Dean Of Men's Office Ransacked, Washing Machines Destroyed As Vandalism Continues

U. S. G. A. Proposes Community Action To Eliminate Problem

By GEORGE GEIST

During the beginning of the second semester, including the past week, an increasing amount of senseless vandalism has occurred at Ursinus College. As a result, a great deal of concern has been displayed by the students, faculty, and administration as to the facts, consequences and resulting actions pertaining to these events. The USGA, with its meeting of the past week and a special meeting on Sunday to consider action, has adapted a policy which, if carried through with the cooperation of the student community, would provide a strong preventative in the future.

On February 17, three washers, located in the basement of the New Men's Dorms, were totally destroyed, and the contents of the coin boxes was also taken. The total loss in coins equalled $150.00. The estimated replacement of the three washing machines equals approximately $750.00. The male students of Ursinus are financially responsible for these damages.

On February 19, the outer door of Dean Whatley's office was kicked in and destroyed. The damages totaled an estimated $40.00. Nothing happened last Wednesday or Thursday.

On Friday, February 22, the vandalism continued. Three window panes in the Student Union were kicked in. Two windows, frames inclusive, facing the balcony, in Suite 203, New Men's Dorms, were totally destroyed. Also, the outer and inner doors of Dean Whatley's office were kicked in; all the exterior windows of Dean Whatley's personal office were broken out, and numerous papers and documents were scattered.

These acts of vandalism are a continuation in the increasing development of the problem. The entire student body, through their breakage fee, will be billed for: Six missing mushrooms from the Student Union, the damage to a hydraulic mechanism on a Bomberger door, the theft of a table lamp, the impairment of a security cart and theft of three needle cartridges from the Union. Another consequence of the vandalism might be the possible closure of Helfferich Hall on Sundays if this damaging of property continues.

It seems that there is no justifiable purpose for the presence of deliberate, mischievous and malicious destruction of property here at Ursinus College. Many innocent students, a great majority, are paying for the consequences of these deliberate acts. The USGA policy involves an end to this increasing amount of vandalism, the penalties which the innocent must suffer and the possible seizure of the guilty.

This policy involves the belief that it is a "community duty" to bring an end to this problem. This includes a changing of general attitudes of the student body in reference to the revealing of information pertaining to acts of vandalism at Ursinus College. Therefore, it is asked that anyone with pertinent information should contact President Geoff Higgins, Cindy Martin, Rich Faire or any other council representative to the USGA. Through "Ursinus community action," this problem will be eliminated.

In other USGA action, an election for junior class representative was held last Thursday. Tricia Kellett will now represent the Class of '75 at all USGA meetings.

The minutes of all future USGA meetings will be circulated to all department heads and members of the administration in another effort to extend and exercise all possible means of communication.

Two proposals and actions were made in reference to the ending of vacation break on April 1. It was proposed that students return on Sunday, March 31, with dorms open to all students at 3:00 p.m. Classes would start on Monday morning, thus eliminating the necessity of Saturday classes. This was considered since one would have to drive long distances Sunday to arrive by noon on Monday. Even with the energy crisis, most students, the USGA believes, will have the gas and the transportation to return by Sunday. The other proposal dealt with the possible elimination of freshmen cuts on April 1 until 12:00 noon. These proposals will be discussed with the administration and brought up at a future meeting.

The language requirements for graduation, as stated in the catalogue, have not been changed. They will continue as presently stated.

The Women's Campus Council has been thoroughly investigating the card system for the elimination of women's hours. Twenty colleges similar to Ursinus have been investigated as to their present system. A new lock will cost approximately $200.00 with $1.00 for each card. With this system, signing in and out will be modified. A letter of support by the USGA for the Women's Campus Council proposal will be sent to the administration.

An allocation of $75.50 in the form of direct financial support was made by the USGA. This allocation will assist in sponsoring the Pottstown Dance Recital on Sunday, March 3, at Helfferich Hall.

