue Nembach, Faye Dietrich, Jeanne LeCato, Ingrid Reiniger, Sally Garside, Lucy Magness, Louise Sperber, Judy Brinton, Linda Wolf, Sandy Rinehart, Beverly Kallenbach, Margaret Kramer, Alice Moyer, Sue Wagner, Faye Bardman, Barbara McClure, Bunny Below, Loretta Podolak, and Katherine Schefley.

Thirteen Veterans Return; Bruins Upset in Susquehanna Opener 26-13

by Warren Rybak

Quarterback Jack Prutzman (31) being brought down by Crusader Veryl Milroy in second period.

At the opening day of pre-season football practice Coach Ray Gurzynski had over forty men out for the squad, of which thirteen were returning lettermen. The team, captained by Harry Donnelly, welcomed back veterans end Hooty Houser and tackle Dick Brittain. Sorely missed will be ace quarterback Paul Neborak, who graduated, guard Dick Heydt and back Doc Carver, who are not returning this year. In order to compensate for these losses, Coach Gurzynski has moved sophomore guard Jack Prutzman to quarterback and tackle Mike Drewniak to guard position. Through early practices and scrimmage games, the squad has also lost the services of senior end Les Applegate, and junior backs Dick Dickerson and Chris Rohm due to injuries.

Passing Weak

Coach Gurzynski seems quite concerned about passing, both offensively and defensively, and the greenness of Jack Prutzman at quarterback. The backfield as a whole will be the weak point of the squad for the first few games, due to the pre-season injuries, and greenness. The line, as a whole is big and tough, containing all veteran ball players and averaging 195 pounds. The team should improve greatly on its 3-5-0 record of last year.

Bruins Upset in Opener

Quarterback Dick Purnell of the Susquehanna Crusaders, who was a thorn in the Bruins' side all day, tallied for three touchdowns last Saturday on runs of 9, 10, and 54 yards.

Arger Scores First

In the closing minutes of the first half Bruin quarterback Carl Hassler connected with an aerial to end Harry Donnelly down to the Crusader six yard line. From there halfback Andy Arger took a handoff from Hassler and cracked off tackle for the first Ursinus touchdown. At the end of the first half the Grizzlies were on the short end of a 26-6 score.

After the half time intermission, the Bears seemed to improve much on their dismal first half showing. Mid-way through the fourth stanza Ursinus recovered a Crusader fumble and drove down the field in eight plays with Jack Prutzman sneaking over from the one for the second Bruin tally.

Behind the Sporting Scene!

by Bruce MacGregor, Sports Editor

This Saturday Patterson Field will be the scene of one of the Bears' toughest contests of the season, when they meet a strong, victory-hungry Drexel eleven. Up until last Saturday afternoon the Dragons boasted a twelve game winning streak, but were finally stopped by a hard-fighting New Haven squad, 28-19, their first defeat since losing to F. & M., 12-7, in mid-1954.

Last year, the Bruins traveled to Philadelphia where they played their best game of the season against the Dragons but succumbed in a 20-13 defeat. Led by veteran quarterback Bill Zador, the "boys from the institute" will arrive at Bearville Saturday prepared to wallop the Bruins due to the battle they received last year.

The Dragons appear as strong as ever this year; they are composed mostly of returning veterans, including Little All American tackle Vince Vidas, fullback Ron Kleppinger, and end Iles Wauhop. The aerial combo of Zador and Wauhop is the Dragons' biggest threat and will need special Bruin consideration. This twosome clicked for two tallies against New Haven last Saturday, one covering 21 yards, the other covering 73 yards, with Wauhop scampering 28. All three of the Dragons' tallies resulted mainly from Zador passes, which covered a total of 206 yards.

If the Bruin backfield can keep the likes of Wauhop from getting behind them on Zador passes, and if the line stops veterans such as Vidas from crashing through, the chance of defeat will be much slighter, although the Bears have not beaten their tormentors since 1948.

Due to the conditions described above, I predict this Saturday's victory to go to the Dragons, 34-6.

How Our Opponents Fared

Drexel Tech, whom the Bears meet next Saturday on Patterson Field, had their twelve game winning streak broken by a strong New Haven eleven on Saturday, 28-19.

