NEWMAN CLUB HEARS SPEAKER

The first meeting of the Newman club was held Monday night. Genevieve Tiedeken, president, presided, and introduced Rev. John F. X. O'Neill, pastor of St. Eleanor's church, as club advisor. It was decided that meetings will be held on the first and third Monday of each month at 6:45 p.m. Catholic students on campus are urged to join.

If you cannot be there, send a message with someone who will be or contact Bill Lukens or Audrey Harte.

MSGA Rules Breaks as Illegal, Customs to Remain

At a special meeting on October 14th of the MSGA it was decided that the Frosh break was illegal and that they should remain in customs 'til further notice.

The Freshman class was represented at the meeting by Rowland Hutchinson. From now on customs will be supervised by the MSGA. If anyone disobeys custom rules he will be given demerits and all Soph rules must be approved by the MSGA.

At this meeting appointments were made to the following committees: Discipline, Dan Giangulio; Student activities, Carmen Alemeno; Athletics, Jay Kern; and Forum, Jack Westerhoff.

Week-ends at Ursinus were also discussed. A poll will be taken later to get student opinion of what might be done to improve them.

Bloodmobile To Come Wed.

On Wednesday, October 22, the all-Ursinus bloodmobile will be at the Trinity church from 1:00 to 4:30.

The Red Cross, designated by the United States government as its official blood procurement agency, desperately needs a large supply of blood to fill the increasing needs for military use. The casualty toll increases daily, and modern and improved medical treatments call for a large supply of blood. All blood donations will be for military use. To fulfill our quota, 150 persons, at the very least, must sign up to give one pint of blood each.

The application blanks may be obtained in the Registrar's office or from the dormitory representatives. Students under 21 must have the signature of their parents, guardian or some other responsible person. These blanks, when properly signed, should be returned immediately to dormitory representatives or the Registrar's office. This is very important as an appointment time must be assigned to the students. The appointment list will be placed on the Bomberger bulletin board Tuesday morning and should be checked for appointment times.

Students giving blood are urged to eat lightly before their appointment. Heavy foods and fats should be avoided. However, light food such as juices, soups, toast and fruit are recommended. Students are warned against giving blood without eating sometime beforehand. A good breakfast is highly recommended.

HUTCHISON CHOSEN TO PLAN FROSH SHOW

The freshman men, in a splendid effort to throw off customs, are planning the annual freshman show, which will be presented during the week of November 3.

At the first regular meeting, several committees were set up with the following persons elected chairmen: joke and dance routine committee, Neil Van Asch; writers and producers committee, John Hottenstein; art committee, Jim Simpson; skits and plays committee, Phil Row; music committee, Al Pollack.

Rowland Hutchinson was elected as coordinator of the show and Phil How was elected treasurer.

DEBATING CLUB MEETS

The Debating club met last Monday and made plans for attending the annual Novice Debates to be held at Temple university in November. Three new members were accepted into the group: John Satterthwaite '53, Tom Downey '54, and Harold Smith '55. Veteran debaters present were Jeanette Schaefer '54 and Sam Keen '53.

FOOTBALL HOLIDAY

Dean Armstrong announces that, following Ursinus tradition, there will be no classes held on Monday, October 27, if Ursinus is successful in defeating Swarthmore on Old Timers' day, October 25th.

Varied Plans Made For Old Timers' Day

Homecoming week-end at Ursinus begins on Friday night with an innovation this year, a school-wide hot dog roast replacing the regular evening meal. Following that there will be a bonfire pep rally and a dance sponsored by the Spirit committee.

On Saturday at 9:00 a.m. the junior women will be host to all freshmen women at the traditional Junior-Frosh breakfast in the College woods. On this day also, the Freshmen women decorate their respective dormitories. These displays are judged and recognition given to the best one.

Graduates of Ursinus who were members of sororities will have lunch with their sisters on the 25th. Tau Sigma Gamma, Phi Alpha Psi are to have their luncheons at the Colledge Inn; Omega Chi and Kappa Delta Kappa will be at Lakeside and Alpha Sigma Nu will hold their luncheon at the Bridge hotel.

Each of the fraternities this year has chosen a queen to represent it on Homecoming day. Priscilla Shinehouse has been chosen for Zeta Chi, Eleanor Unger for Alpha Phi Epsilon, Ruth Reid for Sigma Rho Lambda, Joanne Friedlin for Delta Mu Sigma, Bevolyn Syvertsen for Beta Sigma Lambda, and Marilyn Engleman for Delta Pi Sigma.

Following the morning activities, Ursinus will be host to Swarthmore for the homecoming football game which begins at 2:00. At 1:00 p.m. the soccer team will play the alumni on the soccer field. At the conclusion of the athletic events, the Alumni association will hold a tea in the gym for all those old timers visiting on campus that day.

To put a finishing touch on the day's activities, the Varsity club is sponsoring a dance in the T-G gym Saturday night. At this dance a queen for the day will be chosen from those six representing the fraternities.

Day Study Plans For Fashion Show; Initiates Freshmen

At a meeting of the Women Day Students' organization on October 8, the annual freshman initiation was held. The organization also made plans for a fashion show to take place November 10, at 8 p.m. in the T-G gym.

The initiation program was conducted by Marion Haslam, Mary Lou Singer and Elizabeth Haslam. Freshmen were formally made members of the group during the program.

