

1907

1907 Ruby Yearbook

Ursinus College Junior Class
Ursinus College

Harry H. Koerper
Ursinus College

William Bowman Fenton
Ursinus College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/ruby>

 Part of the Higher Education Commons, Liberal Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

Junior Class, Ursinus College; Koerper, Harry H.; and Fenton, William Bowman, "1907 Ruby Yearbook" (1907). The Ruby Yearbooks. 11.
<https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/ruby/11>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Ursinusiana Collection at Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Ruby Yearbooks by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. For more information, please contact aprock@ursinus.edu.

Arsinus College Library

from

Mrs. Sarah H. Songstret

Class 378.74 Book Ur 711
1907

Accession 17861 c.1

THE 1907
RUBY

G. G. Cameron

THE CLASS OF 1907
RESPECTFULLY DEDICATES THIS VOLUME
TO
KARL JOSEF GRIMM, PH. D.
PROFESSOR OF MODERN LANGUAGES
IN URSINUS COLLEGE

17861

PROFESSOR KARL JOSEF GRIMM was born June 10, 1871, at Steinbach, near Wertheim, Germany. He attended the public school of his native place and received a collegiate education at first by private tuition and later at the Grossherzogliche Gymnasia Wertheim and Tauberbischofsheim. In 1888 he came to America and entered St. Jerome's College, at Berlin, Ontario, where he studied, especially English and Philosophy. The following year he returned to Europe and spent two years in Rome, studying chiefly Latin, Italian, History of Art and Philosophy. In 1891 he came to the United States and took a full three years' course in the Lutheran Theological Seminary, at Gettysburg, Pa. In 1896 he entered the Johns Hopkins University to devote himself to the study of Semitic Languages under the direction of Professor Paul Haupt and Professor Christopher Johnston. He also pursued a course in Philosophy under Professor Griffin, and studied Sanskrit and Avestan in the department of Professor Bloomfield. While at Johns Hopkins University Professor Grimm held a University Scholarship, the Fellowship in Semitics, and the William S. Rayner Research Fellowship in Semitic Languages. He received his Doctor of Philosophy degree from the Hopkins in 1899, and was assistant in Semitics in the University 1897-1901.

Dr. Grimm came to Ursinus in 1901 as Acting Professor of Modern Languages, to assist Professor Reichenbach, the head of the Department, who was in failing health. Upon the retirement of Professor Reichenbach at the end of the year Dr. Grimm was elected Professor of Modern Languages in Ursinus College, which position he still holds.

Professor Grimm is a scholar and an investigator of recognized ability. He is an active member of the American Oriental Society, the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis and of the Modern Language Association. To the first two of these societies he is a large literary contributor, as well as to the Johns Hopkins University Circulars. His publications, which appear from time to time show accuracy and originality. His thesis, the Euphemistic Liturgical Appendices in the Old Testament, has attracted considerable attention and was favorably reviewed in the Reformed Church Review, July, 1902, by Dr. Frederick A. Gast, Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Science in the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church, Lancaster, Pa. The first installment of his last contribution, "Babylonia, Glimpses of Its Civilization and Culture," appears in the January number of the Lutheran Quarterly of this year.

Professor Grimm is not only a born linguist, but he has added to his natural instinct for languages a thorough training and culture, which make him a master in his chosen field of work. To say nothing of the Semitic Languages, in which he has attained an enviable reputation, and of his Department of German and French in the College of which he is master, he is at the same time thoroughly conversant with Greek, Latin, Italian and Spanish, and has a knowledge of several other languages.

But Dr. Grimm is more than a linguist. His versatility of knowledge and scholarship is evidenced from the fact that when the Department of Philosophy became vacant in the College, he took charge of the Philosophy and Metaphysics, and has since then conducted the courses in these important branches of study with credit to himself and profit to the students.

As a teacher Dr. Grimm is a keen observer of human nature. His ripe scholarship and wide experience enable him to get the very best results in the class room, and his genial spirit and good-natured humor endear him to all who come in contact with him.

As a man, Dr. Grimm is unpretentious and somewhat reserved, and yet easily approached. He is genial and courteous, and makes and keeps friends. He is an ideal college man, and because of his matured mind and sound judgment he is frequently consulted by teachers and students. He is one of the most popular men in the faculty.

PREFACE

THE result of weeks and months of toil is before us. We have earnestly endeavored to give to the patrons, students and friends of Ursinus College an annual which would be a credit to the institution, and which would reflect only those phases of college life that appeal directly to the majority of readers. With this end in view, we have refrained from infringing upon the functions of the College Catalogue or the Ursinus Weekly.

From the beginning we were not unmindful of the great task that confronted us. We have introduced as many new features as our originality suggested, in order to make the book more interesting. We have aimed to insert nothing that would be likely to offend a single student, or prevent his becoming a purchaser of a RUBY.

The associate editors have done their share of the work well, and to them is due much of the success this book may obtain. Credit belongs especially to the business manager, whose untiring efforts have made this edition financially possible. We are indebted, also, to Paul Carver for his excellent drawings. Finally, we would request the readers of this RUBY to patronize those business houses whose advertisements have so generously helped in the publication of this book.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF.

Dedication

Faculty Groups

CLASSES

Literary Societies

PUBLICATIONS

CLUBS

Athletics

Commencement

CO-EDS!

Miscellaneous

Chronicles

Advertisements

Rubey Staff.

Editor-in-Chief—H. H. KOERPER

Associates—L. D. CRUNKLETON

EVELYN A. NEFF

E. I. COOK

Artists—W. E. SHUNK

W. B. ASHENFELTER

Chroniclers—T. A. ALSPACH

R. B. EBBERT

Business Manager—

W. B. FENTON

Asst. Bus. Manager—

F. S. FRY

URSINUS COLLEGE

Founded February 10, 1869.

MOTTO: Super Firmum Fundamentum Dei.

COLORS: Red, Old Gold and Black.

PRESIDENTS

J. H. A. BOMBERGER, D. D., LL. D.....	1869-1890
HENRY W. SUPER, D. D., LL. D.....	1890-1893
HENRY T. SPANGLER, D. D.....	1893-1904
*DAVID W. EBBERT, D. D.....	1904-1905

*Resigned Jan. 1, 1906.

COLLEGE SONG

TUNE: "The Orange and the Black."

When the shades of evening gather,
Ursinus students hie
To the soft, green-swarded campus—
For a time our books laid by,—
And the parting rifts of sunlight,
As they linger soft and long,
Shed a hallowed gleam of sadness
On our merriment and song.

Now the glees of old Ursinus
Peal across the downy green;
From Memorial to Olevian
Span the distance far between;
And the walls of dear old prepdom
The reverberations fling
From the East Wing to the Dog House,
As our voices loudly ring.

Then across the Perkiomen
The chimings wing their flight,
Till beyond the far-flung hilltops,
They kiss heaven's dome of light,
Then, as if they rued their boldness,
Come in trembling echoes back,
And thus end the winged praises
Of the Red, Old Gold and Black.

YELLS.

Rah! Rah! Rah!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah!
Ursinus!

U-R-S-I-N-U-S,
Boom-m-m! Wow-w-w!
Ursinus!

CALENDAR

1906.

Jan. 3, Wednesday,	Christmas Recess ends, 8 A. M.
Jan. 18, Thursday,	Semi-annual Examinations begin.
Jan. 25, Thursday,	Day of Prayer for Colleges.
Jan. 26, Friday,	Second Term begins, 8 A. M.
Feb. 22, Thursday,	Washington's Birthday, a holiday.
Apr. 10, Tuesday,	Easter Recess begins, 4 P. M.
Apr. 18, Wednesday,	Recess ends, 8 A. M.
Apr. 18, Wednesday,	Special Spring Term begins.
May 3, Thursday,	School of Theology, commencement, 8 P. M.
May 21, Monday,	Senior Final Examinations begin.
May 28, Monday,	Semi-annual Examinations begin.
May 30, Wednesday,	Memorial Day, a holiday.
June 3, Sunday,	Baccalaureate Sermon, 8 P. M.
June 4, Monday,	Examinations for Admission begin.
June 4, Monday,	Class Day Exercises, 2 P. M.
June 4, Monday,	Junior Oratorical Contest, 8 P. M.
June 5, Tuesday,	Annual Meeting of the Directors, 10 A. M.
June 5, Tuesday,	Alumni Meeting, 2 P. M.
June 5, Tuesday,	Alumni Oration, 8 P. M.
June 6, Wednesday,	Commencement, 10 A. M.
June 25, Monday,	Summer Session begins.
Aug. 4, Saturday,	Summer Session ends.

SUMMER VACATION

Sept. 10, Monday,	Examinations for Admission begin.
Sept. 10, Monday,	Registration of New Students.
Sept. 11, Tuesday,	Registration of Matriculated Students.
Sept. 12, Wednesday,	Matriculation of New Students.
Sept. 12, Wednesday,	Opening Address, 8 P. M.
Sept. 13, Thursday,	Instruction begins, 8:45 A. M.
Nov. 28, Wednesday,	Thanksgiving Recess begins, 4 P. M.
Dec. 1, Saturday,	Recess ends, 8 A. M.
Dec. 21, Friday,	Christmas Recess begins, 12 M.

CHRISTMAS RECESS

1907.

Jan. 3, Thursday,	Recess ends, 8 A. M.
Jan. 17, Thursday,	Semi-Annual Examinations begin.
Apr. 1, Monday,	Special Spring Term begins.
June 5, Wednesday,	Commencement.
June 24, Monday,	Summer Session begins.
Sept. 11, Wednesday,	Academic Year begins.

FACULTY

The word "FACULTY" is rendered in a highly decorative, blackletter-style font. Each letter is filled with a fine cross-hatch pattern. The letters are set within a horizontal, ornate frame of black ink flourishes, including scrolls, loops, and decorative lines. The background within the frame is filled with a light, repeating cross-hatch pattern. In the bottom right corner of the frame, there is a small signature that reads "P. R. Carter".

FACULTY AND INSTRUCTORS

GEORGE LESLIE OMWAKE,
A. M., B. D.,

Dean of the College and Professor of the History and Philosophy of Education.

A. B., Ursinus College, 1898 and A.
M., 1901; B. D., Yale University, 1901;
Student in Theology, Philosophy and Education, Yale University, 1898-1901;
Licensed, 1901; Ursinus College, 1901;
Dean, 1903; Member of the Society of College Teachers of Education.

J. SHELLY WEINBERGER, LL. D.,
Professor of the Greek Language and Literature, Emeritus.

A. B., Yale College, 1859, and A. M.,
1867; LL. D., Ursinus College, 1895;
Professor of Ancient Languages, Freeland Seminary, 1859-1870; Professor of Latin and Greek, Ursinus College, 1870-
1887; Professor of the Greek Language and Literature, 1887; Dean, 1892-1903.

KARL JOSEF GRIMM, Ph. D.,
Professor of Modern Languages.

Wertheim and Tauberbischofsheim
Gymnasias, 1887; St. Jerome's College,
Canada, 1889; Rome, Italy, 1889-91;
Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, Pa.,
1892-95; Johns Hopkins University,
1896-1901; University Scholar, 1896-97;
University Fellow in Semitic Languages, 1897-99; Ph. D., 1899; William
S. Rayner Fellow in Semitic Languages,
1899-1901; Assistant in Semitic, 1897-1901; Ursinus College, 1901; Member of the American Oriental Society of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, and of the Modern Language Association.

REV. WHORTEN A. KLINE,
A. M., B. D.,

Professor of the Latin Language and Literature and Professor in charge of the Greek Language and Literature.

A. B., Ursinus College, 1893; A. M. and B. D., 1896; Licensed, 1896; Graduate Student in Latin, University of Pennsylvania, 1897-1901; Ursinus College, 1893.

FACULTY AND INSTRUCTORS—Continued

CHARLES HUGH SHAW, Ph. D.,

Professor of Biology.

B. S., Ohio Wesleyan University, 1897, and A. M., 1898; Ph. D., University of Pennsylvania, 1900; Instructor in Zoology, Ohio Wesleyan University, 1896-97; Student and Investigator, Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Mass., seasons of 1896-97; Professor of Biology, Temple College, 1897-1903; Lecturer, Marine Biological Laboratory, 1900-02; Ursinus College, 1903; Fellow in the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

MATTHEW BEARDWOOD,

A. M., M. D.,

Professor of Chemistry.

A. B., Philadelphia Central High School, 1890, and A. M., 1895; M. D., Medico-Chirurgical College, 1894; Special Student of Chemistry, University of Pennsylvania, 1890-91; Instructor in Chemistry, Medico-Chirurgical College, 1896-1899; Lecturer on Clinical Chemistry, Medico-Chirurgical College, 1899-1900; Adjunct Professor of Chemistry, Medico-Chirurgical College, 1900-1903; Ursinus College, 1903; Member of the American Chemical Society; Member of the Franklin Institute; Member of the Philadelphia County Medical Society; Member of the American Medical Association; Member of the Pennsylvania State Medical Society; Member of the Medico-Chirurgical Society

HOMER SMITH, Ph. D.,

Professor of the English Language and Literature.

A. B., Amherst College, 1891; Graduate Student, University of Pennsylvania, 1892-95; Ph. D., University of Pennsylvania, 1895; Instructor of English, University of Pennsylvania, 1892-98; Professor of English, Kamehameha School, Honolulu, 1899-1901; Acting Professor of English, Amherst College, 1901-03; Ursinus College, 1903; Member of the Modern Language Association.

WILLIAM WEBSTER CHANDLER, A. M.,

Principal of the Academy, and Professor of Public Speaking.

A. B., Amity College; A. M., Heidelberg College, 1888; Principal, College of Northern Illinois, 1888; Instructor in English and Psychology, Northwestern Collegiate Institute, 1889; Professor of English Language and Literature and Instructor in Oratory, Amity College, 1891; President, Amity College, 1892; Superintendent of Public Schools and Institute Lecturer, 1896; Professor of English Language and Literature and Instructor in Oratory, Catawba College, 1902; Ursinus College, 1903.

FACULTY AND INSTRUCTORS—Continued

WALTER BUCKINGHAM CARVER, Ph. B., Ph. D.

Professor of Mathematics and Physics.

Ph. B., Dickinson College, 1899; Instructor in Mathematics and Science, Troy Conference Academy, Poultney, Vt., 1899-1900; Graduate Student, Johns Hopkins University, 1900-04; Student-Assistant, 1900-01, University Scholar, 1901-02; Special Scholar, 1902-03; University Fellow, 1903-04; Ursinus College, 1904; Member of American Mathematical Society.

HUBERT H. S. AIMES,
Ph. B., Ph. D.

Acting Professor of History and Political Science.

Ph. B., Yale University, 1897; Ph. D., Yale University, 1905; Ursinus College, 1905; Member of the American Historical Association.

HEINRICH PETERSEN,

Instructor in German and French.

Johanneum, Hamburg, 1887; Lehrer-Seminar, 1890; Teacher, Gottschalk's Realschule, Hamburg, 1887-98; Teacher, Baptist Theological Seminary, Hamburg, 1890-1903; Ursinus College, 1903.

MILTON NEWBERRY FRANTZ,
A. M.,

Instructor in English.

A. B., Syracuse University, 1886; A. M., Syracuse University, 1891; Teacher of Mathematics, Centenary Collegiate Institute, 1886-87; Teacher of English in the Tokyo-Ei-Wa-Gakko and in the To-o Gi-ji-ku, Japan; Student in the School of Theology, Boston University, 1890-91; Principal of Ursinus Academy and instructor in the College, 1893-94; Graduate of Hartford Theological Seminary, 1896; Graduate Student, Andover Theological Seminary, 1898-99; *Ursinus Academy and College, 1905. *Teacher of Mathematics, Centenary Collegiate Institute, 1902.

FACULTY AND INSTRUCTORS—Continued

ISAIAH MARCH RAPP, A. B.,
Instructor in Mathematics and Physics and Assistant in Chemistry.

A. B., Ursinus College, 1903; Assistant in Physics, Ursinus College, 1902-
03; Ursinus College, 1904.

HERBERT HUGHES, P. D.,
Instructor of Physical Culture,
P. D., Central Y. M. C. A., Philadelphia, 1901; Physical Director of Junior Department, Central Y. M. C.
A., Philadelphia, 1901; Physical Director, Royersford Athletic Association,
1902; Physical Director, Spring City
Gymnasium, 1903-1904; Ursinus College, 1902.

ELEANOR BRECHT PRICE,
B. S., A. M.,
Librarian.

B. S., Ursinus College, 1886; A. M., 1905.

MARION GERTRUDE SPANGLER,
A. B.,

Director of Department of Music and Instructor in Piano.

A. B., Ursinus College, 1903; Student,
Department of Music, Ursinus College,
1894-98, 1900-02; Student Broad Street
Conservatory, 1903-04; Instructor in Music, Ursinus Summer Session, 1902-
03; Ursinus College, 1904.

EDWARD E. A. KELLEY,
A. B., LL. B.,

Graduate Director of Athletics,
A. B., Ursinus College, 1901; LL. B.,
New York Law School, 1904.

DESSA CORNELIA EBBERT, A. B.,
Instructor in English,
A. B., Ursinus College, 1905; Ursinus, 1905.

SOPHIE H. CASSELBERRY,
Secretary of College.

In Memoriam

REV. JOSEPH H. HENDRICKS was born on his father's farm, in Upper Providence Township, December 21, 1834. At the age of seventeen he entered what was then known as Freeland Seminary, now Ursinus College, and the following year, 1852, he became a school teacher at Milford Square, Bucks County, and taught at that place four consecutive winters. During the summer months he attended the seminary at Freeland and subsequently became the assistant principal.

In 1856 he became assistant teacher in English at Freeland Seminary, and two years later was promoted to teach the higher mathematics.

He was a member of the Mennonite Church, and, according to the usage of that Church, was in 1860 elected on trial as a preacher, and on June 25, 1861, he was ordained as a minister of the Gospel.

The church at Collegeville, of which he was the first and only pastor, serving for a period of forty-three years, had its origin in the Christian Society, which dates back to the year 1855, and was started by about forty former adherents of the Mennonite Church. That same year (1855) a meeting house was built at Collegeville. In February, 1862, he was elected pastor of this church body, which later grew and developed into the present Trinity Reformed Church, Collegeville.

About the same time with the establishment of the Collegeville Church, and for the same reasons, came the Skippack Church, which was organized in 1863. Dr. Hendricks was its first and only pastor. During his long pastorate of more than two score years Dr. Hendricks missed but three church services on account of sickness.

Dr. Hendricks was elected a member of the Board of Directors of Ursinus College on June 22, 1887, and a member of the Executive Committee of the Board at the same time. On June 13, 1899, he was elected secretary of the Board and of the Executive Committee, which position he held up to the time of his death, which occurred November 21, 1905, 8 o'clock P. M.

In Memoriam

FREELAND G. HOBSON, LL. D., for twelve years a director of Ursinus College, and for seven years treasurer of the institution, was born in Collegeville, October 13, 1856. Having an ardent desire to secure a good education, after completing the course in the township public schools, he entered Ursinus College, from which he graduated in 1876, with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He then took up the study of law, and was admitted to the bar October 1, 1880. He soon established a profitable practice as the result of his untiring energy and legal knowledge.

In 1881 the Norristown Trust Company was organized, and Dr. Hobson was its treasurer and trust officer from that time until his death. In financial affairs he was very prominent, as is shown by the honorable positions he held. He was vice president of the National Bankers' Association and president of the Trust Company section of the State Bankers' Association. In 1905 the College conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws.

Dr. Hobson was widely known in the Reformed Church and in Christian Endeavor circles. He was an elder in the Trinity Church, Collegeville, and superintendent of the Sunday-school. He represented the congregation in the annual meetings of the Philadelphia Classis for many years, was a representative of this Classis to the Eastern and General Synods. He had been a member of the General Board of Home Missions for a number of years.

Dr. Hobson was married to a daughter of the late Rev. Joseph H. Hendricks, D. D. He is survived by his widow and three children, Frank H., '03; Anna Mabel, '06, and Kathryn, a former student in Ursinus Academy. He died at his home in Collegeville, at 11.45 o'clock P. M., January 10, 1906.

There is a world above,
Where parting is unknown;
A long eternity of love
Formed for the good alone;
And faith beholds the dying here,
Translated to that glorious sphere.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Bomberger Hall, Monday, January 15th, 1906

ABSTRACT OF ADDRESS DELIVERED BY REV. I. CALVIN FISHER, '89.

Rugged, robust and indomitable, the incarnation of physical force and intellectual energy, Dr. Freeland G. Hobson seemed a part of nature inseparable from life, and exempt from infirmity. His prodigious activity, his indefatigable labors, his strenuous life we all recall with a distinct and keen interest. Stricken as he was, it seemed as if a torrent paused midway in its descent, or a tempest had ceased suddenly in its stormy progress. He lingered for awhile, as the prostrate oak, to which we might appropriately compare him, retaining its verdure for a brief interval after its fall, or as the flame flickers when the candle is burned out; but his work was done. It was the end.

Dr. Hobson was a man of fine gifts and splendid attainments. He was endowed with a mind that caught its ideas on the wing. There was no friction and no confusion in his mental machinery. His brain was always fresh, vigorous, equipped and ready for duty. No sophistry, however adroitly veiled, could deceive it. In yonder halls he received his preparatory as well as collegiate training. It was to this institution that he gave some of the best of his life. Not only his life, but he gave liberally of his means, so that the institution might go onward and forward. On more than one occasion was he means to an end by which the institution might be continued, so as not to be crippled or paralyzed in its work. Even now, as the institution is passing through a most severe crisis, though smitten with disease, his master mind was active, and aside of his dear family there was nothing that was of so much import to him as his Alma Mater. He believed in Ursinus College and in the principles for which she was established. He believed that there was a marvelous future in store for the college. Have we this enlarged faith? Grant that we may.

It was he who had a large heart, tender sympathies, a kind appreciation and a power to interpret the character of all with whom he came in contact. Noble as was his head, his heart was nobler still, and throughout his career his heart strove to help, to cheer, to befriend those who were in need of friendship. There was light in his eye, a music in his speech, a grasp in the hand, a cheerfulness of speech, a heartiness of manner which lifted burdens from the shoulders of those who came near him. His honor was unstained. He bore himself with a lofty rectitude.

In connection with his legal labors he yet found time to work for the college which he loved. For a period of more than ten years he was the treasurer of the institution. Viewed from a distance this may have meant rather little to the alumni and friends. But from close-range investigation it meant skill and dexterity, patience and fortitude, willingness and faith. His place will be hard to fill. He was the College's counselor and friend. Professor and student alike knew and realized his worth. Aye, since he has gone out from amongst us, possibly we feel the greatness of his spirit and soul more than ever. Professors, students, friends, Ursinus never had a better friend.

His service to the Reformed Church in the United States was unstinted. From the day he was ordained to the eldership in the church to the time of his death, he was always ready to do his part in furthering the interests of the church of his choice. Several years ago the General Synod, the highest judicatory of our church, honored itself by honoring our departed friend and brother by calling him to the vice presidency. The Board of Home Missions has lost one of its most distinguished members. His fealty to College and Church was paramount to all other obligations, his pride in the grandeur and power of both touched the extremest limit of exultant enthusiasm, his veneration for the principles for which Ursinus stands was the supreme sentiment of his soul; his faith in its destiny transcended the wildest dreams of optimism. Long may his spirit live in our hearts and minds.

REV. N. W. HELFFRICH

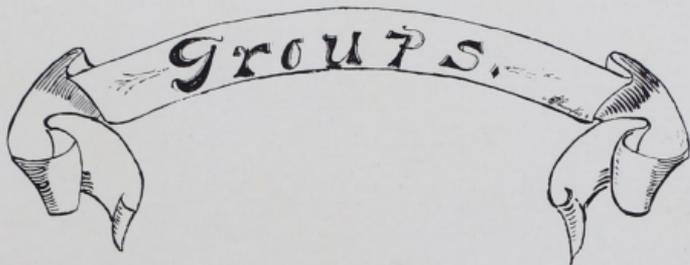

REV. NEVIN W. HELFFRICH, a director of the College and a warm friend of Ursinus, died Thursday, April 19, 1906. Rev. Helffrich had been a member of the Board of Directors of Ursinus College since 1894, and was well known to most of the students.

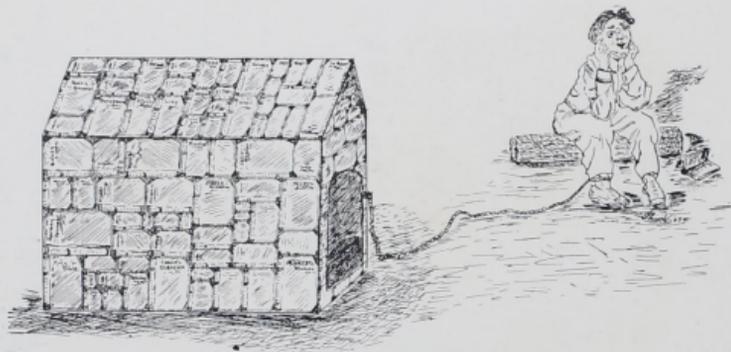

Nevin W. Helffrich was born at Fogelsville, on May 3, 1855, as the second son of Rev. William A. and Amanda Helffrich. He was therefore almost fifty-one years of age. In early life he attended the schools of the township. Later he studied in Ursinus and Heidelberg Colleges and in Ursinus School of Theology. In 1870 he was examined, licensed to preach, and appointed as assistant to his father in Ziegel's charge. After his father's death he became the pastor of the charge and continued as such until his death. The charge until recently consisted of Longswamp, Lehigh, Ziegel's, Heidelberg and New Tripoli.

Mr. Helffrich came from a ministerial family. His father, grandfather and great grandfather have been Reformed ministers, and all spent their ministerial life in the same charge as above given. The progenitor of the family in this country was Rev. Johannes Heinrich Helffrich, who landed at New York on January 14, 1772. He settled in what is now Weisenburg township. His charge included, besides the congregations mentioned, also Kutztown, Trexlertown, De Long's, Upper Milford, Weisenburg and Lowhill. He died December 5, 1810. He was succeeded by his own son, Rev. John Helffrich. He died in 1852. He was also succeeded in the charge by a son, Rev. William A. Helffrich, who died in 1896. The pastoral office now once more descended to a son, the lately deceased Rev. N. W. Helffrich. The first three preached exclusively in the German language, whilst the latter preached also in English.

The deceased is survived by his aged mother, Mrs. Amanda Helffrich; at Fogelsville; his wife and three children, and these three brothers—Dr. John Helffrich, of Allentown; Rev. W. U. Helffrich, of Bath, and Dr. C. Helffrich, of Fogelsville.

The funeral of Rev. Mr. Helffrich took place on Monday morning, April 23. A service was held at his house in Allentown at 8 o'clock, conducted by Dr. H. T. Spangler, after which the cortege proceeded to Ziegel's Church, where services were held at 11 o'clock. Sermons were delivered in German by Rev. Dr. Vollmer, and in English by Rev. William Hinke. The pall bearers were: Revs. Theodore F. Herman, Scott R. Wagner, F. H. Ruloff, Henry L. Fogelman, of Allentown; M. H. Brensinger, of Fleetwood, and O. B. Wehr, of Best.

CLASSICAL OFFICERS

President.....CAROLINE E. PAISTE, '05
 Secretary.....JEAN M. H. SWARTZ, '09
 Representative to Union.....DAVID R. WISE, '06
 Adviser.....PROF. W. A. KLINE

MEMBERS

Titus A. Alspach, '07.
 Charles H. Brown, '07.
 Horace L. Custer, '09.
 Frank S. Fry, '07.
 Edward Hamme, '08.
 Winfield S. Harman, '06.
 Herbert Hughes, '08.
 Welcome S. Kerschner, '09.
 John A. Koons, '09
 Charles I. Lau, '09.

Harvey M. Leidy, '08.
 Mary E. Long, '06.
 John C. Myers, '07.
 Evelyn A. Neff, '07.
 Caroline E. Paiste, '06.
 Allan W. Peters, '09.
 Harold D. Steward, '07.
 Jean M. H. Swartz, '09.
 Charles A. Wagner, '06.
 David R. Wise, '06.

LATIN MATHEMATICAL OFFICERS

President.....MILES A. KEASEY, '06
 Secretary.....ELIZABETH K. LONG, '09

Representative to Union....HARRY H. KOERPER, '07 Adviser.....PROF. W. B. CARVER

MEMBERS

Edith Arminta Beck, '09.
 Melvin E. Beck, '09.
 Harvey B. Danehower, '08.
 Lida M. Ebbert, '08.
 John L. Eisenberg, '06.
 Thomas M. Gilland, '09.
 William H. Heffelfinger, '09.
 Miles A. Keasey, '06.

Harry H. Koerper, '07.
 Winfred R. Landis, '09.
 Elizabeth K. Long, '09.
 Ann W. Pechin, '08.
 David L. Stamy, '08.
 William E. Sturgis, '09.
 Elmer B. Ziegler, '06.

CANDIDATES FOR MATRICULATION

Winfield R. Hartzell.
 Howard P. Tyson.

Emerson F. Wade.

CHEMICAL-BIOLOGICAL

OFFICERS

President.....	E. I. COOK, '07	Representative to Union.....	D. R. FARINGER, '06
Secretary.....	R. L. ROTH, '07	Adviser.....	DR. CHARLES H. SHAW

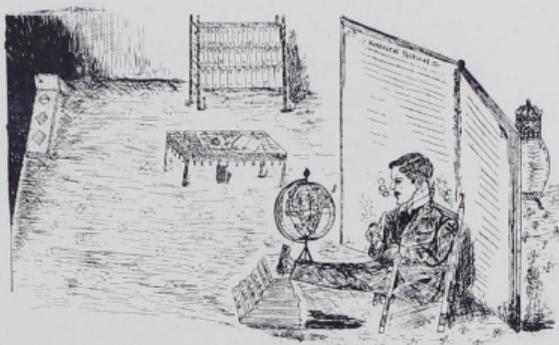

MEMBERS

1906.
MARY E. BEHNEY.
D. R. FARINGER.

1907.
C. E. TOOLE.
R. L. ROTH.
W. MOORE.
M. B. SPONSLER.
W. J. LENHART.
W. B. ASHENFELTER.
E. I. COOK.

1908.
E. N. RHODES.
IRA J. HAIN.
ELIZABETH YERKES.
GEORGE BORDNER.
HOY STONER.

1909.
FRANCIS KRUSEN.
W. S. LONG.
ROSCOE COPE.
LEROY BOLLMAN.

HISTORICAL-POLITICAL

OFFICERS

President.....	WILLIAM B. FENTON, '06	Representative to Union.....	ROY E. MABRY, '06
Secretary.....	ESTHER JACKSON, '08	Adviser.....	PROF. HUBERT H. S. AIMES

MEMBERS

Victor J. Abel, '09.
 Leslie D. Crunkleton, '07
 Charles S. Dotterer, '06.
 Ralph B. Ebbert, '07.
 James A. Ellis, '07.
 Nelson P. Fegley, '07.
 William B. Fenton, '07
 Beverly A. Foltz, '06.
 Floyd E. Heller, '07.
 Esther Jackson, '08.
 Roy E. Mabry, '06.

Ernest T. Miller, '09.
 John R. Munhall, '09.
 John B. Paiste, '08.
 Edward H. Reisner, '07.
 William E. Shunk, '07.
 Martin W. Smith, '06.
 Harry W. Snyder, '08.
 J. Ellis Tobias, '08.
 Rowland R. Umstead, '09
 Eli F. Wismer, '09.
 George B. Wolff, '08.

MODERN LANGUAGE

OFFICERS

President.....A. MABEL HOBSON, '06
 Secretary.....LILLIE I. BECK, '08

Representative to Union.....EVA M. THOMPSON, '08
 Adviser.....PROF. K. J. GRIMM

MEMBERS

Lillie I. Beck, '08.
 Jessie Benner, '09.
 Lola A. Butler, '09.
 Hannah M. Detwiler, '09.
 Rhea E. Duryea, '08.
 Margaret Y. Fryling, '09.
 Mabel Hobson, '06.

Dora A. Moyer, '09.
 Stella M. Smith, '07.
 Sara M. Spangler, '09.
 Judith V. Stoner, '09.
 Ada K. Thompson, '09.
 Eva M. Thompson, '08.

Classes

CLASS OF 1906

MOTTO: FACTA NON VERBA.

Flower: Forget-me-not. Colors: Light Blue and Black.

OFFICERS

PRESIDENT.

First Term.
ROY E. MABRY.

Second Term.
CHARLES S. DOTTERER.

VICE PRESIDENT.

D. REINER FARINGER. MARY E. LONG.

SECRETARY.

MARTIN W. SMITH. MARY E. BEHNEY.

TREASURER.

BEVERLY A. FOLTZ. A. MABEL HOBSON.

HISTORIAN.

A. MABEL HOBSON.

POET.

CAROLINE E. PAISTE.

YELL.

Rippy! Rippy! Razoo!
Razoo! Rix!
Ursinus! Ursinus!
1906!

POEM

Our college years are spent, old friends,
The heartless world asunder rends
This jolly class of dear old U,
Which proudly wore the black and blue.
But, ah! those friendships time endears
Will be the light of future years.

