Dr. Lionel Mapp to Speak At Ursinus Forum Nov. 10

Dr. Lionel Mapp, a native of Trinidad, will be the speaker at the Ursinus College Forum, Wednesday, November 10, in Bomberger Hall at 8:00 p.m. Dr. Mapp's subject will be Trinidad: Medical and Ethnic.

Dr. Mapp, a native of the British island of Trinidad received his B.A. degree at McGill University, Montreal, Canada, in 1943, and his Master of Surgery and Doctor of Medicine from the same University in 1947. In 1948 he received a post graduate diploma in Tropical Medicine and Hygiene.

Returning to Trinidad, Dr. Mapp became medical officer at the Forbes Park Sugar Estate where he dealt with many problems of race and health. In 1952, he was appointed Venereal Disease Officer for South Trinidad. He has also done field work and made studies of tropical diseases in Jamaica and other West Indies Islands, and in British Guiana in South America. In 1953 he was sent to study the treatment of leprosy at the famous leper colony founded by Father Damien on the Hawaiian island of Molokai.

At present Dr. Mapp is engaged in medical research at the University of Pennsylvania Medical School. His wide acquaintance with colonial peoples makes him a very timely speaker for the Forum. He will discuss not only the medical aspects of the mixed population of Trinidad, but also the social problems arising from British and American contacts. These are suggested somewhat by the titles of his books, The Role of Hormones in Sterility, and Midwives and Mid-dies. Dr. Mapp comes to Ursinus under the auspices of the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia.

WSGA Announces Party, Election of Representatives

Announcement of a party, election of representatives, rejection of a scheme to sell jewelry and discussion of the Christmas dance highlighted the business at the Women's Student Government meeting last Wednesday.

The council is sponsoring a big-little sister party in the recreation room of Bomberger at 8 p.m. this evening. All freshmen and their big sisters are invited.

Robin Blood, as a representative of the WSGA, will serve with Jack Westerhoff, MSGA representative, in assisting Dr. Donald Helfferich in choosing furniture for the Student Union. Architects are to come to Ursinus this week with samples. Dr. Helfferich suggested that the Student Union be kept open longer hours than the recreation center now is.

The council voted not to grant the request of a costume jewelry company to have jewelry parties in the women's dormitories for sales purposes.

Judy Stanton was chosen as the women's dormitory representative. This representative supervises the selling of flowers on May Day.

The group voted to pay one-third of the cost of the freshman handbook. The Y will pay the other two-thirds.

Joan Fisher, president, appointed Elizabeth Weaver decoration chairman for the Christmas dance. Class secretaries will be notified of their responsibility to call a meeting of the girls of their respective classes. At these meetings the Ursinus women will elect class chairmen for table decorations at the Christmas banquet.

GRADUATE EXAMINATIONS

Graduate Record Examination for admittance to certain graduate and professional schools will be administered on November 20, 1954.

Interested seniors should obtain application blanks and information from Dr. Wagner in the Biology Office.

KDK, Deltas Plan Clothing Drive

In an attempt to bring some joy to a few who have very little, fraternity Delta Pi Sigma is sponsoring a clothing drive during the first two weeks in November for the benefit of the Christ Home in Warminster County. Working in cooperation with sorority Kappa Delta Kappa, the boys are receiving and collecting clothes and donations from all interested persons on or off campus.

This joint clothing drive will culminate in a party to be given at the home by the fellows and girls on Saturday afternoon, November 13. Under the supervision of chairman Claire Wallick, both the drive and the party promise to fulfill their fine purpose.

According to Noble Smith, this is the first year a program of such a nature has been planned for the combined orphanage and old folks' home. It is given at this time of year rather than at Christmas because it is felt that it will be more appreciated now. Mr. Wallick summarized the purpose quite aptly when he said that the brothers and sisters merely wished to bring some happiness to unfortunates.

Frosh Elect Class Officers; Choose Executive Committee

Weeks of freshman orientation ended on Tuesday night, November 2, when the freshman banquet-dance was held, officially recognizing the freshmen as a united class.

Present at the banquet were Dr. and Mrs. Norman E. McClure, Dean Camilla B. Stahr, Dean G. Sieber Pancoast, and the Reverend Alfred L. Creager. Each one gave a short informal speech.

