Dr. Shaffer Is Speaker at Baccalaureate

The Reverend William R. Shaffer, pastor of the Faith Evangelical and Reformed Church in Philadelphia, was the speaker at the Baccalaureate Service held Sunday in Bomberger Chapel. The topic of Dr. Shaffer's talk was "Indebted and Grateful". As college students are completing their courses of study in preparation for life, young graduates are joyous and thankful for the opportunities that have been given them in the way of training for better living. Mingled with this sense of gratitude and joy, there is also a feeling of indebtedness.

The Apostle, Paul, was cited as one who had had this same feeling. Paul was not only a Christian of great faith and strong conviction but also a man who could show results for effort expended and labors engaged in. This was because his life was marked by an inner urge.

"He felt driven," said Dr. Shaffer, "not by some dread fear nor by a morbid sense of guilt but rather by a joyful feeling of gratitude because he himself had received so much. This feeling of gratitude mingled with joy led him to a deep rooted sense of obligation. He felt that he was in debt. The gift that he had received was that of a great Faith which had turned him from an ordinary man into a giant."

Dr. Shaffer said that any man or woman who has a sense of honor assumes obligations that are his. It is only the weak who feel that the world owes them a living. The strong man wishes to make a return for all the good that he has received. When a neighbor or a friend contributes toward this happiness he is quick to respond in returning the kindness. The speaker then told of the college student who recently said to his father, "I can never pay you for all that you have done in making my college experience possible but I promise that I will some day do the same for my children or another young person."

The speaker said that with this attitude the individual will benefit most himself. This is true in society at large as well as among individuals. As long as America feels grateful and indebted to Great Britain and France for the contribution they have made to our country the danger of envy or suspicion will never threaten the safety of our country from these quarters. The feeling of indebtedness that caused the United States of America to feed the hungry and assist the helpless after the First World War and again after the Second were great factors in ennobling the life of America herself.

To read the Memoirs of Herbert Hoover is to realize the contribution made not only by one man but also of great-hearted people as an effort made to reach out to the world beyond with a hand that was strong because of love. This love was rooted in idealism and a sense of obligation to the world, "We have received, therefore we must serve," said Dr. Shaffer.

It is wise for everyone to know early in life that he is indebted not only to the world about him but also to the great Giver, God. When Paul said, "I am debtor," he added to this the thought in verse 15 of the first chapter of Romans: "So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel." Feeling this indebtedness so strongly he was ready to give a full measure to those about him in order that they share in the most enriching experience that he had known. His experience was rooted in the knowledge of God and in Christ Jesus.

In conclusion, Dr. Shaffer said, "If young people who are commencing life will enter into it with

Alumni Gather at Meeting Saturday

On Saturday, Ursinus entertained returning graduates at the annual Alumni Day. Classes from 1893 to 1952 were represented.

At noon buffet luncheons were held as reunions by several classes. After this the annual business meeting of the Alumni Association convened in Bomberger at 2:00 p.m. Dr. Norman E. McClure received the alumni at 3:00 p.m. at the annual reception in the library.

The alumni banquet was held in the dining rooms at 6:30 and following this, the Alumni dance was held in the T-G gym. Billy James and his orchestra provided the music while the entertainment was presented by members of the alumni.

The class of 1938 must be given special mention here since they have succeeded in publishing a "15-years-later" Ruby. The book includes every member of the class and his present family.

Mrs. William Helfferich is to be congratulated, for she is celebrating her 60th anniversary as a graduate from Ursinus College.

CORRECTION!

It has been called to our attention that the headline stating that Ursinus debaters triumph over LaSalle, was misleading. There were no judges present at the debate and the Ursinus coach refused to give a decision. We hope this will correct any previous and unintentional injustice.

Graduation Held Indoors For Class of 137 Members

The Commencement exercises of the Ursinus College class of 1953 were held this morning at eleven o'clock in Bomberger Hall. The Reverend J. Alfred Kaye delivered the Commencement Address on the theme, "Stand fast in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free." (Gal. 5:1)

Dr. Kaye began by saying that we are on the verge of a new and undiscovered country in the realms of psychology and the soul. Man has concentrated too long upon the material and the mechanical—the world has grown lopsided, our spiritual attainments lag far behind. And man is pre-eminently a spiritual being with hidden capacities and powers yet to be realized.

Dr. Kaye quoted the great British scientist, Sir Oliver Lodge, the prophet of the age of nuclear physics. As he described the coming of the atom and all its potentialities, Lodge concluded his address with a prayer. "I pray that man may not make that discovery until he is good enough and great enough to know how to use it."

