'Phila. Story' to Be Presented May 8, 9 & 10

Roberts, Crawford, Davis Have Leads in Spring Play

The Curtain club will present The Philadelphia Story by Philip Barry starring Howard Roberts '53, Barbara Crawford '53 and Tom Davis '52 on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Mr. Donald L. Helfferich has directed the play which is set in the sophisticated atmosphere of main line Philadelphia.

The other members of the cast are: Ernest Roemer '52, Doris Thompson '54, Joan Higgins '54, Harry Feulner '53, Nancy Bergmann '55, Mike Van DePutte '54, Dave Winther '52, Ed Noel '53, Fred Reiss '53, Marge Mersfelder '53, Doris Fite '52, Jack DeLuca '52, and Ed Abrahamson '54. With the exception of Ed Abrahamson, Howard Roberts and Tom Davis all the people are newcomers to the Ursinus stage.

Performances will be held in the T-G gym. Curtain time is 8:00 p.m. All seats, reserved and unreserved, will be $1.00. Students will be admitted on their matriculation cards on Thursday night. All students are asked to be sure to inform parents about The Philadelphia Story.

Elections for next year's officers of the Curtain club will be held Monday, May 12, after lunch in front of Freeland hall. All Curtain club members are urged to vote. Those nominated are: president, Ed Abrahamson '54 and Dolores DeSola '53; vice president, Jim Scott '53, and the loser of the presidency; secretary, Marna Feldt '53 and Marge Mersfelder '53; treasurer, Lionel Frankel '53 and Ed Sella '54; historian, Nancy Bergman '55 and Glenna Faust '54.

Music Club to Hold Elections Tomorrow

Candidates for Music club officers have been nominated and will be elected on Tuesday, May 6, at 12:30 p.m. in front of Freeland. Candidates for president of the Co-ordinated Music Organizations are Bob McCarty, Jim Bright, Joe Bintner, Charlie Haverstick, and Ken Weisel. The second highest candidate in the elections will become vice-president this year; this decision was carried by a motion of the organization members last week.

Other candidates are: secretary, Peggy Ludwig, Chloe Oliver, Marilyn Engelman, and Joan Strode; treasurer, Jean Austin, Frank Kehler and Dan Kratz.

Meistersingers held elections of officers on May 1 and the following are new officers for 1952-53: business manager, Walter Long '54; wardrobe custodian, Jack Matlaga '54; secretary, Dorothy Schultz '54; and librarians, Carolyn Ertel '54 and Helen Lightfoot '53.

All members of the band, Meistersingers, Messiah and operetta choruses are eligible to vote in the Music club elections on Tuesday.

Students Will Be Charged for All Overdue Library Books

A number of students will soon be receiving dues notices from the Library, and will probably wonder why these fines have to be paid. The system of dues was not set up to be a police power or to burden students. Instead, it is used to aid and benefit the students.

The Library is concerned mostly with overdue reserve books, since these books are in the greatest demand. Actually, the small overdue charges help to enforce the return of the books so that they will be available for all students.

The charges are very low and reasonable. For one-week-reserve books, three-day-reserves, and two-week books, the fee is two cents. For overnight reserves the charge is fifteen cents for the first hour, and ten cents for each hour after

PRE-MEDS ELECT OFFICERS

The new officers of the Pre-Med society were announced at the dinner dance Friday night at Brookside. Cliff Wilson '53 was elected president, and Ruth Reed '53 secretary-treasurer at elections held last Tuesday night.

Y Cabinet Assumes Duties at Retreat

Joan Kacik '54 and Ken Weisel '53, new co-presidents of the Y, have selected the new cabinet members, who assumed their functions at the Y retreat. The members are as follows: co-chairmen of Social Responsibilities commission, Janet Haines '54 and Joe Bintner '54; co-chairmen of Campus Affairs, Jen Price '54 and Dan Schwenk '55; co-chairmen of Student Worship, Ann Hausman '54 and Jim Bright '54; co-chairmen of Political Action, Sarah Grater '53 (other chairman not yet appointed); co-chairmen of Publicity committee, Peggy Montgomery '55 and Charles Haverstick '54; co-chairmen of Membership committee, Marilyn Engleman '54 and Ed Dawkins '55; Community Chest representative, Bill Zimakas '55; Chairman of the Reception committee, Kathy Wagner '54; Historian, Mary Faust '55; and Business Manager of the Rec Center, Bob Grant '53.

The final Y Fireside chat of the year was held last Wednesday night at the home of Mr. William Pettit with Mr. Pettit and Mr. Geoffrey Dolman as leaders of the discussion. The topic, "How to make Ursinus more attractive to prospective students", was divided into two sections, the first involving what the students themselves can do to help the present situation and the second what the college and the students need.

It was decided that all students should cooperate by being on the lookout for good prospective students and trying to interest them in the college, and by entertaining friends here at school.

Inter-Sorority Group Holds Annual Party

The Inter-Sorority council held its annual spring party for all sorority members and freshmen women on Monday night, April 28 in the upper dining room. Marjorie Fretz, president of the council served as mistress of ceremonies and prior to entertainment presented by members of each sorority, gave a brief history of the council.

The council is composed of the president and vice president of the campus sororities which include Alpha Sigma Nu, Kappa Delta Kappa, Omega Chi, Phi Alpha Psi, and Tau Sigma Gamma.

Final Plans Set for May Day Pageant, Campus Activities

Final preparations for the annual May Day celebration and pageant, presented by women students of Ursinus on Saturday, May 10, are being completed this week.

The pageant, The Stolen Princess of Fantasy, written by Audrey Harte '53, will begin at 3 p.m. on Patterson field if weather conditions are favorable. In case of rain, it will be presented in the new Ursinus college gymnasium. During the performance refreshments will be sold in a booth on the field.

Following the conclusion of the pageant the college girls' softball team will defend its championship title in the annual father-and-daughter softball game. A buffet supper will then be served in front of Freeland hall. In case of rain, supper will be served in the upstairs dining room.

Bringing to a close the May day festivities is a performance of the Curtain club's annual spring production, this year The Philadelphia Story.

May Day pageant practices for the coming week will rehearse in the new Gym Monday, May 5, beginning at 4:00 p.m. This includes the King, the Queen, the Courtiers, the Witch, the Nurse, the Chancellor, Distress, the Ballerinas, the Cooks, the Wise Men, the Jesters and the Militia.

The second half will rehearse in the New Gym on Tuesday at 4:00 p.m. This includes the King, the Queen, the Chancellor, the Herald, the Messengers, the Prince, the Workers, the May Pole dancers, and the May Queen and her attendants. On Wednesday afternoon at 3:00, (Continued on page 6)

Music Club to Give Concert

The Coordinated Music organizations announce a concert to be held on Thursday, May 15, at 7 p.m. in Bomberger hall. All students are welcome to attend, and all students desiring to participate by rendering solos or duets of any type are invited to contact Jay Ely or Dr. Philip.

The Meistersingers will also present several selections at this concert. Recently the Meistersingers have been presenting a series of excellent concerts in various southeastern Pennsylvania churches. On Sunday, April 20, the group journeyed to Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church, Philadelphia, and on Sunday, April 27, they presented a special sacred music concert at Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church, Norristown. Tuesday evening, April 29, the group was in Reading at St. Stephens Evangelical and Reformed church. Dr. William Philip is director of the Meistersingers.

WSGA Endorses Removal of Posters

A request has been made by Mr. Horace Godshall that all campus organizations remove their posters immediately after the activity they publicize has taken place. This request was endorsed and suggestions made for enforcement by the Women's Student council at their meeting in Maples Hall last Tuesday night.

The question of freshman representation on the Central Nominating committee was also discussed. (Continued on page 6)

New 'Lantern' Head Selected by Staff

Miss Marna Feldt was elected editor of the 1953 Lantern at a meeting of the staff members held last Wednesday under direction of the present editor, William LeKerneck.

Miss Feldt is a graduate of Rumson H.S., Rumson, New Jersey, and a major in Physical Education, class of 1953. She is a member of the Stars and Players group of the Curtain club, the WAA council, and Phi Alpha Psi sorority. She was a co-editor of the literary publication of her high school, and has been a member of the Lantern staff for two years. Miss Feldt plans to teach physical education upon graduation.

MARNA FELDT

Kern Chosen Vice-President; Alameno Is Sec'y-Treasurer

Members of the Men's Student council elected Dan Giangliulo '53 president at a meeting last Tuesday night.

At the same time, Jay Kern '54 was elected vice-president, and Carmen Alameno '53 secretary-treasurer.

Tom Davis, the retiring president, administered the oath of office to the new officers.

Giangliulo, a biology major, has served as a member of MSGA previously. He is a member of the Newman club, and he is an active member of the Beta Sigma Lambda fraternity. He also has a self-help job in the kitchen. Giangliulo intends to do graduate work after he is graduated.

Kern, a physics major, has been a member of the MSGA council for the past two years, has played varsity baseball for two years, is the treasurer of Zeta Chi fraternity, a member of the pre-medical society and a waiter.

Alameno is a biology major, a waiter, vice-president of the Newman club, a member of the B-List, and a member of Ape fraternity.

Future Teachers to Hear Talk Tuesday

Dr. Paul J. Jones, well-known author and editor, will speak to the Future Teachers of America tomorrow night at 6:45 in room 7 of Bomberger. All students are invited to attend.

Dr. Jones is, at present, the editor of "Candid Shots" in the Evening Bulletin. He also writes editorials for the Bulletin, The Saturday Evening Post, and several other publications. As a free lance writer for many years, Dr. Jones contributed stories to The Saturday Evening Post, Liberty and Colliers.

A professor of romance language at the University of Pennsylvania for ten years, Dr. Jones also took an extended tour to South America in the interest of improving U.S.-Latin American understanding. Articles written enroute were sent back and published in the Bulletin.