A group of concerned students brought before the council the problem of discrimination against women students as far as hours are concerned. They have indicated that several outside parties are supporting their action. They asked for the support of the USGA in their attempt to abolish women's hours. The Council brought to their attention that it had recently supported the Women's Campus Council proposal of a card-lock system. Discussion of this issue will continue at future USGA meetings. The next meeting will be on March 5, 6:30 in the conference room of the College Union. All interested students are invited to attend.

Commentary

Vandalism, what is it good for? Absolutely nothing! Is there any purpose in its continuing presence and its consequential detriments to the entire collegiate community here at Ursinus? The answer, of course, is no.

Sorority Bids Signed; Sophomore Girls Join Three Campus Groups

By KITT TURNER

Last Friday nine girls signed bids to join the sisterhood of sororities, Omega Chi, Kappa Delta Kappa and Alpha Sigma Nu all rushed various members of the sophomore class.

Bids were given out at 4:30 followed by singing by the sororities in part of the Union. New pledges were saluted and all the sororities joined in song including Phi Alpha Psi and Tau Sigma Gamma who didn't rush this semester. After singing in the friendship circle, the various sororities had parties to welcome the new members.

New this semester are Gay McDonald and Hildred Drumm, Omega Chi; Carol Abbot, Kappa Delta Kappa; and Cindy Drake, Gayle Kingsbury, Tina Lopez, Kathy Morris, Joan Ottaviano and Roberta Smith, Alpha Sigma Nu. Cindy

Kramer and Kate Swanson joined Kappa Delta Kappa as new honoraries.

All sorority sisters extend a warm and sincere welcome to the new sisters and hope they find true sisterhood.

CORRECTION

This is the official statement from the Dean's Office concerning Spring Recess.

Spring Recess will be extended by a half day because of the fuel crisis. Classes will begin on Monday, April 1st at noon instead of at 8 a.m. Classes scheduled for that Monday morning will be held instead on Saturday, April 6th at their regular hours. It was incorrectly stated in the Weekly of February 14 that the recess would be extended to Tuesday at 8 a.m.

Christian Fellowship Will Present Musical Program

By JUDIE JAMES

Among the Greek letter societies, athletic teams and various activity clubs there exists on the Ursinus campus a rather unique organization—Christian Fellowship. The group is dedicated to the work of proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ by word and action.

The Fellowship, consisting of between forty and sixty persons, meets faithfully every Wednesday at 7 o'clock in Bomberger 120 for singing and to explore God's plan for mankind as recorded in the Bible. The meetings are informal and the singing is exuberant, but the purpose behind all of this is a serious one. The Fellowship is made up of people who have come into a personal relationship with Jesus, not an abstract belief in something far off in the future. Rather it is a here and now faith in a God who cares about every aspect of our lives as they are today; a faith to be shared in love with the world.

This faith is expressed by the Fellowship through music and in the various programs presented by students and by guest speakers. In order to grow in understanding of the Bible, the Fellowship has organized small informal Bible studies consisting of four or five members and a student leader. There are approximately six such groups now meeting on campus and they are open to anyone who expresses a desire to participate.

A number of interesting programs have already been hosted by the Fellowship this semester including a talk and slide presentation by Dr. David Christianson, a medical missionary in Africa. This past week Mark Fieger brought to the Fellowship the music of the Moody Blues and discussed their philosophy as it relates to Jesus' words in Scripture. For next Wednesday, February 27, Henry Johnson, a sophomore economics major, has prepared a talk about the meaning of the Gospel for us today.

On Wednesday, March 13, Phil and Lynn Brower of Brookdale, N. J. will be guests of the Fellowship. Their presentation, "Theoirnagolizo," is a program of exciting contemporary sacred music. This talented couple is well known in the northern New Jersey area. Phil Brower is the director of a youth group where "the exception is the rule."

The March 20th meeting will be a film, "Like a Thief in the Night," which deals with what the Bible has to say about the end of our world as we know it. The entire college community is always welcome at these and other events which the Fellowship plans.

First Concert Scheduled For Helfferich Hall

By WENDY BARNES

This Saturday, March 2nd, at 8:00, Ursinus College will be finally achieving a long-awaited goal—a concert in Helfferich Hall. Ralph, a ten-piece band, will be the main performers of the evening. Playing before them, Lewis London, a folk singer who for the past five years has been performing at colleges and coffee houses throughout the east coast. He has played with Dave Bromberg and others. He also performed at the Philadelphia Folk Festival.

The concert committee has been working quite a while to make arrangements for this concert. The evening should turn out to be one of the best you've had on Ursinus campus for a long time. Admission is free, with your Student ID. Plan to spend this Saturday night in Helfferich Hall, listening to some good music.

The concert committee, headed by Steve Prociw, has also been working on another concert to be held on April 20th. At this time we will hopefully have Bruce Springsteen here.

Many years ago the St. Andrew's Society of Philadelphia established a scholarship fund to send students to the universities of St. Andrew, Edinburgh, and Aberdeen in Scotland in order to spend the junior year. These scholarships have been named the Andrew Mutch Scholarships in honor of the late chaplain of the society. By invitation, each of the following colleges and universities nominates one candidate for a scholarship: Ursinus College, Pennsylvania State University, Franklin and Marshall College, Swarthmore College, University of Pennsylvania, Temple University and Bucknell. In the past fifteen years, Ursinus College has had nine winners, more than any other college or university.

The most recent winners from Ursinus College are Randall Cole, now in residence at St. Andrew's; Warren Robinson, a current Senior at Ursinus; Charles Chambers, who was graduated last year, and Bill Eubanks, who was graduated the year before.

The scholarships carry sufficient stipend to cover all expenses during the academic year, all academic expense and the greater part of the cost of trans-Atlantic passages. The student will be responsible for his living expenses when the University is not in session.

Mr. H. Lloyd Jones, Jr., Associate Professor of English and Associate Dean of Admissions, will receive applications from Ursinus students and the Scholarship Committee of the Faculty will choose the nominee from the College.

Competition is limited to male members of the sophomore class. They should be American citizens, should rank in the upper quarter of the class, and be active in extra-curricular activities. Preference will be given to those of Scottish descent and to those who come from the Philadelphia area. The candidate must agree to attend the June meeting of the St. Andrew's society of Philadelphia, prior to leaving for Scotland, to report by mail to the Society during his year abroad and to address the Society upon his return. He is expected to do the full work of the classes he attends, including all classroom exercises and terminal examinations. He is also expected to live in one of the College residences during his year abroad.

Candidates for scholarship are urged to see Mr. Jones and to apply before March 1. The College will submit its nomination to the St. Andrew's Society before the end of April and the winner will be announced by May 1.

Festival Of The Arts

Tonight's showing of Ingmar Bergman's stunning film, the Seventh Seal, marks the halfway point of this year's Festival of Arts. And in four years here, I must admit that this is the best one yet. We have already seen ProTheatre's two productions, and Casablanca, the immortal hit from 1943. For music lovers, the I Concertisti and I Madrigalisti have given concerts. Coming up Friday night is the Folk Concert, followed by the Bizarre Bazaar and a dance on Saturday; the festival concludes Sunday with an afternoon concert by the U. C. Chamber Orchestra and an evening organ recital. The theme "something for everyone" has been fully realized this year.

The festival is an honest attempt by a small, interested group on campus to present to the community a sampling of all forms of artistic work. This year's project is headed by Mike Werner and he should be given much praise for the work he has done to make this year's festival a success. As is usually the case with successful ventures, the concentrated work by a diligent minority gets the job done. This is certainly the time to take a few evenings off and watch and listen to some stimulating performances which make up this year's Festival of the Arts.

The Weekly extends its best wishes for success in the remaining days of the festival and its congratulations for the first few programs. We are witnesses to the reality that the arts do exist on campus. Plaudits to Mike Werner and those who participated in this year's festival.

