Fall Play to be Dec. 5, 6; Ticket Sale Begins Dec. 1

The Curtain club will present Death Takes a Holiday by Alberto Cassella on December 5 and 6 at 8:30 in the T-G gym. Tickets for the play will go on sale in the Supply store on Monday, Dec. 1, at a price of $1.00 each. Students will be admitted free on Friday night upon presentation of their matriculation cards.

The play is under the direction of Geoffrey Dolman and H. Lloyd Jones Jr. and student director Dolores DeSola '53. Howard Ruberts '53 and Glenna Geiger '54 are starred in the leading roles of Death and Grazia, respectively. Others in the cast are: Ed Abrahamson '54, Duke Lambert; Joan Higgins '54, Stephanie; Jim Bowers '55, the Baron; Jane Hopple '53, Alda; Marlette Allen '56, Rhoda; Mizz Test '54, the Princess; Jack Cranston '56, Corrado; Sam Keen '53, Eric; Hamilton Friday '53, the Major; Jane Skinner '55, Cora; and John Stoudt '55, Fedele.

All students are urged to attend and bring their parents and friends.

Freshman Rep. Is Sworn in By MSGA

The MSGA held its weekly meeting at the home of G. Sieber Pancoast. Ernie Ito and Ken Reinhart were sworn in as the freshman representatives to the MSGA.

An executive committee to be made up of three men and three women of the Student Government association was created. Its function will be to coordinate these two groups and create better harmony between them and the student body. The men on this committee are Dan Giangliulo, Jay Kern and Jack Westerhoff.

A proposal to join the NSA (National Student Association) was made. This is an organization of student government associations of U.S. colleges. Its function is to bring them into a unified body in everyone's benefit.

It was stressed that in the near future all illegally parked cars will be towed away and a charge of $3.00 will be collected.

We are still $482.01 away from our Student union. Work will be started when we get this money. Those who have not pledged their breakage fee will be contacted again in the hopes that we may see a dream come true.

Naval Officer to Speak Here, Dec. 3

A naval recruiting officer will be at Ursinus Wednesday, Dec. 3, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. He will answer student's questions on the Naval Recruiting service's program of processing college seniors who will graduate in February, 1953.

The Recruiting service is authorized to recruit for indoctrination and appointment in the grade of ensign qualified candidates between the ages of 19 and 27 years. With the exception of students enjoying educational deferments, no selective service registrant who has been called for his pre-induction physical and mental examination may apply for this program.

The Recruiting service has also announced a plan for women graduates of accredited colleges or universities. Women between the ages of 21 and 27 may apply for admission to naval indoctrination classes. Selected candidates will be appointed in the grade of ensign and their orders to active duty will be delivered with their appointments.

BOOK SALE STARTS DEC. 1

There will be a sale of books starting December 1. The prices start at 50 cents on the first day and decrease a nickel each day thereafter.

BOB HARRY

Bob Harry to Play At Senior Formal

Bob Harry's band, who played at the Junior prom last year, will play again at the Senior prom, Stars in Your Eyes, on December 12 at Sunnysbrook. Marion Caruso will sing with the band.

Bob Harry has been a member of many well-known orchestras for which he has also been a writer and an arranger before he formed his own band. Marion Caruso is remembered for her recording of "My Favorite Song" and other hits.

Phys-Eds Get New Teachers

Mrs. Connie Warren Poley and Mrs. Natalie Whiting have replaced Jane Platt Brederlow in the women's physical education department. Both are graduates of Ursinus.

Mrs. Whiting taught here two years ago and is familiar to Ursinus. She is teaching activities.

Mrs. Poley was graduated from Ursinus in 1949. She is teaching athletic injuries, required freshman physical education, and sophomore activities. She will direct the May Day pageant this year.

While a student, Mrs. Poley played varsity basketball for four years, was a member of the Weekly and Ruby staffs, and participated in May Day, hockey, and softball. She was a member of Tau Sigma Gamma and the WAA.

