YORK COUNTY NEWS ITEMS

Several negroes undertook to disturb religious services and raise riots in general at Gold Hill, colored church Sunday afternoon and Constable Putney arrested John Adams of Glover, whom he lodged in jail. Warrants were issued for several others who will be arrested as soon as they can be located.

Mr. W. B. Good of Bullock's Creek was taken to a Charlotte sanitarium Sunday to have a chicken bone, which had become lodged in his throat, removed. While at the Bullock's Creek community fair at dinner Saturday, Mr. Good got the bone lodged in his throat. In company with his son, Mr. John D. Good, he came to Yorkville Saturday afternoon to have the bone removed, but his physician here was unable to relieve him, and it was necessary that he be taken to Charlotte.

The fire department was called out Saturday afternoon because of a blaze on the roof of the home of Will Ramsey in the Taverns mill village. The roof was supported by a beam that was spars from the mill. The department soon got the blaze under control and little damage was done.

In the passing of Mrs. Mary A. Bludworth who died at her home in Yorkville, Oct. 18, 1916, at the age of 78, one of the oldest if not the oldest citizen died. Mrs. Bludworth had been in bad health for about four years and had been confined to her bed for the past three years. The funeral was held at the home Saturday morning conducted by her pastor, Rev. D. E. Gillespie, assisted by Rev. Henry Bowers. The interment followed in the Rose Hill cemetery. Mrs. Mary Susan Armstrong Bludworth was in the 67th year of her age, having been born in Duplin county, N. C., April 27, 1850. The daughter of the late Isaac and Mary Armstrong. She was the last member of an immediate family, all of whom she had seen. She was married to the late John Hand Bludworth, November 6, 1864 and after her husband's death she was left a widow with a family to support and care for. Mrs. Bludworth was a professional dressmaker, being one of the first in Yorkville. She was actively engaged in the business for twenty-five years and was known for her skill and the excellence of her designs and her skill with the needle. Shortly after coming to Yorkville, Mrs. Bludworth affiliated herself with the Presbyterian church and remained a faithful member all her life. She is survived by one son, Mr. John Bludworth, and three daughters, Misses Mollie, Agnes and Anna Bludworth all of whom reside here.

A woman can talk longer than a man because she has less sense, speaking than the man does. A German professor has proved by actual and very delicate measurements that the human voice is louder when it comes from the throat and that the bass singer uses more force than either the range of voices differs greatly in the percentage of force to the same extent, but a general result it was proved that the tenor uses only from one-seventh to one-eighth of the lung power of the baritone, or bass. The baritone uses one-fourth, the soprano uses one-fifth, and the alto uses one-sixth of the lung power of the tenor. It is surprising that the investigation was not made long ago. It has long been known that the tenor has more force than the bass and that the soprano uses less force than the alto. It is surprising that the investigation was not made long ago. It has long been known that the tenor has more force than the bass and that the soprano uses less force than the alto.

TWO ACCIDENTS NEAR SPOT

One of Nine Occupants of Automobile Believed to Be Fatally Injured

Clinton, Oct. 18.—Two accidents occurred within the mile of Dover Junction here this afternoon about three hours apart. A Seaboard train was wrecked, resulting in injury to passengers and the death of a man. Three hours later a train on the Columbia, Newberry & Laurens line struck an automobile containing nine passengers. One occupant of the car is believed to have been fatally injured. The accidents occurred almost at the same spot.

Train No. 6, southbound Seaboard freight to Atlanta, was wrecked three miles from here today shortly after 1 o'clock and as a result three persons were hurt, although none seriously. The man who was killed was left the track, although a few minutes escaped without injury.

The negro fireman, Jim Haddon, jumped and was seriously hurt, although he escaped without injury. John Yates, the engineer, remained at his post and escaped injury. Two passengers, C. F. Roseman of Southburg and F. S. Smith of Mountville, were both hurt. They were rushed to the hospital here this afternoon and given every attention.

