EDGEMOOR NEWS

OF A WEEK

JACK FROST VISITS THIS SECTION

Everyone here preparing for Thanksgiving - Other Matters

Special to The Lantern: Edgemoor, Nov. 20-Jack Frost made quite a hit around Edgemoor yesterday morning reminding us that winter is coming.

News here is very scarce. Everyone is planning what they will do for Thanksgiving.

There will be no school after next Wednesday morning. The teachers and pupils will have Thursday and Friday. They are leaving school to-day, Saturday, in place of next Friday. Our school is getting on very nicely.

Miss Jane Chambers came home from Asheville last Wednesday. We were all glad to see her. She is looking fine.

Miss Hoo McClellent went to Farm on Tuesday to visit her friend, Mrs. May Glascock.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston, Mr. and Mrs. Glass and Miss Frank Walker were in Chester Thursday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Orr, of Chester, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nunery, of Lando. Mr. Orr will attend Mr. Hitchcock to the school for a month. Mr. Hitchcock is going to Sparta, Ga. to visit his parents.

Mrs. J. N. Whiteside spent one day this week with her mother, Mrs. Robinson.

Mr. E. M. Robinson is expected home from Spencer, N. C. today. The carpenters are progressing nicely with Mr. Robinson's new dwelling on Main street. I guess it will be completed by Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis have a very sick child, little Moffatt, their baby. He has just gotten over a very bad case of chicken pox.

We are glad to say little Miss Elizabeth Gaston has gotten very well.

Optimism

I know my clover is leafy, And my muslin's threadbare, And my shoes are in the uppers.

And my hat is in the uppers, But somehow it doesn't matter When the news that meets my eyes, All about the month's paper, I treat 'em as if on the rise.

Of course the roof needs shingling, And the paper's off the wall, And the coal stoves is lusted; But I jest don't care at all.

For as a wife and mother, I'm a little bit of a fresh surprise That the market's holdin' steady, And that 'trotton on the rise.

Tho' it's plumb wrong for a feller Jes' to struggle after wealth, And to stand a-lookin' at the wall, If he has a home and health, I jes' can't help rejoice.

When I wake up in the mornin' 'twinin' 'trotton on the rise.' Franklin Green.

Take Care of the Machinery

The working life of a machine may be greatly prolonged by good care. It should be kept clean, oiled, and greased. It should be kept in good order.

With the season worse day by day the city slaughter pen is now receiving the attention of the citizens, especially those who live on the lower end of Columbia street and those who travel the Columbia road.

But I can't complain? Oh, yes, you can, and a gallon goes a long way. You may not be able to turn out a job like a professional painter, but you can cover the different parts of a good covering. You are not so much interested in the beauty of the job as in getting the parts covered to keep out moisture.

Remember a farmer who purchased a new mowing machine, one of the first to come in to his section. His neighbor got one, also, and the first farmer's machine was a good service while, to my positive knowledge, his neighbor had purchased four or five during that time.

What Co-operation Will Do: Farmers in this country have greatly benefited by their co-operative clubs. We meet once each month, and have a regular program, which consists of speech making, song, reading and discussion.

Our members each pay a small entrance fee, also ten cents per month. This money goes into the treasury and is used by the district committee to pay prizes. These prizes aid greatly in keeping up interest as well as in helping the members to a higher plane of farming.

We also buy our groceries and sell our produce largely through the co-operative. This money goes into the treasury. By a large number of members clubbing in and ordering groceries, dry goods, fencing material, roofing, farm implements, etc., we cut the price of the low end of the margin. We have just gotten in a large order of this kind and saved from 15 to 20 per cent on all goods ordered.

COMPOSED BY PUPILS OF LANDO SCHOOL

Poems which are Credit to these Children, also to Their Teachers

Tommie Faulkner, age 12. A laugh is just like music, It freshens all the day, It makes the place or light And drives the clouds away.

There are times when I feel sad, And I feel the world grow gray, A laugh is just like sunshine, It makes the world bright and gay.

New Manufacturing Enterprises to be Started - Inquiries about the City

Never in all her history has Chester had such a bright outlook. The Lantern man has informed the other day that a $25,000 manufacturing enterprise would be built in the course of the next sixty days in this city.

As to the $48,000 manufacturing enterprise The Lantern knows no more than that the gentleman said positively that it would be erected here within the next sixty days. What it will manufacture or the parties interested in the scheme is not known.

