Elections for May Queen, Scheduled for Wednesday

The queen and the manager of May day will be elected on Wednesday at 12:30 and 6:30 by all the women students. Freshmen and sophomores will cast their ballots in room 7; juniors and seniors, in room 8, it has been announced by Jean Ostermayer, chairman of the Central Nominating committee.

Frosh Reps. Given Charge On Color Day

At the annual Color Day exercises held Thursday afternoon in Bomberger chapel the freshmen were recognized officially as members of the Ursinus College community.

After the processional, played by June Barron '56, Dean Camilla B. Stahr welcomed the girls to the ceremonies. Jen. Price '54 explained the meaning of the college colors, and freshman officers were presented with their charges of office. Jane Gulick '53 presented the WSGA charge to Nancy Lewis; Joan Kacik '54, the YWCA charge to Margaret Kramer; and Eleanor Unger '53, the WAA charge to Nesta Lewis.

Mrs. G. Sieber Pancoast spoke on What Ursinus Means to Me as a Graduate. Mrs. Pancoast, at present alumni secretary of the college, participated in many activities during her life as a student at Ursinus. She stressed in her address the importance of dormitory life in college, but warned her audience not to limit their close friends to dormmates. Extra-curricular activities, said Mrs. Pancoast, are very important for making friends. She told the girls that two sides of her life in college now seem of prime importance to her: the lasting friendships she made at Ursinus and the increased appreciation of good literature and love for reading that college gave to her.

Seniors Make Plans For This Weekend

The senior class is sponsoring a scavenger hunt Friday night and a program of Twenty Questions posed by a panel of faculty members Saturday night.

The scavenger hunt will start at 7:30 p.m. at the old gym. Joanne Sherr is in charge. After the hunt there will be dancing and refreshments in the gym. Old clothes should be worn and the price is twenty-five cents.

Twenty Questions will be asked by a panel of faculty members including Dr. Allan Rice, Dr. Donald Baker, Dr. John Heilman and Mr. James Hirst. Question boxes will be placed in the supply store, library, and Bomberger hall and prizes will be given for the questions that stump the experts. Animal, mineral or vegetable objects used should be commonly known. Admission will be fifty cents per person. Gordon Tait is the chairman of the committee organizing the program.

Sun Oil Pres. Speaks Tonight

Mr. Robert G. Dunlop will be the speaker at the meeting of the Business Administration club on Monday, February 16, at 7 p.m. in room 7. Mr. Dunlop is now president of Sun Oil company. He received his B.S. from the University of Pennsylvania and has been with Sun Oil since 1933.

MUSIC CLUB PLANS TOUR

The members of the Music club have begun to make plans for a three day concert tour by bus to southern New Jersey and nearby places this spring. Money to finance the project will be raised by a cake sale and a musical program presented in the gym.

Rules Revealed For Alpha Psi

A general business meeting of the Curtain club was held in Bomberger last Tuesday night. All members were urged to try out for the spring play, Two Blind Mice. An announcement will be made over the loud-speaker when the play books arrive in the library; tryouts will be held a few days later. The new point system of raises was explained and questions concerning it were answered.

Jane Hopple '53, president of Alpha Psi Omega, announced that those activities in the Curtain club which have been considered as a basis for Alpha Psi membership have been set-down in the form of specific requirements. To be considered for membership, a person must have had experience in the following phases of dramatic work: 1. He must have had a speaking part on stage. 2. He must have directed a play, either a group or a major production. 3. He must have been the chairman of a committee for a major production. 4. He must have done committee work on a play, in addition to the above. 5. Men must have some experience in staging.

Male Quartet to Sing For PTA, February 19

The Pitchpipers, the Ursinus male quartet composed of Bob McCarty '54, Joe Bintner '54, Jim Bright '54, and George Auccott '56, will entertain the Collegeville-Trappe Parent-Teacher association Thursday, February 19, 8:00 p.m., at the high school. Mary Gillespie '55 will also entertain with her accordion.

The program will consist of two parts: A rendition of old favorites such as "Sweet Adeline" and "Shine on Harvest Moon" and a medley of college songs including the "Ursinus Campus Song" and "The Halls of Ivy". The quartet will feature one of their newest bounce rhythm numbers "The Merry Go Round Broke Down".

FRENCH CLUB TO MEET

The French club will hold a very important business meeting in room three of Bomberger on Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. All officers will be present and all members are requested to attend.

Students Must File Now for Selective Service Exam

All eligible students who intend to take the Selective Service College Qualification test in 1953 should file applications at once for the April 23 administration, Selective Service National Headquarters advised today.

An application and a bulletin of information may be obtained at any Selective Service local board. Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application immediately and mail it in the special envelope provided. Applications must be postmarked no later than midnight, March 9, 1953. Early filing will be greatly to the student's advantage.

Results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student, according to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test.

The tests will be given on the Ursinus college campus.

Rules Clarified At Senate Meeting

Rules and their enforcement were clarified at the Senate meeting last Wednesday afternoon. The rule forbidding girls to wear dungarees to the dinner meal will be strictly enforced. This rule which has appeared in the rule book for years applies to Friday and Saturday nights as well as the rest of the week.