The second accident of the day occurred at the scene of Mountville, where both hurt. They were rushed to the hospital here this afternoon and given every attention. The patients brought here this afternoon are residing quietly tonight and none is reported fatally injured. The second accident of the day occurred at the scene of Mountville, where both hurt. INCREASING YIELD OF WHEAT

"Tillering" Gives More and Stronger Ears and Sturdier Plants.

The news comes from England that a cereal grower has invented a tillering machine which is expected to increase the wheat yield many times. The machine is intended to assist nature by stimulating the wheat plants to tiller or produce additional stems and ears above ground and surface roots below.

WORST COAL SHORTAGE

IN YEARS FACES CITY

Lack of Labor at Mines Hits Normal Production by More Than 2,000,000 Tons.

New York, Oct. 17.—New York, Director general of the Pan-American Exposition, returned on the Lafayette from his trip to ascertain the British and French viewpoint of the war's effect upon the commercial development of the various American republics. He conferred with Lord Robert Cecil, British Minister of War Trade; Worthington Evans, Director of the British Foreign Trade Department; Prime Minister Brandis, Clementel, French Minister of Commerce, and representative financial and commercial men of those countries. Mr. Barrett said:

"The soft coal famine is due chiefly to a shortage of cars. The demand for coal has been unprecedented. More than 261,000,000 tons were mined in the first six months of this year, but it is estimated that the production will be reduced to 200,000,000 tons by the end of the year. FEAR ADAMSON LAW WILL CUT THE PA

Engineers of Passenger Trains to Be in Doubt as to Its Effect.

New York, Oct. 17.—A railroad engineer employed on one of the lines running into the city carried a Republican national headquarters last evening a report that some of the men working on the railroad are expressing great uncertainty as to the working out of the Adamson law establishing the eight-hour day for the railroad engineer. The name to be used. His story was to the effect that within a few days scores of telegrams, have been sent to the American Steam Heat and Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, by heads of various localities, asking him if it is true and how it happens that the provisions of the Adamson law apply alike to passenger and freight service. Passenger service was specially exempted in the demands made by the men of the general strike was threatened.

The passenger engineers and trainmen have become alarmed, it is said, over the possibility of losing a substantial part of their pay after Jan. 1, when the law will become operative. The engineers are paid on the basis of 100-mile runs and by every second day. On this basis, it is said, the railroad company can demand that the men run daily and pay him only $4.25.

It was asserted that an engine can be run for 100 miles in three hours and ten minutes, make the same run back, all within one working day, and on the present basis receive $11.50 for every second day. On the new basis, it is said, the railroad company can demand that the men run daily and pay him only $4.25.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20,

LET US WORK TOGETHER.

The Record has never been enthusiastic over the proposition for the creation of a new county, and we are, therefore, not much cast down over the Supreme Court's decision adverse to it. We never could see much argument in the proposition for a new county, York county in all right, and we are well pleased that there is to be no division. We believe the creation of a new county would have made a heavier tax burden for a time. Taxes are heavy enough as it is. We feel that the people of the whole county ought to get together and stick together and work together to make York county a better community. Cut out the everlasting politics and get to work for the betterment of the county as a whole. Those who are in control of the affairs of the county should extend a spirit of recognition to all sections of the county. If this spirit were shown in evidence there would be no move for a new county.—Rock Hill Record.

GALLON A MONTH LAW SUSTAINED.

No one need be surprised that the courts have declared the gallon a month law constitutional. The next step to take is to repeal it, and pass a law totally prohibiting the shipment of liquor into the State. It is a pity that any citizen needs a gallon of liquor a month, or for that matter any liquor at all to poison his own system, inflame his brain, and make him a menace to his fellow citizens. A gallon a month and a deadly pistol is about as safe things as we can have to contribute to lawlessness, and make bad citizens of a State.

Talk about depriving men of their personal liberty! Personal liberty to "make themselves, outlaws, debauch the State! Personal liberty to do as they please is quite a different thing from personal liberty to worship the Lord according to the dictates of one's own conscience. The State has a right not only to provide for the things which contribute to the welfare of its citizens, but to take away from them things that are inimical to good citizenship.