UNIQUE VISITOR

FOR A FEW DAYS

An Armenian Who Has Been In This Country Since 1886 - Lies in Atlanta

Mr. K. H. Basmanian, a native of Constantinople, Turkey, but now a resident of Atlanta, Ga., is in the city for a few days and is stopping with Mr. R. L. Horn on Saluda street.

Mr. Basmanian is an Armenian, and was born and reared in Constantinople, Turkey. In 1886 he came to America, where he has since resided. He is a lecturer and will probably deliver some lectures in the city before departing.

SLAUGHTER PEN IN STATU QUO

City Commissioner J. M. McGarrah and Supervisor T. W. Shannon held a consultation yesterday with the county attorneys, Douglas & Wise with reference to moving the slaughter pen, but the attorneys advised them that they were without jurisdiction in the matter. They were anxious to remove the pen had they the authority but they have jurisdiction only over the highways and hence could not remove the slaughter pen which it seems distant from the road. A delegation called on Mr. W. L. Ferguson, former of the grand jury with another complaint against the slaughter pen and he is investigating. He will use his efforts towards having the matter solved amicably and to the best interest of the community. The question of who has jurisdiction over the slaughter pen is now puzzling the minds of all. The city board of health say it is outside the city limits and they have no authority. Then who has authority? Chester County needs a County Board of Health. In such a case they could declare the slaughter pen a nuisance and order its removal. It is believed that the state board of health has authority over the matter and if no local relief is granted complaint will be made to them, and yet it is hoped the local authorities can remove the pen. It is dangerous to the health of the city and is causing much annoyance and worry to the people who reside near it.

That the city board of health can stop the butchers from slaughtering the cattle there is well known, but so far the city board of health has not passed in the matter. The citizens of that part of the city are much concerned over the situation. It is dangerous, for to only one of the lawful but the fact is that a tremendous amount of manure runs through residential portions of the city. It runs by the pumping station which pumps water to the city. The manure is getting the full benefit of all this refuse and other. Further developments in this matter will likely occur shortly.

Reception Given in Honor of Mrs. A. N. Whiteside.

One of the prettiest receptions of the season was that given Friday afternoon by Mesdames J. L. Williams and J. A. Barron at the former's home on Water street in honor of Mrs. Albert N. Whiteside, of Rock Hill.

The guests were met at the door by Mesdames L. E. Dawson and M. Alken and presented to the members of the receiving line, who were stationed in the front hall, and were as follows: Mesdames J. L. Williams, A. N. Whiteside, Fred Hampton, S. E. Briggs, W. B. Cox, J. A. Barron, W. A. Toms, B. C. Bites and Miss Kruza.

The guests were then met and ushered into the parlor by Mesdames G. A. Latimer and L. T. Nichols.

Mrs. L. D. Collins stood at the piano, Mrs. J. Q. Hood acted as the instrument accompanist on the violin by Miss Adeline Hood, and furnished some delightful music, while at the far side of the parlor Miss Annie Harter invited the guests to register their names while Mrs. J. W. Moffat flattered the inscription.

Mrs. A. H. Green, Miss Maggie Peden, Maggie and Belle Strull were in the rear hall, while at the dining room entrance were Misses Ella Love and Helen Walker, who received and mingled courtesies on the guests.

A delightful salad course was served in the dining room by a bevy of pretty girls.

The color scheme throughout the house was very beautiful, in the halls the prevailing color being white, while in the dining room yellow and white reigned supreme, the large dining table in the center of the room being laden with yellow and white objects, which enhanced the beauty of the scene.

The house was decorated throughout in most becoming style and the occasion was one which will long be remembered by those who were present.

Another Second Crop Apple.

The Lantern has received from Mr. J. D. Hoopgang a second crop apple, perfectly formed and about half grown. This is from a tree on which the first crop ripened in June, and is one of the second crop of the year. Mr. Hoopgang adds another to the list of what wonderful things Chester County will do in the way of producing two crops in one season.

Checks Under $1 Legal.

The collector of the Treasury Department has quieted the fears of many bankers throughout the country by deciding that there was nothing in the language of section 176 of the new penal code forbidding the use of bank checks for sums less than $1 in the transaction of business. The language has been in the federal statutes for about forty years and the collector found that in transplanting it into the new code no change whatever was made in the wording.—Southern Banker.

Who has authority over the slaughter pen?

The main plank in our platform is that the slaughter pen must be removed without a moment's delay.