Bus. Ad. Club Reorganizes; Bennett Elected President

The Business Administration club held a reorganization meeting last Tuesday night after dinner in room seven of Bomberger to discuss plans for next year's activities and to elect officers. Officers elected were: president, Herbert Bennett '53; vice president, Russ McConnell '53; secretary-treasurer, Walter Kratz '53.

The main topic of discussion was an Ursinus College radio station. According to the proposed plan the station would be run on a business basis with scheduled programs and paid commercials. The station would have a broadcasting range in (Continued on page 6)

New Selective Service Test Scheduled to Be Given May 22

Selective Service headquarters has announced that an additional Selective Service College Qualification test will be held May 22 for the benefit of students prevented by illness, emergencies or some other reason from taking the test on December 13, 1951, or April 24, 1952.

Men desiring to take the test must make application for new admission tickets. Admission tickets which students failed to use on the previous dates will not admit them to the May 22 test.

Application blanks for the May 22 test may be obtained by students from the nearest local board. They do not have to return home to the local draft board which has jurisdiction over them. Applications for the May 22 test should be mailed to the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N. J., no later than midnight May 10, 1952.

To be eligible to take the test, an applicant must be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time college course leading to a degree and must not previously have taken the test. A score of 70 or better must be achieved in the test to qualify a student for deferment.

Class standing among male members in the upper half of the freshman class, upper two-thirds of the sophomore class or upper three-fourths of the junior class is also considered as a criteria for deferment, but Selective Service headquarters urges all students to take the Selective Service College Qualification test also.

MORE PRIDE NEEDED

Is Ursinus capable of caring for and appreciating the much-discussed Student Union? This question is asked in a letter, published elsewhere on this page, which discusses the mistreatment received by the Y Rec center during the past winter.

The letter states specific examples of neglect, disrespect for property and petty thievery. These things have been occurring all winter and hardly anybody who uses the Rec center casually has thought much about them.

Most of them have probably been careless and a few, especially those who have devised ingenious stealing tricks, probably feel very proud of themselves.

We can't help but feel that people are strange. If money was stolen from a dormitory in a mysterious fashion, everyone in the place would be concerned and think the deed was horrible.

When the Y Rec center gives way to the Student Union and the whole school is made responsible for the care of the place, instead of one specific organization, perhaps this attitude and the resulting mistreatment will disappear.

We agree with the writer of the letter, that when a whole college uses a recreation center, more pride in its upkeep should be shown.

AMIDST THE MADDING CROWD

Super-Patriots Gag Opinion

by Richard Richter '53

The owl-eyed, idiotic super-patriots of this celebrated breeding ground for super-patriots have sunk their talons into the grey matter of this country, far more, than you think.

Their great, patriotic crusade for conformity of thought is just beginning to roll, and sooner or later, if we aren't careful, it will roll right over top of us. The greatest, most owl-eyed, most idiotic super-patriot that we can boast of at the present is, of course, Joe McCarthy.

THERE ARE MORE

But don't misunderstand. Joe isn't the only super-patriot we have; he's only commander-in-chief of the owl-eyed idiots. All over the country, legionnaires, upright Rotarians, and other groups and individuals are being scared by pressure from outside America into making us conform to their narrow views.

But all that is happening somewhere else, not here? I beg to differ. There are those here who believe, actually believe, that Joe McCarthy is doing good.

YOUTH SILENT

The idiotic campaign for conformity is having pernicious, unholy effects on youth in America. Associate Justice William O. Douglas put it this way recently: "Youth is still rebellious; but it is largely holding its tongue.

The problem facing us is obvious: to talk or not to talk. The answer to the problem is even more obvious: the hell with the super-patriots; let's talk!

Spirit Group Meets to Plan Program for Next Year

The Spirit committee met last Thursday at noon to discuss its program for the 1952 football season.

The committee considered the possibility of having freshman customs committees collaborate with the Spirit committee on posters, bonfires and other phases of the pep campaign.

The committee's last meeting for this term is scheduled for Wednesday night after supper in Bomberger Hall.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Students: There has been much talk about a future Student Union, and present plans are underway to put several thousand dollars into renovating the basement of Bomberger.

For the basis of this question allow me to cite my experiences with the now present inadequate Rec Center. It is quite difficult to find volunteers to be in charge of the place for every hour the students wish it open.

The greatest problem, and the one I wish especially to bring to light, is the disrespect for property and the low grade petty thievery. Everyone can notice for himself the fast depreciation of new paint on the walls and new equipment after it is put in use.

Knowing this now, I ask you as a student body to show more respect for the present Rec Center and for any future Student Union that may be built.

Boyd Schellhase, co-chrm., Campus Affairs Com., YM-YW

To the Students and Teachers:

The contention of the superiority of foreign automobiles printed in this newspaper recently (April 21, 1952) has inspired me to defend and compare the so-called, fat beasts, poor handling, underpowered barges, designed and mass-produced neither for economy nor in good taste.

Why the automobile? It was originally designed as a piece of transportation for almost anyone and everyone to operate... including you and me.

AN APOLOGY

We regret to say that due to the unpredictable shortage of space upon this page, the usual Weekly column The Innocent at Large by Bill Lukens, will remain at large until next week.

day. This means that a manufacturer must design one product to be mass-produced to meet the needs of millions of people.

Salesman Sam, for instance, travels through four states every month in all kinds of road and climatic conditions. William Worker, who is sick and tired of operating a machine at a factory all day, just wants to relax in the comfort of his Buick driven by an automatic shift.

It is inconceivable that a high-spirited, temperamental, and expensive sports car could fulfill the transportation needs of more than a mere few of hundreds of thousands of people.

It is true that cars like Allard, M.G., Jaguar, Alfa-Talbot, Alfa-Romeo, and Ferrari, (to name a few), are handcrafted masterpieces of workmanship and quality.

In order to produce automobiles for all, it is necessary as a practical measure to sacrifice some quality and individuality inherent in a sports car.

Sincerely, A Motor Enthusiast

By the Way . . .

by Evelyn Scharf '53

Well, true to last issue's prediction we've returned, minus red spots, to wield our penn again. First, we'd like to acknowledge the wonderful job Audrey did while we were on an extended vacation;

With the advent of spring comes the annual social whirl with events going off like a string of fire-crackers—some with a louder bang, of course.

Unfortunately, the Junior-Soph week-end coincided with a mass exodus from campus. Those few who attended the picnic came back gorged on pop and, of all things, hot dogs.

Have you noticed the current crop of lobsters, or should we say tomatoes, today? Two to one they're the Phi Psiers who journeyed to Ocean City to worship the sun over the week-end.

Not only have those week-ends at the shore begun but also the dinner dances. And along about this time interest in engagement rings and pins takes to the fore ahead of impending exams.

There was a good turn-out at the Inter-sorority council's party for freshman women Monday night—and it seems a good time as well.

And who could forget that serene Tuesday night! We mean it as a compliment—there was some pretty terrific harmonizing and that uke background was no idle plunking.

Many Infected By Senioritus

(A Scientific Discussion)
by John Billman '52

There is a more prevalent disease than measles rampant these days at Ursinus. Attacking only Seniors, it is that dread academic disorder which causes anemia of the cerebral regions known in the slang of the supply store as Senioritus.

This is an evil malady. It strikes down only those students whose resistance to it has been destroyed by four or more years as an undergraduate. Underclassmen can have only vicarious information of this disease.

Ursinus presently is in the throes of a serious epidemic of this iniquitous debilitation. For the unafflicted let me describe the symptoms of senioritus. The first thing noticeable in a victim is the insidious creeping paralysis of the receptive neurons which lead to the brain. As a result one's powers of concentration and original thought become paralyzed. A patient with senioritus is liable to answer the question . . . "What are the causes of the French Revolution?" with the erudite reply, "I think that television is certainly poor entertainment". If this same scholar tries to hide his disorder he is liable to reply to the above question by saying, "The French Revolution was one of the most dramatic, exciting, romantic things that happened in France in 1789, etc., etc."

You can see by these responses that the victim of senioritus regresses to an early academic age and takes on a sophomoric attitude. But unlike his illustrious cohorts of the class of '54 he or she (sex is no factor) has lost the spirit of scholarly competition. Again we hear such typical symptomatic statements from victims as . . . "Well, that outside reading probably wasn't worth reading", or "Best damn outline book I've ever read". The night before a big exam one of the shorn lambs of '52 is likely to say, "What's playing at Pottstown?"

There are two reactions to this plague . . . resistance and passive acceptance. Those who resist try to fight the disease. They study late, get blood shot eyes, become disillusioned, vote for Taft and then try to drown their sorrows at the local grogshops. Not finding their answer there they try to end it all by jumping in front of the Sunday traffic on Main Street or worse by going back and trying to study some more.

Those who passively accept this ailment are resigned to it and realize that it is a sign of better things to come. They seek relief in the cultural pursuits of sun bathing, cards, tennis, or trips to Montgomery Park.

The most cheerful thing about senioritus is that the remedy is known and is 100 percent effective. On commencement day they get the mass cure—their diplomas. The therapeutic power of this parchment is phenomenal. Recovery is complete but it too has complications, for the victim of senioritus now is liable to be attacked by even more distressing diseases like armyitus or marriageitus. These two maladies have no cure. Gulp!

May Pageants Present Queen In Many Guises

This year's May Day pageant will be the thirty-third pageant presented by the Ursinus women. The first May Day was on May 8, 1919. On that beautiful sunny day a lovely Ursinus co-ed was crowned queen of the May and following that were dances of different groups clad in grotesque costumes.

