VARIETY OF DROP-IN EXPERIENCES...Anyone may participate in the Sunday Evening Drop-In June 3 from 6:30 to 10 p.m., in the Commons. Come dressed casually and be prepared for a variety of experiences. DAVE CRISPIN and TULSI SARAL (both CHLD) have designed these experiences and will conduct them starting promptly at 6:30 p.m. The Drop In is a humanistic event for personal and interpersonal growth and to promote more harmonious and productive human relations between races, sexes, adult and youth, university and community, faculty and students, people. Others are scheduled for July 8 and August 5.

PA SYSTEM...Well, not really -- but in a way, let's say. We're talking about the Festival of the Performing Arts June 22-30 in Park Forest Plaza. BERNIE BUSH (A & R) is chairman, and lots of other GSUers are involved. They're on the Festival Committee and participating in the various events. The first event is a rock concert at 9 p.m., on June 22, and a "cabaret night" June 30, 9 p.m., is the wind-up. A later issue of FAZE I will chronicle all events, but in the meantime you can get information from BERNIE BUSH and CELIA-ANN TOLL (A & R).

Vol. 2, No. 39

FORGET THE LITTLE BLACK BOOK...A new and up-to-date addendum to the GSU Staff Directory is scheduled for Wednesday distribution.

THE SUN DANCE...Kid, is what we'll do to assure a beautiful day for CEAS' 2nd Annual Picnic scheduled for Sunday, June 3, from 3 p.m. until dark, in Monee Firemen's Park. The CEAS student affairs group and GSU Chess Club are sponsoring the picnic for students, faculty, staff, alumni, their families, and guests. Children are especially invited. If the weather is bad (HORRORS), there'll be an indoor picnic at the Mini-campus. Deadline for making reservations is Friday, May 25. Student Assistant Dean BOB JENSEN is waiting to hear from you right now.

MISSING FROM THE SCENE...Is HUGH (DUKE) RANK (CCS), who is hospitalized at St. James in Chicago Heights.

ONE OF THE GREATEST...Photo collections will be on exhibit here at GSU on Monday, June 4. ARNIE GILBERT is showing his collection of photographs by master photographers from 7 to 10 p.m., in the ICC Preview Room. As part of his presentation, he'll give a gallery talk about the photos and GSUers will hear and even share in a critique of the works of masters, according to PAUL SCHRANZ (ICC).

HARD HATS...Must be donned for touring of the construction site for Phase I facilities. They'll be used by the CEAS Community Council, who are meeting Saturday, June 2, at 9:30 a.m. to look over GSU's permanent campus. BILL WICKERSHAM (B & PO) will lead the 20-member council on its visit to the Phase I site.

FIRST TIME EVER I SAW YOUR FACE...Was one of the offerings of the GSU Jazz Ensemble with Strings in its premier performance at the Annual Spring Concert in the Commons before a crowd of more than 200. With BETHE HERLINGER (CCS) as concertmaster, the group also played "Monique" and "Keisha Z," both composed by WARRICK CARTER (CCS). The evening's concert was divided into four sections, opening with selections by The Sound Module, a jazz quartet comprised of GSU and Prairie State students. Next was the 21-piece GSU Jazz Ensemble, whose members are students and community people. They performed works of Isaac Hayes, GERALD MYROW, W. L. CARTER, and D. Barton. Then followed music from the GSU Jazz Sextet, which recently won "Best Combo" award at the Collegiate Jazz Festival at Notre Dame. The Sextet presented the award to AL SHERMAN who accepted on behalf of the University. The Jazz Ensemble with Strings closed the program.

GSU IN PRINT...The February, 1973, issue of Chart carries an article, "Governors State University Plans Expanded Nursing Program." Chart is the official publication of the Illinois Nursing Association. ...In the higher education section of Know Your Town, published by the (Homewood-Flossmoor) League of Women Voters, there's a general description of GSU giving lots of important details.

ENERGETIC SYNERGETIC GEOMETRY MAKES ONE... Think of R. Buckminster Fuller, what else? The Museum of Science and Industry (57th and S. Shore Drive, Chicago) is featuring the first comprehensive exhibition of his engineering, architectural, and humanitarian contributions through Aug. 31. Museum hours are: Mon-Sat. 9:30 to 5:30; Sun, 10-6. LRC has a number of Fuller's books (with the most provocative titles, I must say!): Education Automation: Freeing the Scholar to Return to his Studies, I Seem to be a Verb, No More Secondhand God, Untitled Epic Poem on the History of Industrialization -- to mention a few.

GRANT TOOK RICHMOND...Way back in history. However, in today's world, JOHN PAYNE (CCS), Professor of Art at GSU took a grant from the National Endowments for the Arts and is providing GSUers with presentations by visiting artists. On Thursday, May 24, at 1:30 p.m., LEROY MOFFETT, a ceramist and sculptor, demonstrated and discussed his speciality, and repeated his program Friday morning (May 25) at 9:30 a.m. Thursday evening at 7:00 p.m., JAMES DAVIS, who is a painter and draftsman, demonstrated and discussed his particularity. Visiting artist DAVIS talked again and offered a slide viewing session Friday at 1:00 p.m.

GSUings...BRUCE MEYERS (CBPS) having successfully completed the defense of his thesis for the DBA degree from Washington University...DAVE CURTIS (R & I) telling about GSU to a class at Chicago State University...PETER FENNER (CEAS) co-authoring an article, "Geological Education Today: Multiple Alternatives to Replace Linearity and Coercion"...MEL MUCHNIK (COMM) writing in the 1974 Free Speech Yearbook of the Speech Communications Ass'n. about First Amendment implications of political broadcasting on public radio and television stations...JON CARLSON (CHLD) publishing two articles -- "Consequences -- Cues to Understanding Behavior," in April Elementary School Journal; and "The Future of School Counseling" in the March Focus on Guidance...TED ANDREWS (CEAS) attending Illinois Deans of Arts and Sciences meeting in Springfield...KEN WIEG (SS) conducting a family counseling demonstration on WMAQ-TV (Channel 5) "Memorandum"...DICK VORWERK (LRC) being booked to report on GSU to the Chicago Heights Rotary Club by radio station WCGO's Tony Santucci...HERMAN SIEVERING (CEAS) appearing before both House and Senate Public Works Appropriations Subcommittees to request that no further public works funds be appropriated for the Big Pine Reservoir project (Warren County, Ind.) based on a BALANCE survey that found the U.S. Corps of Engineers' cost/benefit analysis totally inadequate.

DAVE CRISPIN (CHLD) observing a confab in an unnamed unit..."If you think that's working, you should see them playing..."

ONCE UPON A TIME...A lion was stalking through the jungle -- just looking for trouble. Grabbing a passing tiger, he asked, "Who is king of the Jungle?" "You are, O mighty lion," replied the tiger. The lion walked on and, coming upon a bear, grabbed him around the neck and asked, "Who is boss of the jungle?" The bear quickly answered, "You are, O mighty lion." Next the lion met an elephant and put his question to him, "Tell me, who is the baddest in the jungle?" The elephant grabbed him with his trunk, whirled him around, and threw him against a tree, leaving the lion weak and injured. The once angry lion got up feebly and muttered, "Just because you don't know the answer is no reason for getting so rough!"

WHO READS SIGNS...A small town newspaper reports that its horoscope editor was arrested for not revealing her resources.