How bustling Chester continues to attract the eyes of the world, and in queries from prospective settlers come in every day.

Out of thirty six indictments for violation of the dispensary law twenty eight convictions were secured at the term of court. The paper some time ago is a dangerous nuisance in Chester—Chester Lantern.

It would seem from the number of indictments that the blood tigers of Chester are not much afraid of the danger. We don't have that many cases in Newberry in a year. The fact is here and there many blind tigers in the whole of Newberry county is that what a good paper some of the conscientious—Newberry Herald and News.

How do you know how many "Tigers" are in Newberry County? We don't agree with you about the number of indictments showing that the tigers are not afraid of the law. We bet this will give them a wholesome respect and fear of law. Tell your Sheriff to get busy like ours did and you will find out about how many tigers you have.

AN EXPLANATION

Owing to our unavoidable delay The Lantern was late in going to press Friday afternoon. We regretted the delay but could not help it and ask the indulgence of our subscribers for that once. We will deliver the paper on time hereafter.

Some of our subscribers on rural routes out of Edgewater and Rodman have been missing the paper some times lately and don't like it. We hope they will excuse some delays for we always try and get their papers mailed so as to reach them Saturday and Wednesday mornings but often the S. A. E. mail cars fail to throw off the pouches and carry them by. We will hereafter get the papers so as to go up on Friday and Tuesday mornings and trust that this will be no more of this missing business.

Never has such an immense quantity of Fall and Winter Merchandise been brought here. Kluttz' big store is bulging out on every side with money saving bargains a plenty. Never so many good goods so cheap. Thousands of dollars worth of dependable merchandise at 6 cents a pound cotton price.

SANTA CLAUS OPENS TOYLAND NOVEMBER 26, DAY AFTER THANKSGIVING

This year Old Man Santa brought the biggest assortment of every conceivable kind of toy he had in his North Pole factory.

He sent us word by Discoverer Cook that he would be in his little brick hut in front of Kluttz' Store from Nov. 26th till Christmas day, greeting the children every day. Watch for the jolly old fellow. He has much amusement for you.

Kluttz wants every boy and girl to visit our magnificent "Toyland". We have arranged many exhibits of Toys, however, this year we surpass all our former efforts. Remember the Toy Opening is the day after Thanksgiving and on that day Santa Claus makes his bow to the children of Chester. Watch for him.

Rugs, Carpets, Matting, Linoleum, Wall Paper, Shades and Lace Curtains.

Kluttz' display of the foregoing is the biggest and prettiest in Chester, and the lowest in price.

- 2 bales of Acme Smyrna rugs, 150 - value, Kluttz' price, 95c.
- 27 inch by 54 inch administrator velvet rugs, 3.00 value, special at 1.98.
- 36 inch by 72 inch administrator velvet rugs, 4.00 value, Kluttz' price, 2.98.
- By 15 assembly of crex rugs of all sizes. Best rug made for hard usage.
- $30.00 9 ft by 12 ft administrator velvet seamless art squares at 22.48 - 16 to select from.

If your church, lodge or assembly hall needs a floor covering it will be money in your treasury to figure on it with us.

Kluttz' shows the most matting patterns price 10c up.

Tasty and gorgeous wall paper, sets the roll to 35 cts.

We have your needs in stair carpets, prices 15c to 1.48 yard.

All colors of window shades from 15 cents upward.

Lace curtains, white and ecru, biggest lot in Chester, 39 cents to 6.00 pair.

Kluttz carries an immense stock of floor coverings. The goods are here for your inspection. We don't make you wait till we order it for you.

DECARATORY SERVICES.

The new Baptist church at Harmon will be dedicated the 26th day in November. There will be two services, with dinner on the grounds. All former pastors are invited to take part in the services. We want to make this occasion a kind of "homecoming" for all former members of Harmon. The general public is also invited.

J. Q. Adams, pastor.

Forest fires continue to sweep through a part of Dismal Swamp, as a result of the unprecedented drought.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. W. W. Harlow, of Chester, was here on business yesterday.—Windsor News and Herald.

Miss Gladys Barkdale, of Greenwood, a student of "Antirop College" accompanied Miss W. W. Harlow, a student there, home Saturday and spent until yesterday afternoon with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Harber.

Thursday being Thanksgiving day and therefore a legal holiday the county offices, all the stores, and banks will be closed on that day.