Later pageants took their themes from campus activities such as the pageant of 1932 called "The Bell of Kharhov." In this pageant the clapper of the bell had been stolen. The clapper was finally recovered, but the culprit was never found. Then there was the 1950 pageant when the queen was being held prisoner by a terrible magician—kinda' reminds one of the infirmarium. In 1948 the pageant was entitled, "Spring Regus." The theme went something like this—"old season's never die they just melt away." Little snow drops and snow men were made to disappear by the sun. The horrible old April who couldn't, and still can't, decide what kind of weather he wants was at last fooled himself and was forced to humbly crown the queen.

The pageant of 1949 took a serious turn by combining the gaiety of the day with the tempo of the world. "May is for U" was the title, and the May Queen was to symbolize Unity and Utopia throughout the Universe. Each country sent a representative who was seeking the honor of being crowned queen.

Last year's pageant was a very colorful one having the theme of a perplexed artist not being able to find the right color to glorify her queen. At last in an array of all the most beautiful colors of spring the charming young lady, commonly known as "Mae", was crowned Queen of the May.

This year's pageant promises some very clever, fast and modern dances. May day has always been one of Ursinus' nicest traditions. It is one that is recognized and looked forward to by people as far away as Philadelphia and Reading. (So you see, boys, it's not to be laughed at). The Stolen Princess of Fantasy will surely uphold the reputation which has been established by the previous pageants.

Parting Seniors Reveal One Last Desire

by Maxine Walker '54

"If you could have one wish granted before graduation, what would you ask for?" This was the question asked a few of our illustrious seniors by a certain wise fool. Being in the possession of an Aladin's lamp was quite a novelty even though the famous genie didn't pop out to cooperate. Just for fun twelve of our friends put on their spectacles and thinking caps and came up with some very profound and interesting wishes for the famous well. We decided to print them here just in case one of you may be acquainted with some supernatural personality who would be able to grant our dear departing comrades their last desire.

Jeanne Careless: I wish that graduation would come sooner. (Could she be hearing wedding bells?)

Paul Jones: I wish the army would declare all college graduates mentally deficient. (The army will take anything.)

Rhoda Blumenthal: I wish it would get warmer so the Phys. Ed.

classes could play tennis. (Don't you like "indoor sports"?)

Bill Poore: I wish I could ditch my two roommates and live the last few weeks in peace. (You haven't got a chance after they read this.)

Bill Beemer: I would like to see an honor system at Ursinus plus a very well organized evaluation of profs and last of all a quiet library. (No hope for that last wish about the library.)

Doris Fite: I wish I had a job for better security in the cold, cold world. (An eye for the future.)

Doris Fite: I wish I had a job for better security in the cold, cold world. (An eye for the future.)

Harry Markley: I wish that I had a job other than the one Uncle Sam has offered me. (The common cry.)

Roland Heinel: I just wish I didn't have to go into the service. (These men all agree on one thing anyway.)

Elaine Woodward: I wish Taft would be completely eliminated from all possibility of becoming a Presidential candidate and the people would all back Kefauver. (A courageous girl after our recent Ike election.)

Bill Lampeter: I would like to see a shut-out in baseball at UC. (Wouldn't we all.)

Paul Doughty: I wish that classes and administration would get behind the Student Union plan so that we could all benefit in the very near future. (Amen.)

Pete Fisher: I hope that President Eisenhower, (I hope) will educate all basketball fans in the proper scoring and timing games. (A double whammy.)

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 40...
THE WHALE

Poor guy was submerged in a veritable sea of cigarette tests! He didn't know whether he should "blow"—or just jettison the whole job! But he fathomed the matter when he suddenly realized that cigarette mildness can't be judged in one quick spout! Millions of smokers have found, too, there's a thorough cigarette test!

It's the sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke — on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why . . .

Hal Feist Hurls Seven-Hit Victory Over Swarthmore

A three-run outbreak in the second inning provided the slim margin for the Bear's third win of the season last Wednesday afternoon against the Garnet of Swarthmore. Ursinus hurler, Hal Feist turned in the outstanding performance of the year when he set the Garnet down with seven bingles and pitched his team to a 4-2 victory.

The winning surge came after Swarthmore had pushed across a run in the top of the second to lead 1-0. John Anderson led off with a single to right and Hal Feist followed with a tantalizing grounder to short. Hallberg, Swarthmore shortstop, in his haste to start a twin killing fumbled the grounder momentarily and all hands were safe. Bill Burger proceeded to lay down a perfect bunt between the pitcher's mound and first base, which he beat out to fill the sacks. With the stage set, catcher Hal Henning pounded a single to drive home two runners. When right-fielder Dick Feist reached base on the first base man's boot the bases were loaded again and Dick Glock sent the third run across with a single.

From here the game settled down to a tense pitcher's duel. Lade Whitaker of Swarthmore and Hal Feist matched each other pitch for pitch. After Ursinus had added a fourth tally in the third inning, the two hurlers pitched five consecutive shutout innings.

The Bears scored the third inning run on a lead-off triple to deep right field by third-baseman John Anderson. After Hal Feist grounded to short, Bill Burger hammered a single over second to end the Ursinus run producing for the day.