The planned fashion show is for the benefit of the day study and is under the direction of Jeanette Schaefer. Fashions are by the courtesy of the Charming Shoppe of Norristown. Money obtained by a donation of thirty-five cents a person will be used for improvements in the day study.

At the meeting Miss Schaefer discussed plans for a more active schedule and closer organization of the day students.

Anne Neborak presided over the meeting.

IRC MEETS TONIGHT

Ten New Members, Chosen by Lantern

by Elsie Belz '55

The primary objective of the staff of the Lantern, the college literary magazine, this year is to promote interest throughout the student body—interest which heretofore has been sadly lacking. In order to fulfill this objective, the publication is being given an entire face-lifting.

In former years the literary staff of the magazine has been limited to approximately four people. This year, however, the staff is being increased to ten people. According to Marna Feldt, editor, "the increased number will provide interest throughout a wider group on campus so that the judgment of all material will be done by people with more varied backgrounds."

The staff from last year includes Marna Feldt '53, Bill Lukens '53, Sally Canan '53, and Joan Sapp '53, all of whom have had a great deal of experience with creative writing. The new members are Mary Jane Allen '54, John Osborne '54, Phil Lewis '54, Harold Smith '55, Roland Dedekind '55 and Pat Garrow '54. People who are selected for the literary staff are chosen for their interest in creative writing, their literary ability and their judgment of creative writing. The staff reviews all contributions made by the student body and decides what will be most interesting to the readers. Actually, in former years the staff

Orsini to Benefit By Dance Proceeds

Because of the small attendance at the Pep rally last Friday, the Spirit committee was unable to make a final decision as to the winner of the cheer-writing contest. The five cheers which the committee had chosen as the best from all the entries were presented. There was a tie for first place.

Further plans for the Spirit committee-Y doggie roast, pep rally and dance were discussed at the Spirit committee meeting last Wednesday night. The committee voted to donate the proceeds from the dance to a fund for Bernie Orsini, recovering at the Sacred Heart hospital, Norristown, from injuries incurred at football practice.

CARNIVAL, HALLOWE'EN BALL PLANNED BY SENIOR CLASS

A carnival is being planned by the senior class for Friday, October 31, and the senior and sophomore classes are collaborating for a Halloween ball to be held November 1.

At the carnival there will be games of all types, a horror show, refreshments, entertainment and dancing. Prizes will be given for the games and there will be several big door prizes. Admission price will be 35 cents, which will include three free tickets for trying one's skill.

Ditty Yost, Bill Faltermayer, Joe Schuck, Diana Handy, Jim Scott, Arnold Ulbrich, Ruth Reed and Edythe Carter are on the committee for the carnival.

Jimmy Holton's band has been acquired for the Halloween ball on November 1. Admission will be one dollar. On the dance committee are Dolores DeSola, Robert Davis and Mary Lee Hess for the seniors, and Lois Crawford, Sandy Aboyd and Richard Bowman for the sophomores.

PRE-MED HONORS BROWNBACK

The James M. Anders Pre-Medical society has officially changed its name to the Brownback-Anders Pre-Medical society in memory of the work that Dr. Brownback has done for the organization and for all pre-medical students. At the meeting of the group last Tuesday evening Dr. Oppenheimer presented very interesting slides on the heart and circulation.

CASTING for the Curtain club's fall play, Death Takes A Holiday by Alberto Cassella, was completed last Wednesday. The play, which will be presented December 5 and 6, will feature Howard Roberts '53 as Shadow, better known in the play as Death, and Glenna Faust Geiger '54 as Grazia. Both are veteran Curtain club workers. Howard Roberts will be remembered for his performances in Angel Street, Armenic and Old Lace, and The Philadelphia Story, and as student director of Light Up the Sky and Sari. Glenna Geiger was seen as the Irish maid in Period House and acted as co-director of The Condemned. She has also been active in committee work.

Other members of the cast include as the Duke, Ed Abramson '54; Stephanie, Joan Higgins '54; Corrado, Jack Cranston '56; Alda, Jane Hopple '53; Eric, Sam Keen '53; Rhoda, Marlett Allen '56; the Baron, Jim Bowers '55; the Major Hamilton Friday '53; Cora, Jane Skinner '55; and Fedele, John Stout '55. Pat Burns '56 is the prompter.

The student director of the production is Dolores DeSola '53, president of the Curtain club. In addition to her never-to-be-forgotten portrayal of Francis Black in Light Up the Sky, she has worked on many committees and, last spring,

Sturgis Receives Honor at Ceremony

Dr. Russell D. Sturgis, director of the chemistry department of Ursinus college, was recently honored by the presentation of a Professional Achievement certificate at the dedication ceremony of the Chemical Engineering division of the H. Fletcher Brown Chemical laboratory at the University of Delaware.

The presentation of achievement certificates was made to other men renowned in the field of chemistry at the same time.

Actually this is an award not only to Dr. Sturgis but to Ursinus College also, for a great proportion of the chemistry majors at Ursinus have gone into graduate study in chemistry. An example is Trygve Meeker '51, who won a fellowship from the National Science foundation. This speaks well for Mr. Meeker and for Ursinus. On this basis, Dr. Sturgis received his certificate.

Dr. Sturgis is a graduate of the University of Delaware, Class of 1919.

