Dedication

Universality, in a dedication, can hardly be considered a prerequisite; moreover, this particular publication being the type of chronicle it is, a dedication of "The Ruby—1962" to the world would serve little purpose other than that of amusing the cynic or ultimately satisfying his counterpart, the true humanitarian.

But there is a portion of the universe that has been institutionalized as Ursinus College, and it is only through that segment of the human whole that is, has been, and will be directly connected with her that she lives.

We therefore dedicate "The Ruby—1962" to the three time phases comprising the entirety of Ursinus College's being, one third of which is at present our own. We dedicate it to our prejudices and to our acceptances, to our shortcomings and to our abilities, to our failures and to our successes. We do so in the knowledge that this dedication is applicable to those of us who have been, those of us who will be, and most specifically, to those of us who are now, Ursinus College.

President of the College

Dr. Donald Lawrence Helfferich, H.B., L.L.B., L.L.D., the eighth president in the ninety-two year history of the college, is a graduate of Ursinus College and Yale Law School. Dr. Helfferich served as vice-president of Ursinus from 1936 to 1958, when he assumed the duties of president.

Dr. Helfferich firmly believes in liberal education and in the future of Ursinus College. In his own words: "Liberal education as we conceive it will instill in each student intellectual curiosity, will develop a capacity to think critically and to weigh dispassionately . . . It is perhaps the most effective means of wiping out the mass ignorance and intolerance in which ideologies hostile to free enterprise system breed.

"Ursinus College of the future must be built on the old foundations. The pervading influence must be Christian. The objective must be to continue to produce men and women who are intellectually superior, men and women who will strive for excellence in their homes and in the business and social circles in which they move."

As a freshman himself embarking upon his new administration in 1958, Dr. Helfferich requested membership in the class of 1962. In his four years of association with this class, Dr. Helfferich has performed his duties faithfully and efficiently, winning a special place in the hearts of this year's graduating seniors.

Dean of Men

Richard J. Whatley, M.S.

Mr. Whatley joined the Ursinus faculty in 1959, in the threefold capacity of Dean of Men, football coach, and physical education instructor. A graduate of the University of Maine, Dean Whatley has undertaken his duties in a capable and responsible manner. His interest in Ursinus College and Ursinus students makes him a valuable part of the administration.

Dean of the College

William S. Pettit, M.S.

Mr. Pettit has served as Dean of Ursinus since 1954. A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, he is a professor of organic Chemistry. In addition to his administrative duties, Dean Pettit also serves as chief student adviser. In his role as dean, Mr. Pettit instills harmony among students, faculty, and administration throughout the Ursinus community.

Dean of Women

Ruth H. Rothenberger, B.S.

Miss Rothenberger, a graduate of Ursinus College, became Dean of Women in 1959. She considers her most important role as dean to instill in students knowledge of the art of living and a desire to contribute positively to society. Dean Rothenberger's interest in students and her understanding of their problems coupled with enthusiastic support of the college have made her a vital force in the administration.

Admissions

Geoffrey Dolman, Director

H. Lloyd Jones, Assistant Director

Each year Mr. Dolman and Mr. Jones screen hundreds of young men and women eager to enter Ursinus College. Through their untiring efforts, Ursinus is able to open her doors to the most capable and deserving young people who wish to further their education. Their work has contributed much to the ideals and high standards of the College.

Freshman Class Officers: W. Lettinger, president, M. Kelly, vice-president, K. Dolman, secretary, K. Ferguson, treasurer.

On September 23, 1961, two hundred and seventy eager freshmen entered Ursinus College. Caught up in the excitement of the first few days, the frosh soon learned to tow the mark under the watchful eye of Judicious, Genial, Jocular Jacqueline and Mr. Gladstone, sir. Within a few weeks the class of 1965 was ready to emerge, and assisted by the Juniors they chose Bill Lettinger, Mike Kelly, Kathy Dolman, and Kent Ferguson to lead them. The united class sponsored two dances, the first on January 5, and the second on March 17, appropriately entitled, "St. Patty's Twist."

Under the leadership of Jim Shinnick, the Sophomore Class returned in the fall eager to begin a new school year. The Customs program was competently carried out by Jackie Kroschwitz and Bob Gladstone. "Black Magic" held on a spooky Friday the thirteenth in October was a pleasant diversion in the T-G Gym. The class took much pride in a bright new idea, Sophomore Weekend held April 14 and 15. A picnic at Montgomery County Park followed by a dance featuring the "Blue Jets" rounded out a weekend of fun and fellowship for the sophs.

Class of 1963

During Customs this year, the Class of 1963 found itself playing a new role as guardians of the Freshman Class. The juniors successfully conducted elections and arranged a banquet for the emerging Class of 1965.