On Vandalism

Some would be quick to claim that the recent wave of vandalism on campus indicates severe discontent on the part of a few students. This type of idle verbiage only results in more hostility and an unnecessary continuation of a poisonous condition. There are other ways to vent frustration and frazzled nerves than to wantonly destroy property others will surely miss in the future.

Violence of this nature was the rule in the sixties and it seemed that we were rid of the senseless violence for-its-own-sake that has invaded Ursinus. We can only hope that those involved will be dealt with properly and that the rest of us can see the stupidity of these actions. One need only look at the important things that go on at a college to see how pointless vandalism takes its toll on those who would have a better environment for others. However unbelievable it might seem that while some of us try to foster the arts or attain academic excellence, others are indiscriminately breaking windows and otherwise playing the role of an eighth-grader, it remains that certain people at Ursinus seem hell-bent on proving a point that cannot be proven.

Undoubtedly there is discontent here at Ursinus. The dormitory situation is a source of that discontent with many of us. But to use as a mirror of the discontent a wanton display of violence is disgraceful and stupid, especially at this stage of the academic game.

Alumni Corner

Leidy Lacks Leisure

By MILTON E. DETTERLINE

One of the purposes of the Alumni Corner series is to salute graduates who have had interesting, purposeful lives. Another is to introduce these people to students who themselves will be launching careers soon as the drydock days are over. In the case of Alexander M. Leidy, '35, our information source provided four pages of fine print on his activities, garnered while visiting the Manheim (Pa.) industrialist who is recovering from a recent heart attack. It occurs that some of us would find our strength failing just to contemplate this man Leidy's record.

Leidy begins by a tribute to the guidance and instruction of the late professor Maurice O. Bone, whose wife, Lucille, has for years held together the work of the Alumni Department as secretary. Dr. Bone's enthusiasm for economics, coupled with Leidy's membership in the Zeta Chi fraternity, were the joy of his campus years.

He joined the Hershey Machine and Foundry Company in Manheim, after graduation, as a member of the Cost Accounting Department. In 1940 he married Elizabeth Greene of a town by the same name in North Carolina; and then came the war years, and Alex joined the Army Corps of Engineers and wound up in the Pacific Theatre. He returned to Hershey after his discharge in 1946 and set to work developing a standard cost system for the 30,000 different parts of the foundry's inventory. By 1960, Leidy had helped organize a merger and became General Manager of the Manheim division of the Fuller Company, a position he held until his retirement in 1972, ten years after introducing computerization to his plant.

The busyness of Leidy's life is reflected in his Board of Director memberships. They include a Building & Loan Association, a National Bank, the Lancaster Area Manufacturers' Association, Lancaster Symphony Orchestra, a community charitable campaign fund, the First Presbyterian Church in Lancaster, and the Junior Achievement Board of Lancaster. In addition he belongs to the Lancaster Country Club and the Hamilton Club, is an active participant in the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite (Masons) of Lancaster and Manheim together with its Shrine organization.

He's ailing right now, but Alex Leidy has plans to get back in motion in the community that's been his whole life.

FORUM REVIEW

Yass Hakoshima

By RICHARD WHALEY

The timeless art of pantomime transcends language and age barriers. In this art our ordinary gestures or mimeries are colorfully polished and condensed. The artist only uses his body in this silent art. All stage objects are imaginary. The artist must be very sensitive to create an image of time and space that the viewer can experience with the artist.

Yass Hakoshima is such an artist as this. He successfully brings one to his invisible world of pantomime. He has performed in Europe and on this continent and is the only Japanese artist performing pantomime in the western world. He blends the western and eastern traditions in pantomime. In his most recent tour, he was sent by the Endowment for the Arts in Washington, D.C. for a two month tour of Alaska as an experimental trip.

Last Monday, on the 15th of February he performed in Wismer Auditorium with his whole family: Ranate Boue, his wife, who has studied modern dance with Martha Graham and Erick Hawkins, and their two children Anja and Maho. He came back to Ursinus by request of the students.