A rural mail carrier told us only last week that every day he had to give the money orders for liquor to be shipped from some liquor house, and that it was the rule of families to order first for one member and then on around to the last one so that as many gallons of whiskey were ordered in one month as there were members in the family. A father with a wife and three children would get five gallons per month and so on. He said he was perfectly disgusted with this force and pleaded for the total abolition of the liquor traffic.

The time has come when we must have a dry State. We are not in favor of liquor, when, beer or anything being shipped into our fair State. We do not need such things and the sooner we are rid of them the better.—Greenwood Journal.

"WE THOUGHT MOTHER WOULD NEVER RECOVER"

Spartanburg Woman Falls of Meth-uena's Suffering From Awful
Malady.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY.

Daughter Says the Unexpected Happened and Tells of Wonderful Change Brought About.

How Tanlac had driven away all signs of pellagra, which her mother was so badly that the bones of her hands showed through the sores, and how the same medicine had given her great relief for different troubles, was described in a very remarkable endorsement of Tanlac, given by Mrs. Belle Hopper of No. 9 Drayton Ave., Drayton, S. C. a suburb of Spartanburg.

"I suffered from headache and felt very badly," declared Mrs. Hopper, in her statement. "My system was a bad one," she ran down condition and I was very weak. Tanlac had helped my mother so much that I decided to take it, and the Tanlac cure me a great deal and I believe I can to work, all the time though I had been too weak to work. The medicine got me in good shape in every way.

"My mother, whose home is at Cheese, S. C. suffered from a very bad case of pellagra, and she had been in bed for two years before she was taken by Tanlac and she had been almost helpless for a year or two before she had to stay in bed all the time. Her system was in a very bad way, she was in a very bad condition, and her hands and feet were a solid mass of sores. She had no appetite at all and she had lost a lot of weight.

"Really, my mother was in a terrible condition. The doctors told her she had the worst case they ever saw, and the bones of her hands showed through the sores. She had taken a lot of medicine—almost every kind of tonic she ever heard of a lot of—and had several doctors, but she says Tanlac did her more good than all the other medicines she took.

"The Tanlac really gave my mother wonderful relief. The sores left and she had some back, though before she took Tanlac we thought she would never get over this disease. She was in an awful condition and she looks like another woman now and it is all due to Tanlac.

"She has a good appetite now and has gained a lot of weight. She gained three pounds on the first bottle. We have never seen anything like it. It is hard to believe any medicine could do so much, but Tanlac sure did give her the most wonderful relief.

"I am glad to recommend Tanlac because it just broke up the case of pellagra my mother had—at least the sores were driven away and have not come back—and because it proved in my case a remarkably good medicine. My mother has not a single symptom of pellagra now, so far as I can tell."

CHESTER MAN IS KILLED IN ATLANTA.

Body Brought to Chester—Funeral Held at Pleasant Grove Yesterday.

The remains of Mr. J. B. Tennant arrived in Chester Wednesday night and were laid to rest in Pleasant Grove cemetery yesterday after services by Rev. R. Roy Brown.

Mr. Tennant received a knife wound early Sunday morning from a street car which he died early Wednesday.

The following account of the accident appeared in yesterday's Atlanta Journal:

John B. Tennant, thirty-one years old, of 50 Gannett street, who was hurried to the Grady hospital early Sunday morning, suffering from a knife wound in the left breast, died Wednesday morning as the result of his wounds.

J. B. Tennant, forty-two years old, of 30 Orange street, is held at the police station charged with the murder of Tennant, who made a statement before he died, that he had shot Tennant.

The ambulance was called to the corner of Windsor and Orange street Sunday morning about 2 o'clock, where Tennant was found badly wounded. On reaching the Grady, Tennant told physicians that he and Burchel had an altercation at the corner of Windsor and Orange streets, and he, Tennant, received the wound during a scuffle.

Tennant said that the altercation was brought on by his endeavoring to get Burchel to go to his home, a few blocks distant. Tennant said he was trying to get his friend to go home.