The question of later permissions than 12:30 on Saturday nights was also raised. Girls who need later permissions for such events as trips to Philadelphia are reminded that later permissions may be secured from the Dean of Women upon request.

The WSGA president reported to the Senate that a list of 57 names of those persons in the classes of '53, '54 and '55 who have not pledged their $10 breakage fee for the Student Union had been secured from Mr. Helfferich's office. Those students will be contacted by representatives of the men's and women's student governments in an attempt to complete the required pledges of $6,000. Under the agreement reached last year, work on the Student Union can then begin.

"Y" Dinner Held; SRC to Conduct Seminar Tonight

Spaghetti and snakes were the features at the third annual "Get-Acquainted-Dinner" of the YWCA last Wednesday. The crowd of more than 150 students and faculty advisers were entertained after the dinner by Eddie Dawkins '55, "professor" of herpetology.

Supplementing Ed's informative and entertaining talk were live snakes—garter, corn, chicken, and black snakes. Ed also demonstrated the procedure for "milking" rattlesnakes.

Joan Kacik '54 and Ken Weisel '53, presidents of the Y, introduced the cabinet to the new members. The new members were asked to join one of the four commissions—Social responsibilities, Student worship, Political action, or Campus affairs. Commissions will meet this Wednesday at 6:45 p.m. in Bomberger. Midge Kramer '56 and Fayne Elsesser '55 took their positions on the cabinet this week as freshman representative and co-chairman of Social responsibilities respectively.

The Social Responsibilities commission is directing a series of three interfaith seminars. The topic is One God as worshipped in the Jewish faith.

Janet Glaser Crowned Queen Of Freshman Dance, Friday

Janet Glaser was crowned queen last Friday night at the "Queen of Hearts Dance," which was given by the freshmen in the T-G gym. Fred Benner and his band supplied the music from 8:30 to 11:30 and the decorations which were in accordance with the Valentine theme adorned the gym.

The Junior class has begun to cast the original musical show which will be presented April 17 and 18. The book was written by Ed Abramson '54 and the music has been composed by Gordon Tait '53 and Bob McCarty '54. Ed Abramson will be the director of the play.

First try-outs were held last Thursday. Further try-outs will be held on Tuesday at 6:30 in room 7 of Bomberger. Every junior is urged to come and read a part; men especially are needed.

Either Margie Mersfelder, Ruth Reed, Evelyn Scharf or Molly Sharp will reign as May queen on May 9. Candidates for the exacting task of managing the May pageant are Janie Hopple, Jacky Priester and Ditty Yost.

Attendants for the May queen were selected by freshmen, sophomores and juniors last Wednesday. Freshman attendants are Robin Blood and Eileen Kinderman; sophomore attendants are Margie Moore and Mary Lou Singer; junior attendants are Jen Price and Bev. Syvertsen. Seniors will elect their attendants at 12:30 on Thursday.

May pageants, due on February 25, will be judged by a committee from the Ursinus Circle, which awards a prize of $25.00 to the author of the winning pageant. A mass meeting of women students for May day will be held on March 11. To help in judging the qualifications of candidates for manager of the pageant, the Central Nominating committee is publishing a list of their activities.

Janie Hopple is extremely active in the Curtain club. President of the honorary dramatic society, Alpha Psi Omega, she has directed three one-act plays, a three-act play, the junior show and will direct the senior show. She has done committee work for the Curtain club and has appeared in leading roles. Secretary of the senior class, Mrs. Hopple was chairman of decorations for the Senior Prom. She has appeared in previous May Preceding the Lorelei on February 27, there are to be three dinners for sorority members and their dates; Phi Psi and Tau Sig at Collegville Inn, and Omega Chi at Lakeside.

Both Phi Psi and Tau Sig have received their jackets during this past week. Kappa Delta Kappa and Omega Chi have their new jackets ordered but as yet they have not arrived.

Hudock Tells Pre-Med Society About Heart Ills

At a meeting of the Brownback-Anders Pre-Medical society last Tuesday night in S-12, the members heard Dr. Emmanuel Hudock give an address on the subject of "Heart Disease".

Dr. Hudock, a graduate of Temple Medical school who took a graduate course in cardiology at Pennsylvania Medical school, outlined the main diseases of the heart, both congenital and acquired, in an absorbing hour long address. The discussion was supplemented with movie slides illustrating the various defects of the heart and the operation procedure in correcting these conditions. The talk was intermingled with various side remarks by Dr. Hudock to those students who wish to enter the medical profession. Dr. Hudock also told of several humorous incidents which he has experienced as a cardiologist. In all, the discussion was very enjoyable and informative.

NOTICE!

The Dean's Office has requested that all men who have not reported their selective service number and draft board do so as soon as possible.

PLEA TO 57 STUDENTS

Fifty-seven students from the sophomore, junior and senior classes who are now present on campus, have not yet pledged their breakage fees to the Student Union fund. In the next few weeks these people will be contacted individually by members of the men's and women's student governments and asked to support this cause as all the rest of their classmates have done.

The pledges of these few students are all that is needed to fulfill the quota of money which we have promised to raise for this project. As soon as the quota is filled the administration has pledged itself to start actual work on the union. It cannot fulfill its promises, however, until we fulfill ours.