"Harvest Moon" was the theme of the juniors' festive fall dance. A scarecrow surveyed the scene as Ursinus couples danced under a big orange moon in the T-G Gym.

Elections for Ruby officers in the fall resulted in several ties. After several ballots Kay O'Donnell and Steve Wurster were elected co-editors, and Jeff Brown and Denny Krauss, business managers.

On Friday, April 13, the class presented its Junior Prom, "Champs d' Elysee." Prom queen Jane Mikociak reigned with her court, Sue Higley, Sue Miller, Sandy Fix, and Judy Rudolph, under the famous "Arc de Triomphe." Junior men Murray Feldstein, Steve Wurster, Jim Ryan, Charlie Hauessner, Jeff Brown, and John Piston were honored by Cub and Key.

Bright-eyed, fresh from the euphoria of the High School Senior Year, the Class of 1962 entered Ursinus in the fall of 1958, "the smartest class in the history of the college." Goals and hopes were—where else?—high. Many of the men were, at first, bent upon the social conquering of the women; the women, generally, possessed not altogether incompatible notions of matrimony.

The tedium of dink tipping, along with upper class resentment over the fact that we weren't being subjected to "tough customs," tarnished the initial luster of enthusiasm, but President Helfferich, himself a freshman, jumped into the breach by accepting an honorary membership in the class. He subsequently put many of his classmates to shame by promptly paying his dues.

Dick Woodruff was chosen class president after a flurry of semi-secret excitement in the downstairs dining room. In that same election, the seeds of a powerful dynasty were sown as Cal Griffin emerged class treasurer.

The winter wore on and we freshmen cheerfully entered into all phases of campus life. The YM-YWCA, the football and basketball games, A-Phi-O, the hockey team, the Curtain Club, The Messiah chorus, and most of the thirty seven other recognized campus activities took to their bosoms myriads of freshman souls.

The hurly-burly of spring brought with it dances, sports, and the signing of fraternity bids. Howie Friend, for the record, pinned Miss Betsy Drake less than an hour after gaining access to the Sig Rho standard, and in 1961 Howie and Betsy became the first class couple to be married.

The first summer vacation came none too soon. After three months on the shores of Ocean City and Wildwood, the Sophomore Slump settled over a class whose ranks had been slightly depleted by academic attrition.

Cal Griffin moved into command as president of the Sophomore class. Mr. Bosniak, sir, and Grand, Gay, Gracious, Glamorous Gayle Gordonier, as head Soph Rulers, successfully alienated the freshmen, juniors, seniors, and Dr. Armstrong. They accomplished what decades of Soph Rulers before them accomplished—whatever that was. A hitch in the continuity of the Customs Program came when the new freshmen captured Cal and paraded him, in a state of semi-decency, at their banquet.

The College was quick to recognize the pulchritude lurking among the co-eds of '62. Carolyn Boyer, Nancy MacClary, and Cindy Smith were all chosen Homecoming Queen contestants. As tradition will have it, a senior won.

That the Sophomore Class dance, "Bewitched," was held on Friday the 13th was reflected in the financial returns.

The group had solidified by the fall of 1960. The depletions were less than usual, and the last two years at Ursinus lay before us.

Again we had three Homecoming Queen contestants: Lore Hamilton, Marcia Kressler, and Lynne Maloney. Again, a senior won.

The winter was heralded by heavy snows, Christmas spirits, and The Fircroft Panty Raid. The Lorelei came and went and Lynne Crosely, Kathy Draeger, Barb Eichel, Marcia Kressler, Barb Pietzsch, Jean Vandermark, and Urve Viitel became Whitians. The Junior Prom, "Three Coins in the Fountain," saw junior beauty Linda Peiffer crowned queen. In addition, The Cub and Key tapped Pete Wise, Bob Hohn, Tom Moll, Dick Mayes, and John Hope.

In October of 1961 one full school year lay before us. Cal still performed as president. Sandy Holl, representing Delta Pi, won Homecoming Queen honors and, in fact, went on to be Queen of the Liberty Bowl and a national television celebrity. Lynne Maloney, formerly a Homecoming Queen candidate, cut her class schedule down in order to be an active Miss Pennsylvania, an honor she had won during the summer.

The Senior Ball, "Mabuhay" (aboriginese for "Welcome"), was the Sunnybrook social event of the year. Kathy Draeger and Stu Grant were designated as "Lord and Lady of the Senior Ball" and the Permanent Class Officers were presented. To the surprise of no one, Cal Griffin was the unanimously elected president. Kathy Draeger promised to serve as secretary-treasurer. Walt Trout was named loyalty fund chairman, and Winnie Miller will, someday, organize a reunion.

At the Lorelei, Ursinus Weekly editor John Swinton reigned somewhat quizzically as King of The Lorelei. Also in February, the students elected Patti Whittick as May Queen. Jo-Ann Lewis acted as May Manager in the Spring Pageant simulating a Wild West Show.