Call Officer Sam Long, who told Burchel of the death of Tennant, stated that the prisoner admitted stabbing the dead man, but that the wound was not fatal. Burchel reports to Officer Long, greatly regretting the death of Tennant, whom he regarded as a friend.

Burchel was connected with the Farm Products company at 171 Whitehall, but was to leave this company the end of this week. His business associates give him a good name. They had never heard of his drinking.

Tennant was a native of Chester county, South Carolina. He came to Atlanta some time ago and took a course at barber college. He was selected given a position, his employment was not a success, he never smoked or drank. He worked in the O. K. barber shop and was said to be popular with the trade.

His father was in Atlanta Wednesday according to the body to the home in Chester county, S. C. Tennant was a widower and leaves a young son, J. B. Tennant, Jr., his father, J. M. Tennant, a brother, James Tennant, and four sisters, Mrs. Irene Tennant, Mrs. Mattie Rain and Miss Sarah and Mary Tennant, all residents of Chester county, S. C., where the body was taken for funeral and interment.

CHARLESTON JURY CLEARS CANTWELL.

Charleston, Oct. 18.—James R. Cantwell, former chief of police of Charleston, tried today in the court of general sessions on a charge of assaulting Henry J. Brown with intent to kill, was found not guilty by the jury, which was out a hour and a half an hour, and as Solicitor Henry pressed the case, on a similar charge, against F. E. Lafourcade, the last of the election trials in the circuit.

RELIEVES HEADACHES WITHOUT DOSING.

By Applying Sloan's Liniment to Forehead You Can Stop the Severe Pains.

Many headaches are of a neuralgic origin. The symptoms of such headaches are intense and lingering pains in the brow, temples or back of the head.

There is one certain relief that has been known and recommended for years back, Sloan's Liniment. One application and the dull pain is practically gone. It is easy applied with out rubbing. Rubbing is unnecessary as Sloan's Liniment quickly penetrates to the seat of trouble.

Aching muscles, rheumatism, stiffness, lumbago, chilblains, sprains and bruise can also be most effectively treated with Sloan's Liniment. Cleaner than messy plasters or ointments; it does not stain, hurt skin or clog the pores.

At all drug stores, 25c., 50c., $1.00.

court was disposed of in the Cantwell acquittal. The charge against Cantwell grew out of the committee room shooting last October. The defense argued that he acted under most trying and dangerous circumstances only as his duty dictated, when he rushed at Brown with pistol drawn, and the shot that was fired, even if it had been deliberate, which was not the case, would have been justified under the circumstances.

The State contended that Cantwell used more force than was necessary in subduing Brown. Brown was not hit. The case against Lafourcade was not pressed by Solicitor Henry on the ground that the State did not have evidence to sustain the charges beyond a reasonable doubt.

EARTH TREMBLES IN THREE STATES.

Some Chimneys Wrecked Around Birmingham and Montgomery but No Much Else Harned.

Atlanta, Oct. 18.—Two distinct earthquake shocks that in some instances, shook frame buildings and knocked chimneys down were felt through Western Georgia and East Alabama and Tennessee shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon.

From all points damage was reported as negligible except around Birmingham and Montgomery, where it appeared to consist of damage to chimneys. Many persons, however ran from their homes here and in other Southern cities.

The tremor was not felt at points to the East except a suburb of Augusta, Ga.; according to reports tonight, some of which said the first shock was heavier than the second while others reversed the description.

The William Goldsmith Company, of Greenville, has been awarded the contract by the Republic Cotton Mills of Great Falls, for the erection of one hundred cotton mill houses. The houses will have running water, bath and electric lights, being modern in all particulars. The work will require the employment of several hundred men.

The display of canned goods in the Home Demonstration department at the fair would indicate that the citizens of this county are capable of living at home. Many say this is one of the best exhibits ever seen.

The Home Conventions department at the fair is in charge of Miss Mary E. Frazer, of Winthrop College.

The exhibit of the various Bread Clubs at the fair would indicate that good work along this line is being done in Chester county and the citizens should never neglect to help in this worthy work.