Pre-Legal Group Hears Speaker, Accepts Three New Members

The Pre-Legal society held their monthly meeting last Wednesday at the home of Dr. Donald L. Helfferich. The guest speaker of the evening was Mr. Cranlund, a practicing lawyer in Philadelphia. Mr. Cranlund spoke on the development of law from Roman times to the present day.

the meeting Dave Heyser, Tom Kerr and Dave Garlich were accepted as new members.

Lantern Goes to Press Today; Barbara Wagner Designs Cover

The first issue of the Lantern has gone to press today. If expenses permit there will be more art work and a slightly different make up in the forthcoming publication.

The cover for this issue has been designed by Barbara Wagner, a Freshman day student, whose work was chosen by the staff from the six cover illustrations submitted.

There has been one piece of writing submitted whose author has not been identified. The title is, If Damon Runyon had reviewed George Meredith's novel, "The Ordeal of Richard Feverel." It was originally an assignment for Composition 5. The author is requested to call Marna Feldt some time tonight, so that his work may be given a by-line.

NOTICE

Those seniors and juniors who have not yet picked up their Ruby portrait proofs may do so at Shreiner immediately after supper this evening. All proofs must be returned the first week of December. There will be a representative here from the photography studio at a date to be announced later.

Messiah Seats Reserved for 100 Students

A limited number of free seats for the evening performance of the Messiah, December 11, at 8:15 p.m. will be reserved for student use. Upon presentation of their matriculation cards one hundred students will be admitted free of charge. The regular admission price is one dollar. Everyone is urged to ask parents and friends to this evening performance. Students may purchase tickets at the Supply store from Jack Matlaga or Dennis Canfield or at the Registrar's office.

The Music club cordially invites students unable to attend Thursday night to come Thursday afternoon to hear the full rehearsal of the oratorio. At this time Philadelphia orchestra members; organist, Dr. Wallace Heaton; soprano, Martha Wilson; alto, Doris Okeren; tenor, John Alexander; and bass, Chester Watson will participate.

This year marks the fifteenth anniversary of the Messiah performance at Ursinus. The chorus, composed of Ursinus students and alumni, numbers about 160, which is the largest Messiah chorus ever assembled at Ursinus.

Constitution Changes Begun By W. S. G. A.

The WSGA committee to revise and reprint the constitution met last Wednesday afternoon in Miss Stahr's office to begin the work of revision. Members of the committee were appointed by chairman Bev Syvertsen '54 to contact printers concerning the cost of reprinting the constitutions.

The committee consists of three members of the Women's Senate, Bev Syvertsen, Rose Reiniger '54, Fran Jahn '54, two members of the Women's Student council, Jen Price '54 and Roberta Scheffler '53, the president of the WSGA, ex-officio, and the Dean of Women, ex-officio.

Because there are very few copies of the constitution available and because several sections have already been changed or are outdated, the committee was appointed at the last Senate meeting to draw up a revised version of the constitution and present it to the Senate

About 100 Students Enjoy Variety Show

by Elsie Belz '55

Wind and rain failed to keep about 100 brave students from attending the thoroughly enjoyable Ruby Variety show Friday night.

The much publicized Hollywood star was the first act in the show. The original "chee-chee" girl, Rose Murphy, was the guest in the person of Cheryl Mirgain '55, who played and sang several numbers.

Marilyn Engleman '54 sang the beautiful song I'm in the Mood for Love as the second presentation. Following Marilyn's song, Hamilton Friday '53, Joe Schuck '53, Jim Scott '53, and Elwood Williams '53 presented a thoroughly amusing skit, If Men Played Cards as Women Do, a take-off on a women's afternoon bridge party.

The Notables, the female version of the barber shop quartet, composed of Irene Schweitzer '53, Nan Morrell '54, Molly Sharp '53, and Thelma Carlin '54, followed the

Lord Winterton to Speak At First Forum Tomorrow

LORD EDWARD WINTERTON

What lies ahead for the British Commonwealth of nations?