The tragedy of the world is that man has made the discovery before he was good enough in soul to know how to use it. Here is the realm in which this generation may make discoveries and progress for the salvation of the world.

The speaker then turned to the question, "How are men of all races, creeds, and colour to dwell together as brethren in Unity? How are the animosities, the hatreds, the narrow parochialisms that we often miscall patriotism to be swept away and peace to be attained?"

"It will never be done by enslaving man," he said. No totalitarianism can achieve it. The fundamental fact of all progress is Freedom—the freedom of every individual to express himself and herself in the fullness of a redeemed personality.

The history of all that is best in modern civilization is the story of man's fight for Freedom. It is the story of Clarkson and Wilberforce, as they sought to break the shackles from the wrists of slaves. It is the story of the Covenantors of Scotland, who dyed the heather hills with their blood rather than submit to tyranny. It is the story of those who refused to live under any act of uniformity that would stifle individual freedom and mould men to a pattern. They were the Pilgrim Fathers (and the Pilgrim Mothers) who sailed uncharted seas and in the Providence of God gave birth to this mighty Republic—the sweet land of liberty. Everywhere the urge of the Soul is to be free.

"The most ominous fact for this generation is the threat to this most priceless treasure," said Dr. Kaye.

Freedom has been threatened by the onslaught of totalitarian powers. And yet, even in the countries which have shed their treasure and their blood to preserve freedom, there is a danger that this thing for which they suffered and died is betrayed by their friends. The watchword today is not Freedom but Security. "Safety first," that mean, miserable motto of slaves. Security at the sacrifice of Freedom is the rule of bureaucrats and tyrants. The men of a better day chose Freedom and threw Security to the winds as the price they paid for it.

"Things," said Dr. Kaye, "are by-products; the only security is to seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, assured that all other things will be added unto us."

Freedom is menaced when we fail to realize its true nature. It is not doing what you like. As one remarked to the inebriate, who was fingering his arms wildly and dangerously around as he shouted, "This is a free country." — "My friend, you will have to learn that your freedom ends where my nose begins."

Freedom is the discipline and

CROWDING AND CONCENTRATION

This semester a new system was used in arranging the schedule of finals. Under the new system as many classes as could be fitted in at one time were tested in S-12. We have heard from faculty sources that the objective of the plan was to make proctoring easier by having more teachers in the one room.

The system was obviously not planned to increase the comfort or the concentration of those being tested. During many exams, the students were crowded in, without even one seat between them. The confusion of locating a seat in the proper section caused the examinations to begin much later than the scheduled time.

With so many different tests being given at the same time, there were many interruptions to answer questions or give directions. After the first hour people began to leave, disturbing those taking a longer test. It was nearly impossible to settle in a comfortable position for writing. If you moved those on either side were disturbed.

We sincerely hope that when the next exam schedule is made up, the administration will have decided that the experiment was not too successful, at least from the students point of view.

CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS!

To the senior class, we of the Weekly staff would like to extend our congratulations and best wishes for a happy and successful future.

WHITEY'S WIT

by Bill Wright '55

"MELVIN DEAR, DID YOU INVITE THE ARMY?"

Thinking Out Loud

by Bob Armstrong '54 FOR SENIORS ONLY

Hey! Quit peeking! This article is for seniors, and nobody else; so if you're not a senior you had better not read this. Seniors are the only persons who will truthfully realize that what is said here is a fact. Those of us who are not in the graduating class, including the writer, will probably class this column as "hammie." Even if we underclassmen should realize the truth in this article, we'll never admit it until we also have graduated. No matter how we feel personally, the following is the honest truth.

Ursinus is a terrific little place (if you'll pardon the trite description). In spite of all our trivial gripes, it remains a wonderful college. Without a doubt, it would be an education in itself just to "live" on the Ursinus College campus for four years. There are many institutions of higher education which could come close to matching our scholastic high standard. But a purely text book education would be hollow indeed. Much more than facts and figures are necessary for a student to become a well rounded part of society. On this one point is where Ursinus College differs from just any college.

Any person who has lived at Ursinus for four years and who has not become a very well rounded individual has only himself to blame. Every opportunity for such an education has been available. I could go raving on about the presence of "an activity for every personality" and so forth, but that is not necessary. Those of you who have graduated now realize that that certain "spirit" of Ursinus has rubbed off on you, and it is now a part of you. You, and you alone, are the ones who truthfully realize that Ursinus is... "a terrific place!"

Baseball Season Closes; Burger Leads Hitters

Coach Seib Pancoast's baseball team completed their season in a winning way by defeating PMC 9-2 on Don Allebach's four hitter. That was Allebach's fifth win against no losses and Ursinus closed their baseball season with a record of 11-4, the best record since 1913, when they won 11 and dropped three.