Another honor was recently received by Dr. Sturgis when he was elected to the executive committee of the State School Directors association at their meeting held at Harrisburg, October 8 and 9. He has for several years served as chairman of the legislative committee of the Montgomery County School Directors association, a division of the State School Directors association.

VARSITY CLUB TO HOLD DANCE

The Varsity club will sponsor the Old Timers' Day dance on October 25 in the T-G gym from 8:30 to 12:00. The price of the tickets will be $1.50 and the Mellowtones will furnish the music.

The next regular meeting will be held for all members of the Varsity club on Wednesday, October 22, at 12:45.

NOTICE

They are to be written either by roommates or by close friends in the following manner: approximately 50 words; adjectives or short phrases in preference to complete sentences; mention of person's habits, interests and character traits. Deposit the biographies, typewritten if possible, at Hobson hall.

THE HIGHEST HONOR

At the Founders' Day exercises on Wednesday of this week, Vice-President Donald L. Helfferich will be awarded the honorary degree of doctor of laws, the highest honor which the college can bestow upon him.

Mr. Helfferich has been Vice-President of the College since 1936. He graduated from Ursinus himself in 1921 and was elected a member of the Board of Directors in 1927.

Mr. Helfferich, as Vice-President, has not only been a good administrator, but through such organizations as the Curtain club has given his time generously to student affairs.

In the everyday bustle of college life we are all too inclined to take for granted the work of a Vice-President. We are glad, therefore, to have this opportunity to mention his work, and, it is with great pleasure that we shall see him receive the college's highest honor.

GIVE BLOOD

The Red Cross bloodmobile coming to Collegeville this Wednesday is to be an all-Ursinus affair. At least 150 donors out of the over 600 students are urged to come to the Trinity church between the hours of 11:00 to 4:30.

CAMPUS CHEST CONDUCTS POLL

The Campus chest will conduct a student poll November fourth. This poll will list charitable organizations to be considered for inclusion in the coming drive.

A goal will be set for each class to stress class competition. These goals will be based on class membership.

The Campus chest committee is now assigning solicitors for the campaign which is planned for November 17 to 26.

Purposes of the organizations to be considered for inclusion in the campus chest drive will be explained in the November 3 issue of the Weekly.

JRS. HOLD BIRCH BEER BALL

At the junior class meeting last Wednesday, plans were made for the Birch Beer ball, held on Friday night. The financial statement was presented, and it was decided that class dues are to be paid by November 3.

Warren to Address College Students

After a long period of apparent political silence, Governor Earl Warren of California is finally prepared to express his views on the 1952 presidential election at a Students for Eisenhower rally to be held at 8 p.m., October 21.

Governor Warren will address a group of college students from the Philadelphia area at Town hall, 150 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, where he will not only be prepared to explain his decision to come to the aid of General Eisenhower, but will also be ready to answer various questions that may be presented to him by the audience.

There is no charge for this affair and an opportunity is presented to all students who have any interest in the present campaign to discover new facts or to have old questions answered for them.

AMIDST THE MADDING CROWD

Affair in Wis.

by Richard Richter '53

It is perhaps too late in the campaign to talk about principles. We can hardly expect principles to keep up their shining force through these muddy October days.

I have in mind General Eisenhower's compromise with Senator McCarthy. Now, even Ike's bitterest enemies are reluctant to call him a man of dishonor.

PEACE WITH JOE

Despite this, however, questions arose in the minds of many when Ike went to Wisconsin a couple of weeks ago and made his peace with Joe McCarthy.

In other words, if Ike were President, he would not object to McCarthy's methods of catching communists. Here is the spectacle of the honored man of principle favoring the unprincipled man and his dishonorable acts.

It is pointless to list all the things McCarthy stands for — or rather, doesn't stand for. But his most recent escapade will serve as an example of the kind of thing Ike will not object to.

CAUSE FOR CONCERN

Ike stands for many things. He stands for a change, less big government, states rights, economy and all that. These things taken together may well outweigh his concession to McCarthy.

Etiquette Part of Frosh Orientation

Jen Price '54 and Paul Shillingford '54 jointly presented the topic "Techniques of Good Manners" at the freshmen orientation meeting held on October 15.

Dormitory manners was the first subject to be discussed. Here the boys were given helpful tips to be used when calling on a girl; the girls were reminded to be prompt.

Because of the Founders' day exercises held on October 22, there will be no freshmen orientation meeting that week.

Student Union Data Released

Here is the information concerning the Student Union which we promised, in last week's issue of the Weekly, to publish this week.

Last year, the president of the Men's Student council, Tom Davis '52, received a letter from Vice-President Helfferich, setting forth a plan by which the necessary money could be collected.

Several times during the year the students have expressed the wish to help the Board of Directors to provide additional recreation rooms in the southern part of the basement of Bomberger hall.

The Directors with whom I have discussed the matter have suggested that the students give a specific sum for this purpose, that the Board not only make the space available, but also provide the additional funds necessary for the alterations, decoration, and furnishing of the rooms.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all the students who have taken so helpful an interest in this worthwhile project.

Most of the students in the four classes of last year donated their breakage fees. The following is the list of pledges as taken from cards and lists submitted to the treasurer's office:

Table showing financial data: Class of 1952 - 162 x $10.00 = $1,620.00; Less Breakage Assessments = 52.01; Class of 1953 - 123 x $10.00 = 1,230.00; Class of 1954 - 136 x $10.00 = 1,360.00; Class of 1955 - 136 x $10.00 = 1,360.00; Total is $5,517.99.

By the Way

by Evelyn Scharf '53

Autumn with its brilliant display of colors really seems to bring out the nature-lover in some of our fellow students. We know of two coeds who disappeared on an extended field trip only to reappear a few hours later clutching a bunch of wilted posies and wildly exulting over a twig of honeysuckle.

Can't remember when we've seen the dining room as empty as it was this week-end. The Y retreat must have had a terrific turnout. Of course, there are always those who prefer home-cooking on week-ends, regardless.

Just a few notes concerning the current political scene. For Adlai supporters—or, for that matter, for those who aren't sure what the man from Illinois really looks like—we suggest a sojourn up to the Pol Sci office.

Well, Old Timers' day will soon be here and gone. It has all the makings of a typical rah-rah college Big Week-end or, to be more exact, Big Day. Oh, those hunger pangs when we remember the Junior-Frosh breakfast.

Just a final note. Honest, it doesn't hurt to give a pint of blood. Why don't you prove it to yourself this Wednesday?

Over 75 Students Attend Y Retreat

by Charles Haverstick '54

Service was the basis for the variety of plans made by the YMWCA led by Ken Weisel '53 and Joan Kacik '54 at the annual fall retreat held at Camp Fernbrook this past week-end.

Of particular importance in the Christian association's new programs is the work day planned in the near future to support the campus chest. Extensive discussion was given in an effort to improve the Professor's panel and Fireside chats.

The improved Freshmen orientation and the doggie roast rally were hailed as successes and are to be repeated with minor improvements next year.

Old Timers' Day Not New; Football Stories of Past

Old Timers' Day, October 29, 1921. All over campus today the graduates of Ursinus college have been enjoying the girls' Temple-Ursinus hockey game, the special dollar dinner, the football game and the masked ball which is exclusively for the benefit of the 1952 Ruby.

Today, thirty-one years later, that same tradition is in effect with some new additional features such as the frosh-junior breakfast held each year during the morning in the college woods for the big and little sisters, the Alumni-Ursinus soccer game, and the sorority luncheons.

The good old football game still continues, but with a new team each year. This year Ursinus meets Swarthmore on Patterson field for the thirty-first "Old Timers' Day." As a climax for the day's activities the Varsity club will hold a dance in the Thompson-Gay gymnasium in the evening. On Saturday morning the girls will decorate their dorms in competition for the trophy which is now held by Duryea hall, the winner of last year's contest.

Forward Pass Invented

Since the main part of "Old Timer's Day" is the athletics it is only fitting that former prominent Ursinus football players recall the days when the athletes lived and ate in Highland hall, which was located in Trappe and still stands today. It was during this time that the late Dr. John B. Price is said to have invented the forward pass in football here on the Ursinus campus.

Before 1921 a building was erected on the campus for all of the athletes. It was called the Thompson Field cage and consisted of one small building commonly known today as the boys' locker room. The Field cage was named after Robert W. Thompson, an Ursinus football star, who choked to death in the dining hall following a meal. He had just recovered from diphtheria when the tragedy occurred.

In future years the Thompson Field cage was enlarged to the size it is today. The new addition to the building was named after another Ursinus football star, George Gay, who broke his neck while playing in a game. From this time on it has been known as the Thompson-Gay gymnasium.

Army Nearly Beaten

Great were the teams which Ursinus played in the old timers' days—Rutgers, Army, Navy, and Penn State to mention a few. In 1927 Ursinus almost defeated an Army eleven. Gaining confidence in themselves, the Army varsity left the game, got dressed, and went up to the bleachers and sat with their girls. Within one period of this incident the varsity was frantically called back into the game by their coach. Naturally, Army won 21-17.

Many of the "Old Timers" will recall the time when Rutgers and Navy were beaten by Ursinus. In 1917 Ursinus played Villanova who was the proud possessor of two all-American players. The game ended up with a 0-0 tie. The first undefeated Ursinus team was the team of 1902. At another time Ursinus beat an Albright team which had been undefeated up until that time.

Dead Ball

One game of spectacular interest was the Ursinus-Lafayette game a few years ago. In the last minutes of play an Ursinus man took the ball and swept-over the goal for an Ursinus touchdown which put the bears out in front—but, the referees got together and said that the goal was not allowed. It was a sad night in Collegeville, for as the Ursinus player had passed over the goal, the ball had collapsed in his hand!

Let's hope that such misfortunes do not overcome the 1952 football team so that when Old Timers' day rolls around this Saturday, it may be memorable not only for the many renewed friendships, but also for a thrilling, successful sixty minutes on the gridiron.

Ursinus Viewed By Freshman

by Nan Carson '56

We freshmen are a species of lower animals, distinguishable chiefly by dinks, name tags, a blank expression and a greenish cast about the face. Sophs look down on us, juniors pity us, seniors ignore us, but we think we're pretty important people.

We didn't always think so. Our first day at Ursinus was pretty grim. We eyed the other freshmen, made a few unsuccessful attempts at conversation, wrote pitiful letters to anyone whose address we knew and generally felt miserable. We would have given anything to go home. The next few days were dismal. The most frequent remark wherever freshmen were found was, "I wish I were a sophomore," usually uttered in an unhappy monotone. During these days we were shown everything, everywhere and everyone. Rules were explained, directions were given. We remembered nothing, and bedeviled upper classmen with questions, "How do I . . .?", "Where is the . . .?", "What do I . . .?". We attended teas, dances, conducted tours and orientation meetings which only frightened us. These affairs didn't particularly help us, but they took time which would otherwise have been devoted to moping and homesickness.

We soon found out that the other frosh were as shy and green as we. We became accustomed to college life and gradually learned our way around the campus. Classes started and books were bought. The dorms were full of freshmen talking, eating and making several desultory attempts to study. We criticized the food, the profs and anything else we happened to think of.

Customs came. The campus was disfigured by herds of bedinked, betagged and bewildered frosh. Sophs hounded us with outlandish requests and yells of "Square the dink," and "Where's your name tag." In spite of it all, it was fun.

After two weeks, the friendliness and helpfulness of students and teachers made us feel at home. The general consensus among freshmen was that if Ursinus is not all we might have hoped for, it is certainly much better than we had expected.

Doctor Calvin D. Yost has been going to Princeton university since 1947 to mark College Board Examinations. These examinations are given in March on a Saturday. The readers, as the people who mark the examinations are called, begin to arrive the same day, and on Sunday morning they begin their work. First of all they are instructed and pre-tested on ways of marking. Their minds and thoughts, as to marking, are more or less regimented so that any two people correcting the same paper would give the same grade. The readers are given sample tests and instructed to mark them. In this way a reliability average for marking is secured on the pre-test.

English Tests Marked

Most of us have taken the English composition or sub-test of the College Board Examinations. Few of us realize or care how they are marked. The College boards as a whole are marked by machine. The only exception to this rule is the English Composition test. Every year in March a group of approximately 70 men gather in Princeton to mark these sub-tests. These men are college professors and teachers of prep and high schools. Most of them are from New England; the other from the Middle Atlantic states, a few from the south and west, the farthest west being Minnesota.

These tests come from all over the country and some from overseas. Last March there were 27,000 papers to be marked.

The marking period usually lasts six days, from Sunday to Friday afternoon. The seven hour day is divided into four periods. However, sometimes the marking period does not run so long; other times, as after the war when the GI's were entering college, the marking periods lasted longer.

Chosen by College Board

The readers are chosen by the College board. When a new school or new college enters the board, they are permitted to nominate someone as a reader. This does not necessarily mean that the person nominated will be chosen. In 1947 when Ursinus joined the College boards, Dr. Yost was nominated by the College. He was invited the same year and has been invited every year since.

For the past three years Dr. Yost has been a table leader. The readers sit seven at a table including the table leader. The leader passes judgement on a question and checks the work of the other readers. The leader tries to get everyone to read the same way, i.e., to all make the same correction.

Each reader has a number so that the leader always knows who has marked the paper. This also helps the Board to see who is most reliable, and thus who will return the next year. The most important job of the leader is to try to get the readers to grade in the same way. Last year the reliability was 97.3%. That means that a little over 2.5% were marked differently or that there was disagreement on that portion of marking. This seems almost phenomenal since many of us know that not even two professors here at U.C. will mark the same composition alike.

The work is very much routine, but it can be fun. It is interesting if you like language and testing. There must be something to it because Dr. Yost is going back again this year.

About the Belles

by Pat Garrow '54

One man's glory is another man's shame. But probably the less said about the East Stroudsburg game the better. What one person would call an alibi, another would call an A-1 reason for an unexpected loss, even such a loss.

When a team can come back to pull one game out of the fire in the last six minutes, and then lose the next by an overwhelming score, then you feel entitled to an explanation.

I asked for and got an explanation, but it isn't printable.

The second half of the 1952 Belles is made up of several seniors, a host of underclassmen, and a few freshmen. After winning their first game, 1-0, the most successful half of Ursinus' women's teams deserves an introduction.

Ursinus Jayvees

Ursinus jayvees have a reputation for winning and often have undefeated seasons. It may be that the coaches spend more time with their teams than most schools, or it may be that we have superior material. But whatever the reason, we do have winning junior varsities.

Newly-wed Jane Platt Brederton took over the jayvees this year and up to now has been successful. Leading her team on the field is captain Sara Parent, left inner. Sal is well-known to Ursinus basketball fans and will captain that sport this winter. Out of action last year because of a broken wrist, Sara will add her speed and fight to a potentially powerful team.

Junior Joan Leet is holding down the right wing position. This is Joan's third year on the squad. Originally she was a halfback, but this year she was transferred to the forward wall.

Her running mate at right inner is Rose Reiniger. Also a backfield player, little Rosie has added her speed and experience to the attack.

Freshman Handles Center

Freshman Pat Condon, who drives in the style of Audrey Rittenhouse, handles the important center forward post. Her main attributes are fight in the striking circle and her solid drives for the goal. She captained her high school team.

At left wing is another "wearer of the green". Nesta Lewis played four years of hockey, basketball, and softball at Chatham, N. J., high school and several as captain of two varsity teams. Her other half is a twin sister, Nancy.

Alberta Barnhart graduated to the jayvees from the third team. When Barney arrived at Ursinus, she had never played hockey. Her improvement might seem impossible to anyone but those who know her, Lou (she has several names) possesses a hard drive.

Sophomore Barbara Rack holds down the center half slot. Her stick work and positioning give her the qualities a good center half needs.

Quiet Bobbie Harris fills the other halfback position. Her determination characterizes her play, and since her recent promotion from the third team proving grounds, this likable sophomore has played only when a varsity sub has not taken over.

Senior Rosa Rapp occupies the right fullback post. A veteran of four campaigns, Rappy has the experience and added technique to back up the halfback line. She is varsity basketball manager.

Starting another season at left full is junior Nancy Laib. From the time she was a freshman, Nancy has shown exceptional ability and endurance.

Goalie Position Responsible

The most responsible position on the team, the one in which you get no second chance, is that of goalie. Jen Price spent two years seasoning on the third team and moved up to her present standing this year. You might say she throws her entire self into her work, and you wouldn't be far from wrong. She never gives up without a try, even if they do bounce.

My roommate and I spent an hour one evening last week trying to think of an appropriate name for this column. After trying and discarding all sorts of tricky titles, she came up with the winner, a really simple thing she had been thinking of all night. So thanks, Ruthie Reed, Mmmmm, you're a good girl!

A lot of credit goes to Blanche Schulz for her efforts in taking over the hockey team during the absence of Miss Snell, who suddenly flew to Nebraska last week to care for her mother, who is very ill.

At noon the day of the Swarthmore game, Miss Snell received word from home. And so Miss Schulz stepped in and guided the team to their miraculous tie with Swarthmore.

A graduate of Ursinus, Blanche is now teaching mathematics. After hours she often shows up at practice to get a little exercise. She's a right wing.

I mistakenly implied that Robin Blood was a phys-edder. But the varsity center half is actually an English major. However, whether she likes it or not, she'll hear the following phrase until she is graduated: "I always thought you were a phys-edder."

Scoring for the season now stands at one each for Audrey Rittenhouse, Ruth Heller, and Adele Boyd. Sal Parent has the lone jay-vee marker.

Hockey Team Loses To E. Stroudsburg

East Stroudsburg handed the Belles an 8-1 defeat Wednesday on the opponent's field as Ruth Heller scored the only Ursinus goal.

Handicapped by a rough terrain, the absence of their coach, and only four returnees from the previous season, the Belles failed to show the style of play which netted them a 3-3 tie with Swarthmore five days before.

Midway through the first half, Ruth Heller's weak drive dribbled across the goal line for the Belles' first and last score.

A well coordinated unit, the East Stroudsburg squad played an excellent field game. Several of their goals were excellent, while others should never have been scored. The entire team stopped many drives in mid-air as they bounced over the unlevel playing field.

Bears Rout Haverford 19-0; Glock, Swett Score Fourth

Brilliant Halfback and Rangy End Remain Tied for Season Honors; Schwenk, Maliken, and Conti Standouts

An explosive offense which erupted in the Ursinus-Drexel game continued to roll last Saturday, this time taking the toll of a bewildered Haverford eleven that was noticeably stunned by the Bear's overpowering ground game and line play. Running from their new found short-punt formation, the Bears put on a dazzling display of reverses and straight line smashes and utilized effectively the passing of Dick Glock to hand host Haverford their third defeat, 19-0. For the Bears it was the first victory in three starts.

Ursinus was never in danger after their first score late in the first period when fullback Ben Maliken took a reverse and with the aid of a tremendous block by Dick Glock, raced 31 yards into the end zone. From this point, the Bears' brilliant forward wall pounded the Fords into submission with quick opening off-tackle slants.

Therein was the story of the game as captain "Rocky" Davis, John Anderson, and Bob Swett opened gaping holes for fullback Dan Schwenk, who played the best game of his career with 95 yards in eleven carries. On the opposite side of the line, Marty Boyer, Tap Webb, and Dick Sharpe sprung the brilliant John Conti loose for gains which earned him 76 yards in 11 carries.

Outstanding defensive efforts were numerous as Paul Schwab, Orin Houser, and Frank Kolp harassed the center of the line, while Herb Bennett roamed far and wide to make tackles from his backer-up position. Once again, Jim Groves, a freshman defensive end, played a brilliant and steady game.

Perhaps one of the most outstanding features of the offense which totaled 287 yards on the ground in 49 running plays was the outstanding downfield blocking, in particular by John Conti, who is fast earning himself recognition as one of the outstanding backs in the district.

Maliken Scampers 31

The Bears struck for their first TD in the first period on an 81 yard drive. The first break of the game came when Ursinus was faced with a third and eight situation on their own twenty yard line where Dick Glock attempted a long pass to Dick Sharpe, who made a grab of the sphere on the 45 after a Haverford defender, attempting to make an interception, deflected it high in the air. After an offside penalty, Glock connected for a ten yarder and John Conti broke off-tackle to the Ford's thirty-one yard line. The next play called for a deceiving double reverse with Ben Maliken carrying the pigskin, and the stocky fullback raced around the left end and was sprung loose when Dick Glock threw a three-man block on the 27 yard line. Bill Fynon's conversion gave the Bears a 7-0 lead.