Mr. J. S. Balley, one of the editors of the Greenwood Index, spent Sunday in the city with his friends. Mr. Balley has many friends here who are always glad to see him.

Miss Somerville Booth, of Winthrop College, spent from Saturday evening until yesterday afternoon in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Booth.

Misses Ethel Jay and Elizabeth Brown accompanied Miss Virginia Carroll home from Winthrop Saturday evening and spent until yesterday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carroll.

Misses Sadley and Bryant, both of Winthrop College, were the guests Sunday of Miss Jane Harber.

Clinton and Chester will meet here on the children Thanksgiving day and a great game of football is expected.

Mr. C. J. Patterson left this morning for Blakely to attend the Green-Artial wedding there tomorrow night.

Mr. Gus Henderson, of Greenwood, was among the visitors in the city Sunday.

Miss Marie Cross, of Converse College, is expected home to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Cross. She is expecting a friend, Miss Ruth Williams, of Columbia, also to spend Thanksgiving.

The election for aldermen in ward 1 is to be held today and is passing off quietly, only a light vote being polled. The polls had not closed when the Lantern went to press.

Thanksgiving services at Hop all, A. B. P. Church, on Thursday morning at 11:30 o'clock. The sermon will be preached by Rev. C. G. Brown.

Rev. K. H. Bannan on Monday morning visited the high school and addressed the students. Tuesday afternoon he delivered his lecture on Turkey and Armenia.

Miss Mildred Ferguson, of Winthrop spent from Saturday until yesterday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ferguson.

Mr. Sam Flemming, of Columbia, spent Sunday in the city with Mr. and Mrs. J. McD. Hood.

Mrs. W. M. Leekie has gone to Saldia, N. C., to visit her daughter.

Miss Beattie Paterson, of Laurens, is expected tomorrow to visit Miss Anne Leekie.

The above illustration is from a photograph of the Plant Industry Building, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. It is located in the heart of the city and is covered with PARQUET FLOORING. The PARQUET is made of the finest material for floors, hallways, warehouses, etc. It is so beautiful because it finds nothing so economical.

PARQUET is the ideal floor for homes, stores, stables, hotels, poultry houses, warehouses, outbuildings, etc. It is usually valuable for roofing or siding. It is permanent, is easy to lay, is spark and cinder proof, also color resisting, and does not crack, and does not run in sun.

What is good for the Government will be equally good for you.

Write for the free samples of PARQUET and get with it a Book of up-to-date Factory and Farm Building Plans free for the asking.

John C. Stewart.

Miss Lottie Klutz, a student of the College for Women, accompanied by Miss Vivian Hand, of Columbia, are expected up tomorrow to spend Thanksgiving at home.

Miss Mazie Dominek will leave tomorrow to spend Thanksgiving with home folks at Newberry.

Miss Thula Peay, accompanied by Miss Maud Williams, both of Winthrop college, spent Sunday in the city.

Capt. John W. Carlisle and daughter, Mrs. E. B. Wofford, both of Spartanburg, are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. T. H. White.

LOST—Between Wylie mill and Rock Hill on Saluda road, one leather bag, four pillars and two tablets. Reward if returned to W. S. Wrenn, 129 Wilson street, Rock Hill, S. C. 11-22 1/2.

FOUND—A leather watch fob on York street. Initials "F. O. E." Apply to Ed Stratford, 101 West 11th St.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Whitelade, Miss Kittie Dunlap and Mr. Fred Dunlap returned to Rock Hill Sunday evening, after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. I. McD. Hood. Mrs. Fred Dunlap will be here for several days.

There will be a union Thanksgiving service of the congregations of the different city churches, Thursday morning at eleven o'clock, at the Presbyterian church. Rev. D. M. McLeod will preach the sermon and special collections will be taken for the orphanages supported by the different churches.

Miss Louise Atkinson from near Blakely was struck by a buggy yesterday and was right badly hurt. It was thought at first her hip was broken, but after the doctors made an examination they found that the hip was not broken, but that she was badly bruised.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Curston, of Greenwood, spent Sunday in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Latimer.

Miss Mary Patterson returned home yesterday from a visit of several weeks in New York.

K of P Oyster Smoker.

The K of P will have their oyster smoker next Monday night in the lodge room. A list will be circulated by Mr. J. G. L. White, the chairman of the committee on arrangements. We find out who will attend. Arrangements have been made for an enjoyable affair and several speakers of local prominence will be present. Admissions will be made by Messrs. S. E. McFadden, J. H. Marion, and others and this will be an additional pleasure to those for whom we attend.