In 1959 he started his mime career as a member of the first Western Pantomime group in Tokyo. He now teaches in New York City at three theater arts schools.

This is Ralph, the band who will be appearing Saturday night in Helfferich Hall. Admission is free.

DRAMA REVIEW

"This Is The Rill Speaking" and "The Interview"

By RUTH VON KUMMER
Two plays were presented by ProTheatre on February 22 and 23 to begin the Festival of Arts activities for the week of February 22 - March 3. One might have remarked that the curtain was a bit late, if not for the fact that there was no curtain. Little scenery was used in either of the one-act productions, which seemed to enhance the abstract mood presented.

The first play "This is the Rill Speaking," written by Lanford Wilson, was a repeat performance. However, perhaps we should remember it as it was. Having seen it both times, I noticed that the lines seemed to come easier to the players last time. Several times in the play, more voice projection would have been desirable. Some of the characters seemed to retain the ease with which they moved from one person to another; then, there were some who needed to delineate more clearly for the audience to have recognized who they were at each point. Despite these shortcomings, those viewing it, especially people who had not seen it before, seemed to enjoy it.

Following a short intermission, we saw "The Interview" from America, Hurrah! written by Jean Claude van Itallie. This play proved to be very well acted and enjoyable throughout its duration. Several unexpected newcomers into the dramatic scene lent a freshness to the group, and the older and more well-known actors and actresses generated much interest from the viewers. The few noticeable flaws were several fleeting breaks in expression on the part of the actors, which hindered their characterization a little, but did not last long enough to be really disturbing. More importantly, some of the lines may not have been given enough of a serious tone, which detracts from the depth of the theme. I feel that if this occurred, it was the fault of both the actors and the viewers who interpreted it. A deep meaning should have been conveyed and it remains up to the individual person, as well as the acting ability of the group, to decide if it was portrayed well from the reaction they experienced.

All in all, any bad points seemed to be outweighed by the good ones. The plays moved quickly, and the intermission was short but sweet. This allowed the audience to be entertained without becoming a bit too restless to try and understand the circular plots and the complex web of people presented. The productions, even though their preparation was brief, provided a fitting tip-off for one of the most cultural times we have at Ursinus.

Bearettes Come Back!

By EVA MORGAN, HELEN LUDWIG, ELAINE SNYDER, and MARILYN HARSCH

The 1974 season has indeed been grueling for the Bearettes but it has proved one thing—if you want it bad enough, you can do it. After falling to Immaculata and the University of Delaware earlier in the week, the Varsity hoopsters came back and put Lock Haven State down 55 to 47.

Immaculata was a tough team for the Bears; indeed Immaculata has been a tough team for everyone for the past two years as demonstrated by their two National Collegiate titles. This year the game was played on the Mac's home court and you've got to see it to believe it—it's kind of hard to beat a team when the sidelines are a blur of habits and white collars, rosaries and crosses. The Macs set the pace of the game, slow and reverent. The few times the Bearettes fast broke they easily out-paced the Macs, unfortunately, they just didn't do it often enough. Don't let anyone tell you Catholic girls play nice, the game was rough and hard. Immaculata bruised the Bears 48-27. Ursinus is the only team this season to hold the Macs to less than 50 points.

February 21st the Bearettes played University of Delaware at home. The Bears were down as much as 18 points in the 3rd quarter but came back with a tremendous defensive effort rallying to a two-point margin at the close of the game. The fourth quarter was marked by UC's close man-to-man defense. Kathy Jameson, the Bears' post, came out of the key and started hitting from the outside. Kathy was high scorer with 15 points. Debbie Ryan scored 12. The final score was 48 to 50.

Saturday, Feb. 23rd, the Bears beat Lock Haven 55 to 47. They kept up the pace of the second half of the Delaware game and put together their finest offensive effort of the season. For the first time of the season the Bearettes could optimize on their defense by their rebounding, both offensively and defensively. Kathy Jameson scored 17 points with Claudia Bloom and Anita Deasey close behind with 12 each. This was the first Varsity win of the season and will hopefully put the Bearettes back on the road to victory.