Ursinus students will find this vital question ably answered by Lord Edward Winterton, one of Britain's most forceful and effective speakers, during his lecture Tuesday, Nov. 25, at 8:15 p.m. in Bomberger chapel.

Prior to his World War I service in the Imperial army, Lord Winterton had been the youngest editor in London, as editor of the World, a political and financial journal.

At the age of twenty-one, Eddie, as he is known by his friends, entered the House of Commons as a conservative member. He was able to do this because of his Irish peerage. (English peers may not be elected to the House of Commons).

In 1951, forty-seven years later, this Irish peer held the longest period of service in the House of Commons and thus assumed the title of "Father of the House". After nearly half a century of intense political activity, he felt that the time had come for him to take a respite from political duties and devote more time to his own affairs, his business activities, and his hobbies.

On November 8, 1952, Lord Winterton began a lecture tour of the United States. American audiences have found that his pungent Irish wit, his knowledge of men, and his world wide travels combine to make him the sort of speaker and broadcaster that audiences remember.

Lord Winterton is no stranger to the United States. On the invitation of the late President Roosevelt, he visited Washington in 1939 where he held important talks with the president.

First Chest Drive Proceeds Small; Two Days Remain

The Welfare ball sponsored by the Campus Chest committee was held Saturday night in the T-G gym. Jimmy Howard's band provided the music. Proceeds from the dance were turned over to the Campus Chest fund.

Person-to-person solicitations for donating money to the campus Chest fund began last week in the dormitories. A member of each class was appointed in the men's dorms and the dormitory presidents covered the women's dorms. The money is coming in very slowly. The results so far are: freshmen, $42.50; sophomores, $8.00; juniors, $29.00; seniors, $10.00. This is only money received and does not include unpaid pledges.

Help Offered For Grad Study

There have been very few Ursinus students responding to the opportunities presented by this year's scholarship offers.

The deadline has already closed for such opportunities as the Rhodes or Fulbright scholarships, but various others are still open for application. There are graduate scholarships that range from $1,000 to $1,200 for such schools as Duke, Emory, Tulane, Vanderbilt, and North Carolina. Special graduate fellowships are presented annually by the National Science Foundation for advanced scientific study or scientific research. By the terms of the scholarships offered by Radcliffe college, advanced study under members of the Harvard faculty is open to women candidates seeking degrees of master of arts, master of arts in teaching, master of science, or doctor of philosophy. For foreign study, it is still possible to apply for the Henry Fellowships of $700 for study at Oxford or Cambridge.

SPIRIT GROUP CHOOSES WORDS FOR DORM DECORATION PRIZE

An inscription for the Spirit committee trophy, presented to the winner of the annual Old Timers' Day dorm decoration contest, was decided upon at last Wednesday's meeting. The trophy has been chosen and will soon be purchased by the committee.

Also discussed at the meeting were tentative plans for boosting spirit during the coming basketball and wrestling seasons. Details of the Spirit committee party this week were also planned.

ROSIES TO MEET

There will be a short but very important meeting of all permanent Rosierucians Tuesday night at 6:30 p.m. in room 2 of Bomberger.

SWC Wins Hunt Sponsored by Y

Members of the YM-YWCA held a scavenger hunt on Wednesday night, November 19. Mary Gillespie '55 and Mary Faust '55 planned this Fun Night. Articles, such as an artificial carnation and the signature of Rocky Davis, were listed to find. The teams were divided into commissions. Candy bars were awarded to the victors, the Student Worship commission, and suckers were given to everyone else as consolation prizes.

Last evening Vespers was led by Mary Faust '55; Roger P. Staiger spoke. The Student Worship commission, which plans weekly Vespers, has announced that on December 14, Rev. Franz will give a sermon in song. This commission also reminded students that Mr. Wilcox teaches the college Sunday School class in Trinity Church every Sunday.