Donning caps and gowns early in June, we seniors, collectively more serious than at any other time during the last four years, filed past The President, The Board, and The Dean, receiving as we went pieces of parchment certifying that we had been scholastic successes. There is a long way to go beyond the doors of the New Gym, and we may never again know as many good times as the years 1958 through 1962 brought us.

Features

Parents' Day

Saturday, October 14, 1961, was selected as the date of the first Parents' Day—a day in which the parents of Ursinus students could survey the campus, meet informally with each other and with the faculty members of the college.

College dormitories were open to all, the faculty hosted at the refreshment tables and the Ursinus Bears met the Wilkes Colonels in a battle on the gridiron.

Faculty advisers were Dean Rothenberger, Mr. Bailey, and Mr. Schellhase. Parents' Day chairman was Marcia Kressler. Lodie Kershner was publicity director, Urve Viitel the decoration chairman, and Lois Rossi acted as reception chairman.

Founder's Day

Margaret Chase Smith, Founder's Day Speaker.

Ursinus commemorated her founders in the traditional Founder's Day ceremonies on October 29, 1961. Guests and friends of the college heard Margaret Chase Smith and Catherine Drinker Bowen give addresses. Honorary degrees were presented to the speakers, and five Ursinus students were awarded degrees. Students, achieving dean's list for two semesters, were also honored. A tea in the library followed the ceremony.

Homecoming

Once again old grads returned to their Alma Mater and another Ursinus Homecoming took place on Saturday, November 4th. This was a happy day for Sandy Holl, for the Ursinus football team, and for over a thousand alumni and friends of the college. Miss Holl was chosen Homecoming Queen; the Bears whipped Haverford 22-6; and the alumni very obviously enjoyed themselves.

Senior Ball

Stuart Grant and Kathy Draeger, Lord and Lady of the Senior Ball.

A huge Tiki god stood guard over Sunnybrook Ballroom on December 1, 1961, as Ursinus couples entered the South Pacific setting, Mabuhay, theme of the Senior Ball. Lee Vincent provided the music for the last formal affair presented by the Class of 1962. Stu Grant and Kathy Draeger reigned as Lord and Lady of the Ball, an honor bestowed upon the man and woman who have contributed most to the class. Permanent Class Officers were also announced. Cal Griffin will continue as class president; Kathy Draeger, secretary-treasurer, Winnie Miller, reunion chairman; and Wilt Trout, loyalty fund chairman.

Lorelei

Presented with corsages and taken dining and dancing, the Ursinus men were hosted by their dates on Friday evening, February 16, at the annual turnabout Lorelei at Sunnybrook Ballroom. The highlights of the extravaganza were the presentation of the new Whitians—Marion Behler, Margie Peffle, Barbara Rupp, and Betsy Yost, and the announcement of the Lorelei king, John Swinton. A crowd estimated at over 500 attended the affair at which Bud Raider's Orchestra supplied the music.

The Christmas season was once again enjoyed in Ursinus' special way. A wonderful rendition of the Messiah was presented on December 7 to a capacity crowd. The festivities continued through the annual candlelight communion service, the men's and women's banquets with decoration honors going to the freshman women for "Christmas Around the World," the party and dance at the T-G gym, the caroling by the men, and the women's all night dorm parties.

Senior Show

The Class of 1962 presented "Shenanigans '62," a successful one night stand substituting for the traditional Senior Show, on May 17, 1962. Co-directors Mary Dassler and Jack Clemens and producer Barry Francis lined up a program of senior talent, climaxed by the presentation of "Lucky Leo" a comedy skit satirizing Christianity and musical comedies, complete with costumes and a hit score.

Campus Chest

Co-chairmen Betsy Friend and Walt Trout directed the annual Campus Chest drive this year. With the help of the Central Committee two thousand dollars was earned through personal solicitations, the Penny Mile, the Girls' Faculty Basketball Game, the Bicycle Race, the Student Faculty Show, and other activities designed to entertain while the students contribute to charity. This year's funds were distributed among the Philadelphia Protectory for Boys, the World University Service, the Leukemia Society, the Montgomery County Association for the Blind, and the Norristown Salvation Army.

Student-Faculty Show

Friday evening, March 16, the T-G Gym was the scene of thirteen skits and acts performed by the students and faculty of Ursinus College. Directed by Meridy Murphy and John Swinton, and produced by Winnie Miller and Sandy Holl, all proceeds from this show went to the Campus Chest.

During the intermission, an auction was held. Paraphernalia ranging from home baked cakes to an authentic Russian record was sold to the highest bidder. The dynamic huckstering of Master of Ceremonies Bob Vanucci and auctioneer Murray Feldstein brought $194 into the coffers of the Campus Chest.