The Junior Varsity had a successful week beating Immaculata and Lock Haven and losing to the University of Delaware by 2. The Junior Varsity has a long tradition of tromping Immaculata and this year was no different. On the day the Varsity hoopsters fell to the Big Macs, it was extremely rewarding for the Baby Bears to win by 12. Sue Smith, the captain of the JV, scored twelve. Senior Beth Dyer played a good defensive game.

The University of Delaware was a close game for the Baby Bears. The JV matched U. of D. basket for basket during the last quarter but lost on fouls. Melissa Magee, as usual, displayed remarkable hustle and led the team on fast breaks. Melissa and Karen Hansell are the ball handlers for JV.

Saturday the Baby Bears took its third victory of the season beating Lock Haven by 4. The Bears were ahead by as much as 14 points at the half. Marianne Cordera was really hitting from the key. The Baby Bears completely outplayed and outthrust Lock Haven, their season record is now 3-4.

3rd and 4th Teams

The third team record now stands at two wins and two losses. Three games were played last week and the results were a 48-24 win over Drexel and a 42-24 slide over Chestnut Hill. The one loss last week was at Villanova, 49-31. Maybe it was due to something that Wismer put into the training meal before the game. After this loss, third team agreed it was time to stop giving away wins to other schools and start putting their talent together. Both Drexel and Chestnut Hill were the next two victims and were literally blown off the court by the Bearettes on home turf.

Fourth team has an impressive 4-0 record for the season. None of their opponents have even come close to upsetting them. Keep the wins rolling, fourth team!

Boyd's Birdies

Both the Varsity and JV badminton teams enjoyed their most prosperous week to date by upsetting Swarthmore this past Tuesday, then defeating Drexel and Penn on Wednesday and Thursday. Playing against a tough Swarthmore team, the Varsity squad pulled out a 3-2 win. Exceptional performances were turned in by Janet Luce and the doubles team of Linda Greene - Sue Jurgaitis, each winning crucial matches in 3 games. Patti Meade - Kathy Boyer, the No. 1 Varsity doubles team, won handily, contributing the 3rd win. The J.V.-ers completed the day by shutting out Swarthmore's J.V., 5-0. Wednesday, Ursinus' girls met Drexel and remained undefeated by winning both the Varsity and J.V. matches by 5-0 scores. U. of Penn was next on the Varsity schedule and again the team came home with a 5-0 victory. Presently the Birdies' record stands at 6-0 with 4 matches left to play.

On Saturday, Feb. 23, eleven Ursinus girls traveled to West Chester and participated in the Eastern Intercollegiate Badminton championships. Fine performances were turned in by everyone except for Miss Boyd who failed to keep her promise and managed at least one "nasty" comment an hour. Elaine Snyder and Janet Luce advanced to the semi-finals in singles before losing to strong West Chester opponents in 3 games in 2 very tight matches. Missy Herod also advanced to the semi-finals in the consolation tournament before losing in 3 games to an evenly-matched opponent. Ursinus' next home match is Wednesday, Feb. 27 against Chestnut Hill.

Swimming Team

The swim team continued its winning ways by picking up four victories this week. The first three came Tuesday, February 19th in a quad meet against Swarthmore, Trenton State and East Stroudsburg. The format of the meet featured three swimmers from each team seeded according to times in two heats. The meet was close throughout, with fine performances turned in by everyone.

Then Thursday, the team traveled to the University of Pennsylvania. The team won easily, 87-25.

Saturday, members of the team traveled to Women's Intercollegiate at Springfield Montco. The team placed third out of thirteen teams, losing only to West Chester and Monmouth. Fine performances were turned in by Debbie Weiler, Ann Arbuckle, Pam Ricci, Beth Salamanaca, Linda Hebda, Linda Manney, Courtney Solenberger, Amy Early, and tri-captains Lee Rambo, Tricia Kennedy and Betty Clayton.