The Bears gained victories over Johns Hopkins, 6-4; Elizabethtown, 4-1; Delaware, 10-9; Graterford Prison, 7-3; Philadelphia Pharmacy, 20-0; Swarthmore, 4-3; Haverford, 18-4 and 5-4; LaSalle, 7-6; Dickinson, 5-4, and PMC 9-2. Their losses were all by one run: Albright, 1-0; Franklin and Marshall, 8-7; Moravian, 2-1; and Lehigh, 4-3.

Burger Leads Hitters

Bill Burger led the squad in batting with .380. Gene Harris and Jack Popowich both had final averages of .300 plus. The whole team garnered 16 doubles, eight triples, and one home-run, 14 double plays, and a triple play. The team batting average was .274.

Drexel, Swarthmore Upend Tennis Team

Drexel and Swarthmore added two wins to their tennis logs for the 1953 season at the expense of the Belles. Drexel downed the Collegeville lassies by 4-1 and Swarthmore took them by 5-0.

Against Drexel, only Audrey Rittenhouse could win. She defeated Ann Louisa Willcox by 6-0, 6-3. The Vogt twins, Judy and Jean, defeated Ruth Heller and Adele Boyd and then the two doubles teams fell before the city girls. Bev Syvertsen and Nancy Laib lost by 0-6, 6-4 and 6-3. Joan Jones and Connie Ackerman went to three sets before they also lost.

Experienced Swarthmore took every match from the Belles, May 15. Peg Woford, Mary Severson and Mimi Evans defeated Audrey Rittenhouse, Ruth Heller and Adele Boyd in short order. Only Adele went to three sets. The first doubles team fell easily, but Joan Jones and Connie Ackerman extended their opponents to 9-11 in the second set before they went

Coach Pancoast is looking forward to another fine season next year. The only starter graduating is Hal Henning, number one catcher. Utility infielder Harner, whose fine work was noticed in the home stretch will also leave via the graduation route.

Don Allebach led the pitching staff with 5-0, Rowland Hutchinson was 1-0, Paul Neborak was 3-1, and Andy Carter was 2-3.

Softball Team Downs Temple

The girls' softball team allowed the alumni two runs in the seventh inning to lose their first game in many years. However they still have a clean slate to keep their undefeated record for scheduled games as they dropped Temple twice and downed Swarthmore.

In the alumni game both the runs were unearned. Polly Taylor pitched three hit ball as the Belles faced fast-baller Irma Keyes, about the best ever to pitch for Ursinus.

But it was downing the traditional rivals that gave the Belles the biggest thrill. Temple fell in the first game by 13-1. Polly Taylor pitched again, this time a two-hitter. The Belles scored three runs in the first, five in the second, and one and two in every inning from there on. Temple pushed its run across in the third inning.

Belles Ditto Temple

In the second game played here at Ursinus the Belles were behind two and nothing. But Temple soon felt the sting of Polly's pitching and the hitting of the Belles. The score this time was 12-1.

In between the Belles met and defeated Swarthmore, 27-2. Behind Polly Taylor and Sara Parent the Belles racked up run after run without letting up. Most of the scoring was done in the first five innings before the Swarthmore girls could realize the threat of the Ursinus bats.

Court Squads Beat Temple

The girls' varsity tennis team closed its season with a 4-5 log as they defeated Temple, May 20, by 4-1. Ursinus lost only in second singles match.

Previously, the team had lost to West Chester in a close match, 2-3. Audrey Rittenhouse, Ursinus first singles player, upended Sallie Ginter by 6-0, 5-7 and 6-4. Audrey's improvement over this season has been tremendous and it must be remembered that she never played tennis before she came to Ursinus.

In the second singles slot Ruth Heller took a licking from Anne Feeney, player-manager of the West Chester squad, by 9-7, 6-3. Janet Hughes duplicated for West Chester in the third singles position as she upended Adele Boyd by 6-3, 6-2.

In the second doubles Ursinus again lost as Joan Jones and Connie Ackerman fell before Margie Hopkins and Peg Brooker. Their score was 6-3, 6-4. But Bev Syvertsen and Nancy Laib gave Ursinus its second win of the day when they downed Nancy Hunsicker and Jackie Main by 6-1, 6-4.

The junior varsity also encountered the West Chester squad that same day. They emerged victorious by 3-2. Marge Merrifield and Pat Condon in the first and third singles slots took their matches with excellent tennis. Marge was extended to three tiring sets before she could defeat Jan Gibbons by 6-2, 4-6 and 8-6. Pat won easily over Herma Freitag by 6-1, 6-2.

