DESCRIPTION OF CORRESPONDENCE

Date(s)	Description
nd	Family correspondence relating to holidays, accomplishments of family members, deaths and family life.
1833-1845	Correspondence in this group is related to the Romance of Caroline Sansbury and Benoit Jaeger. Other correspondence includes letters exchanged by members of the Wead family. Correspondents include Edward Wead, Lucy Wead Baldwin, Mary Wead and Charles Wead.
1845-1900	Correspondence between Professor Benoit Jaeger and T.C. McElrath refers to the publishing of Jaeger's book Illustrated History of American Insects . McElrath was a partner with "McElrath and Barker". Late 1800's correspondence includes a series of letters between Fanny Haasis (daughter of Benoit Jaeger) and Edwin Stone concerning the life work of Fanny Haasis' father.
1900-1913	Letters of this period are almost entirely comprised of those between Dunbar Ferdinand Haasis and C.W. Haasis. Dunbar Ferdinand's letters were written to his son and contain a father's advice concerning college and career.
1913-1919	C.W. Haasis is the primary correspondent in this group. Letters are relating to his attempts to gain employment following his graduation from college. Many letters originate in the offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. An enclosure to one letter written to Rutgers University is the thesis written by C.W. Haasis as fulfillment of his requirements for a professional degree in civil engineering.
1920-1929	Travel correspondence from Europe by various family members. Also included are letters from Ferdinand W. Haasis Describing the Western United States during the 1920's.
1930-1950	Correspondence directed to Eleanor W. Haasis and C.W. Haasis in Knoxville, Tennessee. Letters from Dave Todd to C.W. Haasis originate in India and China during WWII. Letters describe in detail, the poverty of India. Correspondence also includes those of the War Asset Administration where C.W. Haasis was employed. Also included is a letter signed by Robert P. Patterson, Under Secretary of War during WWII.
1950-1959	Correspondence relates to C.W. Haasis retirement and his purchasing of Dolphin Head-his beach house at Edisto Beach S.C.
1960-1977	Correspondence is mainly general in nature from friends and gardening enthusiasts.

Box(es)	Folder(s)	Series	Year(s)
14	54	JULIUS FRIEDRICH HAASIS PHYSICS NOTEBOOK This series consists of a particularly fascinating physics notebook (ca1840s) created and kept by Julius Friedrich Haasis (1827-1888) most likely while in school in Germany. The notebook is a small hand-written and hand-illustrated 40 page, hand-sewn codex, 6.25"x 7.75", which Haasis titled "Physik Heft" or Physics Notebook. Written almost entirely in German, with occasional jottings in French, English, Italian, Latin, and Greek, he methodically records observations and formulae dealing with the laws of the leverage of bodies, a branch of study made famous by Archimedes in the 3d century BCE: "Give me a place to stand and I will move the world". Included in the note book are some incredibly intriguing and intricate drawings that reflect the political turmoil in the German states and Europe in the 1840s. For a more in depth synopsis of the notebook consult Fred Powell's article titled, "Julius Friedrich Haasis' "Physik Heft" Das Gesetz des Hebels (The Laws of Leverage)" which is available at the Archives.	ca. 1840s
14	54-55	VARIOUS PAPERS This series consists of various records related to or produced by the Haasis Family including original unpublished short stories, articles, and poems written by family members, published articles, original drawings and architectural sketches, notes, correspondence, and vacation materials including brochures and a book containing West Texas wild flower specimens pressed into a book.	1921-1971, nd