Miss Edith L. Parrott, State Home Demonstration Agent, and Miss Alice Smith, Demonstration Agent for Union county, were in Chester yesterday having come here to be judges in the home demonstration department at the fair.

Commissioner E. J. Watson acted as judge of the agricultural exhibits at the fair Wednesday. There were 117 entries in this department. Some receiving special mention were: wheat, rye, long staple cotton, long squash, turnips, velvet beans, grains and a most excellent corn.

The fancy work displayed at the fair this year surpasses anything of the past. There is a general booth and Armenia, Baton Rouge and Lowryville have separate booths. The Armenia display took first prize and the Lowryville second.

Mr. Geo. W. Williams, Cashier of the Bank of Lancaster, is in the city visiting his sister, Mrs. D. Kece Williams who is very ill at the Pryor Hospital.

Sunday School Rally at Cedar Shoals Sunday. Exercises to begin at 2 o'clock. Talks will be made by J. H. Glenn and J. A. Hafner. Public cordially invited to attend.

At this time it is impossible to get a complete list of the premium winners at the fair but we will endeavor to give our readers a complete list in our issue of Tuesday.

The Chester football team defeated the Winnebago team on the fair ground Tuesday afternoon by a score of 18 to 6. The game was well played throughout and was enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. J. S. Fickel of Lancaster, is spending several days in the city with relatives and attending the county fair.

Mr. C. A. Brooks, of the Lohin Furniture Co., of Charlotte, was in Chester yesterday to act as judge of the mercantile booths. The prize, a silver cup, was awarded to The S. M. Jones Co.

FEDERAL FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION TO BE FORMED

A meeting is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock at the court house, in this city, for the purpose of organizing a Federal Farm Loan Association in Chester county. This method enables farmers to secure long-time loans on farming lands and already numbers of associations have been formed in various sections of the country. This is a new loan system recently created by the government and although still in its infancy is coming in for a great deal of attention.

Commissioner E. J. Watson will here at the County Fair Wednesday outlined the law to an audience of farmers and business men at the fair. All who are interested in the creation of an association in Chester county are requested to be present at the meeting tomorrow afternoon.

We notice in the Greenwood Journal that a citation of that section states that cotton brought 35 cents per pound in August 1869.

Mr. Jack Nichols, of this city, has accepted a position as stenographer and clerk in the office of Chief Dispatcher Murchinson, of the Southern Railway, at Rock Hill.

LOST—Bunch of keys with black leather cover attached. Finder please return to The News Office.

The crowd at the fair last night was a record breaker. Many state there were more people out last night than at any previous fair in the history of the county.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gibson, October 10th, 1916, a son.

THE MERCANTILE TILE BOOTHS EXTRA GOOD

A new feature of the Chester County Fair, is the Mercantile Booths, which are arranged in the big exhibit at the entrance of which is the fair gate.

The Southern Public Utilities Company has a display of various electrical articles among which are electric fans, sweepers, cooking utensils. Practical demonstrations are being shown and hot coffee and sandwiches served.

The coffee used is the familiar brand, Chase and Sanborn, sold by Geo. W. Byars & Co. A cent-hour-meter has also been erected in this booth which shows the cost per hour of each instrument on display.

Geo. W. Byars & Co. one of Chester's leading wholesale and retail grocers has an excellent display of the line carried by them. Mr. G. W. Byars is in charge and says, "I am the only man between you and the producer."

The J. T. Collins Department Store has a complete display of ladies and gent's wearing apparel, the booth being decorated with much taste.

The Chester Ice and Sanborn, sold by Geo. W. Byars & Co. has on display a block of ice. The flowers frozen inside. The children say, "How did they do it?" Another display is that of Mr. Henry DeVega's "brag coat," "Mountain Ash and Jellies."

Lowrance Bros., have taken advantage of the situation to display the handsome display but the young men say, "Write your name and address on this piece of paper. Friday night at nine o'clock, some one will get the prize. If it be a man he gets an Emery shirt, if a lady, she gets a pair of those famous Phoenix hose. If a boy or girl a pair of Trot-Mo shoes."

