bullying

A National Theatre Project Award Winner, this performance confronts the effects of cyber-bullying from a parent's point of view. A single mother spends a whole school year trying to fight her daughter's bullies while being haunted by memories of her own experiences growing up.

Humorous, thoughtful and honest, Out of Bounds weaves together video, comic books and interviews to tell the stories of kids being bullied and the adults who feel powerless to help them.

A companion show is offered for area youth (grades 5-9) presenting the same story from the daughter's point of view. 10 a.m.
