The club, founded in 1896, is Rock Hill's oldest book club and "was formed for the main purpose of exchanging books of a high type of biography, history, literature and fiction" since there was no library in 1896. It was named in honor of "Mrs. Amelia Pride, a citizen of Rock Hill who was very intellectual and influenced the young people for cultural living and enjoyment." Later the club became a social, literary, cultural and philanthropic club.