Let's not allow this project to be killed by procrastination and apathy, as so many similar proposals for changes have been killed in the past. Now, when we are so close to carrying out our part of the bargain, it would be a shame to have to give up the idea because of the negligence of a minority of people.

All we ask is that the fifty-seven students who have not yet pledged their breakage fees, cooperate with the rest of their class members and sign their pledge slips as soon as possible.

MOUNTAINS OUT OF MOLEHILLS

Rumors circulate with remarkable rapidity on this campus. As soon as the Dean of men makes a rule about not wearing jackets to dinner, and the Dean of women announces stronger enforcement of the handbook regulation that the girls cannot wear dungarees to evening meals, a million other regulations are manufactured out of thin air. "We can't wear jeans on campus at all any longer" or "We'll have to wear stockings to dinner," girls say in angry bull sessions.

The imaginary rules circulating at present about unseemly display of affection on campus are even more fantastic. It is not true that hand-holding is forbidden on the Ursinus campus.

The basic regulation determining social conduct is now, as it has always been, the good taste of the individual. Extreme cases of misconduct in public will be dealt with by private conferences or reminders by the deans of men and women, just as they have always been.

Let's stop making mountains out of molehills, and instead, exercise enough mature judgement so that dogmatic regulations about matters such as these will never have to be made.

The Innocent at Large

STORMY WEATHER

We received a jolt from something we read in the paper yesterday. It seems that out in Albuquerque a certain Purcell Felter got a divorce from a nagging wife who was a trifle hypercritical. Purc said he was "blamed for the dust storms, the heat, the cold and all the natural phenomena indignant to Albuquerque," and concluded by stating, "I just couldn't take it any more."

Now we feel that this is a serious matter. We had always had the feeling that the West was the land of jovial, hail-fellow people, where expansiveness prevails and pettiness dies. And along with this impression we had the guilty feeling that we Easterners had an acknowledged monopoly on acrimony—the end product of our fast, urban pace, with its dust-loving, chlorophyll-conscious, cliff-dwelling characteristics.

GO WEST

So we've been fooled, cheated, and duped into the belief that the Fah Westerners are the easy-going, good Joes, and what we Cinder-Strippers (if we may coin a term which verges on the vulgar) were the irritating lot who blamed everybody for everything, just because; and that the only hope of escape from this morass of peevishness was to "go west". But here we find out that even the Golden West can get under one's skin, and break up marriages.

But even Purc Felter (living with a nagging Western wife) had an ace up his weather-beaten sleeve: He joined the army and went to Japan. (Someone must have told him to "go west.") We hope the dust storms are not so violent in Japan.

WAA Show Merits
Good Comments

by Pat Garrow '54

"That was the cutest act!" "Those kids from Shreiner are a howl!" "How about the Petty Girls?" "Some of those lines were really good!"

These are some of the comments which were expressed after the Women's Athletic association presented their variety show in the T-G gym Monday evening.

The entire show was coordinated by Rosa Rapp, a mammoth job considering that the acts were worked up within a week of the performance. Her excellence in running the show smoothly as mistress of ceremonies has earned Sallie Lumis numerous plaudits.

The Frosh Frills opened the show with a rhythm dance to the music of "Blackbottom". Sue Holmes and Carolyn DeOlden taught the dance to the remainder of the freshmen, Robin Blood, Ruth Heller, Teddy Rapp, Ricky Bauser, Shirley Davis, and Gwen Bream.

The talented Lewis twins, Nesta and Nancy, played their piano renditions of "Tea for Two" and "Dizzy Fingers". Then by popular demand the Shreiner dramatic club again presented their famous "Our Gal Sunday".

"Just Plain Bill"

Helen Lightfoot, accompanied by Jean Austin, sang the lilting "Just Plain Bill" and a selection from "Pal Joey". "A Couple of Swells" was the novelty number presented by Ruth Reed and Pat Garrow, accompanied by Anne Edgar. Throughout the show Mary Gillespie appeared as the Italian accordion player, Ravioli. Her laugh-filled lines and the monkey dance Marna Feldt added to the general merriment of the performance.

Two delicious cakes, baked by Mrs. William S. Hoar of Pottstown were won as door prizes by Roland Hutchinson and Diana Handy.

After a short intermission, "The Barber Shop Quartette", a rollicking skit written by Rosa Rapp, drew howls from the audience. As the two barbers, Anchovi and Meatball, were Adele Boyd and Molly Sharp. The customers were Joan Jones and Genevieve Tiedeken. Audrey Rittenhouse was Casanova.

The sophomore members of the association did "Casey at the Bat" in pantomime. The narrator was Barbara Rack and the spectators were Peggy Montgomery, Bunny Hockenbury and Jane Skinner. Bobbie Harris was the umpire, Liz Mason was Casey, and Joanne Kuhn and Carol Edwards were two teammates.

In one of the most amusing acts of the evening Rosa Rapp and Ellie Unger impersonated Miss Eleanor Snell and Miss Blanche Schultz by portraying the characters, Countess von Schnell and Countess von Schultz, the noted European pianists.

The Petty Girls

The Petty Girls, or a reasonable facsimile thereof, was presented by the juniors. Dressed as the Baby New Year, Pat Garrow narrated the outlandish costumes which will be the fashion of 1953, while junior girls, representing the different months of the year, modeled the clothes.