Junior Prom — Class of '63

The Class of 1963 presented its Junior Prom "Les Champs Elysées" at Sunnybrook on April 13, 1962. Couples danced to the music of Al Raymond in a handsome Parisian setting of cafe tables and flickering lanterns under the Arc de Triomphe. Lovely Jane Mikuliak reigned as Queen with Sandy Fix, Sue Higley, Sue Miller, and Judy Rudolph as her pretty attendants. Cub and Key honored juniors Jeff Brown, Murray Feldstein, Charlie Hauesser, John Piston, Jim Ryan, and Steve Wurster.

Junior Prom — Class of '62

Featuring the music of Al Raymond and his Orchestra, the Class of '62 presented their Junior Prom at the Sunnybrook Ballroom on Friday evening, March 17, 1961. Under the leadership of Georgia Ferrell, Linda Peiffer, and Urve Viitel, the class decorated the ballroom around a theme of "Three Coins in a Fountain."

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the prom's queen, Linda Peiffer, by Dr. Helfferich. Those attending the queen were Kathryn Draeger, Lore Hamilton, Lynn Maloney, and Pat Whittick.

The Cub and Key membership was increased by five when these new members were announced: Robert Hohn, John Hope, Richard Mayes, Tom Moll, and Pete Wise.

Spring Festival

This year "Yippee-i-o," a pageant with a dude ranch theme, was presented on May 12, at Patterson Field. Pretty Patti Whittick and a court of eight lovely coeds reigned amid cowboys and Indians in a western setting. A buffet supper on Freeland lawn, a band concert in Bomberger Chapel, and the Curtain Club's presentation of The Girls in 509 brought a lovely spring day to a successful close.

Dramatics

The dramatic arts find expression at Ursinus through various clubs and organizations. Group Productions, the Curtain Club Stars and Players, and Alpha Psi Omega offer numerous vehicles each season to test and challenge budding actors and actresses. The fall and spring productions are the major offerings of the dramatic organizations, but increasingly popular are the one act plays presented free of admission once a month in Bomberger Chapel. Many students have made their first appearance before a live audience in these productions. Some of the highlights of the 1961-62 season are shown here.

Greek Weekend

Greek Weekend came to Ursinus May 4, 5, and 6, sponsored by the Inter-sorority and Inter-fraternity councils. On Friday evening couples enjoyed a dance at Sunnybrook, featuring the Arlen Saylor Orchestra. The traditional I.F. track meet was held on Patterson Field, Saturday morning, and, traditionally, the Independents took the honors. On Saturday evening Screamin' Jay Hawkins provided the music at the open party. The weekend came to a close Sunday afternoon with a picnic at the Orioles Grove, complete with food, music, and dancing.

Y.M.-Y.W.C.A.

The joint YM-YWCA claims a unique position on our campus. Formally, the "Y" exists to make available to all students a Christian program, including worship, study of problems in the light of Christian faith, and social action growing out of that faith. But the "Y" is much more. It is responsible for a great many of the social activities (both cultural and recreational) which play a large part in college life on a small campus, and it is vitally concerned with the moral consciousness of the students. Yet the "Y" is not simply a religious group; it plays an important part in secular affairs, its activities being more diverse than many students realize.

The YWCA and the YMCA are distinct only in that they elect their own president and vice-president; once elected, these representatives work as a unit. This year the "Y" functioned under the leadership of presidents Judy Nelson and Bob Hoffert. Backed up by vice-presidents Lois Hartzell and Steve Wurster, their leadership was dynamic and dedicated. Secretary Joan Kleinhoff and treasurer John Piston round out the staff of elected officers. Membership is extended to every student upon his enrollment in the college, and those who have common interests in our functions participate actively.

The cooperation evolving from a system of five commissions, each of which is headed by a male and female appointee actively voting in Cabinet sessions held weekly, is evidence of the determination of our campus leaders to make the "Y" an effective stimulus. Mr. Schellhase is the official adviser, and several other faculty members aid the individual commissions. Unique this year in its unusually wide campus representation, the Cabinet functions along with the elected officers to present such activities as vespers, debates, tours for prospective students, volunteer work, recreational affairs (even bridge tournaments), and most important of all (to those who participate)—the weekend camping retreats held off-campus.

Newman Club

The Newman Club is a national organization composed of Roman Catholic students enrolled at Protestant colleges. The Ursinus Chapter meets bi-monthly with its Chaplain, the Reverend Edward J. Conran, J.C.D., of Saint Eleanor's Church, Collegeville. The club, seeking to serve the spiritual needs of the Catholic student, this year tendered several guest speakers and sponsored Communion breakfasts at Saint John's Greek Catholic Church in Pottstown.