H. F. Richardson, one of Chester's progressive grocers, has a complete display of the things one can't do without. You must eat to live—you cannot pass Richardson's.

The Chester Drug Company has erected a Rexall store, which is handsomely decorated, the color scheme being black and white.

The Big Store, The S. M. Jones Company is coming in for many compliments. Ladies wear is being displayed showing the latest in styles. The booth is handsomely decorated in blue and white.

They all hesitate when they reach the display of the Hamilton Book Store. A display of toys along with many other articles among which is a baby doll which has now reached the advanced age of 68 years causes the "bestiation stop."

Chester's youngest firm, Leckie & Cox, have a beautiful display of fancy work, several articles being made by Chester-ladies.

Postmaster T. J. Cunningham has a unique parcel post display and a representative in this booth shows one just how to mark and wrap packages to be sent by parcel post. Joyner, the photographer, takes your likeness and has an excellent display showing the various mountings which can be furnished.

The Penwell Motor Company comes at you with a Dodge—it is a sure enough automobile and he also has a display of auto accessories among which are some auto horns. Those who attended the fair heard the horns.

The Catawba Steam Bakery has a full display of cakes, breads, etc. They are real tempting and the longer you look the emptier you get.

The Clark Furniture Company has an exhibition a handsome suit of furniture, arranged in bedroom style. The big brass bed with that excellent mattress guarantees good rest.

If you get thirsty you may attribute it to the Chero Cola booth. This is a drink which has only been on the market for a short while but is widely gaining in popularity. "There's Nothing So Good."

When it comes to "Kee-Kutter" goods the Murphy Hardware Company has 'em all on display and the arrangement is excellent. The Great Majestic range is the thing to use. It keeps pace in the family.

E. E. Cloud, "The Ready-To-Wear Store" has a full display of ladies ready-to-wear. This is the place where the "old lady" gives the "old man" the hunch. The "glad rags" are the eye.

A. B. Collins, the furniture man, is furnishing music for the occasion. His booth fittingly represents a parlor and has one of those better kind of pianos which you all need.

The Chester Machine and Lumber Co., has what might be termed a young house. All fitted up and cozy like the fire is always built. This fact appeals strongly to the men. They all want a self-ignition fire place.

The Chester Shoe Store has an excellent display of shoes and plenty of polish to keep them looking new. The man in charge says, "We fit the bestest of 'em."

H. I. Scheberg is displaying a nice line of shoes, etc., and he planted it right in a field of "King Cotton." If you cannot pick cotton you certainly should be able to pick a pair of shoes.

H. K. Hough, The Jeweler, is right on the job and has the goods to show. Sallie who wants to buy a present for Jimmie and he also has the goods for Jimmie. You know they both are thinking of Christmas already. Did you notice that electric light on the inside of a cut glass bowl? His color scheme is yellow and purple. The man says, "The month is here when wedding bells will soon be loudly ringing. We have 'em good sir or madam here. What 'they' will value pronto."

The Springstein Mills show their goods from start to finish. They begin with cotton and when they finish they are ready to hand you real cloth and it looks good too.

The Rodman-Brown Co. can give you anything you wear and eat. They occupy the big building in the Valley and have on every growing business.

The Southern Manufacturing Company has a full line of various patterns of overalls. They are made right here in Chester and the company has about fifty people on the payroll. You have heard of these famous overalls—the Cow-hide brand—they never rip.

The Joseph Wylie & Company, one of Chester's oldest firms has used parcel post in the decoration of the booth in the center of the tent and in it they are displaying the late styles in ladies wear.

Widow's McGurk—Tis a big price to pay for a coffin. Undertaker O'Marri—A big price and many's the married man wed pay twice as much for the same privilege and jump at the chance!

CRYING FOR HELP.

Lots of It in Chester But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys often cry for help. Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed. Not one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous.

There can be no health, where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the frequent indications of kidney trouble. It is often the kidney's cry for help. Head it.
