MR. DE LANO, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill H. R. 3583.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 3583) granting a pension to Samuel Wyrick, have considered the same and report:

The claimant was a private in Capt. Darrell Smith's company, Col. R. Goodwyn's regiment of Georgia Mounted Volunteers, from February 17, 1836, to May 6, 1836. This service was in the Indian war then under way. The claimant asks a pension at the same rate as is allowed by law for service in the war of 1812.

The claimant is seventy-nine years old, very feeble, and very much in want, and has a large helpless family. These facts are vouched for by Mr. McRae, the gentleman who introduced the bill in the House.

The committee, believing that this class of applications for relief by Congressional enactment is a meritorious one, respectfully recommend the passage of the bill.