Those early days were happy, free,
But queer and diverse minds had we;
Oft civil strife would rend us twain,
But common hopes and a common aim
Would blow the battle smoke away,
And peace again resume her sway.

Effete tradition flung we far,
Took novel res as our guiding star,
Gay picnics, coasting, Junior dance,
By such did we our marks enhance,
But these are held in memory green
By staid old Seniors now, I ween.

Hail cap and gown! Life's just begun,
The telling race must now be run,
The cold, stern world our future holds,
Farewell, Ursinus' sheltering folds.
But her ideals, high, pure and true,
Ah, keep them yours—brave Black and Blue.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

OUR motto, "facta non verba," has been our watchword throughout our college course. Our deeds have spoken—words are not necessary to proclaim them.

And yet, after four years of good fellowship, it does seem fitting to close our record with a few remarks. By the time this book appears we shall be saying our final farewells to college life as we knew it here. Our old associations in Chapel, in Society Hall and Class Room will be broken forever. Our friendships cannot last as they are now; our acquaintances will be forgotten; the faces of our beloved professors will be but dim rays of sunshine in the distance. To ponder these things over makes one sad; and yet what comfort is there in knowing that we, as individuals, must write our simple line upon life's page of history. If that line fails to impress humanity, how sadly bitter! If it succeeds in standing out clearly and meaning something to somebody, how blessed he who has written it!

Our days of dreaming must have passed with our first loves, and our minds must settle for good into practical, yet lofty, channels. Our sweet memories of Freshmen days, when we coasted, picnicked, banqueted; of Sophomore days, when we played Patty and Romeo and haus-im-peffer; of Junior days, when we dreamed and loved and lived; and of Senior days, when we worked for glory and knowledge—will but urge us on to crown our efforts with the wreath of success.

Therefore, when we take our leave of the gridiron, the campus and the halls, the faculty, the students, the fellow-classmates, let us each bear in mind that we are but leaving our kindergarten, as it were, and are entering the next grade in our educational system. Here it is that our mettle must be proved. Here must we put into practice the principle of self-reliance.

Thus each of us answers to a different call—unlike destinies await every one of us—we hope to meet many times to renew our college ties, but in the meantime let us work for results that will count—deeds that speak without words.

HISTORIAN.

"Far be it we should honor such as these."

MARY E. BEHNEY.....Chemical-Biological Myerstown, Pa.

"A rose bud set with little wilful thorns."

Ursinus Academy; Member Ursinus Union (2) (3) (4); Assistant Editor 1906 "Ruby" (3); President Zwinglian Literary Society (4); Second Prize Zwinglian Freshman Declamation Contest; Assistant Instructor in Biology (3) (4); Zwinglian; Teaching.

CHARLES S. DOTTERER.....Historical-Political Philadelphia, Pa.

"Nowher so besy a man as he there n'as,
And yet he seemed besier than he was."

Central High School, Philadelphia; Ursinus Academy; President of Class (4); President Ursinus Union (4); President Schaff Society (4); Treasurer Inter-Collegiate Oratorical Union (4); First Prize Schaff Debate (2); Musical Director Y. M. C. A.; Member Tennis Association (3); Member Monday Night Club (1); Schaff; Law.

DAVID R. FARINGER.....Chemical-Biological
Collegeville, Pa.

"He hath a daily 'beauty' in his life."

Ursinus Academy; President of Class (3); President Zwinglian Society (3); President Chemical Biological Group (3); President Athletic Association (4); Left half-back Varsity Football Team (1) (2) (3) (4); Captain Football team (4); Varsity Baseball Team (1) (2) (3) (4); Captain Baseball Team (3); Glee and Minstrel (2); Assistant Business Manager 1906 "Ruby;" Meminger Medal Junior Oratorical Contest (3); Charmidean Club (4); Representative Inter-Collegiate Oratorical Contest (4); Zwinglian; Medicine.

BEVERLY A. FOLTZ.....Historical-Political Waynesboro, Pa.

"He lives to build, not boast a generous race
No tenth transmitter of a foolish face."

Mercersburg Academy; President Freshman Class; President Schaff Society (4); President Charmidean Club (4); Manager Baseball Team (4); Athletic Editor 1906 "Ruby;" Centre Varsity Football Team (2) (3) (4); Honorable Mention Junior Oratorical Contest; Third Prize Schaff Prize Debate (1); Schaff Debating Team (4); Schaff; Law.

WINFIELD S. HARMAN.....Classical Emmitsburg, Md.

"Ah, me! I fondly dream."

Emmitsburg High School; President Y. M. C. A. (3); President Christian Endeavor Society Trinity Reformed Church (3); Member Sophomore Dramatic Club (2); Member College Orchestra (3); Glee Club and Orchestra (4); Centre Scrub Football Team (1) (2) (3); Sub Varsity (4); Schaff; Ministry.

A. MABEL HOBSON.....Modern Language
Collegeville, Pa.

"Her voice was ever soft,
Gentle and low; an excellent thing in woman."

Ursinus Academy; Wilson College; Class President (3); President Schaff Literary Society (3); First Prize Junior Oratorical Contest (3); President Modern Language Group (4); Schaff; Music.

MILES A. KEASEY.....Latin-Mathematical
Collegeville, Pa.

"He's as headstrong as an allegory on the banks of the Nile."

Cumberland Valley State Normal School; President Y. M. C. A. (4); President Latin Mathematical Group (4); President Zwinglian Society (4); President of Class (2); Superintendent Junior C. E. (3) (4); Assistant Instructor in Physics (2); Assistant Instructor Algebra and Geometry (3) (4); Editor-in-Chief 1906 "Ruby" (3); Business Manager "Ursinus Weekly" (3) (4); Honorable Mention Zwinglian Freshman Declamation Contest (1); Zwinglian Oration (4); Reserve Football Team (1) (3); Varsity Football Team (4); Ursinus Union; Sophomore Dramatic Club (2); Y. M. C. A. Delegate Northfield (2); Zwinglian; Teaching.

MARY E. LONG.....Classical Manheim, Pa.

"Not stepping o'er the bounds of modesty."

Ursinus Academy; Class Treasurer (2); Class Secretary (3); Class Vice-President (4); Member Ursinus Union (3) (4); Artist 1906 "Ruby;" Zwinglian; Teaching

ROY E. MABRY.....Historical-Political Mertztown, Pa.

"Though last, not least in love."

Ursinus Academy; President of Class (4); President Zwinglian Society (4); Business Manager 1906 "Ruby;" Member Ursinus Union; Varsity Baseball Team (1) (2) (3) (4); Captain Varsity Baseball Team (4); Reserve Football Team (1) (2); Captain Reserve Football Team (1); Class Baseball Team (1) (2); Zwinglian; Law.

CAROLINE E. PAISTE.....Classical
Collegeville, Pa.

"How far that little candle throws its beams!"

Ursinus Academy; Freshman Admission Prize; Sophomore English Prize (Half) (2); President Schaff Society (4); President Classical Group (4); Member "Weekly" Staff (2) (3); Literary Editor "Weekly" (4); Assistant Editor 1906 "Ruby" (3); First Prize Schaff Prize Debate (3); Member Ursinus Union (3) (4); Assistant Teacher in Latin in Academy (4); Valedictorian Class of 1906; Schaff; Teaching.

MARTIN W. SMITH.....Historical-Political Lebanon, Pa.

"But if it is a sin to covet honor, I am the most offending soul alive."

Schuylkill Seminary; Lebanon High School; Class President (2); Sophomore English Prize (Half) (2); Manager Class Dramatic Club (2); President Tennis Association (3); Assistant Editor 1906 "Ruby" (3); Editor-in-Chief "Ursinus Weekly" (4); Instructor Ursinus Union; President Schaff Literary Society (4); Member of Charmidean Club; Schaff; Medicine.

DAVID R. WISE.....Classical Reading, Pa.

"The worst fault you have is to be in love."
"What's in chaff?"

Reading High School; Reading High School Scholarship Prize; Member Ursinus Glee Club (1) (2) (3) (4); Member Mandolin Club (1) (2); Member Ursinus Orchestra (3); First Prize Freshman Declamation Contest; Alumni Editor "Weekly" (2) (3) (4); Musical Director Y. M. C. A. (1) (2) (3); Member Chess and Checker Club (2); Member Ursinus Union; Member Sophomore Dramatic Club (2); President Zwinglian Society (3); Zwinglian; Chemistry.

CLASS OF 1907

Motto: Carpe Diem.

Flower: Carnation.

Colors: Maroon and White.

OFFICERS

PRESIDENT.

First Term.

JAMES A. ELLIS.

Second Term.

RALPH B. EBBERT.

Vice President.

FRANK S. FRY.

EVELYN A. NEFF.

Secretary.

HAROLD D. STEWARD.

CLARENCE E. TOOLE.

Treasurer.

WILLIAM B. FENTON.

FRANK S. FRY.

Poet.

EDWARD H. REISNER.

Historian.

FLOYD E. HELLER.

YELL.

Boom-la-Boom-la!

Lix-Lax-Leven!

Ursinus! Ursinus!

1907!

When sunbeams dance or raindrops fall;
While summer smiles or winter frowns;
With blue above or murky pall—
Carpe diem.

When busy days give peaceful sleep
And perfect health no labor shuns;
While life's full stream runs broad and deep,
Carpe diem.

When aching heart-strings almost tear
And bitter loss our lives invades;
Black night for us and dark despair,—
Carpe diem.

Each life its changing scenes must know;
So, whether joy shall be our share
Or overflowing cup of woe,
Carpe diem.

God gives men work to make them strong;
He sends them grief to make them kind.
To keep men young He sends them song.
Carpe diem.

Let every day surmount a hill;
Give every hour a duty fit.
Develop patience, courage, will.
Carpe diem.

Love now; for night will shortly fall.
To-morrow's kiss may touch dead lips;
A gift deferred may grace the pall.
Carpe diem.

—Poet.

1907 CLASS HISTORY

"Boom-La! Boom-La!
Lix-Lax-Leven!
Ursinus! Ursinus!
1907!"

THIS rousing and ear-splitting yell one bright morning in September, 1903, resounded through the sacred halls of Bomberger. Like the roar of an angry, leaping cataract the sound echoed and re-echoed through the building until the Sophs trembled in their boots. It was the 1907 Class yell, emanating from the throats of twenty-seven Freshies, who were bidding defiance to the Sophs, and who wished to make it known they had come to Ursinus to have their own way and say. They remained in undisputed possession of the halls, for the Sophs wisely decided not to molest the Freshmen.

Our Freshman year was uneventful. Our challenges to the Sophs were unaccepted; our paintings were undisturbed; our class yells were not interrupted; our banquet was not forbidden; in short, our prestige at Ursinus was firmly established. The end of our Freshman year witnessed our only contest with the Sophs—a game of baseball. They, relying upon a strong battery, thought they could snatch an easy victory from us, but they were sadly mistaken. "When the dust of the conflict" had cleared away, twenty-three Freshies and only four Sophs, had crossed the plate. The victory was decisive, and was well worth the tempting repast that the Steward set before us that evening in "commemoration" of the event.

In the fall of 1904 twenty-four of our class came back to take up the duties of Sophomores. The prestige of our Freshman year had to be sustained, and twenty-two lusty warriors of the Maroon and White were ready to sustain it at any cost. The opportunity soon came. One morning after chapel services, the Freshies decided to give their yell in Bomberger, but before they were aware of it they had been hustled out-of-doors. Seeing that they were unable to do anything openly, they attempted, under the cover of darkness, to defy the Sophs by painting their numerals. The following morning the real test came. The "scrap" took place on the campus in front of the Dog House. After a short but sharp contest, the Freshies who were brave enough to show themselves were tied up hand and foot. There, some propped against trees, others stretched out on the grass, they awaited their turn to be introduced to the shower bath. But fate was not to be so unkind to these misguided urchins, for President Ebbert, having compassion upon the poor Freshies, and being influenced by the cries of the 1908 maidens, came to their rescue and had them released. The scare, however, was sufficient for the "kids."

But our days of "scraps" came to a close with the end of our Sophomore year. Twenty-three of us returned to College in the fall of 1905 to "assume" the more dignified and paternal air of upper classmen. The influence which we exerted as Freshmen and Sophomores then took definite form. The class is prominent in every phase of college life. Intellectually, we can boast of many of high rank, who, by means of superior preparation in high schools and normal schools, are doing excellent work in the class room. Every member belongs to one of the two Literary Societies, in which many of them have distinguished themselves as debaters, musicians and orators of no mean ability. Quite a few of the class are members of the Glee Club and Orchestra. In every department of athletics the class has been well represented. Five of the 1905 football team were Juniors; four of the 1906 baseball team were of the 1907 class; the second teams, both baseball and football, contain a large percentage of third year men; and to tennis our class has given quite a few who are skilled in the use of the racket. Socially, we have by no means fallen behind. We can rightly boast of two female and five male "regulars," while several are "candidates for matriculation."

At this time, the close of our Junior year, we look ahead to the responsibilities of our Senior year. Several of us will have probably fallen from the ranks, but those of us who return will enter into the work having ever before us our motto:

CARPE DIEM.

TITUS ALFRED ALSPACH

"He, like wine, improves with age."

Nickname—Rube.

Hobby—Playing chess.

Ambition—To preach.

ALITTLE more than two decades ago was born near Lickdale, Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, a man child, who now lives and moves among us under the name of Titus Alfred Alspach. His tender years were spent on the farm and in the common schools, during which time he is said to have gained the rudiments of chess and checkers. After two years spent in teaching in his native county, "Rube" decided to make preaching his life work, and to that end entered Ursinus Academy. Here he has been known as a more or less doubtful character and a bad man to have in the room above you with a water pitcher handy. His reputation has not improved in this respect since he entered college, but his specialty has changed to "tearing out" absentees. In all fairness, however, it must be admitted that "Rube" is a better boy now than he was in former years, and we predict that by the time he enters the "Sem," one prank a week will keep him in good health.

"Alsie" has a great fund of physical energy, which takes as its most enjoyable outlet the form of "rough-housing" among his neighbors. His scheduled programme for the day ends with prayers at 10.30, and from 10.30 to midnight he raises "Ned" along his hall. During football season his energies take a more practical turn. For two years he played on the scrub, and last season made the Varsity as a regular end. When warm weather arrives in the spring "Alsie" becomes quite tired and confines his exercise to very short walks and very long naps.

His avocation is view selling. For three years Alspach has been numbered among the most successful canvassers of Underwood & Underwood. He says he likes the work, for in this pursuit he makes money and friends. The only hardship in the life is that he has to leave behind him in every town a dear little friend, black hair preferred.

He is a member of the classical group. His speech and his prayers (public) are plentifully dashed with quotations from Holy Writ and from the old heathen bards. He is a staunch Y. M. C. A. man and a pillar of orthodoxy. We predict for him a devoted and successful life in the Christian ministry.

WILLIAM B. ASHENFELTER

"The schoolboy with his satchel in his hand, Whistling aloud to bear his courage up."

Ambition—Medicine.
Nickname—Ashey.
Hobby—Biology.

WILLIAM BURGOYNE ASHENFELTER was born somewhere in the State of Pennsylvania, county of Montgomery, in a little town called Yerkes, some time in the early eighties, and, since being able to walk, has found delight in roaming among the woodlands and fishing among his native streams.

After coming to a mature age he entered Ursinus "prep" for a few months, then left for a business course at Pierce's, only to return and enter the class of 1907. His whole college life has been practically spent in the laboratory and "bagging" Chapel, for which he can give no excuse. In the laboratory he has been dissecting bugs and fishing chicks out of eggs. All of this he did, to say nothing of cats, dogs, birds, snakes and crabs. He has worked well under the guidance of Elmira, and in all her tricks, schemes and devices of gaining his love she has made a decided failure, and "Ashy" continues his work unflinching and with a serious trend of mind.

Bill's athletic career is also worthy of mention, for, during the short time he played ball, he was considered one of the best "swatters" on the team. Another branch of his diversion is "pinochle," in which he always wins second place. But in the closing days of his Junior year he has made a decided change in his life, going deep into the works of Shakespeare, Bacon, Keats and "Weidersheime." Of the progress which he has made at this stage of his life "Old Montgomery" may well be proud; she may point with pride to this son of hers who has lived beneath her shady trees and wandered by her pleasant streams. Portrayed in him we see all the traits of human nature; "grand, gloomy and peculiar; wrapped in the solitude of his own originality; a mind bold, independent and decisive." Perhaps he is the most peculiar character in the annals of Ursinus College; for with all these attainments and attributes, he is continually striving for his own betterment and seeking loftier ideals.

"Ashy" has been at war with Cupid, and occasionally when falling into the wilderness of forgetfulness, we hear him saying: "Beware of the wiles of women and curb their vanity." However serious this conflict may have been, yet behind the dark clouds there is a silver lining, and it only remains for us to see where he shall have yielded to some pair of smiling eyes all filled with joy and hope and light. Unless fate does her worst, in a few years we shall see Bill standing on the pinnacle of glory in his chosen profession, enjoying the fruits of his strenuous college life and administering sugar pills to those with dire afflictions of rheumatism and gout.

CHARLES HENRY BROWN

"They laughed with counterfeited glee at all his jokes."

Hobby—Poleing, Ambition—Preach, Nickname—Deacon.

FEASt your eyes for a passing moment upon the classic features of Charles Henry Brown, a direct descendant of John Brown, of Abolition fame. About eight-and-twenty years ago, near the foot of the Blue Mountains, in Schuylkill County, this fine specimen of Pennsylvania Dutch stock first inhaled the "breath of life." Forseeing for their son a career of great power and influence, his parents decided to name him Charlemagne, whom we, for brevity's sake, call Charley.

The narrow horizon of his native place was too small for his expanding powers, so that, when yet a boy, he removed with his parents to Tremont, the home of such illustrious characters as "Pop" and "Toby." He attended the Keystone State Normal School, from which institution he graduated in 1900. He taught school for several years before he decided to come to Ursinus.

"Parson" is almost a six-footer. He is built somewhat along the lines of the stripes on a barber's pole, and looks brittle. In his Sophomore year he ventured into football, but a broken rib (?) put a period after his athletic aspirations. He is a diligent student.

"A man who consecrates his hours
By vig'rous effort and honest aim."

He is a stanch Zwinglian and is a prominent figure in the debates of that Society. As a debater he delights to humor the audience, for which he holds the college long-distance record for far-fetched jokes. I said he was a Pennsylvania Dutchman, but, in spite of that, by hard effort, he has succeeded in eradicating from his speech almost all traces of that beautiful German patois so rare (?) at Ursinus.

Brown is a proctor in the Academy. He is supposed, ex-officio, to make the "kids" toe the chalk line, but oftener the "kids" are proctors and Brown becomes the "kid." "Deacon," as the youngsters call him, makes occasional journeys to Spinnerstown to make reports to the Biological Department on the condition of crops (?) there. He is so zealous in this work that often he forgets to come back in time for classes. According to the number of letters he receives bearing the stamp mark "Spinnerstown," he must receive special reports by mail. His delight in this work accounts for his never having fallen in love.

"Parson" is one of our embryo preachers, who expect to storm the ramparts of Satan. If he goes to the mission fields his classmates hope that he may not be appointed to a cannibal district. If he is will the chef please return his wish-bone to the Ursinus trophy room?

EDWARD IRVIN COOK

"He is the bluntest wooer in Christendom."

Nickname—Bacchus.
Hobby—Irish widow.
Ambition—Chemistry.

- 1935—Died.
1930—Resigned Instructorship of Embryology in Ursinus College.
1920—Accepted Instructorship at Ursinus College.
1912—Began practicing medicine at Five Forks, Pa.
1912—Graduated from Hahnemann Medical College.
1910—Cut up his first "stiff."
1909—Entered Hahnemann Medical College.
1908—Instructor of Chemistry in Collegeville High School.
1907—Graduated from Ursinus College.
1906—Accompanied Miss Neff to Schaff Society and voluntarily accepted new rules of convent as law.
1905—Forcibly ejected from Library for malconduct.
1904—Leader of Freshmen Quartette. Specialty, "Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."
1903—Entered Ursinus College.
1902—Governed beggars in District No. 10.
1901—Wielded rod in Pine Hill "Deestrecht."
1900—Graduated from Shippensburg Normal.
1899—Flirted with co-eds, at Middlers' Ball.
1898—Entered Shippensburg Normal.
1896—Graduated from Chambersburg Academy.
1894—Made debut in Society by calling on Hannah.
1884—Donned first trousers.
1880—Born.

LESLIE DALE CRUNKLETON

This is the Jew that Shakespeare drew.

Nickname—Dolly.

Hobby—Girls.

Ambition—Law.

LESLIE DALE CRUNKLETON, alias "Dale" among his parents, "Crimenstein" with business men, plain "Dolly" with the girls, and just "Crunk" with the fellers. Since my esteemed colleague has so many diverse names among his associates, his home is no less honored, being called by the conductors on the C. V. R. R. Mason-Dixon; by the Postmaster General, Stateline; by the folks around the homestead, Middleburg, and by "der kids," Muttontown.

Since manuscripts fail to show clearly the cardinals of this boy's natal day, it is to be judged that he came to life some time before the Historical-Political course was instituted at Ursinus, and waxed and grew fat in "God's country" after the Civil War. Growing rapidly into boyhood, his father found the seats in the small brick schoolhouse around the corner too small for him, and consequently shipped him to Chambersburg Academy to complete his A, B, C's and higher mathematics. Here he was thrilled with the old stories concerning the quaint capital, and now anyone who has the opportunity to hear him relate those hair-raising reminiscences cannot help but imagine the roar of cannon and the charge "to my divy from the Glee Club and Orchestra." Thinking himself a scholar, he accordingly left the Academy without taking his P. C. degree and entered the Shippensburg Normal, with the resolved purpose to become a loyal school "marm" and a devout bachelor. Fortunately the environment of the school was satisfactory to his wants, and, like a mushroom, he came to public notice as a mandolin "spieler" and a leader in social affairs and athletics, and, after toiling hard for two years he took the class by surprise, and came out A No. 1. He was awarded the title of Mister.

His ambition and zeal for higher knowledge did not cease at this point, but carried him to Ursinus, where at present we have him finding fault with everything and trying to revolutionize the system of sending tel-e-grams. About a year ago "Crunk's" name and photograph were circulated at random over the States as a coming baseball wonder. In the spring of the year one is well reminded of that once famous picture entitled "Crinkleton at the bat."

Overbalancing his physical defects we can see that good-nature, kind-heartedness and eye for mischief everywhere in evidence. Thinking not only for himself, he sacrifices many of his precious moments in being with those whom he admires, and almost any hour in the day we can see him draw a pleasant smile from the other half who compose a co-educational school. Trusting that he may walk beside still waters, and lie down in green pastures, I am Very sincerely, VERITAS.

RALPH BARNDOLLAR EBBERT

"Nature hath framed strange fellows in her time."

Nickname—Doc.

Hobby—Loafing.

Ambition—Law.

THE Schuylkill Valley is conducive to good health and great strength, and it is by no means without its truly representative type in the person of Ralph Barndollar Ebbert. However, the biographer's task is a difficult one. Its difficulties increased ten-fold when no data concerning this specimen was to be found in the recent encyclopædias. Through the aid of a worthy assistant, the date of his birth was fixed to be November 6, 1886.

Little is known of his early life in Spring City. When he was yet young his father moved to Milton. Here the actual life of the young man began. He attended the Milton High School for several years. Finding that he was talented to become an educated man, he rapidly distinguished himself among his classmates. After graduation from the High School, a desire for a college education was instilled in him. He entered Bucknell University, where he soon rose into prominence among his fellow students. Feeling the need of some term of endearment, his friends gave him the name of "Cookie." As a result of his popularity, he became a member of one of the strongest fraternities at Bucknell.

In the fall of 1904, when the Sophomore Class returned to college, it was glad to welcome as one of its members "Cookie," who became better known at Ursinus as "Doc." Since then his life reads like a fairy tale. He is a close student of Seager, and spends much of his time and thought trying to substantiate the "Laissezfaire Economics." Throughout his college course he has always cherished a good college spirit. In athletics, he has never failed to show his encouraging interest by taking part in both football and baseball. He was captain of the 1905 Reserves. As a conversationalist, Mr. Ebbert is humorous and entertaining. Ostensibly, he is not a lady's man. During the college year, in pursuance of a strenuous life, he unconsciously neglects his social obligations; but during the summer, when the social environment is predominant, he makes up for lost opportunities and becomes a social lion.

"Doc's" many-sided nature has made him a friend of all. He is a zealous Schaffite and has done much to add to the success of many programs by his original stories and interesting Gazettes. It is difficult to say what his profession will be, but in whatever he shall devote his life's work we wish him all possible success.

JAMES ALFRED ELLIS

"Tell the truth or trump—but get the trick."

Nickname—Glue.

Hobby—Cards.

Ambition—Law.

STOP! LOOK! AND LISTEN! Clear the track, for here comes the express from Turbotsville. The train stops at the Collegeville station, and Mr. James Alfred Ellis, fresh from the green fields and verdant meadows of Northumberland County, makes his appearance upon the stage of college life. Yes, James was green then—this was in the fall of nineteen hundred two—and, perhaps, he was a little afraid, for he was to be a fourth year "prep" at the Ursinus Academy. Luckily, he did not get lost on his way uptown, and soon he was in the protecting walls of Prepdom. To show his college spirit, James was induced to come out for football, and it was funny to see him fall all over himself. But that green "prep" showed his nerve and no amount of guying could make him give up. Now he is captain of the football team for nineteen hundred six.

If you were to ask Jim where he was born, he would tell you that he first saw the light of day at his father's farm at Exchange, Pennsylvania, on the twenty-sixth of August, 1882. He received his early education at the Turbotsville High School, and afterwards taught school for two years in Montour County. In the fall of 1902 he entered Ursinus Academy; the next year he became a Freshman in the College. Jim was a tower of strength in the class scraps, and soon became one of the most prominent men in his class.

To look at Jim to-day you would scarcely recognize him as the same fellow who came to Ursinus as a fourth-year "prep." He is not only one of the most popular fellows in his class, but in the whole college, as well. He is good-natured, kind, generous—in fact, we may sum up his character by saying that he is a jolly, good fellow. In addition, Jim is a good student and stands well in his class. He has been President of his class, Vice-President of the Schaff Society, a contestant in the Prize Debate, a member of his class baseball team and football captain for 1906.

Mr. James Alfred Ellis expects to study law. His natural ability and jovial disposition should make him successful in his chosen profession. Here's to his health! Long may he live and prosper!

NELSON PLACE FEGLEY

"God made him, therefore let him pass for a man."

Hobby—Working "Profs."

Nickname—Flegle.

Ambition—Law.

NELSON PLACE FEGLEY was born in the summer of the early 80's, amid the fertile hills of Skippack, Montgomery County, Pa., not far from those bugs, birds and other living critters. Coming into the world in the "good fields in which the "naturalists" of our class traveled in order to study old summer time," when the grain was ripening, he was soon compelled to put his "cradle" to use. He was reared among wagons and plows, horses and cows, geese and other noisy fowl. Is it strange that his later developments should show the influence of his early environments?

Perhaps you already know that "Nelse" was so full of docility that his promotions in the public schools were numerous. In '99 he graduated from the public "agricultural" school. Then he entered Ursinus "prepdom" a conglomeration of bone, muscle and sinew, seasoned with some "economic principles." Such was our friend, Fegley. At the close of the 1903 academic year he fell heir to the College Admission Prize. This is not the only place where he has achieved greatness, for on the athletic field he is noted for his pump-handle throw. He also boasts of the fact that he does not have to trespass on other soil to gain an education.

In social circles, by dint of perseverance and nerve, he has attained "par excellens." Besides, he shuffles cards well. He is an active member of the Schaff Literary Society, where he is renowned as an orator. He has a voice like a foghorn in distress. When you hear him bluffing the "Prof." in recitations you are reminded of the croaking of a frog.

Fegley's future is very uncertain. At first his intention was to study for the bar, but abandoned that idea. Soon signs of dissatisfaction appeared, so that he could not decide whether he ought to become principal of "Wilson" School or investigate the psychological principles of "Morgan." At last his plasticity suggests that he either become a volunteer or a farmer. Notwithstanding his involved syllogisms and mathematical stunts, Fegley is still a good-natured and honest country fellow. He is not afraid of work, or even of working the "Profs." for A's.

WILLIAM BOWMAN FENTON

"A mother's pride, a father's joy."
Nickname—Sidney Ham.
Hobby—Chasing Ads.
Ambition—Business.

Of those who by the 1907 band are bound,
There's one whose fame, indeed afar renowned,
Reminds the rest what they, too, should have done
To win the name of "mamma's darling son."
The wondrous story of this boy's career—
For truly brave is he as you shall hear,
Is short, but worthy of our most enrapt attention.
Important facts I'll now proceed to mention.
In '85 here in this College ville,
October twelfth brought with it little Bille,
Through mother's love and father's guardian care,
Whose fond affections he alone did share,
His childhood days most happily passed on.
But lessons followed, and those sweet days were gone.
In school his progress was by no means slow,
As marks on all his record cards do show;
So rapidly from grade to grade he passed
That all his classmates he at length outclassed,
And C. H. S. in Nineteen Hundred Two
With honors, honored our Billy, too.
Ursinus now lays claim, as truly she can,
To this 1907, first base, society man.
A year ago our Billy changed his mind,
The woman, whom, he said, he ne'er would find,
Appeared; and Billy, too, then felt the dart,
Which, not at all before, had pierced his heart.
Thus Billy's thoughts no more in this place rest,
But seeks a NEW VILLE which he deems the best.
Alas, ye co-eds, all your hopes are lost,
For Billy can't be won at any cost.
But here's to Billy, whom we all must praise,
For striving thus himself so high to raise
In "mamma's" estimation, and that girl's, too,
Like whom, he thinks, there are a very few.
The Ursinus Girl he cares for not a "rap,"
The 1907 Girl's not worth a "snap."
But more, alas, I've told you with little skill,
Than might be deemed sufficient for our Bill,
So I'll take my leave, my inability confessed,
With all best wishes to his Honor expressed.

FRANK SWENCK FRY

"Croaks like a frog in a quinsky."

Nickname—Lord.

Hobby—Agnes.

Ambition—Missionary.

THIS is Philadelphia's contribution to the class of 1907. Should we be surprised then that Jones, the noted evangelist, contemplating the political corruption of the city, should say in the words of the Jewish inquiry: "Can only good things come out of Philadelphia?" Frank was born in the City of Brotherly Love, it is true. He secured his early education in the schools of Philadelphia, but came to Ursinus and entered the Academy. As a "prep" he was a diligent student, and in 1903 he entered the college. Because of his "stuck-up" and presuming manners, he became known as "Lord Fry."

"Lord" was always a staunch and loyal member of the 1907 class. Whenever a "scrap" occurred, he was in it head over heels; if any class affair was to be started, he was generally one of the originators; and for this reason he incurred the enmity of many under classmen, who continually sought revenge on him.

Frank became a social "lion" very early in his college career. In his Freshman year he made frequent visits to Arcola. But something turned up—we know not what—and these visits suddenly ceased. He then turned his attention toward another one of the co-eds, but in this case he was doomed to failure. At the beginning of his Junior year he changed his residence to Perkiomenville, so that now he returns to his home every Friday or Saturday.

"Lord" is a great athlete. He is a tower of strength on the scrub football eleven, and many a victory has been won by his headwork and aggressive playing. The Athletic Committee would do well to select him when they come to choose a head coach for football. He is also a good tennis player, but he fails to distinguish himself.

Frank is a member of the Zwinglian Society, and never fails to do his duty—when he can get a substitute. Of course his frequent returns to his home in Perkiomenville necessitate "occasional" absences from Society. He was also Assistant Business Manager of the RUBY, but didn't render much assistance. He is also a member of the Glee Club and sings way down in the cellar. He has a melodious voice, and its richness is very noticeable.

He is a member of the Classical Group and expects to become a successful missionary because of his association with the heathen in East Wing for several years. His intended work is a noble one, and we wish him abundant success.

FLOYD ERWIN HELLER

"His very hair is of the dissembling color."

Nickname—Fluffy.

Hobby—Music.

Ambition—Law.

IN a little white house a few miles from Easton, early in the morning of the 4th day of July, 1871, a great event happened, one which was destined to influence subsequent history. It was here that Floyd E. Heller, alias "Fluffy," was born. The people little dreamed that in this little fat boy lay powers which were to develop into a Paderewski.

Heller's name suggests volumes of history, but we shall have time to take only a cursory glance. He is of Dutch descent. "Fluffy" says that his grandfather came over with the Amsterdam Dutch, his grandmother with the Rotterdam Dutch, and that he had a rich uncle who sailed with the other ——— Dutch. There is a pretty little romance connected with his life. It had its initium in the little log schoolhouse on the hill near his home, and since then has piloted his unshattered hulk over many untried waters. Jim, his "socius," says: "My night's rest is often disturbed by Floyd's continuous repetition of 12 pence—a "Shilling"—one "Shilling"—"Shilling"—not on your life, Jim." There are four years of his life of which little is known. One morning, at the age of 15, he took a train for the Eastern cities. He received employment, was promoted several times and declares that he stood a fighting chance of becoming boss of the plant, but fell out with the "guys" and quit. He then decided to take Horace Greeley's advice and go West. In one of the lake cities he got a job in a wig factory. It was here he became an expert wig fitter, originating the novel method of fastening wigs with tacks instead of glue. After roving several years he came to himself and said: "I will arise and go to my father." He resumed studies at Lerch Preparatory School. One morning, while on his way to school he had a vision, he heard a voice—a lawyer—Philadelphia—Gang—Durham—clean politics. He resolved then and there to make law his lifework.

He landed at Ursinus, September, 1903. It was only a few weeks till Floyd was discovered to be a man of more than ordinary talent. He has been star tackle for two years; formerly a "regular" of social functions, now a recruit; leader of the Ursinus Orchestra, of which he was the originator. He has a sweet, round tenor voice of no mean character, and by virtue of his musical ability has been allied with all the College organizations of that nature.

"Fluffy" is a jolly, happy-go-lucky sort of a fellow and a royal entertainer. With a keen, original mind, and broad and varied experience, we can prophesy nothing but abundant success in his chosen profession.

HARRY H. KOERPER

"Happy the man whose wish and care
A few paternal acres bound."

Nickname—Dad.

Hobby—?

Ambition—Teach.

HARRY H. KOERPER came to Ursinus in the fall of 1903 with the sole purpose of editing the 1907 "Ruby." He has made it his masterpiece and has devoted a great deal of his precious time to make it a success.

According to his own statement and the records in the family Bible, "Dad" was born February 30, 1775. Upon being asked if he was born in Pennsylvania he replied: "Well, no; I made my debut at Tremont, Schuylkill County." In addition to being the oldest member of the class, "Dad" has the further distinction of being the only married man in our ranks. On December 26, 1898, he decided it was not good for man to be alone, so on that day he became reckless and blew himself to the extent of a wife. December 26 became quite a momentous date. Just seven years later Dr. Smith, in celebrating the day, decided to give up his pipe and cigars, but this is wandering from the point. Since that time a little boy and a little girl came to make "Dad" walk the floor at night and say bad words all day.

After absorbing all he could get in the public schools, "Dad" went through Millersville Normal. That was back in '95. From that date on till 1903 he taught in the public schools of Schuylkill County, and showed the young ideas up there in the mountains how to shoot.

In athletics Koerper has made quite a hit as a baseball player. His fielding record has been up to the standing, and his batting—well, "Dad" is noted either for a pop fly or a home run to the bench. But that doesn't worry him, since there are a few others in his class. In the classroom he has never pulled less than a B, showing that he has an excellent record for scholarship. After he graduates—that is, if he can manage in some way or other to skin through—he and Billy Bryan are going to patch up some bi-metallic system that will suit enough Democrats, Prohibitionists, Socialists, Dagoes and Greasers to pass it. This task done, he will either go to the ministry or return to his native soil to teach. He might take to running a side show, since he is acquiring an elegant voice for barking, due to his connection with Trinity Choir and Ursinus Glee Club. In any of these lines we do not doubt in the least but that Dad will be a "howling" success.

For the old man, the father of his class, and adviser of us all, we predict an eventful future.

WILLIAM JOHN LENHART

"The lion is not so fierce as painted."

Nickname—Lenny.

Hobby—"Doin'" Pottstown.

Ambition—Veterinarian.

WAY down in Dover, York County, Pennsylvania, one bright morning this little "runt" was lassoed and put through a "course of stunts." Previous to his advent in the kindergarten, he had been accustomed to run wild about the streets of his native town.

William John Lenhart received his early education in the Dover Public School. He next entered York County Academy and, after two years of hard (?) study, graduated with summa cum laude in Arithmetic and Algebra. In the fall of 1901 he entered Ursinus Academy. He soon made a hit with the fellows by his generosity. If you were in need of tobacco, why, Billy was the man you were looking for. Although he was popular among the fellows, he was yet more a favorite with the girls. They all thought him the cutest bow-legged representative York County ever shipped to Ursinus. Well, after galloping through two years of preparatory work, "Lenny" graduated from the Academy with honors in Mathematics.

In the fall of 1903 he was dumped into the College and has been a "jolly good fellow" ever since. When he entered he had some difficulty in choosing a course of study. He had had enough Mathematics, and he wished to take the course leading up to law, but, you see, he didn't like the idea of the "bar." Finally he joined the Chemical-Biological crowd.

Billy has taken an active part in the social affairs at the College, for he is quite a conversationalist. He is an active Schaffite and one of the leading comedians in College. His one failing is the "Free Lunch Counter" at Fenton's store. Here, too, Billy has very "taking" ways.

Of late years "Lenny" has shown a preference for the Pottstown girls. He does not show as marked attention to the college girls as of old. He is also subject to violent attacks of nightmare of late. One night during an exceptionally wild attack he packed his trunk and persuaded his chum to express it to a certain address in Pottstown. Well, Mandy shipped the trunk and it arrived in Pottstown O. K. and is still there.

He spends his summer vacations as a night clerk in the Brumhouse Hotel, York. His vision has not appeared as yet to him, so we are unable to know his future work, but from present indications he will become a veterinary surgeon, and thus, like the dutiful son he is, follow in the footsteps of his dad.

WILLIAM MOORE

"One pinch, a hungry, lean-faced villain, a mere anatomy."

Nickname—Toady.

Hobby—Bugs.

Ambition—Biology.

IN the fall of 1902, should any curiosity seeker have been inspired by the stately structure on Church street, Phoenixville, familiarly known as "Miss Green's Private School," to have inquired concerning its occupants, or had been attracted by the peculiar noises issuing therefrom to have entered, his feelings would have been rewarded by witnessing there a group of children of various ages and temperaments. These children were variously engaged; some were studying, others reciting, and yet others were talking together, but one sober little lad who resembled an embryo bean pole, was earnestly endeavoring to determine the victor in a battle which he had incited between a centipede and a black spider.

This "Green" pupil was no other than William Moore, or "Toady," as he is commonly known in College. When William reached his thirteenth milestone he was sent to the local High School, where he became famous on the football team—as "water boy"—and distinguished in the chemical laboratory, where he tortured the fair co-eds with puzzling odors, caused by frequent claps of thunder, and only escaped from one monstrous explosion because his head was so far above the floor and his body presented such a poor target that the flying particles couldn't find it.

He had the distinction of being the youngest and tallest of his class in High School, from which institution he was graduated in 1903, at the tender age of 16 years. In college also he stood higher than any of his classmates—outside the classroom—and in his junior year was selected to care for the freshmen while on their field trips.

Moore's highest ambition when he entered college was to study medicine, but the love for nature, acquired in his long tramps through the country, has inspired him to become a Professor in Bi-ology instead of Di(e)-ology. What little time he can spare from his tramps and laboratory work, Moore generally devotes to literary and Y. M. C. A. work, both of which he enters into with great earnestness. The only cause he now has for worry is that the girls are becoming scarce around the college—for he never goes more than once with the same girl—and he is at present trying by the use of his economics to make them last till the end of the term.

JOHN CALVIN MYERS

"If this fail,
The pillared firmament is rottenness,
And earth's base built on stubble."

Ambition—Ministry. Hobby—Arguing. Nickname—Jack.

THE subject of this sketch is descended from good old Pennsylvania Dutch stock. Tradition says that one of his remote ancestors was "John the Generous," but this seems hardly possible. John was born near East Berlin soon after Lee's surrender, and the greater part of his life was spent in the vicinity of his birthplace.

From earliest childhood he was considered an unusually bright boy. He says of himself: "I knew Greek before I learned to talk." But what was formerly a virtue has become a fault. He often knows his Greek, but cannot tell it. When six years and two days old Johnny started to school. He "passed through" the public school at Hollingers, and was graduated with high honors in spelling and music. The next two years were spent in teaching, interspersed with periods of study in Hanover, East Berlin and State Normal. In 1901 he entered the State Normal at Shippensburg as a Senior. Nothing more was heard of him until June, when the papers said that he got through. There were certain rumors that he was deeply enamored of a fair damsel while there, but this must be unfounded as the official record of the school fails to mention it.

After spending another year in teaching, he visited Perkiomen Seminary, and in the fall of 1903 entered Ursinus as a Freshman. Since here he has made rapid strides in social, as well as intellectual, lines. He never fails to attend "Ladies' Aid," "Christian Endeavor Socials" and all other events for which no admission is charged. According to his own story, he is a great favorite among the ladies of his native town, and the only reason he does not enter fashionable society in Collegeville is that he is too busy. Rumor, however, has it that his full-dress suit was stolen just before he started for College.

Despite a few irregularities, John is a Pharisee of the strictest sort. He attends church regularly, never cuts over one-eighth of his recitations—in French—never misses a meal, and gives fully one-tenth of all his old clothes to the poor. His veracity is unquestioned, and his integrity unspotted. Should Diogenes turn his lantern on this man, methinks I could hear him say, "Eureka! here is an honest man."

To sum up all, we think that possessing such sterling qualities as honesty, moral earnestness, sound education and a wide experience, he will be eminently fitted to take his place in the ranks of his chosen profession—the ministry. In this we believe he will be successful, and that his life will be an honor to his calling.

EVELYN AMANDA NEFF

"You flavor everything; you are the vanilla of society."

Nickname—Petey. Hobby—Music. Ambition—Teach.

The original of the above photograph has requested the editor to allow her to write her own life history. The following is what he received:

roobens roost, penna, january 17, 1906.

deer editur—the reezun y i wunt 2 rite mi byograffy iz becaws itt will bee a nautobyograffy & i wil bee a nauty byograffer & beesydes i Think i no mour about miself than annybuddy else duz! i am sickstean yrs. old, haveing bean bourn upp bi kootstoun in 1886? mi ful naim iz evaline ammander nef, being named after bowth 2 uv mi grammawz, hoo wuz evaline heinlich and ammander nef; i weant 2 publiick skool 4 2 yrs., butt that wuz 2 slo 4 mee & i got cent 2 kootstoun normal? gee butt that iz a grate plaice: i weant throo it in a littel ovur a yr. & wuz a grajuit & got a bigg paiper saying az how i past in 19 (ninteen studdies! i then weant bak 2 studdy a littel mour in 1903 i caim 2 roobens roost 2 beet thee bois in studdying & it's a regular sinch thee weigh i get A's! butt thee bois, misstur editur, i never new there wuz bois til i caim 2 roobins roost? wel i saw won boi thate justt sett mi hart on fier! i thinke their iz nuthin like athleetes mi, o, mi, hee iz so bigg & strong & manny? u all no i am knot sew verry tal but mi hed justt reeches upp 2 hiz chine wen i ware a rat! a rat iz a thinge u putt ure hare up with mebbey wee will gett married sum uv theas daze & fule the peupul? the gurls think wee r engaged now but wee ain't mebbey! i kai pleigh the piany 2 beet the carrs & u just ot to here mee? i pleigh grand opery and no rag thyme; i like 2 gow 2 thee sitty 2 here grand opery i sene won wonst itt wuz parsyfull! upp bi kootstoun wee hav lotts uv ggrand opery inn hour theatur that costs Tenn cts 2 get inn! thee last won hey hadd wuz Vagner's anhowser bush & i justt bet thay maid munny on it. i herd they tuk in az much uz 1.85 their iz nuthin like ggrand opery 2 draw a crowd in kootstoun. wen i gett throo i Am goin 2 teech up by kootstoun 4 too yrs. ennyway & aftur that i bett u can't gess wot ime goin 2 dew! mebbey ile tell u sum uv thease daye! i am sum smart inn poeterry 2 & i wil finnish withe thease feu lines?

if i cood butt utter thee thots that arrise inn mee ide bee az hapy az a dogge that hadde killd hiz last flee
But oweing 2 thee shortness uv thyme & spaice ile cutt it of hear & go poudre mi faice.

evaline ammander nef '07!

p. s. deer editur pleas eckscuze misstaiks & if u knead enny more punktoo-ashun, pleas poot inn the followin !,!,!?,,:—;(",,")..?!.—.

EDWARD HARTMAN REISNER

"My heart is wax to be moulded as she pleases, but enduring as marble to retain."

Nickname—Pussy.

Hobby—Girls.

Ambition—Teaching.

SOMEWHERE amid the hills of Pennsylvania, and some time between the years MDCCCLXXXII and MCMVI—but stop, Edward H. Reisner, the subject of this life story, first opened his eyes in the historic town of Fredericksburg, Spottsylvania County, Virginia, in the year 1885. Although born under Southern skies, he was early removed to the little town of McConnellsburg, Pennsylvania, hemmed in by the mountains. There without a railroad or trolley line, and with but one telephone in the county, Ed. was forced to spend the early days of his life. Remarkable, indeed, is it that such a prodigy should have come out of Fulton County, for by the bluff of his conversation one would think that he had the apperception of a youth born and bred in New York City.

True to the inborn characteristics of a Southerner, "Pussy," as his friends endearingly call him, is of a very impulsive nature, to say nothing of his deep emotionality. If it be true that "all the world loves a lover," he is certainly much loved, for he is nothing, if not a lover. Of his affaires de coeur we do not profess to have full cognizance, but we do know that he had at least three while a student at the Shippensburg Normal School. At Ursinus Ed has had his "hobby" throughout his entire course.

During the first two years of his college career he was registered in the Classical Group, and we all expected to hear of him as a great divine in later years. To our great surprise, however, he changed his course to the Historical Political and we shall now have to look for his name among the great jurists or statesmen.

Reisner is one of a coterie at Ursinus much abused for a sparsity of hair, but he is well contented by the fact that a man cannot have hair and brains both. He has a lovely voice, and it is indeed a great treat to hear him sing, "Just One Girl in This World for Me" and "Pal of Mine."

Considering all things, we feel confident that Ed will "make good" in the world, and wish him all the success possible, above all in his love affairs.

RALPH LAUER ROTH

"Fixed like a plant in his peculiar spot,
To draw nutrition, propagate and rot."

Ambition—Medicine.

Hobby—Bumming.

Nickname—Mandy.

OH, that mine should have been the ill luck to have this miserable —? for the subject of this biography! A worse fate never befell mortal man. In response to a question "Mandy" said: "I wasn't born, but just grew up." This remarkable event had its beginning in Nashville, Pennsylvania. All efforts of the biographer to ascertain the date of Mandy's origin were in vain. The only satisfaction given was couched in his own words: "You won't put my age in, for I'm pretty old." Sad to say, he bites, so we could not examine his teeth, which, by the way, would show only two years, since they are "store teeth" taken from "Billy" Fenton's "free counter."

After "Mandy" had "grewed" old enough he was transplanted from home to the Spring Grove public school, at which place his weeds were pulled out and actual growth began. From here he was placed in the hot bed at Franklin and Marshall Academy, but this place not measuring up to his high ideals, he ran away and came to Ursinus, and placed himself under the sheltering arm of his brother, Leroy.

Just before entering upon his Freshman year, Ralph contracted the fever which, if I mistake not, made Ralph its first victim. The "Boston" epidemic laid a firm hand on him and he nearly succumbed to its ravages. On the advice of Dr. Lenhart, "Mandy" sought relief from his malady in Pottstown and found it. The cure was very effective, and at present "Mandy" is convalescing at Fairview. Ralph is a great fellow among the elite of neighboring towns and villages, and spends considerable time attending social functions, many of which are held in his honor.

His ability does not end here. On the football field he is a formidable antagonist, being fearless, daring and aggressive. His hurdling was a feature of the 1905 team, on which he was full-back. On the baseball diamond he is equally capable. On the third bag he is fast and sure, and in the "box" he is a problem not easily solved.

During the last summer "Mandy" did stunts at St. Louis "slinging grub" and hoodooing easy victims at the Exposition. Medicine is his hobby, and if he can bluff Doctor Shaw sufficiently we can look for a material increase in the obituary columns of the York County "Shot Gun."

WILLIAM ELWOOD SHUNK

"Deeper than did ever plummet sound."

Nickname—Rube.

Hobby—Pitching.

Ambition—Law.

NOW in the second year of Garfield was born in Phoenixville, by the Schuylkill, a son; and they called his name William, which is by interpretation "Rube." And when the parents saw that he was a goodly child and fair to look upon, they decided to keep him.

And the child grew and waxed strong in the spirit, and continued in the house of his parents.

And it came to pass in those days, that when William was grown he went with his parents to Audubon, there to be educated at the feet of the great scientist.

But a vision came to him, and a voice said: "Arise, William, get thee hence to Phoenixville," and William did as he was commanded.

And William was brought up in the knowledge of the Phoeni(x)cians. But in the second year of McKinley there was a famine in the land, so that there was a scarcity of knowledge.

Now a voice said unto him the second time, "William, get thee up out of thy country and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, and from thy sweetheart Koons, into a land that I will shew thee.

"And I will make of thee a great scholar, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing to the 1907 Ruby staff."

So William took his "duds" and departed. So departed he. And he passed through the land unto the place of Collegeville, unto the College of Ursinus; and the Faringite, the Kerschite and the Dotterite were then in the land, who worshipped strange gods. And William prospered in the land.

And William was very rich in Latin horses; of ponies had he an exceeding abundance; and his brothers also that were with him had flocks and herds.

So William dwelt in the land three years and one, in the land of Collegeville abode he; and he increased in knowledge.

MERION STELLA SMITH

"Falseness cannot come from thee, for thou look'st modest as Justice.

Nickname—Stellar.
Hobby—Economics.
Ambition—?

A PAIR of blue eyes, rosy cheeks, indicative of health, a countenance demure, characterize this fair maiden, one of the two co-eds who have, up to the present time, remained stanch members of the class of 1907.

Stella was born near Eaglesville, Montgomery County. Her whole life was spent at her birthplace, from the fact that, up to this time, she had no occasion to change her residence. Being asked by her biographer—cruel one—in what year she was born, she replied: "If you count back sixteen years from the present year you can find out for yourself." That farm life is agreeable, her ruddy cheeks and healthy appearance are witnesses.

She received her early education in the public schools and when she had become sufficiently prepared she entered Ursinus Academy. After spending some time in "prepdom" she entered college in the fall of 1903.

Her college life in general has been uneventful. The fact that she lives away from the College and returns home every evening, has kept her from taking an active part in such prominent and awe-inspiring organizations as Ladies' Sewing Circle and Black Ball Society.

Stella is extremely modest, but her gentle disposition and winning manners make her beloved by all who learn to know her.

"Loveliness

Needs not the foreign aid of ornament,
But is when unadorned, adorned the most."

She was one of the first "regulars;" in fact, she has the distinction of having become a "regular" before she came to Ursinus. Although that Society has almost disappeared, she still holds her "Place" in the ranks, in spite of the continued efforts of some of her classmates to induce her to do otherwise.

She is a diligent student and takes especial delight in Logic, Political Economy and Mathematics. Though we know not what her aim in life is, we all unite in wishing her abundant success and happiness.

MARSHALL BYRON SPONSLER

"God bless the man who first invented sleep, and so say I."

Nickname—Spons.

Hobby—Sleep.

Ambition—Medicine.

UP in Dauphin County in the little town of Elizabethtown was born this subject of a biography. It was a score or more years ago that this piece of mortal flesh first assumed his troublesome "air" in the Sponsler household. "Spons'" life there, as far as we are concerned, was uneventful, because, up to his advent into Ursinus, he was an ordinary schoolboy, diligently working for his passport into the world in the shape of a high school diploma.

He taught or "kept" school—we know not which—for two years. Having scraped together enough "dough" to see his way through college, he came to Ursinus. Pen is not able to describe this bunch of tricks and nonsense as he entered College in the fall of 1903. It is said that you can recognize a teacher whenever and wherever you chance to tumble upon him; but this specimen would have defied all recognition. To have beheld him "scrapping," making raids, throwing water, "swipeing," etc., etc., one would have taken him for an incorrigible. But these lasted only through his Freshman year, a few appearances before that august judiciary, the Faculty, bringing about complete reformation.

To-day "Spons" is "all to the mustard." He engages in all the college functions. He plays a second "fiddle" in the Orchestra. He takes an active part in athletics, having been on the scrub football team for two years. He can handle the racket, and took part in several "gym" exhibitions in which his star act was "skinning the cat." He is an active member of the Zwinglian Society, and never shirks his duty unless it is disagreeable to him. As a member of the Biological Group he has frequently won the applause (?) of his adviser.

Marshall developed very few hobbies during his college career. During his Freshman year his hobby was making raids, but on discovery he stopped this. Later he turned to "bugs," which in turn has given place to "buds."

Socially, "Spons" had been more or less a failure during his first two years in College, but he seems now to be making up for his former deficiency. He has been quite attentive to the Assistant "Doctor," and probably this accounts for his taking up buds, as this will require co-operation.

"Spons" has already selected his life work, that of medicine. We hope that he may have success. There are plenty of M. D.'s, but Webster once said: "There is always room in the cemetery."

HAROLD DEAN STEWARD

"I never knew so young a body with so old a head.

Nickname—Venus.

Hobby—Chess.

Ambition—Teaching.

BEHOLD a career open to industry, without distinction of birth! Harold, like Grant, McKinley and other great men, hails from Ohio. Perrysville is his native town, and it is hard to tell whether it is on the map or not. A mere glance tells us that he is a Westerner, reared amongst wagons, plows, horses and cows. He attended the public schools of his town, and it was only through the influence of the truant officer that he graduated from the High School. After graduating he became a newsboy and later learned the printer's trade, with the view of establishing "Childe Harold's Almanac." But fate decreed otherwise. After spending a year in Ursinus Academy he entered the Sophomore class.

"Storky" is a peculiar sort of a fellow. He bears the labels "handle with care," "don't tease me." But, kind reader, do not think that he is always cross, for he is a jolly good fellow. Especially is his 8x10 smile very prominent after he has beaten "Jimmy" in a close game of pinochle, or when he has "ripped up Alsie's queen row" in a long-drawn-out chess match.

As an athlete, Dean—not he in the college office—commands recognition. He won his position as guard on the second team, and made some great tackles, but his fame lies in baseball, especially in batting. My, how he swung the bat! But he never hit anything; in fact, some think that he can't make a "hit." But to prove that this assumption is false, we refer you to Captain Faringer, of the Regulars, who has informed us that "Storky" joined the ranks about November, 1905, and at present is standard bearer in the company.

As a student, Harold is one of the ideal type. He eschews Logic and Economics, but eats Latin with a relish. Horace's Sabine farm he expects to make his future home. The mid-year exams, and final panics have no terrors for him, nor has he ever "flunked." Five years hence we will all be glad to find him at Oxford, having won a Rhodes' scholarship. He is one of the youngest and brightest in his class, and for the years to come we can predict nothing but success. Love affairs don't trouble him (?), but it is not his fault. He is a stanch member of the Schaff Literary Society. He expects to take up teaching as his life work.

CLARENCE EHRIK TOOLE

"Please go 'way and let me sleep."

Ambition—Medicine.

Hobby—Sleeping.

Nickname—"Terry."

THIS unsophisticated and awe-inspiring product of humanity did not open his eyes to the light of day in Ireland, as his nickname, "Terry," would indicate, but the unlucky land of his birth, sad to say, is our own beloved America. The sad event occurred on the 23d of September, 18—, in the small but prosperous town of Freeburg, Pa. Ever since that day Father Toole has had his own troubles, even allowing that "Terry" is good for nothing but "breaking in" horses, which he himself cannot manage. Be this as it may in Freeburg, Clarence shows little or no skill in this art at present.

Having had his elementary principles pounded into his "k-nut" in the Freeburg Public and High Schools, and after graduating at the head (?) of his class from the Selin's Grove Preparatory School, Clarence finally landed at Ursinus in time to become a member of '07, at the beginning of the Sophomore year. Clarence at once became a favorite among the ladies, but, after reading Shakespeare, he also came to the conclusion that a "lion among ladies is a dreadful thing," and consequently abandoned his haunt at Arcola and got into a Trap(pe). Lizzie—I beg your pardon!—"Terry," I mean, became one of the "fellows" at once, and has since proved his right to rank high in the regards of his classmates. If he can sit down and thump a "rag-time" out of the piano, or play his clarinet he is most happy and contented.

As a student, Clarence runs a great risk of losing his good health from an over-abundance of study. Rising at 4 A. M., he studies and works all day, and does not think of retiring until one or two o'clock in the morning. His choice study is along economical lines, i. e., figuring out how to invest a dollar in order to go to Trappe the greatest number of times after having reached the marginal utility of his last pack of tobacco.

His aim in life is beyond our knowledge, save for an intimation on his part that he wants to be a chip off the old block. Dad is a prominent physician in Freeburg, and the younger generation are looking forward with "fear and trembling" toward the day when the young Dr. C. E. Toole shall begin his "slaughter of the innocents."

Let's wish him success!

May his efforts be blest,

A jolly good fellow

And true "son of rest."

NINTEENSEVEN FAMILY

HERE in a mass of 23 molecules is represented the Nineteenseven family, with Koerper Nineteenseven, father. Under his care and guardianship all have prospered well, and thus far have succeeded in life. From baby Harold Steward Nineteenseven, the youngest and much-petted brother, to Charles Brown Nineteenseven, the oldest and most dignified, each one of this illustrious family has won renown in some form or other. Baby Harold, unused, as yet, to long and tiresome lectures in economics, resorts to frequent naps throughout the day; yet he, too, is heard of in his own sweet time, and in his own good way. With respect to age, we shall name Brother Charles Brown Nineteenseven first, and to him with due reverence and respect all his brothers bow as a sign of esteem in which they hold the ministerial profession, for which Brother Charles is a confirmed applicant. Several of his younger brothers have decided to follow him in their profession, and as a result Titus Alspach Nineteenseven and John Myers Nineteenseven are ardently trying to follow their elder brother's example of living and acting. Another of these enthusiastic boys has gone a step further in his choice of profession, and Frank Fry Nineteenseven has decided to become a missionary. How far this plan will be accomplished remains only to be seen. Two others of these elder brothers, Jay Cook and Ed. Reisner, deserve all due attention and respect in their debating capacities, and the wish of all their brothers is that these two may one day hold a seat in the Senate, where their untold powers can be put to some use.

The rest of the family, besides the two sisters, are boys, and, as boys at times will be, so are they. In spite of father's admonitions, when he is not about these children begin to play, and it is then that Billy Fenton, Doc Elbert, Crunkie, Jimmy and Floydie Nineteenseven have their midnight carousals. Such times! It is with these that father has his greatest troubles and cares. Another set of frisky youngsters is the organization, Mandy, Billy and Terry Nineteenseven. Of these Father Koerper has already despaired, and, like a father, he is ever awaiting the return of these prodigals. In Toady and Nelson Nineteenseven lies his greatest consolation. What grand and noble men must evolve from these studious and industrious boys! Never is Toady in a scrap, but always in the laboratory, making some deep and thorough investigations. Nelson, undoubtedly the greatest wonder of the family, needs only some deep mathematical problem to satisfy his cultured mind. But there remains yet a trio of whom, thus far, nothing has been said, and indeed the least said the best, for these are the quiet, unobtrusive sort of fellows who cause their brothers no trouble and always mind their own business. Marshall Sponsler, Ashie and Shunk Nineteenseven give the public no satisfaction of their great desires and intentions.

The sisters need no special mention, for, as is the consensus of opinion among their brothers, both of them will only too willingly take advantage of the first opportunity of marriage. The truth of this needs only to be proven. How proud should Father Koerper be of his children, and how proud should the children be of such a father! A man who has devoted his entire life trying to educate his children, and he himself thoroughly learned and educated in all the arts. A man of intellect, culture and refinement. What more can be required? May this family yet accomplish great and wonderful achievements in its future career, and thus keep up the name it has already won.

Titus Alfred Alspach as a young citizen of Leckdale, Lebanon County. See that "bad" eye so characteristic of the later "Rube?"

A healthy country boy known as William Burgoyne Ashenfelter. "Ashy" then didn't know how to roll a cigarette.

Little Charley Brown, a modest chap destined to become famous at Ursinus as a wire-puller.

The only Edward I. Cook. Who would have thought that this youngster would become a postmaster for Uncle Sam?

What have we here? Crunkleton a-laughing.

The prettiest baby in the bunch. Doesn't he look like "Doc" Ebbert?

Jimmie Ellis when he won first prize at the Baby Show.

"Farmer" Fegley when he was taking his first lessons in the "Agricultural School."

Mamma's darling, Willie Fenton. "Return this picture at all costs," says mamma.

Frank Fry as a "city kid." Here you see an embryo missionary.

Easton's contribution to the art gallery. "This was Floydie when his mother carried him around in her arms; she couldn't do it now."—Papa Heller.

"Dad" Koerper never was a "kid," so we had to be content with this picture.

Billy Lenhart at three months of age. He isn't much larger now.

Huh! 'Toady' Moore, by gosh! The fact that "Toady's" mother is still living is proof that his mouth wasn't as big then as it is now."

We are sorry to say this is Johnnie Myers. A bum photographer and poor light gave us this result.

Wee little Evelyn Neff, from Kutztown. Then she was tied to her mamma's apron string; Since then she had many on her string.

Eddie Reisner, of McConnellsburg. This was when he had hair on his head.

Ralph Roth, a little street urchin who "raised Cain" in the streets of Spring Forge.

The "original Rube" Shunk. "I'll bet he could make more noise then than he does now in Economics."

Our sweet little Stella. "Didn't I tell you that Miss Smith must have been a pretty baby?"

Here you see Marshall Byron Sponsler before he learned how to "swipe" cakes and pies.

Our only representative from Ohio. "I wonder if he could 'cuss' then?"

Do you recognize this chap? Papa said: "We wouldn't take $50 for this picture."

CLASS OF 1908

MOTTO: CERTUM PETE FINEM.

Flower: Red Rose.

Colors: Black and White.

OFFICERS

President,

First Term.

J. ELLIS TOBIAS.

Second Term.

HARVEY M. LEIDY.

Vice-President,

EDGAR N. RHODES.

EDWARD R. HAMME.

Secretary,

RHEA E. DURYEY.

D. LESLIE STAMY.

Treasurer,

HERBERT HUGHES.

GEORGE B. WOLFF.

Business Manager,

HARVEY B. DANEHOWER.

IRA J. HAIN.

Historian,

ESTHER JACKSON.

Poet,

IRA J. HAIN.

YELL.

Zip-ra! Zip-ra! Zip-ra! Zate!

Trip-la! Trip-la! Trexie! Trate!

Ursinus! Ursinus!

1908!

POEM

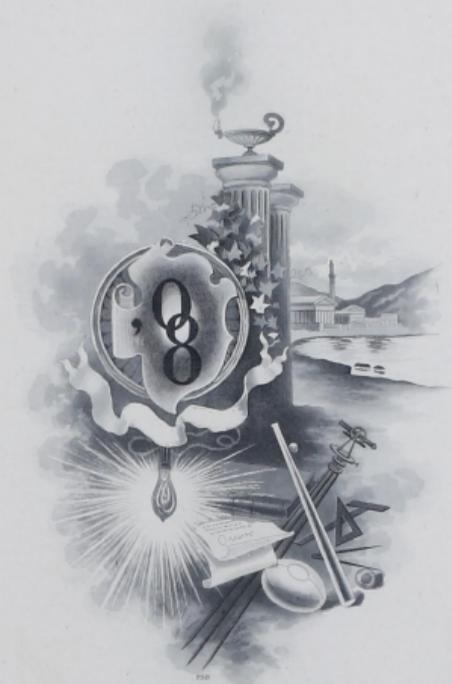

Our second year of college life
Has come and nearly passed;
Though we were all prepared for strife,
The discord did not last.

Our class has always been as one
United little band,
And we have never tried to shun
Whatever came to hand.

We always try to do our work
As best it can be done,
And if we never, never shirk
Our victory will be won.

Let CERTUM PETE FINEM be
The end of all our aims,
And may we evermore foresee
Reward for all our pains.

—Poet.

CAMBRIDGE

TO record the deeds of our present Sophomore year without mentioning a great event which occurred at the end of our famous Freshman year would be to omit one of the most memorable triumphs in our past history. This was the baseball game with the class of 1907. How those Sophs did work to achieve one victory at least over us! But all was to no purpose. Ours was the victory, and a glorious one it was, too. But then how could it be otherwise, with our expert athletes, Hain, Tobias, Snyder and Paiste to push it through? The other members of our team, although not such stars, nevertheless, as all 1908's do, worked for the glory of the class, and not for individual fame. This last closed a year more notable for its victories than that of any previous Freshman class for some time past.

Although at the beginning of this year we found our members had diminished somewhat in quantity, nevertheless we readily saw that the quality was far higher than that of last year, for each member showed great progress from his first year's experience in College.

After our Freshman period of fighting and consequent victories, we were glad to find that this, our second year, was to be one of peace and quiet, in which we all have been diligently preparing for our forthcoming duties as upper classmen. Even though the incoming "freshies" were, in number, almost or more than our double, we soon found that these tender, verdant shoots were easily and permanently crushed beneath our all-conquering feet. In brute strength they may have excelled us, but in cunning they were nowhere. Each of their secret attempts at going against the rigid rules set for all Freshmen was easily ferreted out and frustrated by our watchful crew. The final and all-enforcing lesson was taught those "naughty-nines" one dark and stormy night, when they made their last and greatest effort to paint their numerals. Space there is not here for me to tell how easily their prowling band was outwitted; how soon their brushes and paint cans were grasped by unseen hands, and with what agility and swiftness their leaders were conducted to the Perkiomen, where they were politely detained until time for them to run to Chapel the next morning. That was the last time they dared attempt any frolic; they decided that their class banquet could just as well be held after the holidays, and their class picture could be taken then, too, with a little bit less trouble. So we think our watchful influence over them has aided, not only their intellectual, but also social development, in withholding them from such dissipations until they became a little riper in college experience.

In the world of to-day men do not think enough for themselves; they do not have minds of their own, but follow blindly whither they are led. However, our class cannot be put down as such a meek and unthinking body. Nowhere, I believe, are there such spirited and all-absorbing discussions carried on as in our Biology class. Our Lillie leads the Special Creationist side, and if given the opinions of all the leading scientific men of past and present ages arguing for Evolution, she, in the consciousness that she possesses a strong mind of her own, would not change her views one iota. This, we think, shows the independent spirit of our class more than any other one thing.

In all the varied interests of college life, each member of the nineteen-eight class has been exceedingly active. In both Literary Societies we are strongly represented, and all respond readily to the demands made upon them along this line. Also both in College Orchestra and Glee Club our boys show a good representation. In athletics, as in other things, the '08's are in the front rank. Our girls are among the most enthusiastic and best workers on the basket ball teams.

With such a glorious past behind us we can look forward into the future and its increasing activities with naught but confident minds and courageous spirits.

HISTORIAN.

VIVE AD SUMMAM

W. H. B. & CO. N.Y.

THE 1908'S

LILLIE IRENE BECK..... Phoenixville, Pa.	"More dregs than water if my fears have eyes."	Modern Language
GEORGE HORSTICK BORDNER..... Collegeville, Pa.	"Nature never fram'd woman's heart of prouder stuff."	Chemical-Biological.
HARVEY BEAVER DANEHOWER..... Centre Square, Pa.	"Who thinks too little, and who talks too much."	Latin-Mathematical
*RHEA EDNA DURYEA..... Reading, Pa.	"A proper man."	Modern Language
*LIDA MILDRED EBBERT..... Collegeville, Pa.	"My tongue is the pen of a ready writer."	Latin-Mathematical
IRA JAMES HAIN..... Reading, Pa.	"A still, small voice."	Chemical-Biological
EDWARD R. HAMME..... Brodbeck's, Pa.	A girl, a girl, a kingdom for a girl.	Classical
HERBERT HUGHES..... Royersford, Pa.	"What a good boy am I!"	Classical
ESTHER JACKSON..... Waterloo, Iowa.	"Besides, 'tis known he could speak Greek As naturally as pigs squeak."	Historical-Political
HARVEY MOYER LEIDY..... Souderton, Pa.	"Too subtle-potent, turned too sharp in sweetness."	Classical
	"Egad, he has a pretty wit."

JOHN BROOKE PAISTE..... Langhorne, Pa.		Historical-Political
	"I'll drown my books."
EDGAR NEVIN RHODES..... Emmitsburg, Md.		Chemical-Biological
	"His hair just grizzled, As in a green old age."
HARRY WILLIAM SNYDER..... Reading, Pa.		Historical-Political
	"Come, come, wrestle with thy affections."
DAVID LESLIE STAMY..... Kauffman, Pa.		Latin-Mathematical
	"He does smile his face into more lines than are in the new map with the augmentation of the Indies."
WILLIAM HOY STONER..... Collegeville, Pa.		Chemical-Biological
	"He played, and hell consented to hear the awful sound."
EVA MAY THOMPSON..... Collegeville, Pa.		Modern Language
	"'Tis less than dignity, and more than grace."
JOHN ELLIS TOBIAS..... Tremont, Pa.		Historical-Political
	"Patience, and shuffle the cards."
GEORGE BANEY WOLFF..... Myerstown, Pa.		Historical-Political
	"Discretion of speech is more than eloquence."
ELIZABETH REINER YERKES..... Arcola, Pa.		Chemical-Biological
	"'Tis better to have loved and lost, Than never to have loved at all."

CLASS OF 1909

Motto: Vivi ad Summam.

Flower: Pink Rose.

Colors: Brown and White.

OFFICERS

President.

First Term.

WELCOME S. KERSCHNER.

Second Term.

ELI F. WISMER.

Vice President.

HORACE L. CUSTER.

WILLIAM S. LONG

Secretary.

SARA M. SPANGLER.

MINTA BECK.

Treasurer.

ELI F. WISMER.

FRANCIS T. KRUSEN.

Historian.

THOMAS GILLAND.

Poet.

JESSIE BENNER.

YELL.

Halla! Ga-nick! Ga-nu! Ga-nein!

Ga-nick Ga-nu

Ga-nick! Ga-nein!

Ursinus! Ursinus!

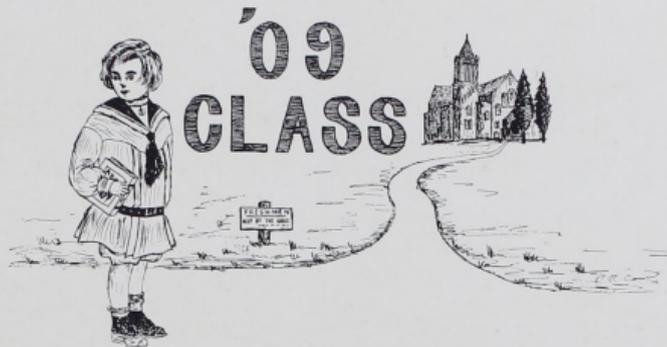

1909!

POEM

Hail, fairest muse! bring forth thy golden key;
Transmute my silence into words of love;
Pray, save my tongue from gross idolatry,
But deepest words my constancy must prove;
For sweetest ties in college life I find
Are noblest aims, which us together bind.
How can we falter, or be discontent
With "Vivi ad summan" our argument?

Let others sing at length their skill—in verse,
And all their triumphs boastingly rehearse;
What canker e'er can soil our budding name?
For thou, dear nineteen-nine, art born to fame.
May bitterness turn sweeter by thy deeds,
And blossoming pinks crush out all choking weeds,
Till youth, unsullied, issues into night,
Still true, still loyal to the Brown and White.

POET.

WITH no other apology than that you excuse us for living, I beg of you, dear reader, that you allow me to discourse, and I will enchant thine ear. Train your optics on the bunch, and ask yourself, "Could a better bunch be found to bring to a close a decade of 'naughty naughts' than the class of 1909?"

Freshmen! Is it a misnomer? Not exactly. While we have not made an exclusive diet of the proverbial lacteal fluid, or called for mamma when in trouble, yet we always remembered that we are Freshmen, and acted accordingly. Some are born fresh; others achieve freshness, and soon after we left our mothers' apron strings we found that either division had hard luck thrust upon them, and we found it no trouble to look "green." But beware! The lamb that gambols in the "green" in time becomes tough mutton. Enough said.

The class of 1909 is the largest class that ever entered College—at least the memory of the historian runneth not to the contrary. One month after school opened there were thirty enrolled in the class, eleven of which were co-eds. In more ways than one are we proud of these eleven. Among the number are found the wittiest and prettiest maidens in College. As to their good-nature, jollity and amorousness, ask the boys. The girls have formed an independent club, the motto of which is, "Faith, hope and charity; these three, but the greatest of these is love."

Our ways have been ways of pleasantness, and our paths have been paths of peace. We were not at all scared by the Sophomore posters (?). In our first encounter with the Sophs, we rubbed some of our superfluous supply of "green" into them, and their dejected countenances after the scrap were in bold contrast to ours. But this signal triumph did not produce any inflated craniums, commonly called swelled heads, for we knew that the Sophs, who had one year's schooling in the tricks of the game, were waiting for a chance to humble us. This chance soon came.

One moonlight night, four of our number—Abel, Koons, Kerschner and Lau—started out to paint our numerals. It was with stout hearts that we held on to those two cans of paint, one white and the other brown. We took the road via boiler-house, walking very cautiously. But soon we increased our pace to the double quick, for the whole bunch of Sophs pounced upon us. To our dismay we were captured, tied hands and feet, and carted down to a summer-resort along the Perkiomen. Here we spent the night, enjoying boat-rides, and being entertained by the roar of the mighty waters, and by the buzzing of over-friendly mosquitoes. At daybreak the ties which had so closely held us were severed, and we returned to school, finding that we had missed our morning hash and goo, and that our paint had been disposed of.

Thenceforth there has been peace, for in our books we have found foes more formidable than college Sophomores, and greater conquests to be fought in the class rooms. Peace has its victories no less renowned than war.

In the various college organizations our class is ably represented. We have produced several athletes of Varsity calibre. The honor and success of the basketball team depended upon several of our number. Not a few have joined the ranks of the "regulars." It is not the intention of the historian to become personal, for this is a class history. We deal with that history, leaving individualities to that divinity which shapes each one's ends, rough-hew them as he will.

THE 1909'S

VICTOR JAY ABEL..... Hellertown, Pa.	"Sufferance is the badge of all our tribe."	Historical-Political
EDITH ARMINTA BECK..... Watsonstown, Pa.	"His nose is as sharp as a pen."	Latin-Mathematical
MELVIN EARL BECK..... Watsonstown, Pa.	"Thy modesty's a candle to thy merit."	Latin-Mathematical
JESSIE BENNER..... Quakertown, Pa.	"For my voice, I have lost it with Singing of anthems."	Modern Language
LOLA ALBERTA BUTLER..... Collegeville, Pa.	"Cupid is a knavish lad Thus to make poor females mad."	Modern Language
ROSCOE ZIEGLER COPE..... South Hatfield.	"Joy rises in me like a summer's morn."	Chemical-Biological
HORACE LUTHER CUSTER..... Collegeville, Pa.	"Nose, nose, nose, nose, And who gave thee that jolly, red nose?"	Classical
HANNAH MAY DETWILER..... Phoenixville, Pa.	"He's armed without that's innocent within."	Modern Language
MARGARET YETTER FRYLING..... Sunbury, Pa.	"Far from gay cities and the ways of men."	Modern Language
THOMAS McDOWELL GILLAND..... Greencastle, Pa.	"They never taste who always drink, They always talk who never think."	Latin-Mathematical "For every inch that is not fool is rogue."

- WELCOME SHERMAN KERSCHNER..... Classical Mahanoy City, Pa.
"Love me little, love me 'Long.'"
- JOHN ALFRED KOONS..... Classical State Line, Pa.
"Who comes here?"
- FRANCIS TWINING KRUSEN..... Chemical-Biological
Collegeville, Pa.
"Vessels large may venture more,
But little boats should keep near shore."
- WINFRED REINER LANDES..... Latin-Mathematical
Collegeville, Pa.
"O wad some power the giftie gie us
To see oursel's as ithers see us!"
- CHARLES IRVIN LAU..... Classical Hanover, Pa.
"Well, let my deeds be witness of my worth."
- ELIZABETH KRATZ LONG..... Latin-Mathematical
King of Prussia, Pa.
"Some say thy grace is youth."
- WILLIAM SAMUEL LONG..... Chemical-Biological Weatherly, Pa.
"Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep."
- ERNEST T. MILLER..... Historical-Political
Collegeville, Pa.
"Where yet was ever found a mother
Would give her booby for another?"
- DORA ADELLA MOYER..... Modern Language
Collegeville, Pa.
"Tall oaks from little acorns grow."
- JOHN RAMSEY MUNHALL..... Historical-Political Pittsburgh, Pa.
"A wise and masterly inactivity."
- ALLAN WALTER PETERS..... Classical Slatington, Pa.
"I, with my fate contented, will plod on."

JOHN EMERSON PITT..... Oxford, Pa.		Chemical-Biological
	"Sighed, and looked unutterable things."
SARA MABEL SPANGLER..... Collegeville, Pa.		Modern Language
	"I am as free as nature first made woman."
WILLIAM EARLE STURGIS..... Phoenixville, Pa.		Latin-Mathematical
	"Tip, tip, Tip-a-Canoe."
JEAN MIAMI HALEY SWARTZ..... Harrisburg, Pa.		Classical
	"Quips and cranks, and wanton wiles, Nods and becks, and wreathed smiles."
ADA KATHRYN THOMPSON..... Collegeville, Pa.		Modern Language
	"Softness and sweet attractive grace."
ROWLAND REIFSNYDER UMSTEAD..... Trappe, Pa.		Historical-Political
	"Laughs like a parrot at a bag-piper."
ELI FRY WISMER..... Gratersford, Pa.		Historical-Political
	"Thy wits want edge, thy jokes want point." "Ye little stars, hide your diminished rays."

GRADUATE STUDENTS

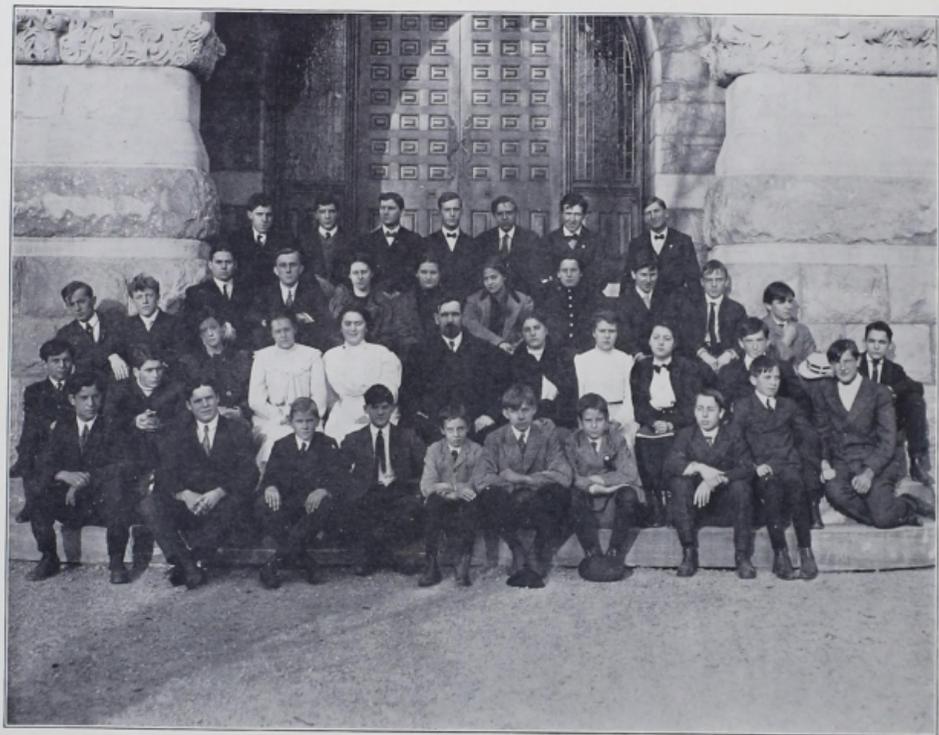

CHARLES ALLABAR BUTZ	Fredericksburg
A. B., Ursinus College, 1899.
WALTER EDWARD HOFFSOMMER	Steelton
A. B., Ursinus College, 1903.
LYOYD MONROE KNOLL	Reading
A. B., Ursinus College, 1901.
MARY ELIZABETH MARKLEY	Derry
A. B., Ursinus College, 1902.
THOMAS HENRY MATTERNESS	Palmyra
A. B., Ursinus College, 1902.
JOHN HENRY POORMAN	Oil City
A. B., Ursinus College, 1903.
WILLIAM MARTIN RIFE	Shippensburg
A. B., Ursinus College, 1898.
ROY F. SNYDER	Mahanoy City
A. B., Lafayette College, 1900.
JOHN SCOTT TOMLINSON	Downingtown
A. B., Ursinus College, 1900.
HENRY WOLFF WILLIER	Mount Jewett
A. B., Ursinus College, 1901.
WILLIAM AARON YEISLEY	Tatamy
A. B., Lafayette College, 1903.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

WINFIELD R. HARTZELL	Norristown
Millersville State Normal School.
HOWARD PENNYPACKER TYSON	Collegeville
West Chester State Normal School.
EMERSON FRANKLIN WADE	Pottstown
Keystone State Normal School.

ACADEMY STUDENTS

NELLIE ASH	Trappe	LOUIS LONGAKER	Royersford
ELIZABETH HISER AUSTERBERRY	Trappe	HENRY GERMANUS MAEDER	Philadelphia
GEORGE EDWIN BECK	Phoenixville	THOMAS BALDWIN MAGRUDER	Philadelphia
ANTONIO BOLUA	Guantanamo, Cuba	EVA MARION MATHIEU	Philadelphia
GEORGE BALLINGTON BROWN	Philadelphia	HENRY W. MATHIEU	Trappe
SAMUEL HENRY BRUNNER	Phoenixville	HERMANN MATHIEU	Trappe
PAUL RHOADES CARVER	Snydertown	PERCY WISCHMAN MATHIEU	Trappe
MAYBELLE KERBAUGH CLYMER	Philadelphia	CLAUDE CALVIN MESSINGER	Allentown
ARTHUR DENTON COLYER	Perth Amboy, N. J.	EVELYN HOPE MESSINGER	Trappe
IRENE ZIEGLER CRATER	Schwenksville	FREDERICK LEROY MOSER	Collegeville
JAMES GARFIELD DETWEILER	Yarkes	JOHN WILLIS PALSGROVE	Schuylkill Haven
EDGAR CLYDE EBBERT	Collegeville	MARGARET HILLES PERCIVAL	Atlantic City, N. J.
LAURA HILDA EBBERT	Collegeville	ANNA FLORENCE PLACE	Eagleville
SADIE JUNO FEGLEY	Collegeville	ERNEST ERWIN QUAY	Phoenixville
JOSE FERNANDEZ	Pinar Del Rio, Cuba	HARRY TAGGART RINGLER	Collegeville
ROGELIO FERNANDEZ	Pinar Del Rio, Cuba	CATHARINE ETHEL RISE	Lebanon
JOSEPH ALBERT FITZWATER	Phoenixville	CLYDE TALMAGE SAYLOR	Pottstown
FRED MAHLON FOGLEMAN	Munhall	JOHN LEROY SCHWEYER	King of Prussia
RAFAEL GARCIA	Havana, Cuba	CHARLES JACOB SEITTE	Philadelphia
MORVIN WANNER GODSHALL	Phoenixville	FREDERICK WILLIAM SEITTE	Philadelphia
WILLIAM VERNON GODSHALL	Gratersford	MARY KENWORTHY SHAW	Norristown
HARRY WARBURTON HALLMAN	Collegeville	JAMES CAMPBELL SHUFORD	Hickory, N. C.
WALLACE LEROY HALLMAN	Collegeville	JOHN HENRY AUGUSTUS SPANGLER	Collegeville
CHARLES HENRY HERB	Tremont	BLANCHE RENA SPONSLER	Collegeville
KATHARINE HENDRICKS HOBSON	Collegeville	CHARLES BELLISFIELD STAMETS	Collegeville
WELLINGTON MONROE HOOVER	Loyalton	JOHN PRESTON STIRK	Gladwyne
STANLEY HUNSICKER	Ironbridge	MARGARET A. STRICKLAND	Collegeville
WILLIAM WISEMAN JOHNSTONE	New York	HORACE KEPLER THOMAS	Royersford
CLARA AGNES KAISINGER	Collegeville	ERNEST ARTHUR THOMASON	Old Fort, N. C.
MARTIN LUTHER KEINER	West Philadelphia	ALBERT ROSENBERGER THOMPSON	Collegeville
HOWARD KEYSER	Collegeville	HERBERT NEWTON WANNER	Arcola
GUY WALDO KNAUER	Saint Peters	JESSE STROUD WEBER	Lower Providence
MABEL ADA KNAUER	Saint Peters	KATHARINE WEHLER	Newton, N. C.
FRANKLIN PIERCE KUGLER	Linfeld	JOSEPH YOST	Tuscarora
AMANDUS LEIBY	Klinesville	FRANKLIN BERGEY ZIEGLER	Royersford
FRANCIS LOY LINDAMAN	Littlestown

Theologues.

THEOLOGICAL FACULTY

REV. JAMES I. GOOD, A. M., D. D.

Dean of the Theological Faculty, and Professor of Systematic Theology and Reformed Church History.

- A. B., Lafayette College, 1872, and A. M., 1875; D. D., Ursinus College, 1887; Student, Union Theological Seminary, 1872-75; Licensed, 1875; Pastor Heidelberg Reformed Church, York, Pa., 1875-77; Heidelberg Church, Philadelphia, 1877-90; Calvary Church, Reading, Pa., 1890; Professor of Systematic and Pastoral Theology and Reformed Church History, Ursinus College, 1890; Dean of Theological Faculty, 1892.

REV. WILLIAM J. HINKE, A. M.

Professor of Old Testament Exegesis and Theology.

- A. B., Calvin College, 1896, and A. M., 1893; Instructor in Latin and Greek, Calvin College, 1890-92; Student, Ursinus School of Theology, 1892-94; Licensed, 1894; Special Student, Princeton Theological Seminary, 1894-95; Pastor Trinity Reformed Church, Allentown, Pa., 1896-97; Graduate Student, University of Pennsylvania, 1902-04; Ursinus School of Theology, 1895.

REV. PHILIP VOLLMER, Ph. D., D. D.

Professor of Church History and Homiletics.

- A. B., Bloomfield College, 1881, and A. M., 1884; Ph. D., University of Pennsylvania, 1893; D. D., Ursinus College, 1899; Student and Instructor, Bloomfield Theological Seminary, 1881-84; Special Student, Union Theological Seminary, 1884-85; Instructor, Bloomfield Theological Seminary, 1885-87; Licensed, 1884; Pastor, Presbyterian Church of Peace, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1884-89; St. Paul's German Reformed Church, Philadelphia, 1889; Ursinus School of Theology, 1897.

REV. EDWARD S. BROMER, D. D.

Professor of New Testament Exegesis and Theology.

- A. B., Ursinus College, 1890; B. D., Yale University, 1903; D. D., Ursinus College, 1905; Student in Theology, Divinity School of Yale University, 1890-94; University Scholar in New Testament studies, 1893-94; Licensed, 1894; Pastor, 1894-1905; Student, University of Berlin, summer semester, 1904; Ursinus School of Theology, 1905.

THEOLOGICAL STUDENTS

GRADUATE STUDENTS

- REV. HARRY JACKSON EHRETBethlehem, Pa.
A. B., Ursinus College, 1900.
- REV. GUSTAV ADOLPH HAAKEgg Harbor, N. J.
A. B., Calvin College, 1899.
- REV. FRANK ROHRER LEFEVER...Columbus Junction, Iowa
- REV. ELIAS SEYLER NOLL.....New Berlin, Pa.
A. B., Ursinus College, 1893.
- REV. SAMUEL EDWIN RUPP.....Phoenixville, Pa.
A. B., Lebanon Valley College, 1901.
- REV. ASHER THEODORE WRIGHT.....Mt. Crawford, Va.
Ursinus College.

SENIOR CLASS.

- WILLIAM SABRE CLAPPHartshorn, N. C.
A. B., Catawba College, 1903.
- IRWIN SAMUEL DITZLERHanover
York Collegiate Institute.
- ROBERT SAMUEL EDRISWest Reading
- MALCOLM PETER LAROSLansford
- JOHN LENTZSteeltown
A. B., Ursinus College, 1903.
- ADAM SAMUEL PEELER.....Faith, N. C.
A. B., Valpariso College, 1903.
- ALBERT GIDEON PETERSHoffmans
A. B., Ursinus College, 1903.
- GEORGE MILTON SMITHWalnutport
Muhlenberg College.

- JAMES CALVIN STAMM.....West Reading
B. E., Keystone State Normal School, 1900
- WILLIAM AARON YEISLEYTatamy
A. B., Lafayette College, 1903.

MIDDLE CLASS.

- ADAM HENRY KRICK HOSHAUER.....Schillington
B. E., Keystone State Normal School, 1902.
- TITUS CLARENCE JOSATRichlandtown
Ursinus College.
- EDWIN MILTON SANDOLebanon
A. B., Ursinus College, 1904.

JUNIOR CLASS.

- AARON LECHNER BRUMBACHBechtelsville
Keystone State Normal School.
- CHARLES EDWIN HEFFLEGERBirdsboro
- CHARLES HERMAN*North Bethlehem
- JOSEPH SPURGEON HIATT*.....Thomasville, N. C.
- JAMES EDWARD KLINGAMAN.....Beaver Valley
Bloomsburg State Normal School.
- LEE ALEXANDER PEELER.....Salisbury, N. C.
A. B., Catawba College, 1905.
- LINDEN HOWELL RICEAlinda
A. B., Ursinus College, 1905
- ERNST LOUIS EWALD SOMMERLATTE*Philadelphia

*Special Student.

FACULTY OF THE SUMMER SESSION

GEORGE LESLIE OMWAKE, A. M., B. D.,
Dean of the College and Professor of the History and Philosophy of Education.

J. SHELLY WEINBERGER, LL. D.,
Professor of the Greek Language and Literature.

KARL JOSEF GRIMM, Ph. D.,
Professor of Modern Languages.

REV. WHORTEN A. KLINE, A. M., B. D.,
Professor of the Latin Language and Literature.

HOMER SMITH, Ph. D.,
Professor of the English Language and Literature.

MATTHEW BEARDWOOD, A. M., M. D.,
Professor of Chemistry and Instructor in Geology.

WALTER BUCKINGHAM CARVER, Ph. B., Ph. D.,
Professor of Mathematics and Physics.

HEINRICH PETERSEN,
Instructor in German and French.

ISAAH MARCH RAPP, A. B.,
Instructor in Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry.

WARREN DAUB RENNINGER, A. B.,
Instructor in History and Political Science.

MARION GERTRUDE SPANGLER, A. B.,
Director of Department of Music and Instructor in Piano.

ELEANOR BRECHT PRICE, A. M.,
Librarian.

SPECIAL LECTURERS.

REV. JAMES W. MEMINGER, D. D., Pastor Saint Paul's Reformed Church, Lancaster, Pa.

W. W. DEATRICK, Sc. D., Professor of Psychology, Keystone State Normal School.

GEORGE EDWARD REED, LL. D., President Dickinson College.

JOSEPH SWAIN, LL. D., President Swarthmore College.

STUDENTS IN SUMMER SESSION

ELIZABETH H. AUSTERBERRY	Trappe	EDITH MICHENER	New Hope
MARY NINA AUSTERBERRY	Trappe	MARGARET MOSER	Collegeville
JENNIE BEAGLE	Bloomsburg	ALLAN WALTER PETERS	Slatington
ALBERT R. BECHTEL	Royersford	ELMA MAY PHILIPS	Glen Moore
LILLIE IRENE BECK	Phoenixville	HOWARD LAWRENCE REBER	Vineland, N. J.
THOMAS A. BOCK	Spring City	DAVID R. ROHRBACH	Williamstown, N. J.
GEORGE HORSTICK BORDNER	Collegeville	CLARENCE SCHEUREN	Collegeville
PAUL R. CARVER	Collegeville	FLORENCE MAYME SCHEUREN	Collegeville
LIDA MILDRED EBBERT	Collegeville	LARETA OGDEN SCHEUREN	Collegeville
J. LINWOOD EISENBERG	Royersford	LETITIA SMITH	Kemblerstown
MARY J. FERREE	Trappe	LENORE SMULL	Collegeville
WELLINGTON M. HOOVER	Loyalton, N. C.	SARA MABEL SPANGLER	Collegeville
JESSE L. HUNSBERGER	Royersford	CHARLES BELLISFIELD STAMETS	Norristown
GEORGE H. JOHNSTON	Norristown	JUDITH VIOLA STONER	Collegeville
ELIZABETH MAY KEINARD	Phoenixville	BERTHA L. STOVER	Erwinna
HELEN BERGEY KEYSER	Collegeville	PERRY BEAVER STRASBURGER	Norristown
FRANCIS TWINING KRUSEN	Collegeville	ERNEST ARTHUR THOMASON	Phoenixville
WINFRED REINER LANDES	Collegeville	EVA MAY THOMPSON	Collegeville
MARY ELLEN LONG	Manheim	ALBERT R. TINDALL	Philadelphia
WILLIAM SAMUEL LONG	Weatherly, N. C.	HOWARD PENNYPACKER TYSON	Collegeville
J. CORNELL B. MARCH	Parkerford	CHARLES ADAM WAGNER	Ashbourne
VIOLA MARPLE	Chalfont	ELMER B. ZIEGLER	Conshohocken
EVELYN HOPE MESSINGER	Trappe	SAMUEL H. ZIEGLER	Royersford

ZWINGLIAN SOCIETY

Organized 1870.

Chartered 1889.

MOTTO:

COLOR: NAVY BLUE.

OFFICERS.

President.....MARY E. BEHNEY, '06
 Vice President.....CHARLES H. BROWN, '07
 Recording Secretary.ELIZABETH AUSTERBERRY, A.
 Corresponding Sec'y.....VICTOR J. ABEL, '09
 Treasurer.....TITUS A. ALSPACH, '07
 Chaplain.....ERNEST E. QUAY, A.
 Musical Director.....WELCOME S. KERSCHNER, '09
 First Editor.....ESTHER JACKSON, '08
 Second Editor.....WILLIAM S. LONG, '09

Critic.....MARY E. LONG, '06
 Attorney.....D. REINER FARINGER, '06
 Janitor.....WELLINGTON H. HOOVER, A.

Board of Directors.

ROY E. MABRY, '06; D. REINER FARINGER, '06;
 TITUS A. ALSPACH, '07; EDGAR N. RHODES,
 '08; WELCOME S. KERSCHNER, '09.

Library Committee.

DAVID R. WISE, '06; WILLIAM B. FENTON, '07.

Intercollegiate Representative, D. REINER FARINGER, '06.

MEMBERS.

CLASS OF 1906.

Mary E. Behney.
 Mary E. Long.
 D. Reiner Faringer.
 Roy E. Mabry.
 Miles A. Keasey.
 David R. Wise.

Charles H. Brown.
 William E. Shunk.
 Marshall B. Sponsler.
 Edward H. Reisner.
 Clarence E. Toole.
 Harry H. Koerper.

Ira J. Hain.
 Edward Hamme.
 Leslie D. Stamy.
 Edgar N. Rhodes

ACADEMY.

Rhena B. Sponsler.
 Elizabeth Austerberry.
 Leroy Moser.
 Howard Keyser.
 Francis Lindaman.
 Morwin Godshall.
 William B. Stamets.
 Ernest E. Quay.
 Amandus Leiby.
 J. Willis Paulsgrove.
 Wellington M. Hoover.
 William Johnstone.
 Henry G. Maeder.

CLASS OF 1909.

Welcome S. Kerschner.
 Lola A. Butler.
 Horace L. Custer.
 C. Irvin Lau.
 J. Victor Abel.
 William S. Long.
 Margaret Y. Fryling.
 Ada K. Thompson.
 Dora A. Moyer.

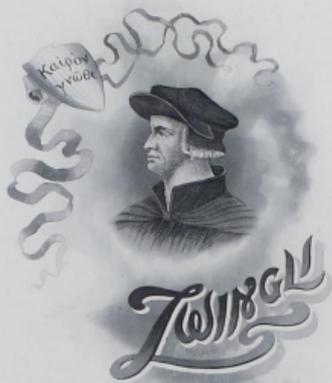

CLASS OF 1908.

Stella M. Smith.
 Esther Jackson.
 George H. Bordner.
 Harvey M. Leidy.
 W. Hoy Stoner.
 Harry W. Snyder.
 Elizabeth R. Yerkes.

CLASS OF 1907.

Titus A. Alspach.
 L. Dale Crunkleton.
 William B. Fenton.
 Frank S. Fry.
 William Moore.
 Ralph E. Roth.

SPECIAL.
 Arthur D. Colyer.

ZWINGLIAN FRESHMAN DECLAMATION CONTEST

February 22, 1906, 8 P. M.

PROGRAMME

Opening March: Marine Inspection.....College Orchestra	Declamation: "The Painter of Seville".....Susan Wilson
Invocation.....Professor Whorten A. Kline, Ursinus College	Marguerite Yetter Freyling, Sunbury, Pa.
Music: Serenata, Mexican Beauties.....College Orchestra	Declamation: "The Traitor's Deathbed".....George Lippard
Declamation: "The Shepherd's Trophy".....Alfred Ollivant	Welcome Sherman Kerschner, Mahanoy City, Pa.
Victor J. Abel, Hellertown, Pa.	Music: Two-step, "Follow the Flag".....College Orchestra
Declamation: "Claudius and Cynthia"....Maurice Thompson	Declamation: Ben Hur's Chariot Race.....Lew Wallace
Lola Alberta Butler, Collegetown, Pa.	William Samuel Long, Weatherly, Pa.
Music: Negro Oddity, The Southern Belle..College Orchestra	Music: Incognito Waltzes.....College Orchestra
	Decision of the Judges.
	Music: March, "Eastern Star".....College Orchestra

JUDGES.

PROFESSOR F. MORRIS HUBBERT, Pennsburg, Pa.
PROFESSOR A. D. EISENHOWER, Norristown, Pa.
REVEREND T. R. TAGGERT, Lower Providence, Pa.

PRIZES.

First Prize—Ten Dollars in Gold.....MARGUERITE YETTER FREYLING
Second Prize—Five Dollars in Gold.....WILLIAM SAMUEL LONG
Honorable MentionWELCOME SHERMAN KERSCHNER

THIRTY-SIXTH ANNIVERSARY of the
ZWINGLIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 1906, 8 P. M.

PROGRAMME.

- March, "Princeton Jungle".....Clarke
College Orchestra.
- Invocation.....Whorten A. Kline, A. M., B. D
- Music, "Cherry Blossom".....Lester
College Orchestra.
- Oration, "The Cause of Political Corruption in Pennsylvania.....Charles Henry Brown, '07, Minersville, Pa.
- Reading, "Vashti"Amelia Dorr
Mary Ellen Long, '06, Manheim, Pa.
- Music, "Traumerci"Schumann
College Orchestra
- Original Story, "A Psychological Experiment, William Hoy Stoner, '08, Collegeville, Pa.
- Reading, "The Going of the White Swan" .Gilbert Parker
Esther Lorraine Jackson, '08, Waterloo, Iowa.
- Music, "Wild Flowers".....Gruenwald
College Orchestra.
- Zwinglian Oration, "The Ethics of Business,"
Miles Abdel Keasey, '06, Collegeville, Pa.
- "Southern Belle"Gruenwald
College Orchestra.
Reception.

SCHAFF SOCIETY

ORGANIZED 1870.
Motto: "Prudens Future."

CHARTERED 1888.
Colors: Blue and Gold.

OFFICERS.

President.....	MARTIN W. SMITH, '06
Vice-President.....	JAMES A. ELLIS, '07
Recording Secretary.....	ELIZABETH K. LONG, '09
Corresponding Secretary.....	SARAH SPANGLER, '09
Financial Secretary.....	HAROLD D. STEWARD, '07
Treasurer.....	H. B. DANNEHOWER, '08
Critic.....	CHARLES S. DOTTERER, '06
Chaplain.....	BEVERLY A. FOLTZ, '06
Editors.....	{ RALPH B. EBBERT, '07 LILLIE BECK, '08
Pianist.....	JESSIE BENNER, '09
Janitor.....	RHEA E. DURYEA, '08
Trustees.....	{ ELIZABETH PAISTE, '06 BEVERLY A. FOLTZ, '06 E. I. COOK, '07 MARTIN W. SMITH, '06 CHARLES S. DOTTERER, '06
Inter-Collegiate Representative.....	CHARLES S. DOTTERER, '06
Library Committee.....	EVELYN A. NEFF, '07
Museum Committee.....	E. I. COOK, '07

MEMBERS.

1906.

CAROLINE E. PAISTE.
MARTIN W. SMITH.
BEVERLY A. FOLTZ.
ANNA MABEL HOBSON.
CHARLES S. DOTTERER.
W. S. HARMAN.

1907.

JAMES A. ELLIS.
W. J. LENHART.
N. P. FEGLEY.
FLOYD E. HELLER.

JOHN C. MYERS.

EVELYN A. NEFF.
E. I. COOK.
RALPH B. EBBERT.
HAROLD D. STEWARD.
W. B. ASHENFELTER.

1908.

BROOKE PAISTE.
HERBERT HUGHES.
EVA THOMPSON.
LILLIAN BECK.
LIDA EBBERT.

GEORGE WOLF.

RHEA E. DURYEA.
H. B. DANNEHOWER.

1909.

SARAH SPANGLER.
ERNEST MILLER.
MELVIN BECK.
JESSIE BENNER.
ELIZABETH K. LONG.
F. M. FOGLEMAN.
JOHN KOONS.
WINIFRED LANDIS.

WILLIAM STURGESS.

FRANCIS KRUSEN.
LEROY BOLLMAN.
R. R. UMSTEAD.
MINTA BECK.

ACADEMY.

GEORGE B. BROWN.
JAMES SHUFORD.
HILDA EBBERT.
LEROY SCHWEYER.
EVA M. MATHIEU.
C. C. MESSINGER.

THIRTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY, SCHAFF LITERARY SOCIETY

December 15, 1905, 8 P. M.

THE BELLS

By LEOPOLD LEWIS.

CAST OF CHARACTERS.

Mathias, Burgomaster.....	RALPH B. EBBERT, '07
Christian, French Quartermaster.....	FLOYD E. HELLER, '07
Hans, a Forest Ranger.....	WILLIAM J. LENHART, '07
Father Walter, the Village Parson.....	HAROLD STEWARD, '07
Dr. Zimmer, a Physician.....	JAMES A. ELLIS, '07
Catherine, the Burgomaster's Wife.....	LILLIE M. BECK, '08
Annette, their Daughter.....	A. MABEL HOBSON, '06
Sozel, Servant at the Inn.....	RHEA DURYEA, '08
President of the Court.....	WINFIELD S. HARMAN, '06
Clerk of the Court.....	BEVERLY A. FOLTZ, '06
Notary.....	BEVERLY A. FOLTZ, '06
Mesmerist.....	EDWARD I. COOK, '07

SYNOPSIS OF SCENES.

- Act I—Interior of the Inn—the Sitting Room.
Act II—Best Room in the Burgomaster's House.
Act III—Sleeping Room in the Burgomaster's House.

PLACE—Alsace.

PERIOD—December 24-26, 1833.

PROGRAM.

MARCH:

Colonial Guards,

ARKLESS BROTHERS, Norristown, Pa.

OVERTURE:

Selections from Ernani,

ARKLESS BROTHERS

SCHAFF ORATION:

Enlogy on Sir Henry Irving,

JOHN CALVIN MYERS, '07, East Berlin, Pa.

MUSIC:

Sho-Gun,

ARKLESS BROTHERS

PAPER:

The Dramatic Interpretation of Sir Henry Irving,

EVELYN A. NEFF, '07, Kutztown, Pa.

MUSIC:

Woodland,

ARKLESS BROTHERS

RECEPTION.

FOURTH ANNUAL PRIZE DEBATE

SCHAFF LITERARY SOCIETY

MAY 5, 1905, 8 P. M.

MUSIC.

March—"Boardwalk Parade"—Johns.
COLLEGE ORCHESTRA.

March—"Annheuser Push"—Johnson.
College Orchestra.

DEBATE.

Question—Resolved, that the Interstate Commerce Commission should be given the power to regulate interstate freight rates.

Affirmative.

H. H. McCOLLUM, '05.
B. A. FOLTZ, '06.
EVA M. THOMPSON, '08.

Negative.

R. F. WISMER, '05.
CAROLINE E. PAISTE, '06.
E. I. COOK, '07.

JUDGES.

MAYNE R. LONGSTRETH, ESQ., '89.
RICHARD C. CASSELBERRY, M. D., '00.
REV. HENRY A. BOMBERGER, '84.

PRIZES.

First—Fifteen Dollars in Gold.....CAROLINE E. PAISTE, '06
Second—Ten Dollars in Gold.....E. I. COOK, '07
Third—Five Dollars in Gold.....R. F. WISMER, '05

URSINUS WEEKLY
Board of Control

G. L. OMWAKE, A. M.,	President.
J. M. S. ISENBURG, A. M.,	Treasurer.
A. G. PETERS, A. B.
HOMER SMITH, Ph. D.
MARTIN W. SMITH,	Secretary.

STAFF.

Editor-in-Chief.....	MARTIN W. SMITH, '06
Literary Editors.....	CAROLINE E. PAISTE, '06
	EDWARD H. REISNER, '07
College News.....	EVELYN A. NEFF, '07
	H. H. KOERPER, '07
	W. HOY STONER, '08
Alumni News.....	DAVID R. WISE
Athletics.....	RALPH B. EBBERT
Business Manager.....	MILES A. KEASEY
Assistant Business Manager.....	L. DALE CRUNKLETON
School of Theology.....	EDWIN M. SANDO

Y.M.C.A.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

OFFICERS

President	MILES A. KEASEY, '06.
Vice President	JOHN C. MYERS, '07.
Secretary	EDWARD S. HAMME, '08.
Treasurer	BEVERLY A. FOLTZ, '06.
Musical Director	WELCOME S. KERSCHNER, '09.

COMMITTEES.

RELIGIOUS MEETINGS.

TITUS A. ALSPACH, '07, Chairman.
 FRANK S. FRY, '07.
 HERBERT HUGHES, '08.
 MARSHALL B. SPONSLER, '07.

MISSIONARY.

FRANK S. FRY, '07, Chairman.
 BEVERLY A. FOLTZ, '06.
 TITUS A. ALSPACH, '07.
 EDWARD S. HAMME, '08.

NEIGHBORHOOD.

CHARLES S. DOTTERER, '06, Chairman.
 EDWARD I. COOK, '07.
 MELVIN E. BECK, '09.
 WELCOME S. KERSCHNER, '09.

BIBLE STUDY.

DAVID R. WISE, '06, Chairman.
 JOHN C. MYERS, '07.
 RALPH B. EBBERT, '07.
 JOSEPH YOST, A.

FINANCE.

BEVERLY A. FOLTZ, '06, Chairman.
 ROY E. MABRY, '06.
 EDWARD H. REISNER, '07.
 JOHN KOONS, '09.

NORTHFIELD.

EDWARD I. COOK, '07, Chairman.
 CHARLES S. DOTTERER, '06.
 JOHN C. MYERS, '07.
 MARTIN W. SMITH, '06.

MEMBERSHIP.

WILLIAM MOORE, '07, Chairman.
 C. IRVIN LAU, '09.
 HARRY W. SNYDER, '08.
 JOHN R. MUNHALL, '09.

Y. M. C. A. MEMBERS

Class of 1906.

MILES A. KEASEY.
WINFIELD S. HARMAN.
CHARLES S. DOTTERER.
BEVERLY A. FOLTZ.
ROY E. MABRY.
MARTIN W. SMITH.
DAVID R. WISE.
REINER D. FARINGER.

Class of 1907.

TITUS A. ALSPACH.
CHARLES H. BROWN.
EDWARD I. COOK.
LESLIE D. CRUNKLETON.
RALPH B. EBBERT.
JAMES A. ELLIS.
FRANK S. FRY.
FLOYD E. HELLER.
HARRY H. KOERPER.
WILLIAM J. LENHART.
JOHN C. MYERS.
WILLIAM MOORE.
EDWARD H. REISNER.
RALPH L. ROTH.
MARSHALL B. SPONSLER.

Class of 1908.

HERBERT HUGHES.
D. LESLIE STAMY.
HARRY W. SNYDER.
EDWARD S. HAMME.
HARVEY B. LEIDY.

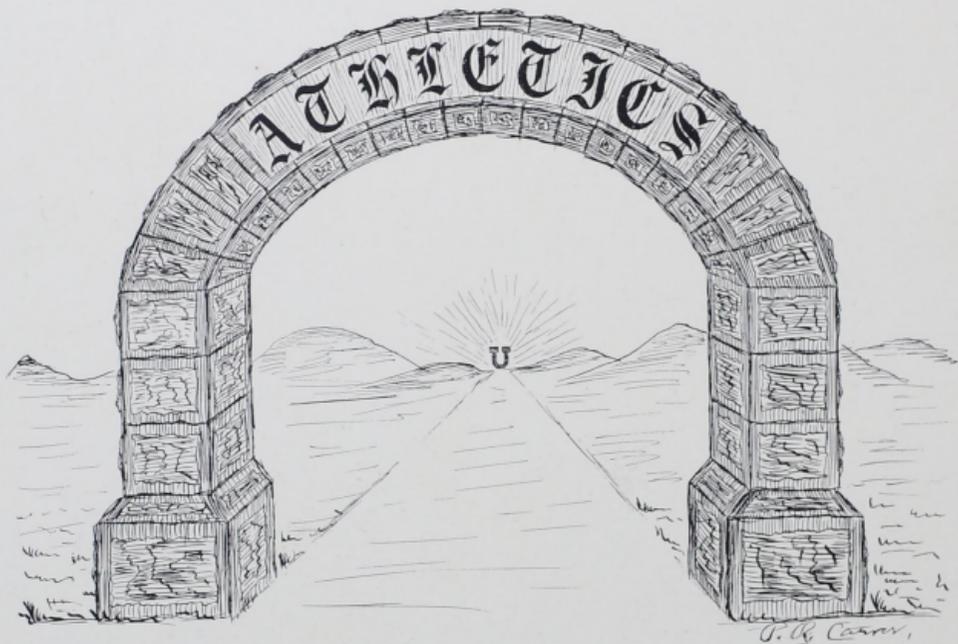

Class of 1909.

ALLAN W. PETERS.
WELCOME S. KERSCHNER.
JOHN KOONS.
C. IRVIN LAU.
ROSCOE COPE.
MELVIN E. BECK.
WILLIAM S. LONG.

Academy.

JOHN R. MUNHALL.
AMANDUS LEIBY.
JOSEPH YOST.
J. LEROY SCHWEYER.
MORVIN GODSHALL.
ERNEST E. QUAY.
CHARLES B. STAMETZ.
C. C. MESSINGER.
J. WILLIS PAULSGROVE.
WILLIAM JOHNSTONE.
WELLINGTON M. HOOVER.
FRANCIS LINDAMAN.
GUY W. KNAUER.

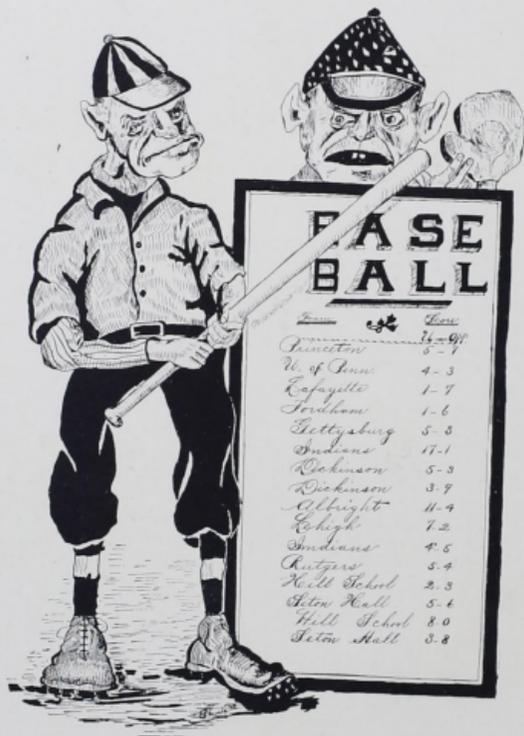

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.
OFFICERS.

PresidentD. R. FARINGER, '06
SecretaryW. B. FENTON, '07
Chairman Athletic Committee.....HOMER SMITH, PH. D.
Graduate Director of Athletics.....EDWARD E. KELLEY, '01

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE.

HOMER SMITH, PH. D.
E. A. KRUSEN, M. D.
D. R. FARINGER, '06.

W. B. FENTON, '07.
FRANK H. HOBSON, '03.

THE 1905 BASEBALL SEASON

URSINUS COLLEGE has always had the reputation of having a successful baseball team. Her fame in this line has extended throughout her entire baseball history. Never in the most gloomy time has Ursinus failed to turn out a good representative team. In baseball or football her spirit has always been of the "do or die" kind, never giving up until the last inning or until the last sound of the football whistle. This has often been exemplified, and especially in the 1904 baseball season. When we look at the number of graduates taken from the baseball ranks and the miserable condition of the field for practice, yet with these almost insurmountable difficulties the record established in that year was wonderful.

The baseball season of 1905 was entered upon with bright prospects. All the old men were found in their respective places, and many new candidates were out trying for the team.

Ursinus played fourteen games during the season, winning seven and losing seven. Let it be remembered that the defeats recorded against us were by teams which represented much greater colleges, namely: Princeton, Lafayette, Fordham, Seton Hall and Dickinson. This season was the first to see so many large institutions on our schedule. Princeton and University of Pennsylvania appeared for the first time. Although defeated by Princeton by the fine score of 7 to 5, we were successful in lowering the red and blue to the tune of 4 to 3. The Easter trip arranged by Manager Miller, '05, proved to be without doubt the greatest success recorded in the annals of Ursinus baseball history. On this trip Gettysburg, the Indians and Dickinson were met and defeated by decisive scores. Credit for two of these victories must be given to Mabry for his masterly work in the pitcher's box. Again the team showed fine form when they met and defeated Lehigh and Rutgers; to Townsend belong the honors of these victories. With Mabry and Townsend as pitchers and Price completing the battery, Ursinus had a combination which was hard to beat. Fenton, a new man at first, early developed into good material and held the sack for the season. Paiste and Faringer were found at second and third respectively, while Snyder covered the ground at shortstop in an admirable way. The outfield was composed of Koerper, Crunkleton, Place and Townsend.

Baseball Record for 1905

URSINUS, 5; PRINCETON, 7.

Princeton, March 25, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	Princeton.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	1 1 4 2 0	Reid, ss.	0 0 2 1 1
Townsend, p.	1 1 0 4 1	McLean, 3b.	2 1 3 3 0
Snyder, ss.	1 1 2 2 0	Wells, 2b.	2 1 1 4 2
Paiste, 2b.	0 1 2 2 0	Henry, rf.	0 0 1 1 0
Faringer, 3b.	0 1 0 1 2	Cooney, c.	0 1 7 4 2
Koerper, cf.	1 0 1 0 0	Bard, 1b.	0 1 11 0 2
Crunkleton, lf.	1 1 0 0 0	Harlen, lf.	1 1 0 1 0
Munhall, rf.	0 0 0 0 0	Heim, cf.	1 1 1 0 0
Fenton, 1b.	0 0 15 0 0	Doyle, p.	1 0 0 0 0
Mabry, p.	0 0 0 3 0	Bryam, p.	0 0 0 2 0
	5 6 24 14 3		7 6 *26 16 7

Three-base hit—Snyder. Wild pitch—Bryam. Struck out—By Doyle, 2; Bryam, 5; Townsend, 2; Mabry, 2. Hit by pitcher—Harlen. Base on balls—Off Doyle, 2; Bryam, 3; Townsend, 4; Mabry, 5. Sacrifice hits—McLean, Heim, Munhall. Left on bases—Princeton, 12; Ursinus, 6. Time of game—2 hours. Umpire—J. H. Horner, Washington, D. C.

URSINUS, 4; U. OF PA., 3.

Philadelphia, March 29, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	U. of Pa.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	2 1 4 2 0	Schuler, 3b.	1 0 3 2 0
Townsend, p.	0 1 1 8 1	Scott, 3b.	0 0 0 0 0
Snyder, ss.	0 1 1 0 2	Webb, lf.	1 1 2 0 0
Paiste, 2b.	1 1 2 4 0	Cariss, 2b.	0 1 2 2 0
Faringer, 3b.	1 1 0 1 0	Myers, 1b.	0 1 7 0 3
Koerper, cf.	0 0 1 0 0	Zeigler, rf.	0 0 0 1 0
Crunkleton, lf.	0 0 3 0 0	Aldenderfer, ss.	0 0 0 3 1
Munhall, rf.	0 1 0 0 1	Weeks, cf.	0 0 0 0 0
Fenton, 1b.	0 0 15 0 0	Hare, c.	1 0 6 2 0
	4 6 27 15 6	Carter, c.	0 0 6 0 0
		Crimean, p.	0 0 0 0 0
		Brady, p.	0 0 1 0 0
			3 3 27 10 4

Earned runs—Ursinus, 2; U. of Pa., 1. Two-base hits—Paiste, Townsend. Three-base hit—Price. Sacrifice hits—Cariss, Weeks, Crimean, Snyder, 2; Townsend. First base on balls—Off Brady, 2; Townsend, 1. Double play—Paiste to Fenton. Left on base—Pa., 5; Ursinus, 5. Time—1 hour, 45 minutes. Umpire—Moran, National League.

URSINUS, 1; LAFAYETTE, 7.

Easton, April 5, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	Lafayette.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	0 0 2 2 0	Irwin, c.	1 1 12 0 0
Townsend, p.	1 0 0 3 0	Snook, 2b.	0 1 0 2 0
Snyder, ss.	0 0 2 2 0	Hubley, 3b.	1 1 0 3 0
Paiste, 2b.	0 0 1 4 0	McAvoy, cf.	0 0 0 0 0
Faringer, 3b.	0 1 3 3 0	Reeder, lf.	1 1 2 0 0
Koerper, cf.	0 0 3 0 0	Hawk, ss.	2 0 1 4 0
Place, rf.	0 0 1 0 0	Folkerson, rf.	0 0 0 0 0
Crunkleton, lf.	0 0 1 0 0	Newberry, p.	1 1 1 2 0
Fenton, 1b.	0 0 11 1 1	Peters, 1b.	1 0 11 0 1
	1 1 24 14 2		7 5 27 11 1

Earned runs—Lafayette, 3. Sacrifice hits—Snook, Folkerson, Paiste. Stolen bases—Irwin, Reeder, Hawk. Struck out—By Newberry, 12; Townsend, 6. Hit by pitcher—Hawk, 2; Peters. Passed ball—Price. Double play—Faringer to Fenton. Left on bases—Ursinus, 2; Lafayette, 6. Umpire—Tighe. Time of game—1 hour, 20 minutes.

URSINUS, 1; FORDHAM, 6.

Fordham, N. Y., April 15, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	Fordham.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	0 0 4 0 1	Roftus, 3b.	1 0 1 0 0
Townsend, rf.	0 1 1 0 1	Murray, p.	1 0 2 4 0
Snyder, ss.	0 2 1 1 0	McLean, lf.	1 2 0 0 0
Paiste, 2b.	1 0 2 5 1	Shea, 2b.	0 2 2 3 0
Faringer, 3b.	0 0 2 1 1	Robertson, ss.	0 0 8 0 0
Koerper, cf.	0 0 3 0 0	Hartman, 1b.	0 2 2 1 2
Fenton, 1b.	0 0 7 0 0	Connelly, rf.	1 1 2 0 0
Crunkleton, lf.	0 0 3 0 0	Oliver, cf.	0 0 1 1 0
Mabry, p.	0 0 1 0 1	McCarthy, c.	0 2 9 0 1
	1 3 *24 7 5		6 7 27 9 3

*Oliver hit by batted ball.

Double play—Murray to Robertson. Struck out—By Mabry, 5; Murray, 9. Base on balls—Off Mabry, 5; Murray, 4. Hit by pitched ball—Mabry. Time—1 hour, 15 minutes.

Football Record for 1905 (Continued)

URSINUS, 5; GETTYSBURG, 3.

Gettysburg, April 20, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	Gettysburg.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	2 4 9 2 0	Seiber, 2b.	1 2 0 1 0
Townsend, rf.	0 0 2 0 0	James, ss.	0 0 0 3 0
Snyder, ss.	1 1 1 3 0	Thomas, rf.	0 2 1 0 1
Paiste, 2b.	1 2 1 2 0	Kauffman, p.	1 1 2 3 0
Faringer, 3b.	0 1 0 3 0	Lautz, 3b.	0 0 1 1 1
Place, lf.	0 2 1 0 0	Poffenberger, cf.	0 1 0 0 0
Koerper, cf.	1 1 1 0 0	Black, lf.	0 0 0 1 1
Fenton, 1b.	0 1 12 0 1	Lewis, c.	0 15 2 0
Mabry, p.	0 0 2 0 0	VanZandt, 1b.	1 1 8 1 0
5 12 27 12 1		3 7 27 12 3

Two-base hits—Paiste, 2; Place, 2. Home run—Kauffman. Sacrifice hits—Faringer, Mabry, Thomas. Stolen base—Price, 2; Snyder, Koerper, Poffenberger. Base on balls—Mabry, 1. Struck out—By Mabry, 9; Kauffman, 13. Time of game—1 hour, 30 minutes.

URSINUS, 17; INDIANS, 1.

Carlisle, April 21, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	Indians.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	2 2 5 2 1	Mitchell, ss.	1 0 0 2 3
Townsend, p.	3 2 2 3 1	Jude, 2b.	0 0 4 2 4
Snyder, ss.	2 1 1 2 0	Nephews, 1b.	0 2 8 1 4
Paiste, 2b.	1 2 3 4 1	Roy, rf.	0 2 0 0 0
Faringer, 3b.	1 2 0 1 0	Lubo, lf.	0 1 0 0 2
Place, lf.	1 1 1 1 0	Young Deer, cf.	0 0 1 0 0
Koerper, cf.	3 1 0 0 0	Libby, 2b.	0 1 2 4 2
Crunkleton, rf.	2 0 1 0 0	Gardner, p.	0 1 0 0 0
Fenton, 1b.	2 0 12 0 0	Baird, c.	0 0 9 1 0
17 11 25 13 3		0 3 1 1 0
		1 8 27 11 15

Two-base hits—Price. Sacrifice hits—Price, Paiste, Faringer. Stolen bases—Townsend, 2; Faringer, Place, Roy, Lubo, Libby. Struck out—By Townsend, 4; by Gardner, 2; Brown, 5. Base on balls—Off Mabry, 4; off Gardner, 4; off Brown, 3. Time of game—1 hour, 30 minutes. Umpire—Easminger.

URSINUS, 5; DICKINSON, 3.

Carlisle, April 22, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	Dickinson.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	2 2 5 5 0	Wolfe, c.	1 1 7 2 1
Townsend, rf.	1 2 1 0 0	Simpson, cf.	0 1 1 0 0
Snyder, ss.	0 2 2 1 1	Davis, 1b.	0 0 11 2 1
Paiste, 2b.	0 0 1 2 0	Leininger, 2b.	1 1 2 5 0
Faringer, 3b.	0 0 1 1 0	Crutchley, ss.	0 0 0 1 0
Place, lf.	1 0 1 0 1	Long, lf.	0 1 1 0 0
Koerper, cf.	0 0 1 1 0	Daniels, rf.	0 0 0 0 0
Fenton, 1b.	0 1 15 0 0	Lingle, 3b.	0 1 3 1 2
Mabry, p.	1 0 0 3 0	McKeown, p.	1 0 2 4 0
5 7 27 13 2		3 5 27 15 4

Two-base hits—Price, Fenton, Simpson. Sacrifice hits—Koerper, Mabry. Stolen bases—Simpson, Crutchley, Long, McKeown. Struck out—By Mabry, 4; by McKeown, 7. Bases on balls—Off Mabry, 1; off McKeown, 3. Time of game—1 hour, 45 minutes. Umpire—Brown, Carlisle, Pa.

URSINUS, 3; DICKINSON, 9.

Collegeville, April 28, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	Dickinson.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	1 1 7 2 1	Wolfe, c.	2 2 12 1 0
Townsend, p.	1 2 0 2 2	Simpson, cf.	0 1 1 0 0
Snyder, ss.	0 1 2 6 1	Davis, 1b.	3 3 7 0 0
Paiste, 2b.	0 2 3 4 0	Leininger, 2b.	2 0 1 0 0
Faringer, 3b.	0 0 0 1 3	James, lf.	2 1 1 0 0
Place, rf.	0 1 1 0 0	Long, rf.	0 0 1 0 1
Koerper, cf.	0 0 1 0 0	Crutchley, ss.	0 1 1 3 1
Crunkleton, lf.	0 0 0 0 0	Lingle, 3b.	0 0 1 1 0
Fenton, 1b.	1 0 13 0 1	McKeown, p.	0 0 1 1 1
*Ashenfelter	0 0 0 0 0
3 7 27 15 8		9 8 26 6 2

*Batted for Crunkleton in ninth.

†Townsend out, bunted third strike.

Two-base hits—Price, Townsend, 2; Snyder, Paiste, Wolfe, Davis. Stolen bases—Wolfe, Lingle, Snyder. Base on balls—Off Townsend, 4; off McKeown, 4. Struck out—By McKeown, 12; by Townsend, 6. Time of game—1 hour, 45 minutes. Umpire—Griffith, Norristown. Kritz, Myerstown.

Baseball Record for 1905 (Continued)

URSINUS, 11; ALBRIGHT, 4.

Myerstown, April 29, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	Albright.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	2 2 9 0	oCroman, 1b.	1 1 11 2 0
Townsend, rf.	3 3 0 0	oBuck, cf.	0 0 1 0 1
Paiste, 2b.	3 3 4 4	oR. Kelchner, c.	0 0 6 1 0
Faringer, 3b.	1 2 0 3	2Snyder, 3b.	1 0 1 2 2
Place, lf.	1 2 0 0	oMessig, lf.	0 0 2 0 0
Ashenfelter, ss.	1 0 1 2	1Mumma, 2b.	0 1 1 0 3
Koerper, cf.	0 0 3 0	oJ. Kelchner, ss.	1 1 1 3 0
Fenton, 1b.	0 0 10 0	oGlassmeyer, cf.	0 0 1 1 0
Mabry, p.	0 1 0 2	oChrist, p.	1 0 0 3 1
11 13 27 11 3		4 3 24 12 7

Two-base hits—Price, 2; Townsend, Paiste, Faringer. Three-base hits—Paiste. Sacrifice hit—Messig. Stolen bases—Price, Ashenfelter, Croman. Base on balls—Off Mabry, 4. Struck out—By Mabry, 9; by Christ, 5. Time of game—1 hour, 45 minutes. Umpire—

URSINUS, 7; LEHIGH, 5.

South Bethlehem, May 3, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	Lehigh.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	2 1 7 3	oBlazer, lf.	0 0 1 0 0
Townsend, p.	1 2 0 3	oRoot, 2b.	0 0 2 2 0
Snyder, ss.	2 2 0 0	1Snyder, 1b.	1 2 6 2 0
Paiste, 2b.	0 2 6 2	oPearson, c.	1 1 10 1 0
Faringer, 3b.	0 1 2 1	2Steiner, ss.	0 2 2 1 0
Place, rf.	0 0 4 0	1Cullen, cf.	0 0 4 0 1
Koerper, cf.	0 0 1 0	oLong, 3b.	0 0 1 1 1
Crunkleton, lf.	1 1 0 0	oBurchsted, rf.	0 1 0 0 0
Fenton, 1b.	1 1 6 0	1Pentz, p.	0 0 1 0 0
7 10 27 9 5		2 6 *26 8 2

*Townsend out, hit by batted ball.

Earned runs—Ursinus, 7; Lehigh, 2. Two-base hits—Fenton, Paiste, 2; Townsend. Three-base hit—Snyder. Home run—Pearson. Struck out—By Townsend, 6; by Pentz, 7. Bases on balls—Townsend, 2; Pentz, 1. Hit by pitched ball—By Townsend, 2.

URSINUS, 4; INDIANS, 5.

Collegeville, May 6, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	Indians.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	1 2 8 4	1Mitchell, ss.	1 2 2 2 0
Townsend, rf.	1 1 0 0	2Roy, p.	0 1 1 4 0
Snyder, ss.	1 0 5 1	oNephews, 1b.	1 0 8 3 0
Paiste, 2b.	1 1 0 2	1Twin, 2b.	0 0 0 0 0
Faringer, 3b.	0 2 1 1	1Young Deer, cf.	0 0 0 0 0
Place, lf.	0 0 0 0	oHendricks, 3b.	1 2 2 1 0
Koerper, cf.	0 0 3 0	1Baird, c.	1 1 14 2 0
Fenton, 1b.	0 0 10 0	2Brown, rf.	1 0 0 0 0
Mabry, p.	0 0 0 2	oSchulder, lf.	0 0 0 0 0
4 6 27 10 8		5 6 27 12 4

Bases on balls—By Mabry, 1; by Roy, 3. Struck out—By Mabry, 7; by Roy, 14. Sacrifice hits—Paiste, Baird, Brown. Stolen bases—Townsend, Baird. Two-base hits—Faringer, Price. Three-base hit—Paiste. Umpire—Griffith.

URSINUS, 5; RUTGERS, 4.

New Brunswick, N. J., May 10, 1905.

Ursinus.	R. H. O. A. E.	Rutgers.	R. H. O. A. E.
Price, c.	2 2 9 0	oFord, 3b.	0 1 1 5 1
Townsend, p.	1 3 0 3	oMason, 2b.	1 1 6 1 0
Snyder, ss.	1 1 0 4	1Pearce, c.	1 0 2 6 1
Paiste, 2b.	1 1 3 2	oNelson, c.	1 1 3 0 0
Faringer, 3b.	0 0 1 1	2Taylor, cf.	1 1 3 0 1
Place, rf.	0 2 1 0	1Weaver, rf.	0 1 1 0 0
Koerper, cf.	0 0 0 0	1Van Sant, p.	0 1 0 0 0
Fenton, 1b.	0 0 11 1	oSagrin, p.	0 0 0 1 1
Crunkleton, lf.	0 0 2 0	1oGreen, 1b.	0 0 11 0 0
5 10 27 13 5		4 8 27 12 4

Bases on balls—By Van Sant, 8; by Townsend, 1; by Sagrin, 1. Struck out—By Townsend, 8; by Van Sant, 3. Two-base hits—Price, Townsend, Place, Sagrin. Three-base hit—Price. Sacrifice hit—Weaver.

Baseball Record for 1905 (Continued)

URSINUS, 2; HILL SCHOOL, 3.

Pottstown, Pa., May 14, 1905.

Ursinus.	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.	Hill School.	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.
Price, c.	0	1	9	1		Wylie, c.	0	1	9	1	0
Townsend, p.	0	0	2	4		Root, lf.	0	0	2	0	0
Snyder, ss.	0	0	1	1		Harvey, ss.	0	0	2	4	0
Paiste, 2b.	0	0	2	4		Shotwell, rf.	0	1	1	0	0
Faringer, 3b.	1	2	0	1		Fish, cf.	1	1	2	0	0
Place, lf.	1	0	0	0		Thompson, p.	0	1	2	1	0
Koerper, cf.	0	0	0	0		Cutler, 2b.	0	1	0	0	0
Fenton, 1b.	0	0	9	0		Watson, 1b.	1	0	9	0	0
*Ashenfelter, lf.	0	1	1	0		Johnson, 3b.	1	0	0	1	2
	2	4	24	11	5		3	5	27	7	2

Two-base hit—Faringer. Three-base hits—Wylie, Fish. Sacrifice hit—Koerper. Struck out—By Thompson, 7; by Townsend, 8. Base on balls—Off Townsend, 2; off Thompson, 3. Time of game—1 hour, 45 minutes.

URSINUS, 3; SETON HALL, 8.

Collegeville, May 27, 1905.

Ursinus.	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.	Seton Hall.	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.
Price, c.	0	0	14	2		Stafford, ss.	1	1	1	3	1
Townsend, p.	0	2	0	3		Sheridan, 2b.	1	2	4	5	0
Snyder, ss.	0	0	1	0		Barrett, 3b.	1	1	0	0	0
Paiste, 2b.	0	0	2	1		Stafford, lf.	1	0	2	0	0
Faringer, 3b.	0	1	0	0		Baird, c.	0	0	6	1	0
Place, lf.	2	2	1	0		Meeton, rf.	1	0	1	0	0
Crunkleton, cf.	0	0	1	0		McDonough, 1b.	1	1	13	1	0
Ashenfelter, rf.	1	0	0	0		Kearney, cf.	1	0	0	0	0
Fenton, 1b.	0	3	8	0		Holton, p.	1	1	0	2	1
*Garcia	0	1	0	0
	3	9	27	6	7		8	6	27	12	2

*Batted for Ashenfelter in ninth.

Two-base hits—B. Stafford, Townsend. Three-base hits—Fenton, Barrett. Sacrifice hits—Crunkleton, 2; Ashenfelter. Stolen bases—Ashenfelter, Sheridan, 2. Struck out—By Holton, 7; by Townsend, 15.

URSINUS, 5; SETON HALL, 6.

South Orange, N. J., May 20, 1905.

Ursinus.	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.	Seton Hall.	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.
Price, c.	1	1	4	0		B. Stafford, ss.	1	1	2	0	0
Townsend, rf.	2	2	1	0		Sheridan, 2b.	1	0	1	3	1
Snyder, ss.	0	0	1	2		Barrett, 3b.	0	0	2	1	1
Paiste, 2b.	1	1	1	10		Stafford, lf.	1	1	0	0	0
Faringer, 3b.	0	1	1	0		Baird, c.	0	1	11	0	0
Place, lf.	0	2	1	0		Meeton, rf.	1	1	2	0	0
Crunkleton, cf.	0	1	2	0		McDonough, 1b.	1	1	8	0	2
Fenton, 1b.	0	0	14	0		Kearney, cf.	1	1	1	0	0
Mabry, p.	1	0	0	1		Holton, p.	0	0	0	1	1
	5	8	*25	13	4		6	6	27	5	5

*One out when winning run was scored.

Stolen bases—Townsend, 2; Sheridan, McDonough, Baird. Sacrifice hits—Snyder. Struck out—By Mabry, 10; by Holton, 3. Base on balls—Off Mabry, 2; Holton, 1.

URSINUS, 8; HILL SCHOOL, 0.

Collegeville, Pa., May 31, 1905.

Ursinus.	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.	Hill School.	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.
Price, c.	1	1	9	0		Wylie, c.	0	0	5	1	0
Townsend, rf.	2	2	0	1		Root, lf.	0	1	0	0	0
Snyder, ss.	3	3	0	1		Harvey, ss.	0	1	0	1	0
Paiste, 2b.	1	4	2	3		Shotwell, rf.	0	1	0	0	0
Faringer, 3b.	0	0	1	1		Fish, cf.	0	0	2	0	1
Place, lf.	1	1	0	0		Thompson, p.	0	0	0	1	0
Crunkleton, cf.	0	1	3	0		Cutler, 2b.	0	2	2	1	0
Fenton, 1b.	0	0	6	0		Watson, 1b.	0	0	6	0	0
Mabry, p.	0	0	0	1		Johnson, 3b.	0	0	3	3	0
	8	12	21	7	0		0	3	18	8	2

Two-base hits—Price, Snyder, 2; Paiste, 2. Stolen bases—Root, Place. Struck out—By Mabry, 7; Thompson, 5. Base on balls—Off Mabry, 2; off Thompson, 4. Time of game—1 hour, 45 minutes.

BATTING AND FIELDING AVERAGES.
BATTING AVERAGES.

	Games.	A. B.	R.	H.	S. H.	S. B.	Average.
Townsend, p., r. f.	16	70	17	24	1	5	.343
Paiste, 2b.	16	60	11	20	3	0	.333
Price, c.	16	68	19	21	1	4	.309
Place, r. f., l. f.	13	50	7	13	0	1	.250
Faringer, 3b.	16	63	4	16	2	2	.254
Snyder, ss.	15	60	11	15	4	3	.250
Munhall, r. f.	2	7	0	1	1	1	.143
Fenton, 1b.	16	56	4	6	0	2	.107
Ashenfelter, l. f.	4	10	2	1	1	2	.100
Crunkleton, l. f.	11	42	4	4	2	0	.095
Mabry, p.	8	24	2	1	2	0	.042
Koerper, c. f.	13	40	5	1	4	3	.020

FIELDING AVERAGES.

	Games.	O.	A.	E.	Average.
Crunkleton, l. f.	11	18	1	0	1.000
Paiste, 2b.	16	34	56	3	.967
Price, c.	16	111	26	6	.958
Fenton, 1b.	16	174	1	11	.941
Mabry, p.	8	0	14	1	.933
Koerper, c. f.	13	18	0	2	.900
Townsend, p., r. f.	16	10	33	9	.827
Place, r. f., l. f.	13	12	1	3	.813
Ashenfelter, l. f.	4	2	2	1	.800
Snyder, ss.	15	20	26	12	.793
Faringer, 3b.	16	12	21	18	.647
Munhall, r. f.	2	0	0	1	.000

FOOTBALL

J. R. Cannon

COACH KELLEY.

Edward E. A. Kelley entered Ursinus as a student in 1896, and received his A. B. degree in 1901. While continuing his studies at Ursinus he took a prominent part in athletics, distinguishing himself especially in football. On the gridiron he was aggressive and fearless. He was probably the best quarter-back that Ursinus has ever developed. He was captain of the team in '98 and '99. After his graduation in 1901 he was chosen Graduate Director of Athletics, which position he creditably filled till 1905. He continued his studies for a year at the University of Pennsylvania, and later entered New York Law School, from which institution he received his LL. B. degree in 1904.

As a coach he was very successful. Through his experience and untiring efforts football at Ursinus was wonderfully developed. He put several good teams into the field, his success reaching its culmination in the all-victorious team of 1902, which won every game of the season.

Coach Kelley's services to athletics at Ursinus cannot be overestimated. When the limited number of students in the college is taken into consideration, and when we think of the circumstances under which he had to labor, we are the more impressed with his remarkable success. Ursinus loses an important factor in her athletics, for Coach Kelley's place will be hard to fill.

1905 Football Team

Coach	E. E. KELLEY, '01
Manager	E. H. REISNER, '07
Captain	D. R. FARINGER, '06

PERSONNEL.

	Position.	Weight.	Height.	Games.	Years.
KEASEY, '06	r. g.	180	5 ft. 9.2 in.	8	1
FOLTZ, '06	c.	155	5 ft. 7.4 in.	9	3
FARINGER, '06	l. h. b.	151	5 ft. 7.2 in.	9	6
ELLIS, '07	l. g.	172	5 ft. 9.7 in.	9	2
HELLER, '07	r. t.	190	5 ft. 7.1 in.	8	3
ROTH, '07	f. b.	158	5 ft. 10.5 in.	7	1
ALSPACH, '07	l. e.	156	5 ft. 7.5 in.	8	1
HAIN, '08	r. h. b.	162	5 ft. 7.2 in.	6	2
SNYDER, '08	r. e.	146	5 ft. 6.6 in.	4	3
PAISTE, '08	q. b.	129	5 ft. 6.7 in.	9	1
QUAY, A.	r. g.	168	5 ft. 11.5 in.	6	1
ABEL, '09	l. e.	142	5 ft. 10.5 in.	4	1
KERSCHNER, '09	r. e.	154	5 ft. 6.5 in.	5	1
HEFFELFINGER, '09	l. t.	178	6 ft.	8	1
ZIEGLER, A.	f. b.	164	5 ft. 8.2 in.	8	2
Team average		160	5 ft. 8.5 in.

The Football Season of 1905

When college opened this fall and the men appeared on the football field for the initial practice, it was noticeable to the most casual observer that Ursinus' football prospects had suffered a severe loss in the graduation of her Senior class. The familiar figures of Trexler, Place, Butz, McCollum, Beggs and Hartman were absent,—seven men rich in experience, six of them of the regular Varsity—leaving but five of the old men around with which to form a nucleus. The situation was gloomy and appeared gloomier on looking over the new material, which was inexperienced and light in weight. Colyer, Quay, Abel, and Heffelfinger were the sum total of the new men available, and not one of the four had had much experience. The redoubtable second team of the former year formed the key to the situation, thanks to the spirit pervading this body of men, by working in unison with what remained of the Varsity of 1904, the season was begun.

After the usual preliminary practice of falling on the ball, going down under punts, catching punts and cross-country runs, the team lined up for the first scrimmage work of the year. This presented the first opportunity of determining the kind of team that was to represent Ursinus this fall, and it was observable that it was light, very light, in comparison with some of our former teams.

However, the men gave promise of developing into a fast, heady, aggressive and spirited organization. This observation and promise, as the work progressed, seemed to be realized. The men worked hard and faithfully and manifested splendid spirit and courage in the first three games. They defeated Williamson, in the first game of the season, by a larger score than did the Varsity of the former year; they put up a great game against Lafayette, giving a worthy illustration of what a hard, concentrated and unified defense can accomplish against great odds. They defeated Albright by an overwhelming score, and this was due in great measure to the cohesive force displayed by the team. They worked in unison, dragging the runner along for repeated gains, forming an interference which the opposing players were unable to penetrate.

Yet, there is no lane without its turning. The turning in our case came suddenly, and before anyone was able to fully appreciate its causes and consequences. Ursinus was offered a game by the University of Pennsylvania. Mindful of the honor to be achieved, and of the large guarantee offered, Ursinus, in a foolish moment, scheduled the game three days before the one with Haverford. The result is known—defeat and disaster. One end was forced out of the game three minutes after its beginning with a broken collarbone, followed a few minutes later by his mate with a similar injury.

What had been done had been undone. In the middle of its schedule, with only two days before the Haverford game, two new men had to be developed for the end positions—and one of them had never played a game of football before this year. Haverford won the game after a hard struggle by two touchdowns. It is a pity that, handicapped as our team was, she should have added three inexcusable blunders to her misfortune; for otherwise a different tale might have been told. Reference is made first, when at the beginning of the game against a strong wind, Haverford kicked off over our goal line. With the strong wind that was blowing Ursinus should have touched the ball down for a touch-back, and, kicking with the wind, would easily have punted to her opponent's 25-yard line. Instead of so doing the ball was rushed and Ursinus, being unable to gain, made a weak attempt to punt, and blunder No. 2 gave the ball to Haverford on our own 10-yard line. The third error had occurred when Ursinus had forced Haverford by continuous plunging to her two-yard line. Here, instead of continuing the line of plays that had safely brought her that distance, Ursinus tried a new play, which should never have been tried at that critical time.

We next pass in review the Jefferson-Medical game, which Ursinus won 17-0, and which we remember with peculiar satisfaction, for the same team later defeated F. and M. by a large score. The game with Dickinson never could have been won, as the handicap of weight and experience was too great. It is interesting to note, however, the method by which Dickinson secured the first two touchdowns. After Ursinus had three times bravely held Dickinson within her own 10-yard line, Dickinson executed a fake play around our green ends, and landed within a half yard of our goal. This secured the first touchdown. The second touchdown was secured by a repetition of the same play.

In losing to Gettysburg we lost to a team much heavier than ours, and that had been practically intact for three years. In fact, it was the same team that Ursinus defeated in 1903 by 22-0. So we can well afford in this particular case to "let bygones be bygones."

In the summary of the season's games we come to the Lehigh game, the result of which must be a source of great satisfaction to the players themselves, particularly to those two ends who had so much to contend with during their novitiate, to Captain Faringer and those men who have so ably carried the colors of the college and were to do so for the last time. That game showed the development and true form of the team, and was a complete justification of the team, and a justification of those two ends, who are destined to be two of the best that Ursinus ever had.

In conclusion we look to the future to show the effect of this season's work. Captain Faringer, Foltz and Keasey, the only ones graduating, we see in this year's team an analogy to the 1901 team, the forerunner of the 1902 team. It only remains for us to take the season's lessons to heart. Let us never schedule a university game three days before one with a college of our own class. Let everyone who has Ursinus' athletic history at heart see to it that the athletic field—that field which has so greatly incapacitated our men, that field with its hard and macadam-like bottom, fitful cause of injuries, be sodded without fail, so that when the 1906 men come trotting out for their first practice, carrying with them prospects as bright as any team ever had, those prospects shall not be blighted by injuries caused by our own field.

COACH KELLY.

Football Record for 1905

URSINUS, 18; WILLIAMSON, 0.
Collegetville, September 30, 1905.

Ursinus.	Position.	Williamson.
Abel	Left end	Murfit
Ellis	Left tackle	Bechtely
Cook, Quay	Left guard	McCulley
Foltz, Harman	Centre	Slagle
Keasey	Right guard	Sauer
Heller	Right tackle	Smith
Snyder, Alspach	Right end	Graham
Paiste	Quarter-back	Williams
Faringer (Capt.)	Left half-back	Bricker
Elbert, Garcia, Collyer	Right half-back	Villas
Ziegler, Roth	Full-back	Guest

URSINUS, 53; ALBRIGHT, 0.
Collegetville, October 14, 1905.

Ursinus.	Position.	Albright.
Abel, Alspach	Left end	Wallace
Ellis, Cook, Quay	Left guard	Dunkelberger
Foltz, Harman	Centre	Kelshner
Keasey	Right guard	Gensemer
Heller, Ellis	Right tackle	Hoffman
Snyder	Right end	Brown
Paiste	Quarter-back	Gingrich
Faringer, Garcia	Left half-back	Warner
Colyer, Ebbert	Right half-back	Smoyer
Ziegler, Roth	Full-back	Isenberg
Heffelfinger	Left tackle	Jones

Touchdowns—Heller, 2; Snyder, 2; Faringer, 3; Alspach, Heffelfinger. Goals—Faringer, 8. Referee—Dr. Carver. Umpire—Lentz. Time of halves—20 minutes.

URSINUS, 0; Lafayette, 18.
Easton, October 7, 1905.

Ursinus.	Position.	Lafayette.
Abel	Left end	Snook
Heffelfinger	Left tackle	Cooper
Ellis	Left guard	Doud
Foltz	Centre	Hoskins
Keasey	Right guard	Logan
Heller	Right tackle	(Capt.) Newberry
Snyder	Right end	Thomas
Paiste	Quarter-back	Dietrich
Faringer (Capt.)	Left half-back	McCoo, Wack
Roth	Right half-back	Wasmund
Ziegler	Full-back	McAvoy

Touchdowns—McAvoy, 3. Goals—Newberry, 3. Referee—Maloney, U. of P. Umpire—Jones. Time of halves—20 and 17 minutes.

URSINUS, 0; U. of P., 39.
Phimiladelphia, October 18, 1905.

Ursinus.	Position.	U. of P.
Abel, Roth	Left end	Gaston
Heffelfinger	Left tackle	Rooke, Draper
Ellis	Left guard	Robinson
Foltz	Centre	Bankhart
Quay	Right guard	Stein
Heller	Right tackle	Lamson
Snyder, Alspach	Right end	Scarlett
Paiste	Quarter-back	Stevenson, Johnson
Faringer	Left half-back	Sheble, Corson
Hain, Colyer	Right half-back	Greene, Kinnard
Ziegler	Full-back	Folwell, Bennis

Touchdowns—Folwell, 2; Stevenson, 2; Lamson, Kinnard, Stein. Goals—Sheble, Corson, 3. Referee—W. N. Morris, U. of Pa. Umpire—J. H. Hedges, U. of Pa. Timekeeper—A. L. Smith, U. of Pa. Time of halves—20 minutes.

Football Record for 1905 (Continued)

URSINUS, 0; HAVERFORD, 12.

Collegeville, Pa., October 21, 1905.

Ursinus.	Position.	Haverford.
Alsbach	Left end	Ramsay
Heffelfinger	Left tackle	Jones
Ellis	Left guard	Wood
Foltz	Centre	Wright
Quay, Keasey	Right guard	Birdsall
Heller	Right tackle	Spaeth
Kerschner	Right end	(Capt.) T. K. Brown
Paiste	Quarter-back	Hecker
Hain	Right half-back	Bard
Faringer	Left half-back	C. Brown
Ziegler, Roth	Full-back	Smiley
Touchdowns—Jones, Smiley. Goals—T. K. Brown, 2. Referee—Gillinder, U. of Pa. Umpire—Hitchner, Rutgers. Time of halves—20 minutes.

URSINUS, 0; DICKINSON.

Collegeville, November 4, 1905.

Ursinus.	Position.	Dickinson.
Alsbach	Left end	Cramer
Heffelfinger	Left tackle	Harry
Quay	Left guard	Messner
Foltz	Right guard	Parvis
Keasey	Right tackle	Davis
Ellis	Right end	Salter
Kerschner	Quarter-back	Simpson
Faringer	Left half-back	Robinson
Hain	Right half-back	Klingstein
Ziegler, Roth	Full-back	Viebahm

Touchdowns—Harry, 2; Davis, 2. Goal—Davis, 1. Goal from placement—Davis, 1. Referee—Gillinder, U. of Pa. Umpire—Harris. Timekeeper—Kitchner, Rutgers. Time of halves—25 and 20 minutes.

URSINUS, 0; GETTYSBURG, 17.

Reading, Pa., November 11, 1905.

Ursinus.	Position.	Gettysburg.
Alsbach	Left end	Rowe, McClure
Heffelfinger	Left tackle	Snyder
Ellis	Left guard	Hill
Foltz	Centre	Stauffer
Keasey	Right guard	Dietrich
Heller	Right tackle	Swartz
Kerschner	Right end	Ponnell
Paiste	Quarter-back	Lammert
Faringer	Left half-back	Sieber
Hain	Right half-back	James
Ziegler, Roth	Full-back	Brumbaugh

Touchdowns—Hill, Sieber, James. Goals—Sieber, 2. Referee—McCarty. Umpire—Denison. Time of halves—25 and 20 minutes.

URSINUS, 17; JEFFERSON MEDICAL COLLEGE, 0.

Collegeville, October 28, 1905.

Ursinus.	Position.	Jefferson.
Alsbach	Left end	Mans
Heffelfinger	Left tackle	Connelly
Ellis	Left guard	Mason
Foltz	Centre	Barston, McCausless
Quay, Keasey	Right guard	Hinkle, Scott
Heller	Right tackle	Miller
Kerschner	Right end	Hewitt
Paiste	Quarter-back	Richter, Jackson
Faringer	Left half-back	Miller
Hain	Right half-back	Dmigler
Ziegler	Full-back	Templeton

Touchdowns—Faringer, 2; Ziegler. Goals—Faringer, 2. Referee—Hitchner, Rutgers. Umpire—Gettel, U. of Pa. Time of halves—25 and 20 minutes.

URSINUS, 12; LEHIGH, 0.

South Bethlehem, November 18, 1905.

Ursinus.	Position.	Lehigh.
Alsbach	Left end	Grimball, Herman
Heffelfinger	Left tackle	Pierce, Brumbaugh
Ellis	Left guard	Strauss
Foltz	Centre	Dunn
Keasey	Right guard	Johnston
Heller	Right tackle	Olcott
Kerschner	Right end	Gott, Duncan
Paiste	Quarter-back	Hop'n, Pyne, Travis
Faringer	Left half-back	Pin't
Lawyer, Spiers
Hain	Right half-back	Stocker
Mercur, Fulton
Roth	Full-back	Sheridan
Troutman, VanReeman

Touchdowns—Faringer, Heffelfinger. Goals—Faringer, 2. Referee—Gillinder, U. of Pa. Umpire—Hitchner, Rutgers. Time of halves—25 minutes.

Scrub Football Team

Coach.....ISAIAH M. RAPP, '03
 Manager.....J. ELLIS TOBIAS, '08
 Captain.....RALPH B. EBBERT, '07

PERSONNEL OF TEAM.

	Position.	Weight.	Height. ft. in.	Halves Played.
COOK, '07	r. t.	158	5:11	6
GARCIA, A.	f. b.	159	5:8	6
EBBERT, '07	l. h. b.	146	5:11	6
FRY, '07	l. t.	155	5:10	6
STEWARD, '07	l. g.	158	5:10	5
SPONSLER, '07	r. e.	145	5:8	6
LAU, '09	r. h. b.	158	5:8	5
HARMAN, '06	c.	150	5:7	6
KEYSER, '09	l. e.	158	5:8	3
CRUNKLETON, '07	q. b.	140	5:8	6
WARNER, A.	r. g.	160	5:10	3
Team average		154	5:9

SCHEDULE OF GAMES.

Date.	Team.	Place.	Score.
Octo. 11—	Norristown High School.....	Collegeville	17-0
Oct. 25—	Hill School	Pottstown	0-15
Nov. 18—	Moravian Seminary	Bethlehem	5-5

Review of 1905 Scrubs

FOOTBALL practice began in September, with only one man of the successful team of 1904 absent. Under such conditions the promise of a team was very bright. In fact, during the first part of the season the two squads which lined up against each other in the scrimmage practice were of very nearly equal strength, each team at times gaining the advantage over the other. But such was not to last. One by one, the backbones of the 1904 team were taken to fill the places of those of the Varsity squad who had been graduated, or who for other reasons were forced to drop football togs.

Thus the quarter-back, the full-back, the guards, a tackle and lastly an end were given places in the regular line up. Thus were the Reserves depleted. However, a wealth of material, light but earnest and willing, many of whom had never played a game, offered themselves to help round the Varsity squad into condition.

Three games were played. The first, that with Norristown High School, was won; the next, with Hill School Second, was lost; and the last, that with Moravian College, was tied with a score of 5-5.

The game with Norristown High School was played with probably the strongest eleven of individual players that took part this year in the Reserves' schedule. The game was played before the series of accidents crippled the Varsity, and also before Keasey, Alspach, Kerschner and Colyer had made it either as regular or substitute players. As a consequence the light Norristown team could not stop the rushes of our backfield, and the game was won by a good margin. In this game changes on the line were made during the second half that all might be given a chance to show their ability. Changes at end, at guard and at centre were made, but the work of those who substituted was just as effective as of those who started the game. This showed that the possibilities of having a good team, even though several finally became Varsity men, and, as after events proved, were bright.

The game with Hill School Second was played, with the places of several of those who had taken part in the first game filled by others, by men who had played but little football. Team work was lacking. Spirit which frequently changes defeat into victory was wanting, and when once scored on, the fighting spirit disappeared, and the final score was only a question of the time remaining to play.

The Moravian game was not played until November 18. These few weeks were devoted to hard scrimmages against the first team, and to the perfecting of team play, which was so lacking in the previous games. How well they profited can best be seen from the way in which they went through Moravian's tackles and around her ends. Sponsler, Cook, Fry and Garcia were the best ground gainers on line plunges. But these gains were made possible only by the excellent assistance given the men carrying the ball. It was pretty to see the way in which Captain Ebbert, Lau and Crunkleton helped Garcia or Cook or Fry along. Even when halted momentarily by the Moravian players they would not give up, but pushed and pulled the runner along for yards at a time. The defensive work of Harman, who saved many a yard by his tackles on short end runs, and of the entire left side of the line, was magnificent.

Nearly three times as much ground was gained by the Reserves as by the Moravian College team. Twice was the ball carried within scoring distance, the first time for a touchdown, but on the second trial a fumble when downed lost the chance to score, and consequently a victory.

If the success of a team is judged only by the percentage of games lost and won, then undoubtedly there were more successful seasons than this one has been. But if we take into account the fact that both the Varsity and Reserve teams were over half new men, and in some cases men who had never played football before, then we must consider that the Reserve team compares favorably with those of the preceding years.

COACH RAPP.

JAMES A. ELLIS, '07
Captain-Elect 1907 Foot Ball Team

BASKET BALL

Basket Ball

Coach HUGHES, '08
 Assistant Coach..... SNYDER, '08
 Captain of First Team..... MISS SPANGLER, '09
 Captain of Second Team..... MISS NEFF, '07

PERSONNEL OF TEAMS.

FIRST TEAM.	SECOND TEAM.
SPANGLER, '09 (Captain).....:Forward	NEFF, '07 (Captain).....Forward
KNAUER, A.Forward	SPONSLER, A.Forward
CLYMER, A.Centre	H. EBBERT, A.Centre
A. THOMPSON, '09.....Guard	YERKES, '08Guard
MATHIEU, A.Guard	L. BECK, '08.....Guard

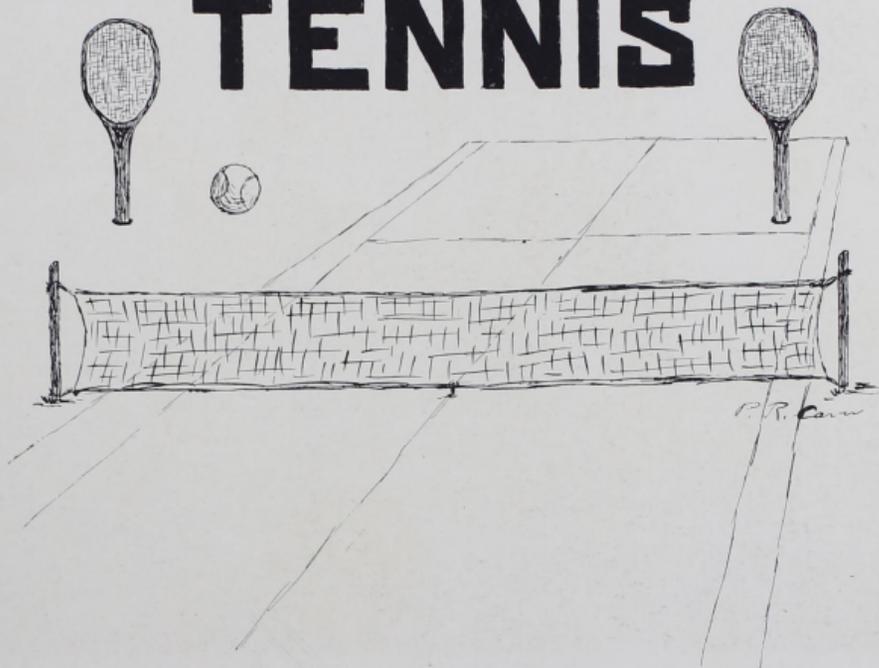

URSINUS, 7; SCHUYLKILL SEMINARY, 8.

Ursinus.	Schuylkill Seminary.
MATHIEUGuard.....(Capt.)	SHOCH
A. THOMPSON.....Guard.....	BROWN
CLYMERCentre.....	HATZ
SPANGLER (Capt.)Forward.....	RAY
JACKSONForward.....	ROMBERGER

TENNIS

Tennis Association Officers

President	W. B. FENTON.
Vice President	L. D. CRUNKLETON.
Secretary and Treasurer.....	M. B. SPONSLER.

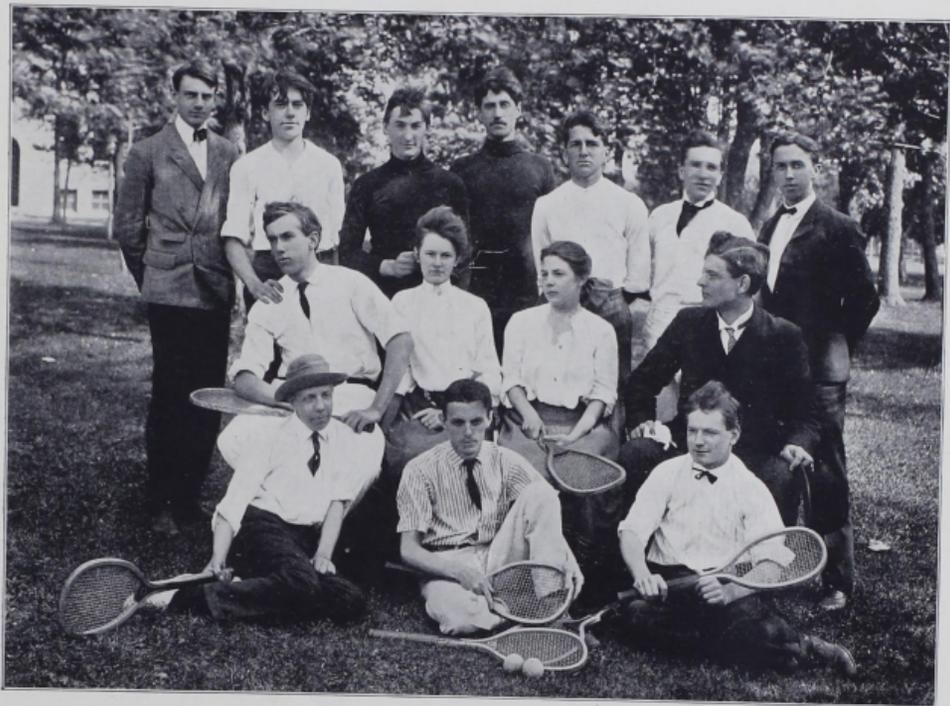

MEMBERS.

L. D. CRUNKLETON.	W. B. FENTON.
DR. W. B. CARVER.	MARTIN W. SMITH.
WINFIELD S. HARMAN.	CHARLES S. DOTTERER.
WILLIAM J. LENHART.	DR. C. H. SHAW.
FRANCIS T. KRUSEN.	FRANK S. FRY.
MARION G. SPANGLER.	M. B. SPONSLER.
SARA M. SPANGLER.	RAPHAEL GARCIA.
	T. BROOK PAISTE.

TOURNAMENT.

Finals played by R. G. Gettel and T. Brook Paiste.

Prize—Six dollar racket—T. Brook Paiste.

Ursinus College Orchestra and Glee Club

W. B. CARVER, Leader of Glee Club.

F. E. HELLER, Director of Orchestra.

W. B. FENTON, Manager.

ORCHESTRA.

First Violins.	Second Violins.
E. N. Rhodes, '08.	L. D. Crunkleton, '07.
M. B. Sponsler, '07.	W. S. Long, '09.
W. S. Harman, '06.	L. R. Moser, A.
Clarinet.	Flute.
C. E. Toole, '07.	F. E. Heller, '07.
Cornet.	Trombone.
W. H. Stoner, '08.	F. B. Ziegler, A.
Bass Viol.	Piano.
R. Z. Cope, '09.	W. S. Kerschner, '09.

GLEE CLUB.

Second Tenors.
W. S. Harman, '06.
H. H. Koerper, '07.
H. W. Snyder, '08.
Second Bass.
F. S. Fry, '07.
W. S. Kerschner, '09.
H. G. Maeder, A.

QUARTETTE.

F. E. HELLER.....	First Tenor
H. H. KOERPER.....	Second Tenor
D. R. WISE.....	First Bass
W. S. KERSCHNER.....	Second Bass

ORCHESTRA AND GLEE CLUB CONCERT

W. B. CARVER, Leader of Glee Club,

F. E. HELLER, Director of Orchestra.

PART I.

1. College Life.....Henry Frantzen
Orchestra.
2. (a) Campus SongPetri
Glee Club.
- (b) ToylandVictor Herbert
 Mr. Heller and the Glee.
3. Violin SoloSelected
 Mr. Rhodes.
4. 1906 MedleyCarver
 Glee Club.
5. Vocal SoloSelected
 Mr. Wise.
6. Selection from "Mayor of Tokio".....W. F. Peters
 Orchestra.
7. Old RagsShattuck

PART II.

1. Sweet and Low.....J. Barnby
 Glee Club.
2. Selection from "Faust".....Gounod
 Orchestra.
3. Quartette Selected
 Messrs. Heller, Koerper, Wise, Kerschner.
4. Vocal SoloSelected
 Mr. Fogleman.
5. Nursery Rhymes.....Arthur F. M. Custance
 Glee Club.
6. Selection from Fantana.....Raymond Hubbell
 Orchestra.
7. Good Night.....J. A. Parks
 Glee Club.
3. Quartette Selected

PLACES AND TIME.

- | | |
|-------------------|-------------------|
| Collegeville..... | January 20, 1906 |
| Norristown..... | January 25, 1906 |
| Iron Bridge..... | February 20, 1906 |
| Conshohocken..... | February 24, 1906 |
| Centre Point..... | April 7, 1906 |

The Heavenly Choir

TERRIBLE TENOR.

"St. Michael" Carver.
"Father" Koerper.
"Holy" Heller.

"St. Michael" Carver, Leader.

SIMPLE SOPRANO.

"Sanctimonious Sarar" Spangler.
"Celestial Evar" Mathieu.
"Eternal Noise Maker" Fryling.

AWFUL ALTO.

"Angelic Ann" Hobson.
"Cherubumski Mariar" Behney.
"Seraphic Rhear" Duryea.

BUM BASS.

"Devil Chaser" Alspach.
"Grand Ethereal Windbag" Kerschner.
"Lord of All" Fry.

HARPIST, "St. Lux" Smith.

ASSISTANT HARPIST, "St. Peter" Neff.

BUSINESS MANAGER, "Stand Up for Jesus" Harman.

SELECTIONS.

"Mother's Teeth Will Soon Fit Susan."
"We Are Gazing at the Stars Through a Knot-Hole in Father's Wooden Leg."
"Must We Always Eat Meat with Our Mustard?"
"Who Threw the Overalls in Mrs. Murphy's Hash?"

CHAPEL ORCHESTRA.

Director, "Goo Goo" Wise.

TAMBOURINE.

"Rev." Beck.

VASSALINE.

"Pussy" Reischer.

DEVILINE.

"Parson" Fegley.

HURDY GURDY.

Operator, "Reddy" Smith.

Monk, "Peanut" Paiste.

SWINETTO.

"Admiral" Toole.

PICCADULL.

"Fluffy" Heller.

FIRST SANDPAPER.

"Toady" Moore.

SECOND SANDPAPER.

"Old Woman" Koons.

FOGHORN.

"Windy" Fry.

BUZZ SAW.

"Rosco" Cope.

TROMBONE.

"Screech Owl" Stamy.

HAMBONE.

"Dog" Alspach.

FIRST FAMILIAR HUMDRUM.

"Zeke" Long.

SECOND FAMILIAR HUMDRUM.

"Jessie" Hain.

CHINA CYMBALS.

"Dutch" Mabry.

URSINUS UNION

OFFICERS.

President	CHARLES S. DOTTERER, '06
Vice President	CAROLINE E. PAISTE, '06.
Secretary	EVELYN A. NEFF, '07.
Treasurer	MARTIN W. SMITH, '06.

MEMBERS.

FACULTY.

Prof. G. L. Omwake.
Dr. K. J. Grimm.
Dr. C. H. Shaw.

Dr. H. Smith.
Dr. W. B. Carver
Dr. H. H. Aimes.
Marion G Spangler.

1907.

Edward I. Cook.
James A. Ellis.
Nelson P. Fegley.

William Moore.
Evelyn A. Neff.
Edward H. Reisner.

1906.

Charles S. Dotterer.
Beverly A. Foltz.
Mabel A. Hobson.
Miles A. Keasey.

Mary E. Long.
Roy E. Mabry.
Caroline E. Paiste.
Martin W. Smith.

1908.

Rhea E. Duryea.

Lillie I. Beck.
Lida Ebbert.

Brotherhood of Saint Paul

OBJECT.

The object of this organization is to cultivate in its members a deeper religious life, to create a greater interest in the active work of Christ's Kingdom on earth, to secure more loyal devotion to the Christian ministry as a life work, and to promote the interests of the ministerial calling among the students of Ursinus College.

OFFICERS.

President.....	TITUS A. ALSPACH, '07
Vice President.....	JOHN C. MYERS, '07
Secretary.....	CHARLES H. BROWN, '07
Treasurer.....	JOSEPH YOST, A

MEMBERS.

1906. WINFIELD S. HARMAN. DAVID R. WISE. 1908. EDWARD HAMME. HARVEY M. LEIDY.	1907. TITUS A. ALSPACH. CHARLES H. BROWN. JOHN C. MYERS. FRANK S. FRY. 1909. WELCOME S. KERSCHNER. JOHN A. KOONS. IRVIN C. LAU.	Academy. MORVIN GODSCHALL. WELLINGTON M. HOOVER AMANDUS LEIBY. JOSEPH YOST. WILLIAM B. STAMETZ. HENRY G. MAEDER. ERNEST E. QUAY.	Honorary Members. PROF. G. L. OMWAKE. PROF. W. A. KLINE. DR. K. J. GRIMM. DR. J. I. GOOD.
--	---	--	---

Charmidean Club

COLOR: DARK RED.

Flower: Roosevelt Carnation.

Motto: Character is Wealth.

OFFICERS.

PresidentBEVERLY A. FOLTZ
Vice President.....D. REINER FARINGER
Secretary.....RALPH B. EBBERT
TreasurerWILLIAM B. FENTON

MEMBERS.

1906.

D. REINER FARINGER.
ROY E. MABRY.
BEVERLY A. FOLTZ.
MARTIN W. SMITH.
D. R. WISE.

1907.

L. DALE CRUNKLETON.
JAMES A. ELLIS.
FLOYD E. HELLER.
RALPH B. EBBERT.
WILLIAM B. FENTON.
HAROLD D. STEWARD.
CLARENCE E. TOOLE.

Kratz Boarding Club

Motto: Uncover, dogs, and lap.

Time of Meals: Breakfast, 7-8; dinner, 1-2; dinner, 6-7.

Open from September to June.

Continuous conversation during meals.

OFFICERS.

Chief Mogul and Carver.....MARTIN W. SMITH
 Right Grub Passer.....JOHN C. MYERS
 Left Grub Passer.....WILLIAM E. STURGIS
 Chief Receiving "Guy".....CHARLES S. DOTTERER
 Second Receiving "Guy".....EDGAR N. RHODES
 Royal Entertainer.....IRVIN C. LAU

	Attendance.	Favorite Dish.	Appetite.
CHARLES S. DOTTERER.....	Regular.....	Molasses.....	100 %
JAMES A. ELLIS.....	Regular.....	Cinnamon Buns.....	99 "
WILLIAM E. STURGIS.....	Regular.....	Mush and Milk.....	75 "
IRVIN C. LAU.....	Perfect.....	Corn Fritters.....	75 "
WILLIAM S. LONG.....	Always late.....	Scrapple.....	55 "
BEVERLY A. FOLTZ.....	Late.....	Puffed Rice.....	90 "
MARTIN W. SMITH.....	Any old time.....	Hash.....	100 "
EDWARD H. REISNER.....	Regular.....	Cracker Soup.....	10 " *
JOHN C. MYERS.....	Late.....	Hot Water.....	12½ " †
EDWARD I. COOK.....	Always on hand.....	Chicken.....	98 "
EDGAR N. RHODES.....	Never fails.....	Horse Radish.....	98 "
L. DALE CRUNKLETON.....	Regular.....	Catsup.....	94 "
ROY E. MABRY.....	Luncheon and Dinner.....	Eggs.....	8 " *
DAVID R. WISE.....	Perfect.....	Onions.....	67 " ‡

*In love.

†Unaccountable.

‡Appetite improving, recovering from love.

Exercises of Commencement Week

SUNDAY, JUNE 4th.

8.00 P. M.—Baccalaureate Sermon by President David W. Ebbert, D. D. Music by the Choir of Trinity Reformed Church.

MONDAY, JUNE 5th.

2.00 P. M.—Class Day Exercises, in the College Auditorium.
8.00 P. M.—Junior Oratorical Contest. Awarding of the Hobson and Meminger Medals. Music by the Sixth Regiment Band, of Royersford.

TUESDAY, JUNE 6th.

10.00 A. M.—Annual meeting of the Board of Directors, in the President's rooms.
2.00 P. M.—Annual meeting of the Alumni Association, in the College Chapel.
5.00 P. M.—Alumni Luncheon, College Dining Hall.
8.00 P. M.—Alumni Oration, in the College Auditorium, by Alvin Hunsicker, B. S., New York City.
9-11 P. M.—President's Reception, at the President's House.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7th.

9.45 A. M.—Music by the Wolsieffer Orchestra of Philadelphia.
10.30 A. M.—Commencement.
Orations by three members of the Graduating Class.
Conferring of Degrees.
Commencement Oration, by Professor Edgar Odell Lovett, Ph. D., of Princeton University.
2.00 P. M.—Open Air Concert, on the Campus.
Conference of Alumni in Bomberger Hall.
3.00 P. M.—Baseball Game, Ursinus vs. College of the City of New York, New Athletic Field.

Class Day Exercise

MONDAY, June 5, 1905.

Piano Solo	EVELYN A. NEFF, 1907
Class History	ROBERT F. BUTZ
Sham Oration	CHARLES A. TOWNSEND
Bass Solo, "Honor and Arms" (Handel).....	HARRY H. McCOLLUM
Athletic Review	RALPH E. MILLER
Prophecy	DESSA C. EBBERT
Vocal Solo, "Berceuse" (Holmes).....	MISS VIRGINIA WALLACE
Recollections of James Whitcomb Riley.....	HARRY H. McCOLLUM
Presentations	JOHN B. PRICE
Vocal Solo, "Love the Pedlar" (German).....	MISS VIRGINIA WALLACE
Presenting of Mantle to Junior Class.....	CLARENCE G. PLACE
Master of Ceremonies.....	CLAUDE D. TREXLER
Ode	LINDEN H. RICE
Planting of Class Tree.
Tree Oration	RALPH E. WISMER

Junior Oratorical Contest

Monday, June 5, 1905, 8 P. M.

Music: March, "Lake Front".....H. A. VANDERCOOP Selection, "The Bohemian Girl".....BALFE INVOCATION. Music: March, "Chicken Charley".....ASHLEY BALLOW Oration: "An Imperious Opportunity," CHARLES SPIEGEL DOTTERER, Philadelphia, Pa. Oration: "A Tribute to the Grand Army," DAVID REINER FARINGER, Collegeville, Pa. Oration, "The United States Among the Nations," BEVERLY A. FOLTZ, Waynesboro, Pa. Music: Selection, "The Tenderfoot".....H. L. HARTZ	Oration, "The Cultivated Man in an Industrial Era," WINFIELD S. HARMAN, Emmitsburg, Md. Oration, "The Right to Labor," ROY VINCENT HARTMAN, Stony Creek Mills, Pa. Music, "Sliding Jim".....F. H. LOSEY Oration, "A Plea for the Children," ANNA MABEL HOBSON, Collegeville, Pa. Oration, "A College Education for Women," MARY ELLEN LONG, Manheim, Pa. Music, Medley, "Down the Mississippi".....A. M. LAUREN
---	--

AWARDING OF THE MEDALS.

BENEDICTION.

JUDGES.

THE HON. IRVING P. WAGNER, Norristown.
 PROFESSOR BENJAMIN F. BATTIN, Ph. D., Swarthmore.
 PROFESSOR A. C. ROTHERMEL, A. M., Kutztown.

PRIZES.

Hobson Medal.....MABEL ANNA HOBSON
 Meminger Medal.....DAVID REINER FARINGER
 Honorable Mention.....BEVERLY AUGUSTUS FOLTZ

Suggestive Titles

We Are Seven(s) (Wordsworth).....	Junior Class
The Bostonians (Henry James).....	Keasey
On Time (Milton).....	Harman
The Errand Boy (Alger).....	Dotterer
Early Rising (Saxe).....	Crunkleton
Childe Harold (Byron).....	Steward
Height of the Ridiculous (Holmes).....	Koons
Trial of Warren Hastings (McCauley).....	Olevian Trial
Old Curiosity Shop (Dickens).....	Tobia's Room
The Silent Woman (Jonson).....	Miss Behney
Little Men (Alcott).....	Leidy
William the Silent (Motley).....	Lenhart
The Art of Love (Ovid).....	Miss Jackson
Betsy and I Are Out (Carleton).....	Snyder
The Betrothed (Boker).....	Fry
Hero Worship (Carlyle).....	Miss Neff
Bleak House (Dickens).....	Dog House
Pointes of Husbandrie (Tusser).....	Koerper
House of Idleness (Byron).....	Toole
Rory O'More (Lover).....	Moore
The Idler (Johnson).....	Ebbert
Trumps (Curtis).....	Ellis
My Double (Hale).....	Gilland
The Task (Cowper).....	Writing the Ruby
Innocents Abroad (Twain).....	The Preps.
Little Women (Alcott).....	Miss Paiste
Life and Times of John Huss (Gillett).....	Faringer
Letters to Stella (Steel).....	Miss Smith
Dreame (Lyndsay).....	Sponsler
Past Meridian (Sigourney).....	Rhodes
All for Love (Dryden).....	Reisner
Sermon on the Ploughs (Latimer).....	Fegley
School of Abuse (Gosson).....	Economic Class
Homeward Bound (Cooper).....	Seniors

Annual Meeting of the Alumni Association

OFFICERS, 1905-1906.

President	REV. CALVIN D. YOST, A. M., '91, Chalfont, Pa.
Vice President	BERTHA MOSER, A. B., '02, Collegeville, Pa.
Secretary and Treasurer.....	I. M. RAPP, A. B., '03, Collegeville, Pa.
Historian	REV. JOHN EDWARD STONE, A. B., '00, Thornville, O.
Orator	ALVIN HUNSICKER, B. S., '84, New York City.

Alumni Business Meeting,

Tuesday, June 6, 1905, 2 P. M.

Alumni Luncheon,

Tuesday, June 6, 1905, 5 P. M.

Alumni Oration,

Tuesday, June 6, 1905, 8 P. M.

Address.....	REV. CALVIN D. YOST, President.
Vocal Solo	MRS. HELEN BOIES HUNSICKER, New York City.
Prayer	REV. E. C. HIBSCHMAN, A. M., '86, Philadelphia, Pa.
Vocal Solo	MRS. HELEN BOIES HUNSICKER.
Oration, Twentieth Century Ethics.....	ALVIN HUNSICKER, B. S., '84.

Alumni Conference,

Wednesday, June 7, 1905, 2 P. M.

Degrees, Honors and Prizes

HONORARY DEGREES.

LL. D.—FREELAND G. HOBSON, A. M., Collegeville.

GEORGE H. MEEKER, M. D., Professor of Chemistry, Medico-Chirurgical, Philadelphia.

D. D.—REV. HENRY JACOB CHRISTMAN, Professor of Practical Theology, Heidelberg Theological Seminary, Tiffin, O.

REV. GEORGE ALBERT SNYDER, President of Catawba College, Newton, N. C.

REV. E. S. BROMER, Professor of New Testament Exegesis and Theology, Ursinus School of Theology, Phila-

REV. GEORGE STIBITZ, Ph. D., York, Pa.

DEGREES IN COURSE.

A. M.

ELEANOR BRECHT PRICE, B. S.

A. B. Magna cum Laude.

BERTHA EVELYN SHIPE.

A. B. cum Laude.

ELLIOT FREDERICK.

MARY H. STONER.

A. B.

ROBERT FLEMING BUTZ.

DESSA CORNELIA EBBERT.

LINDEN HOWELL RICE.

RALPH FRY WISMER.

HARRY HOWARD MCCOLLUM.

RALPH EDGAR MILLER.

CHARLES AUGUSTUS TOWNSEND.

CLAUDE DEISHER TREXLER.

CLARENCE GARFIELD PLACE.

JOHN BEADLE PRICE.

COMMENCEMENT HONORS.

Salutatory ELLIOT FREDERICK

Valedictory BERTHA EVELYN SHIPE

HONORS IN SPECIAL DEPARTMENTS.

Chemistry.

RALPH EDGAR MILLER.

Education.

BERTHA E. SHIPE.

DESSA C. EBBERT.

English.

MARY H. STONER.

BERTHA E. SHIPE.

History.

DESSA C. EBBERT.

Political Science.

ELLIOT FREDERICK.

Physics.

CLARENCE G. PLACE.

FROM

The misery of Economics,
 The class yells of 1906,
 The bluffs of Fegley,
 The harangues in Evolution,
 The "lectures" of the Dean,
 The scandals of Olevian,
 The measles and mumps,
 The fussing of Fry,
 The field trips in Biology,
 The discords of the Orchestra,
 The "correspondence course" in Logic,
 The jokes of Petersen,
 The "supposn's" of Aimes,
 The noise of the Glee Club,
 The bi-weekly tests in Economics,
 The news (?) in the "Weekly,"
 *The copying of History notes,
 The fumes of Toole's bum tobacco,
 The "Union" reports,
 The "call downs" of the Librarian,
 The hot air of Dotterer,
 Hard work,

GOOD LORD, DELIVER US.

*Special prayer by the Juniors.

OVERHEARD IN 1925

Alspach—"The text will be found in Moses xi, 44."
 Ashenfelter—"Let's see your tongue. Five dollars, please."
 Brown—"Fellows, dere iss no udder vay bud to sdrike, Down mit der operators!"
 Cook—"Register here. I'm the clerk."
 Crunkleton—"Dere all wool except the buttons."
 Ebbert—"Next."
 Ellis—"Fare, please."
 Fegley—"Whoa! Haw! Durn such a plug anyway!"
 Fenton—"I won't make a donation, but I might give you a library or a pipe-organ."
 Fry—"Manayunk, Conshohocken, Norristown, Pottstown and all points west. All aboard."
 Heller—"Honest to God! I'm a policeman in this town."
 Koerper—"Strike three; you're out."
 Lenhart—"Five to one on the bay mare."
 Moore—"It's against the rules to throw us peanuts."
 Myers—"Collar buttons, 5c."
 Neff—"Stop at the butcher's on the way home from the office."
 Reiser—"We'll drop the lesson at this point."
 Roth—"Broke again, by gosh!"
 Smith—"It might have been."
 Sponsler—"Walk right in, Mary'll be glad to see you."
 Steward—"Fellow Democrats, we hadn't ought to lose this time."
 Shunk—"Look pleasant, please; raise the chin a little."
 Toole—"Everybody works but father."

Caught on the Fly

Dr. Aimes, in History 2—"Mr. Snyder, what kind of women lived in the middle ages?"

Mr. Snyder—"Middle-aged."

"Toady" Moore (translating "es thut mir leid um meine Obersten")—"I am sorry for my Easter eggs."

Dr. Beardwood—"Mr. Sponsler, what kind of a smell has cyanogen gas?"

Sponsler—"Why, why, a gaseous smell."

Miss Long, in French A (translating "Je ne l'ai jamais vu!")—"I never loved him."

Petersen (interrupting)—"Ach, Miss Long, it isn't all love here."

Dean Omwake (illustrating mental imagery in Psychology)—"What mental image would be immediately suggested by 'The curfew tolls the knell of parting day?'"

Moore's turn—"Professor was that the story of the lady hanging on the bell?"

In French, A. Munhall (translating "reprendre le sac et courir repondre a l'appel")—"And he took up his socks and hurried after his name."

Dr. Beardwood—"Mr. Stamy, if potassium cyanide is a simple or single compound, what kind of a compound would you call potassium ferro-cyanide?"

Mr. Stamy (hesitating)—"Why, m-married."

Miss Paiste (translating "diviso et ipse in tres partes exercitu incessit")—"And having divided himself and his army into three parts—"

Prof. Kline (interrupting)—"No; he—"

Miss Paiste (quickly)—"Oh, yes, I see; he dividing himself and—"

Cope, in French (translating "Hier, j'ai voulu faire fumer le beau-pere")—"Yesterday—I—have—wished—to smoke my—beautiful—father."

New College Songs

Tune, "Soldiers in the Park."

Hurrah! Hurrah Hurrah!
Oh! let us gayly sing,
While merrily they play,
For they to us do bring
A victory to-day.
Oh! let us gayly sing,
Our boys must know we're here,
When they make a dashing run,
When the victory is won,
Oh! let us give the old Ursinus cheer.

Tune, "Tammany."

Play football,
Play football,
We are used to winning here,
Same old story year by year.
Play football,
Play football,
Snare 'em,
Tear 'em,
Harum,
Scarum!
Play football.

Tune, "The Baby with a Dimple and a Smile."

When Ursinus starts to play,
In her good, old-fashioned way,
You will find her sons a-fighting good and hard,
And the enemy we play
Will see that we are here to stay,
When they see us gaining ground a yard by yard.

Chorus.

O, you're up against it now,
Can't you see the way our team through yours doth plough?
O——make another call,
We will teach you how to play football.

Tune, "America.

Almighty God, we praise
Thy holy name, Thy grace,
With one accord!
Our Alma Mater bless
With truth and righteousness,
Give to her cause success,
Through Christ our Lord.

Ursinus fair and dear,
Our hearts are filled with cheer,
In this glad hour;
We love thy ancient name
Of Reformation fame,
Thy mission we proclaim,
With all our power.

Around thy standard true
We rally here anew
In loyalty;
For thee our prayers ascend,
That blessings thee attend,
Faithful unto the end,
We cling to thee.

Bald-Headed Men's Club.

going!

going!!

gone!!!

Members

"Fisher" Ames, "Robin" Frantz, "Fluffy" Heller, "Pop" Rhodes.

Shaw 1907

Candidates For Matriculation.

"Pussy" Reamer, "Tippy" Wise, "B" Keasey, Dan Oniwake, "Doc" Ebbert, Marshall Spaulst.

STATISTICS OF ELEVIAN WIG CLUB

NAME	RESIDENCE	AGE	WEIGHT	EXTRACTION	DISPOSITION	PRESENT OCCUPATION	FUTURE OCCUPATION	FAVORITE PASTIME	NICKNAME
L. Beck	Phoenixville	Stone	100	Irish	Violent	Gabbing	Will Continue Present Occupation	Talking	?
M. Beck	Watsonstown	St. John (Koons)	160	Woman	Solitary	Looking after Brother	Looking after Husband	Walking with Brother	Minta
Duryea	Reading	Ancient	236½	Welsh	Sarcastic	Eating Pretzels	Chewing Pretzels	Row(ing)	Little Rhea
Fryling	Sunbury	Archives	180	?	Harmless	Trying to be a Regular	Making a Noise	Talking	Mag
Knauer	St. Peters	?	150	Dutch	Agreeable	The Rivals	Deciding Which One	Keeping the Rivals Guessing	?
Long	Manheim	Fables	193	?	Solemn	Praising Seniors	Missionary	?	Shorty
Matheiu	Philadelphia	Modern	6¾	Italian	Funny	Listening to the Bubbling of the "Brook"	?	?	?
Neff	Kutztown	Dutch Republic	90 (Troy)	Dutch	Homely	?	Teach	Music	Peedie
Price	Collegeville	Prehistoric	103	Hebrew	Loving	Giving Demerits	Get Married	Bother the Boys	Madam
Swartz	Harrisburg	Folly	163	Russian	Facetious	Victor	?	Flirting	?

SUMMARY—Total, 30; Regulars, 2; Would Be's, 1; Number Married, 0; Combined Weight, 1181½; Good Looking, 1; Smart, 0; Number who would like to get Married, 10.

Ursinus College,
Jan. 13, 1906.

Dr. Bollman,
Robesonia, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I have been a student at Ursinus for two years and am now in the Junior Class. Your son Leroy came to Ursinus some time before Christmas and we soon became close friends. One day he came to me, saying that he was short of money, but was expecting a check from home, and asked me if I would loan him two dollars. Being a good friend of mine, I loaned him two dollars and he gave me his watch and chain as security. He soon after left the college and I discovered that the watch and chain are almost worthless. Upon receipt of the two dollars I will return the watch and chain.

Yours truly,

F. E. HELLER.

Robesonia, Pa.,
Jan. 15, 1906.

Prof. F. E. Heller,
Ursinus College.

Dear Sir:

I am very sorry that you have gotten yourself into such a complication with Leroy, but he is only 16 years of age and must tend to his own affairs. We give him money enough for all necessities. Besides, you, being a senior, should have known better than to loan him the money without having a better security. In addition, I am very much surprised that my son Leroy should so degrade himself as to patronize the pawn-broker shop in Ursinus College. Here my sympathy ends.

Yours in time of trouble,
F. L. BOLLMAN, M. D.

SHORT AND PITHY.

High-toned, but not extravagant in price: "Tippy" Wise.

My latest work, "How to Fag an Agent," "Jimmy"
Ellis.

Who studies economics for pleasure? "Spons."

11.30 P. M., Kerschner runs against a screen. Tippy and Dutch take a cross-country.

Fashion, thy name is "Olevian Hall Girls."

"I came out to congratulate you fellows."—Spons.

"The boys look so seedy to me."—Miss Jackson.

All of them wax old like a garment—Faculty.

Sermons in stones—Joe Yost.

Thy wits want edge, thy jokes want point—Prof. Petersen.

The fairest among ten thousand—Miss Austerberry.

The Amsterdam Dutch and the Potsdam Dutch—Hoover.

What is so tedious as Leidy's twice-told tales?

It is a great sin to swear—Fogelman.

There will be no admission to the McClurkin lecture
Prof. Onwake.

Life is but an empty dream—Harman.

IDIOSYNCRASIES OF THE JUNIOR BOYS. BY VOTE OF THE COLLEGE STUDENTS.

	Handsome	Thinks he is	Most Popular	Thinks he is	Most Graceful	Grouchiest	Tightest	Greatest Athlete	Thinks he is	Biggest Fussier	Best Dressed	Laziest	Biggest Liar	Brightest	Thinks he is	Most Conceited	Meekest	Biggest Smoker	Most Pious	Biggest Bluffer	Greatest Bore
Alspach	1		2				19	3	2					18	1*				0	3	3
Ashenfelter			1	9	24									1*				17	1	1	1
Brown	2						9		11					22	1*				2	1	1
Cook		3	61†	23				1	0				99§	1*						2
Crunkleton			3					2			5			4	1*					1	2
Ebbert		28			2		14				1			1*				8	0	0 ⁰⁰	25
Ellis			2				41		1					1*					9	1	1
Fegley	53				1				98	21				8	1*	2				18	25
Fenton	61‡		63†	18				2	40					1	1*					1	25
Fry	1*	17	2		49			3						1*
Heller	5		2	7	3			3						1*							3
Koerper			1				1†							1*			2				16
Lenhart		4		10					1				1	1*			91 ⁰	27		3	2
Moore		32			33		8							1*							14
Myers	0			2			38				85*			1*						3	25
Spousler		6			2						3			1*						3	2
Reisner		3	1*	14	1†				1†	14	10			1*						7	2
Roth		9		8				44		1				20	1*	49					17
Shunk			4		1		12	1*	1					1*			3	24			3
Stewart		28									1	1	4	1*						71	1
Toole			1	3	27				2				95	1*			1	15	4	1

*Voted for himself. Wears his chin's clothes. †Swears by note. ‡Ballot box stuffed. §Biggest individual vote polled. 0. Too dumb to bluff. 100 his 1904 bathing record. 0⁰⁰ Surely a mistake somewhere.

RESULT OF THE VOTE

Handsome	Fegley	Best dressed	Myers
Thinks he is	Tie } Ebbert	Laziest	Toole
Most popular	Fenton	Biggest liar	Cook
Thinks he is	Cook	Brightest	Reisner
Most graceful	Moore	Thinks he is	Undecided
Grouchiest	Steward	Most conceited,	Tie } Fry
Tightest	Myers	Meekest	Reisner
Greatest athlete	Roth	Biggest smoker	Lenhart
Thinks he is	Fry	Most pious	Steward
Biggest fussier	Fenton	Biggest bluffer	Fegley
		Greatest bore	Tie—Undecided

THE CHRONIC KNOCKER

THE CHRONIC KNOCKER.

Established 1906.

Editor and Proprietor.....Bill Piff.
Subscription Price$1.25
Telephone....Leidy's New Bell 'Phone.

EDITORIALS.

Flunking is a very common occurrence at college. That is what "Lenny" says anyhow. It might not be so very pleasant to get an E, for that means excellent, and since I have so many of them in my book, says he, people will think I am a brilliant chap. Mandy prefers the gentleman's mark, C. But heed the advice of "Rusty" Shunk, "Take your flunk like a man."

Shall or shall not Stamy go with a girl when he is a Junior? Let the girls answer.

The earthquake in San Francisco is due to the upheaval in Philadelphia.

Don't judge a man by his voice. He may belong to the Glee Club.

If you can't knock, don't boost.

The Athletics won the pennant last year! No! Judas Priest!

A HERO.

A Brave and Heroic Act Performed by a Well-known Student of Ursinus.

Showed Rare Presence of Mind.

Deserves a Medal.

Ursinus College, Jan. 7, 1906.—During the cold portion of the last winter, the furnace at Ole... Hall was out of commission. One of the young ladies was in imminent danger of being frozen to death. Realizing that much depended on prompt action. David Reiner Farnger, a frequent visitor at the Hall, at the risk of his own life, transported a stove from his home to the Hall, rescued the young lady from her dangerous position, and is now ready to occupy a niche in the Hall of Fame. Truly, greater love hath no man than this; that he will risk his life for a girl.

POEM.

Rhea had a little man,
Whose name, she said, was Marcus,
And when that man the question "popped,"
She said, "I'm just like Barkis."

The Weather.
Hot, making some people sore.
Astonishment!
"Rube" Fry is here to stay.
Jams & Slaps,
Raps & Slaps.
Advertising Free.
Want a job?
All here in black and white.
Don't get sore.
Buy a Ruby.

ALL-URSINUS TEAM.

Walter Camp has selected the following All-Ursinus Football Team:

Left end	Hoover
Left tackle	Lenhart
Left guard	Koons
Centre	Becks
Right guard	Moore
Right tackle	Landis
Right end	Cope
Quarter-back	Smith
Right Half-back	Wolff
Left Half-back	Peters
Full-back	Stamy
Ex-Captain	Leroy Bollman
Coach	Frank S. Fry

THE CHRONIC KNOCKER

THE DUCKS VS. THE GEESE.

An Interesting Game of Football on Ursinus Field.

Twenty-five Thousand Spectators Present.

Collegeville, Pa., Nov. 27.—Did you ever know that Ducks and Geese can play football? Well, last Wednesday there was a game played by these wonderful fowl on the Ursinus Athletic Pond. The Ducks were raised in Norristown, and were sent up by trolley to the Ursinus duck pond. The Geese were from Ursinus. Mr. E. I. Cook was the biggest goose, but there were others, too. One of the most interested spectators was Mrs. Hannah Wiggs O'Brien, who came out to see Edward wade through those Ducks. She was very much excited when Edward slipped in the mud puddle, and she ran out on the field to wipe off Edward's handsome face with her calico apron. It was with difficulty that she was restrained from delaying the game. It certainly was fun for the "wider," and Edward never played better.

The Ducks kicked off to the Geese. Quack! quack! quack! quack! went the signal, and soon the Geese were running with their webbed feet through the Ducks. One Duck got drowned and refused to play any more, but another who was not drowned took his place. Soon one of the Geese was a goose enough to make a touchdown, and then the "wider" yelled. Later when Edward gained thirty yards, the "wider" yelled so loud that it began to rain harder, and she dislocated her upper jaw bone. She was with difficulty brought back to life. Cook was almost distracted, and tried to commit suicide by sticking his head in a mud puddle, but the mud puddle was not big enough for Edward's head.

In the second half of the game Harman got his curly locks damp and refused to play until he could go home and get his curl papers. Steward made his first swim, and did very well for such a small Goose, but no one could play like Edward. But, then, everyone can't have an Irish "wider" to cheer you on. Well, the Ursinus Geese beat the Norristown Ducks, 17-0. The greatest calamity happened to Mrs. Hannah Wiggs O'Brien. She ordinarily weighs about three hundred pounds, but the poor, dear old, Irish soul got water soaked, and she had to be hauled back to College in a dray. It was a great game anyway, and the Scrubs won. Here's to the Scrubs and to Edward and the Irish "wider."

RECEPTION.

Ursinus Students Delightfully Entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Smith.

Collegeville, Jan. 4, 1906.—Dr. and Mrs. Smith delightfully entertained the students of the College, when they began housekeeping. A "quiet" time was spent in congratulations and in congenial conversation. Soon all adjourned to the dining room, where a sumptuous feast was prepared. This was followed by cigars for the gentlemen and chewing gum for the girls. All reported a very delightful time, and we join in wishing that there may be many more similar events.

Later: When the Juniors congratulated Dr. Smith on his marriage, the Doctor said he was glad there were so many who were so far advanced to take the same steps. He did, really. Miss Neff blushed.

KOONS IN HISTORY.

Reveals an Historical Fact Never Before Known.

Koons, being asked why the Boston Port Bill was passed replied "Because the people gave a tea party, and as the King wasn't invited he got sore."

SMART BOYS.

Three Fellows Honored in English. Messrs. Fenton, Fry and Mabry took a front seat in English at the kind request of Dr. Smith. They undoubtedly deserved the promotion.

THE CHRONIC KNOCKER

IN MEMORIAM.

Special to the Knocker.

The 3d of November will go down in the history of Ursinus College as a memorable date, because it marked the appearance of Martin Leroy Smith Bollman, the scholar, gentleman, and athlete. Having played football on the Dickinson Varsity, he came here and made it real warm for Jimmy Ellis and "Cocoa" Keasey. However, Martin Leroy was not here very long until he took sick. At first it was thought his case was only a mild one, but in course of time the patient's disease became serious, even fatal, so that it was necessary for Doctors O'Toole, Foltz, Mabry and Ellis to perform an operation. The operation was partly successful, but the patient did not recover, and soon left the institution. Gloomy clouds overshadowed the college at the departure of this noble man. Especially was the loss felt by M. W. S. Let us not be gloomy and sad. Great men leave us, but their work remains. May we cherish the ideals of this noble man and endeavor to follow in his footsteps.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT.

Big Scandal.

The information has leaked out that the peaceful slumber of Collegeville will soon be broken by a scandal of the most harrowing nature, the kind that will freeze the blood in your veins and cause your hair to turn gray with the thought of it. Miss Evelyn A. Neff intends to sue Mr. Harold D. Steward for $50,000 as balm for her wounded pride. It seems that the defendant had asked the plaintiff to be allowed to escort her to Literary Society on Friday night. Then the defendant lost his nerve and did not make his appearance on the aforesaid evening. The plaintiff, after heaving mountains of sighs and weeping oceans of tears, made the journey alone. Since this is the first time that she was ever turned down, the plaintiff has decided to take legal action. Full particulars in a later edition of the "Chronic Knocker."

CONCERT.

College, Dec. 8, 1905.—Koons, Abel and Long gave a concert to-day at 3 A. M. It was so much appreciated that Abel and Long had to go to bed, while Koons, fearing a shower, climbed out of the window, ready to jump on the roof. He hung out of the window for over two hours, until Steward was in bed again.

WERE THE SOPHS FOOLED?

Well, I guess they were.
Was there a Freshman banquet?
No; but the Sophs, thought so.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES.

W. B. FENTON,
Dealer in Glee Clubs, Orchestras,
Rubies.

Terms cash. Prices reasonable.

MONEY TO LOAN.

Liberal advances on jewelry, clothing, books and especially watches.

PROF. F. E. HELLER,
Licensed Pawnbroker.

STEWARD'S SCHOOL OF PROFANITY.

Plain or Ornamental "Cussing,"
By Note or Ear, in Seven Languages.

Samples Free on Application.
For further information apply to
H. D. STEWARD, P. P. F.,
54 Dog House.

MATRIMONIAL AGENCY.

Ursinus College has been very successful in aiding many young people to discover their affinities.

Reference:

CHARLES S. DOTTEREI

THE CHRONIC KNOCKER

SENIOR SHINE.

Special to the Knocker.

October 2.

Martin Leroy Bollman Smith opened his heart for the first time and gave his class a shine. It was a "swell" affair, especially for Smith and Keasey, who swelled themselves by eating.

BOOK OF ESTHER.

Chapter: Robinson's History.

Prof. Aimes—"Miss Jackson, what is chivalry?"

Miss Jackson—"It is something which teaches a man how to use his arms."

WHO BELIEVES THIS?

Dr. Smith says that tons of mosquitoes weigh only a pound. Something wrong in the balance.

STEWARD IN TROUBLE.

Makes a "Miss" in French.

Frenchtown.—Harold Dean Steward had loads of trouble while trying to preach a sermon in French class. He was interrupted by Prof. Petersen. Steward, thinking he could get the better of the "Prof," fell asleep, only to be called upon to read. The "old boy" made a stab at it and succeeded in catching a D.

A CRAZY STUNT.

"Windy" Harman chased "Rube" Fry out of bed at 1 A. M. to borrow a match. Did you ever see Harman that he wasn't doing something crazy?

URSINUS, 0; LAFAYETTE, 12.

Oct. 7, 1905.—Jimmy Ellis does not play the game, but pulls ears with Doud.

TOADY AND FRY MOVING.

Special to the Knocker.

Toady Moore has changed his quarters to the biological laboratory, and while he was in the process of moving under the direction of Fry, Fry himself was moved to the tennis court, where he slept all night.

A TIMELY ACT.

The committee on the third floor, east wing, took out papers to inquire into the lunacy of Harman.

DOTTERER'S GAME OF TENNIS.

When Charley came to Ursinus he began the game with the score of "love all." He gradually reduced the number until the game stood love-fifteen. Now he is loving only one. The game is very interesting, and Dotterer makes some spectacular plays.

FOR SALE.

A good curling iron, which has been used only a few times. It is well educated and knows Latin very well. It is intimately acquainted with Cicero.

(?)

A well-broken livery horse, sired by Hinds and Noble.

BECK, '09.

A few well-composed prayers, especially adapted to Christian Endeavor.

KOONS, '09.

Several first-class jokes which have been used for five years, but are as good as new. Especially suited for funerals.

CRUNKLETON, '07.

Book, "How to Play First Base." Cheap terms.

FENTON, '07.

Book, "How to Fall in Love."

COPE, '09.

October 28, 1905.
Jefferson Medical, 0.
Ursinus, 17.

THE CHRONIC KNOCKER

CAMPUS NOTES.

Lenhart, '07, shipped his trunk to Pottstown.

Toole, '07, pays a visit to Public Speaking.

"Rube" Fry, '07, spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday in Perkiomenville.

Miss Behney, '06, introduces a new style of wearing the hair.

Ziegler, A., shot a dead rabbit.

Lau, '09, is getting the better of Godschall, A.

Koons, '09, is sick. No noise.

Charley Dotterer, '06, fell asleep in church.

Spons, '07, climbs up the apple tree for cherries.

Keasey's '06 girl in Allentown elopes and gets married.

Leidy, '08, preached a sermon in the hollow.

Toady, '07, advocates gallantry and practices it.

Brown, A, got 50 cents to drink a glass of vinegar.

Dr. Grimm congratulated Brown, '07, on the fact that he is still living.

Thomason, A, moved his bed to the Y. M. C. A. game room.

Koons, '09, jumped from the roof. He attracts much attention with his game leg.

Peters, '09, smiled once since he is here.

Hughes, '08, is learning the bakery business.

Smith, '06, accepted the position of "Chief Gazabo" of the American Genteel Society.

Mabry, '06, says, "These five and one-half years that I am here I left the girls making a fool of myself."

Ziegler, A., gets into a mix-up at the Windsor, and puts sugar in his consommé. He thought it was tea.

DISGRACEFUL SCENE IN COLLEGE DINING HALL.

Keasey and Stamy the Principals.

Special to the Chronic Kicker.

Ursinus College, Jan. 12, 1906.

D. L. Stamy and A. M. Keasey, two Ursinus students well known for their mathematical ability, got into a mix-up in the dining room. According to the accounts of eye witnesses Keasey was the instigator, having provoked Stamy by telling him that he ate too much. Of course Stamy did not like the charge, and showed his resentment by throwing a cup of cocoa on Keasey's shirt bosom. A serious row was prevented by the coolness of those who sat at the same table. Several of the ladies fainted and had to be carried from the room.

NOTICE!

Reisner found his lost cause.

ACCEPTS POSITION.

From the Athletic World.

Special to the Knocker.

Athletics have taken a decided change in the history of Ursinus College. Mr. Frank S. Fry was offered the position as coach of the second football team. He accepted without delay. Coach Fry is well known in the world of athletics, having been a star tackle and sub-guard on the Ursinus College second eleven. His brilliant work on offense and defense gave him the position. Many a time he succeeded to advance the ball for thirty yards at a clip—toward his own goal.

WHO WAS SCARED?

Stamy.

What did he do?

Fed the Freshmen on tomatoes.

THE TROUBLE IS OVER.

A Schedule Arranged with Much Difficulty.

Sept. 16, 1905.—Professor Chandler's office was the scene of a general hub-bub. The trouble was to get Garcia's schedule arranged. He is such a hard student, and carries such a heavy schedule, that only through the efficiency of Professor Chandler was his schedule arranged in such a manner that it did not cause a conflict in his tennis and football.

THE CHRONIC KNOCKER

COMING EVENTS.

Race between Lau and Godshall in Sponsler's (A)rena.

ELECTION DAY!

Take care, Fegley, or the grafters will get you.

MISS NEFF'S BIRTHDAY, on November 9, 1906.

(Sweet Sixteen.)

POLITICAL CARDS.

Your vote and influence solicited
For Street Sweeper, KEINER.
For Chimney Sweep,
"NIGGER" BROWN.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I resigned from the Christian Endeavor Quartette and have accepted a position to sing in the Salvation Army.
BECK, '09.

I can be found at my home in Trappe every night after 6 o'clock.

TOOLE, '07.

LESSONS IN LOAFING.

I teach by example and not by precept.

FOGLEMAN, A.

FUNNY, ISN'T IT?

Fegley can pull the "prof's" leg for an A, but "Lenny" says he can't pull a calf's leg without being kicked on the lip.

Wanner, the "prep," took some physical exercise with Professor Petersen, in the German class. The exercise was just a little too violent for him.

HORSE SALE.

The undersigned, intending to go out of business, will sell at public auction, on June 6, 1906, at 78 East Wing, the following:

1. One valuable horse, Virgil, 4 years old, registered, sired by Hinds and Noble, d—d by Professor Kline. Record, B plus.
 2. One bay mare, Horace, 3 years old, work single or double, perfectly safe. Record, A minus.
 3. One roan gelding, Plautus, 2 years old, broke to harness and saddle. Will make B minus.
 4. Black horse, Lucretius, 7 years old, had him only one year, fearless of "Prof's." Third in the Ursinus Handicap.
- Terms to be had on the day of sale from

MILES A. KEASEY,
W. A. KLINE, Auctioneer.

HO! LOGICIANS!

What is? This is It.

All mathematicians are good logicians. Fegley is not a good mathematician. Therefore Fegley is not a good logician.

—Fenton.

A SAD CASE.

"Crunk" didn't get up in time for Logic.

YE PEOPLE TAKE NOTICE!

I, Toady Moore, desire to make it known that in my researches I have found a new bug. It is called the "hum-bug."

Harmon returns without a hat. What did he do with it? He threw it into the Niagara River to win a 10-cent bet.

I wish to announce that I am prepared to give lessons on etiquette (?), both ancient and modern.

MISS MARTIN SMITH.

Vocal lessons given every Sunday evening free of charge.
BECK, '09.

THE CHRONIC KNOCKER

NOTICE!

Sherman is welcomed into the "Long" list of "regulars."

A first-class man to sing first-class "base" in the Christian Endeavor Quartette. Salary good. A "Horse laugh." Maeder resigned.

Apply to
W. B. CARVER.

Information as to who tied Misses Fryling and Swartz in Abel's room.

An English Bible.
TOOLE, '07.

Somebody to laugh at my jokes.
CRUNKLETON, '07.

Something that will cause sleep.
HELLER, '07, and MABRY, '06.

Brains.
CLASS OF 1906.

A heart balm.
REISNER, '07.

A full description of the forty "subs" that ran upon the field.
ELLIS, '07.

A hat.
HARMAN, '06.

A pass to Perkiomenville.
FRY, '07.

A new way to "bluff" history.
HELLER, '07.

A special car to Pottstown.
LENHART, '07.

A short route to Trappe.
TOOLE, '07.

Someone to buy a good silver watch.
THE PAWNBROKER, '07.

A watchman to keep Dotterer awake in church.

A hair-cut.
HARMAN, '06.

A HOT TIME.

Terry in Ashland.

A STINGING HOT TIME.

Kerschner and the Hornets.

WANTED.

Information of what a minister wants for a wedding fee.

MISS NEFF, '07.

Egg bread.
SPONSLER, '07.

"Mursh."
STAMY, '08.

Information as to who doctored the chapel bell.

JIMMY ELLIS, '07.

WANTED. HEY! A GOOD JOB!
I want 50 good runners, with experience, to catch the "nigger."

Apply to MABRY, '06.

Some one to find Leroy Bollman.
HELLER, '07.

NOTICE!

Fry got a newspaper from Perkiomen. Sure.

DOTTERER'S RIDDLE.

A Pathfinder Cigar to the One Giving a Correct Answer.

An ostrich is a biped with two legs. If he had one more leg would he be called a tripod?

Sensational Headlines

IN FORMER ISSUES

DEAN Squeezes <small>lemon found on</small> Typewriter	TOOLE BUYS A LOT <small>of peanuts</small> IN TRAPPE	MYERS <small>had</small> DRUNK <small>a glass of lemonade</small> In Pottstown	“TOADY” MOORE KILLED <small>a cats in laboratory</small>
“FLUFFY” CALLED <small>on</small> AIMES <small>to borrow</small> A STIFF <small>hat</small>	Miss Duryea Secures a License <small>for her automobile</small>	“Doc” Shaw Lauds <small>Boston Symphony</small> Orchestra	Regulars Ordered Out <small>of O’Leary</small>
<small>a of</small> TOOLE <small>orations</small> MISSING <small>Feb. 1, 1906</small>	FOOTBALL Penn 39 Ursinus 0	Heller’s Orchestra Makes Hit <small>with “Doc” Shaw</small>	“DUTCH” CUT OUT <small>smoking</small>

THE CHRONIC KNOCKER

FRA^NK FRY in BEWILDERMENT.

Jan. 16, 1906.—Fry began his Junior year with much trouble. Desiring to be kind, he bought a box of sardines and some crackers, and invited a few fellows to help to eat them. Butter was wanting, so Rube visited the kitchen for the butter, but when he returned the fellows, crackers and sardines were gone. Poor "Rube!"

THE MODERN RIVALS.

A Strong Melodrama in Four Acts.

Continuous Performance.

Will Re Rendered in Bomberger Hall,
June 8, 1906.

Each Rival Takes Turn, and Then
Waits Until the Play Starts up Again.

CAST OF CHARACTERS.

First Rival....."Winkie" Landis.
Second Rival....."Doc" Krusen.
Third Rival....."Bill" Sturgis.
Fourth Rival....."Brother" Beck.

Chart will be open June 6, 2 P. M.
Admission, Pluck.

HEY, FELLERS!

Did you ever hear Koons give the "story of the narrative?"

FRY GIVES DR. SMITH A POINTER.

He says that the sense of smell tells us absolutely that ether is no material body.

CRUNKLETON HAS A SWELL TIME.

—Kicked—
—on——the——Jaw—

URSINUS COMEDIANS.

In the concert given by the Glee Club and Orchestra the audience was especially pleased by the "comikle" stunts of Fry and Mader. They were "so" funny.

IN THE LIBRARY.

Miss Price—"Mr. Ellis, how would you like to get out of this corner and quit making noise?"
Jimmy—"All right."

Did you ever see Guy Knauer eat oat meal?

A GOOD PAIR.

"Toady" and Harman walked 32 miles to Crystal Cave. It reminds one of the duck and the ostrich who took a walk.

MABRY DISCOVERS A NEW FACT IN ENGLISH.

Mabry is authority for the statement that Saint Patrick was the subject of the earliest English Secular Plays.

A NOBLE SUGGESTION.

By Senator Rhoades.

"Dr. Shaw soaked us with two extra hours in laboratory. We must have an extra electric plant and run it by a treadmill, with 'Toady' Moore and 'Windy' Harman treading it."

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

URSINUS COLLEGE LIVERY.

Main Guy, Ass't Main Guy,
J. A. KOONS. R. COPE.

We desire to state that we are in a position to furnish the best Cicero steeds, time 2.04, at small consideration. Interviews strictly confidential, with the consent of Professor Petersen.

I teach how to wash socks that have been worn three weeks.
MOORE, '07.

ORATORY.

I teach "forensenic" oratory on liberal terms. I give an entertainment every month.

TOOLE, '07.

ROY E. MABRY, '06

Left half-back Scrub Foot-ball Team, 1900-1903 ;
Captain 1902 ; Second Base-ball Team 1900 ; Pitcher
'Varsity 1901-1906 ; Captain 'Varsity Base-ball Team, 1906.

THE TAIL END

THE WINDSOR HOTEL

1217 to 1219 FILBERT STREET

PHILADELPHIA

A Hotel

RUN

by College Men for College Men

SHEIBLEY, Lafayette '98, is the Manager

WALDO BRUBAKER, F. & M., '01, is the Room Clerk

W. M. EWING, Washington and Jefferson, '93, is the Cashier

PORTRAITS

OUR WORK

The Criterion Everywhere

Studios

712 ARCH STREET

BROAD AND COLUMBIA AVENUE

PHILADELPHIA

GUTEKUNST

Pathfinder Cigar

IS

A Lone Man's Companion

A Bachelor's Friend

A Hungry Man's Food

A Sad Man's Cordial

A Wakeful Man's Sleep

A Chilly Man's Fire

Safety in the use of Beer lies in choosing the best

Lotus and Standard are accepted in the best clubs and the most discriminating families. Praise of this beer comes from those who use it; endorsement from physicians. ¶ By no possible means can beer be made better or purer than Lotus or Standard

MADE ONLY BY

The Adam Scheidt Brewing Co.

NORRISTOWN, PA.

The Brewery Bottling Satisfies the Most Exacting Connoisseur

REED'S

of PHILADELPHIA

FOR

SMART STYLES

IN

Spring and Summer Clothing

FURNISHINGS, HATS AND AUTO APPAREL

1424-26 Chestnut St.

Yerkes Flour Mills

FLOUR, FEED GRAIN, COAL

Landis Bros., Yerkes, Pa.

United Phone No. 9

OYSTER SHELL LIME FOR FERTILIZING

GRASS SEEDS

P. G. DAVIS

PHOTOGRAPHER

1022 High Street
Pottstown, Pa.

Portraits and Groups Made for Ursinus

When you want Good,
Pure and Wholesome Candy, use this direction THUS :

Go to FENTON'S and ask for

LILY BRAND CONFECTIONERY

and for fine Chocolates and Package Goods insist upon having Lowney's.

Use this advice and you will never regret it.

A. C. KEELEY

2215 N. Front St.

PHILADELPHIA

Let us

again remind you that we are headquarters for OXFORD TIES. Every dollar spent at this store brings a full equivalent in satisfactory returns. The man who knows will select Gun Metal Calfskin Oxfords for street wear. The prices are $3, $3.50 and $3.75. For his dress shoes, Patent Colt Oxfords are "Just Right," which is the name of men's shoes for which we are the special agent in Norristown. The prices are $3.50, $3.75 and $4. The same prices for high shoes. Our $2.65 and $3 Oxfords are right also.

For young ladies and girls the Oxford Tie will be the shoe for spring and summer. We have beauties in Gun Metal, Patent Coltskin and Vici Kid, at prices that are right, beginning at $1.25, then $1.50, $2.25, $2.50, $3 and $3.50. Come in and see them. Let us fit you.

JOHN E. OVERHOLTZER,

6 W. MAIN STREET

NORRISTOWN, PA.

ATTENTION !

When in Pottstown don't fail to visit

H. M. BOONE

DEALER IN

Old Blue and Historical China

Grand Father's Clocks

Old Prints and Curios and a fine assortment of Antique Furniture

604 HIGH STREET, POTTSTOWN

X-Ray Treatment of Cancer and Skin Diseases
Static Electricity for Rheumatism and Nervous Diseases

E. A. KRUSEN, M. D.

OFFICE HOURS :

Until 9 A. M.
6 to 8 P. M.
Keystone Phone 5
Bell " 30-X

Collegetown,
Pa.

JOSEPH S. KRATZ

ATTORNEY AT LAW

1009 Commonwealth Building

12th and Chestnut Streets

PHILADELPHIA

E. S. POLEY

Builder and Contractor

TRAPPE, PA.

E. F. SLOUGH

Attorney at Law

NORRISTOWN, PA.

URSINUS MEN

CAN SHOP TO BEST ADVANTAGE IN POTTSTOWN

Come in sometime and see what a fine, big, up-to-date store we have. The Schuylkill Valley Electrics pass our doors.

ELLIS MILLS

223, 225, 227 High Street, Pottstown, Pa.

The John T. Dyer Quarry Co.

Norristown, Pa.

SHIPPERS OF

Crushed Building Stone

For Macadam, Concrete, Ballast, Foundations, Etc.

HORACE STORB

Marble and Granite Works

149 High St., Pottstown, Pa.

Designs and Estimates Furnished Free of Charge

IF you are troubled with a bad cough or cold, ask MR. FENTON, of your town, for a 25c bottle of

Goff's Cough Cure

He has sold it for years and can recommend it highly

Reasonable Rates

C. O. KOCHER, Prop.

City Hotel

28-30 N. Seventh St.

JOS. BARTHOLMEW, Clerk

Allentown, Pa.

Bell Phone 753x

Keystone 162

I. B. REINERT

Bottler of Pottsville Porter, Beer
and
Robert Smith's Ale

Norristown, Pa

Manufacturer of all kinds of Soft Drinks and Domestic Wines

HONEST—PAINT—PAYS

1. It Pays Us

Because while our profit per gallon is less than many manufacturers make on inferior paint, still many gallons sold at small profit make a large total.

2. It Pays You

Because it goes 25% farther, covers 50% better and wears 100% longer.

Breinig's Pure Linseed Oil Ready-Mixed Paints are absolutely pure, being made and sold on the qualitative analysis as shown in our circular.

Write us for address of our nearest agency

The Allentown M'fg. Co.
Allentown, Pa.

Jacoby and Willow Streets

556 Chain Street

JOHN H. JARRET

LIVERY AND BOARDING STABLES

NORRISTOWN, P. A.

First-class Teams for all purposes,

Four-in-Hand Break and Large

Coaches for Parties.

KOCH BROTHERS

Allentown's Leading Tailors, Clothiers and Haberdashers ❀ ❀

For Interior Decorations

Nothing superior to the American
Green Marble from Pennsylvania
Quarries and Mill at Easton, Pa.

Produced by

HENRY A. SCHWEYER

King of Prussia Po.

Montgomery Co., Pa.

A. B. CADWALDER

Fine Millinery and Fancy Articles ❀

High and Penn Streets, POTTSTOWN, PA.

College Flags, Cushions, Etc., Made to Order for any School

Commencements Are Over

Gilt Edge and xxxx Family
Flour are beginning to increase their growth in popular favor.

F. G. STRITZINGER & CO.

Millers

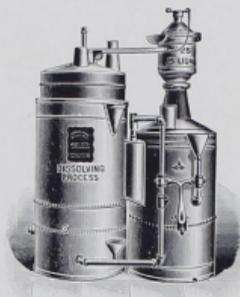

ASK THE GROCER FOR IT

Bussa Studio

317 De Kalb St.

NORRISTOWN, PA.

Acetylene

The Brightest and Best Light in the World

Send for catalogue and information
Plants installed complete for towns or individuals

Storage and Automatic Systems. Plants installed for the town of Rehoboth, Del.; Manchester, Md., and Hill Crest, Del.; also for Cyrus Baker, Collegeville, Pa.; Lamb Hotel, Trappe, Pa.; S. Gross Fry, Dr. Royer, Trappe, Pa., and others in the same locality.

Acetylene Gas and Construction Co.

Contractors and Builders of GAS, WATER AND ELECTRIC PLANTS 503 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia

Ambrosia
Will's Best
Gen. Schuyler
Edison
F. F. V.

CIGARS

GEO. S. MILLER & CO., Pottstown, Pa.

Smoking and Chewing

TOBACCO

Natural Leaf and Edison

SOMETHING TO CROW ABOUT NOTHING BUT THE BEST
COAL LUMBER and FEED

W. H. Gristocks Sons
Collegeville, Pa.

ACETYLENE

FOR

Lighting, Heating and Cooking

GEO. T. CLAMER
COLLEGEVILLE, PA.

A few plants installed near by:

Joseph Frailinge., Schwenksville, Pa., Residence

F. W. Beltz, Schwenksville, Pa., Residence

F. J. Clamer, Collegeville, Pa., Residence

J. C. Landis, Collegeville, Pa., Residence

Geo. F. Clamer, Collegeville, Pa., Residence

Wm. Keher, Collegeville, Pa., Residence

Collegeville Gas Co., Town Plant

Bell Phone

Collegeville Marble

AND

Granite Works

HORACE L. SAYLOR, Proprietor

Special Designs and Estimates Furnished

We make a speciality of the Finer Work

No Contract too Large; None too Small

Our warerooms are kept well stocked

Call and examine the work we execute

THE URSINUS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

3260-62 CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA

Conducted under the authority of the General Synod of the Reformed Church. Thorough preparation for the ministry. Specially successful in training men for the pastorate. Three years' course, with graduate courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. Advantage of large city. Access to library and lecture courses of University of Pennsylvania. Opportunities for self-help. Expenses $125 per year. For catalogue and information address

EDWARD S. BROMER, Secretary, 3262 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

URSINUS COLLEGE

COLLEGEVILLE, PA.

Twenty-four miles from Philadelphia. Modern Ideals, High Standards, University-trained Faculty, Laboratory Equipment, Group System of Courses. Expenses Moderate. Women Admitted as well as men. Exceptional advantages for students expecting to enter the teaching profession, law, medicine or ministry. Catalogue and detailed information furnished on application

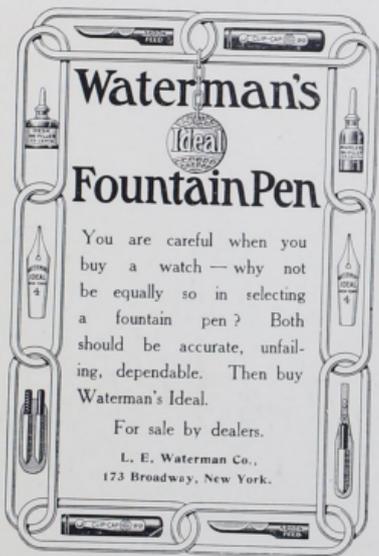

Address GEO. LESLIE OMWAKE, Dean

THE URSINUS ACADEMY

COLLEGEVILLE, PA.

Established 1869, continuing Freeland Seminary. Beautiful surroundings, rich educational environment, refining influences, democratic spirit. Completely furnished dormitories, library, laboratories and gymnasiums. Modern methods, small classes, experienced teachers. Prepares for college, technical schools and for business. Successful in discipline. Tables supplied from school's own garden and dairy. No sickness. Easy of access, but free from distractions and beyond the range of city prices. Visitors welcome. Catalogue and information on application.

WILLIAM W. CHANDLER, Principal

The recollection of quality remains long after the price is forgotten

C. S. Haskell

— Pipe Organs —

Philadelphia

Trinity Reformed Church, Collegedale
 Holy Trinity P. E. Church, Philadelphia
 First Baptist Church, Philadelphia

Chambers-Wylie Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia
 First M. E. Church, Germantown
 First Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia

WALTER M. ENGLE

— Manufacturing Jeweler

REPAIRING. Quick. Low Price. Satisfactory.

4223 Lancaster Avenue,

Philadelphia

JOHN M. MILLER & SON

Manufacturing and Jobbing Confectioners

335 NORTH THIRD STREET, PHILADELPHIA

Hamilton Apartment House

NORRISTOWN, PA.

One of the best arranged Apartment houses in the State.

Everything new, attractive and stylish. Accommodations for summer guests. Valley Forge and Audubon at short distances.

Write for Booklet

FRED. J. GIESELER, Manager

CRANE'S ICE CREAM

Cakes and Candies absolutely pure. All Cream used is Pasteurized

WRITE FOR PRICE LIST

STORE AND TEA ROOM

MAIN OFFICE

1331 Chestnut St. 23d and Locust Sts.

Established 1865

LEINBACH & BRO.

Clothiers and

Merchant Tailors

Cor Penn and Eighth Streets

READING, PA.

Shepard's Hotel

Formerly the

COLLEGEVILLE HOTEL

Just Refurnished. On Trolley Line. Popular among the Travelling Public.

COLLEGEVILLE, PA.

Both Phones

Weaver Pianos

WEAVER ORGANS

Made for discriminating buyers. Musically and mechanically correct. If you want an instrument as fine as can be made, look up the merits of the Weaver Organ and Weaver Pianos. If you want the best instrument that can be bought at a little price, ask about the Pianos and Organs we take in exchange and repair thoroughly at our factory and then sell at a bargain.

WEAVER ORGAN & PIANO CO.,
Manufacturers YORK, PA,

High Grade College Supplies

Drawing and Engineering,
Physical, Electrical and Chemical Apparatus.

QUEEN & CO., Inc.

N. W. Cor. Eighth and Arch Streets,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

This hair was waved in 10 minutes without heat, by the Magic Curler.

HAVE BEAUTIFUL HAIR

The Magic Curler

Waves and Curls the Hair in 10 to 15 Minutes without Heat, while you are dressing or travelling

Magic Curler Company

11 North Thirteenth Street, Philadelphia

M. N. BARNDT,

For Sale :
Brick and Stone Masonry,
Manufacturer of Hollow
Cement Building Blocks.

Contractor for :
Wyoming Bluestone
Flagging, Concrete
Flagging, Cement,
Brick, Lime, Stone, and Tombstones.

KEYSTONE, No. 2

COLLEGEVILLE, PENNA.

THE MAJORITY of the College Men in this part of the State buy their clothes at

MILLER'S

POTTSTOWN'S FAMOUS STORE

Good Fishing

Fine Boating

Perkiomen Bridge Hotel

- WM. F. A. TITUS, Proprietor

Excellent Accommodations

Rates Reasonable

COLLEGEVILLE,
MONTGOMERY COUNTY, PA.

Wick's Adjustable Fancy Hat Bands

(The Band with Hook)

All Rights Reserved

Will Fit Any Style Hat

Made in 700 fancy color combinations.

SCHOOLS, COLLEGES, UNIVERSITIES, CLUBS

They are adjustable and will fit any hat. You don't have to buy the hat you don't want to get the band you do want, because THEY'RE SOLD SEPARATE FROM THE HAT and can be worn over the regular hat band if desired.

WICK NARROW FABRIC CO.. 708 Market St., Philada.

CEMETERY WORK GRANITE and MARBLE

People who want the BEST buy from

W. M. SULLIVAN

RELIABLE WORK

Main Street, opposite Montgomery Bank
NORRISTOWN, PA.

HORACE B. KRATZ

MANUFACTURER OF

Roller Wheat and Rye Flour

AND DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF GRAIN FEED, SEED, ETC.

ALSO BALER OF HAY

SCHWENKSVILLE, PA.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION

FRED. PAUL

823-25 North Eleventh Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Flags

PENNANTS, PILLOW TOPS, FULL CUSHIONS

Wall Banners, Seal Flags, Seal Cushions
Satin Banners

DAVID RITTENHOUSE

Cigars

Cream of Perfection Pure and Sweet

B. F. Rittenhouse

Manufacturer

NORRISTOWN, PA.

BUSH BROTHERS

BUILDERS' MILL WORK

Doors, Blinds, Sash, Newell Posts, Hand Rails, Turning, Carvings and Cabinet Work,

Hardwood Doors, Mantels, Colonial Columns, Porch Work,
Mouldings, Flooring,

Mill work in all Domestic and Foreign Woods

ROYERSFORD, PA.

A SQUARE DEAL

in selling athletic supplies made of the best material and sold at the lowest price, has been our aim for over

TWENTY TWO YEARS

If you refuse to be buncoed into paying prices for the same quality as ours, or a lower price for inferior goods look to us for satisfaction.

ARTHUR JOHNSON & CO.

Athletic Outfitters

16 East Forty-second Street
NEW YORK

HENRY YOST, JR.

Livery & Exchange Stables

MOVING AND HAULING
LIGHT RIGS A SPECIALTY

Both Phones

Automobile Meets All Trains

Collegetown, Pa.

COTRELL & LEONARD

ALBANY, N. Y.

MAKERS OF

Caps, Gowns & Hoods

to the University of Pennsylvania, State College
Lehigh, Lafayette, Dickinson, Bucknell, Bryn Mawr
Harvard, Yale, Princeton and the others.

Class Contracts a Specialty

Rich Gowns for Pulpit and Bench

Gehret Bros., Manufacturers of IRON and WIRE, FENCING and WIRE WORK of every description.

Fire Escapes and Light Structural Work
A Specialty

10 to 24 E. Fourth Street, Bridgeport, Montgomery Co., Pa.

W. P. FENTON

DEALER IN

Dry Goods, Choice Groceries
Shoes, Hardware, Drugs, Paints, Oils, &c.

COLLEGEVILLE, PA.

LORENZO HINES

 First-Class Livery

Perkiomen Bridge Hotel

Terms Reasonable

COLLEGEVILLE, PA.

J. R. CHRISTMAN

BUTCHER

DEALER IN

Fresh and Smoked Meats
Sausage and Ham

GRATERSFORD, PA.

TERMS CASH

Dr. S. D. CORNISH

DENTIST

COLLEGEVILLE, PA.

Keystone Phone 31.

JOSEPH H. SHULER

JEWELER

168 West Main Street

NORRISTOWN, PA.

College patronage is solicited. Class pins and emblems a specialty

JOSEPH W. CUTHBERT

DRUGGIST

COLLEGEVILLE, PENNA.

SURE CORN CURE A SPECIALTY

F. W. Scheuren's
SHAVING PARLOR

Best place in town

COLLEGEVILLE, PA.

VACANT

A PORTION OF OUR FACTORY

ARTISTIC PRINTING and ENGRAVING

Class Annuals, Class Day Programs, Commencement Invitations, Class and Fraternity Stationary, Fraternity Cards and Visiting Cards, Menus and Dance Programs.

Halftones and Line Cuts a Specialty

Special Designing College Catalogs

This book is one of our productions, including the making of all cuts, printing and binding

WM. H. HOSKINS CO.

904-906 CHESTNUT STREET

- - -

PHILADELPHIA

