DURHAM, NH – A majority of Granite Staters continue to approve of the job Chris Sununu is doing as governor and he continues to be broadly popular. Sununu holds leads over three prospective Democratic opponents for the Governor's election in the Fall. However, four-fifths are still trying to decide whom they will vote for and many are unfamiliar with three potential Democratic candidates. A majority of New Hampshire residents continue to see drug abuse as the most important problem facing the state.

These findings are based on the latest Granite State Poll, conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center. Five hundred and twenty-three (523) randomly selected New Hampshire adults were interviewed by landline and cellular telephone between January 28 and February 10, 2018. The margin of sampling error for the survey is +/- 4.3 percent. Included were three hundred and eighty-one (381) likely 2018 general election voters (MSE = +/- 5.0%).

Gubernatorial Approval

A year into his term as governor, a majority of Granite Staters continue to approve of Governor Chris Sununu's job performance; 61% approve, 17% disapprove, and 21% neither approve nor disapprove or are unsure. Sununu's job approval is unchanged since the previous quarter (61% approval).

Granite State Poll Methodology

These findings are based on the latest Granite State Poll, conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center. Five hundred and twenty-three (523) randomly selected New Hampshire adults were interviewed in English by landline and cellular telephone between January 28 and February 10, 2018. The margin of sampling error for the survey is +/- 4.3 percent. These MSE's have not been adjusted for design effect. Included were three hundred and eighty-one (381) likely 2018 general election voters (MSE = +/- 5.0%). The design effect for the survey is 1.3%.

The random sample used in the Granite State Poll was purchased from Marketing Systems Group (MSG), Horsham, PA. MSG screens each selected telephone number to eliminate non-working numbers, disconnected numbers, and business numbers to improve the efficiency of the sample, reducing the amount of time interviewers spend calling non-usable numbers. When a landline number is reached, the interviewer randomly selects a member of the household by asking to speak with the adult currently living in the household who has had the most recent birthday. This selection process ensures that every adult (18 years of age or older) in the household has an equal chance of being included in the survey.

The data have been weighted to adjust for numbers of adults and telephone lines within households. Additionally, data were weighted by respondent sex, age, education, and region of the state to targets from the most recent American Community Survey (ACS) conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau. In addition to potential sampling error, all surveys have other potential sources of non-sampling error including question order effects, question wording effects, and non-response. Due to rounding, percentages may not sum to 100%. The number of respondents in each demographic below may not equal the number reported in cross-tabulation tables as some respondents choose not to answer some questions.

For more information about the methodology used in the Granite State Poll, contact Dr. Andrew Smith at (603) 862-2226 or by email at andrew.smith@unh.edu.