Nancy Veulich of West Chester beat Sallie Lumis by 6-3, 6-4 in the second singles match. In the doubles matches Jen Price and Jo Kuhn trounced Fran Benner and Shirley Frederick in three sets. Their scores were 6-2, 4-6, 6-3. Phyl Stadler and Ricky Bauser failed to come through as they lost to Pud Adick and Norma Ort by 6-3, 6-1.

In the Temple matches the varsity was led again by Audrey Rittenhouse as she won 8-6, 6-1. Ruth Heller was defeated but Adele Boyd and both the doubles teams won. The junior varsity also won.

Behind the Sports Scene

by Dick Bowman '55

Records were smashed like clay pigeons in the recent Interfraternity Track Meet, won by Alpha Phi Epsilon with 42 points. Zeta Chi was second with 34. Demas third with 29, Sigma Rho and Delta Pi Sigma tied for fourth with 17, and Beta Sig tied for fifth with the Independents at 5 points each.

In the mile the highly touted Donnie Hower of the APES ran a record-shattering 5:20 to erase the former mark of 5:35 set last year. Zeta Chi's Dick Glock roared down the century in 10.5 to alter the mark of 10.8 he set last year. In the mile, Hower, exhibiting championship form, was the leader all the way, although he was nicely pressed by Beta Sig's Ed Dawkins, wrestling great. Dawkins' time of 5:30 was also ahead of the old standard; Glock, whose participation in the F. and M. meet the day before caused quite a bit of controversy, ran the 100 in bare feet, but pulled a muscle and was unable to compete in the 220.

Other broken records include Hower's 28.2 in the 220 lows and Bill Burger's 5-ft. 4-in. leap in the high jump. The former barrier mark was 30.4 set by Vogel in 1952 and the high bar record was 5-ft. 3 1/2-in. set by Ed Mewing in 1950.

Ursinus, one of the smallest colleges competing in the Middle Atlantic field of 17 finished a startling sixth, aided by third place discus-man Bob Swett and runner-up hurdler Dick Eshbach in the high and low fences. Swett, the towering weights mainstay, hurled a 14-ft. toss. Eshbach, the master barrier-man in Ursinus track history, set a new school record in the highs when he finished a disputed second to Tabbott of Haverford. According to Coach Gurzynski, the two were clocked about even at 15.2. Thus, the Ursinus record is the 15.2 agreed upon to save argument. "Esh's" time of 15.2 bettered the record which he had again broken in the F. and M. meet of 15.5. The Philadelphia Inquirer described the race as being the most exciting event of the day. Charles Peoples of LaSalle dove at the tape but fell short and finished third. Coaches and fans alike showed evident disfavor at the judges decision which gave Tabbott the first. Winning time was 15.2, and from many sources, including Tabbott himself the opinion was that Eshbach won by a slim margin. Eshbach's second place effort in the lows was 25.3.

Track Team Wins First

In the F. and M. meet, Ursinus garnered its first win against a Franklin and Marshall school this year, a 73-53 affair. Ursinus won ten of fourteen events, dropping only the distances—mile and two mile—the 440, and the pole. The Diplomats made a perfect haul on the pole vault, but the Grizzlies matched this feat in the 100 and the shot. The win was the first for the trackmen.

Paolone, Eshbach Captains

Recent elections placed Al Paolone at the helm of the wrestling team for next year and Dick Eshbach at the head of the track squad. Paolone, the determined and able 137-pounder is a junior next year. He has shown leadership qualities in practice and in actual competition, and won a third place medal in the Middle Atlantic last season. Eshbach, incomparable in the barriers, is a three year letter-winner and holds both Ursinus records—15.2 in the highs and 25.2 in the lows. He took two seconds in the Middle Atlantic.

culture of the Soul of Man—the recognition that there is nothing of greater value in the world, for what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul? It is based upon the revelation of God in Christ. "For Freedom Christ has set us free. Stand fast."

"It is no wonder," said the speaker, "that those who would enslave men first abolish such a faith—they know it is the supreme enemy."

But if Communism be atheistic materialism then I fancy that in your country and mine "fellow-travellers" are found in many places where McCarran and McCarthy never think of looking for them.

In closing, Dr. Kaye referred to Immanuel Kant's three imperatives for rational life which abide for ever—belief in God, Freedom and Immortality, "and these three are one," he said.

"As you go forth to meet the challenge of life, give to the Soul of man—to your own Soul—the supreme priority. Hold fast to faith in our priceless treasure and stand fast, never submitting to the yoke of slavery."

Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike...

IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.