The Five Flat Flappers, Nesta Lewis, Sue Holmes, Ruth Heller, Carolyn DeOlden, and Ricky Bauser, rendered "Dearie". And the final act of the show was the roof-raising "Pinochio" with Joan Hitchner in the title role. Rosa Rapp, author of the skit, was Lutzey the Robber, Ellie Unger was Guiseppe, the happy whittler, Edna Seifert was Blue, the fairy, and Sara Parent was the hero, Jiminy the Crick-et.

The WAA would like to thank Ed Sella, Dolores DeSola and Sandy Kabel for their time and efforts which helped make the show a success.

Newman Convention to be Held

A convention of the Middle Atlantic Province of the Newman clubs will be held in Washington, D.C., February 20-22. The Ursinus Newman club will be represented by Rev. John J. Van Stone, moderator of the group and assistant rector of St. Eleanor's church. Genevieve Tiedeken '53, president, is also attending the convention. An effort is being made to enlarge the membership of the Newman club this year, so all Catholic students are urged to attend the meetings.

WHITEY'S WIT

"JUST BECAUSE I FLUNKED ONE ENGLISH TEST, WHAT MAKES YOU THINK I'M AN EMPTY-HEADED LITTLE DAME?"

By the Way

by Evelyn Scharf '53

Never having seen the movie "Laura" before, we can only say that Hollywood missed a tremendous opportunity for a "big clinch" at the end—or maybe it was Ursinus-censored. At any rate, we think almost everyone experienced a let-down.

Honestly, we don't always complain, but there are a few gripes we'd like to air. As we understand the new ruling, B-listers no longer have unlimited cuts. In defense of the previous system, we'd like to note that few B-listers abused the privilege, and those that did usually found themselves disqualified the following semester by virtue of their grades. Certainly, it would seem that juniors and seniors could be relied upon to experience sufficient good sense to prevent the establishment of any absolute restriction.

We'd like to preface the next gripe by making the observation that meals have been consistently good (and that's a tame word)—they've been varied, well-planned, and excellent in both quality and quantity. And we'd like to congratulate Joe Lynch and the kitchen staff for their hard work. But in view of resulting digestive difficulties, we'd like to suggest the removal of pork from future menus.

Further, there never seems to be enough fish to go around Friday nights. Possibly some indication of the amount needed could be obtained by marking the number of Catholics who will be present for Friday evening meals on the week-end slips.

The series of Inter-faith seminars scheduled strikes us as being a tremendous idea. After all, the basis of true tolerance is knowledge and understanding. Don't forget—the first one on the calendar is tonight, so, after you've finished reading the "Weekly", you'll still have time enough to make it.

Nothing like searching in the dark for your coat outside the lower dining room after meals, especially if you're slightly absent-minded about where you've hung it. The only thing that saved us from an accusation of theft one night was that we noticed the coat we had on had no buttons missing.

If you want to try something new, join the scavenger hunt sponsored by the Senior class Friday night.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Canterbury Club Holds Dinner

To the editor:

I hope the rumors going around about B-listers not being allowed to cut as much as they want to are not true. It has been a tradition at Ursinus for a long time, and it would be a shame to see it done away with. After all, B-listers are supposed to be mature people who can discipline themselves without any help from a bunch of petty rules and regulations. And what's the use of having a B-list anyway, if you don't gain anything by it except a little hollow prestige?

The rumor I have heard most often is that B-listers can't cut more than six times. Six cuts is a pretty liberal allowance, I'll admit. However, the very fact that B-listers are being limited at all is sad. Most B-listers probably don't cut six times anyway. If they did they wouldn't be B-listers long. What I object to is that such a rule assumes that, even though people have proved their ability, they still cannot be trusted to look out for themselves. A rule, it seems, is still needed to protect them against themselves. Why, how is Ursinus ever going to breed good, selfreliant Republicans with rules like this?

The members of the Canterbury club enjoyed a dinner last evening in the social rooms at St. James' Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Pettit entertained the members of the Canterbury club at their home on February 9. Highlighting the meeting was Mr. H. Lloyd Jones, who spoke and showed motion pictures of his recent trip to Europe. The motion pictures featured many beautiful European churches.

I've heard another rumor that the rule—if it really is a rule—is illegal. Somebody told me that there's a specific rule in the Rule Book that says all juniors and seniors on the B-list can have unlimited cuts—"placed on their own responsibility for attendance." I think the exact phrase was. I hope that rumor is true!

Ursinus is known for its veneration of the traditional way of doing things. I sincerely hope that the tradition of unlimited cuts for B-listers is still venerated here.

Hopefully,
A B-lister.

Florida Affords Adventure for Venturesome Trekking Trio

by Bob Armstrong '54

What did you do during your between semester vacation? Did you get a job, read a couple of good books, or just sleep every minute you could? Perhaps you went on a vacation trip as so many Ursinus students did this year. What ever you did, or where ever you went, it is quite certain that you were enjoying your brief recess away from the classroom.