IT WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR!

By GEORGE GEIST

It was a very good year! With only one game remaining in the 73-74 basketball season, the Ursinus Bear hoopsters thus far have posted a remarkable 13-7 record (which has greatly improved from last year's log of 7-11). With ten returning varsity players coming off a very successful season, next year's schedule is already looked at with great optimism by the entire basketball program.

Last Saturday, the Bears, without the services of captain George Kinek, concluded their home schedule with a commanding 92-74 victory over Western Maryland. After freshman Jim McLaughlin opened the scoring with his patented baseline pop, the Bears were off and running. Greg Weigard, in his best shooting game of the season, then added two quick buckets, and after senior guard Jack Messenger canned two amazing, diving, off-balance lane pops, the Ursinus hoopsters had the lead which wouldn't be threatened.

The Bears had relatively little trouble in posting their thirteenth victory for Coach Frye. However, early in the game, Western Maryland's standout guard, Jeff Feldman, began scoring over the zone and the game remained somewhat close. Feldman, who scored 20 points in the initial period, was limited to only six counters in the second half, and the Bears literally ran to victory.

Statistically, the offensive onslaught was paced by brilliant performances by center Randy Stubits (27 points, 13 rebounds), guard Greg Weigard (9-10 shooting, 18 points) and freshman forward Jim McLaughlin (22 points).

Basketball Basics, etc.

Coach Warren Frye, in a very commendable act, started both seniors, Jack Messenger and Bill Downey, in their final home appearance. Four freshmen played and contributed to Saturday's win over WMC—Greg Thren, Mike Ruskey, Frank "Doc" McDonald, and Jim McLaughlin.

Statistically, with one game remaining, captain George Kinek is averaging 14 points per game and an average of 13.3 rebounds per contest. Randy Stubits continues to lead the team in scoring with 15.8 ppg.

The JV's have posted a 10-5 record after a very slow beginning. Jack Hannan led the squad to back-to-back victories over Swarthmore and WMC with 36 and 39 points in each respective contest. Statistically, Greg Thren averaged 27.0 ppg, followed by Jack Hannan's 17.5 ppg. average and McLaughlin's 15.0 ppg. average.

First Gymnastics Meet Takes Place

By JACKIE HUNT

The Women's Gymnastics team, under the expert eyes of coach Georgia Ferrell, captured an impressive second place in a quad meet held Feb. 15 in Helfferich Hall. The competitors were Temple, Bryn Mawr, Franklin and Marshall, and Ursinus. The significance of this meet lies in the fact that this was the first gymnastics meet in Ursinus' history.

Captain Doreen Rhoads, Pam Ricci, Nancy Catalano and Anita Moore convincingly demonstrated their abilities to perform in the Horse Vault, Uneven Bars, Balance Beam and Floor Exercise. Highlights of the meet included: Pam Ricci taking 2nd place on the Balance Beam and 4th in the Floor Exercise. Nancy Catalano winning fourth on the Balance Beam and seventh in the Floor Exercise. Doreen Rhoads tied for 4th place on the Unevens and finished a strong fifth in the Floor Exercise. Anita Moore took 3rd on the Unevens and fifth on the Horse Vault.

Temple finished first, Ursinus second, Bryn Mawr third and Franklin and Marshall fourth.

Ursinus missed winning first place by a very narrow margin. Congratulations to the coach and team.

New Weekly Editor Will Be Chosen This Month

The Weekly's Board of Control will meet the last week before Spring Vacation to choose the Editor-in-Chief for the rest of this year and next year. Any student interested in the post is invited to submit a statement of purpose to H. Lloyd Jones, Associate Dean of Admissions, by Friday, March 15. The letters should state the objectives and plans the prospective editors might have for the Weekly.

The new editor will take over immediately after we return from Spring Vacation. Watch the Weekly and the daily bulletin for any changes in this announcement.