The Campus Affairs commission is sponsoring the ping-pong tournaments, which will be held in the near future. Anyone can sign up now. The cleaning up of the college woods, also sponsored by this commission, will take place December 6.

The Town-Gown dinners will be held on December 14, as planned by the Social Responsibilities commission. These dinners are held in order to foster a better spirit between townfolk and Ursinus students.

Don't forget your commission meetings, Wednesday, December 3.

GERMAN CLUB MEETS

The German club held its regular meeting Wednesday night, Nov. 19, in the Music room of the library. President Fred Owens '53 had charge of the program. Two games, Twenty questions and charades, were played, both in German. In the Charades, German songs were used.

The next meeting will be held in the Music room of the library, Wednesday, Dec. 3. All students who are interested in the German language are invited to attend.

PLEA TO 60 STUDENTS

As the MSGA pointed out in its meeting this past week, we are less than $600 away from filling the quota of money necessary to start work on the Student union. To be exact, we need only to raise $482.01.

The freshmen have started a petition to donate their breakage fees to the cause which will overwhelmingly make up the difference. But why should we have to depend upon the freshmen?

Over 60 students in the other three classes have not as yet pledged their $10 breakage fees.

These students have various reasons for not giving up their breakage fees. The ones we've heard most often are: "I'm not going to give my money to something I won't be able to enjoy" and "The project won't go through anyway."

Both of these statements seem to us very poor excuses for not giving. How can we know whether or not an idea can succeed unless ALL of us do our part to make it succeed? How can we expect others to live up to their promises unless we live up to ours?

At least 48 of the 60 students who have not pledged their fees yet surely have pangs in their consciences and will do it soon. They cannot all be selfish and cynical.

WHAT'S WRONG, MEN ?

Money for the Campus Chest drive is coming in very slowly. The men's dormitories, particularly, are lagging far behind the expected goal. Perhaps the reason for this is that the task of contacting individual men by personal solicitation is more difficult in the men's dormitories because of their larger size. We hope that there aren't any other reasons and that the pledges in the next three days increase.

THE BRIGHTER SIDE

Thursday of this week has been officially set aside as Thanksgiving day. In the midst of all the realistic cynicism and griping which is heard today, it is especially nice to have a day set aside for thinking of the brighter side of life.

There is so much for which to give thanks.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

The food of Ursinus has been a widely discussed topic for many months. However, most of the remarks concerning our meals have been rather derogatory, to say the least. But at last, the tables have turned, and I for one, feel safe in saying that there has been a remarkable improvement in our daily menu. I think that the rest of the college will honestly agree on this. I would like to thank the kitchen, the cooks and everyone else involved for their valiant efforts.

Sincerely, A Student

To the Students of Ursinus:

I would like to express my sincere appreciation and thanks for the generous gift that I received from the student body of Ursinus college.

The thoughtfulness which you displayed during my period of illness will always remain with me.

Sincerely, Bernie Orsini

To the Editor:

We would like to give an open note of commendation to Bill Zimakas, chairman of the Campus Chest drive now in progress. Bill and his committee have been working and planning steadily since last spring for the drive and have been doing a tremendous job. With the drive being only in its second year of existence, most of what is done is being attempted for the first time. The organization of the many phases of the drive has been most thorough, and now there only remains for the solicitors to collect the money.

Thanks and congratulations also go to Renie Schweitzer, and all her associates for a very successful student-faculty show.

Sincerely, Joan Kacik, YWCA, Ken Weisel, YMCA

To the Editor:

A thoughtful Ursinus student sent me a recent copy of the Weekly in which I read with sadness a letter from "an Ursinus rooter" proposing to drop F & M from our schedule. There is much merit in this proposal but I for one feel there is much greater merit in adhering to the tradition and carrying on our ancient and uphill fight against our esteemed foe from Lancaster. I don't believe that being beaten by the score of 69-19 seriously impaired the morale of our team. More impressive than the final score was the gallant three period struggle during which the Ursinus stalwarts held an admittedly superior foe at bay and they can't but help glory in their effort. As do we.

