PHILIP M. KLUTZNICK

Indefatigable and remarkably productive in the fields of law, government, diplomacy, economics, real estate development, and humanitarian endeavors.

You served your country with wisdom, skill, and dedication, in working with people from all walks of life and from the far corners of the world--Secretary of Commerce; member of several United States delegations to the United Nations; Deputy to the U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations; leader with the U.S. Committee on Economic Development; builder of our All-American City, Park Forest, and of the Industrial Center of Ashod, Israel; active in the solution of refugee and resettlement problems in Indochina; and a clear, resonant, forceful voice for international initiatives against poverty, illiteracy, and disease in the Third World.

Wise and humane leader, world servant, from whose intellect, character, and perceptiveness this nation and this world have gained deep and permanent benefits.

Philip M. Klutznick, our neighbor and friend, builder for peace, posterity, life itself, and, most of all, creator of a climate in which hope displaced despair.

Governors State University, also a builder of mind and spirit, feels great kinship with you, our native son. We salute you.