After the semi-formal banquet, the Junior Class officers presented the new freshman officers: Robert Gilgore, president; Dick Dickerson, vice-president; Ronald Usher, treasurer; and Marie R. Cairo, secretary. The class then attended a record dance in the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium until 10:00 p.m.

The first freshman meeting was called to order by Bob Gilgore, president, on Wednesday night, November 3. Bob explained the functions of the class executive committee and asked for volunteers to serve on the committee. The main goal of the group will be to plan the freshman dance.

Treasurer Ron Usher will collect class dues of $1.50 in Freeland reception room beginning today, November 8.

Bob Gilgore, President of the class of 1958, today announced the members of the Freshman Executive Committee.

"FANTASY IN FIRE" THEME OF FRIDAY NIGHT SOPH DANCE

"Fantasy in Fire" is the name of the dance sponsored by the sophomore class on Friday night, November 12, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. in the T-G Gymnasium. The Buddy Winters Orchestra will provide the music. The price is $1.50 per couple; refreshments are included in the price.

ORDER RUBYS NOW!

The 1955 Ruby can now be ordered from dormitory representatives or from Jack Matlaga in the Supply Store. The full price is $6.00, which may be paid in three installments.

Have your $2.00 ready when your dorm representative comes to see you so that you will not be disappointed when the Rubys arrive.

WRC Group Plans Trip to UN and Brooklyn College

Tentative plans for the New York trip on Saturday, November 13, have been made by the World Relatedness Commission of the YM-YWCA. To visit the United Nations building and to attend the Ursinus-Brooklyn College football game highlight the plans.

Commission leaders Constance Ackerman '55 and Thomas Ely '56 disclosed plans which include leaving campus about 6:30 a.m. by a chartered Schuylkill Valley Co. bus. Arrangements are being made to tour through the United Nations building and to attend any meeting in session in the morning. The group will start back immediately after the football game in the afternoon and probably get back on campus about 11:30 p.m.

The approximate cost for the bus is $3.60 per person. Additional expenses will be for meals and the football game. Anyone who is interested should contact Tom in Brodbeck or Connie in Maples no later than tonight. Bus money will have to be paid by Wednesday.

Student Worship Commission visited St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church in Norristown Sunday morning, November 7.

The discussion "Faith, Sex, and Love" was continued in Social Responsibilities Commission last Wednesday evening at the commission meeting.

Campus Affairs Commission's main project at the present time is to clean up the Rec Center in the basement of Bomberger. CAC urges interested students to join the group of workers in the Rec Center every Saturday morning.

Curtain Club Cast Seeks Realism for Annual Fall Play

With less than two weeks left before the court trial of Karen Andre is opened to the public, everyone is busily striving to perfect his role in the drama of January 16th.

To aid them in their portrayal of their various parts, several members of the cast decided to use to its fullest advantage the recent holiday enjoyed by the entire campus on November 1st and made arrangements to witness several court trials at the Montgomery County Court House in Norristown, Pa. Upon their arrival at the Court House they were greeted by Assistant District Attorney Ditter who proceeded to show them the various aspects and features which are presented throughout the vast majority of courtrooms.

Many interesting items such as the jury selection, off bench ruling (the judge leaves his bench and confers with both lawyers in the capacity of another lawyer trying to establish the procedure and method of questioning witnesses, etc.), hall of records, orphans' court, and criminal court were all presented to the January 16th cast under the direction of Mr. Ditter.

A great number of minute details were picked up by the cast and immediately incorporated into their various roles which is certain assurance of an excellent production on November 19 and 20. Everyone felt that the trip was very advantageous and hope to return at a later date, after they have presented their own court trial here at Ursinus College.

Jurors Picked from Audience For "Night of January 16th"

Jurors in the case of Karen Andre versus the State of New York will be drawn from the audience before the curtain rises on the Night of January 16th. The play will be presented on November 19 and 20 in the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium.

Those persons willing to act as jurors will leave their names on slips of paper with the doorman. The slips of paper will then be sent backstage to the Clerk who will draw the names of the jury after the curtain rises. It is the duty of the jury as faithful and loyal citizens to decide the fate of Karen Andre, who, along with several other persons, is involved in the plot and evidence leading up to the fateful Night of January 16th.

Tickets are now on sale in the Supply Store or may be purchased from Alan Welty.

NEWMAN CLUB MEMBERS COMMUNE AT ST. ELEANOR'S

Members of the Newman Club attended Communion at St. Eleanor's Church in Collegeville on Sunday, October 31. The date marked the Feast of Christ the King as well as the opening of National Catholic Youth Week.

The Newman Club urges all Catholic students to attend the meetings which are held the first and third Mondays of each month. The topics discussed vary from marriage and divorce to the Roman Catholic stand on evolution.

:: LOOKING AND LISTENING ::

by Harold Smith '55

On Wednesday, November 3, with all due apologies to Tales from the Crypt, Group I of the Curtain Club presented W. W. Jacob's one-act play, The Monkey's Paw. The producers of this cheerful ditty must have scheduled things well in advance, for even the weather was made to order for an hour of suspense and drama.

The Monkey's Paw is a tale of the naturally supernatural which revolves around a primate's dried claw as the title reveals. The play concerns the fate of a small family, the Whites, when said paw, with the power to bring to its holder the fulfillment of three wishes, comes into Mr. White's possession. The three wishes bring tragedy to the Whites, difficult roles to the performers, and, supposedly, thrills and chills to the audience.

I feel that the choice of play was not a good one; the difficulties in the proper presentation of the work are far too many and more or less predestines a degree of failure by an amateur group, even an amateur group as fine as the Curtain club. I fully sympathize with the plight of the play reading committees; one-act plays that are both good and suitable, from the point of view of the Curtain Club, are not easy to find. I feel that it was a brave, if radical, action on the part of Group I to pick a play such as The Monkey's Paw, and this should be borne in mind by the audience, performers, directors, production staff, and especially those who read this article.

Clair Wallick played the difficult part of the male lead, Mr. White, fairly convincingly; he failed to enunciate as clearly as he could have however, and on occasion he underacted and failed to make vital points clear. Bobby Schweiker's interpretation of Mrs. White, the female lead, was adequate, if not convincing in parts (particularly in the second scene). Bob Gilgore tended to slightly overdo the part of Herbert, the Whites' son. The minor supporting parts of Mr. Sampson and Major Morris, played by Larry Foard and Bob Engel, respectively, deserve a bit of comment too. Mr. Sampson did not appear to be quite as confused as one would have been led to believe he was by Mrs. White. Major Morris performed well, if slightly too well in regard to the monkey's paw.

But enough dissection of The Monkey's Paw; credit must be given where it is due. Staging and lighting were well handled. (The lighting in the last scene could have been improved however). The players knew their lines well and did not fumble, as is possible and probable in amateur performances. Directors Bobbe Hunt and Wayne Millward deserve credit for the amount of work which they put into the production. I hope that I won't make the usual camous mistake of failing to credit hard work

Know Your College

by Loretta Marsella '58

(Editor's Note:- This is the third in a series of six articles entitled "Know Your College". Next week's article will take up the functions of the Ursinus Gyms.)

The purpose of the Ursinus College Library is to serve effectively the library needs of the students, faculty and to a certain extent the residents of the Collegeville community. The following facts and library regulations will aid the student in finding his particular material.

The Alumni Memorial Library, built in 1931, is under the direction of Mr. Robert Sutton. There are ten assistants who also aid the library in performing its basic function of serving the students.

The Alumni Memorial Library, located on the 95-acre campus, may be called the Ursinus Educational Center. The library contains reading rooms, offices of the library staff, seminar rooms, a workroom, and faculty and director's rooms.

The bulk of the reading material is in the library stacks, a room adjoining the main library. The library has a space provided for vaults which contains rare books and manuscripts. There is also the music room and the Shaw-Bernard Museum Collection of curios and objects.

Books in the library are listed by the author, subject and title in the Card Catalog. They are shelved either on the open shelves in the Reading Room or in the Stacks. If the desired title is not found on open shelves, present your call slip at the Circulation Desk. A book may be renewed after two weeks (if not reserved in the meantime by another student) by returning it to the desk for renewal. Books are borrowed for a two week period before renewal. The date due is stamped in the back of the book.

Books placed on reserve for assigned reading are normally used in the Library. They may be taken from the library only overnight and may be so borrowed a half-hour before the final closing hour each day. They must be returned by 9:30 the next morning. Reserve books taken over Saturday night are due at 7:00 Sunday evening. Reserve books may be secured by request at the Circulation Desk, by signing the long card. Students may reserve in advance books which they wish to borrow overnight. No more than two books are reserved for one person.

Reference books are designated by an "R" in front of the call number. They do not circulate from the library.

Periodicals, as a general rule, are for library use only. An exception is that current year's issues of the following magazines circulate for a one week period: Holiday, New Yorker, Readers' Digest, Life, Newsweek, Time, Vogue, Mademoiselle, and Saturday Evening Post. All periodicals secured from the stacks for library or home use are to be properly charged out on pink periodical slips at the Circulation Desk.

The classification scheme used by Ursinus College Library is called the Dewey Decimal Classification. A student should be familiar with these ten major divisions.

The main reading room has space for about 8,000 or 9,000 volumes. In general it contains the latest editions to the collection or books that are of popular and general interest. The bulk of the collection is in the stacks, and it is assumed that if a book is not on the open shelves it will be found in the stacks. Inquire at the Cir-ulation Desk for permission to consult the shelves in the stacks.

Books on library administration, periodicals on library science and bookseller's and publisher's catalog are kept in the Librarian's Office.

Up to date the library has a collection of 43,594 books, exclusive of government documents and pamphlets, which has been selected to serve the needs of the liberal arts college. The Library receives over 200 periodicals and newspapers. Through the constant effort of the library staff the Ursinus College Library has met the demands of the students, the faculty, and the residents of the Collegeville community.

The Medieval Bayeux Tapestry is now on display in the library show-cases. The tapestry represents the Norman Conquest. The colorful cloth scenes, mounted on cards, are one of the many instructive displays that are found in the lobby of the library.

Remember that the librarian and the assistants are there to help the student. If in doubt about anything do not hesitate to ask. You will always receive courteous service.

There is an old saying that the intelligence of a school or community may be judged by the size of its library. Ursinus students can be proud of their Alumni Memorial Library, for it is well equipped to meet all demands for knowledge if the students would only take advantage of it.

Many hearty cheers from Hal Smith and his Lantern staff to Miss Faith Helmle. She asked the other day, "When is the first Lantern coming out?"

For Clair Wallick's correct identification of the no-captioned picture on the Weekly bulletin board, a prize beyond compare—a linoleum lined union suit!

Dr. Baker, of soccer fame, requests that the Weekly calendar be extended through the following Wednesday instead of stopping at Sunday. He says he never sees the Weekly until the Wednesday after it is published.

DEEP PASSION . . .

It was a beautiful day outside but inside it was damp and drizzling—someone had forgotten to turn off the shower. Cynthia Turnipp swore vehemently as she attempted to stop the flow of water perfumed with "Scent of San Pedro Wharf".

After stopping the torrent of H<sub>2</sub>O which now threatened the entire city of Rugg (it was located on the floor of the valley), Cynthia sat down on the tame alligator and waited for Thockmorton.

Half a page later she heard a knock at the door. Arnold entered clad in his newspaper suit (he was read all over—it was a warm night).

"I bring you my greetings," said he.

"Put them by the fire. I much prefer warm greetings," she replied.

"I have something I must tell you," he said, falling on one knee. "There's something burning in my breast!"

"You dropped your cigar down your vest?"

"No, it's deeper than that!" "Heartburn?"

His breath was coming in short bitches for in those days pants was a dirty word.

How I See It

by George W. Pauff '55

Student Union Badly Needed

After several years of planning, raising funds, and actual constructing, the Student Union located in the basement of Bomberger Hall is nearing completion. The only deficiency is the furniture which is to be purchased in the near future. Meanwhile, the students must look elsewhere for a place to entertain their parents or to enjoy a few minutes of private conversation with their friends.

As the situation exists at the present time, the students are forced to use such places as Bomberger Chapel, the lobby of Pfahler, the supply store, or the library to meet their friends. Perhaps this lack of a meeting place can be blamed for the recent furor created by the noise in the library.

Ursinus has long needed a Student Union, and after quite a wait, it seems that we will soon be able to boast of one. However, as mentioned above, the Student Union still lacks furniture. Committees have been appointed to secure bids on the furniture, but it still remains to be seen if the funds are available to pay for the furniture.

The student union is complete and now stands idle while the students who contributed toward it are forced to seek out meeting places that are neither attractive nor private.

Abstractly Speaking

by David Garlich '55

To attempt the erection of a building with a horizontal plumb bob or to solve an equation with a vertical slide-rule would be good ways to define what "standard operating procedure" is not. The foregoing might be better classified as experiments in impossibility which, although frustrating, still retain the essence of absurd individualism. To make hash out of this five-course blue plate you might say that it is the old battle of stuck-in-the-mud sameness versus intellectual butterfly chasing. Both positions represent the extremes of social thought and action.