One of the chief values of a college athletic program is the toughening of the physical and moral fibres of its participants. When an athlete has learned to play his hardest, to win without gloating and to lose without crying, he has absorbed the game's contribution to his development and he has grown in stature. In later life, when the going gets tough, there will not be a player who participated in Saturday's game who will not be better prepared to cope with the situation because of the grueling battle he went through against F & M. Neither the college nor the athlete is going to grow in stature racking up victories against new and unknown teams. Let's get our schedule filled with our old traditional enemies.

Just as a balm to some bruised Ursinus spirits and bodies allow me to tell you briefly about two Ursinus victories over F & M that I witnessed. During my freshman year a fair but fighting Ursinus team went to Lancaster to meet a rugged, successful F & M eleven. Their student body was twice our male student body in those days too. Ursinus spent the entire game staying off determined F & M drives at its goal and kicking out from behind the goal posts, except for one brief moment when we ad-

Two Staff Members Enjoy Play Preview

Last Thursday night two members of the Weekly staff attended a special preview performance of Tennessee Williams' play Summer and Smoke at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia. The play opened on Wednesday night and has been highly praised by critics.

Summer and Smoke is presented by the Circle-in-the-Square Theater, a Greenwich Village group who restaged the play for the arena type theater, after it had begun a none-too-promising run on Broadway. In the Academy foyer, which is to be permanent home for the group in Philadelphia, the stage extends from wall to wall across the width of the room, the seats rising in tiers on either side. This is a slight variation from the theater-on-the-round idea which has become increasingly popular in the last few years. The production is directed by Jose Quintero and stars Betty Miller and Michael Sheean.

Tickets for Summer and Smoke may be obtained from the box office, Circle-in-the-Square, Academy of Music foyer. The prices, including tax are $1.30, $1.95, $2.60, and $3.25. Performances are given every night, except Sunday, at 8:30 and Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

MURKY FOR THE TURKEY

by William Lukens '53

Thanksgiving used to be the day We'd celebrate in every way, But now it doesn't have much say, Because the turkey is passe.

Old Tom finds Christmas hard to beat, With Santa stepping on his feet, While breathing down his thin, doomed neck, And telling him to clear the deck.

We're sorry for you, Tom, old boy, There was a time when you brought joy; But how can you expect to win 'Gainst tiffany brooch and cartier pin?

While magazines are stuffed with ads, For Christmas gifts to suit the lads, Tom Turkey doesn't get one line, To state that he will taste just fine Thanksgiving day—if you should dine.

But, Tom, we love you anyhow; Yet now you'll have to take a bow: You're being shoved right off the stage, 'Cause Santa's here—and in a rage!

DR. A. RICE ATTENDS ATLANTIC UNION SESSIONS

Dr. Allan Lake Rice, of Collegeville, a member of the Ursinus College faculty and strong advocate of the Atlantic Union, has been named delegate from the Philadelphia area to the annual Congress of the Atlantic Union at Buffalo, N.Y. He attended sessions on Friday and Saturday of last week.

Dr. Rice is the Philadelphia regional executive secretary of the movement.

The foreign minister of Norway made the keynote address at the gathering.

vanced to the F & M 40 yd. line. From the 48 yd. line Sammy Eckert kicked a field goal and Ursinus won the game 3-0. What a bonfire we had, what a sweet victory! And to get a day off in those days you had to beat F & M!