County Sunday School Convention.

The County Sunday School convention convened this morning in the Presbyterian church with a goodly number of delegates in attendance. The sessions were opened with devotional exercises led by the Rev. J. S. Snyder. Several interesting talks were made by the members and also by Messrs. F. W. Gregg, of Lowryville, and J. M. Ray, of Pelzer. Another session will be held this afternoon. Tonight's meeting will begin at 7:30 and will be held in the church. The convention is non denominational and is participated in by all the churches of the county. Interesting subjects will be discussed and those who attend will be benefited. The convention will continue through tomorrow.

Mr. Jones' Delightful Reception.

One of its most delightful receptions of the season was that one Saturday afternoon given by Mrs. S. M. Jones in honor of her visitors, Messrs. R. T. Berthrong, J. J. Edson and Fred Eichelberger, all of Washington. The reception lasted from 4 to 6 o'clock and was attended by more than 200 guests.

The Jones' residence never looked more beautiful than on this occasion. At the front door the guests were met by Miss Martha Bigham, who ushered them into the hall, where stood Mesdames John Williams, J. L. Glenn, A. M. Alken and Estie Harris.

In the receiving line stood Mesdames S. M. Jones, R. T. Berthrong, J. J. Edson, Fred Eichelberger, G. C. Latimer, W. E. Roberts, Gage, Albert Whitelade and Miss Annie Hardin. From here the guests passed into the dining room, where stood Mesdames Harvey Sumner and J. J. Stringfellow. The dining room looked lovely in white and green, these color decorations also being carried into the parlors.

In the library, which was decorated in pink and garnet, Mesdames G. W. Gage and J. N. Stringfellow received. Refreshments were served by four dainty little maids, Misses Mary Brown, Rebecca James, Ellen Hank and Bessie Hemphill. The heart was a perfect tower of beautiful flowers, the carnations and chrysanthemums together with the evergreens, creating out in perfect harmony the color scheme of white and green. As the guests entered the hall they were attracted by these lovely flowers and many admired the picture which they presented.

The Library Play.

The opera house was filled with a large audience Friday evening to enjoy the entertainment given for the benefit of the Patterson Public Library. The program was varied and the execution of it successful and pleasing. It was arranged by Mrs. Robert Hall, to whom the patrons of the library are very grateful for her interest and efficient management. The library was decorated with chrysanthemums and in the council chamber refreshments, furnished by friends of the public institution, were served.

The songs by Herman Hamilton and Bettie Hood were very pleasing. Adelaide Hood's violin solo was well executed and very enjoyable. Mrs. J. Q. Hood was the able accompanist for those youthful and talented performers. "Katie's Song" sung as a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Alken, was charming. These two singers are always greeted with pleasure in the hall and their artistic management. Miss Helen Hurd accompanied them and Miss Kate Glenn, who sang most charmingly Mendelger's serenade.

The sweethearts in "His Old Sweetheart," appeared in most attractive costumes and were as beautiful and enchanting to the audience as they had once been to the beholder.

His Old Sweetheart—Bebebor, David Hamilton, Bettie, Pearl Mitchell, Kate, Lela Sample, Blanche, Jess Harde, College Girl, Bessie White.

Blanche, Harriet Stringfellow, Clara, Marie Corwin, Soma, Lizzie Macanley, Legia, Maude Sledge, Mary, Fannie Gage, Gus, A. "Went" for You" was the next selection, sung by Mr. Alken after which "Grieg's 'Butterfly'" was played in a beautiful style by Miss Maude Eberhardt. Beede's Lullaby sung by Rev. S. J. Cartledge was merited applause from the audience. Mrs. Alken sang sympathetically Tost's "Cord L."

Christy pictures were presented as tableaux—every picture was beautiful and the poses graceful and the Chester girls and men's faces were found as interesting as those of Christy.

CURRENT PROLOGUES: Afternoon—The Bushy Hair, Maggie Edwards, Bell Hood. The Ring—Irving Jones. The Athlete Girl—Allene Colvin, Lela Sample, Alice Glenn. At the Play—Athalia Bowler, Will Murray.

She held a Rose—Margaret Young. A Young Lawyer Arguing His First and Most Important Case—Irving Jones, Kate McClure.

THE END—Lillian Carter. Usable on Wed.—Fannie Gage. The program announced at $4.15.
