White blankets covering the sea of the sky,
Moving fast, through and away,
As white sheets of sea foam,
Rolling tides shaped by a distant whistling of the wind;
And the mirror of the heart of flames,
And pearls dotted in a distant sea bed,
And—

What a fathomless darkness!

Shown by reflection to be deep, deep blue:
An endless, endless—

And through

And away

Oh lonely full moon that comes to earth,
Dancing in rays between forests of grass.