Chi Alpha

The Chi Alpha Society is composed of pre-theological students whose aim is to search for the real meaning of the Christian faith, establish and strengthen their fellowship, and extend Christian principles by activities and service. The group meets twice a month in the Faculty Room of the Library. Meetings feature group discussions and talks by guest speakers.

Canterbury Club

Canterbury Club is a national organization for Episcopal college students. Its purpose is to keep the student in touch with the Church and supply his spiritual needs. Our campus organization meets bi-monthly for topics of interest to college students in general, and Episcopalians particularly, and weekly for services of Holy Communion. Chaplain is the Rev. Edward Platts. Officers: president, Robert Jones, vice-president, Sally Harding and secretary-treasurer, Judy Armstrong.

Lutheran Club

The Lutheran Club, in its second year of existence here at Ursinus, was founded in order to provide opportunities for Christian service, discussion of religious and moral issues, and fellowship with others of similar religious background. Activities have included discussions, slides of the Holy Land, and a visit to Rivercrest School for the Mentally Retarded,

Among the Meistersingers who toured this spring were J. Huttel, C. Kuhn, L. Kershner, L. Kulp, E. Bottiglier, L. Hartzell, G. Gordinier, M. Thomas, D. Williams, K. Sullivan, C. Glessner, B. Hamblin, C. Heber, M. Funk, J. Esterline, M. Pollanick, B. Yost, H. Blum, J. Hope, S. Wurster, and J. Nelson.

Meistersingers

This year over one hundred men and women were members of the Meistersingers, under the direction of Dr. Philip. Student conductors Judy Nelson and John Hope led the group through nine hours of practice each week in preparation for the annual Meistersingers tour. The choir enjoyed a successful trip through the New England States from April 5 to 11. "The choir that loves to sing" has brought much recognition to Ursinus.

The Meistersingers enjoy a party while on tour.

Chapel Choir

The Chapel Choir under the direction of Dr. Philip and Bob Jones, sets the mood for each chapel service throughout the week by opening with a choral call to worship and closing with a prayer response. The choir, which also participates in the annual Christmas Candlelight Communion service, consists of voluntary membership.

Music Room

The music room of the library is a relaxing place in which to study and listen to good music. Monitors, volunteers from campus music organizations, supervise the operation of the high fi and the care of records. Each year the music room is responsible for taping music for the Spring Festival.

French Club

The French Club stimulates interest in France and various aspects of French culture. Highlights in the club's activities included a poetry reading, the traditional Christmas party, lectures, and travelogues. The club attended two French plays at Haverford College and saw a special film from the Alliance Francaise.

German Club

Designed to acquaint the student body with German culture, the programs of the German club reveal various aspects of German life, art, and music. Highlights of this year included a lecture by Mrs. Helfferich on the Pennsylvania Dutch, as well as talks with students who have studied at Heidelberg University. Dr. George W. Hartzell serves as adviser to the group. Officers include Lorraine Culiberg, president, and Marion Behler, secretary-treasurer.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club is composed of students who wish to learn more about Latin-American countries. Several students who have visited these countries have shown slides to illustrate talks and to increase understanding of Spanish-American cultures and contemporary problems in Latin-American nations.

Occasional "verdacleras" Spanish dinner parties with the Seelye's as hosts supplement the formal meetings.

English Club

Students interested in literature meet informally once a month as the English Club at the home of Dr. Yost. Meetings vary from discussions on current books to reading plays aloud or listening to records. Occasionally the club entertains guests such as Mr. Hudnut or Mr. Jones, who guide students in discussions on types of literature.

Young Democrats

Lest Ursinus be called conservative and undemocratic, Judy Yaskin occasionally summons a small, but militant group of students to assemble as the Young Democrats Club of Ursinus College. Republican Montgomery County is not a stimulating location for this aspiring organization, but Club enthusiasts have already begun the busy task of converting the Campus G.O.P.

Debating Society

The Debating Society competed in tournaments in New York, Baltimore, Camden, and Philadelphia this year, in addition to appearances before business men's groups. The debaters have met and defeated numerous opponents on the topic "Labor Organizations Should be Placed under Anti-Trust Legislation," thus adding to the prestige of Ursinus.

International Relations Club

The International Relations Club keeps Ursinus students abreast of world affairs through its program of informative lectures and discussions. The group has provided a forum for interested students and enjoyed a successful year under the leadership of Charles Stevens. Dr. Zucker is acting faculty adviser.

Curtain Club

The Curtain Club offers the student body a fine opportunity to develop creative ability and public presence. Chief among fall activities was the production of "The Late George Apley," an enjoyable play concerning Bostonian family life.

Other Curtain Club presentations included the one-act plays "The Wedding Present," "When Shakespeare's Ladies Meet," "Where Love Is, God Is," and key scenes from "Inherit the Wind."

"The Girl in 509" was presented during Spring Festival weekend, and a banquet ended the season.