Three Ursinus males decided to spend their recess as far away from the classroom as they possibly could. Florida seemed to be the most inviting part of the country, so the trio began making their plans. The three, all sophomores, were Ed Dawkins, Harry Hance, and Don Parlee. Thursday, January 22, was set as the starting date. Luggage was a suitcase and a blanket roll. Transportation was the "thumb". They decided that it would be easier to obtain rides if they split up and decided upon a meeting place in the South, which they did. Harry and Don stuck together and Ed made the trip solo.

The Trip Down

Harry and Don had fine luck until they tried to get a hop out of Washington, D.C., where they were stranded for hours. A lucky ride took them into Petersburg, Virginia, where they arrived at two-thirty in the morning. Their next lift took them into North Carolina and enabled the two to get forty winks of sleep. The next ride proved to be the most interesting one on their eleven day pilgrimage to Florida. The driver was a movie agent who had a unique and interesting outlook on life. His work was mostly evening work which enabled him to have a great deal of free time during the day. In the daytime he hunted, fished, and enjoyed nature to its fullest. On Friday evening they pulled into Alma, Georgia, where they were to meet Ed. Not being able to meet him, they spent the night in a broken down auto in a parking lot.

Ed's trip down was made a little faster than that of Don and Harry. The most unusual experience of his trip contained a note of humor. One driver let Ed take over the wheel for awhile. Shortly after Ed started driving for the stranger, the car caught on fire. Unable to fix the car, the driver joined Ed in "hitching" down the highway.

Ed passed through Alma, Georgia, (the meeting place) and spent a quiet evening in Okee Finokee Swamp park, a few miles from Alma.

Experiences in Swamp Park

The three met in Swamp park the next morning, a Saturday. The trio spent five or six hours there swapping stories of their trips and observing the reptiles of the swamp. They were informed that only two men in the entire world could enter any part of the swamp and return alive without getting lost. Many motion pictures have been filmed in the vicinity. The travelers split up once again and met the next morning in front of the post office in Winter Garden, Florida, which is located on the Gulf.

The next two and a half days were spent fishing and swimming in near-by Lake John. A fallen tree which was covered with Spanish Moss was their home. The limbs were arranged in such a way to provide a private room for each. The dining room of their little home consisted of an orange grove a short distance away. Breakfast, lunch, and supper consisted mainly of oranges with an occasional fish which they caught. One breakfast consisted of fifteen oranges between the three.

The Reptile Catch

Ed's love of reptiles got the best of him. He brought back his "catch" which consisted of a rattle snake, water snakes, black snakes, garter snakes, camellions, a lizard and a poisonous scorpion. From Lake John they ventured on to Tampa.

The three tried to get a room in the YMCA there, but were told that there were no vacancies. As they left the Y they had a pleasant experience. They met a fellow who knew Paul McCleary '54, a fraternity brother of the trio on the UC campus. Their new friend found them a room for the night.

Wednesday was spent touring the town and hunting reptiles in the suburbs. Ed's keen eye spied a lizard in a most unusual place—in Don's hip pocket. The boys spent that night sleeping on the beach.

J. Alexander '01 is One Of Boy Scout Founders

The Boy Scouts were on the march last week, for we all know it was National Boy Scout week. Not only have many of our students been members of this thriving organization, but an Ursinus student, John Alexander, was one of the organizers of the Boy Scouts of America.

He came to America from Germany at the age of fifteen. He settled in Jamestown, Virginia. Then in 1895 he moved to York county and during this same year he entered Ursinus. He was one of the better Ursinus students. In 1897 he received the admission prize scholarship and in 1897 he won the Sophomore composition prize. He was also a member of our newspaper staff, which was then known as the Bulletin. The Y on campus also received much of his time.

He graduated in 1901 and in 1926 he received his doctor's degree. A great deal of his efforts were directed towards helping the youth of America, namely, the Boy Scouts.

It is only fitting, at this time, that we take a few minutes to recognize John Alexander.

were the last ones on the boat, they had to sit way out on the front. The entire day was spent fishing. The day's catch for them was 25 fish and a case of sea sickness for Harry. When they returned they sold the fish to "tourists" for one dollar and fifty cents.

They split up for the final time on Friday afternoon and headed for home. They all arrived back on campus on Sunday; Ed at nine in the morning, Harry at two and Don at four in the afternoon.

Many people take vacation trips to Florida. However, if you wish to hear more details of this most unusual trip, then you should corner Ed, Harry, or Don in the Supply store some afternoon and make them tell you the entire story.

"Did you vote for the honor system?"

"Sure did—four times!"

An Old Ursinus Institution Perpetuated by Grecian Gods

by Harold Smith '55

February is rushing time at Ursinus, and along with the process of filling out fraternity membership inevitably goes the rushing party. It is here that the members of Sigma Rho, Zeta Chi, Alpha Phi Epsilon, Demas, Beta Sigma Lambda, and Delta Pi Sigma really shine. Since these rushing parties are so important to such a large segment of the male population of Ursinus, it might be a good idea to show exactly what a rushing party is like.

The avowed purpose of the rushing party is for the rushee to become acquainted with the fraternity members, and for the fraternity members to become acquainted with the rushees. At the rushing party the rushees are given a picture of what fraternity life is like and what the fraternity is and does. It is a test of an individual's capacity. At the rushing party the prospective fraternity member's social capabilities are tested. It is also, naturally, a time for gaiety.

