

The Intersection of Gender and Craft Brewing: The Women Brewers of Charlotte

Panel Submission: Dr. Jennifer Leigh Disney

This panel will explore the explosion in craft brewing in the Carolinas from a gendered perspective, specifically from the perspective of local women brewers, highlighting Rachael Hudson, owner of Pilot Brewing, Carol Waggoner, owner of Bold Missy, and Suzie Ford, owner of NoDa brewery. I will serve as panel moderator and ask each woman questions about the business, marketing, and production aspects of brewing as women in the field. We have a brief video we will show to open the panel:
