Dear Miss Snull,

It is with a great deal of gratitude that I write this letter. I am so appreciative of you and Ursinus, and I realize that I can not possibly thank you enough.

Certainly a letter can not say it all.

It is hard to think of Ursinus and not think of you doing the instructing and coaching. It will certainly be a difficult task for anyone to attempt to fill your shoes.

Some of my fondest memories are those days that I spent on the playing fields of "U. C." receiving, I feel, the best instruction available.

I hope that this does not appear overly sentimental but these are my most sincere feelings. I am just sorry that I am unable to take part in paying tribute to you at your dinner.

I wish you the very best, and hope that you continue to stay involved with Ursinus, because it wouldn't be the same without you.

Most Sincerely,
Carl Bentley Rafter