A rushee is picked up at his dormitory by a fraternity member and taken to the party. (The party is held at various places; it is usually difficult to obtain a place that has ever before been used for a rushing party.) On entering, the rushee is given a rushee tag, and then he has a chance to mix with those that are present. Food and liquid refreshments are at hand and freely partaken of. Upwards of forty people may attend these affairs. (The maximum fraternity membership is set at thirty members a fraternity, but alumni may attend the party too.) Many times a faculty member will be present as well.

The President of the fraternity usually gives a short talk in which he briefly outlines the purposes of the fraternity. Then the fraternity members and the rushees are introduced. Usually a fraternity member sponsors a rushee and will introduce him. Entertainment and a number of other things may now follow. No doubt the refreshments will have been heavily drawn upon by now. Group singing begins. Dartboards are provided. Group games (for example, Indian signs) are also usually played. There may also be small groups playing cards or shuffleboard. A scene and feeling of general merriment prevails.

The night and the party wear on. The refreshments are again tapped. Gradually the hall empties as the members, rushees, alumni and faculty members leave. The hall is empty. The fraternity can now determine who its new members will be. The rushing party is over. Back at the dormitories repercussions can be felt.

Girls' Court Team Hands Beaver Double Defeat

Belles' Varsity Team Defeats Strong Beaver Squad, 32-28

by Pat Garrow '54

In a clean, fast, exciting game the Ursinus Belles defeated a traditionally strong Beaver squad Wednesday afternoon as the varsity trio of guards held the opponents' forwards to only 28 points on the Jenkintown floor. The final score was 32-28 as Joan Hitchner and Joanne Kuhn hit the nets for 15 and 14 points respectively.

But not enough credit can be given to the varsity guards who controlled the backboards, intercepted numerous passes, and committed only five fouls, all in the last half. Captain Sara Parent, Adele Boyd and Margie Merrifield repeated their previous performances and played a smart defensive game.

Salting away a first quarter score of 11-4, the Belles secured the early lead and held it throughout the game. Audrey Rittenhouse hit for two points, Hitch added a pair of deuces and Jo sank two field goals and a foul shot for the 11 points. Only Target Hill could hit for Beaver.

Each team scored six points in the second stanza as Hitch hit for two buckets and Jo added one for the Belles and Ann Ramsbottom and Betty King made two and one respectively. Exceptionally close, expert guarding forced the forwards to pass and kept them from the scoring range.

After a half-time score of 17-10, the game became rougher and the Ursinus guards committed their first fouls. Eight of the Beaver 18 second half points came as the result of foul shots. Joan Hitchner sank three field goals and a foul toss, which added to Jo Kuhn's three points, ran the Ursinus total to 27 points. Beaver was successful on three foul attempts and a floor shot.

Betty King scored eight last quarter points for Beaver in a desperate attempt to overcome the Ursinus margin while the Beaver guards were holding the Belles' shooters to only two field goals. But the rally failed, Ursinus protected its lead and won the game, 32-28.

Coach Eleanor Snell used only the starting team against the Beaver array. Always a threat, Beaver pressed throughout the entire game, but were too inconsistent in their scoring surges.

Two games are on tap for the varsity this week. They meet Swarthmore this afternoon on the opponents' floor and will play a threatening Immaculata team on Thursday evening at 7:30 in the T-G gym.

Heller, Friedlin Star as Jayvees Crush Beaver, 41-27

by Pat Garrow '54

The Ursinus jayvees defeated Beaver Wednesday afternoon by a score of 41-27 as Ruth Heller and Joanne Friedlin poured 24 points through the nets for the Belles' first big win of the year.

Eddie Seifert, Ellie Unger, and Marge Abrahamson played guard for the jayvees and held the Beaver forwards to seven field goals. Many of the opponents' points came on foul shots.

The first quarter ended in a tie, 7-7. Liz Mason scored a field goal, Ruth Heller dipped two deuces and a foul shot for the Belles total. The defense held Beaver to one field goal, but five foul attempts were made to even the score. A productive second half gave the Belles a substantial lead while Eddie, Marge and Ellie were holding the Beaver forwards to two field goals. Liz dipped a two-pointer and a charity toss, Ruth tallied a pair of field goals, and Joanne Friedlin opened her scoring with five fast points. The half-time score read, Ursinus 21, Beaver 11.

The final period found Beaver scoring five foul shots and two field goals. Marilyn Freeman, Janet Haines, and Agnes Murphy entered the game at this point to replace the tired first-stringers. Jen Price scored two field goals, Polly Taylor scored one, and Lois Leonard added three points to give the Belles a last round total of 9

Swarthmore Upsets Bears Despite Herb Knull's 28

Bears Rally Falls Short as Garnets Win First of Year, 74-67; Ralph Schumacher and Herb Knull Pace Scoring

by Roland Dedikind '55

An icy hill and a victory-hungry Swarthmore five made last Wednesday evening a very disheartening affair for the Ursinus Bears as they lost to the Ardmore hosts, 74-67. The Jayvee game started an hour late as the bus carrying the Bear team and assistants found it impossible to gain the top of a long hill a half hour's distance from Swarthmore. Several varsity players aided by Ed Sella and various instructions from the bus passengers helped the driver to get the bus moving again. The contest started on schedule.