Volumes have been written about this subject, but you and I still keep pushing toward the alluring idol of mathematical precision. Notice the beauty of a sunset reflected from the roofs of one thousand model homes planted neatly in a five-acre garden. Such is the beauty of pure symmetry. If such a pastoral scene inspires you, read no further, but if it gives you an uneasy feeling similar to that which you experience when you begin to see your prototype on every corner—take heed. The time is right when you should exercise your proper disregard for authority before it is too late.

WERE YOU CAUGHT TOO ?

Were you caught napping when mid-semester examinations hit you? Were you putting off 'til tomorrow what you should have done yesterday?

Well, if you were, it's time to change your mode of activity. It's time to buckle down and be earnest and conscientious about the more serious side of college—studies. Do not appease your false security by thinking it is better to be socially accepted. Actually it is necessary to integrate social and mental maturity trying not to over-emphasize either one.

And now, let's have a special word of advice to the Freshmen. Are you among the group of discouraged Frosh because of low mid-semester grades? I will not say there is not any need to worry. But why not try to turn that worry into honest, conscientious efforts for improvement in studies? Worrying does not accomplish anything. Do not be too discouraged; do not give up! There is plenty of time to raise those low grades into acceptable marks. Use your time wisely! —M.A.K.

Heller, Bauser Named to First Team All-College

Over the week-end of October 30 the Ursinus Varsity Hockey team and a couple of the more seasoned veterans tried out for the All-College Teams. The Belles played as a team Saturday at West Chester and defeated East Stroudsburg 1-0, lost to Temple 2-0, and edged West Chester 1-0.

On Sunday only certain players were invited back to compete at Drexel where the All-College teams were picked. Ruth Heller, Ursinus center halfback, was chosen by the coaches as right halfback on the All-College First Team. Ruth played outstanding hockey over the week-end and enabled Ursinus to obtain a berth on the first team. Fullback Jo Kuhn gained a position

This past week-end the All-College goalie tryouts were held. Ursinus' Ricky Bauser, was selected as first team goalie.

Next week-end the All-College teams play each other and the All Philadelphia teams, which are composed of club hockey players. From these teams the four All-Philadelphia Sectional teams will be chosen. The Sectional teams will then compete in the national tournament at Ann Arbor, Michigan over Thanksgiving.

Girls Whitewash Rosemont 5-0; Lose Close Temple Game 3-2

Ursinus pounded Rosemont, 5-0, in the rain, mud, and cold weather last Wednesday. All of the scoring was done in the second half. Rebel Mason passed into Ruth Heller, who flicked in the first goal. Captain Phil Stadler drove for the second goal, and Marge Dawkins pushed the ball past the Rosemont goalie for the third tally. Ruth Heller executed another of her beautiful flicks for the fourth point and freshman Aggie Watson, scored the final Ursinus goal.

The Junior Varsity romped to an impressive 4-0 win. Since it was practically dark when the Jayvee game started the juniors played only one period of twenty minutes. Left halfback Robin Blood whipped in the first goal and left inner Dottie McKnight drove in the second one. Roxie Albertson and Dot McKnight rounded out the scoring with a goal each.

Ursinus lost a close 3-2 game to Temple last Friday at Temple. Temple's two inners scored in the first half as the Belles were held scoreless. Phil Stadler tallied for Ursinus early in the second period, and her goal was quickly followed by another counter by the Temple right inner. Ursinus was back in the game when Aggie Watson flicked in a perfect shot from her right inner position. Goalie Ricky Bauser saved a couple of good Temple attempts for goals, and the game ended with Ursinus losing 3-2.

In the JV game Temple scored early in the first half, but the Bruinettes rallied to win 2-1. Several Ursinus first-half bids for goals were stopped by the Temple goalie. In the middle of the second half, center Carol Edwards scored for the Belles, to knot the count 1-1. In the last fifteen seconds of the game Carol pushed her second goal past the Temple goalie and time ran out as the girls were going back to the center of the field.

For a consistent winner, buy Pete Fay's two-headed quarter. Sold under the counter at all bookie stalls.