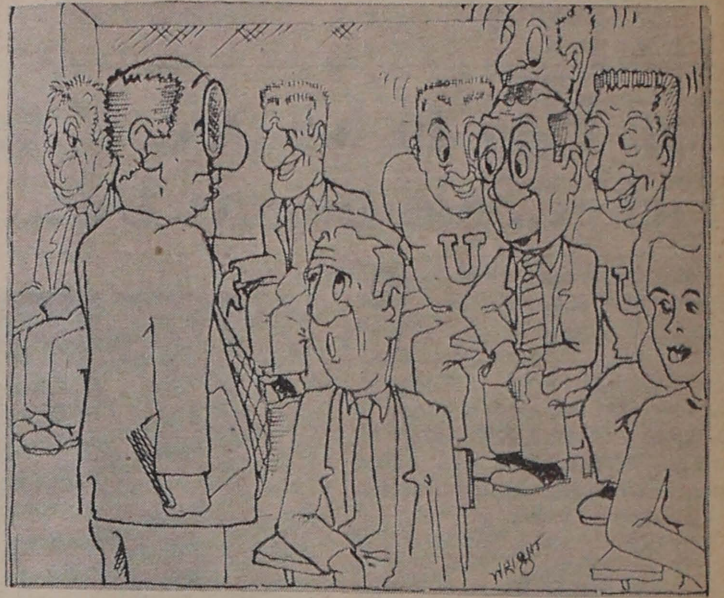

In the late 20's I saw an Ursinus eleven trample F & M 53-0. As men were taken out during the second half they were sent to the shower and finally the last eleven men on the squad were all that remained on the field. Two men were injured and Ursinus had to continue with nine men, all second and third stringers. What did they do? They scored another touchdown.

Sincerely, George W. Koch '27 P.S.—I didn't hear a single word about F & M wanting to drop Ursinus from its schedule either.

WHITEY'S WIT

by Bill Wright '55

"I believe you'll remember I announced a test for today."

By the Way

by Evelyn Scharf '53

Quite a bit of confusion and anxiety was evident last week as a result of the rumor that chapel cuts could no longer be made up, effective immediately. A lot of people are now heaving a collective sigh — and probably attending chapel five days a week.

Concerning chapel, we'd like to see a set-up similar to that prevailing in a great many other schools—namely, chapel once a week for 45 minutes or an hour with outside speakers, panel discussions, etc. Maybe then the word "compulsory" wouldn't loom so large in the student's mind.

Well, the monsoon season made an early appearance in Collegeville last week. Good thing Ursinus literally isn't perched on the Perkiomen. But then it might be fun to go to classes in boats.

Despite the torrential downpour Friday night, the Ruby came through with what we thought was an excellent variety show. The Curtain Club had better sign up the "Our Gal Sunday" troupe before MGM or RKO does. And they even write their own skits. Or couldn't you tell?

Some members of the football team came up with a new secret weapon for the Dickinson game. Figured they'd bombard Carlisle before the game—with pea-shooters. But, all kidding aside, this is just about the best season we remember since we've been at Ursinus, and every member of the team deserves a lot of credit for it.

There once was a group of avid Ursinus fans who left for the Dickinson game at 11:30 and were in Lancaster at 2. After a blow-out came the rain; after that they came home — and all without even a glimpse of the football game.

Well, home for a brief respite (if we can ever find a ride) before that hectic pre-Christmas period begins. But we wouldn't want to change it in the least, because it's the nicest time of year at Ursinus.

Dickinson Hands Bears Loss in Grid Final, 18-6

by Dick Bowman '55

Ursinus ended the football campaign on a sad note when the Bears dropped an 18-6 decision to Dickinson at Carlisle Saturday. A slight rain hampered both teams' offenses in the first half.

After the first quarter ended in a scoreless deadlock, Dickinson took possession on their own 28 and drove downfield for 72 yards on fourteen plays. Pitchout option plays with quarterback Bob Jones lateraling out to little Henry Gasull or keeping the ball on bootleg plays accounted for most of the yardage. A pass from Jones to George Mauro on the two set up the score; three defenders batted the ball into the air where it was snatched by the elert end. Two plays later Jones swept his own left end for one yard and a TD.