Andy Carter dropped in a set shot from the right corner and Ursinus led 2-0. However, Joe Carroll sandwiched seven points around Gene Harris' set to give the hosts a 9-7 first quarter lead. The Bears found it impossible to put together any kind of a scoring streak as they fought uphill almost the whole game. The teams were tied six times and the visitors led only five times, never by more than three points.

The Bears opened the final period only one marker behind, 47-46, and managed to hold their own for about the next three minutes. Suddenly Swarthmore put together a string of eight points within a space of 60 seconds to lead 65-52. The Bears fought back to within nine points when the hosts put on a freeze with 3:10 to go in the game. Goals by Knull and Swett and a foul by Burger narrowed the gap to 71-67 with 45 seconds remaining. A foul shot by Carroll and a goal by Cooper ended the scoring.

Incidentally, Herb was top scorer of the game with 28 points and Carroll gathered 22 for the victors. Halberg and Cooper, neither of whom had registered over ten points this season, each notched 17 for Swarthmore. Ralph Schumacher's 18 tallies completed the double figure scorers.

The Bears almost matched their opponents floor shooting average, 37% to 40.3%. Herb Knull was "on" the second half; he dropped in 8 of 12 field goal attempts.

The Swarthmore varsity and jayvee teams each won their first game of the season Wednesday night. The varsity had lost nine straight.

Blue Hens Defeat Bears With Late Surge, 83-52

Herb Knull and Gene Harris Score Half of Bears Total As Crawford Paces Delaware with 27; Burnett Eddy Stars

Any hopes for a MAC title crown went soaring out the window on Saturday night when the league leading Delaware Blue Hens defeated the Bears 83-52, thus continuing their undefeated league record. The Bears, in suffering their third league defeat and second in succession, fought hard and for a complete half hung on grimly and determinedly.

Ursinus threw up a puzzling 1-2-2 zone against the high-flying Hens which almost completely stopped the famous Delaware fast break and for a complete first period, the Bears either led or trailed by only one or two points. After Crawford opened the game with a twin-pointer, Herb Knull quickly retaliated by splitting the cords with a long one hander and before Delaware could score again, Knull had converted a foul and scored another field goal to give the Bears a 5-2 lead. After Vern Lamkin narrowed the margin to one point, Gene Harris, who received a sensational assist from Burnett Eddy, drove in for a layup which restored the three point margin.

This seeming "tug-of-war" continued to the close of the period when Ray Crawford's jump shot gave Delaware a 14-13 lead, which she never lost. From this point, the Blue Hens gradually increased their margin until the game finally began to take the semblance of a rout midway in the third period, after a 34-25 half-time lead.

Despite the seeming large score,

U. of P. Defeats Badminton Team

by Sally Lumis '53

The University of Pennsylvania Badminton team visited Ursinus Monday and defeated the Ursinus girls by winning 3 out of the 5 matches played. The 2 Ursinus victories were as decisive as the 3 losses were conclusive with wide gaps in the scoring for both sides.

The first victim to Penn was Adele Boyd, who is playing her second season for Ursinus in the top singles berth. Her improved play in the second game was not enough to outmaneuver Penn's Barbara Loftus. Second singles player, Sallie Lumis was also defeated as she fell prey to the tricky placements of Sally Cowperthwait. Nancy Laib was the only singles winner of the match and she'll move up to second singles for the next contest which will be with Chestnut Hill.

In the doubles tournament, inexperience was the downfall of Sal Parent and Joan Hitchner, newcomers to the squad, who lost to Yolande Kelly and Carolyn Kerr from Penn. Joan C. Jones and her new partner, Audrey Rittenhouse, played skillfully to defeat Nancy Hall and Bunny Hart in two rather closely-contested matches. Audrey and Joan will switch to first position on the doubles line-up for the next match. With this change and some more practice we're looking forward to better results in the remaining 5 matches of the season. Singles—A. Boyd (U) vs. B. Loftus (P), 0-11, -11; S. Lumis (U) vs. Cowperthwait (P), 5-11, 1-11; N. Laib vs. E. Wells, 11-6, 11-1. Doubles—S. Parent and J. Hitchner vs. Y. Kelly and C. Kerr, 2-15, 1-15; J. Jones and A. Rittenhouse vs. B. Hart and N. Hall, 15-11, 15-10.

Match score—Penn 3, Ursinus 2.

Wrestlers Bounce Muhlenberg 21-9

by Dick Guldin '55

Wrestling for the second time on the home mats, the Ursinus grapplers soundly spanked Muhlenberg 21-9 last Wednesday night. The Bears used three pins and two decisions to compile their winning margin.

As was expected, Ed Dawkins finished his opponent off in short order as he pinned the up-staters' Druckenmiller in 1:11. Paul McCleary continued the fast pace by waiting only one minute and fifty-two seconds to show his opponent what the ceiling looks like.

With such an auspicious start and the crowd wild with enthusiasm, Al Paolone wrestled smartly and emerged with a well earned 7-5 decision over Muhlenberg's Thomas.