The second period opened with an exchange of punts, finally leaving the ball on the Ursinus eight yard line from where the Grizzlies crushed the Fords with a sustained 92 yard drive. Dan Schwenk presented the impact when on an off-tackle slant from the Bear's 19 yd. line, the powerful back, apparently stopped on the line of scrimmage, spun loose and raced 31 yards to the midfield stripe before being brought down. Conti, Schwenk, and Glock teamed up on running plays to advance the Bears to the Haverford 21. After a Glock to Swett aerial had moved the ball to the nine, Dick Glock broke off-tackle and bulled his way across the last stripe. Bill Fynon's conversion was blocked.

Swett Scores Fourth

With a comfortable 13-0 lead against a rather inept Haverford offense, the Bears settled for a punting duel in the third period, even though their ground game far overshadowed their lesser opponents.

Early in the final period, Al Paolone engineered a 20 yd. return of a Haverford punt, giving the Bears a first down on the Ford's 42, from where Dan Schwenk, on two consecutive line smashes, carried 8 and 24 yards to the 10 yd. line.

After three line plays failed to gain any appreciable gain, Dick Glock tossed a fourth down aerial into the waiting arms of Bob Swett who gathered in his fourth TD of the season to tie him with Glock for the team's leading scorer.

In the closing minutes of the quarter, Haverford made their only serious bid for a score from the Ursinus 11 yd. line, but a stubborn defensive line thwarted the Fords and the Bears regained possession on their own 5 yard line.

Swarthmore Here On Alumni Day

by Dick Bowman '55

Since the Ursinus scoring punch clicked so well against the Fordian eleven Saturday, victory number two of the current campaign should fill the record books following next week's Homecoming day clash with Swarthmore. Over the years the Garnet holds the edge in victories, twenty-six to twelve, with one tie. However, Ursinus has taken the last two contests, turning back the visitors, 25-20, on their own field last year, and 35-14 the year before.

To date Swarthmore has split in two games, dropping their season's opener to Susquehanna 24-20, and edging Hamilton 33-26. The Bears dropped their inaugural test to Susquehanna 16-0, lost a heart-breaker to Drexel 47-39, and trounced Haverford 19-0.

Leading the Swarthmore attack will be end and co-captain Bunky Blake, wingback and co-captain Nick Cusano, and tailback Bill Jones, passer and scatback. These boys will really have to go some to crack the Ursinus defense that set Haverford back on its heels for a loss of thirteen yards in the second half. The Bears' line was so effective on defense that Fordian pass-master Teddy Regan was lucky to get rid of the ball at all, much less hit a receiver.

It is difficult to pass out individual laurels to Grizzly standouts in the Haverford contest. Rocky Davis, John Anderson, Marty Boyer, Frank Kolp and Jimmy Groves thundered through the Fords' forward wall so often that the fans thought they were part of the home team's backfield. Line-backer Herb Bennet's performance was in a class by itself. The watch charm guard repeatedly made tackles behind and over the line of scrimmage. Pass defenders Howie Roberts, Glen Titus and Al Paolone completely throttled the Haverford aerial attack.

On offense, the Grizzlies worked from a powerful short kick formation with Dan Schwenk, Ben Maliken and John Conti cutting and grinding through the line and Dick Glock passing and sweeping the ends. Glock figured in all three scoring plays. His pass to the glue-fingered Bob Swett accounted for a TD in the final quarter, and he circled his own left end for another score in the second frame. He also threw the key block that sprung Maliken loose on a beautiful 34 yard double reverse touchdown sprint in the first quarter. Maliken put on an exhibition of deception and drive that thrilled the entire crowd. He had to fight off tacklers from the ten yard stripe to paydirt.

BANNER FOUND

The Ursinus fightin'est college banner, which was stolen again sometime after 4:30 Saturday morning, was recovered at the Haverford game Saturday afternoon.

Looking 'Em Over

by Ted Wenner '53

Many of the fans who viewed the frenzied touchdown parade a week ago last Saturday when Drexel topped the Bears 47-39 were more than a bit puzzled at the exceeding length of the second quarter, in particular the last four minutes. As one spectator remarked at the end of possibly the wildest four minutes in football annals, "What are they using for a time-piece, an hourglass?" This struck me funny at the time, but not so at the completion of the game and a glance at the records, I think, gives strong evidence that by all rights, the Ursinus Bears should have emerged victorious.

Although the official in charge of the timepiece is not available for comment or questioning, it is almost a foregone conclusion that, after he signalled both benches that only four minutes remained in the half, either he neglected to look at his watch for quite a spell, or else he forgot to start it.

It was clearly evident in the press box that when said official flashed the four minute warning, Ursinus was in possession of the ball on their own 33 yard line and trailed 14-7. In the supposed closing minutes of the half, twenty-three plays were run off, fifteen of which were the time consuming type that take an average of 30 seconds each to execute.

Here is what is supposed to have consumed only four minutes of playing time. With Ursinus in possession of the ball, Dick Glock completed two consecutive passes which placed the pigskin at midfield. After an incompletion, Glock circled end to the Drexel 37 and a first down. Three passes followed, two of which were complete and Glock ended the drive with a 17 yard scamper into paydirt. This series of plays normally would consume about 2½ minutes.

With the score 14-13 and what was thought to be about one minute of playing time left, Drexel's Poe returned the ensuing kick-off back 60 yards to the Bears 35 yard line from where Gene Hug threw three consecutive complete passes for a Dragon TD and a 20-13 score.