Stars and Players

Stars and Players, the governing body of the Curtain Club, consists of students who have displayed outstanding interest and cooperation in Curtain Club projects. Members are eligible to direct and produce any undertaking as well as supervise committee work.

Zealous officers spend every spare moment designing sets and making costumes. Faculty sponsors are Mr. John Gustavson and Dr. and Mrs. Donald L. Helfferich.

Alpha Psi Omega

Delta Tau is the Ursinus chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, the national honorary dramatic fraternity. Membership is extended to students who have displayed unusual service and interest in college dramatics. Alpha Psi helps select the two major productions of the Curtain Club and sponsors one act plays throughout the year.

Group Productions

This year the Curtain Club has started a stock company which presents two or three productions a month. The plays are staged in Bomberger Chapel, admission free. Many students who would otherwise hesitate to appear before audiences are given an opportunity to perform.

Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega is a national service fraternity composed of college men who have been previously affiliated with the Scouting Movement. The purpose of the fraternity is to develop leadership, to promote friendship, and to provide service to humanity. In addition to assisting campus organizations, Alpha Phi Omega conducts elections, tours and registration. The faculty adviser is Mr. McMurray. The president is Charles Hentz.

Stuics

Organized as an eating club in 1955, the Stuics is composed of fifteen junior and senior men who exemplify the ideals of the society. Faculty guests often attend the bi-monthly luncheons at the Colledgeville Inn and the Kopper Kettle. The reunion-dinner held in Philadelphia each spring is the highlight of the year.

Young Republicans

The Young Republican Club is a campus organization which offers interested students the opportunity to participate in politics and to support the Republican party. The Club is most active during primary and election campaigns. Monthly meetings are devoted to discussing and analyzing political affairs. The president is Sam Lord; vice-president, Barb Bogel.

I.C.G.

The Inter-collegiate Conference on Government is comprised of students who are interested in the politics of local, state and national government. Ursinus students received first hand experience in politicking at the state convention on the National Congress this year.

Brownback-Anders Pre-Medical Society

The Brownback-Anders Premedical Society has been a major factor in interesting the pre-professional student in medicine and in bringing other students into professions related to medicine. It acquaints the premedical student with the educational, scholastic, psychological, and financial requirements of a medical career.

Each year, the members of the society attend the Annual Premedical Symposium, held this year at the Hahnemann Medical College in Philadelphia. Highlights this year were a trip to the Smith, Kline and French Laboratories, and the initiation of a senior banquet.

Beardwood Chemical Society

The Beardwood Chemical Society (an affiliate of the American Chemical Society) enjoyed an active year. Seven visiting lecturers, a field trip to the Smith, Kline and French Laboratories, and a concluding banquet filled the organization's calendar. In addition to sponsoring the chemical reading room and procuring chemical handbooks and laboratory aprons for students, the club purchased the Chemical Journal Berichte, on microcards. Dr. Roger P. Staiger is the group's adviser.

Business Administration Club

The purpose of the Business Administration Club is to acquaint economics majors with topics of unusual interest in the business world. Speakers on topics of interest as well as tours of various industries are sponsored throughout the year. This year the club visited the Vicks Chemical Corporation and attended talks on manufacturing problems and small business administration.

The president is Bill Briggs; vice-president, Terry Kearney (absent from picture); treasurer, Bob Hottenstein; and secretary, Barbara Pietzsch.

P.S.E.A.

The Student P.S.E.A. is the professional organization for Ursinus students who plan to teach. Monthly meetings are designed to inform and enlighten members about the activities and various phases of the profession. Student members receive a professional magazine and membership in the state and national organization.

The President is Curt Conn; vice-president, Sue McGoldrick; secretary, Marge Peffle; treasurer, Sam Stayer; and the adviser is Dr. Mark G. Messinger.

Mathematics Club

Under the auspices of the Mathematics department, the Math Club conducts frequent meetings on campus in addition to organizing field trips to local corporation plant sites. While the majority of the meetings are student conducted, the club endeavors to engage interesting speakers from the industrial world to better acquaint the students with the operative value of mathematics.

Outing Club

The Outing Club fosters enjoyment of and participation in sports. The major activities this year included hiking on the Horse Shoe Trail and skiing at Split Rock Lodge. Members of the faculty often join students on week-end excursions.

Pi Gamma Mu

Pi Gamma Mu, a national honorary society, offers scholastic recognition to outstanding students pursuing courses in social science. Upon completion of twenty hours of required courses and earning the required average, juniors are admitted into Pi Gamma Mu at the annual Spring Banquet. Dr. Pancoast, the adviser, leads the group in electing its new officers. The president is Bob Hoffert, and Sue McGoldrich is secretary-treasurer.