In the 147 lb. class, Billy of Muhlenberg gained a 6-0 decision over Bob Guth. The up-stater's captain found it nigh unto impossible to apply a pinning hold to the strong and stubborn Guth.

In the 157 pound class, Ursinus' captain, Dick Gellman worked hard to gain a close 4-2 decision over Haines. Newcomer Fred Godshall, although losing a 7-1 decision, gained an admiring audience with his unusual style.

In the 177 lb. class, George Auccott became another pin victor when he spilled his man at 8:22 to end a brilliant match. But, the fireworks came in the heavyweight match when "Rocky" Davis fought sensationally against Muhlenberg's Hargrove, who was well over 20 lbs. heavier than "Rocky." Hargrove managed to eke out a close 7-6 decision.

Summary

- 123—Dawkins (U) pinned Druckenmiller (M) in 1:11.
- 130—McCleary (U) pinned Paul (M) in 1:52.
- 137 — Paolone (U) decided Thomas (M) 7-5.

- 177—Auccott (U) pinned Copenhaver (M) in 8:22.

Delaware Beats Grapplers 24-8; Dawkins Wins Again

Brilliant Lightweight Continues Undefeated With Fast Pin; Paolone Only Other Winner

The Ursinus grapplers ran head-long into a red hot Delaware club on Saturday afternoon and after enjoying a brief 8-5 lead, found themselves on the wrong end of a 24-8 score. Thus the Blue Hens became the first wrestling team in the history of the sport at the University of Delaware to win five consecutive meets.

Sensational Eddy Dawkins continued his winning ways by easily disposing of Neal Thomas in the very first period at 1:15, with a reverse nelson. In the 130 lb. class, Paul McCleary had to forfeit his match because of sickness.

With the score thus knotted at 5, Al Paolone sent the Bears into the lead once again when he decided Delaware's Bob Collingswood 4-2. Then followed a string of five consecutive Delaware victories, two of which were pins.

Jerry Angulo decided the Bear's Bob Guth 9-6. Bob, as always, put up a terrific fight only to be edged out in points. Bob is fast becoming one of the hardest grapplers around to be pinned. In the 158 lb. class, captain Dick Gellman found Charles Rodriguez too cagey a wrestler and lost a 10-1 decision. With the Blue Hens holding an 11-8 lead, Gene Holland decided George Auccott 8-5. George, in his first year of wrestling, has exhibited the strength necessary to become a winner, but still lacks a little more needed experience.

The match was clinched in the 177 lb. class when Nick Chapis was pinned by Vince Stallons in the first period. In the heavyweight division, Delaware's famous Schultz used a half nelson and crotch hold to pin Bob Davis in the second period.

Summary

- 123—Ed Dawkins (U) pinned Neal Thomas (D) in 1:15.
- 130—Don Rumer (D) won by forfeit.
- 137—Al Paolone (U) decided Bob Collingswood (D) 4-2.
- 147—Jerry Angulo (D) decided Bob Guth (U) 9-6.
- 158—Charles Rodriguez (D) decided Dick Gellman (U) 10-1.
- 167—Gene Holland (D) decided George Auccott (U) 8-5.
- 177—Vince Stallons (D) pinned Nick Chapis (U) in 1:03.
- Heavyweight—Schultz (D) pinned Bob Davis (U) in 5:25.

Looking 'Em Over

by Ted Wenner '53

The Middle Atlantic court season is entering its last three weeks of play now and as of Saturday night it is almost a sure bet that Delaware will romp to its second successive title. The fast-moving Blue Hens are rapidly losing all contenders with a record of five wins and no defeats and it is becoming apparent that they are growing too big for the rest of the league. They are a sharp looking outfit that is loaded down with scholarship talent and big time scorers and even their Jayvee squad is capable of holding their own with any MAC varsity, as evidenced by the 102-32 spanking they handed the little Bears on Saturday night.

It is evident that the Delawareans are moving into big-time circles by scheduling games with three of the country's better teams, LaSalle, Penn and Villanova.

Speaking of LaSalle, Penn and Villanova, it is worthy of note that ever since the recent Madison Square Garden scandals, Philadelphia is fast becoming the leading collegiate basketball center in the United States. It's been a long uphill struggle for the Quaker City, but it's been a long time since they could boast five schools, the aforementioned plus Temple and St. Josephs, with winning records against top-flight competition.

Getting back to Delaware, the Ursinus Bears, although losing, showed the local fans some razzle-dazzle of their own. Playing before a partisan crowd, the Bears did not receive any hoots with their performance. Facing a definite height disadvantage, the Bruins held their own and, but for a dismaying unfamiliarity with the Delaware "buckets", might have come close to an upset. Delaware's coach was visibly disturbed at the Blue Hen's failure to get rolling, until late in the game, and the apparent weakness in the league-leader's defense. The return match between the two clubs on March fourth on the Ursinus home boards should prove to be a very interesting game, particularly if it should turn out to be a "must" game for the Blue Hens.

This week should be one of interest to local sports fans because of two home wrestling matches and a home basketball game. On the mats, the grapplers will tangle with Haverford tomorrow and Bucknell on Saturday, while the snius home boards should prove to a home basketball game on the home courts will be buzzing with activity Wednesday night when the Bears will meet a red hot Drexel five.