The Bears knotted the score in the third quarter when Herb Bennett intercepted a Jones pass on the Dickinson 35 and threaded his way to the twelve. Three plays later Dick Glock crashed over his own left tackle from three yards out for the tally. On the ensuing kick-off the Red Devils romped all the way from their own two yard stripe. Deep man George Sprengler took Harry Toy's boot to the thirty-five and lateraled to Bob Mitzell who broke away for a 65 yard jaunt to paydirt.

To insure a victory, Dickinson added an insurance marker in the final frame. After the Bears were forced to punt from their own ten, the Devils returned thirteen yards to the Ursinus 46. Charlie Garwood smashed through for six yards and little Henry Gasull, the 126 pound five-foot two inch halfback ducked and swerved to the twenty-five. A Jones pass hit Smith of Dickinson for 15 yards on the Ursinus ten; an aerial from Jones to Dick Johe covered the remaining distance on the following play.

Offensively, the Bears had trouble springing the brilliant Glock. Blocking just fell short when a key man would break up a potential gain with a chance tackle. In the air the Grizzlies showed their teeth. But each time it was too little or too late. A pass from Glock to Bob Swett netted 40 yards to end the half on the Dickinson 31. A last minute desperation pass from Glock to Swett ate up 21 yards to the Red Devils 44, but four incomplete passes ended the Bears offense for the day and the Carlisle gridders took over on downs as the game ended.

Acclaim for the defenders from Bearville is justified and should be evenly distributed. In the middle of the line Frank Kolp and John Anderson were their usual aggressive and unyielding selves. Backer-up Herb Bennett was exceptionally brilliant as was end Jimmy Groves. One player unmentioned previously who played rough, sound football was tackle George Swartz. Paul Schwab at the other tackle is to be praised for his hard-charging prowess. Line-backer Harry Toy and safety-man Al Paolone showed agility on pass defense plays as they batted down numerous passes from quarterback Jones. Both players made their share of tackles also.

Two plays which should click for Ursinus next year if Saturday was any indication were the running pass from either Paul Neborak or Glock and the double reverse with Maliken taking the hand-off from Glock and handing to Neborak. The latter, a delayed action play, lends deception and breaks up a tight defensive formation.

The one other outstanding feature of the Dickinson game was Neborak's punting. His 57 yard quick kick in the second quarter was a beauty.

First downs—Ursinus 8, Dickinson 13; Yds. gained rushing—Ursinus 100, Dickinson 200; Yds. lost rushing—Ursinus 27, Dickinson 19; Net yds. rushing—Ursinus 73, Dickinson 181; Yds. gained passing—Ursinus 83, Dickinson 72; Passes attempted—Ursinus 14, Dickinson 10; Passes completed—Ursinus 5, Dickinson 6; had intercepted—Ursinus 1, Dickinson 1.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The sports editor wishes to apologize for several mistakes made in last week's article on the 1952-53 basketball team. A printing error caused three names to be omitted and one to be labeled wrong. Bob Swett will be captain of this year's court squad, and the names omitted were those of Bill Burger and Ralph "Shooey" Schumacker, both regulars.

Bakermen Drop Season Closer, 6-0

by Dick Guldin '55

Franklin and Marshall's undefeated soccer team turned back the Ursinus Bears Saturday on the winners home field, 6-0. The playing was hard for both teams because of the mud and the cold.

It was the final soccer game of the season for the Bakermen. A few of the men playing their last game were Williams, Frambes, and Captain Tait. These three played a fine game and have been outstanding in soccer for several years. Captain Gordon Tait, absent most of the season from an injury received at Muhlenberg, was especially outstanding in the games he played in. Curt Frambes, although he did not break into the scoring column, is to be credited for his fine work on defense. Elwood Williams, a fine aggressive player on the wing, played consistently well.

Although the game was mostly defensive, it took hard playing to work the ball from one end of the field to the other because of conditions.

Burny Eddy played a fine defensive game as goalie

Former Coach Plays Softball in Korea

Capt. Jerry Seeders, whose wife, Bea, lives on Rt. 2, Carmel, Calif., was a member of an Army softball team competing for the I Corps championship in Korea recently.