Pi Nu Epsilon

Pi Nu Epsilon, a national honorary music fraternity for non-music majors, strives to further the aims of music and musical organizations, to stimulate interest in music and musical affairs and to honor outstanding men and women who have participated in musical organizations at Ursinus.

The Gamma Chapter at Ursinus sponsors the Student Concert trips and the Music Room of the library. Dr. Phillip is adviser to the group. The president is Judy Nelson; vice-president, Steve Wurster; secretary, Liz Keps, treasurer, Chris Kuhn; historian, Betsy Yost.

M.S.G.A.

The Men's Student Government Association, comprised of elected representatives from each class, promotes the organization of the male student body. The Council selects proctors, awards concessions, and strives for the improvement of campus life. In a judicial capacity the M.S.G.A. reviews disciplinary cases. This year open meetings and joint meetings with the W.S.G.A. were undertaken. The president is Tom Moll; vice-president, Charles Haeussner; and secretary-treasurer is Frank Caiola.

W.S.G.A.

Every woman at Ursinus is a member of the Women's Student Government Association. The actual organization itself consists of the Student Council, the Senate, the Hall Board, and the Judiciary Board. Twice a month president Gloria Burgoon calls the executive branch together to discuss and plan such projects as the Customs Program, Design for Living programs, the annual Christmas Banquet, Lorelei, Color Day, and the Spring Festival. Dean Rothenberger is present at all meetings to advise and guide the council.

Hall Board

The Hall Board is a branch of the W.S.G.A. comprised of the presidents of each dormitory. Under the direction of a chairman who is a member of the W.S.G.A. council, the Board fosters good living standards and keeps women students abreast of campus affairs.

The president is Judy Byrnes.

Fourteen Ursinus seniors were honored in the 1961-1962 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities this year. Selection of candidates for Who's Who is based on scholarship, leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, and service to the college. A committee of the student government and college administration nominates the candidates to the national association.

Whitians

The Whitians is an honorary society for women. Permanent membership is granted to junior women who have maintained a scholastic average of 85 for four semesters and who are qualified on a basis of extra-curricular activities, leadership, and character. Each semester a tea is given for those women who have attained an 85 average during the previous semester. The organization has established a prize to be awarded to the woman student who at the end of her first year has achieved the highest scholastic standing. Miss Schultz is the group's adviser. The president is Marcia Kressler; vice-president, Kathryn Draeger; secretary-treasurer, Barbara Eichel.

Cub and Key

Cub and Key membership, the highest recognition given to an Ursinus male student, is awarded to those men who exemplify the high ideals of the College. The members, chosen from the Junior class, are announced at the Junior Prom. The criteria for selection are fine character, high scholarship and leadership, and participation in extra-curricular activities. The group is particularly proud of its scholarship fund. The president is Richard Mayes; secretary-treasurer, Robert Hohn.

The 1961 Ursinus College football team ended their season with a 2-5 slate. Although winning only two games, the Bears played greatly improved football throughout the entire season, defeating Wilkes in their first 1961 Home appearance and later thumping Haverford before a Homecoming crowd of 2000.

The highlights of the season were provided by quarterbacks Ron Emmert and Dennis Quinn. On the receiving end of most of their spectacular tosses was either Bill Scholl (all M.A.C. end), or Tony Sermarini (second leading pass receiver of the M.A.C. behind Scholl). Ron Ritz and Gary Leach toted the running load, Leach receiving the Kenneth Walker Memorial Trophy at the Homecoming game.

Right: It's all M.A.C. again, flat footed on defense—but don't worry, it's only Haverford we're playing.

Right: 6 points—Ursinus!

Ursinus College's Soccer team is usually notoriously undermanned; despite this handicap, they can be counted on for a respectable season's showing. This past year's team was no exception, as led by senior co-captains Don Henry and Bill Davis, the Bears posted 3 wins against 5 losses and 2 ties.

Highlights of the season were provided by the defensive work of junior, all M.A.C. left fullback, Phil Brackin, and by the offensive efforts of all M.A.C., right inside, Fred Struthers.

The 1961-62 Ursinus basketball team posted a record of 3 wins against 13 losses—indeed a poor one; however, the story is not all in the won and lost column. The Bears did not lack the talent to improve on their showing—what they lacked was organization and some positive leadership in the right situations.

Highlights of the year were provided by junior Walt Dreyfoos (all M.A.C.), and sophomore Chuck Schaal. With most of their lettermen returning, we wish the Bears better luck next year.

A large, talented squad reported to coach Richard T. Schellhase in November, 1961. By March, the varsity, led by captain Dick Dean, posted a 6-3 record. Dean and freshman Fred Powers each led the Bears with undefeated seasons (9-0). Junior Don Smith, after a two year absence, returned to Ursinus' mats with a fine 8-1 record.

