Fall Adjunct Training Classes

Adjunct Faculty: Interested in some training, as well as a raise in pay (if eligible)?

In Fall 2017, we will again be offering our two training classes for VC adjuncts:

- Foundations of Online Teaching: for new adjuncts (as determined by your chair)
- Advanced Concepts in Online Teaching: for adjuncts with a bit of experience (as determined by your chair)

Both of these shells will open on September 4 and close on October 16. Faculty are welcome to complete the requirements at their own pace, as long as they complete the course by October 16.

Both courses offer, as compensation for completion, a promotion to the next level of adjunct pay ($200/three-hour class increase). This pay increase takes effect the semester after completion. However, an adjunct who completes the Foundations course must wait a year before taking the Advanced course. In other words, if you complete the Foundations course in Summer 2017, you would be eligible to take the Advanced course in Summer 2018. Also, the adjunct salary cap remains in effect. So, if you are currently capped on pay, you are welcome to take a training class, but will not be eligible for an increase.

Additionally, the courses are somewhat customizable, comprised of both required modules and elective modules, so that you can choose the content that best fits your training needs. This fall's sections include modules on Anticipatory Sets (new as of Summer 2017) and Writing Sound Test Questions (new as of Fall 2017).

Chair approval is required for either course. To enroll in either course, please ask your department chair to email Nicole Frank at nmfrank@fhsu.edu and request that you be added to the appropriate class.

Novels 4 Hope

Diversity Book Club is a dynamic book club bringing students, faculty, and staff together to explore current social justice issues & diversity topics.

The Office of Inclusion and Diversity Excellence will be hosting the club in reading four books throughout the year. The book selection is a mixture of fiction & non-fiction literature to appeal to a variety of demographics.

The following is this year's book selection and when they will be read: Density of Souls (September & October), Same Kind of Different as Me (October & November), The New Jim Crow (January & February) and HISPANIC (March & April).

You can participate in one, two, three, or all four readings throughout the year. Being a part of the club does not mean you have to join us for every novel.

The first 30 people to sign-up will receive a free copy of the novel and a diversity cup. We will send an email confirmation with more information once you register. Our purpose for Novels 4 Hope is to keep conversation continuous on campus amongst students, faculty, & staff on issues of race, religion, ethnicity, sexuality, and gender.

Sign up for Novels 4 Hope can be found on Tiger Link and email diversity@fhsu.edu if you have any questions.

Proper Email Usage

Since the start of the semester, Technology Services has received several questions in regards to email usage. Most of the questions that have come in can be addressed by the FHSU email policy.

So, as a reminder to everyone, here is the main part of the FHSU email policy:

Official FHSU e-mail accounts are provided for currently employed faculty and staff and certain University affiliates. The official FHSU e-mail account for faculty and staff is in the form [TigerNetID]@fhsu.edu. These accounts must be activated before the University can correspond with its faculty and staff using the official e-mail accounts. Faculty and staff official e-mail addresses will be included in directory information.

The official FHSU e-mail account is the only electronic mail platform for communicating University business. Official e-mail communications are intended only to meet the academic and administrative needs of the campus community.

All electronic notifications from the University are transmitted through the official FHSU e-mail account. Faculty and staff are expected to read, and shall be presumed to have received and read, all FHSU e-mail messages sent to their Official FHSU e-mail accounts. The University expects that such communications will be received and read in a timely fashion.

Faculty and staff are not to forward their official @fhsu.edu e-mail to another vendor for themselves including their @mail.fhsu.edu Google account.

The complete policy can be found at <http://www.fhsu.edu/policies/info-access/> and then clicking on E-mail policy. If you still have questions regarding the policy, please send those to Mark Griffin at magriffin2@fhsu.edu.