Glock returned the kickoff to the 26 yard line and facing a one touchdown deficit took to the air in the final seconds, but the third one was picked off by Drexel's Shaughnessy and two plays later Gene Hug passed to Cabis for a 53 yard Dragon score and a 27-13 half-time lead.

It is granted that in this wild exchange, Drexel may have slipped their touchdown, which gave them a 20-13 lead, under the four minute wire, but it is practically an impossibility that their final TD could have scored. Had this been the case the final score would have read Drexel 40, Ursinus 39. But, everyone present at the game will still vouch that a Drexel extra point conversion in the second half was a complete miss. To many dignitaries from both schools who were sitting behind the goal posts, it was a complete miss, but to one official it was good and that is the way it stood. Take that extra point away and you have a 39-39 final score.

I am not trying to make excuses for an Ursinus eleven that deserves all the credit possible for a tremendous game, but my evidence clearly points out that their efforts deserved a much better reward than the defeat they suffered. Even Drexel coach Eddie Allen was prompted to remark, "It was the strangest game I ever saw."

The game is in the books and it is in as a defeat, so there is nothing else to be done except take precaution that something like this doesn't happen again. The Bears deserve all the support the students can give them because of their tremendous showing this year. We have no complaints about the support yet, but this Saturday's home game should attract a banner crowd, rain or shine. The new found scoring machine will throw the records on the line against a formidable Swarthmore eleven and all indications point to another free scoring thriller. This, plus a peppery Ursinus band which deserves a lot of credit for their work so far will blend to make homecoming day the most colorful in many years.

Brodbeck and Curtis Victors

by Bill Burger '54

In games Tuesday, October 14, Curtis opened the intramural season by defeating Off-Campus by a score of 12 to 6. In the other game Brodbeck defeated Freeland 15 to 0. Herb Knoll caught two touchdown passes to account for all of Curtis's 12 points. Len Brown scored on a pass play for the scrappy Off-Campus club. John Oziak intercepted a stray Freeland pass and scored to give Brodbeck its first score. Ted Wenner later passed to Bob Schwab who ran 30 yards to score the second touchdown. George Sensenig caught a pass for the extra point. Later in the game Warren Wheeler caught a Freeland man behind the goal to score a safety for Brodbeck and end the scoring for the day.

On Thursday afternoon, Oct. 16, both Derr and Curtis won by forfeit. Games scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 22, will be moved up to Tuesday, Oct. 21, because of the Red Cross bloodmobile and Founders' Day exercises.

Bakermen Tie Mules 3-3 On Tait's Last Minute Goal

by Dick Guldin '55

A scrappy and determined soccer team opened their season last Saturday with a thrilling 3-3 stalemate with Muhlenberg, in a game the Bakermen came within a whisker of winning. Although the score reverted against them, the Bear's inspired play in the first half had gained them a 2-0 lead, only to have the up-staters drive home three goals in the third period and desperately thwart an Ursinus comeback, until Gordon Tait banged home a tying goal.

Opening the game on a fast note, the Bears' passing and hustle threw their hosts off-balance and it wasn't long before Bear ace Larry Zartman banged home the first score of the game. A stubborn defense continued to throw back Muhlenberg and break up possible scoring plays, Ed Dawkins, Jim Bright, Howard Davis, and Gordon Tait continually broke through the Mule's attempts to engineer a score.

Then in the second period, freshman star Tom Ely netted a goal from the left of the posts and Ursinus held a commanding 2-0 lead. Then in the fatal third period, the up-state Mules found the range as their well-knit plays began to click and before the close of the period, their stinging offense had banged home three goals to take the lead.

The fourth period began as a desperate battle to regain the advantage taken away and finally, midway in the fourth period, captain Gordon Tait banged home the tying goal on a penalty shot. Neither team was able to dent the nets for the remainder of the period and the game moved into extra periods, but the weary booters were unable to find the range and the Bears had to settle for a tie.

Ten New Members

has done most of the writing itself because very few members of the student body made contributions. This year the literary staff hopes to increase interest on campus and in that way increase the number of contributions so that the writing will not be limited to a small group.

The art staff of the magazine has also been enlarged in order to improve covers and illustrations. All art work will be done on a competitive basis; each member of the staff must contribute to the publication and the best works will be used. The art staff includes Mary Ann Simmendinger '53, Dorothy Schultz '54, Mizz Test '54, and Barbara Wagner '56, the only freshman on the entire publication.

The business staff has not had any alterations. Ivy Leaman '53 is head of this department.

The final change this year is the choice of a new printer in hopes that this too will improve the appearance of the magazine. Chancellor press, Bridgeport, Pa., has been selected for this job.

Many colleges throughout the country have outstanding literary magazines; Ursinus can have one too. Therefore, if you have any writing talent, now is the time to delve into the literary field. All contributions must be submitted by October 29 and may be placed in the Lantern box in the library or handed to a member of the Lantern staff.

It is the custom for faculty members, students, and visitors to assemble at Ursinus college on Founders' day for several purposes: first, to give thanks for the blessings enjoyed at College; second, to honor the memory of the men who founded the college; third, to reaffirm faith in the tradition that has shaped Ursinus; and fourth, to do honor to men who have distinguished themselves in their field of work. It is well that during times like these, when education is facing perhaps, its greatest challenge, we should refresh our memories with the principles for which Ursinus was founded.

NOSE, THROAT,

and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."