With a 4-1 lead, hurler Hal Feist kept the Swarthmore bats silent until the Garnet managed to count with their second run in the ninth inning and threatened to score more. Feist kept the Garnet hitters grounding them into the dirt and the infield, led by a brilliant fielding display by Bill Burger, backed the hurler up.

Swarthmore counted their second inning run on a hit-batsman and two singles. In the ninth, catcher Swan opened with a single to right and took third when the ball bounced away from the right fielder. The attempted rally was momentarily snuffed when Snyder popped out, but George Place walked. Third baseman, Watts, then forced Place at second while Swan scored and Winkler popped out to end the game.

Girls Net Team Gains Shutout Win

by Sally Lumis '53

The girls' varsity tennis team, after being sidelined by a week of rain, took their rackets out of drydock Wednesday and stroked their way to an easy 5-0 win over Chestnut Hill.

Barbara Stagg and Jody Wimborg took another step toward an undefeated season by scoring their third consecutive victory. Miss Stagg made excellent use of her hard-driving baseline game to defeat Elsie Gutekunst 6-0, 6-3. Mixing cross court shots with deep smashes to her opponents backhand, the number one local lass kept the match well under control.

Mrs. Wimborg followed suit, making aces from her slicing forehand trumps, to win over Peggy Watson 6-2, 6-0. Captain Jody kept Miss Watson on the move to keep her long winning string intact.

Barbara Landis, who played her finest tennis in winning her last match against Swarthmore, continued her good play in defeating Fire Talley 6-4, 6-2. Steadying her game after being extended in the first set, she breezed through the second canto without difficulty.

The two doubles teams completed

Delaware Trounces Bears 10 to 3 with 15-Hit Attack

The Ursinus diamond men ran into a hard-hitting Delaware nine last Thursday afternoon and dropped their third game of the year, 10-3.

The Blue Hens exploded for six runs in the third inning against Herb Knull to take an 8-3 lead and proceeded to connect for 15 safeties and ten runs. The Bears hopped on Delaware's starter, Wright, early to score three runs in the second inning, but after yielding a single to Harris in the third, Wright set the Bears down without a hit in the last six innings.

John Anderson opened the second frame with a line single to center and took second when the shortstop fumbled Hal Feist's grounder. Bill Burger then reached first when Delaware attempted to turn his bunt into a force play at third. With the bases loaded, Hal Henning grounded to the shortstop who booted it as a run scored. Herb Knull then grounded into a double play as Feist scored and Dick Glock hammered a single to center to drive home Burger with the third run.

Delaware shelled Knull from the mound in the third and Herb was replaced by Sare who allowed only two runs in the five ensuing innings.

Delaware hurler, Wright was untouchable in the final six innings in which he allowed only three men to reach first on two walks and an error. Although the Delaware infield committed three boots, they reeled off three precision twin killings to stifle any possible rally.

Herb Knull didn't exactly deserve his fate for rather lax fielding led to a Delaware run the first and second innings until they reached him for five hits in the third. The loss evened the Bears seasonal record at three wins and three setbacks.

Cinder Men Rout Cadets, Lose to Lehigh Runners

by Dick Bowman '55

Ursinus' track team split a brace of cinder meets last week as it bowed to Lehigh 90-36 in an away test Saturday and outpointed PMC's Cadets 69-57 at home Wednesday. The Grizzlies will face Swarthmore and Drexel in a triangular meet tomorrow. Against the Brown and White the Bears yielded eleven of fourteen events including sweeps in the mile, high jump and the shot. Versus PMC the Bruins captured eleven of fourteen events paced by triple winner Bob Swett, and double winners Will Loomis, Dick Eshbach and Bill Fisher.

The Bears were completely outclassed by the Lehigh team which can draw from 2400 students. The home club had already conquered Delaware, Muhlenberg and Gettysburg and had deadlocked with a powerful Haverford squad. The men from Bethlehem had speedy dash men and were especially strong in field events. It is in these divisions where the Bruins have their bulwarks, being weaker in the long and middle distances.

In the dashes speed-merchant Clyde Royster sprinted to the tape ahead of Loomis in the 100 yard dash with a dynamic 10.1 and the 220 with a flashy 22 seconds. Both races were quite close, Loomis finishing a step behind in both. In the weights the Engineers swept the shot put paced by Don Bell who smashed the Lehigh record with a toss of 47 ft., 10 1/2 in. Ursinus took its only field event when Swett hurled the discus 142 ft. 3/4 in. to place first. The brightest spot of the Bears' afternoon was provided by hurdling ace Dick Eshbach who raced to victory in the 120 highs with a 15.9 and the 220 lows with an even 26. His time in the 120 highs was one-tenth of a second off the Ursinus mark of 15.8. He was pressed to the wire by second-place Ray Vartanian who finished one-half step behind.

In the 220 lows, Eshbach's fine form enabled him to overtake runner-up Joe Orr in the last twenty yards.