Representing I Corps Headquarters, his team was eliminated in the finals of the I Corps "Little World Series."

Eight top teams from front line combat divisions and rear echelon units took part in the tournament, which climaxed regular season play under the Army's recreation program for combat zone troops.

Seeders, assigned to I Corps headquarters as athletic officer, has been in Korea since last May.

A 1940 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, he was coach at Ursinus college before entering the Army in 1941.

Snell's "Belles" Close Season by Defeating Penn

by Sally Lumis '53

The final hockey game of the season, the last contest for five seniors, ended victoriously for Ursinus Tuesday when the Belles defeated Penn at Philadelphia 3-1 to give them a seasonal record of 4-3-1.

Five posts will be vacated by the graduation this June of Captain Adele Boyd, left inner, center forward Audrey Rittenhouse, fullbacks Edna Seifert and Ellie Unger, and center half Sallie Lumis. Determined to win the last game, the entire team fought all the way to hold Penn to one goal and collect three tallies for the victory.

The Jayvee team maintained its undefeated record as Captain Sal Parent scored in the last 2 minutes to tie the game 1-1. Rosa Rapp, fullback, and Joan Hitchner, right wing, also played their last game at UC. The Jayvee game was shortened because of darkness, and Sal put the ball in just before it became too dark to find the goal—keeping the Jayvee record for 1952 unmarred by a loss.

The varsity game started slowly but Ruthie Heller scored first, to get the game moving. Play went up and down the field as Penn tried again and again to score. Giving us a better margin, Audrey Rittenhouse countered in the middle of the first half to put us ahead by 2 goals. As the mid-point of the game drew near Penn's center rushed in a goal and the half-time score stood 2-1, favor Ursinus.

Ursinus and Penn scrapped for possession of the ball through most of the second period. Both teams came close, but had difficulty in getting the ball over the goal line. It wasn't until Audrey Rittenhouse scored mid-way in the second half that the victory was clinched.

The Jayvee team played a hard and fast game to come back from a 1-0 deficit to tie their foe 1-1. Visibility was poor through most of the game. The tying goal was made by Sal Parent just a short time before the game ended.

skit with several of their wonderful songs.

The next act was a skit called Our Gal Sunday, presented by the thespians of Shreiner hall, Joan Hitchner '53, Sal Parent '53, Rosa Rapp '53, Ellie Unger '53, and Edna Seifert '53. This was one of the most amusing acts of the show and brought more laughs than any other presentation.

A pantomime, Outside of That I Love You, was presented by Delores DeSola '53 and Dan Giangulio '53 and then Helen Lightfoot '53, Ursinus' Marlene Dietrich '53, sang Mam'selle.

Following the intermission, Delores DeSola and Dan Giangulio presented a sequel to their earlier presentation.

The boys' quartet, composed of Bob McCarty '54, Jim Bright '54, George Aucott '56 and Joe Bintner '54, was the next act and following it Delores DeSola and Jim Scott presented a brief skit To the Woods.

Irene Schweitzer '53 gave a monologue I Can't Make Up My Mind, which was very excellently presented and received well by the audience. Following Irene's monologue, Dottie Schultz '54, accompanied by Midge Kramer '56, sang Sweethearts and Delia, both from well-known operettas.

The last act was a repeat of the hit of last year's Junior show. The Blacksmith Blues, a blackout dance presented by Delores DeSola, Elsie Gruber '53, Jane Hopple '53, Helen Lightfoot, Marge Mersfelder '53,

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

They're made better to taste cleaner, fresher, smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?

You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Because Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette . . . for better taste—cleaner, fresher, smoother taste . . . Be Happy—Go Lucky!

L.S./M.F.T.'s the code
To keep in mind today—
So for a cleaner, fresher smoke
It's Luckies all the way.

COLLEGE STUDENTS PREFER LUCKIES IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.
