*Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler.*

*Long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;*

*Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;*

*Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,*

*And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!*

*Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.*

*I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:*

Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—

*I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.*