The PMC meet was an entirely different story. After Bob Guth and John Gruber took second and third in the mile the Bears went on to win the 100, the 220, the 440, the 880, the two mile, the 120 highs and the 220 lows. Loomis bagged top honors in the 100 and 220 with a 10.6 and 23.5 respectively. Eshbach led all comers to the wire in the 120 highs with a 16.1 and the 220 lows with a 26.7. A slow track accounted for the comparatively slow times, as the meet was held following last week's tremendous rainfall.

In the 880 Ed Denkin pulled the race out of the fire with an inspiring second lap push that brought him from last to first in 2:12.3. In the two mile Herm Lintner did a fine, steady job in outlasting the field to win that gruelling run in 11:6.0. Lintner constantly trailed PMC's Rodney Smith until the gun lap when he showed magnificent stamina and courage by pushing himself past his opponent and winning by eight yards.

Bob Swett dominated all field events by taking firsts in the discus, shot and javelin. His platter toss of 147 ft. into a strong wind splintered the Ursinus record which he had previously set at 142 ft. 10 1/2 in. His javelin heave carried 168 feet while his shot landed 43 ft. 4 in. from the putting circle.

Girls' Tennis Team Beats Stroudsburg 4-1

Thursday the Ursinus Girls' Tennis team traveled to East Stroudsburg to bring home a 4-1 victory. This contest extends the Belles record to 3 wins and one defeat. First singles player Barbara Stagg defeated East Stroudsburg's Jean Hecht in a lengthy match 10-8, 4-6, 6-4. Ursinus' captain, Jody Wimberg, defeated second singles player, Elaine Hardenberg, 6-4, 7-5. Barbara Landis, although extending her opponent to three sets, lost to Polly Shetlock 4-6, 8-6, 6-3. Both of the Ursinus doubles teams were victorious. Adele Boyd and Audrey Rittenhouse defeated Joan Hudak and Mary Martin 3-6, 7-5, 6-4, while Joan Green and Martie Scheirer were victorious over Carol Mosser and Ethel Moyer 6-4, 6-3.

Summary:

Stagg (U) vs. Hecht (ES) 10-8, 4-6, 6-4; Wimberg (U) vs. Hardenberg (ES) 6-4, 7-5; Shetlock (ES) vs. Landis (U) 4-6, 8-6, 6-3; Boyd & Rittenhouse (U) vs. Hudak & Martin (ES) 3-6, 7-5, 6-4; Green & Scheirer (U) vs. Mosser & Moyer (ES) 6-4, 6-3.

Gellman Elected To Captain 1953 Wrestling Squad

by Dick Guldin '55

At the close of the 1950-51 wrestling season, the wrestling squad chose Dick Gellman as captain for next year. Dick, a tried and proven mat man promises "as good and perhaps a better team than we have had in the past two years." He expects to win at least a majority of the matches.

Dick is a Business Administration major and a very popular fellow on campus. Aside from wrestling Dick belongs to the Apes and Varsity club. He is seen usually at the Supply store consuming his favorite food which is ice cream. All his other spare time is spent around Maples hall where an "attractive young blond" rooms.

During the summer Dick spends his time working as a lifeguard at Jones Beach, N. J. His favorite outdoor sports are hunting, fishing, boating and holding up the rake at the tennis courts.

Theodore Roosevelt High school in New York can be proud of this fine young man for his achievements. Wrestling first became a prime interest at a YMCA in New York. However Dick had no previous varsity experience before coming to Ursinus. Dick pays a fine tribute to his coach. He says, "Of all the matches we have been in, we have been in as good a shape or better than our opponents. This we can thank our Coach Curt Wieneke for doing." His future expectations are hampered by army service.

Stolen Gloves Halt Intramural Games

by Bob Odenheimer '53

The Men's Intramural softball loop was temporarily suspended because some careless or irresponsible person or persons have failed to return equipment issued by the school. The suspension, coupled with inclement weather, has virtually kept the league at a standstill. Stine hall was leading the circuit with three victories and no setbacks before activities were halted. Their last triumph was a 9-8 affair with Off-campus in eight innings. Curtis III regained their winning stride by drubbing their interdorm rivals Curtis I, 13-3. It was the second win for Curtis II in three starts, while Curtis I suffered their first loss after winning their opener. Other scheduled contests have been postponed because of the weather but will be played along with the regular tilts once the equipment has been returned to the gym.

EDITOR'S NOTE

For more than a week now, Intramurals have been halted because possibly a few of our students have seen fit to steal a couple of softball gloves, given out for their use. This has had only the effect of ruining the athletic activities for a lot of men students and nullified a lot of hard work on the part of Don Young who has made this Intramural league possible. Games will continue to be canceled until these gloves are returned. If anyone should know the whereabouts of these gloves, it would be greatly appreciated if they are returned to Don Young.

The Ursinus Bears, who are fighting against the woeful throes of a slump, took another hard right to the chin Saturday from Moravian 12-5, a defeat which dropped them below the .500 mark.