Stars of the Week

by Dick Bowman '55

Although the reader may wonder how anyone could be considered for recognition when a team is drubbed 47-6, the Weekly sports department still feels that recognition belongs to those who kept the score from being worse, and who played their hearts out and played well.

Neborak, Donnelly Cited

Back of the Week honors go to quarterback PAUL NEBORAK, and Lineman of the Week laurels go to HARRY DONNELLY. Both ball players have been consistent spark-plugs all season, and they kept right on plugging against overwhelming circumstances and rugged competition Saturday.

Paul put on a punting exhibition that got us out of many a jam, and did some fine passing when he was not swarmed under by a host of on-rushing linemen. Harry was his adept pass-grabbing self, and even proved that he possessed leather-carrying talent by returning a kickoff 25 yards in the fourth quarter.

Neborak has been under consideration for Star of the Week honors all season. His sixty-minute man stamina and passing ability, not to mention his cool ball-handling technique, make him the most important single player on the squad. Donnelly, a crafty defensive end as well as a star on defense, is sometimes overpowered (weighing only 160 pounds) but is never out-smarted. However, one thing Harry can not swallow is dirty playing. In the Moravian game when he had been clipped (unobserved by the officials) for the third time he got up swinging, and was ushered off the field, along with the offender.

Moravian 47-6 Victor as Mud, Injuries Plague UC

by Jack Townsend '57

The hard charging Moravian Greyhounds turned loose all their power Saturday as they thumped the Bears of Ursinus, 47-6, on the victors Moravian College field at Bethlehem.

Evanko Scores 3 TDs

Jim Evanko, one of the finest halfbacks the Bears will face all season, scored three touchdowns in leading Moravian to its fourth victory against two losses. Ursinus suffered its second defeat, having won three and tied one.

Moravian began its touchdown parade early as Joe Gerenscer romped 27 yards to the Ursinus 27-yard line and, several plays later, Gerenscer bolted the final 3 yards for the Greyhound's first score. Champ Storch, Moravian center, missed the first extra point attempt.

On the following kickoff Don Carver of Ursinus fumbled, and Moravian took over on the Bears 27-yard line. With Gerenscer and Evanko leading the way, Moravian moved down to the Ursinus 2-yard line where fullback Don Weaver bulled over the middle to score. Storch added the point for a 13-0 lead.

Neborak Boots Well

Ursinus's attack managed to gain only 87 yards all day. Paul Neborak's fine punting was a life-saver for the Bears throughout the game. Paul kicked seven times for a 41-yard average.

Before the first half ended, Evanko went 30 yards for the Greyhounds third score and Bob Wickizer dove 2 yards for the fourth tally, giving Moravian a 26-0 bulge at halftime.

Conti Avoids Whitewash

Ursinus's only moment of glory came late in the third period when John Conti, who returned to the lineup after being injured for 3 weeks, fought his way for 10 yards and the score. The touchdown had been set up by a 36-yard pass play from Neborak to Carver. Al Stipa's attempted extra point was blocked.

Moravian's final three scores came on 12 and 15-yard touchdown runs by Evanko, and a 20-yard pass play from Pezzuto to Subach.

Basketball Squad Drills Nightly

The Ursinus College basketball team held its first drills last week. This year's squad, led by co-captains Gene Harris and Carl Smith, is preparing for its opening game against National Agricultural College, December 1, at home.

Coach Harry Spangler's Bruins travel to Juniata and Susquehanna on an over-night trip December 5 and 6. Beside the co-leaders, other potential standouts include two-year high scorer Ralph Schumacher, younger brother Jack, Phil Smith and Paul Neborak.

sive Winston filter is unique, different, truly superior! It works so effectively, yet doesn't "thin" the taste or flatten the flavor. Winstons are king-size, too, for extra filtering action—and easy-drawing for extra good taste. Try a pack of Winstons!

LOOKING AND LISTENING

in my articles. Group I worked all right, that was obvious Wednesday night, but work must be accompanied to make a success.

The Monkey's Paw performance of November 3 must then be mildly damned and mildly praised. Often the actors overplayed their parts and failed to make important lines clear. The directors and the production staff did a fairly good job. The overwhelming fact that it was an amateur performance should, of course, be always considered; still, those who took part in the performance should be willing to profit by past mistakes and attempt to avoid these mistakes in the future. Constructive, objective criticism is badly needed by the Curtain Club.

I, for one, am looking forward to The Night of January 16th on the nights of November 19 and 20.