The grapplers set a new record by racking up two consecutive shut-outs over Johns Hopkins (34-0) and P.M.C. (32-0). The Bears were equally impressive in crushing wins over Haverford, Lebanon Valley, Delaware and Elizabethtown; however, the team dropped two close ones to Albright and Drexel. With all varsity men returning next season, prospects for next year are impressive.

Hockey

Varsity

The Ursinus hockey team posted to another good season under the leadership of co-captains Debbie Shaw and Lynne Crosley and senior players Lore Hamilton, Anne Sansenbach, Ruth Fatscher, and Georgia Ferrell, who provided a strong nucleus for this year's team. The season was highlighted with a well played 5-1 opening victory over Gettysburg and an exciting come-from-behind 4-3 win over East Stroudsburg. Ursinus met arch rival Temple in another match which ended in a 3-3 tie. The one low point of the season occurred in the last game which saw the girls drop a close 1-2 decision to West Chester. The J.V. also had a fine record, losing only to West Chester.

Junior Varsity

Basketball

Varsity

Under the direction of coach Eleanor Snell and captain Ann Sansenbach, the girls' basketball team posted a fine 7-1 record. Although one loss to West Chester spoiled the hopes for an undefeated record, this season will be remembered as the most exciting one in many years. Against East Stroudsburg the girls trailed by 10 points with less than two minutes to go, but came on to win 54-51. However, the real "thriller" of the season was the overtime sudden death victory over a strong Immaculata team. Ursinus again trailed in the last minute, but came on to tie and finally win as Ann Sansenbach sank the final basket. This year's senior members will be missed, but the fine record of the J.V. points to another good season next year.

Junior Varsity

Badminton

For the seventh straight year the girls' badminton team posted a perfect record. Coach Phoebe Harris and captain Ruth Ann Fatscher contributed greatly in leading the team to this year's success. During matches with Penn, Swarthmore, and Bryn Mawr it was touch and go for a while, but U.C.'s bird-watchers came through these tight contests with flying colors. The J.V. won 4 out of 6 matches, and with so many underclassmen gaining experience on this team the coming season looks promising.

Winning stroke, Fatscher style.

Baseball

This past year's baseball team was one of the finest to come out of Ursinus College in some time. Naturally there were many bright spots on this team (one that compiled a 10-6 record and garnered the championship of the Southern division of the M.A.C.). Senior veterans Doug Harper, Don Henry, Curt Conn, and Larry Koch (most valuable player) contributed both their experience and their talent, while the team's younger men performed steadily and dependably in the clutch. Barry Williamson, Bill Scholl, Chuck Schaal, and Bill Dagenhardt were standouts here.

With most of its lettermen returning next year, Ursinus can look forward to another good baseball team.

Track and Field

Coach Ray Gurzynski's 1960-61 track and field squad compiled the greatest dual meet record in the college's history and tied for third place in the Middle Atlantic Championships. This year's edition not only bettered the record of their immediate predecessors, but also compiled a record of 7 wins against 3 losses, the finest ever achieved by an Ursinus track team.

Captain Pete Wise and Dick Woodruff, the only seniors on the 1961-62 squad, bronze medal winners in last season's MAC's in the high jump and the broad jump, once again garnered their share of awards.

School record holders Bob Carney and Tony Sermarini, along with letter winner Denny Wilson, make the field events the team's strongest point while unproven freshmen will be expected to strengthen the running events next year.

Tennis — Women

The women's tennis team this year posted a 4-2 record—indeed a fine one, yet short of past year's undefeated slates. This can be accounted for by the untimely loss of several of the team's strongest members. However, better things are to be expected now that many of Coach Harris's new charges have a season's experience under their respective racquet covers.

Tennis — Men

Ursinus College's 1961-62 tennis team went the way of many of the Bears' recent tennis squads—down "loser's lane," with a record of 2 wins against 8 losses.

Highlights of the season were provided by Jerry Morita, stepping into the number one spot on the team and playing very well, and Jay Bosniak's 4 and 4 record and etiquette-less tactics at number two position. Morita was chosen as the team's most valuable player, and Ed Myers will be next year's captain.

Lacrosse

Bolstered by several returning letter winners, plus the usual supply of talented freshmen, the Ursinus Lacrosse team, as has been its custom for longer than most of us can remember posted another winning record. The drive toward their 5-1 record was spearheaded by seniors Lynne Crosley, Lore Hamilton, and Ann Sansenbach. The combination of superior coaching plus talent assures us of more winning seasons.

Softball

Under the adequate coaching of Miss Snell, U.C.'s talented softballers again completed a winning record. Key players, indispensable to a fine 3-1 record, were Gloria Burgoon, Carol Taney, Joey Ferrell, and Karen Kohn. Replacements for this year's seniors will surely be found among next year's incoming freshman, and so we can look forward to future successful softball seasons.