The Bears fought gamely and argued vehemently in a game which lasted over three hours, but to no avail as Moravian hitters pounded out nine hits and took full advantage of them to score 12 runs. The defeat, the third in the last four games, was especially disheartening because the Bears muffed many golden opportunities to score when they lashed out ten hits and had runners on base every inning, except the first.

In the first inning, starting pitcher, "Lumps" Lampeter faced a bases loaded situation with no one out when he struck out Moravian's clean-up hitter. After whipping two strikes across on the next batter, Seifert, the left-fielder slammed a ball to left field which was fair by inches as it hit the chalk line and the double cleared the bases to give the up-staters a lead they never lost.

Ursinus struck back in the second when they too loaded the sacks with no one out, but all they could do was score one run when Lampeter walked with two out.

This was to be the tip-off for what was to follow because the Bears proceeded to leave a final total of 15 men stranded on base. Their second run came in the sixth inning on Dick Glock's double with two on base.

In the seventh inning, Jay Kern led off with a drive that cleared the right field fence for a home run and before the inning was over, the Bears had counted again on a walk and two singles, Hal Henning's one baser driving home the run. This was the catcher's third straight hit and he connected for his fourth in the ninth. This hit led to the Bear's final tally, denting the plate on Dick Glock's second hit of the game.

Lampeter was shelled from the box in the fifth inning when Moravian's, Salabsky, belted a three-run homer and reliever Bill Buchanan hurled effective ball for the remainder of the game until two errors led to three Moravian tallies in the ninth. The up-staters, although garnering only nine hits had one homer, two triples, and three doubles.

Freshman Gene Harris had his six game hitting streak snapped while Dick Glock extended his to six straight.

Y Retreaters Spend Enjoyable Weekend

Yesterday 80 sunburned Y retreaters returned from Camp Mensch Mill where they spent their annual spring week-end. Ken Weisel '53 and Joan Kacik '54, new presidents of the YM-YWCA were the leaders of the retreat while Mr. and Mrs. Roger Staiger, Mr. H. Lloyd Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller, and Dr. and Mrs. Donald Baker were chaperones.

On Saturday morning the members of the Christian Association discussed events of the past year and made plans for next year. The Professors' panel, Fireside chats, and Y dinner, were hailed as successful. The group decided to continue these projects with topics interesting to Ursinus students. Among the proposals for improvements was the revision of solicitation for the Campus chest. Another Student-Faculty show for the Chest was recommended. In the afternoon the four commissions discussed in detail their various projects. The YM-YWCA part of the Freshman Orientation program will again consist of the publication of the Freshman guide and a Y pamphlet, the sponsorship of a vesper service and a dance. At the end of the day Rev. Alfred Creager summarized the discussions.

In the evening the retreaters square danced to the calling of Rev. Richard Bishop until their feet were sore. Then they completed the evening with an echo sing across the lake.

Jane Hellie '50 spoke about "Practical Christianity" at the Sunday worship service on Vesper Hill. Other highlights of the retreat were—the volleyball games, a such as a student union, swimming pool, provisions for out-of-state students (laundry and housing during vacations), a rise in the activities fee to improve the social program, the supply store to act as an annex to the post office, and more publicity for individual students. The meeting closed with the feeling that perhaps constructive changes may be made at Ursinus.

Yesterday at the vesper services the new officers of the YM-YWCA were inducted for the year 1952-53. The Meistersingers provided special music.

the entire pageant will rehearse in the New Gym.

On Thursday afternoon at 3:00, the entire pageant will rehearse on the football field, and on Friday afternoon at 3:00, there will be a dress rehearsal of the entire pageant on the football field.

Everyone must attend these rehearsals. Also, it is most important that everyone work on his committee. Laura Bechtle asks that there be complete co-operation and co-ordination of the committees, and assures that the pageant will be good with the help of all those concerned.

Molly Sharp '53, Thelma Carlin '54, Nancy Morrell '54, and Irene Schweitzer '53, O Chi members, presented several numbers in their barber-shop quartet style and a chorus composed of members of Sigma Nu completed the entertainment with an arrangement of "Night and Day". Refreshments were served following the formal program.

the Collegeville area. Mr. Donald L. Helfferich has approved these tentative plans but has said that the only way to carry them out is to have full student support of the undertaking.

The club also discussed the agenda for next semester and started to make plans for special guest speakers, films, and field trips.

The faculty sponsors of the club are: Mr. James R. Herbsleb, Mr. Harry C. Symons, Mr. James C. Hirst, Dr. Harvey R. Vanderslice.

WSGA Endorses

The council decided that freshman representation was justified since both the secretary of the WSGA and the members of the Freshman Customs committee are nominated by the Central Nominating committee. Actual voting and action were deferred for the new council.

Marge Mersfelder, treasurer, reported that the WSGA has a balance of $61.75 in the treasury. Martha Daniels '52 presided at the meeting.