Wagner College, which dropped their opener to P. M. C. on Sept. 22, lost another close one to Dickinson, 3-0. Dickinson scored in the fourth period with a ten yard field goal by tackle Robert Cook.

Swarthmore College was shut out by Hamilton, when the Continentals scored on three break-away plays in the second period, dropping the Garnets, 26-0.

The National Aggies, new opponents for the Bears this year, dropped their opener to Montclair S. T. C., 21-7, while Wilkes College was walloped by Lebanon Valley to the tune of 39-6.

Graduate Record, Law School Test Dates for 1956-1957 Announced

The Law School Admission Test required of applicants for admission to a number of leading American law schools will be given at more than 100 centers throughout the United States on the mornings of November 10, 1956, February 16, May 4, and August 10, 1957. During 1955-56 over 11,000 applicants took this test, and their scores were sent to over 100 law schools.
 A candidate must take separate application for admission to each law school of his choice and should inquire of each whether it wishes him to take the Law School Admission Test and when. Since many law schools select their freshman classes in the spring preceding their entrance, candidates for admission to next year's classes are advised ordinarily to take the November or the February test, if possible.

 The Graduate Record Examinations, required of applicants for admission to a number of graduate schools, will be administered at examination centers throughout the country four times in the coming year, Educational Testing Service has announced. During 1955-56 more than 9,000 students took the GRE in partial fulfillment of admission requirements of graduate schools which prescribed it.
 This fall candidates may take the GRE on Saturday, November 17. In 1957, the dates are January 19, April 27, and July 6. ETS advises each applicant to inquire of the graduate school of his choice which of the examinations he should take and on which dates. Applicants for graduate school fellowships should ordinarily take the designated examinations in the fall administration.

Q. Why Are Viceroy's 20,000 FILTERS Made From Pure Cellulose?

A. Because cellulose is a soft, snow-white material . . . the same pure, natural substance found in many of the good foods you eat every day.

Only the exclusive Viceroy tip contains 20,000 tiny filters made from pure cellulose—soft, snow-white, natural—twice as many filters as the other two largest-selling filter brands. That's why Viceroy gives you . . .

Art Museum Opens Porcelain Exhibit

The Philadelphia Museum of Art will open to the public an exhibition of Chinese porcelain from the Alfred and Margaret Caspary Memorial Gift on Saturday, October 6, 1956, in the special exhibition galleries on the first floor. The exhibition will be a feature of the Museum's celebration of International Museum Week.

This will be the first time that the collection numbering over 400 pieces has been shown to the public in the United States. The late Alfred H. Caspary, who was world renowned as a philatelist, bought in 1938 the greater part of the collection of Chinese porcelain formed by the late Leonard Gow of Glasgow, Scotland. Many pieces from that collection have been famous in Great Britain and the Continent and were exhibited in London in 1936-37 at Burlington House when the first great assemblage of Chinese art was displayed in modern times. The threatened dangers of World War II prompted Mr. Caspary to pack his porcelains and send them to safe storage in his fishing camp in New York State where they remained for fifteen years until they were given by Mr. Caspary's estate to the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

The Alfred and Margaret Caspary Memorial Gift is a most welcome addition to the Museum's collections as it is composed primarily of the brilliantly decorated Chinese porcelain which was so cherished by European collectors of the 18th century and which influenced the pottery and porcelain makers of Germany, France, Holland and England. Until this gift was received the Museum's collection of such porcelain was inadequate. Many of the pieces have come from famous private collections in Europe such as that of Augustus the Strong of Saxony, who formed a museum in Dresden, the Johanneum, where he assembled the best examples which were being exported directly from the Chinese kilns of the period. There are also pieces from the collection of the King of Portugal and a number of lordly collections in England.

An attempt has been made in the exhibition to assemble the pieces in a manner simulating the style of display in Europe when kings and princes massed quantities of the coveted porcelains in rooms built to house them. The cases which were designed especially to hold the objects are derived from Chinese tables of the 17th century with lighting adapted to each case. For the first time the Museum has used Plexiglas, which was supplied by Rohm & Haas Company of Philadelphia. It has made possible a unique form of display.

Although the greatest number of pieces were made in the early reigns of the Ch'ing Dynasty (1644-1912 A. D.), there are a number of fine examples from the preceding Ming Dynasty (1368-1644).
